JCCP No. 5391

CASE NO.: CIVSB2428736

Assigned to the Hon. Kevin Lee

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

HEARING INFO

Date: July 7, 2026

Time: 8:30 a.m.

Dept.: S26

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on July 7, 2026 at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the 3 matter may be heard, in Department S26 of the San Bernardino County Superior Court, located
4 at 247 West Third Street, San Bernardino, California 92415, before the Honorable Kevin Lee,
5 Plaintiff Irma Serrano, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, will and hereby 6 does move the Court, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382, for entry of an Order
7 granting final approval of the parties' Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the 8 "Settlement Agreement" or "Settlement"). The Settlement was preliminarily approved by the 9 Court on March 16, 2026.

10 This Motion, which is supported and unopposed by Defendant Southern Counties Express,
11 Inc. ("Defendant"), seeks final approval of a $650,000 Settlement on behalf of the Settlement
12 Class Members and entry of judgment.

13 Specifically, Plaintiff will and hereby does move the Court to grant final approval of the 14 Settlement Agreement and enter the Proposed Order and Final Judgment filed concurrently 15 herewith:

16 1. Finally certifying the Settlement Class, as defined in the Settlement Agreement
17 and the Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of the Class Action Settlement;

18 2. Finally appointing Plaintiff Irma Serrano as the Class Representative for purposes
19 of settlement;

20 3. Finally appointing Michelle Eshaghian of Eshaghian Law, PC and Mehrdad
21 Bokhour of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. as Class Counsel for purposes of settlement;

22 4. Finding that the Class Notice was properly provided to the Settlement Class in 23 accordance with the Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement;

24 5. Finally approving the Settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the 25 terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

26 6. Binding Participating Class Members and PAGA Members to the terms of the 27 Settlement Agreement, including the Releases specified therein; and 28 7. Retaining jurisdiction to enforce the Settlement Agreement.

1 This Motion is based upon this notice, the accompanying memorandum of points and 2 authorities, the Declarations of Mehrdad Bokhour and Michelle Eshaghian in Support of Final
3 Approval of Class Action Settlement, and the Declaration of Plaintiff Irma Serrano in Support of 4 the Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, and the Declaration
5 of Garvin Brown of ILYM Group, Inc.—all filed concurrently herewith; the records and files in 6 this Action, and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may receive at or before 7 the hearing.

8 Respectfully submitted,

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This motion seeks final approval of a wage-and-hour class action settlement between 4 Plaintiff Irma Serrano (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Southern Counties Express, Inc. (“Defendant”
5 or “Defendant”) (collectively, the “Parties”) in the amount of $650,000 (the “Gross Settlement
6 Amount”) to be distributed to 387 all non-exempt hourly employees who work or worked for 7 Defendant in California at any time between September 19, 2020 to October 12, 2025, including 8 individuals who received both IRS Forms W-2 and 1099-MISC (the “Class Members” or the 9 “Class”).

10 Plaintiff also represents a group of PAGA Members on behalf of the State of California
11 as private attorney general pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act
12 of 2004 (“PAGA”). (Lab. Code, §§ 2698–2699.5.) The PAGA Members include any non-exempt
13 hourly employees who work or worked for Defendant in California at any time between 14 September 19, 2023, and October 12, 2025, including individuals who received both IRS Forms
15 W-2 and 1099-MISC.

16 A true and correct copy of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement
17 (“Settlement Agreement”) is attached as Exhibit B to the concurrently filed Declaration of 18 Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement
19 (“Bokhour Decl.”). The Settlement Agreement, in its entirety, is incorporated herein by reference.

20 On or about March 16, 2026, the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement
21 Agreement. Pursuant to that order, on April 15, 2026, ILYM Group, Inc. (the “Settlement
22 Administrator” or “ILYM”) mailed the Court-approved Notice of Proposed Class Action
23 Settlement (the “Class Notice”) to all Settlement Class Members. (See Declaration of Garvin
24 Brown of ILYM, in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Brown
25 Decl.”), at ¶¶ 3-15.)

26 A copy of the Class Notice is attached to Brown Decl. as Exhibit A.

27 II. PERTINENT BACKGROUND AND SETTLEMENT TERMS

28 Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members include all current and former non-exempt, hourly employees of Defendant who worked in California at any time between September 19, 2020, and October 12, 2025, including individuals who received both IRS Forms W-2 and 1099-MISC. (Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement; ¶ 24 (“Bokhour Decl.”)).

Plaintiff’s primary allegations were that Defendant (1) failed to pay all wages owed, (2) failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods or pay compensation in lieu thereof at the “regular rate of pay”, (3) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, (4) failed to provide timely pay upon separation of employment, and (5) claims for civil penalties under the PAGA arising from the alleged Labor Code violations. (Id.)

The Settlement Class includes 387 individuals who performed work in a non-exempt position for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period. The following is a breakdown reflecting how the funds are allocated under the Settlement Agreement (Declaration of Garvin Brown Regarding Notice and Settlement Administration (“Brown Decl.”), ¶ 13):

	Total Amount
Settlement Amount	$650,000
Attorneys’ Fees (1/3)	$216,666.67
Litigation Costs	$22,941.19
Settlement Administrator Costs	$10,000.00
PAGA payment to LWDA	$6,500.00
PAGA payment to PAGA Members	$3,500.00
Class Representative Service Payment	$10,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$380,392.14

Settlement Class Members who did not opt out of the Settlement in a timely manner will be deemed to have participated in the Settlement and shall become Participating Class Members without having to submit a claim form or take any other action. Each Participating Class Member will receive a pro-rata share of the Net Settlement Amount according to the percentage of weeks he/she worked during the Class Period, such that the amount actually distributed to Participating Class Members will equal 100% of the Net Settlement Amount.

Assuming the Court approves all of the amounts in the Settlement, the average payment to each Participating Class Member is estimated to be approximately $982.93, and the highest payment is estimated to be approximately $3,490.56. (Brown Decl. ¶ 17.)

1 Twenty percent (20%) will be allocated as wages, subject to applicable local, state, and 2 federal tax withholdings, and eighty percent (80%) will be allocated as interest and as civil
3 penalties (pursuant to, e.g., California Labor Code Sections 203 and 226) from which no taxes
4 will be withheld. The Settlement Agreement provides that Defendant will pay the Settlement
5 Amount within 30 days after the Effective Date of the Settlement. Within 35 days thereafter, the 6 Settlement Administrator shall issue payments covering all court-approved amounts, including 7 payments to the Participating Class Members.

8 The Settlement allocates $10,000 to resolve Plaintiff's PAGA claims, with 65% ($6,500)
9 payable to the LWDA and 35% ($3,500) distributed to eligible PAGA Members in accordance 10 with Labor Code section 2699(i). The Parties reached this allocation following extensive 11 investigation, review of payroll and timekeeping data, evaluation of potential exposure, and arm's-
12 length negotiations before an experienced mediator.

13 The Parties also considered the substantial litigation risks associated with the PAGA 14 claims, including disputes regarding whether any Labor Code violations occurred, whether 15 penalties could be established on a representative basis, whether penalties should be reduced
16 under Labor Code section 2699(e)(2), and whether Plaintiff could establish entitlement to recover
17 penalties for all alleged violations. Defendant denies all liability and contends that its policies and 18 practices complied with California law at all relevant times.

19 Additionally, the Settlement provides meaningful direct relief to the affected employees
20 while preserving its non-reversionary nature. Accordingly, the requested PAGA allocation is fair, 21 adequate, and reasonable under Labor Code section 2699(1)(2).

22 In light of this overwhelmingly positive reaction to the Settlement and its overall terms, it
23 is clear that the Settlement, which was the product of arm's-length negotiations, is fair and 24 reasonable, and the parties therefore respectfully request that the Court grant final approval and 25 enter the proposed judgment as requested. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 26 1794, 1800–1802 [class action settlements should be approved if they are fair and reasonable, and 27 a low percentage of objectors and opt-outs is evidence of an agreement's fairness].)
28

1 III. THE NOTICE PROCESS

2 A. Notice to the Settlement Class Members

3 Pursuant to the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order and the Settlement Agreement, the 4 parties directed the Settlement Administrator to review and update the Settlement Class Members’
5 addresses, mail the Court-approved Class Notice to the Settlement Class Members, and process
6 their responses. (Brown Decl. ¶¶ 3-5.) Before mailing the Class Notice, the Settlement
7 Administrator performed a National Change of Address search on all Settlement Class Members
8 to determine if any had moved. (Brown Decl., ¶ 5.)

9 On April 15, 2026, ILYM mailed notice to 396 Settlement Class Members. (Brown Decl.
10 ¶ 4). Approximately 9 Class Notices have been deemed undeliverable. To date, the settlement 11 administrator has not received any objections and has received nine requests for exclusion.

12 In accordance with California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 (d) and 3.769 (f), the Class
13 Notice provided Settlement Class Members with (1) a brief explanation of the case; (2) an 14 explanation of each Settlement Class Member’s right to opt out of the Settlement Class; (3) an 15 explanation of the process (and relevant deadlines) through which a Settlement Class Member 16 could opt out of the Settlement Class; (4) notice about the binding nature of the Judgment for 17 Settlement Class Members who do not opt-out; (5) an explanation of each Settlement Class
18 Member’s right to appear through counsel; (6) an explanation of each Settlement Class Member’s
19 right to appear at the fairness hearing and express views on the Settlement, i.e., object or otherwise
20 respond; and (7) an explanation of each Settlement Class Member’s right to participate in the 21 Settlement and receive payment accordingly. (Attached hereto as Exhibit “A” to the Garvin 22 Brown Declaration is a true and correct copy of the Class Notice.)

23 B. There are Zero Objections and Nine Requests for Exclusion

24 California law makes clear that the percentage of objectors and opt-outs is an important
25 factor in the Court’s consideration of a proposed class action settlement. (See Dunk, supra, 48 26 Cal.App.4th at 1802.) Indeed, the Ninth Circuit and other federal courts recognize that in the final 27 fairness analysis, the number or percentage of class members who object to the settlement is a
28 significant factor. (See Mandujano v. Basic Vegetable Prods., Inc. (9th Cir. 1976) 541 F.2d 672, 677; In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc. (SDNY 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 425 [“[i]t is well settled that the reaction of the class to the settlement is perhaps the most significant factor to be weighed in considering its adequacy.”])

In this case, as noted above, there are zero objections to the Settlement and nine requests for exclusion from the Settlement--meaning that 97.73% of the Settlement Class Members elected to participate in the Settlement. (Brown Decl. ¶¶ 6-9.) Thus, the Settlement Class overwhelmingly viewed this as a fair and reasonable Settlement.

IV. EVALUATION OF THE SETTLEMENT

A. The Settlement Was Reached Through Informed Arms-Length Negotiation

Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement unless evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were conducted in good faith. (See, 3 Alba Conte & Newberg, supra, at § 11.51.) The proposed Settlement here was the product of arm’s-length negotiations before a highly experienced and reputable California wage-and-hour class-action mediator, Kelly Knight, Esq.

Here, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have diligently investigated the claims raised in this litigation and, after taking into account the disputed factual and legal issues involved in this action, the risks attending further prosecution, and the benefits to be received pursuant to the compromise and settlement of the Action as set forth in the Settlement, concluded that the Settlement terms are fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the Settlement Class.

As the Settlement Agreement itself reveals, there is no preferential treatment for any segment of the Settlement Class, as the Settlement is designed to fairly and adequately compensate all Settlement Class Members. Pursuant to California Rules of Court Rule 3.769(b), the parties have disclosed the agreed-upon and proposed attorneys’ fees, which are well within the range of reasonableness for matters of this nature.

B. Plaintiff’s Investigation Was More Than Sufficient

As set forth at the time of preliminary approval, Class Counsel’s extensive investigation into the facts and merits of the wage and hour claims alleged included analyzing substantial amounts of information, correspondence, documents, timekeeping records, and payroll data,

1 relevant wage and hour policies and procedures, and evidence relating to the class size and the 2 commonality of the claims.

3 During this process, Plaintiff and Class Counsel conducted investigations into the 4 potential claims of similarly situated employees, including interviewing multiple putative class
5 members and researching Defendant's defenses.

6 Finally, Class Counsel synthesized and analyzed information provided by Defendant
7 regarding the total Settlement Class Members, the number of current and former non-exempt
8 employees, and the number of employees who worked during various time periods and prepared 9 comprehensive damages calculations regarding the wage and hour claims at issue.

10 C. Class Counsel Are Experienced in Similar Litigation and Endorse the 11 Settlement

12 Class Counsel are experienced in this type of litigation, and they have (and hereby do)
13 represent that this Settlement is fair and reasonable. (Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 3-13; Declaration of 14 Michelle Eshaghian in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class Action
15 Settlement ("Eshaghian Decl." ¶¶ 3-8); see 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland
16 Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1152 [Final approval of settlement affirmed where counsel
17 were all experienced litigators with class-action experience and had recommended settlement 18 based on the negotiated terms].)

19 D. Reasonable Estimate of the Nature and Amount of Recovery

20 Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval contained a comprehensive Kullar analysis
21 (which sufficiently provided the Court with "basic information about the nature and magnitude 22 of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the consideration being paid for the 23 release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise" (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc.
24 (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133.)

25 In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation, this negotiated Settlement reflects the 26 best practicable recovery for the Settlement Class. While the total Settlement amount is, of course, 27 a compromise figure, the potential risks and opportunities for both parties were carefully weighed,
28 resulting in a fair and equitable Settlement. Based upon detailed data obtained through discovery

1 and information exchanges and factoring in claim certification probabilities and liability
2 probabilities, Class Counsel formulated detailed damages models to evaluate the claims in 3 preparation for mediation and to reach a realistic and reasonable resolution.

4 Of course, Defendant denies that any damages should be assessed and denies all of the 5 value assessed by Plaintiff. (Id.) Notwithstanding these arguments, the Settlement commits 6 Defendant to pay a Settlement Amount of $650,000 to settle the litigation.

7 V. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS' FEES ARE FAIR, REASONABLE, AND 8 SHOULD BE AWARDED

9 For their efforts in creating a common fund for the benefit of the Settlement Class, the 10 Settlement Agreement provides that Class Counsel may seek reasonable attorneys' fees of 11 $216,666.67, which is one-third of the Settlement Amount. These fees are warranted under the 12 law and within the range of fees commonly awarded in similar class action cases.

13 As shown herein, the requested percentage of one-third of the Settlement Amount as 14 payment for Attorneys' Fees should be granted for several reasons, including the following: (1) 15 one-third is the standard benchmark in California for class action settlements (see e.g., Chavez v.
16 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n. 11 ("Empirical studies show that, regardless
17 whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used fee awards in class actions average 18 around one-third of the recovery"); and (2) that the California Supreme Court recently held that 19 the percentage of the fund method survives in California class action cases (Laffitte v. Robert Half 20 International, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480).

21 Accordingly, Plaintiff's Attorneys' Fees request should receive final approval.

22 A. Plaintiff is Entitled to Recover Reasonable Attorneys' Fees Under the Labor
23 Code

24 Plaintiff and the Settlement Class in this action are entitled to recover reasonable 25 Attorneys' Fees and Costs under section 218.5 of the California Labor Code, which provides that,
26 "[i]n any action brought for the nonpayment of wages ... the Court shall award reasonable 27 attorneys' fees and costs to the prevailing party."
28

1 In addition, Plaintiff and the Settlement Class are entitled to recover reasonable Attorneys'
2 Fees pursuant to section 1194.2 of the Labor Code, which provides that, "... any employee
3 receiving less than the legal minimum wage ... applicable to the employee is entitled to recover
4 in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage... including ...
5 reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit."

6 Plaintiff is further entitled to Attorneys' Fees and Costs under section 226(e) of the Labor
7 Code (employee who prevails on claim for itemized wage statement violation "is entitled to an 8 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees"); under PAGA (Labor Code § 2699(g), which 9 provides "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable 10 attorney's fees and costs, including any filing fee paid"); and, potentially, section 1021.5 of the 11 California Code of Civil Procedure.

12 B. Class Counsels' Request for Fees Is Reasonable and Properly Calculated as a 13 Percentage of the Common Fund

14 Under the "common fund" doctrine, the request for Attorneys' Fees in the amount of 1/3
15 of the Settlement Amount is reasonable and appropriate, because (1) it is within the approved
16 range for percentages awarded as attorneys' fees in similar cases; (2) it is supported by the high 17 quality and amount of Class Counsels' work on this case and the positive results obtained for the 18 Settlement Class; (3) the Settlement Class had sufficient notice of the attorneys' fee request; and 19 (4) it is supported by the fact that this case was handled on a contingency basis and was undertaken 20 despite numerous risks and expenses.

21 1. The Attorneys' Fees Requested Here Fall Within the Reasonable Range
22 Awarded in Similar Cases Under the Well-established Common Fund
23 Method

24 The California Supreme Court has approved trial courts' use of the common fund method
25 for awarding attorneys' fees in wage-and-hour class actions, like this one, and routinely upholds
26 attorneys' fee requests of 1/3 of the total settlement amount obtained for the class. (See Laffitte v.
27 Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal. 5th 480, 506; see also, 4 Newberg on Class Actions, § 14:6 at 28 552 ("fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery").

1 2. *The High Quality of Work and Excellent Results Obtained Support the 2 Award

3 In addition to the fact that a class benefit was created with a significant common fund, the 4 fairness of the requested fee award of one-third of that common fund is supported by the high
5 quality of work performed by Class Counsel and the favorable result obtained for the Class
6 Members given the significant challenges faced by Plaintiff in this action. As the record
7 demonstrates, Class Counsel conducted the litigation on behalf of the class in a competent,
8 professional, and efficient manner. In doing so, Class Counsel confronted substantial litigation
9 risks with well-developed arguments, careful factual analysis, and a creative strategy to overcome
10 legal obstacles, including challenging factual issues pertaining to each substantive claim. The 11 effective legal work performed by Class Counsel, which resulted in a significant benefit for class
12 members, justifies the one-third of the common fund that is requested as reasonable attorneys' 13 fees.

14 Class Counsel diligently, efficiently, and creatively pursued this case and promptly
15 reached a successful settlement for the benefit of the Class Members. Despite the numerous risks
16 and obstacles afflicting Plaintiff's claims as detailed in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary
17 Approval, Plaintiff's counsel crafted and negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement Agreement
18 for the benefit of the Class Members.

19 The fact that the settlement was embraced and supported by the Class Members, as 20 evidenced by zero objections and nine opt-outs out of 396 Class Members, clearly demonstrates 21 that the Class Members support the Settlement Agreement and results achieved by Class Counsel 22 through the litigation of this matter.

23 Moreover, Class Counsel demonstrated considerable skill in obtaining such a significant 24 settlement despite the numerous challenges in this case, which could have precluded any 25 recovery. "Class Counsel demonstrated professional skills that benefited the class. In particular,
26 Class Counsel presented carefully developed legal arguments, evaluated complex factual issues,
27 and implemented an effective strategy in framing the litigation and negotiations. As a result, Class
28 Counsel obtained a settlement that significantly benefits the class.

1 As a result of this litigation, the Class Members stand to receive a significant Net
2 Settlement Amount of $380,392.14.

3 3. Settlement Class Members Had Sufficient Notice of the Requested Fees

4 Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court requires that the Class Members be notified
5 of any agreement regarding an application for attorneys' fees. Here, the Class Notice,
6 preliminarily approved by the Court and distributed to the Settlement Class Members, apprised
7 them that Class Counsel will ask for Attorneys' Fees of one-third of the Settlement Amount as 8 reasonable compensation for the work Class Counsel performed and will continue to perform in 9 this lawsuit through final approval. (Brown Decl. ¶ 4; Ex. B.)

10 The Class Notice also advised the Settlement Class Members of the procedures for 11 objecting to the proposed Settlement and appearing at the settlement hearing, where they could 12 present their objections to any aspect of the Settlement, including the amount of Attorneys' Fees
13 to be awarded to Class Counsel. (Litwin v. iRenew Bio Energy Solutions, LLC (2014) 226
14 Cal.App.4th 877, 883 ["[p]rocedural due process requires that affected parties be provided with 15 'the right to be heard at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner'"].)

16 In accordance with the foregoing, it is respectfully submitted that the instant notice
17 complied with Rule 3.769 and, as a result, the Settlement Class Members' due process rights were 18 fulfilled.

19 4. The Contingent Nature of Class Counsel's Representation of Plaintiff
20 and the Settlement Class Further Supports the Fee Award at 1/3 of the 21 Common Fund

22 An additional factor in favor of granting the requested fee award is that this case was both 23 legally and financially risky for Class Counsel. (See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp (9th Cir. 2002)
24 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49.) Class Counsel has been representing the Settlement Class in this matter
25 on a strictly contingency basis and, as such, incurred the risk of non-recovery after a substantial 26 investment of time, money, and resources and has done so since the inception of this case without 27 any payment or compensation. Specifically, there was the prospect of enormous cost inherent in 28 this class action litigation, as well as the prospect of a prolonged battle with well-funded corporations who were represented by an experienced law firm; the risk that Defendant could prevail on their arguments that the Settlement Class should not be certified; and the risk that Defendant could prevail on the merits of some or all of the claims.

If Plaintiff had lost this case, Class Counsel would have recovered nothing and would have lost its out-of-pocket costs.

Finally, the absence of any valid objections to the requested fee award, coupled with the 97.3% Class participation rate, also supports the appropriateness and reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fees. (In re Heritage Bond Litigation (C.D. Cal., June 10, 2005, No. 02-ML-1475 DT) 2005 WL 1594403, at *21 ["The absence of objections or disapproval by class members to Class Counsel's fee further supports finding the fee request reasonable."].)

5. A Lodestar Cross-Check Confirms the Reasonableness of the Fee Award

Despite recognized limitations of the so-called lodestar method, some California and federal courts acknowledge the utility of a lodestar "cross-check."¹ (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 46-47.) Under the "lodestar multiplier" method of cross-checking the reasonableness of attorneys' fees in class actions, the court ascertains Class counsel's total "lodestar" amount by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by their hourly rates, and then enhances or reduces this lodestar figure by a "multiplier" to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty or difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of success achieved. PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 2655-96; Press v. Lucky Stores, Inc. (1983) 34 Cal.3d 311, 322; Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 43 [court has discretion to use a multiplier to ensure that the "fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation"].)

Historically, California courts have approved multipliers of 1.5 to 4. See Coalition for Los Angeles County Planning v. Board of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (multiplier of 2+ approved); Sternwest Corp v. Ash (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 74, 75. The multiplier requested by Class Counsel below is within the range of multipliers found to be appropriate by various federal and state courts in California. In Sternwest Corp. v. Ash (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 74, for instance, the Court of Appeal remanded for a lodestar enhancement of “two, three, four or otherwise.” Id. At 76; see also Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 (“Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher”); City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78, 83 (affirming 2.34 multiplier); Coalition for Los Angeles County Planning in the Pub. Interest v. Board of Supervisors, 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (affirming multiplier of approximately 2); See also Steinder v. Am. Broadcasting Co., Inc. (9th Cir. 2007) 248 Fed. Appx. 780, 783 (approving multiplier of 6.85 and citing cases with comparable or higher multipliers); Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (finding no abuse of discretion in awarding a multiplier of 3.65). In Torchia v. WW Grainger, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2014) 304 F.R.D. 256, 275-278, a federal magistrate in Fresno approved attorneys’ fees of $550,000 constituting a 3.57 multiplier on class counsel’s total lodestar of $153,856, in a wage and hour class action where class counsel expended 457.85 hours on the case, engaged in limited formal discovery, and where the case settled for $2,750,000 within one year from filing the Complaint with 909 class members claiming $1,305,200 and the remainder, except for the attorneys’ fees and costs, reverting to the company.

As set forth in the declarations of Class Counsel submitted herewith, the actual aggregated lodestar between the attorneys working on this case is approximately $113,787.50, which is summarized in the following table and the declaration of Class Counsel:

Attorney	Experience	Hourly Rate	Hours	Total Lodestar
Mehrdad Bokhour	13 years	$750	85.5 ²	$64,125
Michelle Eshaghian	12 years	$725	68.5	$49,662.50
Total Lodestar				$113,787.50

² Includes an estimated 15 hours of additional work preparing for and attending the hearing (inclusive of finalizing and filing the motion, appearing at the hearing, addressing the Court’s questions/concerns, submitting revised documents, responding to class members who are anxious to receive their check, and so on), as well as 10 hours in anticipated work to be performed after the final approval, working with counsel, administrator, and Class Members (which includes up to 1.5 years of case management relating to ensuring timely payment from Defendant, reviewing the calculations, checks are timely mailed, responding to class members questions about the timing of checks/missing checks/lost checks and remailings, working with the administrator regarding uncashed checks and remailings, assisting with the Administrator’s declarations regarding payments and uncashed checks, potentially filing an amended judgment, appearing at the final disbursement hearing and/or submitting paperwork related thereto.

(See Bokhour Decl., ¶ 19, Eshaghian Decl. ¶ 16.)

The requested fee of $216,666.67 represents a 1.90 multiplier on Class Counsel’s lodestar, well within the range of multipliers commonly approved by California and Ninth Circuit courts to account for contingency risk and the results achieved.

The hourly rates above are comparable to those of other attorneys with equal or similar experience, if not somewhat lower. Thus, not only are Plaintiff’s Counsel’s rates reasonable and typical, but the attorneys’ fees requested are in line with Plaintiff’s Counsel’s lodestar, all confirming that the fee request is fair and reasonable.

Class Counsel are also highly experienced in Class/PAGA litigation, including being selected as a “Super Lawyer” in employment litigation on multiple occasions and achieving some of the largest settlements in California from 2021 through 2025. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2-6). Indeed, Class Counsel’s rates are typical of those charged by defense counsel with similar experience doing similar employment litigation in this region.

VI. THE REQUESTED COSTS AND SERVICE PAYMENT ARE REASONABLE

A. The Requested Costs Are Reasonable and Merit Approval

Class Counsel’s actual costs through the final approval hearing are estimated at $22,941.19. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 25.) These costs encompass mediation, filing, expert, and process service fees. They are reasonable and uncontested.

B. The Requested Class Representative Service Payment is Reasonable and Merits Approval

A named plaintiff is an essential ingredient of any class action, and a service payment is appropriate to induce individuals to step forward and assume the burdens and obligations of representing the settlement class. Courts regularly approve service payments to compensate named plaintiffs for their service to the class and the risks they incurred during the litigation. (See, e.g., Bell v. Farmers Insurance Exchange (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (upholding “service payments” to named Plaintiff for their efforts in bringing class action); Rodriguez v. West Publishing (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 959 (stating that incentive awards are “intended to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class, to make up for

1 financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, and, sometimes, to recognize
2 their willingness to act as a private attorney general.”).

3 Under the Settlement, Defendant agreed not to oppose Plaintiff’s request for a Class
4 Representative Service Payment in the amount of $10,000, which Plaintiff seeks in recognition
5 of her contributions as the Class Representative. Plaintiff came forward and undertook 6 significant risk, including the risk of being blackballed in the industry and the risk that she could 7 have been liable for Defendant’s costs if she lost the case. This factor is significant for a
8 relatively low-wage earner, and the potential risk is very real. (See Whiteway v. FedEx Kinkos
9 Office & Print Svcs., Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 17, 2007) No. C 05-2320 SBA, 2007 WL 4531783, 10 at *3 (“the few courts to consider this ‘class representatives’ dilemma’ have not found it 11 inequitable to assess costs upon the lead or named plaintiff in a class action.”).)

12 As further detailed in Plaintiff’s Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval of 13 Class Action Settlement on file with this Court, Plaintiff committed a significant number of 14 hours to assist with the investigation, litigation, and settlement processes of this case to assist 15 on the matter. Plaintiff also spent considerable time helping to prepare for and assist with the 16 mediation and settlement process. The requested Class Representative Service Payment of 17 $10,000 to Plaintiff is reasonable, particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff
18 generated for the Settlement Class Members, the risks she undertook, and in exchange for 19 executing a general release against Defendant while giving up the right to separately pursue his 20 individual wage and hour claims.

21 The Class Notice sent to each Settlement Class Member detailed the proposed Class
22 Representative Service Payment. No Settlement Class Member objected to the proposed 23 payment to Plaintiff. Thus, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the service payments as 24 both reasonable and appropriate.

25 VII. OTHER MATTERS RE: FINAL APPROVAL

26 A. Settlement Administration Costs

27 The parties agreed that the Settlement Administrator, ILYM, would be compensated for 28 services performed. The Settlement Administrator’s requested fee is $10,000.

1 B. Uncashed Checks

2 The Settlement Agreement provides that any uncashed checks will be sent to the 3 California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member.

4 C. Final Report

5 Defendant has 30 days after final approval of the Settlement to fund the Settlement to 6 the Settlement Administrator, who then has ten days thereafter to process the funds and issue
7 checks to the Settlement Class Members. Settlement Class Members will have 180 days to cash
8 their checks. As such, the parties propose submitting a final report in the form of a declaration
9 from the Settlement Administrator (setting forth the money that was actually paid to the 10 Settlement Class Members and potentially the state's unclaimed property department) within 11 30 days of the check-cashing deadline.

12 D. Submission to the LWDA

13 As set forth in ¶ 24 of the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Final Approval
14 of Class Action Settlement, the Settlement was previously submitted to the LWDA in 15 accordance with Labor Code § 2699(1)(2).

16 VIII. CONCLUSION

17 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and 18 merits approval. This Motion is unopposed by Defendant. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff
19 requests that the Court grant this Motion and finally approve the Settlement.
