Attorneys for Plaintiff RAYMON
GAVALDON

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

RAYMON GAVALDON, individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

VICEROY IMPROVEMENT LLC, an Oregon
limited liability company; DABELLA
EXTERIORS, LLC, an Oregon limited liability company; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 24CV019256

FIRST AMENDED CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages (Lab. Code §§ 204, 1194, 1194.2, and 1197);
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages (Lab. Code §§ 1194 and 1198);
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512);
4. Failure to Timely Pay Final Wages at Termination (Lab. Code §§ 201-203);
5. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements (Lab. Code § 226);
6. Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures (Lab. Code § 2802);
7. Failure to Provide Reporting Time Pay (Lab. Code § 1198 and Cal. Code of Regs Title 8, § 11140, subd. 5(A); and
8. Unfair Business Practices (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.); and
9. Civil Penalties Under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2698 et seq.).

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff RAYMON GAVALDON (“Plaintiff”), based upon facts that either have
2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 3 further investigation and discovery, individually and on behalf of all other members of the public
4 similarly situated, alleges as follows:

5 THE PARTIES

6 1. Plaintiff is a California resident who worked for Defendants VICEROY
7 IMPROVEMENT LLC and DABELLA EXTERIORS, LLC, and DOES 1 through 10
8 (“Defendants”) in California as a nonexempt employee paid hourly approximately from April 2023
9 to August 2024.

10 2. Plaintiff reserves the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new 11 Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v.
12 American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law, as 13 well as to add additional claims.

14 3. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that Defendants are, and at all times 15 herein mentioned, were:

- 16 (a) Business entities qualified to do business and actually conducting business
17 in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in 18 Sacramento County; and,
19 (b) The former employers of Plaintiff and the current and/or former employer
20 of the Class Members because Defendants engaged Plaintiff and the Class
21 to work; and/or suffered and permitted Plaintiff and the Class to work, and/or 22 controlled or had the power and authority to control their wages, hours, or 23 working conditions;

24 4. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 25 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts, and omissions as described in each and all of the 26 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiff and of the Class. Further, Defendants are 27 responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of 28 “respondeat superior.”

1 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued
2 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each
3 of the Doe Defendants were in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 4 Plaintiff and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to set forth the true
5 names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with 6 appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary. At all times mentioned herein, Does 1-10, 7 inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the 8 jurisdiction of, and/or injured Plaintiff and a significant number of the Class Members in the State
9 of California.

10 6. Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct,
11 policies, practices, acts, and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as 12 the employer of Plaintiff and of the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the 13 unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior.”

14 7. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that, at all relevant times, each 15 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and the 16 other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their wages,
17 hours, and working conditions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, at all
18 relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, 19 controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor-in-interest and/or 20 predecessor-in-interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all
21 of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some 22 or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged 23 below. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that each Defendant acted pursuant to and 24 within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have 25 known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct
26 of all other Defendants. Defendants are thus jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff and the Class
27 Members on the claims asserted in this action.

28 8. Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that, at all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, were joint employers of Plaintiff and of the Class Members because they exerted significant control over these employees and dictated essential terms and conditions of employment, including, but not limited to, setting employees' wages and paying them, sending employees to different Defendants' places of business to perform part of their job duties there, and to work some of their work hours at different Defendants' locations, as well as to use various equipment types at those Defendants' locations. Defendants are thus jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff and the Class Members on the claims asserted in this action.

9. Plaintiff also alleges, on information and belief, that Defendants operated as an integrated enterprise and are thus jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff and the Class Members on the claims asserted in this action because they had (1) common ownership or financial control, (2) common management, (3) centralized control of labor relations, and/or (4) an interrelation of operations of Defendants.

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and, on that basis, alleges that those Defendants who are individuals ("Alter Ego Defendants") so dominated and controlled Defendants who were business entities (collectively, "Corporate Defendants") that failure to disregard the purported corporate entities, partnerships, companies, and/or organizations would sanction fraud and promote injustice.

11. Specifically, the Alter Ego Defendants:

- (a) treated the assets of the Corporate Defendants, as if they were their own;
- (b) diverted assets from the Corporate Defendants to themselves to the detriment of the creditors of the Corporate Defendants;
- (c) were original incorporators and/or officers and/or directors and/or partners and/or trustees and/or members and/or managing members of the Corporate Defendants;
- (d) were and/or are shareholders and/or members and/or managing members and/or have had equitable ownership in and/or financial interest in the Corporate Defendants;
- (e) used the Corporate Defendants as a mere instrumentality or "alter ego";

(f) have preferred themselves, or their personal creditors, or creditors with personal guarantees as creditors of the Corporate Defendants, to the detriment of Plaintiff and of the Class Members;

(g) actively participated in or consciously ratified the acts, conduct, and event that the Corporate Defendants contend gives rise herein to any defense.

12. Recognition of the separate existence of the Alter Ego Defendants would perpetrate a fraud and/or circumvent a statute and/or otherwise accomplish some wrongful or inequitable purpose. The facts are such that adherence to the fiction of the separate existence of the Alter Ego Defendants would, under the circumstances of this case, sanction a fraud or promote injustice or permit the Alter Ego Defendants to evade their liability.

13. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and, on that basis, alleges that the Corporate Defendants, and each of them, and at all times herein mentioned:

(a) were mere shells and shams without capital, assets, stock, or stockholders, and conduits, through which the Alter Ego Defendants carried on their business in the corporate name, exactly as before incorporation, exercising complete control and dominance of such business to such an extent that any individuality or separateness of the Corporate Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants never existed;

(b) were conceived, intended, and used by the Alter Ego Defendants to avoid individual liability and for the purpose of substituting a financially insolvent business entity in the place of Alter Ego Defendants;

(c) were so inadequately capitalized that, compared with the business to be done by them and the risks of loss attendant thereon, its capitalization was illusory or trifling;

(d) had no stock authorized to be issued or issued, nor has any permit for issuance of stock been applied for;

(e) were being used, and their assets being used, by Alter Ego Defendants, for their personal uses, causing assets of the Corporate Defendants to be transferred to Alter Ego Defendants without adequate consideration, and withdrawing funds from the Corporate Defendants' bank accounts for personal use; and/or

(f) were completely controlled, dominated, managed, and operated by the Alter Ego Defendants, who intermingled the Corporate Defendants' assets to suit the convenience the Alter Ego Defendants.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter because Plaintiff brings this Complaint for various violations of the Labor Code (including a claim pursuant to the Private Attorney General Act of 2004) and California Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") orders, Defendants are business entities operating in California, and Plaintiff is a California resident.

15. This class action is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages, penalties, and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, section 10. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction. Plaintiff's share of damages, penalties, and other relief sought in this action does not exceed $75,000.

16. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants are either citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice. There is no basis for federal diversity jurisdiction in this action because there is no complete diversity, and this case falls within the statutory exceptions to "minimal diversity" jurisdiction under the Class action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(4). Upon information and belief, two-thirds or more of the Class Members and Defendants are citizens of California and/or (a) two-thirds of the Class Members and Defendants are citizens of California; (b) the alleged wage and hour violations occurred in California; (c) significant relief is being sought against Defendants, whose violations

1 of California wage and hour laws form a significant basis for Plaintiff's claims; and (d) no other
2 class action has been filed within the past three (3) years on behalf of the same proposed class
3 against Defendants asserting the same or similar factual allegations.

4 17. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 5 agents, and/or transact business in the County of Sacramento, California.

6 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

7 18. Plaintiff worked for Defendants in California as a non-exempt employee paid
8 hourly. Defendants typically scheduled Plaintiff to work at least five days in a workweek and at 9 least eight hours per day, but Plaintiff regularly worked more than eight hours in a workday and 10 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

11 19. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants for Labor Code violations and unfair
12 business practices stemming from Defendants' failure to pay for all hours worked (including 13 minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide legally compliant meal periods, 14 failure to reimburse for business expenses, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, failure to 15 pay final wages, and failure to pay reporting time pay. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience
16 working for Defendants was typical and illustrative of the class.

17 20. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a class
18 action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter 19 collectively referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members," and defined more fully below). The 20 Class consists of Plaintiff and all other persons who have been employed by any Defendant in 21 California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee during the statute of limitations period
22 applicable to the claims pleaded here.

23 21. Plaintiff brings the Ninth Cause of Action as a representative action under the Labor
24 Code Private Attorneys Act of 2004, Labor Code sections 2698 et seq. ("PAGA") to recover civil 25 penalties that are owed to Plaintiff, the State of California, and past and present non-exempt
26 employees employed by Defendants in the State of California during the statute of limitations
27 period for their PAGA claim (herein after referred to as the "Aggrieved Employees").
28

22. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Sacramento County. As such and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are subject to the Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the IWC, and the California Business & Professions Code.

23. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed to comply with the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders with respect to Plaintiff and the Class and instead maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of including, but not limited to, the following violations on a regular basis:

(a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages; for example, Defendants:

- 1) required employees to perform work off-the-clock, without compensation, such as having work-related communications on their personal cell phones, driving back to the office from canvassing, filling out and scanning end-of-day reports, staying at the office for meetings past their usual shift end time, all without compensation; managers also pressured employees to clock out and keep working.
- 2) failed to pay for all hours worked and failed to pay some of this unpaid work at the overtime rate, as required; and/or
- 3) required them to continue working during unpaid meal periods; and/or
- 4) failed to maintain accurate records of the hours worked.

(b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods; for example, Defendants:

- 1) required employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work; and/or
- 2) failed to compensate employees for meal periods that were not

- 1 provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work;
- 2 3) continued to assert control over employees by requiring, pressuring,
- 3 or encouraging them to perform work tasks, which could not be
- 4 completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods;
- 5 and/or
- 6 4) had employees clock out and then eat their lunch while driving to the
- 7 next canvassing location or to start their meal breaks late due to the
- 8 demands of work and their quota;
- 9 5) failed to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or
- 10 missed.

- 11 (c) Failing to timely pay employees their final wages due at termination,
- 12 including, but not limited to, all expenditures, minimum wages, straight time
- 13 wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and reporting time
- 14 pay;
- 15 (d) Failing to pay employees reporting time pay when they were sent home early
- 16 before they had a chance to work at least half of their scheduled shifts;
- 17 (e) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements
- 18 containing all the information required by the Labor Code and IWC Wage
- 19 Orders, such as the correct legal entity name and address, accurate hours
- 20 worked, and meal periods penalties, among other things, and improperly
- 21 deducted uniform costs from wages;
- 22 (f) Failing to indemnify employees for work-related expenses, such as having
- 23 to use personal cell phone for work-related communications without
- 24 reimbursement, having to use a personal vehicle to drive between job sites
- 25 without proper reimbursement, and charging employees for their uniforms.

26 24. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them, were on actual and

27 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their

28

1 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were
2 willful and deliberate.

3 25. As a result of these violations of Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiff and the Class
4 suffered injury because, among other things:

- 5 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
6 minimum, straight time, overtime, reporting time pay, meal period premium,
7 even though they were entitled;
- 8 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, 9 straight time, overtime, and meal period premium, even though they had not 10 been;
- 11 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid minimum,
12 straight time, overtime, meal period premium wages at the correct California
13 rate even though they were entitled;
- 14 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, straight time,
15 overtime, and meal period premium at the correct California rate even 16 though they had not been;
- 17 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 18 straight time, overtime, meal period premium wages owed to them;
- 19 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 20 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 21 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
22 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage
23 statements contained the required accurate information;
- 24 (g) by understating the wages truly due to them, the violations caused them to 25 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security,
26 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
- 27 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wage
28 rates to which Plaintiff and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiff and the Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were entitled.

26. Thus, Plaintiff and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in Labor Code § 226(e) and injunctive relief under Labor Code § 226(h).

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27. Plaintiff brings certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all other persons similarly situated, and thus, seeks class certification under California Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

28. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiff seeks relief authorized by California law.

29. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years and seventy-one days before the filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending on the first day of trial in this matter.¹

30. At all material times, Plaintiff was a member of the Class.

31. Plaintiff undertook this concerted activity to improve the wages and working conditions of all Class Members.

32. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is readily ascertainable:

(a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be greater than forty (40) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' records.

(b) Typicality: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiff's claims are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

(c) Adequacy: Plaintiff is qualified to, and will, fairly, and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no conflicts with or interests antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

(d) Superiority: A Class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration of:

- 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and,
- 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California is to resolve the Labor Code claims of many employees through a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former employers might damage their

1 future endeavors through negative references and/or other means. Class
2 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint with 3 a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights at the same
4 time as their privacy is protected.

5 33. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 6 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 7 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 8 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, 9 straight time, and overtime wages, and reporting time pay;
- 10 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to Class
11 Members;
- 12 (c) Failed to provide Class Members with timely final wages;
- 13 (d) Failed to provide Class Members with accurate wage statements;
- 14 (e) Failed to indemnify Class Members for expenditures;
- 15 (f) Failed to pay reporting time pay; and
- 16 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 17 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

18 34. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to 19 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 20 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any 21 question affecting only individual members;
- 22 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and 23 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 24 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all 25 members of the class before the Court;
- 26 (d) Plaintiff, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain 27 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a 28 class action;

- 1 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and equitable
2 relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate compensation
3 for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are responsible in an 4 amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members of the Class for 5 the injuries sustained;
- 6 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by individual 7 members of the class would create a risk of:
- 8 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
9 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
10 of conduct for Defendants; and/or,
- 11 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
12 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members 13 not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially impair or 14 impede their ability to protect their interests, including, but not 15 limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from those 16 parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
- 17 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to 18 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to 19 the class as a whole.

20 35. Plaintiff contemplates the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 21 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. Defendants' own business
22 records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the contemplated notices.
23 To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiff contemplates the use of additional 24 techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as published notice, e-mail notice,
25 website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by other methods suitable to the Class
26 and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum and Straight Time Wages for All Hours Worked)

36. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

37. “Hours worked” is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

38. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to Plaintiff and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code § 1194, and any additional applicable Wage Orders that require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

39. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover minimum and straight time wages for all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

40. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

41. By virtue of the Defendants’ unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiff and the Class suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to Plaintiff and the Class and which will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

42. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage compensation due Plaintiff and the Class.

43. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants’ failure to pay minimum wages.

44. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of

1 action, Plaintiff and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates required by law,
2 including minimum and straight time wages. However, during all such times, Defendants
3 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiff and the Class all such wages due and failed to 4 pay those wages twice a month.

5 45. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum and 6 straight time wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§
7 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

8 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

10 46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
11 paragraphs.

12 47. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 13 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 14 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

15 48. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California shall not be 16 employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation
17 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states
18 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

19 49. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff and the Class have worked more than eight
20 hours in a workday and/or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, as employees of Defendants.

21 50. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class
22 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
23 permissible by law as required by Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198.

24 51. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
25 compensation to Plaintiff and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiff and the Class 26 have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 27 them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be ascertained
28 according to proof at trial.

52. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to Plaintiff and the Class.

53. Plaintiff and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a), as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes.

54. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with all compensation due, in violation of Labor Code § 204.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

56. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve Plaintiff and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the start of Plaintiff's and the Class's sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Labor Code § 512, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer provide unpaid meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for an employer to require any employee to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

57. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiff and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods),

Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Orders.

58. Under California law, Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s), plus interest thereon.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time Penalties)

59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

60. At all times herein set forth, Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that, if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

61. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of many other members of the Class ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

62. Defendants' failure to pay those Class Members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

63. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with §§ 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

64. The Class is entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

65. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, the Class is also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs incurred in this action.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and Compliant Wage Records)

66. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

67. At all material times set forth herein, Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

68. In addition, Labor Code § 246(i) required employer to provide an employee with written notice that sets forth the amount of paid sick leave available, or paid time off leave an employer provides in lieu of sick leave, for use on either the employee's itemized wage statement described in Section 226 or in a separate writing provided on the designated pay date with the employee's payment of wages. If an employer provides unlimited paid sick leave or unlimited paid time off to an employee, the employer may satisfy this section by indicating on the notice or the employee's itemized wage statement "unlimited."

69. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements compliant with these Labor Code sections.

70. As a result of Defendants' violation of Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 246(i), Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

71. Specifically, Plaintiff and the members of the Class have been injured by Defendants' intentional violations of California §§ 226(a) and 246(i) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage statements under Labor Code § 226(a).

72. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiff and the Class is difficult and time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiff and the Class were also injured as a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related laws and regulations.

73. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 246(i), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) per employee.

74. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code § 226(h).

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Employees for Expenditures)

75. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

76. As set forth above, Plaintiff and the Class were required to incur substantial necessary expenditures and losses in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

1 77. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802, by failing to pay and indemnify Plaintiff
2 and the Class for necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge
3 of their duties or of their obedience to directions of Defendants.

4 78. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 5 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

6 79. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, expenses, and costs
7 of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(b).

8 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Pay Reporting Time Pay)

10 80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
11 paragraphs.

12 81. Labor Code section 1198 makes it illegal to employ an employee under conditions
13 of labor that are prohibited by the applicable wage order and requires that "the standard conditions
14 of labor fixed by the commission shall be the . . . standard conditions of labor for employees. The 15 employment of any employee. . . under conditions of labor prohibited by the order is unlawful."

16 82. California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11140(5)(A) provides that "[e]ach
17 workday an employee is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is 18 furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work, the employee shall be paid
19 for half the usual or scheduled day's work, but in no event for less than two (2) hours nor more
20 than four (4) hours, at the employee's regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum 21 wage."

22 83. Defendants violated Labor Code section 1198 and California Code of Regulations,
23 Title 8, section 11140(5) because Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members reporting
24 time pay when they reported for work for their scheduled shift but were put to work for less than 25 half of the regular schedule.

26 84. Defendants had a company-wide practice of sending employees home early from 27 their shifts, including before they had worked at least half of their regular shift.
28

1 85. Although Plaintiff and Class Members would report to work based on the schedule
2 Defendants provided to them, Defendants would send them home before they had worked at least 3 half of their scheduled shifts without giving them reporting time pay.

4 86. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Class Members were not properly compensated with 5 reporting time pay in violation of Labor Code section 1198.

6 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Against All Defendants for Violations of California

8 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

9 87. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and realleges, as if fully stated herein, the above
10 paragraphs.

11 88. Defendants, and each of them, are “persons” as defined under California Business
12 & Professions Code § 17201.

13 89. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
14 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff, other Class Members, and to the general public. Plaintiff seeks 15 to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 16 Procedure § 1021.5.

17 90. Defendants’ activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 18 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
19 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

20 91. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 21 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described above in the 22 foregoing causes of action are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and are immoral, 23 unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or 24 fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et 25 seq.

26 92. By and through their unfair, unlawful, and/or fraudulent business practices
27 described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from 28 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and has deprived Plaintiff, and all persons similarly

1 situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

2 93. Plaintiff and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of 3 Defendants' wrongful conduct.

4 94. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled 5 to, and does, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the 6 Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiff and the Class have been deprived, by 7 means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiff and 8 the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of 9 Defendants in order to recover restitution.

10 95. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, is further 11 entitled to, and does, seek a declaration that the above-described business practices are unfair,
12 unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them,
13 from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices
14 in the future.

15 96. Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, has no plain,
16 speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered
17 as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a
18 result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiff, 19 individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, has suffered and will continue to 20 suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained from continuing to 21 engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

22 97. Plaintiff also alleges that, if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
23 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance, and other 24 withholdings.

25 98. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiff and 26 putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 27 Defendants during a period that commences four years and seventy-one days prior to the filing of 28 this complaint; a permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to

Plaintiff and Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(By Plaintiff Against All Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

99. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and reallege, as if fully stated herein, the above paragraphs.

100. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

101. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3."

102. On September 24, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice by online filing pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiff and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee. Plaintiff's PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-1052500-24 (Raymon Gavaldon v. Viceroy Improvement LLC). More than 65 days passed, and The Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants' Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Plaintiff hereby commences a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699.

103. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of civil penalties on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of California, and similarly situated Aggrieved Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

104. In addition, Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

CLASS CERTIFICATION

1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to all of its causes of action;
2. That Plaintiff be appointed as the representative of the Class; and,
3. That counsel for Plaintiff be appointed as Class Counsel.

AS TO THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages;
5. For unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
6. For liquidated damages;

AS TO THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all overtime wages due;
8. For unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;
9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

11. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;

12. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

AS TO THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

14. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

AS TO THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

16. For all actual damages, according to proof;

17. For statutory penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e);

18. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to Labor Code § 226(h);

AS TO THE SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by willfully failing to indemnify employees for expenditures;

20. For unpaid wages or unreimbursed business expenses as may be appropriate;

AS TO THE SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code section 1198 and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11140(5)(A) by failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with reporting time pay;

22. For all actual, consequential and incidental losses and damages, according to proof;

AS TO THE EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by the foregoing violations.

24. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiff and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

25. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

26. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

AS TO THE NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

27. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage statements, and failure to indemnify employees for expenditures;

28. An award of civil penalties on behalf of Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of the State of California, and all similarly aggrieved employees pursuant to PAGA;

29. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

30. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

31. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,

AS TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due or as provided by law;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and/or Labor Code § 1194(a) and/or Labor Code § 2699(g) or as otherwise provided by law as to all causes of action that allow recovery of attorney's fees;

- 1 34. For a trial by jury as to all causes of action triable by jury; and 2 35. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.
