PRAYER FOR RELIEF 21

1 Plaintiff Haylie Cloud, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public
2 similarly situated, brings this action against Defendant Estelle's Baking Company, LLC, and Does
3 1 through 10, inclusive, and alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION AND PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendant Estelle's Baking Company, LLC, and 6 Does 1 through 10 (collectively, "Defendants") for violations of the California Labor Code and 7 unfair business practices stemming from Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay
8 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest 9 periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely 10 pay all wages to employees, failure to indemnify necessary business expenses and failure to 11 furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiff brings the First through Seventh Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of self and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 14 collectively referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members" and defined more fully below). The 15 Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendants in 16 California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period 17 applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Plaintiff brings the Eighth Cause of Action as a representative action under the 19 Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") to recover civil penalties that are owed to Plaintiff, the 20 State of California, and past and present employees of Defendants employed at any time within the 21 applicable statutory period (hereinafter referred to as the "Aggrieved Employees").

22 4. Defendants own and operate an industry, business, and establishment within the 23 State of California, including in Sacramento County. As such, Defendants are subject to the 24 California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC"), and 25 the California Business and Professions Code.

26 5. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants maintained 27 a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

28 ///

- 1 a. Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
2 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;
- 3 b. Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in 4 compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing to maintain accurate
5 records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each 6 workday in which a meal period violation occurred;
- 7 c. Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest
8 periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failing to pay 9 an additional hour's pay for each workday in which a rest period violation occurred;
- 10 d. Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, meal period
11 premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the time period specified by California 12 law when employment terminates;
- 13 e. Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked;
14 and
- 15 f. Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
16 containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

17 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that Defendants were on 18 actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to 19 rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times 20 herein were willful and deliberate.

21 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were legally responsible for all of the unlawful 22 conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing
23 paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each 24 of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of "respondeat 25 superior."

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

8. Plaintiff Haylie Cloud (“Plaintiff”) is an individual residing in the County of Sacramento, California and worked as a non-exempt employee from July 23, 2022 to November 23, 2023; OR

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v. American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that Defendant Estelle's Baking Company, LLC (“Estelle Bakery & Pâtisserie”) is:

a. a California limited liability company with its principal place of business in the County of Sacramento, California.

b. a business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Sacramento County; and

c. the current or former employer of Plaintiff and of the putative Class.

Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously named defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged and that Plaintiff’s damages were proximately caused by said defendants’ conduct.

12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1 through 10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured Plaintiff and a significant number of the Class in the State of California.

1 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges that at all relevant times
2 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and 3 the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 4 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on that basis alleges
5 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
6 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
7 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 8 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 9 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
10 alleged below. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted 11 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 12 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 13 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

14 VENUE AND JURISDICTION

15 14. The wrongful conduct alleged against the Defendants occurred in the County of 16 Sacramento, California. At all relevant times, the conduct at issue was part of a continuous and 17 ongoing pattern of behavior.

18 15. This Court is the proper forum to adjudicate this action because the wrongful acts 19 that are the subject of this action occurred here and because the Defendant now resides in its 20 jurisdictional area.

21 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

22 16. During the statutory period, Defendants classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from 23 California's overtime requirements, and paid Plaintiff an hourly wage.

24 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff for all hours
25 worked (including minimum wages), failed to provide Plaintiff with uninterrupted meal periods,
26 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take uninterrupted rest periods, failed to timely pay all 27 final wages to Plaintiff when Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment, and failed to furnish 28 accurate wage statements to Plaintiff. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not paying Plaintiff and the Class for all hours worked. Defendants failed to incorporate all remuneration when calculating the correct rate of pay and meal and rest break premium rate of pay, leading to underpayment to Plaintiff and the Class.

19. In maintaining a practice of not paying all wages owed, Defendants failed to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiff and the Class worked.

20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing timely 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Class in compliance with California law.

21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiff and the Class to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Class of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Class, nor did Defendants have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Class were taking their required rest periods.

1 22. Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods,
2 and therefore Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Class took rest periods during 3 the middle of each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not 4 authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

5 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
6 pay Plaintiff and the Class during and at the conclusion of their employment all wages for all
7 minimum wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages.

8 24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Class
9 with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net
10 wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked, correct
11 wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct
12 wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California 13 law). As a result of these violations of California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a), the 14 Plaintiff and the Class suffered injury because, among other things:

15 a. the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid 16 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages to 17 which they were entitled, even though they were entitled to such wages;

18 b. the violations led them to believe that they had been paid minimum wages, 19 meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages, even though they had not been;

20 c. the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum
21 wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages at the correct California rate 22 even though they were;

23 d. the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum wages,
24 overtime, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages at the correct California 25 rate even though they had not been;

26 e. the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum,
27 meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;

28 f. in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in

1 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have to perform
2 mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages owed to them, computations they 3 would not have to make if the wage statements contained the required accurate information; and 4 g. by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to lose
5 entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security, disability, unemployment, and 6 other governmental benefits;
7 h. the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage
8 rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than 9 the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class are owed
10 the amounts provided for in California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (e), including actual 11 damages.

12 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

13 25. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all 14 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil 15 Procedure section 382.

16 26. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seek relief 17 authorized by California law. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

18 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as a non-
19 exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years
20 before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending 21 when notice to the Class is sent.

22 27. Plaintiff is a member of the Class.

23 28. Plaintiff undertakes this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 24 conditions of all Class Members.

25 29. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 26 readily ascertainable:

27 a. Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 28 that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire

Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

d. Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

1. The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
2. The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
3. The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and
4. The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

e. Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation.

Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is protected.

30. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- a. failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum wages, and overtime wages;
- b. failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class Members;
- c. failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages to Class Members;
- d. failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their discharge or resignation;
- e. failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- f. failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; and
- g. violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a result of their illegal conduct as described above.

31. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because:

- a. The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any question affecting only individual members;
- b. A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- c. The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all members of the class before the Court;

1 d. Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain
2 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a class action;

3 e. There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable 4 relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation for the damages and 5 injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate
6 the members of the Class for the injuries sustained;

7 f. Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual 8 members of the class would create a risk of:

- 9 1. inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
10 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
11 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
- 12 2. adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
13 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members 14 not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or 15 impede their ability to protect their interests, including but not 16 limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those 17 parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and

18 g. Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 19 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the class as a whole.

20 32. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 21 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendants' own
22 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated
23 notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff would contemplate the 24 use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice,
25 e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods
26 suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

28 ///

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 Failure to Pay Minimum Wage for All Hours Worked

3 (Lab. Code §§ 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197 and 1197.1)

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 33. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
6 fully herein.

7 34. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 8 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 9 not required to do so.

10 35. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 11 Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay
12 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions
13 of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage Orders, which 14 require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

15 36. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for all 16 non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

17 37. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been 18 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

19 38. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 20 Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class
21 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff
22 and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which will be 23 ascertained according to proof at trial.

24 39. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code section
25 1174, subdivision (d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum
26 wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

27 40. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are 28 entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum

1 wages.

2 41. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with
3 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable
4 to this cause of action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
5 required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants
6 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due and failed to pay
7 those wages twice a month.

8 42. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
9 wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code 10 sections 218.5, 218.6, and 1194, subdivision (a).

11 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

12 Failure to Provide Overtime Compensation (Lab. Code §§ 510, 1194, 1198)

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 43. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
15 fully herein.

16 44. California Labor Code section 510 provides that employees in California shall not 17 be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless 18 they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

19 45. California Labor Code sections 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California 20 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 21 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California 22 Labor Code section 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those 23 fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

24 46. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight 25 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

26 47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
27 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
28 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Plaintiff and the 1 Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

2 48. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
3 compensation to the Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class
4 have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 5 them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
6 according to proof at trial.

7 49. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code section
8 1174, subdivision (d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime
9 compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

10 50. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to 11 proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194,
12 subdivision (a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as 13 provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

14 51. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 15 all wages due and payable twice a month. IWC Wage Orders also provide that every employer 16 shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for 17 all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the 18 Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code section 204.

19 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

20 Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage Orders)

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 52. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
23 fully herein.

24 53. At all relevant times, Defendants were aware of and were under a duty to comply 25 with California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable sections of IWC Wage Orders.

26 54. California Labor Code section 512 prohibits an employer from employing an 27 employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with 28 a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, or for a work period of more than 10 hours per day

1 without providing the employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes.

2 55. Section 11 of Wage Order No. 4 provides, and at all times relevant hereto provided,
3 in relevant part that:

4 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more
5 than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, 6 except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will 7 complete the day's work the meal period may be waived by mutual
8 consent of the employer and employee. Unless the employee is 9 relieved of all duty during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period
10 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time 11 worked. An "on duty" meal period shall be permitted only when the 12 nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all 13 duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-14 job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state 15 that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.
16 If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in 17 accordance with the applicable provisions of this Order, the 18 employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the 19 employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the 20 meal period is not provided.

21 56. Labor Code section 226.7 prohibits any employer from requiring any employee to 22 work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable IWC wage order, and provides that 23 an employer that fails to provide an employee with a required rest break or meal period shall pay
24 that employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each 25 work day that the employer does not provide a compliant meal or rest period.

26 57. Defendants knowingly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with meal periods as 27 required by law. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with any payment of 28 meal premiums. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for 1 each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal break(s), plus interest thereon.

2 58. Plaintiff and the Class have therefore been damaged and are entitled to payment of 3 the meal period premiums as provided by law.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 Failure to Provide Rest Periods (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage Orders)

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 59. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
8 fully herein.

9 60. Section 12 of Wage Order No. 4 provides, and at all times relevant hereto provided,
10 in relevant part that:

11 Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest
12 periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each 13 work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the 14 total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time
15 per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof. However, a rest period
16 need not be authorized for employees whose total daily work time
17 is less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours. Authorized rest period
18 time shall be counted, as hours worked, for which there shall be no
19 deduction from wages. If an employer fails to provide an employee
20 a rest period in accordance with the applicable provisions of this 21 Order, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at 22 the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that 23 the rest period is not provided.

24 61. California Labor Code section 226.7 prohibits any employer from requiring any 25 employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable IWC wage order, and 26 provides that an employer that fails to provide an employee with a required rest break or meal 27 period shall pay that employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 28 compensation for each work day that the employer does not provide a compliant meal or rest

1 period.

2 62. Defendants knowingly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with rest periods as 3 required by law, and knowingly failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff to take rest periods as 4 required by law. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with any payment of rest
5 premiums. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of premium wages rate for each 6 workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), plus interest thereon.

7 63. Plaintiff and the Class have therefore been damaged and are entitled to payment of 8 the meal and rest period premiums as provided by law.

9 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 Waiting Time Penalties (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 64. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
13 fully herein.

14 65. California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 require an employer to pay its 15 employees all wages due immediately upon discharge or within 72 hours of resignation. This 16 requirement applies to unpaid overtime wages. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if 17 an employer willfully fails to pay such wages, the employer must continue to pay the subject
18 employee's wages until the back wages are paid in full or an action is commenced, up to a 19 maximum of thirty days of wages.

20 66. Defendants willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class their earned and unpaid
21 wages for 30 days from the time such wages should have been paid under the Labor Code.

22 67. As a result of Defendants' willful failure to pay owed wages upon separation from 23 employment, Plaintiff and the Class have been harmed and Defendants are liable for statutory 24 waiting time penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.

25 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements (Lab. Code § 226)

27 (Against All Defendants)

28 68. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth

1 fully herein.

2 69. California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) requires employers to provide 3 employees, semi-monthly or at the time of each payment of wages, with a statement that 4 accurately reflects certain itemized information including total number of hours worked.

5 70. Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to furnish Plaintiff and the Class
6 with timely and accurate wage statements that accurately reflected the total number of hours
7 worked and wages earned, as required by California Labor Code section 226.

8 71. As a result of Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements,
9 Plaintiff and the Class suffered actual damages and harm by being unable to determine the amount 10 of overtime worked each pay period in a timely manner, which prevented them from asserting their 11 rights under California law.

12 72. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and 13 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as a 14 result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following 15 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of the California Labor Code and 16 related laws and regulations.

17 73. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual damages
18 caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a).

19 74. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 20 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code 21 section 226, subdivision (h).

22 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 Violation of Unfair Competition Law (Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 75. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
26 fully herein.

27 76. Business and Professions Code section 17200, et seq. ("UCL") prohibits any 28 "unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent business act or practice." Defendants have engaged in unlawful activity as follows:

- a. violations of California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1198 for failure to pay minimum wages, including overtime wages;
- b. violations of California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal periods and rest breaks;
- c. violations of California Labor Code section 226 for failure to provide accurate wage statements;
- d. violation of California Labor Code section 2802 for failure to indemnify necessary business expenses; and
- e. violations of California Labor Code sections 201 through 203 for failure to pay accrued wages upon separation of employment.

77. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

78. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

79. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

80. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further entitled to and does seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

1 81. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no plain,
2 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as 3 a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a
4 result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff,
5 individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to 6 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 7 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

8 82. Plaintiff also alleges that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
9 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 10 withholdings.

11 83. Pursuant to the UCL, Plaintiff and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution
12 of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants during a period that commences four years prior 13 to the filing of this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding
14 wages due to Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code
15 of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

16 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 Private Attorneys General Act (Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 84. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though set forth
20 fully herein.

21 85. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the California Labor 22 Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

23 86. California Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a) specifically provides for a 24 private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "[n]otwithstanding any 25 other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 26 and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, 27 divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an 28 alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of

1 himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in 2 Section 2699.3.”

3 87. Plaintiff has exhausted their administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor
4 Code section 2699.3. On September 25, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing to the 5 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants the 6 specific provisions of the California Labor Code that Defendants violated against Plaintiff and 7 current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations.
8 A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s notice to LWDA and Defendants is attached as Exhibit A.
9 Plaintiff’s LWDA case number is LWDA-CM-1052644-24.

10 88. At the time of this filing, LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate
11 Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. If it does so, Plaintiff will amend 12 complaint. Otherwise, Plaintiff will proceed with this civil action to recover penalties under 13 California Labor Code section 2699 pursuant to section 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor
14 Code alleged herein. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California
15 Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1197.1, and 2699, subdivision (f)(2).

16 89. In addition, Plaintiff seeks penalties for Defendants’ violation of California Labor
17 Code section 1174, subdivision (d). Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1174.5, any person, 18 including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete
19 records required by California Labor Code section 1174 is subject to a penalty under section
20 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records
21 showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours 22 worked daily shall also be recorded.

23 90. Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall 24 keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

25 91. During the time period of employment for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 26 Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the California Labor Code and IWC Orders by 27 failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing when 28 employees begin and end each work period. Defendants’ failure to provide and maintain records

1 required by the California Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
2 Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal
3 periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked, as stated in Defendants' records. Therefore,
4 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all
5 of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants.

6 92. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and 7 continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest
8 on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform
9 its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial.
10 Because of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable
11 IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they 12 were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

13 93. Based on the conduct described in this complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 14 civil penalties on behalf of themselves, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved Employees
15 of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 16 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

17 94. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
18 pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (g)(1), which states, "[a]ny employee 19 who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

20 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

21 Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the 22 class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

23 Class Certification

- 24 1. That this action be certified as a class action under California Code of Civil 25 Procedure section 382;
- 26 2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representatives of the Class; and
- 27 3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

28 ///

As to the First Cause of Action

4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all minimum wages due;
5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
7. For liquidated damages;
8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, subdivision (a); and,
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Second Cause of Action

10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;
11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;
12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, subdivision (a); and,
14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Third Cause of Action

15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;
16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;
17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;
18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure section

1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code section 2802 the IWC Wage Orders;

26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be appropriate;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

- 1 33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
2 34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

3 As to the Seventh Cause of Action

- 4 35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record
5 keeping provisions of California Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) and 6 applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized
7 wage statements thereto;
8 36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226,
9 subdivision (e);
10 37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California
11 Labor Code section 226, subdivision (h);
12 38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and
13 39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

14 As to the Eighth Cause of Action

- 15 40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the UCL by 16 failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum wages), failing to 17 provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to 18 authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all 19 hours worked and meal periods, and failing to furnish accurate wage statements;
20 41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment 21 interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;
22 42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all
23 funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired 24 by Defendants as a result of Defendants' violations of the UCL;
25 43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 26 California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5;
27 44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to the UCL.; 28 and,

1 45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

2 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

3 46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the Labor Code 4 by failing to pay minimum wages, failing to provide meal periods, failing to 5 authorize and permit rest periods, failing to maintain accurate records of hours
6 worked and meal periods, failing to timely pay all wages to terminated employees,
7 and failing to furnish accurate wage statements;

8 47. For all civil penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, et seq., and 9 all other applicable Labor Code provisions;

10 48. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to Labor
11 Code section 2699; and

12 49. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

13 As to All Causes of Action

14 50. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.

Re: Notice of Claim Under Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA")

Dear LWDA:

My firm represents Haylie Cloud ("Plaintiff") and all other aggrieved employees who intend to file an action against Estelle's Baking Company, LLC ("Defendant" or "Estelle Bakery & Pâtisserie") in connection with Defendant's violations of the California Labor Code. This letter shall serve as notice, and a request, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, et seq. ("PAGA"), that the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") investigate the violations by Defendant described herein against Plaintiff and other current and/or former employees. If LWDA does not intend to investigate the violations described herein, we respectfully request that the agency specifically notify our office of the same at your earliest possible opportunity.

Statement of Specific Provisions of the Labor Code Violated

Plaintiff intends to prosecute a civil action against Defendant for violations of Labor Code sections 226, subdivision (a), 226.7, 351, 512, and 558.

Facts and Theories in Support of Violations

Defendant is in the food service industry, as it owns and operates two bakeries and is registered to do business in the State of California. Defendant employed Plaintiff from in or around August 2022 to November 2023. Plaintiff worked as a Barista, Barista Trainer, and Front of House Manager.

Defendant willfully ignored California meal and rest break laws and instituted a policy where Plaintiff was not allowed rest breaks and frequently missed meal breaks or had meal breaks interrupted. Plaintiff was issued inaccurate wage statements, which failed to list premium pay. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Defendant failed to notify other employees of their premium pay for each payroll period.

Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements

Pursuant to Labor Code section 226 (“Section 226”), subdivision (a), an employer is required to provide itemized wage statements. Plaintiff was issued inaccurate wage statements, which failed to list premium pay and all hours worked. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Defendant failed to notify other employees of their premium pay for each payroll period and their accurate total of hours worked.

Unlawful Taking of Tips

Pursuant to Labor Code section 351, no employer or agent shall collect, take, or receive any gratuity or a part thereof that is paid, given to, or left for an employee by a patron, or deduct any amount from wages due an employee on account of a gratuity, or require an employee to credit the amount, or any part thereof, of a gratuity against and as a part of the wages due the employee from the employer.

Defendant has a policy where, if the cash register is short at the end of the day, money is taken out of the tip pool to balance the register. Requiring employees to pay for cash shortages by making improper deductions from employee tips is unlawful.

Penalties for Unpaid Wages

Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a), and employer who violates “any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty.” (Lab. Code § 558, subd. (a).)

An employer’s initial violation is subject to a “fifty-dollar penalty ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages.” Ibid. Thereafter, each subsequent violation is subject to a penalty of “one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages.” Ibid.

Here, Plaintiff repeatedly worked through meal and rest breaks but was not compensated for this time worked. Defendant is therefore liable for civil penalties under section 558, subdivision (a).

Unlawful Failure to Provide Uninterrupted Off-Duty Meal and Rest Periods

Plaintiff and similarly situated employees regularly worked in excess of five hours per day without being provided at least one half-hour meal period in which they were relieved of all duties. (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512; see also Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 4-2001.)

Plaintiff and similarly situated employees also regularly worked in excess of four hours without being provided at least a ten-minute rest period in which they were relieved of all their duties. (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512; see also Industrial Welfare Commission Order No. 4-2001.)

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, she was not able to take uninterrupted off-duty meal and rest periods in accordance with Labor Code. Defendant did not maintain a policy that ensured Plaintiff received requisite meal and rest periods. Furthermore, Defendant caused Plaintiff to miss meal and rest periods and failed to pay her the premium compensation mandated by Labor Code section 226.7, subdivisions (b)-(c). As a result of these Labor Code violations, Defendant is liable for civil penalties. (Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

Conclusion

As described above, Defendant has violated numerous wage and hour provisions of the Labor Code. As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and other current and former employees for civil penalties, attorney's fees, and costs, pursuant to Labor Code sections 226, subdivision (a), 226.7, 351, 512, and 558.

This letter shall serve as Plaintiff's notice pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3 and we ask that LWDA conduct an investigation concerning the violations described herein. Alternatively, if LWDA does not intend to investigate these violations, we ask that it issue a notification letter to our office confirming the same so that we may proceed with our civil action asserting the PAGA claims described herein.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or if you would like to discuss this matter further. Nothing in this letter is intended to be, or should be construed as, an admission against the interests of Plaintiff or other current or former employees of Defendant and shall not be construed as a waiver of their rights, remedies, claims, or defenses, all of which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,

Camron Dowlatshahi
