CASE NO.: CVRI2404553

Assigned to Hon. Harold W. Hopp

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY
APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

Hearing Information:

Date: July 2, 2025

Time: 8:30 a.m.

Dept.: 1

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, on 3 July 2, 2025, at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard by the Honorable Harold 4 W. Hopp in Department 1 of the Riverside County Superior Court, located at 4050 Main Street, 5 Riverside, CA 92501, Plaintiff Enrique Aguila, individually and on behalf of all others similarly 6 situated, will and hereby does move this Court for:

7 • Granting preliminary approval of the proposed class action settlement reached and 8 described herein and in the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for 9 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour”), including 10 the means of allocation and distribution of the Gross Settlement Amount and the Net Settlement
11 Amount, and the allocations for the Class Counsel attorneys’ fees and costs, Class Representative 12 Service Award, PAGA Payment, and Settlement Administration Costs;

13 • Certifying the proposed Class for settlement purposes only;

14 • Preliminarily appointing Plaintiff Enrique Aguila as Class Representative;

15 • Preliminarily appointing Mehrdad Bokhour of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. and Sam
16 Rezvani of Venture Law, P.C. as Class Counsel;

17 • Approving the Notice of Proposed Settlement of Class Action (“Class Notice”)
18 described herein and in the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour;

19 • Appointing ILYM Group (“ILYM”) as the Settlement Administrator to handle the 20 notice and administration process for the Settlement and preliminarily approving Settlement 21 Administration Costs;

22 • Directing ILYM to mail the Class Notice to the proposed Class;

23 • Approving the proposed deadlines for the notice and administration process as 24 reflected herein and in the Settlement Agreement; and

25 • Scheduling a hearing to consider final approval of the Settlement, at which time the 26 Court will also consider whether to grant final approval of the requests for the Class Counsel
27 attorneys’ fees and costs, Class Representative Service Payment, and Settlement Administration 28 Costs.

1 This motion is based upon this accompanying memorandum of points and authorities, the 2 settlement agreement, the Declarations of Mehrdad Bokhour and Sam Rezvani, Enrique Aguila,
3 and Lisa Mullins of ILYM Group, Inc., in support thereof, the pleadings and other records on file 4 with the Court in this matter, and such evidence and oral argument as may be presented at the 5 hearing on this motion.

6 Given the multiplicity of issues addressed in this Motion, Plaintiff respectfully requests that 7 the Court consider Plaintiff's entire memorandum of points and authorities.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

3 Plaintiff Enrique Aguila (“Plaintiff”) respectfully requests that this Court grant preliminary 4 approval of the Settlement (also referred to as “Agreement,” or “Settlement Agreement”) entered into 5 by and between Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the proposed Class, and Defendant Magnolia 6 Foods, LLC (“Defendant”).

7 Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff and Defendant (“Parties”) have agreed to settle this lawsuit 8 for a Gross Settlement Amount of $235,000 on a non-reversionary basis.¹ This amount is inclusive of 9 all payments contemplated in this Settlement, excluding any employer-side payroll taxes due on the 10 wage portion of the Individual Settlement Payments allocated as wages, which amount shall be 11 separately paid by Defendant to the Settlement Administrator. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 50.] All of the 12 Gross Settlement Amount will be disbursed pursuant to the Settlement Agreement without the need to 13 submit a claim form and none of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. [Settlement
14 Agreement ¶ 51.]

15 The Parties reached the Settlement after engaging in extensive informal discovery, 16 investigations, and arm’s-length negotiations. The Settlement resulted from a formal mediation
17 conducted by Daniel Turner, Esq., a well-respected mediator who is experienced in wage-and-hour
18 class actions. The Settlement satisfies the criteria for approval and falls within the range of possible 19 approval under California law.

20 Additionally, the contemplated Class Notice provides the best notice practicable under the 21 circumstances and will allow each Class Member a full and fair opportunity to evaluate the Settlement 22 and decide whether to participate in it. Accordingly, Plaintiff moves the Court to grant preliminary 23 approval of the Settlement and the allocations for the Class Counsel Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, 24 Service Payment to Class Representative, and Settlement Administration Costs; certify the proposed 25 Class for settlement purposes; direct distribution of the Class Notice; and set a Final Approval Hearing 26 date.

27 ¹ The Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement” or Settlement Agreement”) is attached to the 28 Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour as Exhibit A.

1 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2 A. Procedural History

3 Plaintiff and the putative class members consisted of food processors, production line 4 workers, shipping and receiving clerks, supervisors, forklift drivers, warehouse associates, 5 maintenance and repair technicians, and all other non-exempt positions at Defendant's food
6 production and distribution facility in Jurupa Valley, California. ("Bokhour Decl.") ¶ 3.]

7 This Settlement settles the following Action filed on or about August 15, 2024, entitled Aguila
8 v. Magnolia Foods, LLC, filed in the Riverside County Superior Court and assigned case number 9 CVRI2404553. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 5.] Plaintiff asserted claims for (1) failure to pay minimum wages; 10 (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide compliant meal periods; (4) failure to 11 provide compliant rest breaks; (5) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; (6) failure to 12 pay due wages at separation of employment; (7) failure to provide accurate itemized wage 13 statements; (8) failure to pay sick pay wages; and (9) unfair competition ("Original Complaint").
14 [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 6.]. Also, on August, 15, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a letter to the Labor Workforce
15 Development Agency (the "LWDA") for civil penalties under the Private Attorney General Act of 2004 16 (the "PAGA"), and simultaneously sent a letter to Defendant requesting the production of personnel and 17 timekeeping records in order to further evaluate their wage and hour claims. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 7.].

18 Thereafter, Plaintiff's Counsel discovered the existence of two prior settled actions entitled 19 Margarita Urrutia v. Magnolia Foods, LLC, filed in San Bernardino Superior Court case number 20 CIVSB2324321, and Marisela Martinez de Ornelas v. Magnolia Foods, LLC, filed in San Bernadino
21 Superior Court case number CIVSB2308953 , that encompassed the claims asserted in Plaintiff's 22 Original Complaint. In order to preserve judicial time and resources, Plaintiff agreed to dismiss his class
23 claims without prejudice and pursue a PAGA-only action. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 8.]

24 Thus, on or about October 23, 2024, the Court approved Plaintiff's Request for Dismissal of 25 Class Claims Without Prejudice and Plaintiff filed a First Amended PAGA Representative Action
26 Complaint ("FAC"), alleging PAGA-claims only. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 9.]

27 On February 12, 2025, the Parties attended private mediation with a neutral mediator, Daniel 28 Turner, Esq. In preparation for the mediation,² the Parties informally exchanged documents and

1 information that allowed both sides to calculate the potential damages and evaluate potential risk, 2 including policies and procedures pertaining to each claim alleged, and statistics relating to the number 3 of current and former employees, number of shifts, pay periods worked and other things. Defendant also 4 provided its written policies and practices and a robust sampling of payroll and timekeeping records for 5 Class Members. This information enabled both parties to take a deep dive into the claims. Additionally,
6 during this process, Plaintiff and his counsel analyzed, researched, and investigated the potential issues, 7 including matters related to the calculation of damages, trial, and appellate issues and risks. Plaintiff also 8 retained an expert to perform a statistical analysis of the claims and violations. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 10.]

9 Through negotiations with the mediator's assistance, the Parties agreed to a tentative settlement
10 addressing PAGA representative and class action allegations against Defendant. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 11.]

11 On or about March 28, 2025, pursuant to the Parties' stipulation, the Court entered its Order
12 allowing Plaintiff to file a Second Amended Class Action and Representative PAGA Complaint
13 ("SAC"; the Original Complaint, FAC and SAC and referred to herein as the "Operative Complaint"), 14 re-asserting class claims initially asserted but subject to commencing such claims as of the end of the 15 Defendant liability release periods in the previously resolved prior actions. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 12.] On 16 or around April 8, 2025, Plaintiff filed a SAC. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 13.]

17 B. Plaintiff's Claims and Defendant's Defenses

18 Plaintiff's core allegations are that Defendant violated the California Labor Code, inter alia, by 19 failing to properly pay minimum and overtime wages, failing to provide compliant meal and rest periods 20 or pay associated premiums, failing to provide compliant wage statements, failing to adequately 21 reimburse incurred business expenses, failing to pay sick wages, and failing to timely pay final wages 22 upon separation of employment and during employment. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 14.] Plaintiff contends that 23 Defendant's conduct constitutes unfair business practices and gives rise to penalties under PAGA. Id.

24 Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's failure to properly pay all compensation due,
25 arises from, inter alia, Defendant's timekeeping practices and policies resulting in failure to account
26 for all hours worked and pay all wages. Id. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges he and the Class Members 27 were not compensated at least the minimum wage for all hours worked because, in part, they were 28 required to don and doff personal protective equipment (PPE) before clocking in and starting their

1 shifts and to remove the same after clocking out. These mandatory procedures resulted in 2 uncompensated time during which they were under the control of Defendant. Plaintiff further 3 alleges these employees were not properly compensated at the correct overtime rate for hours 4 worked beyond eight (8) hours per workday and/or forty (40) hours per workweek, due to 5 Defendant's uniform failure to correctly calculate the "regular rate of pay" for overtime, sick pay, 6 and missed meal premiums. Id. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant failed to provide code 7 compliant 30-minute off-duty meal periods due to its uniform meal period policies, rigid work 8 demands, and operational requirements, and that these employees were not provided with mandated 9 meal period premiums in lieu thereof. Id. Similarly, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to 10 provide two net 10-minute rest periods for each eight-hour shift and a third rest period for shifts 11 exceeding ten hours, in violation of California law. Id. As a result, Plaintiff contends that he and 12 the Class Members are entitled to, inter alia, unpaid wages, penalties (including and not limited to, 13 penalties pursuant to PAGA), and attorneys' fees. Id.

14 Defendant denies any liability of any kind associated with the claims and allegations and further 15 denies that Plaintiff or the Class Members are entitled to any relief. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 15.] Defendant 16 also denies that the Action is appropriate for class or representative treatment for any purpose other than 17 the Settlement. Id. Defendant maintains, among other things, that it has complied with California laws 18 in all respects. Id.

19 C. Discovery and Mediation

20 Prior to mediation, the Parties engaged in informal discovery during which Defendant produced 21 a sampling of timekeeping and payroll data, the relevant Employee Handbook, and wage and hour
22 policies in effect during the Class Period, as well as other documents and information. [Bokhour Decl., 23 ¶ 16.] Defendant's productions included hundreds of pages of documents and data. Id. Class 24 Counsel performed extensive damages and valuation analysis based on class data and a sampling of 25 time and pay data provided by Defendant. Id.

26 On February 12, 2025, the Parties participated in a private mediation before Daniel Turner, 27 Esq., a well-respected mediator with experience in handling complex wage-and-hour matters. [Bokhour 28 Decl., ¶ 17.] During the mediation, the Parties exchanged information and discussed various aspects of

1 the case, including but not limited to, Plaintiff’s claims on PAGA-wide and class-wide bases, the risks 2 and delays of further litigation and of proceeding with certification and/or representative adjudication, 3 the law relating to Plaintiff’s meal and rest periods, wage-and-hour enforcement, PAGA representative 4 claims, the evidence produced and analyzed, and the possibility of appeals, among other things. Id.

5 After a full-day mediation and the issuance of a mediator’s proposal, the Parties reached a 6 settlement. Id.

7 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

8 A. The Class for Settlement Purposes

9 For settlement purposes only, the Parties agree to certification of the following Class (individual 10 members of the Class are referred to as “Class Members”): All current and former hourly, non-exempt
11 employees of Defendant Magnolia Foods, LLC who worked as direct hires in the State of California 12 from March 16, 2024, through May 5, 2025 (the “Class Period”). The PAGA Employees means all 13 current and former hourly, non-exempt employees of Defendant Magnolia Foods, LLC who worked 14 as direct hires in the State of California from March 16, 2024, through May 5, 2025 (i.e., the 15 “PAGA Period”)” [Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 2, 4, 8 and 27.] There are approximately 264 Class
16 Members and 264 PAGA Employees. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 19.]

17 B. Essential Terms of the Settlement

18 Defendant will pay a Gross Settlement Amount of $235,000 on a non-reversionary basis. The 19 Net Settlement Amount means the amount remaining after deducting the following from the Gross
20 Settlement Amount: (1) The Class Counsel Fees Payment of up to one-third of the Gross Settlement
21 Amount (i.e., $78,333.33) and the Class Counsel Litigation Costs of up to Fifteen Thousand Dollars
22 ($15,000) to Class Counsel; (2) the Class Representative Service Award of up to Ten Thousand Dollars
23 ($10,000) to Plaintiff Enrique Aguila; (3) the PAGA Award² in the amount of Twenty Thousand 24 Dollars ($20,000); and (4) Settlement Administration Costs, which are currently estimated not to exceed 25 Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500). [Settlement Agreement ¶ 50.]

26 ² The Parties will seek approval from the Court for a PAGA Payment in the amount of $20,000 out of the Gross
27 Settlement Amount, which shall be allocated as follows: $13,000 (i.e., 65% of the PAGA Payment) as the LWDA’s 28 share for the settlement of civil penalties paid under this Agreement pursuant to the PAGA (the “LWDA Payment”) and $7,000 (i.e., 35% of the PAGA Payment) to the Net Settlement Amount to be available for distribution to the PAGA
Class Members.

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$235,000.00
Attorneys' Fees (33.33%)	$78,333.33
Litigation Costs (not to exceed)	$15,000.00
Administrator Costs (not to exceed)	$7,500.00
PAGA payment to LWDA (65% of 20k allocation)	$13,000.00
Plaintiff's Service Award	$10,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$104,166.67

Assuming the allocations towards these payments are awarded in full, the Net Settlement Amount that will be available to be allocated to Class Members who do not submit timely and valid Requests for Exclusion ("Participating Class Member(s)") is currently estimated to be at least ($104,166.67). The entire Net Settlement Amount will be distributed to Participating Class Members and PAGA Class Members, pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, and no portion shall revert to Defendant. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 51.]

The Settlement is based on Defendant's representations that there are approximately 8,625 Workweeks Worked by the Settlement Class Members during the period March 16, 2024 through February 12, 2025. In the event that the actual number of Workweeks Worked by all Settlement Class Members during the Class Period increases by more than 10%, then Defendant shall have the option to either: (i) increase the Gross Settlement Amount on a pro-rata basis equal to the percentage increase in the number of Workweeks Worked by the Class Members above 10% (for example, if the number of workweeks increases by 11%, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 1%) or (ii) shorten the Class Release Period to an earlier date at which only the represented number of workweeks plus 10% are covered by the Class Period. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 50(b).]

Calculation of Individual Settlement Shares

The Settlement Administrator shall calculate each Class Member's estimated individual Settlement Share as follows:

Individual Settlement Payment Calculation for Participating Class Members

Participating Class Members will receive Individual Settlement Payments after the Court issues a Final Approval Order and the Settlement becomes final and binding with no possibility of an appeal or

1 further appeal (i.e., the “Effective Date” of the Settlement is reached). The Settlement Administrator
2 will calculate the total number of pay periods that all Class Members who do not opt out (i.e., 3 “Participating Class Members”) worked during the Class Period (“Total Class Pay Periods”). The 4 “Class Period” is from March 16, 2024 through May 5, 2025. The value of each pay period shall be 5 determined by the Settlement Administrator by dividing the Net Distribution Fund by the total number 6 of Pay Periods Worked by Participating Class Members during the Class Period (“Class Pay Period 7 Value”). Pay Periods Worked shall be calculated using a “Full Time Equivalent” methodology as 8 opposed to a traditional calendar methodology. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 50(d).] “Pay Periods Worked” 9 means any workweek during the Class Period (and/or the PAGA Period, as applicable), in which 10 the Class Member (and/or PAGA Employee) was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt 11 employee in California and worked at least one shift during the workweek for or on behalf of 12 Defendant for which a prior release of claims has not been signed. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 42.] Pay 13 Periods Worked will be calculated based on Defendant’s business records, and workweeks shall be 14 calculated as follows: by dividing the total number of compensable hours worked by the employee 15 during the relevant period by 40 (the standard full-time weekly hours. Id. To qualify as a 16 workweek, the Class Member (and/or PAGA Employee) must have time worked in the week as 17 recorded by Defendant’s time and payroll system; time paid, but not worked, such as vacation, 18 medical leave, or any other type of unpaid time off, does not qualify. Id. To determine each 19 Participating Class Member’s settlement payment, the Settlement Administrator will multiply the 20 individual’s Total Class Pay Periods Worked during the Class Period by the Class Pay Period Value (if 21 the Class Member is a Participating Class Member). These payments will be subject to any legally 22 required tax withholdings or deductions as calculated by the Settlement Administrator.

23 Payment Calculation for PAGA Employees

24 All PAGA Employees will receive payments after the Effective Date (defined above). “PAGA 25 Pay Period” means any pay period during which a PAGA Employee worked for Defendant for at 26 least one day during the PAGA Period. The Settlement Administrator will calculate the total number 27 of PAGA Pay Periods that each PAGA Employee worked during the PAGA Period (“Total PAGA Pay 28 Periods”). The PAGA Period is from March 16, 2024, through May 5, 2025. The Settlement

1 Administrator shall determine the value of each PAGA Pay Period by dividing the 35% of the PAGA
2 Award allocated for PAGA Employees (i.e., $7,000) by the Total PAGA Pay Periods for all PAGA
3 Employees (“PAGA Pay Period Value”). To determine each PAGA Employee’s payment for their 4 prorated portion of the PAGA Distribution Fund (i.e., $7,000), the Settlement Administrator will 5 multiply the PAGA Employee’s Total PAGA Pay Periods by the PAGA Pay Period value. A Class
6 Member who is also a PAGA Employee will receive a payment under this section for their prorated 7 portion of the PAGA Award even if they opt-out of the Class Settlement and will be bound by the 8 release of the PAGA claims released through this Settlement.

9 Based on data known at the time of settlement, the total number of pay periods/workweeks
10 worked by Class Members during the Class Period is approximately 8,625. Thus, if the Net Distribution 11 fund is $104,166.67 (assuming the Court awards the maximum amounts requested for Fees, Costs, the 12 Service Award, and Settlement Administration), then the Class Pay Period Value would be 13 approximately $12.08 per Pay Period Worked (i.e., $$104,166.67 \div 8,625$) subject to any adjustment
14 necessary to account for updated figures through the end of the Class Period. A Participating Class 15 Member who worked the average number of pay periods would then receive approximately $394
16 (minus applicable withholdings for the wage portion of the payment). Based on the available data, the 17 approximate range of Participating Class Member Individual Settlement Payments would be $50 to 18 $851. The average recovery by individual aggrieved employees is estimated to be $26.52 (i.e., $$7,000 /$ 19 264).

20 Individual Settlement Payments shall be allocated twenty percent (20%) as wages and eighty 21 percent (80%) as interest and penalties. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 50(e).] The wage portion will be 22 reported on an IRS Form W-2, and the portions allocated to interest and penalties will be reported 23 on an IRS Form-1099. Id. The PAGA Employee payments will be allocated entirely as penalties and 24 will be included on an IRS Form 1099 to each PAGA Class Member. Id.

25 According to Defendant, there are approximately 264 Class Members who worked 26 approximately 8,625 workweeks from March 16, 2024 through February 12, 2025. [Bokhour Decl., 27 ¶ 19.] As noted above, the average individual Settlement payment is projected to be approximately 28

1 $394. Of course, those with more workweeks stand to recover proportionally more from the 2 Settlement.

3 D. Request for Exclusion and Objection Procedures

4 Class Members who wish to exclude themselves from the Settlement must mail a signed 5 Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator no later than forty-five (45) days after the 6 Settlement Administrator mails the Class Notice. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be 7 timely and comply with the Class Notice's instructions. If a question is raised about the authenticity
8 of a signed Request for Exclusion, the Settlement Administrator will have the right to request 9 additional proof of the Class Member's identity and will give the Class Member notice of the 10 deficiency and the opportunity to cure. A Non-Participating Class Member will not participate in or 11 be bound by the Settlement and the Judgment. A Class Member who does not complete and mail a 12 timely Request for Exclusion in the manner and by the deadline specified above will automatically 13 become a Participating Class Member and be bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, 14 including the Released Class Claims by the Participating Class Members, if the Settlement is 15 approved by the Court, and by the Judgment, regardless of whether he or she has objected to the 16 Settlement. Persons who submit a Request for Exclusion shall not be permitted to file objections to 17 the Settlement or appear at the Final Approval Hearing to voice any objections.

18 All Participating Class Members who do not submit a valid and timely Request for 19 Exclusion will receive an Individual Settlement Payment, without the need to file a claim form, and 20 will be bound by all of the terms of the Settlement, including without limitation, the release of the 21 Released Class Claims by the Participating Class Members set forth in this Agreement. PAGA
22 Class Members will receive their respective share of the employee portion of the PAGA Award 23 regardless of whether they submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion.

24 The Class Notice will also provide that only Participating Class Members who wish to 25 object to the Settlement may object to the proposed Settlement, either in writing or orally at the 26 Final Approval Hearing. Objections in writing must be submitted to the Settlement Administrator 27 no later than forty-five (45) days after the Settlement Administrator mails the Class Notice Packets
28 and must set forth the grounds for the objection and comply with the instructions in the Class

1 Notice. A Participating Class Member who does not submit an oral and/or a written objection in the 2 manner and by the deadline specified in the Settlement Agreement and Class Notice, as described 3 above, will be deemed to have waived any objection and will be foreclosed from making any 4 objection (whether by appeal or otherwise) to the Settlement. Non-Participating Class Members 5 shall have no ability to comment on or object to the Settlement.

6 Finally, each Class Member shall also have forty-five (45) days from the date of mailing the 7 Class Notice Packet in which to dispute the number of pay periods/workweeks which the Class 8 Notice allocates to them during the Class Period. Any Notice of Dispute shall be directed to the 9 Settlement Administrator. In the event of any such dispute, the employment, time and payroll 10 records of Defendant shall be entitled to a presumption of accuracy and any Class Member 11 asserting a dispute shall have the burden to prove the accuracy of his or her claim and an 12 opportunity to submit supporting documentation. Any dispute as to this allocation shall be resolved 13 by the Settlement Administrator. In resolving any such dispute, the Settlement Administrator may 14 request additional information from Defendant's Counsel and/or Class Counsel.

15 E. Scope of the Release

16 The Settlement provides that Participating Class Members will release the Released Parties³ of:
17 all claims that were pled or which could have been pled in the Action based on the factual 18 allegations therein, including, but not limited to: (1) claims for unpaid wages, overtime, sick time, 19 meal and rest period premiums, waiting time penalties, wage statements, unreimbursed business
20 expenses; (2) any related wage, hour or related record keeping claims arising under the California 21 Labor Code, the applicable wage orders of the California Industrial Welfare Commission, and any 22 applicable state or federal law; (3) any claims for failure to indemnify necessary business expenses; 23 (4) any related claims for unfair business practices (including unlawful, deceptive, or unfair 24 business practices prohibited by the California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.) 25 arising out of alleged violations of wage, hour and related record-keeping provisions of the

26 _____
27 ³ "Released Party" means Defendant and any of its present and former parent companies, subsidiaries, divisions, 28 concepts, related or affiliated companies and its shareholders, partners, members, managers, owners, officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, payroll providers, joint ventures, predecessors, successors, agents, and assigns, and any individual or entity that could be liable for any of the Released Claims. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 34.]

1 California Labor Code, the applicable wage orders of the California Industrial Welfare
2 Commission, and any applicable state law; (5) any related claims that Defendant did not comply 3 with laws, regulations and ordinances, and/or common law of California; (6) any related claims that 4 Defendant did not comply with Federal laws, regulations and ordinances, and/or common law; (7)
5 claims for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code section 2698 et seq.;
6 and (8) claims for violation of Labor Code sections 200 through 204, 201, 202, 203, 210, 218.6, 7 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1174, 1174.4, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 8 1199.5, 1182.12, 2800, 2802 and the applicable wage orders of the California Industrial Welfare
9 Commission. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 5.]

10 As of the date the Judgment becomes Final and the Defendant fully funds the Settlement, 11 Plaintiff and each Participating Class Member, for themselves and for their respective spouses, 12 domestic partners, marital community, children, estates, trusts, attorneys, heirs, successors, 13 beneficiaries, devisees, legatees, executors, administrators, trustees, conservators, guardians, 14 assigns, agents, and representatives, will forever completely release and discharge the Released 15 Parties from the Released Class Claims for the time period from March 16, 2024 through May 5, 16 2025. The Released Class Claims include all claims that were asserted or that could have been 17 asserted based on the facts alleged in Plaintiff's Original Complaint, the First Amended Complaint, 18 and the Second Amended Complaint. The Released Claims expressly exclude all other claims, 19 including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, unemployment insurance, disability, social 20 security, workers' compensation, and claims arising outside of the Class Period.

21 IV. LEGAL STANDARD FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE CLASS
22 ACTION SETTLEMENT

23 California Rule of Court 3.769 conditions settlement of a class action on court approval, 24 which is generally evaluated under the federal standards applicable under Rule 23 of the Federal 25 Rules of Civil Procedure. See Reed v. United Teachers Los Angeles (2012) 208 Cal.App.4th 322, 26 337 (Rule 3.769 requires the trial court to determine "that the settlement is fair, reasonable and 27 adequate to all concerned"); Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (Rule 28 23(e) requires the trial court to determine "whether a proposed settlement is fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable”). Settlement is the preferred means of dispute resolution, particularly in complex class action litigation. See In re Syncor ERISA Litig. (9th Cir. 2008) 516 F.3d 1095, 1101. The Court’s role in evaluating a proposed settlement is limited to ensuring that the agreement taken as a whole is fair. See e.g., Hanlon, supra, 150 F.3d at 1027. There is an initial presumption of fairness where, as here, the Settlement was negotiated at arm’s-length by Class Counsel and with the assistance of an experienced wage and hour class action mediator. See e.g. Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 130.

To make a fairness determination, the Court should consider several factors, including: “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, [and] the experience and views of counsel.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801. “The list of factors is not exclusive, and the court is free to engage in a balancing and weighing of the factors depending on the circumstances of each case.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.

As discussed below, the proposed Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable in light of the overall balance of factors in this case.

V. ARGUMENT

A. The Settlement Should Be Preliminarily Approved

1. The Strength of Plaintiff’s Case

Although Plaintiff steadfastly maintains that his claims are meritorious, Plaintiff acknowledges that there were substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding with litigation. As described in Section II.B., supra, Defendant presented multiple defenses to Plaintiff’s claims, both on the merits and with respect to class certification. Thus, while Plaintiff was prepared to litigate these claims through class certification, and ultimately trial, success was far from certain.

2. Risk, Expense, Complexity, and Duration of Further Litigation

Although the Parties engaged in significant informal discovery in advance of mediation, the Parties still had significant discovery to complete in formal litigation had the matter not settled. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 20.] This would have required expenditure of substantial time and resources by

1 all Parties that would have very likely spanned several years. Id. Plaintiff faced numerous risks in 2 continued litigation, including and not limited to, the risk of receiving no recovery if a class is not 3 certified and/or no liability is found and the Court determining that adjudication on a representative 4 or class basis is unmanageable and not appropriate. Id. Plaintiff also faced the real possibility that 5 the amount recovered against Defendant after years of litigation and a lengthy and costly trial would 6 be less than the amount negotiated in this Settlement. Id. This Settlement avoids those risks and the 7 accompanying expense. Id.

8 3. Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status

9 Plaintiff had not yet filed his motion for class certification, and as such, the extent to which 10 Plaintiff's proposed Class is certifiable is somewhat speculative. Absent the Settlement, there was a 11 risk that there would not be a certified class at the time of trial, or if there were, it would consist of a 12 significantly smaller group of employees than the proposed Class (either due to a narrowing of the 13 class definition in a Court order on a contested motion for class certification, or through settlement
14 agreements entered into by Defendant with individual class members by way of Pick-Up-Stix type 15 settlement agreements⁴) and the expected recovery could be significantly reduced, given the 16 settlement amounts that are typically offered through the Pick-Up-Stix process. Thus, this factor, 17 too, supports preliminary approval of the Settlement.

18 4. Amount Offered in Settlement Given Realistic Value of Claims

19 The Settlement provides a fair and reasonable recovery for the Class in the face of disputed 20 claims. Plaintiff conducted an in-depth statistical analysis of underpaid wages and penalties due to 21 Defendant alleged unlawful timekeeping policies/practices, potential meal and rest period 22 violations, failure to reimburse all necessary business expenses, failure to pay wages at the correct
23 rate of pay, failure to pay sick wages, wage statement penalties, waiting time penalties, and PAGA 24 civil penalties. A summary of the results of Plaintiff's exposure analysis is discussed below.

26 ⁴ In Chindarah v. Pick Up Stix, Inc., 171 Cal.App.4th 796 (2009), the Court of Appeal held an employer may enter 27 into pre-certification settlement agreements with individual putative class members in which the putative class 28 members release claims for past unpaid wages and penalties in exchange for consideration. The Court further held that such settlements could preclude those individual employees from recovery in class action litigation against the employer for the same wage claims.

1 Failure to Pay Wages:

2 As described above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to accurately record (or record 3 time at all when they were subject to the control of the employer) time worked by Plaintiff and 4 other Class Members because Defendant failed to pay Class Members for pre-shift and post-shift 5 work duties which extended a few minutes beyond their scheduled shifts for which they were not 6 paid. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 21.]

7 In this regard, Plaintiff assumed Plaintiff and other Class Members were not paid for 8 approximately 5 minutes per shift. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 22.]

9 Based on Plaintiff's analysis, Class Members worked approximately 39,923 shifts and by 10 assuming five minutes per shift, this resulted in approximately $66,505.06 of unpaid minimum and 11 overtime wages (39,923 shifts x 5.0 minutes per shift /60 x $19.99 hour). [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 23.]

12 Defendant denies all of Plaintiff's claims and asserts that it maintained lawful timekeeping 13 policies/practices during the Class Period. Id. Specifically, Defendant contends that it rarely 14 required employees to work off the clock and it properly compensated all employees. Id. Defendant
15 argues that an individualized inquiry as to whether each Class Member was underpaid is necessary 16 and would preclude class certification. Id.; see, e.g., Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court
17 (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1052 (affirming denial of off-the-clock subclass, "[p]roof of off-the-clock 18 liability would have had to continue in an employee-by-employee fashion, demonstrating who 19 worked off the clock, how long they worked, and whether Brinker knew or should have known their 20 work."). [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 24.]

21 In light of these arguments and defenses, Plaintiff discounted Defendant's maximum 22 exposure by 45% to account for the risk of non-certification, and by an additional 35% for a risk of 23 being unsuccessful on the merits or having the amount of unpaid wages reduced, for a reasonably 24 expected total of approximately $23,775.56. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 25.]

25 Meal Period Violations:

26 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and other Class Members with all 27 second meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes before the tenth (10th) hour of their shift.
28

1 [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 26.] Defendant's payroll records demonstrate that Class members were 2 consistently unable to take second meal periods at all for shifts in excess of 10 hours. Id.

3 Plaintiff's analysis of the data demonstrates 3,407 unique meal period violations comprising
4 a 11.5% violation rate based on the payroll data analyzed. Plaintiff calculates $68,105.93 in unpaid 5 meal period premiums (3,407 non-compliant meal periods x $19.99 meal period premium). Id. As 6 such, the total damages regarding meal period violations are estimated to be $68,105.93. Id.

7 However, Defendant claims that it maintained legally compliant meal period policies 8 throughout the Class Period; such that it allowed non-exempt employees to take compliant and 9 timely meal periods. Id. Defendant also claimed that all or most of the hourly employees had signed 10 second meal period waivers and/or otherwise voluntarily waived a second unpaid meal period that 11 was made available by the company so they could go home sooner rather than taking a second 30-12 minute unpaid meal break. As such, Defendant vigorously contended that there were no violations 13 for all of the shifts between 10.0 and 12.0 hours. Defendant also contend that this claim would not 14 be certified due to the lack of any common evidence tying together the reason that Class Members 15 experienced an alleged meal period violation. Id. Lastly, Defendant assert that the presence of these 16 affirmative defenses as to the voluntariness of a particular meal period decision would preclude 17 class certification. Id.; see Duran v. U.S. Bank National Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 25. In 18 light of these defenses and arguments, Plaintiff discounted Defendant's maximum exposure by 70% 19 for the risk of non-certification, and an additional 50% to account for Defendant's defenses on the 20 merits, to arrive at an estimated total of $10,215.89. Id.

21 Rest Period Violations:

22 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to authorize and permit all legally compliant rest 23 periods throughout the Class Period. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 27.] More specifically, Plaintiff alleged that 24 Defendant failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees from taking 25 legally compliant rest periods due to its unlawful rest period policies and operational requirements 26 as enforced by their supervisors. Id. Plaintiff's analysis of Defendant's data demonstrates there were 27 approximately 29,701 rest period eligible shifts. Id. For this claim, Plaintiff assumed a 33% 28

1 violation rate and calculated Defendant's maximum exposure on this claim at $197,901 (9,900 non-2 compliant rest periods x $19.99 rest period premium). Id.

3 However, Defendant denies Plaintiff rest period allegations and asserts that they maintained
4 compliant rest period policies throughout the Class Period and authorized and permitted all rest
5 periods to Class Members. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 28.] In addition, Defendant argued that, in practice, 6 Class Members were allowed to be free and did in fact leave the premises during rest periods. Id.
7 Further, Defendant contend that this claim is not amenable to class treatment because individualized 8 inquiries would be required to determine which employees failed to take rest periods, and the 9 reasons why each employee failed to take a rest period on a particular shift. Id. As such, Plaintiff 10 discounted Defendant's maximum exposure by 65% to account for the risk of non-certification, and 11 an additional 50% to account for Defendant's defenses on the merits, to arrive at an estimated 12 exposure of approximately $34,632.68. Id.

13 Wage Statement Violations:

14 Plaintiff contends that, because of the foregoing Labor Code violations, Defendant issued 15 inaccurate wage statements in violation of Labor Code section 226(a). [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 29.] More 16 specifically, Plaintiff alleged that the wage statements issued uniformly failed to reflect all net 17 wages earned, gross wages earned, the appropriate overtime rate, sick pay rate, and the appropriate
18 rate of premium pay for non-compliant meal and rest periods. Id. Further, the wage statements 19 issued by Defendant failed to indicate the applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 20 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate. Id.

21 Plaintiff's data analysis reveals there were approximately 9,143 wage statements issued 22 during the Class Period. Id. Therefore, Plaintiff calculates Defendant's maximum exposure for this 23 claim at $457,150 (i.e., 9,143 statements * $50. Id.

24 Based on Defendant's arguments that: (i) no violations occurred; (ii) any alleged violations 25 were not "knowing and intentional" as required by Labor Code § 226(e); (iii) no actual injury was 26 suffered; and (iv) that its wage statements always accurately reflected hours worked and amounts 27 paid to employees, see Maldonado v. Epsilon Plastics, Inc. (2018) 22 Cal.App.5th 1308 (agreeing 28 with employer's "commonsense position that the pay stubs were accurate in that they correctly

1 reflected the hours worked and the pay received), Plaintiff discounted Defendant's calculated 2 maximum exposure by 75% for a risk of non-certification, and an additional 50% for a risk of being 3 unsuccessful on the merits, to arrive at an estimated total of $57,143.75. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 30.]

4 Waiting Time Penalties:

5 Defendant's records reflected approximately 80 former Class Members who separated from 6 their employment with Defendant during the Class Period. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 31.] Based on an 7 average hourly rate of $19.99, Plaintiff estimated the average waiting time penalty per former 8 employee to be $4,797.60 ($19.99 x 8 hours per day x 30 days). Id. Therefore, Plaintiff estimated 9 Defendant's maximum exposure for potential waiting time penalties to be $383,808 (80 former 10 employees * $4,797.60 average waiting time penalty). Id.

11 Defendant presented several defenses to this claim, most notably, the assertion that because 12 they possessed good-faith defenses to the underlying claims, any failure to pay wages was not 13 "willful" as a matter of law. Id. Defendant further contend that no waiting time penalties are 14 recoverable as a matter of law as to Plaintiff's claims predicated on a failure to provide meal and/or 15 rest periods as a Court of Appeal recently held in Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Servs., Inc. (2019)
16 40 Cal.App.5th. 444, 473-75 (review granted Jan. 2, 2020). To account for Defendant's defenses, 17 Plaintiff discounted the maximum exposure by 40% for the risk of non-certification, and an 18 additional 60% for risk of losing on the merits, and/or not receiving the maximum penalties sought, 19 to arrive at an estimated exposure of $92,113.92. Id.

20 Unreimbursed Business Expenses:

21 Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and putative class members for 22 all necessary business expenses such during the Class Period. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 32.] Plaintiff 23 alleges that the business expenses incurred by Plaintiff and other Class Members were for certain of 24 their own tools, safety gear and other devices required to perform their job duties. Id.

25 Defendant contended that Plaintiff and other putative class members never requested 26 reimbursement from Defendant for these items, and Defendant did not know and had no reason to 27 know that the alleged business-related expenses were incurred and not reimbursed. [Bokhour Decl., 28 ¶ 33.]

1 Defendant further contended that the reason for why a putative class member undertook 2 certain expenses, while not others, and failed to receive reimbursement for certain expenses while 3 not others, would raise individual issues that could not be certified. Id. Defendant contended that 4 the California Labor Code only requires reimbursement of “necessary” expenses—as opposed to 5 any expense that is incurred in the course of performing work—and argued that distinguishing a 6 necessary expense from an unnecessary one would require individualized inquiry. Id.; See, Cal.
7 Lab. Code § 2802; Gattuso v. Harte-Hanks Shoppers, Inc. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 554. Furthermore, 8 whether or not an expense was necessary, would depend, in part, on the reasonableness of the 9 employee’s choice, and whether or not an expense was incurred, would have to be established by 10 way of extensive individual factual inquiry and/or statistical evidence. Cochran v. Schwan’s Home 11 Services, Inc. (2014) 228 Cal.App.4th 1137. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 34.] In light of these defenses and 12 arguments, Plaintiff discounted Defendant’s maximum exposure by 100% for the risk of non-13 certification and to account for Defendant’s defenses on the merits, to arrive at an estimated total of 14 $0.00. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 35.]

15 PAGA Penalties:

16 Based on the data provided by Defendant, there are approximately 8,625 pay periods during 17 the relevant PAGA Period. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 36.] Based on the violations addressed above, 18 Plaintiff contends that Defendant is liable for a PAGA civil penalty in the amount of $100 for each 19 of the 8,625 pay periods worked during the PAGA Period. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff estimated 20 Defendant’s maximum potential PAGA exposure at $862,500 (8,625 violations x $100 “initial” 21 penalty). Id.; Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2009) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157, 1207 (finding “initial” 22 violation rate applies until employer is notified that it is violating a Labor Code provision). Id.

23 However, Defendant asserts a host of credible defenses to Plaintiff’s PAGA claims. First, 24 while Plaintiff argues that these penalties derive from the underlying wage and hour violations 25 discussed above, Defendant vigorously disputes this. Id.; see e.g., Green v. Lawrence Service Co.
26 (C.D. Cal. 2013) Case No. LA CV12-06155 JAK (VBKx), 2013 WL 3907506, *5, n.5 (explaining 27 that a PAGA claim’s success was determined by the merits of its underlying claims). Defendant 28 further contends that the Court would drastically reduce any award of PAGA penalties as

1 “confiscatory.” Id.; see also Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th
2 1112, 1135 (affirming reduction of PAGA penalties); Fleming v. Covidien Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2011)
3 Case No. ED CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 WL 7563047, at *4 (reducing PAGA penalties from 4 $2.8 million to $500,000). Therefore, Plaintiff discounted the maximum figure by 65% for risk of 5 losing on the merits, and an additional 75% to account for the possibility of this Court reducing 6 penalties, to arrive at an estimated exposure of $75,468.75. Id.

7 Based on the foregoing, the total damages are approximately $293,350.54, calculated as 8 follows:

- 9 • Unpaid Wages: $23,775.56
- 10 • Meal breaks: $10,215.89
- 11 • Rest breaks: $34,632.68
- 12 • Wage Statement penalties: $57,143.75
- 13 • Waiting time penalties: $92,113.92
- 14 • Reimbursement: $0.00
- 15 • PAGA: $75,468.75
- 16 • Total: $293,350.54

17 In sum, while Plaintiff asserts that this is a suitable case for certification, he realizes that 18 there is always a significant risk associated with class certification proceedings and considering 19 Defendant’s various defenses on the merits and to class certification, difficulties of proof, and other 20 risks as described above, Plaintiff predicted that the potential likely recovery for the Class at trial
21 would be approximately $293,350.54. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 37.]

22 The proposed settlement of $235,000 therefore represents approximately 80% of the 23 reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class, and therefore, represents a fair, reasonable, and 24 adequate resolution of this lawsuit. [Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 38-40.] Preliminary approval is appropriate 25 since the Settlement will provide significant monetary relief to Class Members, which is consistent 26 with what Plaintiff’s counsel believes could have been recovered had the case proceeded through 27 trial. Id. It would also provide the Class with a prompt and certain recovery soon rather than an 28 uncertain recovery after years of potential additional litigation and appeals. Id.

1 5. The Experience and Views of Counsel

2 “Parties represented by competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a 3 settlement that fairly reflects each party’s expected outcome in litigation.” In re Pacific Enterprises
4 Securities Litigation (9th 566Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378. Here, Plaintiff is represented by 5 competent, experienced counsel who possess extensive experience prosecuting and defending 6 wage-and-hour class actions, and who have been appointed as class counsel in numerous cases
7 alleging similar claims. See [Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 46-51; Rezvani Decl. ¶¶ 8-13]; Class Counsel
8 conducted an in-depth review of Defendant’s relevant policies and timekeeping and payroll records 9 and drew on their extensive experience in similar cases to assess the strengths and weaknesses of 10 Plaintiff’s case. See [Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 52, 57-58, 60.] The Settlement was also reached with the 11 assistance of an experienced wage and hour class action mediator. [Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 58-59.] This 12 factor strongly supports preliminary approval of the Settlement. See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th 13 at 130.

14 B. The Preliminary Approval Standard Is Met

15 At this stage, the Court can grant preliminary approval of the settlement and direct that 16 notice be given if the proposed settlement: (1) falls within the range of possible approval; (2) 17 appears to be the product of serious, informed, and non-collusive negotiations; and (3) has no 18 obvious deficiencies. See Manual for Complex Litigation § 30.41 (3rd Ed. 1995); 4 Newberg on 19 Class Actions § 11:24-25 (4th Ed. 2013).

20 1. The Settlement Is Within the Range of Possible Approval

21 The proposed settlement reflects approximately 80% of the estimated recovery the Class 22 could reasonably expect in light of the significant litigation risks, and will provide tangible, 23 monetary compensation for hotly disputed claims. Indeed, the percentage of the liability exposure 24 recovered in this case exceeds percentages routinely approved by courts. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 40];
25 See, e.g., Glass v. UBS Finan. Servs. (N.D. Cal. 2007) Case No. C-06-4068 MMC, 2007 WL 26 221862, *4 (approving settlement representing 25% to 35% of potential damages); Dunleavy v.
27 Nadler (9th Cir. 2000) 213 F.3d 454, 459 (approving settlement representing about one-sixth of 28 potential recovery); Nat’l Rural Telecomm. Coop. v. DirecTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal. 2004) 221 F.R.D.

523, 527 (“it is well-settled law that a proposed settlement may be acceptable even though it amounts to only a fraction of the potential recovery that might be available to the Class Members at trial”).

As detailed in the settlement calculation discussion above, a Participating Class Member will receive approximately $394 (minus applicable withholdings for the wage portion of the payment). This estimated average Individual Settlement Payment is greater than the average payments achieved in other wage and hour class action settlements.⁵ Thus, Plaintiff submits that the proposed Settlement is within the range of possible approval, such that notice should be provided to the Class so that they can consider the Settlement. The Court will have the opportunity to again assess the reasonableness of the Settlement after the Class has had the opportunity to opt out or object.

a. The allocation for the Class Representative Service Payment is reasonable.

Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff will receive a Class Representative Service Payment in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 41.] The Service Payment will be paid in addition to Plaintiff’s Individual Settlement Payment. Id. Courts routinely approve incentive awards to class representatives for their time and efforts, and the risks they undertake on behalf of the class. See, e.g., In re Cellphone Fee Termination Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393-94 (“[I]ncentive awards are fairly typical in class action cases . . . and are intended to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class [and] to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action.”).

⁵ See e.g., Bercea v. AE Retail West, Case No. 34-2012-00123947 (Sacramento VFTO County Super. Ct. May 9, 2012) (average net recovery of approximately $105); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018 (Los Angeles County Super. Ct. Jan. 2, 2009) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, Case No. 34-2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $80); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., Case No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2007) (average recovery of approximately $65); Lim v. Victoria’s Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County Super. Ct. Jan. 20, 2006) (average net recovery of approximately $35); Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No. BC392297 (Los Angeles County Super. Ct. July 23, 2010) (average net recovery of approximately $20); Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (E.D. Cal. Dec. 17, 2008) (wage and hour class action settlement approved where average recovery was approximately $60); Schiller v. David’s Bridal, Inc., Case No. 1:10-cv-00616-AWI-SKO, 2012 WL 2117001 at *17 (E.D. Cal. June 11, 2012) (“Class Members will receive an average of approximately $198.70...[T]his is a substantial recovery where Defendants asserted compelling defenses to liability; Plaintiff also notes several similar actions where the gross recoveries per class member were less than $90...[T]he Court finds that the results achieved are good”); and Williams v. Centerplate, Inc., Case Nos. 11-CV-2159-H-KSC, 12-CV-0008-H-KSC, 2013 WL 4525428 (S.D. Cal. Aug. 26, 2013) (average recovery of approximately $108).

1 Here, the contemplated Service Payment is fair and appropriate and is well within the range
2 of enhancement awards awarded by trial courts. See Angell v. City of Oakland, 13 cv-00190 NC, 3 2015 WL 65501, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2015) (approving $9,000 incentive awards); Covillo, 2014
4 WL 954516, at *8 (approving an $8,000 incentive award).

5 Moreover, Plaintiff spent considerable time and effort to produce relevant documents and past
6 employment records and provide the facts and evidence necessary to support the allegations. [Bokhour
7 Decl., ¶ 41.] Plaintiff was available whenever his counsel needed him and tried to obtain documents 8 and information that would benefit the Class. Id. Accordingly, it is appropriate and just for Plaintiff to 9 receive a reasonable Class Representative Service Payment for his services on behalf of the Class.

10 b. The Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation
11 Expenses Payment are reasonable.

12 Class Counsel meets the requirements under California law. Class Counsel conducted extensive 13 research, investigation, and analysis of the potential value of the claims. Additionally, Class Counsel are 14 highly experienced in wage-and-hour litigation and class action cases. [Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 46-51; 15 Rezvani Decl. ¶¶ 8-13]. As such, appointment of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. and Venture Law, P.C. as 16 Class Counsel is appropriate.

17 The Settlement establishes a Gross Settlement Amount of $235,000 and provides for Class 18 Counsel to apply for attorneys' fees in an amount of $78,333.33 which represents one third of the 19 settlement amount. Class Counsel will apply for attorneys' fees at the time of seeking final approval of 20 the proposed Settlement.

21 Under California precedent, it is appropriate to award attorneys' fees as a percentage of the 22 "common fund" created by a class action settlement. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., 1 Cal.5th 23 480 (2016) (holding "the percentage of fund method survives in California class action cases"). The 24 goal is to award "reasonable compensation for creating a common fund." Paul, Johnson, Alston &
25 Hunt v. Graulity, 886 F.2d 268, 272 (9th Cir. 1989). In reviewing a fee award request, courts consider 26 the following factors: (1) the results achieved; (2) whether there are benefits to the class beyond the 27 immediate generation of a cash fund; (3) the risks of litigation; (4) the skill required of counsel and 28 quality of the work performed; (5) the contingent nature of the fee and the foregoing by counsel of other

1 work; and (6) the reactions of the class. Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 2 1048-50; In re Toyota Motor Corp., 2013 WL 3224585 (C.D. Cal. June 17, 2013). Of these factors, the 3 most significant factor is the “degree of success obtained.” Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 436 4 (1983).

5 Here, the Class Counsel Fees Payment provided for by the Settlement is reasonable, particularly 6 in light of the time and effort expended by Class Counsel. Class Counsel litigated this case with the 7 possibility of an unsuccessful outcome and no fee recovery of any kind. [Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 43-45.] The 8 ongoing work has been demanding and ultimately successful in achieving a substantial Settlement.
9 Given the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the risk and expense of further litigation, Plaintiff 10 believes that his counsel achieved an excellent result on behalf of the Class. Considering the amount of 11 the fees to be requested, the work performed, and the risks incurred, the Class Counsel Attorneys’ Fees
12 and Costs provided for by the Settlement are reasonable and should be awarded. Id.; See Vizcaino, 290 13 F.3d at 1051.

14 Once the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and Class Notice 15 is disseminated, Plaintiff’s counsel will submit a request for attorneys’ fees and costs with its final 16 approval motion.

17 2. The Settlement Resulted from Serious, Informed Negotiations

18 The Settlement resulted from an exchange of substantial information, arm’s-length 19 negotiations by counsel, a full-day mediation before Daniel Turner, Esq., an experienced wage and 20 hour mediator, and additional months of negotiating the long-form settlement agreement. Thus, the 21 Settlement is entitled to an initial presumption of fairness. See Kullar, supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at 22 130. Here, the Parties actively litigated this case since it commenced. Class Counsel conducted a 23 thorough investigation into the facts of the case, including, inter alia, interviews with Plaintiff, and 24 diligently investigated the allegations in this lawsuit. [Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 57-58.] Class Counsel 25 reviewed a large volume of documents and data produced by Defendant and obtained through other 26 sources, including and not limited to, Plaintiff’s employment records (including, inter alia, time and 27 payroll data, timecards, earning statements, and personnel records), as well as excerpts of Defendant’s 28 applicable employee handbook (such as excerpts pertaining to meal and rest break policies), class-wide

1 data, various documents regarding Defendant’s wage-and-hour policies, various internal memoranda 2 various agreements, various training and on-boarding material, and various forms, among other 3 information and documents. Id.

4 The Parties reached the Settlement after reviewing all available evidence, arm’s-length
5 bargaining, and participating in mediation conducted by Daniel Turner, Esq., a well-respected mediator 6 experienced in handling complex wage-and-hour class action litigation. Id. During the mediation, the 7 parties exchanged information and discussed various aspects of the case, including and not limited to,
8 Plaintiff’s claims, the risks and delays of further litigation and of proceeding with certification and/or 9 representative adjudication, the law relating to off-the-clock theory, regular rate theory, meal and rest
10 periods, wage-and-hour enforcement, and PAGA representative claims pursuant to the revised PAGA, 11 the evidence produced and analyzed, and the possibility of appeals, among other things. Id.

12 During settlement discussions, the Parties conducted their negotiations at arm’s length from an 13 adversarial position. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 59.] Arriving at a settlement that was acceptable to both Parties 14 was not easy. The data and documents produced and obtained in this case enabled Class Counsel to 15 prepare damages/valuation models in preparation for the mediation, to determine the value and 16 strength of the claims. With the aid of the mediator’s evaluations, the Parties agreed that the Action was 17 well-suited for settlement given the legal issues relating to the claims, as well as the costs and risks to 18 both sides that would attend further litigation. Id. The Settlement takes into account the strengths and 19 weaknesses of each side’s position and the uncertainty of how the case might have concluded at 20 certification, trial, and/or appeals. Id.

21 The Settlement is based on this large volume of facts, evidence, and investigation, and the 22 Parties’ negotiations during the mediation.⁶ [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 60.] While the Parties disagree over the 23 merits and certifiability of Plaintiff’s claims, Plaintiff and Class Counsel agree that the Settlement is fair, 24 reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of the Class, in light of all known facts and circumstances.
25 Id.

27 ⁶ See Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027 (affirming approval of settlement after finding “no evidence to suggest that the settlement 28 was negotiated in haste or in the absence of information illuminating the value of plaintiffs’ claims”).

1 3. The Settlement Is Devoid of Obvious Deficiencies

2 Preliminary approval of the Settlement is also warranted because there are no obvious
3 deficiencies. The Settlement will provide monetary relief to Class Members. The amounts proposed 4 for the Class Counsel Attorney's Fees and Costs, the Class Representative Service Payment, 5 Settlement Administration Costs and the PAGA Payment are all reasonable and appropriate based 6 on the facts of this case. Because the Settlement is devoid of obvious deficiencies, this factor 7 supports preliminary approval.

8 VI. CERTIFICATION OF THE PROPOSED CLASS IS APPROPRIATE UNDER CAL.
9 CIV. PROC. SECTION 382

10 Class certification under California law is appropriate where: (1) the Class is so numerous that 11 joinder would be impractical; (2) common questions of law and fact predominate over individual 12 questions such that class certification is the most efficient and desirable way to maintain this 13 litigation; (3) Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of absent Class members; and (4) Plaintiff
14 and their counsel will fairly and adequately represent Class members' interest. See Cal. Civ. Proc.
15 § 382. The proposed Class meets all of these requirements.

16 A. Ascertainable and Numerous

17 A class is "ascertainable" where the members "may be readily identified without 18 unreasonable expense or time by reference to official [or business] records." See Sevidal v. Target
19 Corp. (2010) 189 Cal.App.4th 905, 916 (alterations in original). Here, the proposed Class is defined 20 as all current and former hourly, non-exempt employees of Defendant Magnolia Foods, LLC who 21 worked as direct hires in the State of California during the "Class Period".

22 Further, the proposed Class consists of at least 264 Class Members. [Bokhour Decl., ¶ 19.] The 23 proposed Class is sufficiently numerous, and joinder of all Class Members would be impractical. See, 24 e.g., Bowles v. Sup. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574 (holding a class representing 10 beneficiaries of a 25 trust sufficiently numerous).

26 B. Commonality

27 A settlement class has sufficient commonality if there are predominant questions of law or fact.
28 See Sav-On Drug Store, Inc. v. Superior Court (Rocher) (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 326. Here, the

1 Class Members seek remedies under California's wage-and-hour laws for violations arising from 2 common, uniform, and systematic practices which applied to all Class Members during the Class
3 Period. See e.g., Benton v. Telecom Network Specialists, Inc., 220 Cal.App.4th 701, 726 (2013)
4 (certifying meal and rest period claims); Williams v. Superior Court 221 Cal.App.4th 1353, 1371
5 (2013) (certifying class based on uncompensated work time). Accordingly, the commonality 6 requirement is satisfied for settlement purposes.

7 C. Typicality

8 The typicality requirement is satisfied where class representatives have claims that are typical 9 of those of the rest of the class. B.W.I. Custom Kitchen v. Owens-Illinois, Inc. 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 10 1347 (1987) (finding typicality satisfied where named Plaintiff purchased the same goods as the 11 putative class in a consumer class action). Here, Plaintiff's claims are typical of those of the Class 12 Members, though some factual differences may exist among them, as the claims arise from the same 13 events or course of conduct and are based upon the same legal theories. Given the structure of the 14 Settlement, the proposed Class satisfies the typicality requirement for settlement purposes as Plaintiff's 15 claims arise from the same factual basis and are based on the same legal theories as those applicable to 16 all other Class Members.

17 D. Adequacy of Representation

18 The adequacy requirement examines conflicts of interest between named parties and the 19 class(es) they seek to represent. See Capital People First v. State Dept. of Developmental Services 20 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 697 (2007).

21 Plaintiff's interests align with those of other Class Members, as they were all employed by 22 Defendant within the State of California. Plaintiff's claims are typical of those of Class Members, which 23 are confined to a limited group of similarly situated employees who worked for Defendant during the 24 Class Period. Class Counsel are highly experienced in employment class action and complex wage-and-25 hour litigation, having handled many cases before and having been appointed class counsel in many 26 other cases. [See generally, Bokhour and Rezvani Declarations.] Plaintiff contends that Class Counsel's 27 experience in litigating similar matters was integral to obtaining the Settlement.

1 E. ADEQUACY OF THE METHOD OF NOTICE

2 A class notice must give the “best notice practicable” under the circumstances by providing 3 “individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” See Eisen v.
4 Carlisle & Jacquelin 417 U.S. 156, 173 (1974). A class notice is adequate if it “generally describes 5 the terms of the settlement in sufficient detail to alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate and to 6 come forward and be heard.” Churchill Vill. LLC v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir. 2004). The 7 notice must also be neutral and objective in tone and should neither promote nor discourage the 8 assertion of claims.

9 Here, the proposed Class Notice provides the best notice practicable and is adequate in light of 10 the fact that Defendant are in possession of the addressed for Class Members. While Class Counsel 11 considered alternative methods such as publication or notice via the web or social media, it ultimately 12 determined that first class mail was the best choice given that the identities of the Class Members are 13 known and readily identifiable from Defendant’s records. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 62.] The Class Notice 14 provides information on, inter alia, the nature of the lawsuit, the definition of the Class, the terms of the 15 Settlement, the scope of the Released Claims, the binding effect of the Settlement, and the allocations
16 for the Class Counsel Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, Class Representative Service Award, and Settlement
17 Administration Costs. Each Class Member’s Class Notice will state his or her number of pay 18 periods/workweeks, estimated Individual Settlement Payment, and estimated PAGA Employee 19 payment. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 63.] The Class Notice summarizes the proceedings and provides the date, 20 time, and place of the Final Approval Hearing. Id.

21 All Class Members and PAGA Employees can and will be identified by Defendant through a 22 review of their business and employment records. After receiving the Class Data from Defendant, the 23 Settlement Administrator will mail a Class Notice to each Class Member. Accordingly, the proposed 24 Class Notice is adequate and is the best notice practicable under California law.

25 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 26 64.] The Class Notice provides a brief, neutral explanation of the case from the perspective of both 27
28

1 Parties and recognizes that the Court has not yet granted final approval of the Settlement.⁷ The Class 2 Notice sets forth in an accurate and informative manner the procedures and deadlines governing the 3 submission of Requests for Exclusion, objections, and workweek disputes. Id. The proposed Class
4 Notice satisfies all due process requirements and complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, 5 and neutrality. Accordingly, the Court should approve the proposed Class Notice. Id.

6 On information and belief, the Class Notice⁸ has been drafted in a manner that is likely to be 7 readily understood by the members of the Class. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 65.] Class Members vary in age, 8 education and experience. Id. All Class Members read and comprehend English and/or Spanish. Id. As 9 such, the Class Notice has been drafted in plain English and Spanish and is readily understandable to 10 current and former employees. Id.

11 VII. APPOINTMENT OF ILYM AS THE ADMINISTRATOR

12 The Parties have selected ILYM Group, Inc. (“ILYM”) as the Settlement Administrator to 13 handle the notice and administration of the Settlement. [Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 3, 66.] ILYM will mail a 14 Class Notice to each Class Member; receive, review, and process Requests for Exclusion, objections, 15 and workweek disputes; calculate estimated Individual Settlement Payments; withhold applicable taxes 16 and withholdings; prepare and transmit necessary tax documentation and filings; and transmit all 17 required payments. ILYM will also handle inquiries from Class Members regarding the Settlement and 18 perform any other usual and customary duties for administering a class action settlement. Id.

19 Settlement Administration Costs are currently estimated not to exceed Seven Thousand Five 20 Hundred Dollars ($7,500) and will be paid out of the Gross Settlement Amount subject to approval by 21 the Court. [Bokhour Decl. ¶ 67.] Plaintiff’s counsel sought a settlement administration bid from ILYM 22 and selected this administrator as it provided a fair and objectively reasonable not to exceed bid, and is 23 highly experienced and qualified to administer this matter. Id. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the 24 Court appoint ILYM as the Settlement Administrator and direct distribution of the Class Notice in the 26 ⁷ See Hoffmann-La Roche Inc. v. Sperling, 493 U.S. 165, 174 (1989) (“[C]ourts must be scrupulous to respect judicial 27 neutrality” in overseeing the class action notice process and “avoid even the appearance of judicial endorsement of the 28 merits of the action[.]”).

⁸ The proposed Class Notice, Request for Exclusion Form and Objection Form are attached to the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour as Exhibit B.

1 manner and in accordance with the proposed scheduled, set forth in the Settlement Agreement and 2 discussed in Section VIII, infra. Id.

3 VIII. DEADLINES FOR NOTICE AND ADMINISTRATION

4 The Court is respectfully requested to approve the proposed deadlines for the notice and 5 settlement administration process. Within fifteen (15) calendar days following preliminary approval of 6 the Settlement, Defendant will provide the Settlement Administrator with the Class Data.⁹ [Settlement 7 Agreement ¶ 66.] Within seven (7) days of receiving the Class Data, ILYM will send a Class Notice to 8 each Class Member. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 67.] Prior to mailing the Class Notices, ILYM shall 9 attempt to locate Class Members' updated addresses by a search of the National Change of Address
10 Database. Id. If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, ILYM will promptly re-mail it to a 11 forwarding address, if provided, or to an updated address obtained from a skip-trace search. [Settlement
12 Agreement ¶ 68.]

13 Requests for Exclusion, Objections, and Workweek Disputes must be mailed to ILYM and 14 postmarked by the applicable Response Deadline. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 70.]

15 All settlement checks issued to Class Members and/or PAGA Employees will remain valid and 16 negotiable for one hundred eighty (180) calendar days from the date it is mailed. [Settlement Agreement 17 ¶ 76.] Thereafter, the funds associated with any such checks that remain uncashed or are returned as 18 undeliverable, if any, will be paid to the California State Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the 19 name of the Participating Class Member, and the Participating Class Member will remain bound by the 20 Settlement. Id.

22 _____
23 ⁹ "Class Data" means a complete list that Defendant will diligently and in good faith compile from its records and 24 provide to the Settlement Administrator and shall include the Settlement Class Members' and PAGA Employees' full 25 names, last known addresses, Social Security Numbers, and dates of employment during the Class Period and PAGA
26 Period and/or number of Work Weeks Worked or Pay Periods Worked as direct-hire non-exempt or hourly employees 27 of Defendant during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period, respectively, for each Settlement Class Member and PAGA Employee. [Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.] The Class Data provided to the Settlement Administrator will not be provided to Class Counsel and it will remain confidential, it shall be used solely to administer the Settlement, and it will not be used or disclosed to anyone, except as required by applicable tax authorities, pursuant to Defendant's express written consent, or by order of the Court. [Settlement
Agreement ¶ 66.]

1 IX. CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court preliminary approve the 3 Settlement and schedule a Final Approval Hearing.
