DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff ULISES HUERTA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Riverside. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Riverside. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Riverside.

4 engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Riverside. Defendant
5 SOLARMAX LED, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and

1 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants SOLARMAX FINANCIAL, INC.,
2 SOLARMAX LED, INC., SOLARMAX RENEWABLE ENERGY PROVIDER, INC.,
3 SOLARMAX TECHNOLOGY, INC., and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the

12 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
13 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that

1 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the 3 general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 4 Procedure section 382.

5 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

6 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants
7 within the State of California at any time during the period from four years prior 8 to the filing of this Complaint to final judgment.

9 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

10 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 11 the litigation:

12 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class 13 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 14 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 15 greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is 16 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

17 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
18 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately
19 protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a 20 well-defined community of interest.

21 ///

23 ///

1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of
2 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
3 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has 4 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's
5 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 6 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 7 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur,
8 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 9 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 10 each class member.

11 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 12 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
13 of all class members is impractical.

14 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
15 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great 16 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
17 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
18 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 19 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 20 their rights.

21 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 22 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 23 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

24 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 25 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;

26 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
27 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;
28

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to
2 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
3 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
4 and the other class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 6 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- 7 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class 8 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 9 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to California
10 Labor Code section 226.7(c);
- 11 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 12 other class members for all hours worked;
- 13 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to class members within 14 the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- 15 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 16 the other class members during their employment;
- 17 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 18 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 19 j. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
20 for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 21 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 22 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 23 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 24 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 25 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- 26 n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 27 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and 28

o. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Riverside.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Riverside.

19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members' employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiff's and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and the other class members.

21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other class members.

22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California.

23. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, and failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay related premium wages, in violation of California law.

1 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 4 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

5 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
7 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”)
8 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
10 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
11 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 12 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 13 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
14 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
15 period was missed.

16 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
18 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff’s 19 and the other class members’ regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 20 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 21 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 22 missed.

23 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
24 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
25 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 26 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

27 ///

1 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that class members were entitled to receive the wages owed to
3 them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
4 period premiums, and that class members did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at 5 the time of their discharge or resignation.

6 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 their wages within a specified time period during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the 9 other class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period
10 during their employment.

11 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
12 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
13 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, Plaintiff 14 and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 15 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 16 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

17 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
18 knew or should have known that they had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for 19 Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not 20 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

21 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 23 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

24 ///

26 ///

1 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
3 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
5 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
6 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

7 36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and 9 other class members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40)

20 employment.

21 41. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide 24 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

25 43. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse
26 Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses.

27 ///

44. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits.

45. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against SOLARMAX FINANCIAL, INC., SOLARMAX LED, INC., SOLARMAX
RENEWABLE ENERGY PROVIDER, INC., SOLARMAX TECHNOLOGY, INC., and
DOES 1 through 100)

46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 45, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

47. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

49. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

1 50. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation
2 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
3 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day
4 of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in 5 excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day
6 of work.

7 51. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class
8 members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a 9 week.

10 52. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and 11 willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

12 53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid
13 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 14 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

15 54. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class 16 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 17 attorneys' fees.

20 91. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
21 Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
22 protected rights.

23 92. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 24 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 25 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
26 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

27 ///

1 93. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the

5 94. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to

3 (Against SOLARMAX FINANCIAL, INC., SOLARMAX LED, INC., SOLARMAX
4 RENEWABLE ENERGY PROVIDER, INC., SOLARMAX TECHNOLOGY, INC., and
5 DOES 1 through 100)

6 98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
7 through 97, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
8 forth herein.

9 99. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that 10 any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and 11 collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its 12 departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the 13 California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved
14 employee on behalf of themselves, and other current or former employees.

15 100. On August 8, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and 16 Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the 17 theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference
18 is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about October 14, 2024,
19 the sixty-five (65) days’ notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not take 20 any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted his 21 administrative remedies.

22 101. Plaintiff and the other non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as 23 defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they all are or were non-exempt
24 employees of Defendants employed in California at any time during the period from August 8,
25 2023, to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

5 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

6 103. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other
7 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all
8 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

9 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

10 104. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to authorize and permit 11 their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or 12 major fraction thereof and were further required to provide their non-exempt employees with a
13 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked, pursuant to the mandates of Labor
14 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

26 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to the mandates of Labor
27 Code sections 201 and 202.

1 109. As a policy and practice, as a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations
2 alleged above, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved former employees their final wages,
3 pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Accordingly, Defendants owe
4 waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

5 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

6 110. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
7 regarding their California employees, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 226 and 8 1174.

9 111. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 10 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
11 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding 12 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 13 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 14 hours worked at each hourly rate.

15 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

16 112. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse their 17 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
18 consequences of the discharge of their duties, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 19 2800 and 2802.

20 113. As a policy and practice, Defendants regularly failed to reimburse Plaintiff and 21 the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owed
22 to them within the required time period.

23 Penalties

24 114. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on 25 behalf of other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from 26 Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant,
27 including but not limited to:
28

- 1 a. Penalties under California Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of one
2 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for 3 the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved
4 employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 5 b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in 6 the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay
7 period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each
8 aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- 9 c. Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and 10 entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the 11 California Labor Code in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for 12 each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two

Re: SOLARMAX FINANCIAL, INC., SOLARMAX LED, INC., SOLARMAX
RENEWABLE ENERGY PROVIDER, INC., and SOLARMAX TECHNOLOGY, INC.

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Ulises Huerta against SolarMax Financial, Inc., SolarMax LED, Inc., SolarMax Renewable Energy Provider, Inc., and Solarmax Technology, Inc. (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "SolarMax").

Mr. Huerta is pursuing his California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Huerta may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

SolarMax Financial, Inc. is a California corporation located at 3230 Fallow Field Dr., Diamond Bar, CA 91765. SolarMax LED, Inc. is a California corporation located at 3080 12th Street, Riverside, CA 92507. SolarMax Renewable Energy Provider, Inc. is a California corporation located at 3080 12th Street, Riverside, CA 92507. ¹ Mr. Huerta does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Huerta will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Huerta is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Huerta and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

SolarMax employed Mr. Huerta as an hourly-paid non-exempt Warehouse Clerk/Technician within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around January of 2024) in the State of California. SolarMax directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Huerta's and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Huerta may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of SolarMax within the State of California.

SolarMax failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

SolarMax has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. SolarMax failed to compensate Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. SolarMax also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into Mr. Huerta's and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, SolarMax failed to pay Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, SolarMax routinely required Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with SolarMax's policies and expectations and fulfill orders. SolarMax failed to provide coverage to Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, SolarMax failed to authorize and permit Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, SolarMax failed to compensate Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." SolarMax required Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." SolarMax required Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, SolarMax failed to pay Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, SolarMax failed to pay Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, SolarMax did not provide Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from SolarMax were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, SolarMax failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, SolarMax did not provide Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Huerta and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by SolarMax, including for using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work-related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Huerta and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Huerta will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of SolarMax within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
