Re: Labor Code § 2698, et seq. Penalties – PAGA Notice Letter to the LWDA
*Adesanya v. San Joaquin Community Hospital, et al.

Gentlepersons:

This office represents Plaintiff Babatunde Adesanya (“Plaintiff”) and other similarly situated aggrieved non-exempt employees (collectively “Aggrieved Employees”) for violations of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, and 2699, et seq.; provisions of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) Wage Order(s); and California Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (“the Act”). Plaintiff would like to bring a representative action, pursuant to the Act, on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, against Defendants, San Joaquin Community

Hospital dba Adventist Health Bakersfield; Adventist Health; and DOES 1 through 50 inclusive (all defendants being referred to herein collectively as “Defendants”).

Additionally, this correspondence will serve to satisfy the notice requirements under the Act, along with a copy of Plaintiff’s Class Action Complaint, which is attached to this Notice letter. The Complaint is being concurrently filed in Kern County Superior Court and will be assigned a local case number. The Complaint allegations and claims are incorporated into this Notice Letter.

We also set forth herein the facts and theories and the California Labor Code violations which Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of their Aggrieved Employees in California. The attached Class Action Complaint provides the details of Plaintiff’s class-wide claims and claims under the Act, and the applicable California law governing them. It, along with this Notice Letter, addresses in detail numerous violations that subject Defendants to civil and statutory penalties under the Act.

Relevant Facts

Aggrieved Employees were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees within the state of California within the statutory time period who suffer or suffered from the same wage and hour violations outlined below. Defendants had a common policy and/or practice of failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages for all hours worked.

Additionally, Aggrieved Employees were not paid for the time that they worked “pre-shift” by helping patients, undergoing COVID-19 temperature checks and filing out questionnaires, and donning protective gear, including a mask, gloves, and a gown. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees also worked off-the-clock without compensation by getting a COVID-19 nasal swab test once a month, getting COVID-19 vaccinations, and completing required trainings, including orientation and video trainings. Thus, Aggrieved Employees were required to work hours, under the control of Defendants, without wages.

Because of the foregoing understatement of hours worked, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees proper overtime wages. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees consistently worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, and/or forty (40) hours a week. However, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day. Moreover, the uncompensated time, discussed above, was worked by Aggrieved Employees in excess of 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours a week, further entitling Aggrieved Employees overtime wages which they were consistently denied, all in violation of Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

Defendants had a common policy and/or practice of denying Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees proper meal periods. Specifically, what meal periods Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did take, were consistently taken well after their fifth consecutive hour of work, in violation of Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders. Similarly, Aggrieved Employees were required to work in excess of ten (10) hours a day, without ever receiving a second meal compliant period, all in violation of Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

Defendants have consistently failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with paid rest breaks of not less than 10 minutes for every work period of 4 or more consecutive hours, as required by Labor Code.

Defendants consistently failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements as required by Labor Code § 226(a). Specifically, the wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees failed to accurately account for unpaid wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods and rest breaks. The wage statements provided to Aggrieved Employees were confusing and required Aggrieved Employees to refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Aggrieved Employees.

Moreover, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees all wages owed at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation as required by Labor Code §§ 201-203. Defendants also consistently failed to pay Aggrieved Employees all wages due on a semi-monthly basis.

PAGA Claim Details, Legal Bases for Violations and Penalties:

As addressed above Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees complain of the following violations committed by Defendants:

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages for all hours worked. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” states, “[t]he minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.” The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the relevant period is found in the Wage Orders.

In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum wage for all hours worked, including under Labor Code § 1197, IWC Wage Order MW-2014, and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), and 4(A)-4(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders. Paragraph 2(H) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders defines “Hours Worked” as “the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.” Additionally, pursuant to Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” states: “The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.” The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: “Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit."

As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also, California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate, or at the minimum rate in the absence of a contractually agreed upon one. The underpayment of wages to Aggrieved Employees is and has been a direct consequence of Defendants' unlawful compensation policies and practices, which applied uniformly to the Aggrieved Employees working at locations and work sites throughout California.

Defendants thus failed to pay Employees minimum wages they were owed, including by their consistent policy of failing to pay Employees for all hours worked. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were not paid for the time that they worked "pre-shift" by helping patients, undergoing COVID-19 temperature checks and filing out questionnaires, and donning protective gear, including a mask, gloves, and a gown. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees also worked off-the-clock without compensation by getting a COVID-19 nasal swab test once a month, getting COVID-19 vaccinations, and completing required trainings, including orientation and video trainings. Thus, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work hours without wages. Additionally, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. In light of the forgoing, the Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties. Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a). Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees further request recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory and civil penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other applicable statutes, including pursuant to Labor Code § 558, and Wage Order provisions. To the extent minimum wage compensation is determined to be owed to the Aggrieved Employees who have terminated their employment, Defendants' conduct also violates Labor Code §§ 201 and/or 202, and therefore these individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under California Labor Code § 203, which penalties are sought herein on behalf of these Aggrieved Employees. Defendants' failure to timely pay all wages owed also violated Labor Code § 204 and resulted in violations of Labor Code § 226 because they resulted in the issuance of inaccurate wage statements. Defendants' conduct as alleged herein was willful, intentional and not in good faith. Further, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to seek and recover statutory costs.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime in Violation of Labor Code § 510

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees earned wages and overtime. Specifically, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees consistently worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, and/or forty (40) hours a week. However, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day. Moreover, the uncompensated time, discussed above including the time they worked: (1) “pre-shift” by helping patients, undergoing COVID-19 temperature checks and filing out questionnaires, and donning protective gear, including a mask, gloves, and a gown and (2) off-the-clock by getting a COVID-19 nasal swab test once a month, getting COVID-19 vaccinations, and completing required trainings, including orientation and video trainings, caused Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours a week, further entitling Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to overtime wages which they were consistently denied, all in violation of Labor Code § 510 and applicable Wage Orders.

Defendants have violated Labor Code § 1194 and Labor Code § 510 (and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A) and 4(A)-4(B) of the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a workday or in excess of forty hours in any workweek or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of twelve hours in any one day or for hours worked in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Employees wages for all hours worked, including by requiring off the clock work as addressed above and by under-reporting actual hours worked. With work shifts generally requiring eight hours or more of work on a given day, this unpaid off the clock work resulted in Aggrieved Employees working past eight hours on a shift or more than forty hours in a week, which required that they be paid at the correct overtime rate of 1.5 times their regular rate.

When considered in combination with the other wage violations addressed above, Aggrieved Employees were not properly compensated, nor were they paid overtime and double time rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours or twelve hours in a given day, and/or forty hours in a given week. Defendants did not make available to Aggrieved Employees a reasonable protocol for correcting time records when Aggrieved Employees worked overtime hours or to fix incorrect time entries or those that Defendants unlawfully under-recorded to the Aggrieved Employees' detriment. Defendants have also violated these provisions by requiring Plaintiff and other similarly situated Aggrieved Employees to work through meal periods when they were required to be clocked out or to otherwise work off the clock to complete their daily job duties.

In light of the forgoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1174, 1194, 1198, 1199, and the relevant paragraphs of the IWC Wage Orders, including paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A), 4, and

20. Defendants are liable to Aggrieved Employees for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Meal-Period Liability Under Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and Penalties

Defendants have regularly required Aggrieved Employees to work shifts in excess of five hours without providing them with timely meal periods of not less than thirty minutes as required under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and paragraph 11 of the applicable Wage Orders. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were forced to incur shortened meal periods, were provided with meal periods late and well after the fifth hour of work, could not be relieved to take their meal periods, or were required to remain on-duty at all times and were unable to take off-duty meal periods or were otherwise not provided with the opportunity to take required meal periods.

On the occasions when Aggrieved Employees were provided with a meal period, it was often untimely, in violation of the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders. On shifts over ten hours, second meal periods were not provided. Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Aggrieved Employee's effective regular rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided, including by miscalculating any premium payments they did make. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one hour of wages at their correctly calculated regular rate of compensation for each meal period not provided or deficiently provided, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code, including Labor Code § 558 and other applicable statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages as available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, 2699(f)(2) and 2699.5, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7 and Penalties

Defendants have consistently failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with paid rest breaks of not less than ten minutes for every work period of four or more consecutive hours, as required under Labor Code § 226.7.

Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided, or miscalculated any premiums paid. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 12 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one hour of wages at their correctly calculated regular rate of compensation for each rest period not provided or deficiently provided, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code, including Labor Code § 558 and other applicable statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages as available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Issue Accurate and Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Labor Code § 226

California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each employee with an accurate, itemized wage statements in writing. These statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a), Aggrieved Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. The wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees, by Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods and rest breaks. The wage statements provided to Aggrieved Employees were confusing and required Aggrieved Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct and potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Aggrieved Employees.

In light of these violations, and pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and paragraphs 4(b), 7, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage

Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ..."

Failure to Issue Semimonthly Payments in Violation of Labor Code § 204

In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees wages, overtime, premium pay, etc., and failing to provide them with checks and wage statements, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as well as the meal and rest periods taken by Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and the applicable IWC wage orders.

Defendants also required Aggrieved Employees to work hours off the clock for which they were not compensated, including during interrupted or otherwise on-duty meal and rest periods. Therefore, when Aggrieved Employees received wage statements and pay checks, they did not compensate all hours worked on a timely basis, resulting in Defendants' systematic failure to pay all wages owed to Aggrieved Employees twice monthly in accordance with the requirements of Labor Code § 204. Additionally, by not providing wage statements as required under section 204, Defendants systematically violated Labor Code § 204 and § 226.

Given the above described off the clock work, Plaintiff was not paid at the correct overtime rate for all hours she worked after eight hours into a shift or over forty in a work week and was not paid all double time owed either. Defendants' uniformly applied payroll policies and practices thus resulted in further systematic and ongoing violations of the requirements of Labor Code § 204.

In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties, interest, fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201.3, 210, 218.5, 558, and 1194. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime and off the clock work, by not providing proper meal and rest periods, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failing to pay Employees wages upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and paragraph 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, entitling Aggrieved Employees to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 203, 204, 2926, 2927, and 2699.5 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Keep Records In Accordance With Labor Code § 1174

Labor Code § 1174 requires employers to keep records showing payroll data and the hours worked daily and the wages paid to employees. By failing to pay Aggrieved Employees proper wages, overtime, double time, premium pay, etc., all discussed herein, Defendants failed to maintain proper employment records in accordance with Section 1174. In light of the forgoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1174.5 and 2699, et seq. Defendants have also failed to comply with paragraph 7 of the applicable California IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period, meal periods, wages earned pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, and total daily hours worked by itemizing in wage statements all deductions from payment of wages and accurately reporting total hours worked by the Aggrieved Employees, and they are entitled to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, 1198, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Waiting Time Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203

Some Aggrieved Employees no longer work for Defendants; they either resigned or were terminated from Defendants' employ. Based on the forgoing, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages earned by and owed to Aggrieved Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two hours of their resignation, as required by California under Labor Code § 203. In light of the forgoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558 and further specifically seek penalties and wages under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Unfair Competition Under Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

Consequently, Defendants' conduct has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees and the general public in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

Plaintiff's PAGA Claim under Labor Code § 2698 et seq. and Recovery Bases:

After complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code § 2699.3 and the running of the notice period after the filing of the Class Action Complaint, Plaintiff will file an amended Complaint asserting, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney General and the other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees seek penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants' violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5, including the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California Labor Code sections: §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, and 2699, et seq., including as follows:

(a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime premium wages for overtime hours worked under Labor Code §§ 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1);

(b) Meal and Rest Period Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees off-duty, timely, and unpaid meal periods and failure to authorize and permit them to take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1);

(c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with wage statements or with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code §226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to “a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ...”;

(d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1);

(e) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders constituting violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code § 2699.5, and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

We have been constrained to initially move forward with the filing of the Complaint, alleging the causes of action discussed herein, without the PAGA claim. Thus, any action by the LWDA would not resolve the entirety of the case, and the interest of judicial economy will be served by allowing the case to proceed as a cohesive whole.

This letter therefore provides the requisite notice under the Act to the LWDA and Defendants by setting forth the specific provisions of the Labor Code and related provisions Plaintiff alleges have been violated, including the facts and relevant theories alleged against San Joaquin Community Hospital dba Adventist Health Bakersfield, Adventist Health, and any other named Defendants and joint employers. To prevent the violations described herein from occurring, and to remedy past violations, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the LWDA conduct an investigation into Defendants’ employment practices in accordance with the Act.

Wherefore we request that you advise us, by certified mail within sixty days of the postmark on this letter, whether you intend to proceed with these claims or whether Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees should include them in an amended Labor Code § 2698 et seq. claim under the Act in an amended Complaint.

Hon.

Dept.:

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
2. Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime Under Labor Code § 510;
3. Meal-Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7;
4. Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7;
5. Violation of Labor Code § 226(a);
6. Failure to Keep Required Payroll; Records Under Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;
7. Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203; and
8. Violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff BABATUNDE ADESANYA, (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself and 2 all others similarly situated (collectively, “Employees”; individually, “Employee”) complains of 3 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all current and former 6 Employees within the State of California who, at any time four (4) years prior to the filing of this
7 lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt, hourly employees by Defendants SAN JOAQUIN
8 COMMUNITY HOSPITAL dba ADVENTIST HEALTH BAKERSFIELD, a California non-
9 profit corporation; ADVENTIST HEALTH, an entity of unknown form; and DOES 1 through 50
10 (all defendants being collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”). Plaintiff alleges that 11 Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of the California Labor Code, relevant
12 orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) and California Business & Professions Code, 13 and seeks redress therefore.

14 2. Plaintiff is a resident of California and during the time period relevant to this 15 Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within the State of 16 California at Defendants’ facilities and offices in California. Plaintiff and the other Class members
17 worked for Defendants in Kern County, and in other nonexempt positions, throughout California
18 and, and consistently worked at Defendants’ behest without being paid all wages due. More 19 specifically, Plaintiff and the other similarly situated Class members were employed by 20 Defendants and worked at Defendants’ offices and other facilities where the conduct giving rise to 21 the allegations in this Class Action Complaint occurred. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff
22 was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities, (2) was 23 subjected to the same policies and practices, and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of 24 Defendants as the other Employee Class members who served in similar and related positions.

25 3. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class to perform work
26 while remaining under Defendants’ control before and after being on the clock for their daily work
27 shift. Defendants thus failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours worked and 28 provided them with inaccurate wage statements that prevented Plaintiff and the Class from

1 learning of these unlawful pay practices. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class
2 with lawful meal and rest periods, as employees were not provided with the opportunity to take
3 timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal and rest periods as required by the Labor Code.

4 THE PARTIES

5 A. The Plaintiff

6 4. Plaintiff BABATUNDE ADESANYA has resided in California and during the time
7 period relevant to this Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee
8 within the State of California.

9 B. The Defendants

10 5. Defendant SAN JOAQUIN COMMUNITY HOSPITAL dba ADVENTIST
11 HEALTH BAKERSFIELD, is a California nonprofit corporation with its principle executive
12 offices in Bakersfield, California and has been listed as the employer on Plaintiff's paystubs
13 during the relevant time period. SAN JOAQUIN COMMUNITY HOSPITAL dba ADVENTIST
14 HEALTH BAKERSFIELD lists a California address in Bakersfield, California with the California
15 Secretary of State, and employs Plaintiff and the Class members at Defendants' offices and 16 facilities in Bakersfield, California, and throughout California and conducts business throughout 17 California.

18 6. Defendant ADVENTIST HEALTH is an entity of unknown form with its principle
19 executive offices in Bakersfield, California and has been listed as the employer on Plaintiff's
20 paystubs during the relevant time period. ADVENTIST HEALTH does not list a California
21 address with the California Secretary of State, but upon information and belief, employs Plaintiff
22 and the Class members at Defendants' offices and facilities in Bakersfield, California, and 23 throughout California and conducts business throughout California.

24 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 25 whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently 26 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of 27 Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants
28 designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in

1 some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend
2 this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as 3 Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

4 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in 5 all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried 6 out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of 7 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in 8 all respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them,
9 exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or 10 permitted Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment
11 relationship, with Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly 12 employed Employees.

13 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14 9. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil 15 Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought 16 as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Employees of Defendants pursuant to California
17 Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial district
18 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, the 19 obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred at least in part in Kern County and 20 Defendants maintain and operate company offices and facilities in Kern County and employ
21 Plaintiff and other Class members in Kern County and throughout California.

22 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

23 10. The Employees who comprise the Class and Collective, including Plaintiff, are 24 nonexempt employees pursuant to the applicable Wage Order of the IWC. Defendants hire 25 Employees who work in nonexempt positions at the direction of Defendants in the State of 26 California. Plaintiff and the Class members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours
27 worked or were not paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Specifically,
28 Plaintiff and Employees were not paid for the time that they worked “pre-shift” without

1 compensation by helping patients, undergoing COVID-19 temperature checks and filing out
2 questionnaires, and donning protective gear, including a mask, gloves, and a gown. Plaintiff and
3 Employees also worked off-the-clock without compensation by getting a COVID-19 nasal swab
4 test once a month, getting COVID-19 vaccinations, and completing required trainings, including 5 orientation and video trainings. Plaintiff also contends that Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff, and 6 the Class members all wages due and owing, failed to provide meal and rest breaks, and failed to 7 furnish accurate wage statements, all in violation of various provisions of the California Labor
8 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

9 11. During the course of Plaintiff and the Class members' employment with 10 Defendants, they were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed and 11 for all overtime hours worked and were forced to work during their meal and rest breaks.

12 12. As a matter of uniform Company policy, Plaintiff and the Class members were 13 required to work during their meal and rest breaks which were not compensated by Defendants in 14 violation of the California Labor Code. Plaintiff and the Class members were also not paid
15 regular wages and overtime for the time they were required to comply with other requirements
16 imposed upon them, which they had to complete while working through their meal and rest
17 breaks and without compensation. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked shifts over 18 eight (8) hours in a day and over forty (40) hours in a work week, but they were not paid at the 19 appropriate overtime rate for all such hours, including by being required to perform work duties
20 and tasks without pay and while off-the-clock. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members
21 worked substantial overtime hours during their employment with Defendants for which they were 22 not compensated, in violation of the California Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

23 13. As a result of the above described daily work demands and pressures to work
24 through breaks, and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants' hands, Plaintiff and the 25 Class members were not properly paid for all wages earned and for all wages owed to them by 26 Defendants, including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than 27 forty (40) hours in any given week. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices,
28 Plaintiff and Class members incurred overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately

1 and completely compensated. To the extent applicable, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and
2 the Class members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for the first eight hours of the 3 seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the rate of 2 times the regular 4 rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work day, as required under the 5 Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

6 14. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
7 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
8 Employees for all hours worked and failing to pay minimum wage for all time worked as required
9 by California Law.

10 15. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
11 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
12 Employees overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all hours worked in excess of 13 eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time rates for all hours worked in 14 excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510 and the corresponding 15 sections of IWC Wage Orders.

16 16. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 17 continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Employees to work shifts in excess 18 of five (5) hours without providing them with timely meal periods of not less than thirty (30)
19 minutes and shifts in excess of ten (10) hours without providing them with second meal periods of 20 not less than thirty minutes; nor did Defendants pay Employees “premium pay,” i.e. one hour of 21 wages at each Employee’s effective regular rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants 22 failed to provide or deficiently provided.

23 17. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 24 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with paid rest breaks of not less
25 than ten (10) minutes for every work period of four (4) or more consecutive hours; nor did
26 Defendant pay Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not 27 provided or were deficiently provided at one hour of wages at each Employee’s effective regular 28 rate of pay, for each rest period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

1 18. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
2 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
3 accurate, and itemized wage statements as required by California wage-and-hour laws.
4 Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees by Defendants failed to accurately account
5 for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal periods and rest breaks all of which 6 Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were owed to Employees, as alleged 7 hereinabove. The wage statements provided to Employees were confusing and required
8 Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was 9 correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees.

10 19. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
11 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
12 accurate, and itemized wage statements, in writing, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

13 20. Additionally, from at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 14 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to keep accurate time and wage 15 records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

16 21. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing 17 to the present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages fur and owed to 18 Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 19 required by California wage-and-hour laws.

20 22. In light of the foregoing, Employees bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor
21 Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12,
22 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, and 1199.

23 23. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, 24 Employees seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have 25 enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code.

26 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

27 24. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and all others similarly 28 situated pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as

1 follows: all individuals employed by Defendants within the State of California at any time within 2 four (4) years of the filing of this lawsuit.

3 25. Further, Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Subclasses composed of and 4 defined as follows:

5 a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not 6 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

7 b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class members who were not
8 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all 9 hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

10 e. Subclass 3. Meal Period Subclass. All Class members who were subject to 11 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-
12 free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

13 f. Subclass 4. Rest Break Subclass. All Class members who were subject to 14 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Employees to take 15 uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction
16 thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

17 g. Subclass 5. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to 18 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required
19 by California wage-and-hour laws.

20 h. Subclass 6. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class members who, within the 21 applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

22 i. Subclass 7. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class members who, within the 23 applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment
24 and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon 25 termination.

26 j. Subclass 8. UCL Subclass. All Class members who are owed restitution as a
27 result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to 28 be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

1 26. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or 2 modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or 3 limitation to particular issues.

4 27. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
5 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community
6 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

7 A. Numerosity

8 28. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all 9 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class members has not been 10 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 11 time period relevant to this lawsuit, employed more than 100 individuals within the State of 12 California.

13 29. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 14 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 15 information as to the number and location of all class members.

16 B. Commonality

17 30. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any 18 questions affecting only individual class members. These common questions of law and fact 19 include:

- 20 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages;
21 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees wages for all hours worked;
22 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees overtime as required under Labor
23 Code § 510;
24 d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable
25 IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite meal periods or 26 premium pay in lieu thereof;
27 e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage
28 Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite rest breaks or premium pay

1 in lieu thereof;

2 f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a);

3 g. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;

4 h. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay
5 wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;

6 i. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and

7 j. Whether Employees are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and 8 Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

9 C. Typicality

10 31. The claims of the named plaintiff are typical of those of the other Employees.

11 Employees all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common 12 course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of 13 law, as alleged herein.

14 D. Adequacy of Representation

15 32. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Employees.

16 Counsel who represents Employees are experienced and competent in litigating employment class 17 actions.

18 E. Superiority of Class Action

19 33. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient

20 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Employees is not practicable, and 21 questions of law and fact common to all Employees predominate over any questions affecting only 22 individual Employees. Each Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of 23 Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Employees properly.

24 34. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their 25 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.

26 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class action.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Against All Defendants)

35. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

36. Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Employees time records and failing to pay Employees for all hours worked. Employees would work hours and not receive wages, including as alleged above in connection with working during meal breaks and working “pre-shift” by helping patients, undergoing COVID-19 temperature checks and filing out questionnaires, and donning protective gear, including a mask, gloves, and a gown. Plaintiff and Employees also worked off-the-clock without compensation by getting a COVID-19 nasal swab test once a month, getting COVID-19 vaccinations, and completing required trainings, including orientation and video trainings.. Additionally, Defendants had a consistent policy of failing to pay Employees for hours worked during alleged meal periods for which Employees were consistently denied, as also addressed herein. Defendants thus regularly failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class members. Moreover, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants’ uniform pattern of unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a whole, as a result of implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate compensation to Plaintiff and the other members of the Class as to minimum wage pay.

37. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” states:

The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

38. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the relevant period is found in the Wage Orders. Pursuant to the Wage Orders, Employees are therefore entitled to double the minimum wage during the relevant period.

1 39. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private
2 civil action pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a) which states:

3 Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any 4 employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 5 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 6 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of 7 this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest
8 thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

9 40. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages
10 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission.

11 41. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies:

12 In any action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of 13 the payment of a wage less than the minimum wages fixed by an 14 order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover
15 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully
16 unpaid and interest thereon.

17 42. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have 18 willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this 19 indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Employees.

20 43. Wherefore, Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages
21 (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum 22 wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant 23 to California Labor Code § 1194(a).

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 28 full herein.

 45. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code §
510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees:
(a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours worked

1 on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours
2 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of eight
3 (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not
4 paying Employees wages for all hours worked including time off the clock working “pre-shift”
5 by undergoing COVID-19 temperature checks and filing out questionnaires, and donning
6 protective gear, including a mask, gloves, and a gown, without compensation. Moreover, Plaintiff
7 and Employees also worked off-the-clock without compensation by getting a COVID-19 nasal
8 swab test once a month, getting COVID-19 vaccinations, and completing required trainings,
9 including orientation and video trainings. Employees regularly worked over 8 hours on a given 10 day without receiving overtime compensation.

11 46. Defendants’ failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a
12 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid
13 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct
14 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages 15 and overtime compensation earned by Employees. Each such failure to make a timely payment of 16 compensation to Employees constitutes a separate violation of California Labor Code § 204.

17 47. Employees have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code §§
18 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

19 48. Consequently, pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 204, 510, and 1194 (and the 20 relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission), Defendants are liable to Employees for 21 the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their 22 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

23 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

24 MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 49. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
27 full herein.

28 50. Employees regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and greater than ten

1 (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ someone for a shift of 2 more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of not less than thirty
3 (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or her with a second 4 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

5 51. Defendants failed to provide Employees with meal periods as required under the 6 Labor Code. Employees were consistently required to take meal periods after working well
7 beyond the five (5) hour shifts. Furthermore, Employees were regularly required to work for more
8 than 10 hours in a given shift without receiving a second uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal
9 period as required by law.

10 52. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each meal period not 11 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11 and 12 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an 13 employee a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one
14 hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period
15 is not provided. Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each meal period
16 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11
17 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

18 53. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 19 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal
20 period not provided or deficiently provided, a sum to be proven at trial.

21 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
25 full herein.

26 55. Employees consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts. Pursuant to the 27 Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order, Employees were entitled to paid rest breaks of 28 not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift.

1 56. Defendants failed to provide Employees with timely, off-duty rest breaks of not 2 less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift.

3 57. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each rest period not
4 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC
5 Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in 6 accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the 7 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.
8 Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each rest period not provided or 9 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage 10 Order.

11 58. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 12 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day
13 worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to be proven at trial.

14 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
15 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)
16 (Against All Defendants)

17 59. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 18 full herein.

19 60. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her
20 employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, 21 total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these 22 statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else
23 serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these 24 statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the 25 employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

26 61. Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in 27 writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees, by 28 Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal

1 periods and rest breaks, all of which Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were 2 owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. The wage statements provided to Employees were 3 confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify
4 whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees.

5 62. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a),
6 Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received 7 all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and 8 forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact 9 compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

10 63. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e), Employees are entitled to recover
11 the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation
12 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not 13 exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an 14 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

15 64. With respect to violations of Labor Code § 226, Labor Code § 226.3 imposes a 16 civil penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for initial violations for each employee for 17 each pay period, and one thousand dollars ($1000) for each subsequent violation for each 18 employee for each pay period.

19 65. Plaintiff is seeking penalties against Defendants under Labor Code § 226.3, and 20 any other applicable statute allowing recovery of penalties as alleged herein in an amount to be 21 shown according to proof.

22 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE §§ 1174

24 AND 1174.5

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 66. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
27 full herein.

28 67. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time

1 and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any 2 employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek 3 damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

4 68. During the course of Plaintiff's and Employees' employment, Defendants
5 consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Employees as 6 required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Employees proper wages,
7 overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

8 69. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California
9 Labor Code § 1174.5. for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

10 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
11 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203
12 (Against All Defendants)

13 70. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
14 full herein.

15 71. Numerous Employees are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit
16 Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

17 72. Defendants failed to pay these Employees all wages due and certain at the time of 18 termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

19 73. The wages withheld from these Employees by Defendants remained due and owing 20 for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation of employment.

21 74. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged above, was willful in that Defendants
22 knew wages to be due but failed to pay them; this violation entitles these Employees to penalties
23 under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up 24 to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

25 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
26 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.
27 (Against All Defendants)

28 75. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in

1 full herein.

2 76. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, Employees, and the general public, brings this claim
3 pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as alleged in 4 this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Employees and the 5 general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 6 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

7 77. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code
8 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive
9 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

10 78. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair
11 business practices.

12 79. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 13 wages and overtime, providing them with meal and rest periods, etc., are fundamental public
14 policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State vigorously 15 to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to 16 work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their 17 employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to comply with minimum 18 labor standards.

19 80. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 20 in this Complaint, Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 21 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 22 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Defendants’ conduct has deprived
23 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and 24 privileges guaranteed to all employees under the law.

25 81. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 26 violation of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

27 82. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 28 overtime, failing to provide meal and rest periods, etc., either knew or in the exercise of reasonable

1 care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct violates the 2 Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

3 83. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Employees have 4 been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

5 84. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in such
6 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court
7 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be 8 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 9 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 10 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Employees to the money Defendants 11 have unlawfully failed to pay.

12 RELIEF REQUESTED

13 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 14 1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
- 15 2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work
16 performed by Employees and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior to 17 the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 18 3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and 19 interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
- 20 4. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees
21 for each missed or deficient meal period where no premium pay was paid therefor from four (4)
22 years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 23 5. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees
24 for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided and where no
25 premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may 26 be proven;
- 27 6. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Employees, as may be proven;
- 28 7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3, as may be proven;

1 8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Employees who quit or were 2 fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;

3 9. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, as may be proven;

4 10. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code
5 § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;

6 11. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and 7 all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or 8 duties adumbrated in this Complaint;

9 12. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;

10 13. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

11 14. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;

12 15. For an award of attorneys' fees; and 13 16. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.
