COMPLAINT FOR ENFORCEMENT
UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR
CODE § 2698, ET SEQ.

Violation of California Labor Code §
2698, et seq. (California Labor Code
Private Attorneys General Act of 2004)

This case has been assigned to Judge Mayne, John R
Dept. 21
Department _____, for all purposes including Trial.

COMES NOW, Plaintiff LUIS MANUEL ACOSTA MEDINA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This representative action is brought pursuant to the California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The civil penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, each Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, each Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees took place in the State of California, including the County of Stanislaus. At all relevant times, Defendant maintained its headquarters/“nerve center” within the State of California, County of Stanislaus.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff LUIS MANUEL ACOSTA MEDINA is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Stanislaus.

6. Defendant GEORGE REED, INC. at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein mentioned, an

1 employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the 2 County of Stanislaus.

3 7. Defendant REED FAMILY COMPANIES at all times herein mentioned, was 4 and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all times herein
5 mentioned, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California,
6 including the County of Stanislaus.

7 8. Defendant MARGARET REED at all times herein relevant was acting either
8 individually or as an officer, owner, director, agent or employee of Defendant GEORGE 9 REED, INC., who caused and continues to cause all of the wage and hour violations alleged 10 herein against the aggrieved employees, including without limitation violations of Labor 11 Code Section 558 and 1197.1.

12 9. Defendant JEFFREY REED at all times herein relevant was acting either
13 individually or as an officer, owner, director, agent or employee of Defendant REED
14 FAMILY COMPANIES, who caused and continues to cause all of the wage and hour
15 violations alleged herein against the aggrieved employees, including without limitation 16 violations of Labor Code Section 558 and 1197.1.

17 10. At all relevant times, GEORGE REED, INC. and REED FAMILY
18 COMPANIES were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all applicable state 19 laws and statutes.

20 11. At all times herein relevant, GEORGE REED, INC., REED FAMILY
21 COMPANIES, MARGARET REED, JEFFREY REED, and DOES 1 through 100, and each 22 of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, 23 employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all 24 times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such 25 agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-
26 conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed 27 with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of 28 each defendant designated as a DOE herein.

12. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

13. GEORGE REED, INC., REED FAMILY COMPANIES, MARGARET REED, JEFFREY REED, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

14. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants including the unknown defendants identified as DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

15. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiff's employment by Defendants.

16. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code section 2699.3.

17. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

18. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were committed against him during his time of employment and he is, therefore, an aggrieved employee. Plaintiff and the other employees are “aggrieved employees” as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and the alleged violations were committed against them.

19. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved employee, including Plaintiff, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the following requirements have been met:

- a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter “Employee’s Notice”) to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter “LWDA”) and by U.S. Certified Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.
- b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter “LWDA Notice”) to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee’s Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled.

20. On August 12, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendants GEORGE REED, INC., REED FAMILY COMPANIES, MARGARET REED, and JEFFREY REED of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts

1 and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice
2 within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff's notice.

3 21. Therefore, Plaintiff has satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 4 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants, in 5 addition to other remedies, for violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203,
6 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

7 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

8 22. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other 9 aggrieved hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants in 10 the State of California including, but not limited to all current and former hourly-paid or non-11 exempt employees who worked for any of the Defendants within the State of California who 12 earned shift differentials/non-discretionary bonuses/non-discretionary performance pay
13 which was not used to calculate the correct regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime 14 rate (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "other aggrieved employees").

15 23. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-16 exempt employee from approximately April 2023 to approximately December 2023 in the 17 State of California, County of Stanislaus.

18 24. Defendants hired Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees, and failed to 19 compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

20 25. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other 21 aggrieved employees, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and the other 22 aggrieved employees' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

23 26. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 24 Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' employment for them to be joint employers of 25 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

26 27. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the 27 other aggrieved employees.

28 ///

28. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within the State of California.

29. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employee's regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not

1 receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the other
2 aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

3 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
4 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 5 receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 6 minimum wages for all hours worked.

7 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 9 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 10 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 11 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge.

12 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 14 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved
15 employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages
16 and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor 17 Code section 204.

18 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
19 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 20 receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 21 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 22 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 23 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

24 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
25 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll
26 records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees in accordance with California law, 27 but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

28 ///

1 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees were entitled to 3 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

4 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
5 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other
6 aggrieved employees pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability 7 to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and 8 falsely represented to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees that they were properly 9 denied wages, all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

10 42. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages
11 to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees. Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees
12 were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week 13 without overtime compensation.

15 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

21 other aggrieved employees' wages within any time permissible under California law, 22 including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

23 47. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide complete 24 and accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

25 48. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep complete and 26 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees.

27 49. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff 28 and the other aggrieved employees for necessary business-related expenses and costs.

1 50. At all material times set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
2 compensate Plaintiff and the other aggrieved employees pursuant to California law in order
3 to increase Defendants' profits.

4 51. California Labor Code section 218 states that noting in Article 1 of the Labor
5 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty 6 due to him [or her] under this article."

9 (Against GEORGE REED, INC., MARGARET REED, and DOES 1 through 100)

10 52. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
11 through 51, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set 12 forth herein.

13 53. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code 14 which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its 15 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 16 California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved 17 employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

18 54. Whenever the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, 19 boards, agencies, or employees has discretion to assess a civil penalty, a court in a civil 20 action is authorized to exercise the same discretion, subject to the same limitations and 21 conditions, to assess a civil penalty.

22 55. Plaintiff and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are "aggrieved 23 employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current
