1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Jesse P. Sahagun (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $295,000.00
4 non-reversionary, wage and hour class action settlement with Defendant Archer-Daniels-Midland 5 Company (“Defendant”) (Plaintiff and Defendant, collectively, the “Parties”). The Settlement will 6 provide substantial monetary payments to approximately 195 Class Members. As set forth more fully 7 below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law.
8 The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, informal discovery, and negotiations. The 9 negotiations were at arm’s-length and were facilitated by experienced neutral mediator, Eve Wagner, 10 through a mediation session. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court preliminarily approve the 11 proposed Settlement, certify the proposed settlement class, approve the proposed notice, and set a 12 final approval hearing.

13 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

14 A. Plaintiff’s Claims

15 Defendant operates in the agricultural industry, offering crop transportation and processing 16 services. (Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of 17 Class and Representative Action Settlement [“Moon Decl.”] ¶ 3.) Plaintiff worked for Defendant in 18 a non-exempt, hourly-paid position from approximately 2009 to August 31, 2023, as a forklift 19 operator. (Declaration of Plaintiff Jesse P. Sahagun in Support of Approval of Class and 20 Representative Action Settlement [“Plaintiff Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff was classified as non-exempt 21 during the entirety of his employment and was subjected to the same unlawful labor practices as his 22 coworkers. (Moon Decl., ¶ 3.)

23 Plaintiff’s claim for unpaid wages stems from Defendant’s alleged practice of rounding
24 Settlement Class Members’ time to their detriment, Defendant’s alleged failure to compensate 25 Settlement Class members for off-the-clock work, and Defendant’s alleged failure to incorporate all 26 remuneration into the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating correct overtime rate of pay, 27 meal break premium rate of pay, and sick day rate of pay. (Id. at ¶ 4.) Plaintiff also alleges that 28 Defendant systematically failed to provide meal periods and rest breaks. (Id.) In addition to the

1 foregoing claims, Plaintiff brings claims for reimbursement of necessary business expenses based on 2 allegations that Settlement Class Members were required to use their personal cellphone for work
3 purposes and maintain their uniforms, without reimbursement. (Id.) Plaintiff also brings derivative
4 claims against Defendant for waiting time penalties, wage statement violations, unfair business
5 practices, and civil penalties under California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections
6 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). (Id.)

7 Because of Defendant’s alleged violations of the Labor Code, Plaintiff commenced this 8 Action on or around August 7, 2024, by filing a Complaint, alleging that Defendant systematically:
9 (1) failed to pay minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal 10 periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit rest breaks, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business 11 expenses; (6) failed to timely pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized
12 wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business practices. (Id. at ¶ 5.) On or around November 13 20, 2024, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint against Defendant adding a cause of action for 14 civil penalties under PAGA (the “Operative Complaint”). (Id.)

15 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
16 (Id. at ¶ 6.) Defendant contends, among other things, that its rounding policy was neutral on its face, 17 and that it did not fail to incorporate any additional remuneration into the regular rate of pay. (Id.)
18 Moreover, Defendant argues that it met its meal and rest period obligations, and that Plaintiff and 19 the putative class members were provided with the opportunity to take all meal and rest periods to 20 which they were entitled. (Id.) Defendant also contends that it reimbursed its employees for all 21 necessary business expenses incurred and that cellphone use was not required for work. (Id.) 22 Furthermore, to the extent that Plaintiff received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, 23 Defendant assert that Plaintiff suffered no actual damage or harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., Angeles
24 v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013) No. C 12-05860 CRB, 2013 WL 622032, at *10 [“A 25 plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to provide full and 26 accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not sufficient.”].)

27 With respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges that its good-28 faith belief that it paid all wages precluded the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff

1 could not prove that Defendant’s alleged failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was 2 “willful.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 7; see, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012) No. ED
3 CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx), 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, Defendant claims it did not 4 engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7.) Finally, 5 Defendant disputes the certifiability of the class, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive 6 nature of the wage claims that could bar class certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall 7 liability. (Id.)

8 B. Discovery and Investigation

9 The Parties met and conferred regarding an agreement to mediate Plaintiff’s claims. (Id. at ¶ 10 8.) Thereafter, the Parties agreed to a protocol for exchanging documents and information before the 11 mediation. (Id.) Plaintiff obtained from Defendant, through informal but extensive discovery, 12 information sufficient to meaningfully evaluate the claims at issue in the action, including applicable
13 written policies of Defendant during the relevant period, Plaintiff’s personnel file, a sample of time 14 and corresponding payroll records of Settlement Class Members, and information regarding the 15 estimated number of current and former Settlement Class Members, Workweeks, PAGA Members, 16 PAGA Pay Periods, and average hourly pay. (Id.)

17 In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff’s Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information
18 Defendant provided, including the sample time/pay records and documents regarding Defendant’s 19 wage and hour policies. (Id. at ¶ 9.) Plaintiff’s Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the 20 sample records and prepare a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) The sample of time and pay 21 records contained the records of 43,512 shifts actually worked during the Class Period (representing 22 approximately 93% of the Class), which allowed Plaintiff’s expert to prepare an analysis with a high 23 degree of certainty. (Id.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Plaintiff’s Counsel 24 also investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.)
25 Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel were able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success 26 on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims. (Id.) Thus, 27 Plaintiff’s and his counsel’s familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the 28 pleadings allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

1 After a reasonable inquiry, Plaintiff's Counsel aver that they are not aware of any case, the 2 nature of any claims asserted in such case, or the definition of a class of parties on whose behalf any 3 action was brought that would overlap with the putative Class, as defined in this matter, or would 4 otherwise be extinguished or adversely affected by approval of this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 10.)

5 C. Settlement Negotiations

6 On February 9, 2026, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with Eve Wagner, Esq., 7 a professional and neutral class and PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 11.) The settlement negotiations 8 were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The 9 Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but 10 each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not 11 been reached. (Id.) After extensive discussion regarding the merits and certifiability of Plaintiff's 12 claims and Defendant's defenses, a settlement was reached by the parties, the material terms of which 13 are encompassed within the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 11, Ex. A ["Settlement"].)

14 Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. (Id.
15 at ¶ 20.) Based on the foregoing discovery and their own independent investigation and evaluation, 16 Plaintiff's Counsel is of the opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id.)
17 Furthermore, in light of all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, 18 appellate risk, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant both to certification and on the merits, 19 the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. (Id.) Indeed, the 295,000.00
20 Gross Settlement Amount represents approximately 12% of the maximum exposure of 21 $2,539,539.87 and 47% of the realistic recovery of $634,884.97. (Id. at ¶¶ 28, 30.)

22 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

23 Under the Settlement, Defendant will pay a non-reversionary, Gross Settlement Amount of 24 $295,000.00 and any employer payroll taxes owed, to resolve this litigation. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.)
25 The Settlement's key terms include:

26 1. Settlement Class and Class Settlement Period: The proposed Class for purposes of the 27 Settlement contains approximately 195 members and is defined as: all current and former California 28

1 non-exempt employees of Defendant during the Class Settlement Period. (Settlement, ¶ 1.34.) “Class 2 Settlement Period” means the period August 7, 2020, through April 30, 2026. (Id. at ¶ 1.4.)

3 2. Eligible Workweeks: means any week during which a Class Member worked for 4 Defendant for three or more calendar days, during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.10.)

5 3. Participating Class Member Release. As of the Effective Date and full funding of the 6 Gross Settlement Amount, including the employer’s share of payroll taxes, all Participating Class
7 Members fully and finally release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims that arose
8 during the Class Settlement Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.6.2.)

9 4. The State of California, Plaintiff and the PAGA Member Release. As of the Effective 10 Date and full funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, including the employer’s share of payroll 11 taxes, Plaintiff, as representative of the State of California and on behalf of the LWDA and as 12 representative of the PAGA Members, fully and finally releases the Released Parties from the PAGA
13 Released Claims for the PAGA Settlement Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.6.3.)

14 5. PAGA Payment: means the payment in settlement of all claims for PAGA penalties, 65% 15 of which will be distributed as the LWDA PAGA Payment and 35% of which will be distributed as 16 Individual PAGA Payments to the PAGA Members. (Id. at ¶ 1.23.) The 35% share in PAGA Payment
17 or $10,500.00 shall be distributed to the PAGA Members on a pro rata basis based on their Eligible 18 Pay Periods during the PAGA Settlement Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.3.5.) Plaintiff’s Counsel submitted the 19 proposed settlement to the LWDA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 12, Ex. B.)

20 6. Net Settlement Amount: means the portion of the Gross Settlement Amount available for 21 distribution to the Participating Class Members, which shall equal the Gross Settlement Amount less 22 PAGA Payment, Court-approved attorneys’ fees and costs award to Class Counsel, Settlement 23 Administration Costs, and the Enhancement Award. (Settlement, ¶ 1.20.) The remainder is to be paid 24 to Participating Class Members as Individual Settlement Payments. (Id. at ¶ 3.3.4.)

25 7. Individual Settlement Payment: means the settlement amount due each Participating 26 Class Member from the Net Settlement Amount. (Id. at ¶ 1.17.)

27 8. Uncashed Checks: After 180 calendar days of issuance, funds from undeposited Individual 28 Settlement Payment and Individual PAGA Payment checks will be held by the Settlement

1 Administrator. (Id. at ¶ 4.10.) Even if a Participating Class Member or PAGA Member does not cash
2 or deposit his or her settlement payment check(s) within 180 calendar days of issuance, the Settlement, 3 including its release, will be binding on that Participating Class Member or PAGA Member. (Id.) After 4 180 days, any uncashed checks for the Settlement shall be tendered to the State Controller's Office, 5 Unclaimed Property Division in the name of the recipient. (Id.)

6 9. Tax Treatment: 33% of each Participating Class Members' individual payment shall 7 constitute payment in the form of wages and each Participating Class Member will be issued an IRS 8 Form W-2 for such payment to him or her. (Id. at ¶ 3.4.1.) The remaining 67% of each Participating 9 Class Members' individual payment shall constitute settlement for reimbursement of expenses, 10 penalties and interest and each Participating Class Member will be issued an IRS Form 1099 for such 11 payment to him or her, if required by law. (Id.) All Individual PAGA Payments shall be allocated as 12 100% penalties, for which a 1099 will be issued if required. (Id. at ¶ 3.4.2.)

13 10. Attorneys' Fees and Costs: The Settlement provides for a Class Counsel's Fees in the 14 amount of 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $98,333.33) for Class
15 Counsel's attorneys' fees, plus a Class Counsel's Costs for reasonable costs and expenses incurred 16 not to exceed $30,000.00. (Id. at ¶ 3.3.2.) In the event the amount of actual costs is less and/or the 17 amount of fees and costs approved by the Court are less than the requested amounts, the difference
18 will revert to the Net Settlement Amount and Class Counsel shall retain the right to appeal an award
19 of fees that is less than 25% of the Gross Settlement Amount. (Id.) At this time, Plaintiff's Counsel
20 has incurred $21,913.70 in costs. (Moon Decl., ¶ 15, Ex. D.)

21 11. Class Representative Enhancement Award: The Settlement includes a Class
22 Representative Enhancement Award to Plaintiff in an amount up to $5,000.00 from the Gross 23 Settlement Amount, subject to the Court's approval, in addition to the amount he is eligible to receive 24 as a Settlement Class Member. (Settlement, ¶ 3.3.1.) The award is in recognition of his efforts in 25 coming forward as Class Representative and as consideration for a full, general, and comprehensive 26 release of the Class Representative's Released Claims. (Id. at ¶ 1.12.)

27 12. Settlement Administration Costs: The Settlement provides the Administrator will be paid 28 Settlement Administration Costs not to exceed $5,900.00, for its fees and expenses in administering

1 this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 3.3.3.) The Parties jointly appoint APEX Class Action Administration 2 (“APEX”) who shall be responsible for the administration of the Settlement, distribution of any 3 amounts owed under this Settlement, and matters necessarily related thereto, based on its bid of 4 $5,900.00. (Id. at 1.33; Moon Decl., ¶ 18, Ex. E.)

5 13. Notice of Proposed Settlement: The Notice of Settlement sets forth in plain terms, a 6 statement of case, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the approximate amounts of attorneys’ 7 fees, costs, and service awards being sought, and an explanation of how the settlement allocations 8 are calculated. (Settlement, Ex. 1.) Within 21 calendar days after receipt of the Class Data, the 9 Administrator will send the Notice of Settlement to all Settlement Class Members identified in the 10 Class Data, via first-class USPS mail. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.2.) Upon receipt of the Class Data, the Settlement 11 Administrator shall check with the U.S. Postal Service National Change of Address Database and 12 update any addresses for the Settlement Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.1.) If any Notice of Settlement 13 is returned to the Settlement Administrator as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall run 14 a skip-trace using that Settlement Class Member’s social security number in an effort to attempt to 15 ascertain the current address of the Settlement Class Member. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.2.) If such an address(es)
16 is ascertained, the Settlement Administrator shall re-mail the Notice of Settlement within ten calendar
17 days. (Id.) If alternative addresses are obtained for a Settlement Class Member, the Settlement
18 Administrator shall send the Notice of Settlement to up to 2 alternative addresses. (Id.)

19 14. Response Deadline and Procedure for Challenging Workweeks and/or Pay Periods, Opting 20 Out, or Objecting: “Response Deadline” means 45 days after the Settlement Administrator mails the 21 Notice of Settlement to Settlement Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 1.31.) It shall be the last date on which 22 Settlement Class Members may: (a) postmark any Opt-Out Request from the class portion of the 23 Settlement, (b) postmark any written objection to the Settlement, and (c) postmark any Eligible
24 Workweek or Eligible Pay Period Dispute. (Id.) The Response Deadline for Settlement Class Members 25 to whom the Notice of Settlement is remailed after having been returned as undeliverable to the 26 Settlement Administrator shall be 55 calendar days after the Settlement Administrator’s initial mailing 27 of the Notice of Settlement to Settlement Class Members, or 14 days after the re-mailing, whichever is 28 later. (Id.) Settlement Class Members, except for the Class Representative, will have until the Response

Deadline within which to opt out of the class portion of the Settlement; however, exercising this option has no effect on the PAGA portion of this settlement. (Id. at ¶ 4.3.1.) PAGA Members will be mailed an Individual PAGA Payment and be bound by the release of the Released PAGA Claims regardless of whether they opt out of the class settlement. (Id.) Also, Settlement Class Members shall have until the Response Deadline to submit a written objection or request exclusion from the Settlement (Id. at ¶ 4.4.) Lastly, Participating Class Members and PAGA Members may dispute their Eligible Workweeks and Eligible Pay Periods if they believe they worked for more Eligible Workweeks or Eligible Pay Periods in the Class Settlement Period or PAGA Settlement Period than stated on their Notice of Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 4.5.)

15. Funding: The Settlement provides that within 21 calendar days after the Effective Date or within 14 days of the Settlement Administrator providing all information necessary for Defendant to transfer funds to the Qualified Settlement Fund, whichever is later, Defendant shall pay the Gross Settlement Amount and the employer's share of payroll taxes into the Qualified Settlement Fund set up, held, and controlled by the Settlement Administrator. (Id. at ¶ 4.9.1.)

III. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800-01.) This Court has wide discretion to determine whether the proposed settlement is fair. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation is sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1800.)

In evaluating a settlement, the trial court considers the following factors: 1) the strength of plaintiff's case; 2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; 3) the risk of maintaining class action status through trial; 4) the amount offered in settlement; 5) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; 6) the experience and views of counsel; 7) the presence of a governmental participant; and 8) the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) In order to approve

1 a class action settlement, the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the “ballpark”
2 of reasonableness. (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum
3 theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 4 399, 408-9 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the 5 plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims”, but instead, only an “understanding of 6 the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation.”].)

7 As discussed below, Plaintiff’s Counsel have provided information exceeding the threshold 8 required to provide this Court with materials and information necessary to determine that the 9 proposed settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.

10 A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of 11 Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

12 1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, and Informed 13 and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations

14 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless 15 evidence to the contrary is offered; thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 16 conducted in good faith. (Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 11.51.)
17 Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super. Ct.
18 (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The fact that 19 a plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve 20 the settlement.”].)

21 The Settlement was reached following extensive negotiations following an in-person
22 mediation session with experienced employment mediator Eve Wagner, Esq. (Moon Decl. ¶ 11.)
23 The settlement negotiations were at arm’s length and, although conducted in a professional manner, 24 were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a 25 settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their or its position through trial
26 and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.)

27 Prior to reaching this Settlement, Plaintiff’s Counsel conducted informal discovery and 28 investigation into the claims alleged by Plaintiff, including, among other things, reviewing and

1 analyzing sample time and payroll records of Defendant, written policies of Defendant, and preparing 2 a damage analysis. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 8-9, 20-21.) Significantly, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s calculations
3 are based on the analysis of a statistics expert retained by Plaintiff’s Counsel to analyze the records
4 produced by Defendant. (Id. at ¶¶ 9, 21.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, 5 Plaintiff’s Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the 6 litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 9, 21.) Thus, Plaintiff and his counsel were able to act intelligently and 7 effectively in negotiating the proposed settlement. (Id. at ¶ 9.)

8 Plaintiff’s Counsel also have considerable experience and have demonstrated competence 9 with litigating wage and hour class actions. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 48-71.) Again, this supports that the 10 terms of the Settlement are based on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed against 11 the risks, expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation of this action.

12 2. The Settlement Is Fair and Reasonable in Light of the Parties’
13 Respective Legal Positions

14 A settlement is not judged against what might plaintiff recovered had he prevailed at trial, 15 nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
16 (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 [“Compromise is inherent 17 and necessary in the settlement process...even if the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is 18 substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated, this is no bar to 19 a class settlement because the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in 20 which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.”])

21 The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 22 some of Plaintiff’s claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 33.) While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, 23 a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id. at ¶ 31.) Plaintiff also recognizes that 24 proving the amount of wages due to each Settlement Class Member would be an expensive, time-25 consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his 26 claims on a class-wide basis and thereafter obtained certification of all or some of the claims, 27 continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and possible appeals, and would 28 substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Settlement Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 33.)

1 The proposed settlement of $295,000.00 therefore represents a substantial recovery when 2 compared to Plaintiff's reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶ 36.) Because of the proposed 3 Settlement, Settlement Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk
4 of an unfavorable judgment. (Id. at ¶ 30.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 5 involved in achieving class certification, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, the 6 probability of appeal of a favorable judgment, it is clear that the settlement amount is within the 7 "ballpark" of reasonableness, and preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id. at ¶ 36.)

8 The Net Settlement Amount available for settlement payments is no less than $125,766.67
9 for an estimated Class size of 195 individuals.¹ (Id. at ¶ 35.) As a result, it is estimated each 10 Participating Class Member is eligible to receive an average benefit of approximately $644.96 prior 11 to tax withholdings on the wage portion of payments. Considering Settlement Class Members' 12 average hourly rate is $24.24, the average benefit is approximately 26.61 hours of work. (Id.) 13 Additionally, there are an estimated 174 PAGA Members who are each expected to receive an 14 average of $60.34 from the $10,500.00 Individual PAGA Payments, or 35% of the $30,000.00
15 allocated to PAGA Payments, or a PAGA Pay Period value of $1.47 based on the 7,165 PAGA
16 Pay Periods. (Id.) The actual amounts to Participating Class Members and PAGA Members will 17 vary based on each individual's duration of work during the Class Settlement Period or PAGA 18 Settlement Period, respectively; thus, those who worked longer for Defendants during the relevant 19 period will receive a benefit greater than the average estimated amount. (Id.) The high and low range 20 of payments to Class Members will be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary 21 approval and receipt and processing of the Class Data and will be provided to the Court in a motion 22 for final approval. (Id.)

23
24
25
26
27 ¹ The Net Settlement Amount is at least $295,000.00 less the following: $5,000.00 for the 28 Class Representative Enhancement Award, up to $5,900.00 for the Settlement Administration Cost, $30,000.00 for PAGA Payment, $98,333.33 for the Class Counsel's Fees, and approximately $30,000.00 for Class Counsel's Costs. (Settlement, ¶¶ 3.3, et seq.)

1 3. Plaintiff's Counsel Have Extensive Experience in Class Action
2 Litigation

3 The settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel.
4 Plaintiff's Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their clients and are 5 experienced in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 48-71.) Although 6 Plaintiff and his counsel were prepared to litigate the claims alleged in the litigation, they support
7 the proposed Settlement as being in the best interest of the class. (Moon Decl., ¶ 20.)

8 B. The Proposed Class Notice of Settlement Should Be Approved

9 The proposed Notice of Settlement, in the form attached to the Settlement as Exhibit 1, should 10 be approved for dissemination to the class. The Notice of Settlement informs the class of the terms 11 of the Settlement and of their rights to be excluded from the Settlement. Additionally, if there are 12 Settlement Class Members who wish to object to this proposed Settlement, they will have the 13 opportunity to file their objections and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. Accordingly, the 14 proposed Notice of Settlement meets all the requirements of Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of 15 Court.

16 C. The Proposed Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

17 The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to 1/3 18 of the Gross Settlement Amount, currently estimated to be $98,333.33, plus reimbursement for 19 reasonable costs and expenses incurred not to exceed $30,000.00. (Settlement, 3.3.2.) These amounts 20 are subject to Court approval. (Id.) These amounts will be disclosed to all class members in the 21 proposed Notice and are reasonable.

22 1. Class Counsel Will Request an Award of Fees Based on the "Common 23 Fund" Method

24 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 25 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. The California Supreme Court held that "when a 26 number of persons is entitled in common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or 27 plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or 28

1 plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys’ fees out of the fund.” (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 2 34, quoting D’Amico v. Bd. of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1.)

3 Plaintiff’s Counsel seek an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 4 fund” theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 41.) The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs 5 proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 6 burden alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc. (1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of 7 California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated: “[O]ne who expends 8 attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits may require 9 those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in 10 City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court 11 recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an 12 action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.” (Id. at p.
13 110.)

14 The California Supreme Court recently affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 15 Cal.5th 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 16 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 17 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 18 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 19 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 20 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 21 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation—22 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.” (Id.
23 [internal citations omitted].)

24 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

25 According to a leading treatise on class actions, “No general rule can be articulated on what 26 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 27 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 28 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.” (See Conte & Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id; see also Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Company (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294 [stating that most cases where 30-50 percent was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

Here, Plaintiff requests attorneys’ fees equal to 1/3 of the Gross Settlement Amount, which is in line with the prevailing guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in California. (Compare Settlement, ¶ 3.3.2 with Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties and requested herein.

3. This Matter Involves A “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

Labor Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194 and 2699, et seq. provide for the recovery of reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit, for the claims made in this action. Under these sections, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover his actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. This Settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff’s Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Plaintiff’s Counsel. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 44-47.) Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Id.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Class, Plaintiff’s Counsel committed to pursue it to its conclusion, placing its fiduciary duty to the Settlement Class ahead of all other concerns. (Id. at ¶ 45.)

4. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of Plaintiff’s Counsel Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers and employees, Plaintiff’s Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Id. at ¶¶ 48-71.) Plaintiff’s Counsel has been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in several class actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 52, 57.) Because it is reasonable to compensate class counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation and experience, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s requested fee award is supported here.

Plaintiff’s Counsel’s experience in wage and hour class actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendants and the reasonableness of the settlement. (Moon Decl., ¶ 72.) Practice in the narrow field of wage and hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. (See id. at ¶ 70.) Based on these and other factors, Plaintiff’s Counsel have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for the class. (See e.g., id. at ¶ 52.) Therefore, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

D. The Class Representative Enhancement Award Is Reasonable

Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 86 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 958-59.)

Enhancement awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “it is the policy of this state to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions....”). Nonetheless, the California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460-61.) In this context, class representatives should be rewarded

1 for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members. (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co.
2 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

3 The Settlement includes a Class Representative Enhancement Award to Plaintiff in an 4 amount up to $5,000.00 from the Gross Settlement Amount, subject to the Court's approval, in 5 addition to the amount he is eligible to receive as a Settlement Class Member. (Settlement, ¶ 3.3.1.)
6 Plaintiff's Counsel represents that Plaintiff devoted a great deal of time and work assisting counsel 7 in the case and communicated with counsel very frequently for litigation and to prepare for 8 mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 37-40.) This amount is reasonable particularly in light of the substantial 9 benefits Plaintiff generated for all class members. (Id.)

10 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested 11 here is particularly reasonable. Indeed, a 2006 study examining the average incentive award given 12 to class action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the "average award per class representative 13 was $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4,357." (Theodore Eisenberg &
14 Jeffrey P. Miller, "Incentive Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study", 53 UCLA L.
15 Rev. 1303, 1308 (2006).) That same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination 16 class actions received an average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named 17 plaintiffs in other employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median 18 award of $13,059. (Id. at p. 1334.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment 19 cases reflected the "courts" wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for 20 the high costs of their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job."
21 (Id. at p. 1308.)

22 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

23 A. Legal Standard

24 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. All of the claims derive 25 from a core set of alleged violations of California's wage and hour laws and regulations. For the 26 reasons set forth more fully below, for purpose of settlement the Class satisfies the prerequisites for 27 certification under Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Section 382 provides: "when the question is one 28 of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is

1 impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of 2 all.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) There are two requirements to section 382: “(1) There must be an 3 ascertainable class; and (2) there must be a well-defined community of interest in the questions of 4 law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v. Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67
5 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [citations omitted].) To clarify these requirements, the California Supreme Court
6 has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to explain that the community-of-interest 7 requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant questions of law or fact; (2) class 8 representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can 9 adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

10 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
11 (Id. at pp. 469-73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 12 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers 13 are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the 14 appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 15 Cal.3d at pp. 473-75.)

16 B. Plaintiff Maintains That the Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied

17 1. The Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

18 When determining whether a class is ascertainable, California courts focus on the following 19 three factors: (1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class, and (3) the means of identifying class 20 members. See Miller v. Woods, 148 Cal. App. 3d 862, 873 (1983). Here, the proposed class that 21 Plaintiff seeks to represent is ascertainable because (1) the Class definition is sufficiently precise, (2)
22 consists of 195 settlement class members, and (3) Settlement Class Members can be readily identified 23 by looking at Defendant’s records.

24 Plaintiff maintains that there is an easily ascertainable class, defined by objective and precise 25 criteria. Because Settlement Class Members are identified using specific criteria in the regular 26 business records of Defendant, the Class is ascertainable. (Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 27 Cal.App.4th 952, 959-60 [class membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of 28 the lawsuit is sufficient to make the class ascertainable].)

1 “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be ‘many’ parties to a 2 class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of Hayward (1981) 126
3 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’ persons, an action may 4 be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is in fact practicable to 5 join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the maintenance of a class
6 action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 10 beneficiaries of a trust 7 in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id., citing Bowles v. Super. Ct. (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574; see 8 also, Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a 35 member class.]) Therefore, Plaintiff 9 contends that numerosity is plainly satisfied.

10 2. There are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

11 To satisfy the community of interest requirement, Parties must show: (1) common questions 12 of law and fact that predominate over individual issues; (2) class representatives must have claims 13 or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives must adequately represent the class.
14 Dunk, 48 Cal. App. 4th at 1806. This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive 15 to warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE Corp. (1987) 191 16 Cal.App.3d 605.) Plaintiff’s claims satisfy all three requirements.

17 In this case, the employment practices at issue are: whether Defendant had legally compliant 18 policies and practices to pay employees all wages owed; whether Defendant had legally compliant 19 policies and practices to provide employees with meal periods; whether Defendant had legally 20 compliant policies and practices authorizing and permitting its employees to take rest periods; 21 whether defendant reimbursed employees of necessary business expenses; whether final payment of 22 wages was untimely and excluded unpaid wages, including meal period premium wages, and rest 23 period premium wages; whether all wages were paid to employees at the time of termination of the 24 employment relationship; and whether the wage statements were consequently non-compliant.
25 Plaintiff contends that the factual and legal issues are the same for all identified settlement class 26 members, including Plaintiff. Further, all settlement class members suffered from and seek redress 27 for the same alleged injuries. Considering that Settlement Class Members would need to prove the 28 same issues of law and fact to prevail and their legal remedies are identical, it would be preferable

1 to resolve all claims through a settlement agreement than to force each Class Member to litigate their 2 own individual claims. Thus, the Court should grant conditional class certification for settlement 3 because common questions of law and fact predominate over any individual questions within the 4 class.

5 3. Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

6 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 7 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather upon the 8 typicality of the proposed representative's claims as they relate to the defendant's conduct and 9 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 ["[t]he only requirements are that 10 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated" 11 vis-à-vis the class.].) A representative plaintiff's claims are typical of the class if they arise from the 12 same event, practice or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same legal theories. (Id.) That 13 is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former non-exempt employee of Defendant who worked 14 during the Settlement Class Period; as such, he alleges that he was subject to the same policies and 15 practices as other similarly situated employees. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶ 6.)

16 4. Plaintiff and His Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

17 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: first, a 18 named plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation; second, 19 a named plaintiff's interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of America 20 (1976) 60 Cal.App.3d 442, 451.)

21 Here, all requirements are met. Plaintiff retained counsel with extensive experience in 22 prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Moon 23 Decl., ¶¶ 48-71.) With their combined experience, Plaintiff's Counsel unquestionably are "qualified, 24 experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation." (Miller, supra, 148 Cal.App.3d 25 at 875.) In addition, Plaintiff has no conflicts, and Plaintiff has, with counsel, litigated this case and 26 diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing his dedication. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 7-12.) Plaintiff's 27 willingness to serve as representatives demonstrates his serious commitment to bringing about the 28 best results possible for the class. (Id. at ¶¶ 9-12; McGhee, supra, 60 Cal.App.3d at p. 451.)

1 5. A Class Action is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

2 Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class action 3 would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation. By 4 consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the class 5 action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of time, effort
6 and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. Absent class treatment, similarly situated 7 employees with small but nevertheless meritorious claims for damages would, as a practical matter, 8 have no means of redress because of the time, effort and expense required to prosecute individual 9 actions. (Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at 57-62; Leyva v. Medline Ind. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 10 515.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are essentially non-existent.

11 V. THE PROPOSED NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND

12 A. The Proposed Notice Plan Satisfies Due Process

13 Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 14 3.766 (e) and (f). California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate 15 notice program. (Cartt v. Super Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-74.) There is no statutory or due 16 process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, the Settlement 17 Class Members will receive direct mailed notice. (Settlement, ¶ 4.2.2.) As the Court of Appeals has 18 explained, “[t]he notice given should have a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage 19 of the Class Members” (Id. at p. 974.) In this case, notice of the proposed Settlement will be 20 provided by direct mailing, the best possible form of notice under the circumstances.

21 B. The Notice Is Accurate and Informative

22 The proposed Notice of Settlement should be approved. It will be disseminated through direct 23 U.S. first class mail to the last known address for each Settlement Class Member. (Settlement, ¶ 24 4.2.2.) It informs the Settlement Class Members of the terms of the settlement and their right to be 25 excluded from the Settlement. (Id. at Ex. 1.) If there are Settlement Class Members who wish to 26 object to this proposed class action settlement, they will have the opportunity to file their objections 27 and be heard at the Final Approval Hearing. (Id.)

28 The Notice of Settlement also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Conte &

1 Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd Ed.) § 8.39.) It summarizes the proceedings to date and 2 the terms and conditions of the settlement agreement, in an informative and coherent manner.
3 (Settlement, Ex. 1.) It makes clear that the Settlement does not constitute an admission of liability
4 by the Defendant, who denies all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits
5 of the action. (Id.) It also states that the final settlement approval decision has yet to be made. (Id.) 6 Accordingly, the Notice of Settlement complies with the standards of fairness, completeness, and 7 neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification class notice.

8 VI. CONCLUSION

9 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant preliminary 10 approval of the proposed settlement and set a Final Approval Hearing no earlier than 130 days from 11 preliminary approval.
