DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

[Amount in Controversy Greater Than $35,000.00]

1 Plaintiff JORGE PRIETO (“Plaintiff”), as an aggrieved employee, and on behalf of all other 2 aggrieved employees under the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, alleges as 3 follows:

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 1. This is a representative action, pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General
6 Act of 2004, codified at Labor Code section 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”), against CANTEEN, a 7 California corporation doing business as CANTEEN VENDING SERVICES, and any of its 8 subsidiaries or affiliated companies within the State of California (“CANTEEN”), as a proxy of the 9 Labor and Workforce Development Agency of the State of California (“LWDA”), on behalf of 10 Plaintiff and all other current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants working within the 11 Civil Penalty Period, as further defined herein, and, as it pertains to the alleged claims for failure to 12 comply with the Labor Code. Specifically, in connection with the alleged claims for failure to 13 comply with Labor Code sections 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.5, 204, 204a, 205, 14 205.5, 210, 212, 221, 222, 223, 222.5, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 227.3, 232, 232.5, 245, 246, 432, 432.3, 15 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 1102.5, 1197.5, 1198, 1198.5, 1527, 3366, 3457, and 8397.4, Plaintiff seeks to 16 represent all employees of CANTEEN and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, as well as their 17 parents, subsidiaries and affiliates (hereinafter collectively “Defendants”) working within three 18 years preceding the date of this filing and continuing past the date of this filing into perpetuity 19 (“Civil Penalty Period”). On all other claims mentioned herein, Plaintiff seeks to represent only non-20 exempt employees of Defendants working within the Civil Penalty Period. Collectively, those 21 employees shall be known as “Aggrieved Employees” herein.

22 2. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code 23 of Civil Procedure section 410.10.

24 3. Venue is proper in Alameda County, California pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure 25 sections 392, et seq. because, among other things, Alameda County is where the causes of action 26 complained of herein arose; the county in which the employment relationship began; the county in 27 which performance of the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff and Defendants was 28 due to be performed; the county in which the employment contract, or part of it, between Plaintiff

1 and Defendants was actually performed; and the county in which Defendants, or some of them,
2 reside. Moreover, the unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and Aggrieved
3 Employees in Alameda County, and because Defendants employ Aggrieved Employees in Alameda 4 County.

5 4. Plaintiff is an “aggrieved employee” under PAGA, as Plaintiff was employed by 6 Defendants during the Civil Penalty Period and suffered the Labor Code violations set forth herein, 7 even if not in the precise exact fashion as other Aggrieved Employees. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks 8 to recover civil penalties under PAGA, as amended, plus reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, for 9 Plaintiff and all other current and former Aggrieved Employees of Defendants during the Civil 10 Penalty Period.

11 5. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to recover PAGA civil penalties through a representative 12 action permitted by PAGA and the California Supreme Court in, among other authorities, Arias v.
13 Superior Court (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969. According to the same authorities, class certification of the 14 PAGA allegations described herein is not required.

15 6. During the Civil Penalty Period, Defendants violated, inter alia, Labor Code sections 16 96, 98.6, 200, 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.7, 202, 203, 203.5, 204, 204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5, 206.5, 17 210, 212, 221, 222, 223, 222.5, 226, 226.2, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 231, 232, 232.5, 233, 235, 245, 246, 18 351, 353, 404, 432, 432.3, 432.5, 432.7, 432.8, 450, 510, 511, 512, 551, 552, 558, 1101, 1102, 19 1102.5, 1174, 1174.51182.12, 1197.5, 1194, 1194.2, 1198, 1198.5, 1290, 1292, 1293, 1293.1, 20 1294.1, 1301, 1391, 1475, 1527, 1695.55, 1696.5, 1700.31, 1771, 1774, 1775, 1776, 1811, 1815, 21 1197.5, 2673, 2800, 2802, 2810.5, 2699, 3366, 3457, 49112, 49116, and 8397.4, among others, 22 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 3395, Business and Professions Code sections 23 16600, 16700, and 17200, Government Code section 12952, as well as applicable Wage Orders.

24 7. Labor Code section 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g), authorizes Aggrieved Employees 25 such as Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and all other current and former Aggrieved Employees within 26 the Civil Liability Period, to bring a civil action to recover civil penalties pursuant to the procedures 27 specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

28 ///

1 8. On or around September 17, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice pursuant to Labor
2 Code section 2699.3 online and by certified mail, with return receipt requested, of Defendants' 3 violation of various, including the herein-described, provisions of the Labor Code, to the LWDA, 4 as well as by certified mail, with return receipt requested to Defendants, and each of them.

5 9. To the extent Defendants, or any of them, previously used the notice and cure
6 provision of Labor Code section 2699.3 within the last twelve months, under section 2699.3(d), then 7 Defendants, or those who have availed themselves of the cure provisions validly, are not eligible to 8 cure the violations discussed herein under section 2699.3 or otherwise use the early evaluation 9 conference process pursuant to section 2699.3(f).

10 10. In the event that Defendants, or any of them, is/are determined to have satisfied 11 sections 2699(g), 2699(h), or otherwise 2699(d)(1), Defendants, or any that is determined to have 12 satisfied sections 2699(g), 2699(h), is also, in the alternative, liable for civil penalties pursuant to 13 Labor Code sections 2699(j), 2699(e)(2), and 2699(f)(2).

14 11. In the event that Defendants, or any of them, is/are determined to have, prior to this 15 notice or a request for records pursuant to Labor Code section 226, 432, or 1198.5, from Plaintiff 16 and/or his counsel, adequately taken all reasonable steps to be in compliance with all provisions 17 identified in this notice, said defendant(s) is/are still liable for civil penalties pursuant to section 18 2699(g)(1)-(3).

19 12. In the event that Defendants, or any of them is/are deemed to have adequately taken 20 all reasonable steps to be in compliance with all provisions identified in this notice within sixty (60)
21 days of receiving this notice, said defendant(s) is/are still liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor 22 Code section 2699(h)(1)-(3).

23 13. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that within five (5) years of any of 24 violations described above, the LWDA or a court has issued a finding or determination to the 25 Defendants, or any of them, that its/their policy or practice giving rise to such violations was 26 unlawful, and thus Defendants, or any of them, is/are further liable for civil penalties pursuant to 27 Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(i). Plaintiff is informed that Defendants, or any of them, was/were 28 found to have unlawfully committed some or all of the above-related Labor Code violations, and

1 thus is/are subject to increased penalties, as applicable, under Labor Code sections 2699(f)(2)(B)(i),
2 2699(g)(3) and 2699(h)(3), and is/are not eligible for reduced penalties under either Labor Code 3 sections 2699(g) or 2699(h) for remedying violations either prior to or after the serving of this notice.
4 Regardless, as Defendants' conduct giving rise to the violations detailed herein was and is malicious, 5 fraudulent, and/or oppressive, Defendants thus are subject to increased penalties under Labor Code
6 section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii) and, per Labor Code sections 2699(g)(3) and 2699(h)(3), are not eligible 7 for reduced penalties under either 2699(g) or 2699(h), for remedying violations either prior to or 8 after Defendants' receipt of this notice.

9 14. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a)(2)(A), the LWDA did not 10 provide notice of its intention to investigate Defendants' alleged violations within sixty-five (65) 11 calendar days of the September 17, 2024 postmarked date of the herein-described notice sent by 12 Plaintiff to the LWDA and Defendants.

13 PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ALLEGATIONS

14 15. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 15 each of them, had and have a policy or practice of requiring Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees 16 to work more than eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight
17 workdays in a workweek (in violation of Labor Code sections 551 and 552) without paying them 18 proper overtime wages every day, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or 19 pay for all minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the 20 clock, including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late 21 work without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long 22 lines for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking 23 out, to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and 24 doff uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to 25 make phone calls or drive off the clock, and/or go through security screenings and/or temperature 26 checks off the clock; failing to include all forms of remuneration, including non-discretionary 27 bonuses, incentive pay, meal allowances, mask allowances, gift cards and other forms of 28 remuneration into the regular rate of pay for the pay periods where overtime was worked and the

1 additional compensation was earned for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate of pay;
2 detrimental rounding of employee time entries, editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show 3 less hours than actually worked, for paying straight pay instead of overtime pay, for failure to pay
4 overtime as required by Labor Code section 226.2, and by attempting but failing to properly 5 implement an alternative workweek schedule (“AWS”) (including, without limitation, by failing to 6 implement a written agreement designating the regularly scheduled alternative workweek in which 7 the specified number of work days and work hours are regularly recurring; failing to adopt the AWS 8 in a secret ballot election, before the performance of work, by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the 9 affected employees in the work unit; failing to follow the notice/disclosures procedures prior to any 10 AWS election; and/or failing to register an AWS election with the State of California, as required 11 by Labor Code section 511 and applicable Wage Orders) all to the detriment of Plaintiff and other 12 Aggrieved Employees. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, 13 that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 221, 222, 223, 226.2, 510, 511, 551, 552, 1194, 1198
14 (as it pertains to employees governed by a collective bargaining agreement [“CBA”]), 1811, 1815 15 and applicable Wage Orders based on its practice of providing total compensation that is less than 16 the required legal overtime compensation for the overtime worked, entitling Plaintiff and other 17 aggrieved employees to damages, including, without limitation, at least one hour of unpaid overtime 18 wages each day worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the Civil Penalty Period. Plaintiff is 19 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants’ conduct above gave rise
20 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil 21 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 558, 1198
22 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be 23 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

24 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 25 each of them, had and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other 26 Aggrieved Employees with minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants’ 27 control every day as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all 28 minutes actually worked; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock,

1 including, without limitation, by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work
2 without being able to clock in for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines 3 for clocking in, to complete pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out,
4 to clock out for meal periods and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff 5 uniforms and/or safety equipment off the clock, to undergo security checks and/or bag checks off 6 the clock, to store and retrieve personal belongings off the clock, to attend company meetings off 7 the clock, to make phone calls, receive and respond to emails and/or texts, or drive off-the-clock; 8 detrimental rounding of employee time entries; failing to pay the minimum amounts required under 9 Labor Code section 226.2; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than 10 actually worked; and failing to pay split shift premiums. In addition, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 11 Employees were required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were 12 furnished less than half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or 13 scheduled work at their regular rate of pay. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 14 thereon alleges, that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as it 15 pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.2, 1197, 1182.12, Cal. and applicable Wage 16 Orders based on its continued failure to pay minimum wages for all hours worked, that Plaintiff and 17 other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Plaintiff and other 18 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to actual and liquidated damages under, without limitation, Labor 19 Code sections 1475, 1194, 1194.2, and 1198 to compensate them for at least one unpaid hour of 20 work per day for each Aggrieved Employee in the Civil Penalty Period. Plaintiff is further informed 21 and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations
22 was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties 23 pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 558, 1197.1, 1198 and 24 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable 25 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 27 and have a practice or policy of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with 28 minimum wages for all hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control every day as a result

1 of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked;
2 engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, including, without limitation, 3 by requiring employees: to come early to work and leave late work without being able to clock in 4 for all that time, to suffer under Defendants' control due to long lines for clocking in, to complete 5 pre-shift tasks before clocking in and post-shift tasks after clocking out, to clock out for meal periods
6 and continue working, to clock out for rest periods, to don and doff uniforms and/or safety 7 equipment off the clock, to undergo security checks and/or bag checks off the clock, to store and 8 retrieve personal belongings off the clock, to attend company meetings off the clock, to make phone 9 calls, receive and respond to emails and/or texts, or drive off-the-clock; detrimental rounding of 10 employee time entries; editing and/or manipulation of time entries to show less hours than actually 11 worked; and failing to pay split shift premiums. In addition, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
12 Employees were required to report to work, and did report, but were not put to work and/or were 13 furnished less than half their usual or scheduled day's work without being paid for half the usual or 14 scheduled work at their regular rate of pay. These acts and/or omissions violated Labor Code 15 sections 1771, 1774 and 1198, and, thus Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to 16 these sections and Labor Code section 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 17 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
18 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
19 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 21 each of them, had and have a policy or practice of compelling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
22 Employees during the Civil Penalty Period to work every day in excess of five (5) and ten (10) hours 23 per day, without being afforded uninterrupted, timely, and complete 30-minute meal periods or 24 compensation in lieu thereof including, each workday, without limitation: by interrupting meal 25 periods; not providing timely meal periods; failing to provide first and second meal periods; 26 providing short meal periods, including without, limitation meal periods that were recorded for less 27 than thirty minutes, and meal periods that may appear on the record to be thirty minutes or longer 28 but in practice were shorter than thirty minutes due to time required to walk to and from a suitable

1 break area, time spent having to wait in line to clock back in, having to don and doff safety gear 2 during the meal period, having to undergo security or bag checks during the meal period, and /or 3 having to retrieve and store personal belongings during the meal period; requiring that employees 4 carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during meal periods; not permitting employees to leave 5 the premises; otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call meal periods; and auto-deducting meal periods
6 that could not be auto-deducted by law or during which employees worked. Plaintiff and other 7 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and 8 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as to 9 employees governed by a CBA), 223, 512 and 1198 each day for each Aggrieved Employee during 10 the Civil Penalty Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee was owed one hour of premium
11 pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the Civil Penalty Period under Labor 12 Code section 226.7. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those premium payments 13 under Labor Code section 226.7 were not made, either, for these non-compliant meal periods, either 14 at all or at the proper regular rate of pay. Defendants would thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant 15 to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221, 222 (for employees 16 governed by a CBA), 223, 558, 1198 and 2699 for both failing to authorize the taking of compliant
17 meal periods and for failing to provide premium pay under Labor Code section 226.7, or injunctive 18 relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based 19 thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, 20 fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor 21 Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

22 19. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 23 maintain policies or practices of compelling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees every day to, 24 including, without limitation, work over four-hour periods (or major fractions thereof) without 25 authorizing and permitting Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to take uninterrupted, timely, 26 and complete ten-minute rest periods in which the employees are completely relieved of all of their 27 duties, including, without limitation: by failing to provide rest periods all together; failing to provide 28 rest periods that were at least ten minutes in length, including rest periods that were shorter than ten

1 minutes, or rest periods that may have encompassed a total of ten minutes but were in practice less 2 than ten uninterrupted minutes due to, without limitation, due to time required to walk to and from 3 a suitable break area, time spent having to don and doff safety gear during the rest period, having to 4 retrieve and store personal belongings during the rest period, and/or having to undergo security or 5 bag checks during the rest period, requiring that they be bundled together and/or with meal periods;
6 interrupting them; requiring that employees carry cellular telephones or walkie-talkies during rest 7 periods; not providing rest periods in a timely fashion; and not permitting employees to leave the 8 premises; and otherwise requiring on-duty/on-call rest periods. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 9 Employees personally suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes,
10 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated the applicable Wage Order(s) each day for each 11 Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee was owed 12 one hour of premium pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the PAGA Period 13 under Labor Code section 226.7. However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those premium
14 payments under Labor Code section 226.7 were not made, either, for these non-compliant rest
15 periods, either at all or at the proper regular rate of pay, in violation of Labor Code sections 226.7
16 and 1198. Defendants would thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210
17 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221, 222 (for employees governed by a CBA), 223, 558, 18 1198 and 2699 for both failing to authorize the taking of compliant rest periods and for failing to 19 provide premium pay under Labor Code section 226.7, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1)
20 and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
21 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
22 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

23 20. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 24 maintain policies or practices of failing to permit Employee and other Aggrieved Employees from 25 taking cooldown periods every day as required under California Code of Regulations, Title 8, 26 Section 3395; rest and recovery periods as required by Labor Code section 226.2; and premium pay 27 in lieu thereof under Labor Code section 226.7. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally 28 suffered these violations. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon

1 alleges, that Defendants violated California Code of Regulations, Title 8, Section 3395 each day for 2 each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, and that, thus each Aggrieved Employee was 3 owed one hour of premium pay at their regular rate of pay for each day worked during the PAGA
4 Period under Labor Code section 226.7. In addition, for the failure each day of the PAGA Period
5 by Defendants to provide rest and recovery periods under Labor Code section 226.2, each Aggrieved 6 Employee was owed compensation at a regularly hourly rate that is no less than the higher of the 7 amounts set forth in Labor Code section 226.2(a)(3)(A)(i) or 226.2(a)(3)(A)(ii). However, Plaintiff
8 is informed and believes that those premium payments under Labor Code section 226.7, and rest 9 and recovery periods under Labor Code section 226.2(a)(3)(A) were not made for these non-10 compliant cooldown periods and/or rest and recovery periods, either at all or at the proper rate of 11 pay, in violation of Labor Code sections 226.2, 226.7 and 1198. Defendants would thus be liable 12 for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210 (for failure to timely pay these wages), 221, 13 222 (for employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.2, 558, 1198 and 2699 for both failing to 14 authorize the taking of compliant rest and recovery periods and/or cooldown and for failing to 15 provide adequate pay under Labor Code sections 226.2 and/or 226.7, or injunctive relief under 16 sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon
17 alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 18 oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 19 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 21. As a result of, among other things, Defendants' herein-described policy or practice 21 of failing to: accurately record time; failing to pay overtime and minimum wages; failing to provide 22 meal periods; failing to provide rest periods; and failing to provide compensation in lieu of meal or 23 rest periods, as described above, and due to independent failures in connection therewith, Plaintiff 24 is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants also intentionally failed and 25 continues to fail to furnish Aggrieved Employees, including, without limitation, Plaintiff, with 26 itemized wage statements that accurately reflect: gross wages earned; total hours worked by the 27 employee; net wages earned; the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; the 28 name of the employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee

1 identification number other than a social security number; all deductions; all applicable hourly rates
2 in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate
3 by the employee; the legal name and address of Defendants; and other such information as required
4 by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) , as well as Labor Code section 226.2 to the extent it 5 does not include for piece-rate work the information required therein including, without limitation, 6 the quantity, rate and units worked per piece, as well as separately itemized non-productive time
7 and rest and recovery periods. Specifically, Defendants intentionally failed to furnish employees 8 with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect the hours worked by Plaintiff and other 9 Aggrieved Employees and the rates of pay at which they were or should have been paid (including 10 due to failure to pay at the proper regular rate), thus resulting in a failure to reflect gross and net 11 wages earned and paid at each rate, as well. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and 12 based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 226, 226.2, 1696.5 and 1198
13 each day for each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period, and that, thus Employee and each 14 Aggrieved Employee personally suffered these violations and was owed penalties under Labor Code 15 section 226 and 226.2 for each pay period worked during the PAGA Period. Plaintiff is informed 16 and believes that those penalties under Labor Code section 226 were not paid for these violations of 17 Labor Code section 226. Defendants would thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code 18 sections 226.2, 226.3, 558, 1198, 1696.5 and 2699. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and 19 based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious,
20 fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code 21 sections 226.2, 226.3, 558, and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
22 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
23 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

24 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants also 25 willfully or intentionally failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse, to timely pay 26 compensation to Plaintiff and other terminated or resigned employees, including but not limited to, 27 all overtime wages owed; all minimum wages owed; all paid sick leave, vacation pay and paid time 28 off; and all premium pay owed as set out above, including, without limitation, for failure to pay at

1 the proper regular rate of pay, among other things. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes,
2 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 201.5, 201.7, 202 203,
3 203.5 ,204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205, 205.5 and 1198 each pay period for each Aggrieved Employee
4 during the PAGA Period, and that, thus Plaintiff and each Aggrieved Employee personally suffered 5 these violations and was owed penalties under Labor Code section 203 (or, as applicable, 203.5, 6 204a, 204.1, 204.2, 205 and/or 205.5) for each pay period worked during the PAGA Period.
7 However, Plaintiff is informed and believes that those penalties under Labor Code section 203 (or 8 203.5 and/or 204a) were not made for these violations of Labor Code sections 201, 201.5, 201.7, 9 202, 203, 203.5, 204b, 204.1, 204.2, 205 and/or 205.5. Plaintiff is further informed and believes,
10 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 11 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to 12 Labor Code sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(j).
13 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
14 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 23. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants 16 required or require the execution of a release of claim or right on account of wages due, or to become 17 due, or made as an advance on wages to be earned, including, without limitation, as a condition of 18 being paid, to execute a statement of the hours worked during a pay period in which Defendants 19 knew to be false. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that 20 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 206.5 and 1198, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 21 Employees have personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and 22 based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious,
23 fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code
24 sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants
25 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

26 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 27 or had a policy or practice of unlawfully deducting wages from Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 28 Employees, by issuing in payment of wages due, or to become due, or as an advance on wages to 1 be earned: (1) an order, check, draft, note, memorandum, gift card, or other acknowledgement of 2 indebtedness, (unless it was negotiable and payable in cash, on demand, without discount, at some 3 established place of business in the state), the name and address of which must but did not appear 4 on the instrument, and at the time of its issuance and for a reasonable time thereafter, which must 5 be but was not at least 30 days, the maker or drawer did not have sufficient funds in, or credit, 6 arrangement, or understanding with the drawee for its payment; and/or (2) any scrip, coupon cards, 7 or other thing redeemable, in merchandise or purporting to be payable or redeemable otherwise than 8 in money. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that such wages were 9 not compensated at the “regular rate” of compensation as provided under Labor Code sections 226.7

10 and 510, subsection (a), thus violating those Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 11 1198. In addition, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants, by these deductions and/or 12 otherwise, have caused wages earned by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to be charged back or 13 kicked back to Defendants. Consequently, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 14 alleges, that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations under 15 these sections and are entitled to relief under, without limitation, Labor Code sections 212, 221, 222 16 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 226.7, 246, 510 subsection (a), 1194, and 17 1197. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants’ conduct 18 above giving rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would 19 thus be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, 1198 and 2699, or 20 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil 21 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

22 25. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants
23 failed and refused, and continues to fail and refuse, to comply with the notice requirements of Labor
24 Code section 2810.5 (i.e., the Wage Theft Protection Act of 2011) by, among other things, failing
25 to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with the rates of pay and overtime rates of pay 26 applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the regular 27 payday designated by Defendants, the name of the employer, including any “doing business as” 28 names used, the name, address and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance

1 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information required to be 2 disclosed by Employer under Labor Code section 2810.5. Plaintiff is informed and believes that 3 failure to provide such information, including rates of pay that are in effect, has permitted
4 Defendants to pay employees at rates of pay that were not agreed upon and violate minimum wage
5 and overtime wage laws in California. Plaintiff is additionally informed and believes that the notice
6 requirement of Labor Code section 2810.5 involves a mandatory payroll or workplace injury 7 reporting. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 1198 and 8 2810.5. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is 9 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise
10 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Among other relief, employees may 11 collect from Defendants in connection with these violations' civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code
12 sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants
13 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

14 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants also 15 failed and refused, and continues to fail and refuse, to reimburse employees, including, without 16 limitation, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, with their costs incurred for driving personal 17 vehicles (i.e., mileage and gas), purchasing uniforms, providing uniform and other deposits, 18 separately laundering mandatory uniforms, for the purchase of tools and safety equipment, and for 19 the purchase and maintenance of cellular phones and cellular phone plans, for pre-employment 20 medical, physical or drivers' exams taken as a condition of employment, or for compelling or 21 coercing Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, including applicants, to patronize in the purchase of a 22 value or things, including, without limitation, Defendants' product(s) and/or service(s), in direct 23 consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants, 24 as required by Labor Code sections 222.5, 231, 450, 1198, 2800, 2802, and other statutory and 25 common law offenses. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally 26 suffered these violations and Defendants are liable to reimburse Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 27 Employees for these costs incurred in furtherance of work duties. Plaintiff is further informed and 28 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was

1 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. In addition, Defendants would be liable for civil penalties
2 pursuant to Labor Code sections 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1)
3 and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
4 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

5 27. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
6 have or had a policy or practice of failing to reimburse deposits made, including uniform deposits
7 together with all interest owed at the separation of employment in violation of Labor Code sections 8 404 and 1198, that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, 9 and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in the amount of the 10 deposit and accrued interest. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, 11 that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 12 oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties under Labor Code sections 558, 1198
13 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be 14 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

15 28. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 have or had a policy or practice of failing to provide Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees with 17 all rights afforded to them under the Healthy Workplace Healthy Families Act of 2014, codified at 18 Labor Code section 245, et seq., including, without limitation, the amount of paid sick leave required 19 to be provided pursuant to California and local laws. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 20 the sick pay was not provided at the proper regular of pay as required under California law due to 21 failure to properly calculate the regular rate. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that 22 Defendants also did not permit its use upon request by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees as 23 contemplated under California and local laws, including, without limitation, under Labor Code 24 section 233, that permits its use to attend to an illness of a child, parent, spouse, or domestic partner 25 without retaliation. Plaintiff is additionally informed and believes that the notice requirement of 26 Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 233, 234, 245 27 and 246 involve a mandatory payroll or workplace injury reporting. Plaintiff is thus informed and 28 believes that Defendants violated these Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 1198.

1 As such, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered violations under these 2 sections and Defendants would be liable for civil penalties for violation of the paid sick leave 3 regulations under Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, as well as equitable, injunctive, or 4 restitutionary relief, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Plaintiff is further informed and 5 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 6 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 7 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

8 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 9 have a policy or practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees their paid time 10 off and vacation time owed upon separation of employment as wages at their final rate of pay in 11 violation of Labor Code sections 221, 222 (as it pertains to employees governed by a CBA), 223, 12 227.3 and applicable Wage Orders. Plaintiff is thus informed and believes that Defendants violated 13 these Labor Code sections, as well as Labor Code section 1198. As such, Plaintiff and other 14 Aggrieved Employees have personally suffered these violations and Defendants would be liable for 15 civil penalties for violation of Labor Code section 227.3 under Labor Code section 558, 1198 and 16 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and 17 believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 18 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 19 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

20 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 21 have a policy or practice of failing to pay aggrieved employees their wages in accordance with Labor 22 Code Section 204, which requires that: "[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, 23 of any calendar month shall be paid for between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which 24 the labor was performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive of any 25 calendar month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month." Plaintiff
26 is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants did not and do not pay Plaintiff
27 and other Aggrieved Employees every day and every workweek in accordance with Labor Code 28 sections 204 and 1198. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that

1 Defendants violated Labor Code section 204 and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have 2 personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon
3 alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 4 oppressive. Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 5 558, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would 6 further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

7 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 8 have a policy of failing to provide all temporary workers, including without limitation, Plaintiff, 9 with owed wages weekly by not later than the regular payday of the following week. Plaintiff is 10 informed and believes that this has resulted in a violation of Labor Code sections 201.3 and 1198.
11 As a result, pursuant to Labor Code section 201.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have 12 personally suffered violations thereto and Plaintiff would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to 13 Labor Code sections 201.3, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 14 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
15 conduct above giving rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
16 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

17 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 18 have a policy or practice of failing to provide all working employees, including without limitation 19 Plaintiff, with suitable seats when the nature of the work reasonably permits the use of seats.
20 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants have failed to 21 place an adequate number of seats in reasonable proximity to the work area and/or permitted 22 Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to use such seats when it does not interfere with the 23 performance of their duties when employees are not engaged in the active duties of their 24 employment and the nature of their work requires standing. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 25 Employees have personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is informed and believes that this has 26 resulted in a violation of Labor Code section 1198. As a result, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 27 Employees have personally suffered violations thereto, and Defendants would be liable for civil 28 penalties under Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699€(1)

1 and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
2 conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants
3 would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

4 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 5 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from using or 6 disclosing the skills, knowledge and experience they obtained with Defendants for purposes of 7 competing with Defendants, including, without limitation, preventing Plaintiff and Aggrieved 8 Employees from disclosing their wages in negotiating a new job with a prospective employer, and 9 from disclosing who else works with Defendants and under what circumstances that they might be 10 receptive to an offer from a rival employer. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes that this 11 violates Business and Professions Code sections 17200, 16600 and 16700, and, by virtue thereof, 12 various provisions of the Labor Code, including Labor Code sections 232, 232.5, 1197.5, 13 subdivision (k), and 1198, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees have personally 14 suffered these violations. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 15 Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
16 Defendants would be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or 17 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil 18 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 20 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from disclosing 21 violations of state and federal law, either within Defendants to their managers or outside of 22 Defendants to private attorneys or government officials, among others, in violation of Business and 23 Professions Code section 17200, and, thus, in violation of Labor Code section 1102.5. Plaintiff and 24 other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. In addition, Plaintiff is informed 25 and believes that these policies and/or practices prevent Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees 26 from disclosing information about unsafe or discriminatory working conditions, or about wage and 27 hour violations in violation of Labor Code sections 232, 232.5 and 1198. Plaintiff and other 28 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations of the Labor Code, and as such, these

1 violations would expose Defendants to liability for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections
2 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further 3 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such 4 violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil 5 penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

6 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 7 have a policy or practice of preventing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees from engaging in 8 lawful conduct during non-work hours, thus violating state statutes entitling employees to disclose
9 wages, working conditions, and illegal conduct, including, without limitation, Labor Code sections 10 96, subdivision (k), 98.6, 232, 232.5, 1197.5, subdivision (k), and 1198. Plaintiff and other 11 Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations. Plaintiff is informed and believes that 12 this lawful conduct includes, without limitation, the exercise of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 13 Employee's constitutional rights of freedom of speech and economic liberty and would thus expose 14 Defendants to liability for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or 15 injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Plaintiff is further informed and believes,
16 and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was 17 malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant 18 to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

19 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants had and 20 have made, adopted, and/or enforced rules, regulations and/or policies that tend to forbid or prevent 21 Aggrieved Employees, including Plaintiff, from engaging or participating in politics and/or from 22 becoming a candidate for public office. Moreover, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 23 thereon alleges that Defendants coerced, influenced and/or attempted to coerce and/or influence 24 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, through or by means of threat of discharge and/or loss of 25 employment, to adopt or follow or refrain from adopting or following a particular course or line of 26 political action and/or political activity. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges 27 that in doing so, Defendants have violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 1101, 1102, 28 1102.5 and 1198. Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations and

1 are thus informed and believe that Employer is exposed to liability for civil penalties pursuant to 2 Labor Code sections 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
3 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above
4 gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would further be 5 liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

6 37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, 7 including their agents, managers, superintendents, and/or officers, required Plaintiff and/or 8 Aggrieved Employees to agree, in writing, to terms and conditions known by Defendants (and their 9 agents, managers, superintendents and/or officers) to be prohibited by law, including, without 10 limitation, non-compete agreements, terms known to be illegal in purported arbitration agreements, 11 purported confidentiality agreements, purported severance agreements, or purported release 12 agreements, and other written documents presented for signature and/or assent to Plaintiff and/or 13 Aggrieved Employees by Defendants. More specifically, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and 14 based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a practice or policy of requiring Plaintiff and 15 other Aggrieved Employees to agree in writing to confidentiality policies that unlawfully restrain 16 trade by prohibiting employees from speaking with prospective employers about their work with 17 Defendants, including but not limited to their wages and working conditions. Defendants also 18 required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to inform prospective employers of Defendants' 19 restrictions of Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' freedom to work. As a result, Plaintiff is 20 informed and believes that Defendants violated Labor Code sections 432.5, 1700.31 and 1198. As 21 such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 22 Employees personally suffered these violations, and that Defendants violated, without limitation, 23 Labor Code section 432.5 and Government Code section 12952, entitling Plaintiff and other 24 Aggrieved Employees to damages. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon
25 alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or 26 oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 27 432.5, 1198, 1700.31 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k).
28

1 Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section
2 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

3 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 4 and have a practice or policy of conducting unlawful background checks on prospective and current 5 employees, including without limitation Plaintiff, prior to making a conditional offer. Plaintiff is 6 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants violated applicable laws by, 7 without limitation: requiring job applicants and employees to disclose their conviction history before 8 Defendants made a conditional offer of employment; inquiring into or considering the conviction 9 history of applicants before Defendants made any conditional offers of employment; considering, 10 distributing, or disseminating information about arrests not followed by conviction, referrals to or 11 participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion program, convictions that have been sealed, 12 dismissed, expunged, or statutorily eradicated pursuant to law, or any conviction for which the 13 convicted person has received a full pardon or has been issued a certificate of rehabilitation, while 14 conducting conviction history background checks in connection with any applications for 15 employment; intending to deny an applicant a position of employment solely or in part because of 16 the applicant's conviction history; and asking applicants for employment to disclose, through any 17 written form or verbally, information concerning or related to an arrest, detention, processing, 18 diversion, supervision, adjudication, or court disposition that occurred while the person was subject 19 to the process and jurisdiction of the juvenile court, to the detriment of Employee and other 20 aggrieved employees. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 21 Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these violations, as well as violation 22 of Labor Code section 1198, and that Employer violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 23 432.7 and 1198, as well as Government Code section 12952, entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 24 Employees to damages. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 25 Defendants' conduct above gave rise to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive.
26 Defendants would also be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 432.7, 432.8, 27 1198, and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would 28 further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

1 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had 2 and have a practice or policy of relying on the salary history information of an applicant for 3 employment as a factor in determining whether to offer employment to an applicant or what salary
4 to offer the applicant in violation of Labor Code section 432.3 by including, on Defendants' 5 application for employment, an inquiry regarding current and/or former salary history information, 6 including, without limitation, compensation and benefits of the applicant for employment. Plaintiff
7 is informed and believes that this practice has resulted in unequal pay. Specifically, for this reason, 8 as well as for other reasons, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 9 Defendants have failed to pay its employees at wage rates less than those paid to employees of the 10 opposite sex and/or another race or ethnicity for substantially similar work, when viewed as a 11 composite of skill, effort, and responsibility, and/or performed under similar working conditions 12 without sufficient legal rationale. Finally, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon 13 alleges that Employer has discharged and/or discriminated and/or retaliated against Plaintiff and 14 Aggrieved Employees by reason of an action taken by them to invoke or assist in the enforcement 15 of Labor Code section 1197.5. As such, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, 16 that Defendants violated, without limitation, Labor Code sections 432.3, 1102.5, 1197.5, and 1198.
17 Plaintiff also alleges that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees personally suffered these 18 violations, and that Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages. Plaintiff is 19 further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct above gave rise
20 to such violations was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Defendants would also be liable for civil 21 penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 432.3, 1198 and 2699, or injunctive relief under sections
22 2699(e)(1) and 2699(k). Defendants would further be liable for civil penalties pursuant to Labor
23 Code section 2699(f)(2)(B)(ii).

24 40. Plaintiff, in Plaintiff's representative capacity, seeks civil penalties under Labor 25 Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699 for the herein-described acts, which violate
26 the California Labor Code as described above, including on behalf of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved 27 Employees pursuant to PAGA.

1 PARTIES

2 A. Plaintiff

3 41. Plaintiff JORGE PRIETO is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times
4 herein, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed 5 Plaintiff as a non-exempt employee, with duties that included, but were not limited to, receiving 6 incoming shipments and preparing shipments for further distribution. Plaintiff is informed and 7 believes that Plaintiff worked for Defendants from approximately April of 2023 through at least 8 January of 2024.

9 B. Defendants

10 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant 11 CANTEEN is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and 12 by virtue of the laws of the State of California and doing business in the County of Alameda, State 13 of California.

14 43. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, 15 of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, 16 who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure section 474.
17 Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the defendants designated 18 herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein.
19 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of 20 the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities become known. Plaintiff is 21 informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant acted in all respects pertinent 22 to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a joint scheme, business plan or 23 policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant are legally attributable to the 24 other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter, reference is made to "Defendants," it shall 25 include CANTEEN and any of its parent, subsidiary, or affiliated companies within the State of 26 California, as well as DOES 1 through 100 identified herein.

27 ///

28 ///

1 JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

2 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times 3 mentioned herein, each of the defendant was the agent, principal, employee, employer, 4 representative, joint venture or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, either actually or 5 ostensibly, and in doing the things alleged herein acted within the course and scope of such agency, 6 employment, joint venture, and conspiracy.

7 45. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant 8 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 9 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 10 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 11 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 12 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant 13 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded, 14 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the 15 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

16 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that despite the 17 formation of the purported corporate existence of CANTEEN and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive 18 (the "Alter Ego Defendants"), they, and each of them, are one and the same with DOES 51 through 19 100 ("Individual Defendants"), and each of them, due to, but not limited to, the following reasons:

20 a. The Alter Ego Defendants are completely dominated and controlled by the 21 Individual Defendants who personally committed the wrongful and illegal acts and violated the laws
22 as set forth in this Complaint, and who have hidden and currently hide behind the Alter Ego 23 Defendants to perpetrate frauds, circumvent statutes, or accomplish some other wrongful or 24 inequitable purpose;

25 b. The Individual Defendants derive actual and significant monetary benefits by 26 and through the Alter Ego Defendants' unlawful conduct, and by using the Alter Ego Defendants as 27 the funding source for the Individual Defendants' own personal expenditures;

28 ///

1 c. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Individual 2 Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants, while really one and the same, were segregated to appear 3 as though separate and distinct for purposes of perpetrating a fraud, circumventing a statute, or 4 accomplishing some other wrongful or inequitable purpose;

5 d. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the business affairs
6 of the Individual Defendants and the Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 7 herein were, so mixed and intermingled that the same cannot reasonably be segregated, and the same
8 are inextricable confusion. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned herein 9 were, used by the Individual Defendants as mere shells and conduits for the conduct of certain of 10 their, and each of their affairs. The Alter Ego Defendants are, and at all relevant times mentioned 11 herein were, the alter egos of the Individual Defendants;

12 e. The recognition of the separate existence of the Individual Defendants from 13 the Alter Ego Defendants would promote injustice insofar that it would permit these defendants to 14 insulate themselves from liability to Plaintiff for violations to the Civil Code, Government Code, 15 and other statutory violations. The corporate existence of these defendants should thus be 16 disregarded in equity and for the ends of justice because such disregard is necessary to avoid fraud
17 and injustice to Plaintiff herein;

18 f. Accordingly, the Alter Ego Defendants constitute the alter ego of the 19 Individual Defendants (and vice versa), and the fiction of their separate corporate existence must be 20 disregarded.

21 47. As a result of the aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based 22 thereon alleges that Defendants, and each of them, are joint employers.

23 48. Moreover, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 24 Individual Defendants, and each of them, are liable for the civil penalties, or some of them, described 25 herein because Individual Defendants, and each of them, caused or are otherwise contributed to the 26 violations described herein, or some of them.

1 FIRST AND ONLY CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys' General Act (2004) – Against All Defendants)

3 49. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the 4 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

5 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 210

6 50. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 204, requires and required that: 7 “[l]abor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid for 8 between the 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and labor 9 performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, shall be paid for 10 between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.”

11 51. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code section 210, subdivision (a) states and stated 12 that “[i]n addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in this 13 article, every person who fails to pay the wages of each employee as provided in Sections 201.3, 14 204, 204b, 204.1, 205, 205.5, and 1197.5, shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any 15 initial violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee” and “(2) For 16 each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for 17 each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld.”

18 52. At all relevant times herein, Defendants have had a consistent policy or practice of 19 failing to pay Plaintiff and/or Aggrieved Employees during their employment on a timely basis as 20 per Labor Code section 204 including, without limitation, for the reasons and in a manner set forth 21 in the preceding paragraphs. Thus, pursuant to Labor Code section 210, Plaintiff and other 22 Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover as civil penalties injunctive relief and monetary civil 23 penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each initial 24 violation per employee, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld for each Aggrieved Employee for each subsequent 26 violation in connection with each payment that was made in violation of Labor Code section 204.

Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 226.3

53. Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to comply with Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) by intentionally failing to furnish Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements that accurately reflect gross wages earned; total hours worked; net wages earned; the name and address of each employer with whom they have been placed to work; all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; the legal name of the employer and/or the name and address of the legal entity securing the employer's services if the employer is a farm labor contractor; and other such information as required by Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) and/or Labor Code section 226.2 to the extent it does not include for piece-rate work the information required therein including, without limitation, the quantity, rate and units worked per piece, as well as separately itemized non-productive time and rest and recovery periods

54. Labor Code section 226.3 states that "[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226."

55. Labor Code section 226.3 further provides that "[t]he civil penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other penalty provided by law."

56. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants had and have a policy or practice of failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with itemized wage statements as set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

57. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover civil penalties for Defendants' violation of Labor Code section 226, subdivision (a) in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

///

1 Violation of Labor Code § 558

2 58. Pursuant to Labor Code section 558, subdivision (a): “Any employer or other person 3 acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated . . . any provision regulating 4 hours and days of work in any of the Industrial Welfare Commission” shall be subject to a civil 5 penalty as follows:

6 (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee and for each 7 pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient 8 to recover underpaid wages;

9 (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid 10 employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to 11 an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages;

12 (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee.”

13 59. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants, and 14 each of them, violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code sections described herein, including 15 causing Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees not to: be paid with the rates of pay and overtime 16 rates of pay applicable to their employment, allowances claimed as part of the minimum wage, the 17 regular payday designated by employer, the name of the employer, including any “doing business 18 as” names used, the name, address, and telephone number of the workers’ compensation insurance 19 carrier, information regarding paid sick leave, and other pertinent information.

20 60. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
21 pursuant to Labor Code section 558, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
22 civil penalties for Defendants’ herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount fifty dollars
23 ($50) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars 24 ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each subsequent violation.

25 Violation of Labor Code § 1174.5

26 61. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (b) has required 27 every person employing labor in California to “[a]llow any member of the commission or the 28 employees of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement free access to the place of business or

1 employment of the person to secure any information or make any investigation that they are 2 authorized by this chapter to ascertain or make. The commission may inspect or make excerpts, 3 relating to the employment of employees, from the books, reports, contracts, payrolls, documents, 4 or papers of the person.”

5 62. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (c) has required 6 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep a record showing the names and addresses of 7 all employees employed and the ages of all minors.”

8 63. At all times mentioned herein, Labor Code section 1174, subdivision (d) has required 9 every person employing labor in California to “[k]eep, at a central location in the state or at the 10 plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours 11 worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and applicable
12 piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records 13 shall be kept in accordance with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any 14 case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. An employer shall not prohibit an employee 15 from maintaining a personal record of hours worked, or, if paid on a piece-rate basis, piece-rate units 16 earned.”

17 64. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, “[a]ny person employing labor who willfully
18 fails to maintain the records required by subdivision (c) of [Labor Code] Section 1174 or accurate 19 and complete records required by subdivision (d) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, or to allow any 20 member of the commission or employees of the division to inspect records pursuant to subdivision 21 (b) of [Labor Code] Section 1174, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500).

22 65. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 23 willfully failed to keep adequate or accurate time records including wage statements and similar 24 payroll documents under Labor Code section 226, documents signed to obtain or hold employment
25 under Labor Code section 432, personnel records under Labor Code section 1198.5, and time records 26 under Labor Code section 1174.

27 66. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
28 pursuant to Labor Code section 1174.5, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to

1 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of five 2 hundred dollars ($500) per violation per pay period per Aggrieved Employee.

3 Violation of Labor Code § 1197.1

4 67. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, subdivision (a): "Any employer or other 5 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays 6 or causes to be paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or 7 local law, or by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, 8 liquidated damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 9 Section 203 as follows:

10 (1) For any initial violation that is intentionally committed, one hundred dollars 11 ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 12 employee is underpaid. This amount shall be in addition to an amount 13 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
14 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

15 (2) For each subsequent violation for the same specific offense, two hundred fifty 16 dollars ($250) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the 17 employee is underpaid regardless of whether the initial violation is 18 intentionally committed. This amount shall be in addition to an amount
19 sufficient to recover underpaid wages, liquidated damages pursuant to Section
20 1194.2, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to Section 203.

21 (3) Wages, liquidated damages, and any applicable penalties imposed pursuant to 22 Section 203, recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected 23 employee."

24 68. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants caused 25 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees not to be paid minimum wages as a result of Defendants, without 26 limitation, routinely failing to pay Plaintiff or other Aggrieved Employees' minimum wages for all 27 hours worked or otherwise under Defendants' control due to, without limitation, routinely failing to 28 accurately track and/or pay for all hours actually worked; detrimental rounding or manipulation of

1 time entries; paying straight pay instead of overtime or otherwise failing to pay overtime hours at 2 the proper overtime rate of pay; engaging, suffering, or permitting employees to work off the clock, 3 entitling Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees to actual and liquidated damages.

4 69. As a direct and proximate result of the herein-described Labor Code violations,
5 pursuant to Labor Code section 1197.1, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to 6 recover civil penalties for Defendants' herein-described Labor Code violations in the amount of one 7 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation, and 8 two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for each 9 subsequent violation.

10 Civil Penalties Under Labor Code § 2699

11 70. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), notwithstanding any other 12 provision of law, any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed 13 and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or 14 employees for a violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil 15 action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former 16 employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

17 71. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that Defendants, and 18 each of them, violated the Labor Code sections described in the preceding paragraphs.

19 72. As such, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees are entitled to injunctive relief, one 20 hundred dollars ($100) for each Aggrieved Employee for each pay period in the PAGA Period, and 21 two hundred dollars ($200) for each Aggrieved Employee for each pay period in the PAGA Period 22 to the extent Defendants' conduct is found to be malicious, fraudulent and/or oppressive.

23 73. Moreover, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees within the State of California 24 whom he seeks to represent are entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in 25 connection with their herein-described claims for civil penalties.

26 PRAYER

27 WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff prays for 28 judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 1 A. An award of civil penalties pursuant to Labor Code sections 210, 226.3, 558, 2 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
3 B. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 4 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699;
5 C. For equitable, including, without limitation, injunctive relief;
6 C. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
7 D. For costs of suit incurred herein; and 8 E. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
