3 admitted to practice before this Court. I am an attorney with the law firm of Justice for Workers,
4 P.C., counsel of record for Plaintiff Daniel R. Perez (“Plaintiff”) in this action. I am lead counsel for 5 Plaintiff in this case and I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein and if called and

7 ATTORNEY QUALIFICATIONS

8 2. My qualifications are as follow: I received my J.D. from the University of Southern 9 California Gould School of Law in 2011. During law school, I served as the Senior Content Editor
10 on the Southern California Law Review where I published the article: Taking the Fight Back to Title
11 VII: A Case for Redefining “Because of Sex” to Include Gender Stereotypes, Sexual Orientation,
12 and Gender Identity, Southern California Law Review, Volume 84:2 (Jan. 2011). During law
13 school, I also served as a judicial extern to U.S. Ninth Circuit Judge, Hon. Kim M. Wardlaw, and 14 U.S. Bankruptcy Court Judge, Hon. Ernest M. Robles; served as a law clerk to the General Counsel
15 of JM Eagle; and participated in the law school’s Employer Legal Advice Clinic.

16 3. After passing the California Bar in December 2011, I began practicing management-
17 side employment law at the Los Angeles office of Lewis Brisbois Bisgaard & Smith LLP. In 2013, I
18 began focusing my practice at Lewis Brisbois on representing employers in wage and hour class and 19 PAGA action lawsuits. In January 2017, I was elevated to the position of Partner and Vice Chair of 20 Lewis Brisbois’ Wage & Hour Class Action Practice Group. In November 2020, I was elevated as 21 the Co-Chair of Lewis Brisbois Wage & Hour Class Action Practice Group, becoming one of the 22 youngest attorneys to chair a practice group at the firm. In January 2022, I was voted in as an equity
23 partner, becoming one of the youngest equity partners and the third Asian-American equity partner

2 Lewis Brisbois Bisgaard & Smith LLP and Fisher & Phillips LLP. In January 2024, Ms. Luu joined
3 JFW and as an associate in the Complex Litigation Practice Group, where she focuses her practice
4 on representing employees in wage and hour class and PAGA action lawsuits.

5 6. Joseph C. Ramli, Esq.'s primary practice has been employment law throughout his 6 entire legal career. Mr. Ramli received his J.D. from the Pepperdine University Rick J. Caruso
7 School of Law in 2021. Shortly after passing the California State Bar, Mr. Ramli practiced as a
8 labor and employment associate starting in March 2022 representing employers in wage and hour
9 class and/or PAGA actions, including at Lewis Brisbois Bisgaard & Smith LLP and O'Hagan Meyer
10 LLP. In January 2025, Mr. Ramli joined JFW and as an associate in the Complex Litigation Practice
11 Group, where he focuses his practice on representing employees in wage and hour class and PAGA
12 action lawsuits.

13 7. As counsel for Plaintiff and the proposed Class, I have been intimately
14 involved in this case since its inception and I believe that the proposed class settlement is an 15 excellent result for the Class. Enclosed as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the Parties' fully 16 executed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice (the "Settlement" or 17 "Agreement"). The proposed Class Notice is attached to the Agreement as Exhibit A.

18 8. Enclosed as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of the redlined Class Action and 19 PAGA Settlement Agreement and Class Notice. The redlined Class Notice is attached to the 20 redlined Agreement as Exhibit A.

21 THE PARTIES AND BRIEF PROCEDURAL HISTORY

22 9. Defendant owns and operates a youth mental health treatment facility in Pasadena, 23 California.

24 10. On September 17, 2024, Plaintiff sent a notice letter under PAGA to the Labor and 25 Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and gave notice to Defendant. Enclosed as Exhibit 3
26 is a true and correct copy of the September 17, 2024 PAGA Notice.

27 11. On the same day, September 17, 2024, Plaintiff alleged claims for (1) Minimum
28 Wage Violations; (2) Overtime Wage Violations; (3) Meal Period Violations; (4) Rest Period

Violations; (5) Wage Statement Penalties; (6) Waiting Time Penalties; (7) Failure to Pay Vested Vacation Wages; and (8) Unfair Competition.

12. On October 28, 2024, Plaintiff filed the operative First Amended Complaint (“Operative Complaint”) adding a cause of action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA against Defendant. Enclosed as Exhibit 4 is a true and correct copy of the Operative Complaint, which has been uploaded to the LWDA’s website.

PLAINTIFF’S CLAIMS AND DEFENDANTS’ DEFENSES

13. Here, Plaintiff contended that Defendant failed to properly factor in non-discretionary remuneration, including shift differentials, flat-sum bonuses, and sign-on bonuses into the regular rate of pay for overtime, meal period premiums, rest period premiums, paid sick leave, and vested vacation wages. In response, Defendant argued that that it properly factored shift differentials and flat-sum bonuses into the regular rate for overtime, meal period premiums, and rest period premiums; and it was not legally obligated to pay paid sick leave and vested vacation wages at the regular rate; and sign-on bonuses need not be factored into the regular rate. Defendant further argued that any regular rate damages were de minimis and Plaintiff’s analysis grossly overvalued damages.

14. Plaintiff claimed that he and other employees were required to remain with patients on their meal breaks and unable to take any off-duty meal breaks, resulting in meal break violations. Defendant countered that it provides 24-hour fostering and residential care for teenage youth and Plaintiff and other employees met the meal period exemption under IWC Wage Order 5, § 11(E). Defendant further argued that for employees who were not subject to this exemption, it maintained compliant meal period policies and practices throughout the Class Period and always provided compliant meal periods in line with those policies. Defendant pointed to the fact that it paid meal period premiums as evidence of its superior meal period compliance practices. As such, Defendant maintained Plaintiff is not a suitable class representative because of his exemption status and that Plaintiff’s meal period claim is not suited for class certification since individual inquiries would be needed to assess which employees, if any, took non-compliant meal periods, how many meal periods were non-compliant, and the reasons why a particular employee did not take a meal period

1 on a particular shift and a meal period premium was not paid.

2 15. Plaintiff claimed that he and other employees were required to remain with patients
3 on their meal breaks and unable to take any off-duty meal breaks, resulting in meal break violations.
4 Defendant countered that it provides 24-hour fostering and residential care for teenage youth and
5 Plaintiff and other employees meet the rest period exemptions under IWC Wage Order 5, § 12(C).
6 Defendant further countered that it has maintained compliant rest period policies and practices and
7 provided compliant rest periods in line with those policies. Defendant pointed to the fact that it paid
8 rest period premiums as evidence of its superior rest period compliance practices. Defendant further
9 maintained Plaintiff is not a suitable class representative because of his exemption status and that
10 Plaintiff's rest period claim is not suited for class certification since individual inquiries would be
11 needed to assess which employees, if any, took non-compliant rest periods, how many rest periods
12 were non-compliant, and the reasons why a particular employee did not take a rest period on a 13 particular shift.

14 16. As a result of the unpaid wages and meal period premium wages described above,
15 Plaintiff contended that Defendants failed to comply with its final pay obligations set forth in Labor
16 Code §§ 201 to 203 to former employees and failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements to 17 Class Members as set forth in Labor Code § 226(a). Thus, the claims for waiting time and wage
18 statement penalties are derivative of the underlying claims. Defendants argued that it possessed
19 strong, good faith defenses to Plaintiff's underlying claims and these claims cannot meet the 20 willfulness standard in Labor Code § 203 or the knowing and intentional standard in Labor Code §
21 226(e). Notably, Defendant relied on the California Supreme Court decision in Naranjo v. Spectrum
22 Security Services, Inc. (2024) 15 Cal.5th 1056, 1065, which held that an employer's good-faith
23 defenses precludes a "willfulness" finding under Labor Code § 203 and a "knowing and intentional"
24 finding under Labor Code § 226(e) for the imposition of statutory penalties. Defendant further 25 asserted that Plaintiff's waiting time and wage statement penalty exposure was inflated as not every 26 employee experienced the alleged Labor Code violations.

27 17. Plaintiff further contended that, as a result of the foregoing Labor Code violations, 28 Defendants are liable for civil penalties under the PAGA. Since Plaintiff's PAGA claims are

1 derivative of Plaintiff's underlying wage claims, Defendant asserted the PAGA claim would fail
2 with those claims. Defendant further maintained that, given their good faith defenses, this Court
3 would exercise its discretion to substantially reduce any PAGA penalties if it were to find
4 Defendant liable for any of Plaintiff's claims.

5 DISCOVERY AND MEDIATION

6 18. In connection with mediation, the Parties engaged in extensive informal discovery.
7 Defendant produced (1) a class list with employee numbers, dates of employment, positions, and
8 hourly rates; (2) time and payroll records for an approximate 16.5% random sampling of Class
9 Members; (3) a list of Class Members who were required to be on duty and on premises for meal
10 and rest breaks and subject to the Wage Order 5 exemptions discussed above; (5) Defendant's
11 employee handbooks and standalone policy documents; and (6) Plaintiff's personnel records and 12 wage statements.

13 19. Plaintiff submits that the sampling of Class Members' time and payroll records is 14 statistically significant and reliable. The timekeeping data and payroll data produced for mediation
15 were generated from uniform timekeeping and payroll systems, which allowed Class Counsel to 16 extrapolate his and his expert's findings with confidence. Class Members worked in similar job
17 positions and were subject to the same wage and hour policies and procedures. Given these 18 circumstances, the experiences of a subset of employees – the sampling – can be probative as to the 19 experiences of all Class Members

20 20. In preparation for mediation, Class Counsel worked with an expert data analyst and 21 conducted a comprehensive analysis and extrapolation of the payroll and timekeeping data
22 produced by Defendants to create a detailed exposure analysis for all claims at issue. This discovery
23 and analysis allowed the Parties to assess the merits and value of Plaintiff's claims, the chances of 24 certification of Plaintiff's claims, and Defendants' potential defenses.

25 21. On November 17, 2025, the Parties participated in a full-day mediation with Gig
26 Kyriacou, Esq. a well-respected wage and hour class action mediator. During mediation, the Parties
27 vigorously debated their opposing legal positions, the likelihood of certification of Plaintiff's
28 claims, and the legal basis for the claims and defenses. The Parties reached a tentative class and

1 PAGA settlement at the mediation. During the months that followed, the Parties finalized the terms
2 of the Settlement and executed the Agreement now before the Court.

3 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

4 22. The monetary terms of the Settlement are summarized below:

5	Gross Settlement Amount:	$308,583.00
6	Minus Court-approved attorneys' fees:	$102,861.00
7	Minus Court-approved verified costs (up to):	$20,000.00
8	Minus Court-approved Service Payment:	$10,000.00
9	Minus estimated settlement administration costs:	$8,950.00
	Minus amount set aside as PAGA Payment:	$15,000.00
	Net Settlement Amount:	$151,772.00
	Plus 25% "PAGA Payment" to Class:	$5,250.00
	Total Amount Paid to Class Members:	$157,022.00

10 23. According to Defendant, there are approximately 321 Class Members. Therefore, the 11 average Individual Class Payment from the Net Settlement Amount is projected to be approximately 12 $472.81. There are also approximately 321 Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period who 13 will each receive an average of approximately $16.36 as Individual PAGA Payments.

14 24. The requested fee is fair compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive,
15 and time-consuming litigation on a purely contingent fee basis. Class Counsel have incurred
16 substantial attorneys' fees and costs conducting pre-filing investigation, analyzing Plaintiff's
17 claims, conducting legal research, conducting informal discovery, analyzing Class Members' time
18 and payroll records, creating a comprehensive damages model, preparing for and attending
19 mediation, negotiating and preparing the long-form Agreement, preparing this Motion, and 20 otherwise litigating the case. Class Counsel expect to expend additional attorney time in attending
21 the hearing on this Motion, overseeing the Class Notice process and fielding questions from Class
22 Members, preparing the Final Approval papers, and attending the Final Approval hearing.

23 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL IS WARRANTED

24 25. Although Plaintiff maintains that Plaintiff's claims are meritorious, Plaintiff
25 acknowledges that there were substantial risks and uncertainty in proceeding with litigation. . As 26 described above, Defendant presented multiple defenses to Plaintiff's claims, both on the merits and 27 with respect to class certification. Although the Parties engaged in significant informal discovery
28 prior to mediation, the Parties still had significant formal discovery to complete had the matter not

1 been settled. This would have required the expenditure of substantial time and resources by both
2 Parties that would have very likely spanned several years. Even if Plaintiff were to certify the
3 classes, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through a possible
4 decertification motion, trial, and possible appeal. This Settlement avoids those risks and the 5 accompanying expense.

6 26. Plaintiff has not yet filed a motion for class certification, and as such, the extent to 7 which Plaintiff's proposed classes were certifiable is somewhat speculative. Absent settlement,
8 there was a risk that there would not be a certified class at the time of trial, or if there were, it would
9 consist of a significantly smaller group of employees than the proposed Class due to a narrowing of 10 the class definition in a Court order on a contested motion for class certification.

11 27. Regular Rate Violations. Class Counsel found Defendant's maximum damages for 12 unpaid wages due to regular rate violations—underpaid overtime, meal and rest period premiums,
13 and paid sick leave wages—to be approximately $59,157.51. As discussed above, Defendant argued 14 that that it properly factored shift differentials and flat-sum bonuses into the regular rate for 15 overtime, meal period premiums, and rest period premiums; and it was not legally obligated to pay
16 paid sick leave and vested vacation wages at the regular rate; and sign-on bonuses need not be 17 factored into the regular rate. Thus, Plaintiff discounted Defendant's maximum exposure by 20% to 18 account for the risk of non-certification and for Defendant's defenses on the merits or failing to 19 recover the full amount sought to arrive at an estimated realistic recovery of approximately 20 $47,326.01.

21 28. Meal and Rest Period Premiums. After excluding employees who may be required to 22 take meal breaks on duty under the exemption for IWC Wage Order 5, § 11(E) as discussed above
23 and after applying meal period premiums paid, Plaintiff's expert found a 0.10% violation rate by 24 shift (i.e., 1 out of 1,000 shifts had a non-compliant meal period punch). Moreover, as discussed
25 above, Defendant contended that it maintain compliant meal and rest period policies, it paid both 26 meal and rest period premiums, Plaintiff is not a suitable class representative because he was 27 subject to the off-duty meal and rest period exemptions in IWC Wage Order 5, §§ 11(E) and 12(C), 28 and that these claims are not suited for class certification since individual inquiries would

1 predominate. In light of these defenses, Plaintiff does not place a monetary value on these claims.

2 29. Waiting Time Penalties: As a result of the regular rate violations described above,
3 Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to comply with its final pay obligations set forth in Labor
4 Code §§ 201 to 203 to former employees. Based on Class Counsel’s analysis, approximately 5 63.46% of employees in the sampling had one or more regular rate violations. Ibid. Extrapolated to 6 106 former employees, at average hourly rates of $23.39 and average hours worked of 8.53 hours,
7 and over 30 days, Plaintiff estimates Defendant’s maximum exposure for waiting time penalties is 8 $634,463.11. Defendant presented several defenses, including that because they possessed good-
9 faith defenses to the underlying wage claims, any failure to pay wages was not “willful” as a matter
10 of law; Plaintiff’s waiting time penalty exposure was grossly inflated as not every former employee
11 experienced the alleged Labor Code violations; and because the waiting time claim is derivative of 12 Plaintiff’s underlying wage claims, Plaintiff would need to overcome Defendant’s defenses, both as 13 to class certification and on the merits, as to the underlying claims. Thus, Plaintiff discounted
14 Defendant’s maximum exposure by 60% to account for the risk of non-certification and 15 Defendant’s defenses on the merits or failing to recover the full amount sought, to arrive at an 16 estimated realistic recovery of approximately $253,785.24.

17 30. Wage Statement Penalties: Plaintiff alleged that Defendant is liable for wage
18 statement penalties as a result of unpaid wages. Class Counsel found in the sampling approximately 19 22.21% of pay periods had a regular rate violation, and at $50 for the initial violation and $100 for 20 each subsequent violation per employee, Defendant’s maximum exposure for wage statement
21 penalties is $242,053.83. As discussed above, Defendant presented several defenses, most notably
22 their assertion that because they possessed good-faith defenses to the underlying claims for meal
23 period violations and any failure to pay wages was not “knowing and intentional” as a matter of law
24 and because the wage statement claim is derivative of Plaintiff’s underlying wage claims, Plaintiff
25 would need to overcome Defendant’s defenses, both as to class certification and on the merits, as to 26 his underlying claims. Thus, Plaintiff discounted Defendant’s maximum exposure by 60% to 27 account for the risk of non-certification and Defendant’s defenses on the merits or failing to recover
28 the full amount sought, to arrive at an estimated realistic recovery of approximately $96,821.53.

1 31. PAGA Penalties: Based on Class Counsel's analysis, Plaintiff estimated a maximum
2 total PAGA exposure of approximately $468,845.52. However, these penalties derive from the
3 underlying wage and hour violations discussed above, which Defendants dispute vigorously.
4 Therefore, Plaintiff discounted the maximum figure by 75% for the risk of losing on the merits
5 and/or not recovering a PAGA penalty for each and every pay period and to account for the 6 possibility of this Court reducing penalties, to arrive at an estimated exposure of approximately 7 $117,211.38.

8 32. Using these estimated figures for each of the claims described above, Plaintiff
9 predicted that the potential realistic recovery for the Class would be approximately $515,144.2. The 10 proposed Settlement of $308,583.00 represents approximately 59.90% of the reasonably forecasted
11 recovery for the Class. Preliminary approval is appropriate since the Settlement will provide 12 significant monetary relief to the Class, which is consistent with what Class Counsel believes could 13 have been recovered had the case proceeded through trial.

14 33. There is no conflict between my interests and the interests of the Class that I am
15 seeking to represent. I have demonstrated my ability to advocate for the interests of the Class by 16 initiating this litigation, undertaking extensive class discovery, negotiating the proposed Settlement
17 at mediation, seeking preliminary approval, and otherwise litigating this case. I also do not have any 18 conflict of interest with the Administrator.

19 34. I am not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be 20 extinguished or affected by the Settlement.

21 35. On March 13, 2026, I uploaded a copy of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, the 22 fully executed Agreement, supporting declarations, and Proposed Order to the LWDA's website.
23 Enclosed as Exhibit 5 is a true and correct copy of the LWDA's filing confirmation.

CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND CLASS NOTICE

This Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is made by and between Plaintiff Daniel Perez (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Hillsides (“Defendant”). The Agreement refers to Plaintiff and Defendant collectively as “Parties,” or individually as “Party.”

1. DEFINITIONS.

As part of the motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Litigation Expenses Payment, Plaintiff will seek Court approval for any Class Representative Service Payment no later than 16 court days prior to the Final Approval Hearing. If the Court approves a Class Representative Service Payment less than the amount requested, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount. Class Counsel assumes full responsibility and liability for taxes owed on the Class Counsel Fee Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and holds Defendant harmless, and indemnifies Defendant, from any dispute or controversy regarding any division or sharing of any of these Payments.

- 3.2.3. To the Administrator: The Administration Expenses Payment not to exceed $8,950.00 except for a showing of good cause and as approved by the Court. Defendant will not oppose requests for these payments provided that they do not exceed this amount. To the extent the Administration Expenses Payment is less or the Court approves a payment of less than $8,950.00, the Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount.
- 3.2.4. To Each Participating Class Member: An Individual Class Payment calculated by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.
 - 3.2.4.1. Tax Allocation of Individual Class Payments. 10% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. 90% of each Participating Class Member's Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.
 - 3.2.4.2. Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.
- 3.2.5. To the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees: PAGA Penalties in the amount of $15,000.00 to be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount, with 65% ($9,750.00) allocated to the LWDA Payment and 35% ($5,250.00) allocated to the Individual PAGA Payments.
 - 3.2.5.1. The Administrator will calculate each Individual PAGA Payment by (a) dividing the amount of the Aggrieved Employees' 35% share of PAGA Penalties ($5,250.00) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees during the PAGA Period and (b) multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's PAGA Pay Periods. Aggrieved Employees assume full responsibility and liability for any taxes owed on their Individual PAGA Payment.

Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.
- 4.4.3. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email, or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to the calculation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination of the challenges.
- 7.7 Objections to Settlement.
- 7.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and/or Class Representative Service Payment.
- 7.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than 45 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).
- 7.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.
- 7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

- 7.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.
- 7.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion (“Exclusion List”); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).
- 7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.
- 7.8.4 Workweek and/or PAGA Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.
- 7.8.5 Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and the full names of Class Members who opted out of the settlement, the high, low, and average Individual Class Payments, and the high, low, and average Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration(s) in Court.

- 7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator's declaration in Court.

8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, (1) there are 321 Class Members and 22,858 total Workweeks during the Class Period and (2) there are 321 Aggrieved Employees who worked 11,481 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If the actual number of total Workweeks during the Class Period is greater than 10% of the estimated 22,858 Workweeks, then Defendant shall have the option to either: (1) de-escalate the settlement so that the Class Period ends on the date that the Workweeks count totals no more than 25,144 Workweeks and the PAGA Period will end on the same date as the Class Period; or (2) permit the Gross Settlement Amount to be increased proportionally by the number of Workweeks in excess of 25,144 Workweeks (the "Escalator Clause"). For example, if the number of Workweeks is 11% higher, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 1%. No later than 30 days after the close of the Class Period on January 17, 2026, Defendant shall verify the total number of Workweeks during the Class Period by either submitting a declaration to Class Counsel stating the total number of Workweeks during the Class Period or providing the number of Workweeks and/or dates of employment of Class Members to the Administrator, who will calculate the number of Workweeks. If the Escalator Clause is triggered, no later than 14 days prior to the hearing on preliminary approval, Defendant shall choose to either change the end date of the Class Period or increase the Gross Settlement Amount in accordance with the Escalator Clause such that there is a certain end date for the Class Period for preliminary approval.
9. DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members,

Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Administration Expenses Payment incurred to that point. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than 7 days within learning this information; late elections will have no effect.

10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order, and a proposed Judgment (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than 7 days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

- 10.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than 5 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.
- 10.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court’s concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court’s decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administration Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.
- 10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.
- 10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.

- 10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses Payment reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit a proposed amended judgment.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

- 12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).

- 12.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, with any third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 12.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 12.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 12.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.

- 12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity any portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 12.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 12.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 12.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 12.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.
- 12.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 12.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during the Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 12.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Defendant makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.

- 12.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to “days” in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 12.17 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Daniel Perez v. Hillsides, Case No. 24STCV24099

The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Hillsides (“Defendant”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former employee Daniel Perez (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for a class of all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California during the Class Period of November 12, 2023 through January 17, 2026 [or alternative date] (“Class Members”); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California during the PAGA Period of November 12, 2023 through January 17, 2026 [or alternative date] (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $INSERT (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $INSERT. The actual amount you may receive may be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you did not work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked INSERT Workweeks during the Class Period, and you worked INSERT PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved

Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You do not have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is 	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released PAGA Claims (defined below).

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by 	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on . You do not have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by 	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depends on how many Workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by . See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant Hillside. The Action alleges that Defendant violated California labor laws by failing to pay minimum and overtime wages; failing to provide legally compliant meal and rest periods; failing to pay vested vacation wages; failing to pay wages due upon termination; failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and unfair competition. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: William C. Sung, Tiffany L. Luu, Joseph C. Ramli of Justice for Workers, P.C. (“Class Counsel”)

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant have agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant Will Pay $308,583.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement Amount into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement Amount to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount not more than 65 days after the Judgment entered by the Court becomes final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.

2. Court-Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement Amount. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $102,861.00 (One-Third or 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $20,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff as Class Representative Service Payment for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Service Payment will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $8,950.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $15,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 65% to the LWDA Payment and 35% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement Amount (the "Net Settlement") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 10% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages ("Wage Portion") and 90% to interests and penalties ("Non-Wage Portion."). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant has agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you do not cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name.

If the monies represented by your check are sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than INSERT, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the INSERT Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and email address, for verification purposes, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, Phoenix Settlement Administrators (the "Administrator") to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement Amount and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA Penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from any and all claims that were or could have been alleged in the Operative Complaint that arose during the Class Period, including without limitation, to the following claims: (a) failure to pay minimum wages; (b) failure to pay overtime wages; (c) failure to authorize or pay meal periods; (d) failure to authorize or pay rest periods; (e) failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements; (f) failure to pay all wages at time of termination; (g) failure to pay vested vacation; (h) failure to properly pay paid sick leave; (i) failure to pay overtime, meal and rest premiums, PTO and sick leave at the regular rate of pay; (j) all claims under California Business & Professions Code § 17200 for unfair business practices that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action or legal theories described above; and (k) violation of the California Industrial Wage Orders that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action or legal theories described above, as well as any potential penalties, interest or attorneys' fees associated with all of such causes of action under California law ("Released Class Claims"). Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's Judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement Amount and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes, all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the

Released Parties, from all claims, demands, rights, liabilities and causes of action under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the claims asserted in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice (and any amendments thereto) arising during or with respect to the PAGA Period (“Released PAGA Claims”). The foregoing release shall be binding on Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, and shall bar by res judicata any claim under the PAGA brought by any person, including the Aggrieved Employees, on behalf of the State of California, as to any claims predicated on the Released PAGA Claims.

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $5,250.00 (35% of the PAGA Penalties) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/PAGA Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant’s records, are stated on the first page of this Notice. You have until INSERT to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email, or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator’s contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant’s calculation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods based on Defendant’s records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or PAGA Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant’s Counsel. The Administrator’s decision is final. You cannot appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who does not opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.

2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as in this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request to be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Daniel Perez v. Hillsides, Case No. 24STCV24099, and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, email address, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must receive your request to be excluded by INSERT, or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least 16 court days before the INSERT Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs and Class Representative Service Payment stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as Class Representative Service Payment. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website www.INSERT.com or the Court's website <https://www.lacourt.ca.gov/home>.

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs, and Class Representative Service Payment may wish to object. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is INSERT. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action Daniel Perez v. Hillsides, Case No. 24STCV24099 and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Defendant and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing INSERT at INSERT a.m./p.m. in Department 9 of the Los Angeles Superior Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012. At the Hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement Amount will be paid to Class Counsel, Plaintiff, and the Administrator. You can attend (or hire a lawyer to attend) either personally or virtually via LACourtConnect (<https://lacc.lacourt.org/>). Check the Court's website for the most current information.

Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment.

3.2.4.2. Effect of Non-Participating Class Members on Calculation of Individual Class Payments. Non-Participating Class Members will not receive any Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will retain amounts equal to their Individual Class Payments in the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members on a pro rata basis.

Not later than 15 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendant will simultaneously deliver the Class Data to the Administrator, in the form of a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. To protect Class Members' privacy rights, the Administrator must maintain the Class Data in confidence, use the Class Data only for purposes of this Settlement and for no other purpose, and restrict access to the Class Data to Administrator employees who need access to the Class Data to effect and perform under this Agreement. Defendant has a continuing duty to immediately notify Class Counsel if it discovers that the Class Data omitted class members' identifying information and to provide corrected or updated Class Data as soon as reasonably feasible. Without any extension of the deadline by which Defendant must send the Class Data to the Administrator, the Parties and their counsel will expeditiously use best efforts, in good faith, to reconstruct or otherwise resolve any issues related to missing or omitted Class Data.

The Administrator will send checks for Individual Settlement Payments to all Participating Class Members (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator will send checks for Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees including Non-Participating Class Members who qualify as Aggrieved Employees (including those for whom Class Notice was returned undelivered). The Administrator may send Participating Class Members a single check combining the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment. Before mailing any checks, the Settlement Administrator must update the recipients' mailing addresses using the National Change of Address Database.
- 4.4.2. The Administrator must conduct a Class Member Address Search for all other Class Members whose checks are returned undelivered without United States Postal Service ("USPS") forwarding address. Within 7 days of receiving a returned check the Administrator must re-mail checks to the USPS forwarding address provided or to an address ascertained through the Class Member Address Search. The Administrator need not take further steps to deliver checks to Class Members whose re-mailed checks are returned as undelivered. The Administrator shall promptly send a replacement check to any Class Member whose original check was lost or misplaced, requested by the Class Member prior to the void date.
- 4.4.3. For any Class Member whose Individual Class Payment check or Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after the void date, the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks [to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member thereby leaving no "unpaid residue" subject to the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b).] ~~[or to a Court-approved nonprofit organization or foundation consistent with Code of Civil Procedure Section 384, subd. (b) ("Cy Pres Recipient") ____]. The Parties, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the intended Cy Pres Recipient.~~

5.1 Plaintiff's Release. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's respective former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns generally, release and discharge Released Parties from all claims, transactions, or occurrences related to Plaintiff's employment with Defendant that occurred during the Class Period, including, but not limited to: (a) all claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged, based on the facts contained, in the Operative Complaint and (b) all PAGA claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged based on facts contained in the Operative Complaint, and/or Plaintiff's PAGA Notice, [or ascertained during the Action and released under 5.2, below]. Plaintiff acknowledges that Plaintiff may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff now knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that Plaintiff's Release shall be and remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or Plaintiff's discovery of them.

5.1.1 Plaintiff's Waiver of Rights Under California Civil Code Section 1542. For purposes of Plaintiff's Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

- 5.3 Release by ~~Non-Participating Class Members Who Are~~ Aggrieved Employees: All ~~Non-Participating Class Members who are~~ Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released Parties from all claims, demands, rights, liabilities and causes of action under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the claims asserted in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice (and any amendments thereto) arising during or with respect to the PAGA Period ("Released PAGA Claims"). The foregoing release shall be binding on Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, and shall bar by res judicata any claim under the PAGA brought by any person, including the Aggrieved Employees, on behalf of the State of California, as to any claims predicated on the Released PAGA Claims.~~all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint[,] [and] the PAGA Notice [and ascertained in the course of the Action][including, e.g., "(a) any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay minimum wage; etc.].~~

6. MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL. The Parties agree to jointly prepare and file a motion for preliminary approval ("Motion for Preliminary Approval") that complies with the Court's current checklist for Preliminary Approvals.

- 6.1 Defendant's Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval. Within 14 days of the full execution of this Agreement, Defendant will prepare and deliver to Class Counsel a signed Declaration from ~~Defendants and~~ Defense Counsel disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with the Administrator-~~and Cy Pres Recipient.~~ ~~In their Declarations, Defense Counsel and Defendants shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims~~

~~that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.~~

- 6.2 Plaintiff's Responsibilities. Plaintiff will prepare and deliver to Defense Counsel all documents necessary for obtaining Preliminary Approval, including: (i) a draft of the notice, and memorandum in support, of the Motion for Preliminary Approval that includes an analysis of the Settlement under Dunk/Kullar and a request for approval of the PAGA Settlement under Labor Code Section 2699, subd. (f)(2)); (ii) a draft proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval and Approval of PAGA Settlement; and (iii) a draft proposed Class Notice; (iv) a signed declaration from the Administrator attaching its "not to exceed" bid for administering the Settlement and attesting to its willingness to serve; competency; operative procedures for protecting the security of Class Data; amounts of insurance coverage for any data breach, defalcation of funds or other misfeasance; all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members ~~[and/or the proposed Cy Pres]~~; and the nature and extent of any financial relationship with Plaintiff, Class Counsel or Defense Counsel; (v) a signed declaration from Plaintiff confirming willingness and competency to serve and disclosing all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflicts of interest with Class Members, ~~[and/or] the Administrator [and/or the proposed Cy Pres]~~; (v) a signed declaration from each Class Counsel firm attesting to its competency to represent the Class Members; its timely transmission to the LWDA of all necessary PAGA documents (initial notice of violations (Labor Code section 2699.3, subd. (a)), Operative Complaint (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(1)), this Agreement (Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l)(2)); (vi) a redlined version of the parties' Agreement showing all modifications made to the Model Agreement ready for filing with the Court; and (vii) all facts relevant to any actual or potential conflict of interest with Class Members and, the Administrator ~~and/or the Cy Pres Recipient~~. In their Declarations, Plaintiff and Class Counsel Declaration shall aver that they are not aware of any other pending matter or action asserting claims that will be extinguished or adversely affected by the Settlement.
- 6.3 Responsibilities of Counsel. Class Counsel is responsible for expeditiously finalizing and filing the Motion for Preliminary Approval no later than 30 days after the full execution of this Agreement; obtaining a prompt hearing date for the Motion for Preliminary Approval; and for appearing in Court to advocate in favor of the Motion for Preliminary Approval. Class Counsel is responsible for delivering the Court's Preliminary Approval to the Administrator.
- 6.4 Duty to Cooperate. If the Parties disagree on any aspect of the proposed Motion for Preliminary Approval and/or the supporting declarations and documents, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve the disagreement. If the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval or conditions Preliminary Approval on any material change to this Agreement, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously work together on behalf of the Parties by meeting in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to modify the Agreement and otherwise satisfy the Court's concerns.

7. SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

- 7.1 Selection of Administrator. The Parties have jointly selected Phoenix Settlement Administrators to serve as the Administrator and verified that, as a condition of appointment, Phoenix Settlement Administrators agrees to be bound by this Agreement and to perform, as a fiduciary, all duties specified in this Agreement in exchange for Administration Expenses Payment. The Parties and their Counsel represent that they have no interest or relationship, financial or otherwise, with the Administrator other than a professional relationship arising out of prior experiences administering settlements.
- 7.2 Employer Identification Number. The Administrator shall have and use its own Employer Identification Number for purposes of calculating payroll tax withholdings and providing reports to state and federal tax authorities.
- 7.3 Qualified Settlement Fund. The Administrator shall establish a settlement fund that meets the requirements of a Qualified Settlement Fund ("QSF") under US Treasury Regulation section 468B-1.
- 7.4 Notice to Class Members.
- 7.4.1 No later than three (3) business days after receipt of the Class Data, the Administrator shall notify Class Counsel that the list has been received and state the number of Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, Workweeks, and PAGA Pay Periods in the Class Data.
- 7.4.2 Using best efforts to perform as soon as possible, and in no event later than fourteen (14) days after receiving the Class Data, the Administrator will send to all Class Members identified in the Class Data, via first-class USPS mail, the Class Notice, with Spanish translation, ~~if applicable~~, substantially in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit A. The first page of the Class Notice shall prominently estimate the dollar amounts of any Individual Class Payment and/or Individual PAGA Payment payable to the Class Member, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if applicable) used to calculate these amounts. Before mailing Class Notices, the Administrator shall update Class Member addresses using the National Change of Address database.
- 7.4.3 Not later than 3 business days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any forwarding address provided by the USPS. If the USPS does not provide a forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator has no obligation to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is returned by the USPS a second time.

- 7.4.4 The deadlines for Class Members' written objections, Challenges to Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods, and Requests for Exclusion will be extended an additional 14 days beyond the 45 days otherwise provided in the Class Notice for all Class Members whose notice is re-mailed. The Administrator will inform the Class Member of the extended deadline with the re-mailed Class Notice.
- 7.4.5 If the Administrator, Defendant or Class Counsel is contacted by or otherwise discovers any persons who believe they should have been included in the Class Data and should have received Class Notice, the Parties will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, in an effort to agree on whether to include them as Class Members. If the Parties agree, such persons will be Class Members entitled to the same rights as other Class Members, and the Administrator will send, via email or overnight delivery, a Class Notice requiring them to exercise options under this Agreement not later than 14 days after receipt of Class Notice, or the deadline dates in the Class Notice, which ever are later.

7.5 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-Outs).

- 7.5.1 Class Members who wish to exclude themselves (opt-out of) the Class Settlement must send the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail, a signed written Request for Exclusion not later than 45 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed). A Request for Exclusion is a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative that reasonably communicates the Class Member's election to be excluded from the Settlement and includes the Class Member's name, address, ~~and~~ email address, ~~or~~ and telephone number, ~~and~~ social security for verification purposes. To be valid, a Request for Exclusion must be timely faxed, emailed, or postmarked by the Response Deadline.
- 7.5.2 The Administrator may not reject a Request for Exclusion as invalid because it fails to contain all the information specified in the Class Notice. The Administrator shall accept any Request for Exclusion as valid if the Administrator can reasonably ascertain the identity of the person as a Class Member and the Class Member's desire to be excluded. The Administrator's determination shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. If the Administrator has reason to question the authenticity of a Request for Exclusion, the Administrator may demand additional proof of the Class Member's identity. The Administrator's determination of authenticity shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.5.3 Every Class Member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion is deemed to be a Participating Class Member under this Agreement, entitled to all benefits and bound by all terms and conditions of the Settlement, including the Participating Class Members' Releases under Paragraphs 5.2 and 5.3 of this Agreement, regardless of whether the Participating Class Member actually receives the Class Notice or objects to the Settlement.

7.5.4 Every Class Member who submits a valid and timely Request for Exclusion is a Non-Participating Class Member and shall not receive an Individual Class Payment or have the right to object to the class action components of the Settlement. Because future PAGA claims are subject to claim preclusion upon entry of the Judgment, Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release the claims identified in Paragraph 5.3 of this Agreement and are eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment.

7.6 Challenges to Calculation of Workweeks. Each Class Member shall have 45 days after the Administrator mails the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice is re-mailed) to challenge the number of Class Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods (if any) allocated to the Class Member in the Class Notice. The Class Member may challenge the allocation by communicating with the Administrator via fax, email, or mail. The Administrator must encourage the challenging Class Member to submit supporting documentation. In the absence of any contrary documentation, the Administrator is entitled to presume that the Workweeks contained in the Class Notice are correct so long as they are consistent with the Class Data. The Administrator's determination of each Class Member's allocation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge. The Administrator shall promptly provide copies of all challenges to the calculation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods to Defense Counsel and Class Counsel and the Administrator's determination of the challenges.

7.7 Objections to Settlement.

7.7.1 Only Participating Class Members may object to the class action components of the Settlement and/or this Agreement, including contesting the fairness of the Settlement, and/or amounts requested for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, and/or Class Representative Service Payment.

7.7.2 Participating Class Members may send written objections to the Administrator, by fax, email, or mail. In the alternative, Participating Class Members may appear in Court (or hire an attorney to appear in Court) to present verbal objections at the Final Approval Hearing. A Participating Class Member who elects to send a written objection to the Administrator must do so not later than 45 days after the Administrator's mailing of the Class Notice (plus an additional 14 days for Class Members whose Class Notice was re-mailed).

7.7.3 Non-Participating Class Members have no right to object to any of the class action components of the Settlement.

7.8 Administrator Duties. The Administrator has a duty to perform or observe all tasks to be performed or observed by the Administrator contained in this Agreement or otherwise.

7.8.1 Website, Email Address and Toll-Free Number. The Administrator will establish and maintain and use an internet website to post information of interest to Class Members including the date, time and location for the Final Approval Hearing and copies of the Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Preliminary Approval, the Class Notice, the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and Class Representative Service Payment, the Final Approval and the Judgment. The Administrator will also maintain and monitor an email address and a toll-free telephone number to receive Class Member calls, faxes and emails.

7.8.2 Requests for Exclusion (Opt-outs) and Exclusion List. The Administrator will promptly review on a rolling basis Requests for Exclusion to ascertain their validity. Not later than 5 days after the expiration of the deadline for submitting Requests for Exclusion, the Administrator shall email a list to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel containing (a) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have timely submitted valid Requests for Exclusion ("Exclusion List"); (b) the names and other identifying information of Class Members who have submitted invalid Requests for Exclusion; (c) copies of all Requests for Exclusion from Settlement submitted (whether valid or invalid).

7.8.3 Weekly Reports. The Administrator must, on a weekly basis, provide written reports to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel that, among other things, tally the number of: Class Notices mailed or re-mailed, Class Notices returned undelivered, Requests for Exclusion (whether valid or invalid) received, objections received, challenges to Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods received and/or resolved, and checks mailed for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments (“Weekly Report”). The Weekly Reports must include the Administrator’s assessment of the validity of Requests for Exclusion and attach copies of all Requests for Exclusion and objections received.

7.8.4 Workweek and/or PAGA Pay Period Challenges. The Administrator has the authority to address and make final decisions consistent with the terms of this Agreement on all Class Member challenges over the calculation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods. The Administrator’s decision shall be final and not appealable or otherwise susceptible to challenge.

7.8.5 Administrator’s Declaration. Not later than 14 days before the date by which Plaintiff is required to file the Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, the Administrator will provide to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its due diligence and compliance with all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, its mailing of Class Notice, the Class Notices returned as undelivered, the re-mailing of Class Notices, attempts to locate Class Members, the total number of Requests for Exclusion from Settlement it received (both valid or invalid), the number of written objections and the full names of Class Members who opted out of the settlement, the high, low, and average Individual Class Payments, and the high, low, and average Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will supplement its declaration as needed or requested by the Parties and/or the Court. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator’s declaration(s) in Court.

7.8.6 Final Report by Settlement Administrator. Within 10 days after the Administrator disburses all funds in the Gross Settlement Amount, the Administrator will provide Class Counsel and Defense Counsel with a final report detailing its disbursements by employee identification number only of all payments made under this Agreement. At least 15 days before any deadline set by the Court, the Administrator will prepare, and submit to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel, a signed declaration suitable for filing in Court attesting to its disbursement of all payments required under this Agreement. Class Counsel is responsible for filing the Administrator’s declaration in Court.

8. CLASS SIZE ESTIMATES and ESCALATOR CLAUSE Based on its records, Defendant estimates that, as of the date of this Settlement Agreement, (1) there are 321 Class

Members and 22,858 total Workweeks during the Class Period and (2) there are 321 Aggrieved Employees who worked 11,481 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If the actual number of total Workweeks during the Class Period is greater than 10% of the estimated 22,858 Workweeks}, then Defendant shall have the option to either: (1) de-escalate the settlement so that the Class Period ends on the date that the Workweeks count totals no more than 25,144 Workweeks and the PAGA Period will end on the same date as the Class Period; or (2) permit the Gross Settlement Amount to be increased proportionally by the number of Workweeks in excess of 25,144 Workweeks (the “Escalator Clause”). For example, if the number of Workweeks is 11% higher, the Gross Settlement Amount will increase by 1%. No later than 30 days after the close of the Class Period on January 17, 2026, Defendant shall verify the total number of Workweeks during the Class Period by either submitting a declaration to Class Counsel stating the total number of Workweeks during the Class Period or providing the number of Workweeks and/or dates of employment of Class Members to the Administrator, who will calculate the number of Workweeks. If the Escalator Clause is triggered, no later than 14 days prior to the hearing on preliminary approval, Defendant shall choose to either change the end date of the Class Period or increase the Gross Settlement Amount in accordance with the Escalator Clause such that there is a certain end date for the Class Period for preliminary approval.

8. _____

9. DEFENDANT’S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW. If the number of valid Requests for Exclusion identified in the Exclusion List exceeds 10% of the total of all Class Members, Defendant may, but is not obligated, elect to withdraw from the Settlement. The Parties agree that, if Defendant withdraws, the Settlement shall be void ab initio, have no force or effect whatsoever, and that neither Party will have any further obligation to perform under this Agreement; provided, however, Defendant will remain responsible for paying all Administration Expenses Payment incurred to that point. Defendant must notify Class Counsel and the Court of its election to withdraw not later than 7 days within learning this information; late elections will have no effect.

10. MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL. Not later than 16 court days before the calendared Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff will file in Court, a motion for final approval of the Settlement that includes a request for approval of the PAGA settlement under Labor Code section 2699, subd. (l), a Proposed Final Approval Order, and a proposed Judgment (collectively “Motion for Final Approval”). Plaintiff shall provide drafts of these documents to Defense Counsel not later than 7 days prior to filing the Motion for Final Approval. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel will expeditiously meet and confer in person or by telephone, and in good faith, to resolve any disagreements concerning the Motion for Final Approval.

10.1 Response to Objections. Each Party retains the right to respond to any objection raised by a Participating Class Member, including the right to file responsive documents in Court no later than 5 days prior to the Final Approval Hearing, or as otherwise ordered or accepted by the Court.

- 10.2 Duty to Cooperate. If the Court does not grant Final Approval or conditions Final Approval on any material change to the Settlement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), the Parties will expeditiously work together in good faith to address the Court's concerns by revising the Agreement as necessary to obtain Final Approval. The Court's decision to award less than the amounts requested for the Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment and/or Administration Expenses Payment shall not constitute a material modification to the Agreement within the meaning of this paragraph.
- 10.3 Continuing Jurisdiction of the Court. The Parties agree that, after entry of Judgment, the Court will retain jurisdiction over the Parties, Action, and the Settlement solely for purposes of (i) enforcing this Agreement and/or Judgment, (ii) addressing settlement administration matters, and (iii) addressing such post-Judgment matters as are permitted by law.
- 10.4 Waiver of Right to Appeal. Provided the Judgment is consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, specifically including the Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment reflected set forth in this Settlement, the Parties, their respective counsel, and all Participating Class Members who did not object to the Settlement as provided in this Agreement, waive all rights to appeal from the Judgment, including all rights to post-judgment and appellate proceedings, the right to file motions to vacate judgment, motions for new trial, extraordinary writs, and appeals. The waiver of appeal does not include any waiver of the right to oppose such motions, writs or appeals. If an objector appeals the Judgment, the Parties' obligations to perform under this Agreement will be suspended until such time as the appeal is finally resolved and the Judgment becomes final, except as to matters that do not affect the amount of the Net Settlement Amount.
- 10.5 Appellate Court Orders to Vacate, Reverse, or Materially Modify Judgment. If the reviewing Court vacates, reverses, or modifies the Judgment in a manner that requires a material modification of this Agreement (including, but not limited to, the scope of release to be granted by Class Members), this Agreement shall be null and void. The Parties shall nevertheless expeditiously work together in good faith to address the appellate court's concerns and to obtain Final Approval and entry of Judgment, sharing, on a 50-50 basis, any additional Administration Expenses Payment reasonably incurred after remittitur. An appellate decision to vacate, reverse, or modify the Court's award of the Class Representative Service Payment or any payments to Class Counsel shall not constitute a material modification of the Judgment within the meaning of this paragraph, as long as the Gross Settlement Amount remains unchanged.

11. AMENDED JUDGMENT. If any amended judgment is required under Code of Civil Procedure section 384, the Parties will work together in good faith to jointly submit a proposed amended judgment.

12. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

- 12.1 No Admission of Liability, Class Certification or Representative Manageability for Other Purposes. This Agreement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in this Agreement is intended or should be construed as an admission by Defendant that any of the allegations in the Operative Complaint have merit or that Defendant has any liability for any claims asserted; nor should it be intended or construed as an admission by Plaintiff that Defendant's defenses in the Action have merit. The Parties agree that class certification and representative treatment is for purposes of this Settlement only. If, for any reason the Court does not grant Preliminary Approval, Final Approval or enter Judgment, Defendant reserves the right to contest certification of any class for any reasons, and Defendant reserves all available defenses to the claims in the Action, and Plaintiff reserves the right to move for class certification on any grounds available and to contest Defendant's defenses. The Settlement, this Agreement and Parties' willingness to settle the Action will have no bearing on, and will not be admissible in connection with, any litigation (except for proceedings to enforce or effectuate the Settlement and this Agreement).
- 12.2 Confidentiality Prior to Preliminary Approval. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree that, until the Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement is filed, they and each of them will not disclose, disseminate and/or publicize, or cause or permit another person to disclose, disseminate or publicize, any of the terms of the Agreement directly or indirectly, specifically or generally, to any person, corporation, association, government agency, or other entity except: (1) to the Parties' attorneys, accountants, or spouses, all of whom will be instructed to keep this Agreement confidential; (2) counsel in a related matter; (3) to the extent necessary to report income to appropriate taxing authorities; (4) in response to a court order or subpoena; or (5) in response to an inquiry or subpoena issued by a state or federal government agency. Each Party agrees to immediately notify each other Party of any judicial or agency order, inquiry, or subpoena seeking such information. Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant and Defense Counsel separately agree not to, directly or indirectly, initiate any conversation or other communication, before the filing of the Motion for Preliminary Approval, with any third party regarding this Agreement or the matters giving rise to this Agreement except to respond only that "the matter was resolved," or words to that effect. This paragraph does not restrict Class Counsel's communications with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.
- 12.3 No Solicitation. The Parties separately agree that they and their respective counsel and employees will not solicit any Class Member to opt out of or object to the Settlement, or appeal from the Judgment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to restrict Class Counsel's ability to communicate with Class Members in accordance with Class Counsel's ethical obligations owed to Class Members.

- 12.4 Integrated Agreement. Upon execution by all Parties and their counsel, this Agreement together with its attached exhibits shall constitute the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the Settlement, superseding any and all oral representations, warranties, covenants, or inducements made to or by any Party.
- 12.5 Attorney Authorization. Class Counsel and Defense Counsel separately warrant and represent that they are authorized by Plaintiff and Defendant, respectively, to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken by such Parties pursuant to this Agreement to effectuate its terms, and to execute any other documents reasonably required to effectuate the terms of this Agreement including any amendments to this Agreement.
- 12.6 Cooperation. The Parties and their counsel will cooperate with each other and use their best efforts, in good faith, to implement the Settlement by, among other things, modifying the Settlement Agreement, submitting supplemental evidence and supplementing points and authorities as requested by the Court. In the event the Parties are unable to agree upon the form or content of any document necessary to implement the Settlement, or on any modification of the Agreement that may become necessary to implement the Settlement, the Parties will seek the assistance of a mediator and/or the Court for resolution.
- 12.7 No Prior Assignments. The Parties separately represent and warrant that they have not directly or indirectly assigned, transferred, encumbered, or purported to assign, transfer, or encumber to any person or entity any portion of any liability, claim, demand, action, cause of action, or right released and discharged by the Party in this Settlement.
- 12.8 No Tax Advice. Neither Plaintiff, Class Counsel, Defendant nor Defense Counsel are providing any advice regarding taxes or taxability, nor shall anything in this Settlement be relied upon as such within the meaning of United States Treasury Department Circular 230 (31 CFR Part 10, as amended) or otherwise.
- 12.9 Modification of Agreement. This Agreement, and all parts of it, may be amended, modified, changed, or waived only by an express written instrument signed by all Parties or their representatives, and approved by the Court.
- 12.10 Agreement Binding on Successors. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors of each of the Parties.
- 12.11 Applicable Law. All terms and conditions of this Agreement and its exhibits will be governed by and interpreted according to the internal laws of the state of California, without regard to conflict of law principles.

- 12.12 Cooperation in Drafting. The Parties have cooperated in the drafting and preparation of this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed against any Party on the basis that the Party was the drafter or participated in the drafting.
- 12.13 Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by law, all agreements made, and orders entered during the Action and in this Agreement relating to the confidentiality of information shall survive the execution of this Agreement.
- 12.14 Use and Return of Class Data. Information provided to Class Counsel pursuant to Cal. Evid. Code §1152, and all copies and summaries of the Class Data provided to Class Counsel by Defendant in connection with the mediation, other settlement negotiations, or in connection with the Settlement, may be used only with respect to this Settlement, and no other purpose, and may not be used in any way that violates any existing contractual agreement, statute, or rule of court. Not later than 90 days after the date when the Court discharges the Administrator's obligation to provide a Declaration confirming the final pay out of all Settlement funds, Plaintiff shall destroy all paper and electronic versions of Class Data received from Defendant unless, prior to the Court's discharge of the Administrator's obligation, Defendant makes a written request to Class Counsel for the return, rather than the destructions, of Class Data.
- 12.15 Headings. The descriptive heading of any section or paragraph of this Agreement is inserted for convenience of reference only and does not constitute a part of this Agreement.
- 12.16 Calendar Days. Unless otherwise noted, all reference to "days" in this Agreement shall be to calendar days. In the event any date or deadline set forth in this Agreement falls on a weekend or federal legal holiday, such date or deadline shall be on the first business day thereafter.
- 12.17 Notice. All notices, demands or other communications between the Parties in connection with this Agreement will be in writing and deemed to have been duly given as of the third business day after mailing by United States mail, or the day sent by email or messenger, addressed as follows:

COURT APPROVED NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND HEARING DATE FOR FINAL COURT APPROVAL

Daniel Perez v. Hillsides, Case No. 24STCV24099

*The Superior Court for the State of California authorized this Notice. Read it carefully!
It's not junk mail, spam, advertisement, or solicitation by a lawyer. You are not being sued.*

You may be eligible to receive money from an employee class action lawsuit (“Action”) against Hillsides (“Defendant”) for alleged wage and hour violations. The Action was filed by a former employee Daniel Perez (“Plaintiff”) and seeks payment of (1) back wages and other relief for a class of all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California during the Class Period of November 12, 2023 through January 17, 2026 [or alternative date] (“Class Members”); and (2) penalties under the California Private Attorney General Act (“PAGA”) for all current and former non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California during the PAGA Period of November 12, 2023 through January 17, 2026 [or alternative date] (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The proposed settlement has two main parts: (1) a Class Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual Class Payments, and (2) a PAGA Settlement requiring Defendant to fund Individual PAGA Payments and pay penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”).

Based on Defendant’s records, and the Parties’ current assumptions, your Individual Class Payment is estimated to be $INSERT (less withholding) and your Individual PAGA Payment is estimated to be $INSERT. The actual amount you may receive may be different and will depend on a number of factors. (If no amount is stated for your Individual PAGA Payment, then according to Defendant’s records you are not eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment under the Settlement because you did not work during the PAGA Period.)

The above estimates are based on Defendant’s records showing that you worked INSERT Workweeks during the Class Period, and you worked INSERT PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. If you believe that you worked more workweeks during either period, you can submit a challenge by the deadline date. See Section 4 of this Notice.

The Court has already preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement and approved this Notice. The Court has not yet decided whether to grant final approval. Your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act. Read this Notice carefully. You will be deemed to have carefully read and understood it. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and how much of the Settlement will be paid to Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s attorneys (“Class Counsel”). The Court will also decide whether to enter a judgment that requires Defendant to make payments under the Settlement and requires Class Members and Aggrieved

Employees to give up their rights to assert certain claims against Defendant.

If you worked for Defendant during the Class Period and/or the PAGA Period, you have two basic options under the Settlement:

- (1) Do Nothing. You do not have to do anything to participate in the proposed Settlement and be eligible for an Individual Class Payment and/or an Individual PAGA Payment. As a Participating Class Member, though, you will give up your right to assert Class Period wage claims and PAGA Period penalty claims against Defendant.
- (2) Opt-Out of the Class Settlement. You can exclude yourself from the Class Settlement (opt-out) by submitting the written Request for Exclusion or otherwise notifying the Administrator in writing. If you opt-out of the Settlement, you will not receive an Individual Class Payment. You will, however, preserve your right to personally pursue Class Period wage claims against Defendant, and, if you are an Aggrieved Employee, remain eligible for an Individual PAGA Payment. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement.

Defendant will not retaliate against you for any actions you take with respect to the proposed Settlement.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

You Don't Have to Do Anything to Participate in the Settlement	If you do nothing, you will be a Participating Class Member, eligible for an Individual Class Payment and an Individual PAGA Payment (if any). In exchange, you will give up your right to assert the wage claims against Defendant that are covered by this Settlement (Released Claims).
You Can Opt-out of the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement The Opt-out Deadline is 	If you don't want to fully participate in the proposed Settlement, you can opt-out of the Class Settlement by sending the Administrator a written Request for Exclusion. Once excluded, you will be a Non-Participating Class Member and no longer eligible for an Individual Class Payment. Non-Participating Class Members cannot object to any portion of the proposed Settlement. See Section 6 of this Notice. You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the proposed Settlement. Defendant must pay Individual PAGA Payments to all Aggrieved Employees and the Aggrieved Employees must give up their rights to pursue Released PAGA Claims (defined below).

Participating Class Members Can Object to the Class Settlement but not the PAGA Settlement Written Objections Must be Submitted by [REDACTED]	All Class Members who do not opt-out (“Participating Class Members”) can object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement. The Court’s decision whether to finally approve the Settlement will include a determination of how much will be paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff who pursued the Action on behalf of the Class. You are not personally responsible for any payments to Class Counsel or Plaintiff, but every dollar paid to Class Counsel and Plaintiff reduces the overall amount paid to Participating Class Members. You can object to the amounts requested by Class Counsel or Plaintiff if you think they are unreasonable. See Section 7 of this Notice.
You Can Participate in the [REDACTED] Final Approval Hearing	The Court’s Final Approval Hearing is scheduled to take place on [REDACTED]. You do not have to attend but you do have the right to appear (or hire an attorney to appear on your behalf at your own cost), in person, by telephone or by using the Court’s virtual appearance platform. Participating Class Members can verbally object to the Settlement at the Final Approval Hearing. See Section 8 of this Notice.
You Can Challenge the Calculation of Your Workweeks/Pay Periods Written Challenges Must be Submitted by [REDACTED]	The amount of your Individual Class Payment and PAGA Payment (if any) depends on how many Workweeks you worked at least one day during the Class Period and how many ~~PAGA~~-Pay Periods you worked at least one day during the PAGA Period, respectively. The number of Class Period Workweeks and number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked according to Defendant’s records is stated on the first page of this Notice. If you disagree with either of these numbers, you must challenge it by [REDACTED]. See Section 4 of this Notice.

1. WHAT IS THE ACTION ABOUT?

Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant Hillsides. The Action alleges that Defendant violated California labor laws by failing to pay minimum and overtime wages; failing to provide legally compliant meal and rest periods; failing to pay vested vacation wages; failing to pay wages due upon termination; failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and unfair competition. Based on the same claims, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim for civil penalties under the California Private Attorneys General Act (Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.) (“PAGA”). Plaintiff is represented by attorneys in the Action: William C. Sung, Tiffany L. Luu, Joseph C. Ramli of Justice for Workers, P.C. (“Class Counsel”)

Defendant strongly denies violating any laws or failing to pay any wages and contends it complied with all applicable laws.

2. WHAT DOES IT MEAN THAT THE ACTION HAS SETTLED?

So far, the Court has made no determination whether Defendant or Plaintiff is correct on the merits. In the meantime, Plaintiff and Defendant hired an experienced, neutral mediator in an effort to resolve the Action by negotiating to end the case by agreement (settle the case) rather than continuing the expensive and time-consuming process of litigation. The negotiations were successful. By signing a lengthy written settlement agreement (“Agreement”) and agreeing to jointly ask the Court to enter a judgment ending the Action and enforcing the Agreement, Plaintiff and Defendant have negotiated a proposed Settlement that is subject to the Court’s Final Approval. Both sides agree the proposed Settlement is a compromise of disputed claims. By agreeing to settle, Defendant does not admit any violations or concede the merit of any claims.

Plaintiff and Class Counsel strongly believe the Settlement is a good deal for you because they believe that: (1) Defendant have agreed to pay a fair, reasonable and adequate amount considering the strength of the claims and the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation; and (2) Settlement is in the best interests of the Class Members and Aggrieved Employees. The Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, authorized this Notice, and scheduled a hearing to determine Final Approval.

3. WHAT ARE THE IMPORTANT TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

1. Defendant Will Pay $308,583.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount. Defendant has agreed to deposit the Gross Settlement Amount into an account controlled by the Administrator of the Settlement. The Administrator will use the Gross Settlement Amount to pay the Individual Class Payments, Individual PAGA Payments, Class Representative Service Payment, Class Counsel’s attorney’s fees and expenses, the Administrator’s expenses, and penalties to be paid to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). Assuming the Court grants Final Approval, Defendant will fund the Gross Settlement Amount not more than 65 days after the Judgment entered by the Court becomes final. The Judgment will be final on the date the Court enters Judgment, or a later date if Participating Class Members object to the proposed Settlement or the Judgment is appealed.

2. Court-Approved Deductions from Gross Settlement Amount. At the Final Approval Hearing, Plaintiff and/or Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts of which will be decided by the Court at the Final Approval Hearing:
 - A. Up to $102,861.00 (One-Third or 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and up to $20,000.00 for their litigation expenses. To date, Class Counsel have worked and incurred expenses on the Action without payment.
 - B. Up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff as Class Representative Service Payment for filing the Action, working with Class Counsel and representing the Class. A Class Representative Service Payment will be the only monies Plaintiff will receive other than Plaintiff's Individual Class Payment and any Individual PAGA Payment.
 - C. Up to $8,950.00 to the Administrator for services administering the Settlement.
 - D. Up to $15,000.00 for PAGA Penalties, allocated 75%65% to the LWDA Payment and 25%35% in Individual PAGA Payments to the Aggrieved Employees based on their PAGA Pay Periods.

Participating Class Members have the right to object to any of these deductions. The Court will consider all objections.

3. Net Settlement Distributed to Class Members. After making the above deductions in amounts approved by the Court, the Administrator will distribute the rest of the Gross Settlement Amount (the "Net Settlement") by making Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members based on their Class Period Workweeks.
4. Taxes Owed on Payments to Class Members. Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve an allocation of 10% of each Individual Class Payment to taxable wages ("Wage Portion") and 90% to interests and penalties ("Non-Wage Portion."). The Wage Portion is subject to withholdings and will be reported on IRS W-2 Forms. Defendant will separately pay employer payroll taxes it owes on the Wage Portion. The Individual PAGA Payments are counted as penalties rather than wages for tax purposes. The Administrator will report the Individual PAGA Payments and the Non-Wage Portions of the Individual Class Payments on IRS 1099 Forms.

Although Plaintiff and Defendant has agreed to these allocations, neither side is giving you any advice on whether your Payments are taxable or how much you might owe in taxes. You are responsible for paying all taxes (including penalties and interest on back taxes) on any Payments received from the proposed Settlement. You should consult a tax advisor if you have any questions about the tax consequences of the proposed Settlement.

5. Need to Promptly Cash Payment Checks. The front of every check issued for Individual Class Payments and Individual PAGA Payments will show the date when the check expires (the void date). If you do not cash it by the void date, your check will be automatically cancelled, and the monies will be deposited with the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in your name.

If the monies represented by your check are sent to the Controller's Unclaimed Property, you should consult the rules of the Fund for instructions on how to retrieve your money.

6. Requests for Exclusion from the Class Settlement (Opt-Outs). You will be treated as a Participating Class Member, participating fully in the Class Settlement, unless you notify the Administrator in writing, not later than INSERT, that you wish to opt-out. The easiest way to notify the Administrator is to send a written and signed Request for Exclusion by the INSERT Response Deadline. The Request for Exclusion should be a letter from a Class Member or his/her representative setting forth a Class Member's name, present address, telephone number, and email address, for verification purposes, and a simple statement electing to be excluded from the Settlement. Excluded Class Members (i.e., Non-Participating Class Members) will not receive Individual Class Payments but will preserve their rights to personally pursue wage and hour claims against Defendant.

You cannot opt-out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement. Class Members who exclude themselves from the Class Settlement (Non-Participating Class Members) remain eligible for Individual PAGA Payments and are required to give up their right to assert PAGA claims against Defendant based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action.

7. The Proposed Settlement Will be Void if the Court Denies Final Approval. It is possible the Court will decline to grant Final Approval of the Settlement or decline to enter a Judgment. It is also possible the Court will enter a Judgment that is reversed on appeal. Plaintiff and Defendant have agreed that, in either case, the Settlement will be void: Defendant will not pay any money and Class Members will not release any claims against Defendant.
8. Administrator. The Court has appointed a neutral company, Phoenix Settlement Administrators (the "Administrator") to send this Notice, calculate and make payments, and process Class Members' Requests for Exclusion. The Administrator will also decide Class Member Challenges over Workweeks, mail and re-mail settlement checks and tax forms, and perform other tasks necessary to administer the Settlement. The Administrator's contact information is contained in Section 9 of this Notice.
9. Participating Class Members' Release. After the Judgment is final and Defendant has fully funded the Gross Settlement Amount and separately paid all employer payroll taxes, Participating Class Members will be legally barred from asserting any of the claims released under the Settlement. This means that unless you opted out by validly excluding yourself from the Class Settlement, you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant or related entities for wages based on the Class Period facts and PAGA Penalties based on PAGA Period facts, as alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Participating Class Members will be bound by the following release:

All Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from any and all claims that were or could have been alleged in the Operative Complaint that arose during the Class Period, including without limitation, to the following claims: (a) failure to pay minimum wages; (b) failure to pay overtime wages; (c) failure to authorize or pay meal periods; (d) failure to authorize or pay rest periods; (e) failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements; (f) failure to pay all wages at time of termination; (g) failure to pay vested vacation; (h) failure to properly pay paid sick leave; (i) failure to pay overtime, meal and rest premiums, PTO and sick leave at the regular rate of pay; (j) all claims under California Business & Professions Code § 17200 for unfair business practices that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action or legal theories described above; and (k) violation of the California Industrial Wage Orders that could have been premised on the facts, claims, causes of action or legal theories described above, as well as any potential penalties, interest or attorneys' fees associated with all of such causes of action under California law ("Released Class Claims"). Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of the Settlement Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

10. Aggrieved Employees' PAGA Release. After the Court's Judgment is final, and Defendant has paid the Gross Settlement Amount and separately paid the employer-side payroll taxes, all Aggrieved Employees will be barred from asserting PAGA claims against Defendant, whether or not they exclude themselves from the Settlement. This means that all Aggrieved Employees, including those who are Participating Class Members and those who opt-out of the Class Settlement, cannot sue, continue to sue, or participate in any other PAGA claim against Defendant or its related entities based on the PAGA Period facts alleged in the Action and resolved by this Settlement.

The Aggrieved Employees' Releases for Participating and Non-Participating Class Members are as follows:

All Participating and Non-Participating Class Members who are Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the

Released Parties, from all claims, demands, rights, liabilities and causes of action under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the claims asserted in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice (and any amendments thereto) arising during or with respect to the PAGA Period (“Released PAGA Claims”). The foregoing release shall be binding on Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, and shall bar by res judicata any claim under the PAGA brought by any person, including the Aggrieved Employees, on behalf of the State of California, as to any claims predicated on the Released PAGA Claims. ~~all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the PAGA Period facts stated in the Operative Complaint[,] [and] the PAGA Notice [and ascertained in the course of the Action][including, e.g., (a) any and all claims involving any alleged failure to pay minimum wage; etc.].~~

4. HOW WILL THE ADMINISTRATOR CALCULATE MY PAYMENT?

1. Individual Class Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by (a) dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members, and (b) multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class Member.
2. Individual PAGA Payments. The Administrator will calculate Individual PAGA Payments by (a) dividing $5,250.00 (35% of the PAGA Penalties) by the total number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by all Aggrieved Employees and (b) multiplying the result by the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by each individual Aggrieved Employee.
3. Workweek/PAGA Pay Period Challenges. The number of Class Workweeks you worked during the Class Period and the number of PAGA Pay Periods you worked during the PAGA Period, as recorded in Defendant’s records, are stated on the first page of this Notice. You have until INSERT to challenge the number of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods credited to you. You can submit your challenge by signing and sending a letter to the Administrator via mail, email, or fax. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator’s contact information.

You need to support your challenge by sending copies of pay stubs or other records. The Administrator will accept Defendant’s calculation of Workweeks and/or PAGA Pay Periods based on Defendant’s records as accurate unless you send copies of records containing contrary information. You should send copies rather than originals because the documents will not be returned to you. The Administrator will resolve Workweek and/or PAGA Pay Period challenges based on your submission and on input from Class Counsel (who will advocate on behalf of Participating Class Members) and Defendant’s Counsel. The Administrator’s decision is final. You cannot appeal or otherwise challenge its final decision.

5. HOW WILL I GET PAID?

1. Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single check to every Participating Class Member (i.e., every Class Member who does not opt-out) including those who also qualify as Aggrieved Employees. The single check will combine the Individual Class Payment and the Individual PAGA Payment.
2. Non-Participating Class Members. The Administrator will send, by U.S. mail, a single Individual PAGA Payment check to every Aggrieved Employee who opts out of the Class Settlement (i.e., every Non-Participating Class Member).

Your check will be sent to the same address as in this Notice. If you change your address, be sure to notify the Administrator as soon as possible. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

6. HOW DO I OPT-OUT OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

Submit a written and signed letter with your name, present address, telephone number, and a simple statement that you do not want to participate in the Settlement. The Administrator will exclude you based on any writing communicating your request to be excluded. Be sure to personally sign your request, identify the Action as Daniel Perez v. Hillside, Case No. 24STCV24099, and include your identifying information (full name, address, telephone number, email address, approximate dates of employment, and social security number for verification purposes). You must make the request yourself. If someone else makes the request for you, it will not be valid. The Administrator must receive your request to be excluded by INSERT, or it will be invalid. Section 9 of the Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

7. HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

Only Participating Class Members have the right to object to the Settlement. Before deciding whether to object, you may wish to see what Plaintiff and Defendant are asking the Court to approve. At least 16 court days before the INSERT Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel and/or Plaintiff will file in Court (1) a Motion for Final Approval that includes, among other things, the reasons why the proposed Settlement is fair, and (2) a Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs and Class Representative Service Payment stating (i) the amount Class Counsel is requesting for Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs; and (ii) the amount Plaintiff is requesting as Class Representative Service Payment. Upon reasonable request, Class Counsel (whose contact information is in Section 9 of this Notice) will send you copies of these documents at no cost to you. You can also view them on the Administrator's Website www._____.com or the Court's website <https://www.lacourt.ca.gov/home>.

A Participating Class Member who disagrees with any aspect of the Agreement, the Motion for Final Approval and/or Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Litigation Costs, and Class Representative Service Payment may wish to object. The deadline for sending written objections to the Administrator is INSERT. Be sure to tell the Administrator what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. Make sure you identify the Action

Daniel Perez v. Hilsides, Case No. 24STCV24099 and include your name, current address, telephone number, and approximate dates of employment for Defendant and sign the objection. Section 9 of this Notice has the Administrator's contact information.

Alternatively, a Participating Class Member can object (or personally retain a lawyer to object at your own cost) by attending the Final Approval Hearing. You (or your attorney) should be ready to tell the Court what you object to, why you object, and any facts that support your objection. See Section 8 of this Notice (immediately below) for specifics regarding the Final Approval Hearing.

8. CAN I ATTEND THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING?

You can, but don't have to, attend the Final Approval Hearing INSERT at INSERT a.m./p.m. in Department 9 of the Los Angeles Superior Court, located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012. At the Hearing, the judge will decide whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and how much of the Gross Settlement Amount will be paid to Class Counsel, Plaintiff, and the Administrator. The Court will invite comment from objectors, Class Counsel and Defense Counsel before making a decision. You can attend (or hire a lawyer to attend) either personally or virtually via LACourtConnect (<https://lacc.lacourt.org/>). Check the Court's website for the most current information.

It is possible the Court will reschedule the Final Approval Hearing. You should check the Administrator's website www._____.com beforehand or contact Class Counsel to verify the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing.

9. HOW CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

The Agreement sets forth everything Defendant and Plaintiff have promised to do under the proposed Settlement. The easiest way to read the Agreement, the Judgment or any other Settlement documents is to go to the Administrator's website at www._____.com. You can also telephone or send an email to Class Counsel or the Administrator using the contact information listed below, or consult the Superior Court website by going to (<https://www.lacourt.ca.gov/home>) and entering the Case Number for the Action, Case No. 24STCV24099. You can also make an appointment to personally review court documents in the Clerk's Office at the Los Angeles Superior Court.

DO NOT TELEPHONE THE SUPERIOR COURT TO OBTAIN INFORMATION ABOUT THE SETTLEMENT.

Re: Daniel R. Perez v. Hillsides
Notice of Private Attorneys General Act Claim

Dear PAGA Administrator:

This office has been retained by aggrieved employee Daniel R. Perez ("Plaintiff") concerning a representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. ("PAGA") against Hillsides (including any and all affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, directors, officers, managing agents, and executive employees) (collectively referred to as "Defendants") for violations of California wage and hour laws. Plaintiff seeks civil penalties for violations of the Labor Code and all other remedies available under PAGA.

Plaintiff seeks these remedies on behalf of the State of California and "aggrieved employees," as defined herein. This letter is sent in compliance with the notice requirements of Labor Code § 2699.3.

Defendants own and operate mental health treatment facility in Pasadena, California. Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately May 1, 2023 to approximately August 20, 2024 as a Child Care Counselor. The "aggrieved employees" that Plaintiff seeks civil penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for any of the above-referenced entities within the State of California.

Based on the following facts and theories, Defendants violated and/or continue to violate, among other provisions of the Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 256, 510, 512, 516, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. The applicable Wage Order defines "hours worked" as "the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so." See §2 of all applicable Wage Orders. Therefore, employers are required to pay employees for all time spent subject to the control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered or permitted to work. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to perform work before clocking in, after clocking out, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to compensate aggrieved employees for this time.

Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double time overtime wages, and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates at one-and-one-half times or double the regular rate of pay, including additional remuneration. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week but were not paid for all hours worked before clocking in, after clocking out, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks. Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees were not paid overtime compensation at the regular rate of pay because Defendants failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift differentials, into the regular rate of pay.

Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 516, and the Wage Orders require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each meal or rest period that is not provided. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees to work during meal and rest periods and failed to compensate them properly and at the regular rate of compensation for non-compliant meal and rest periods including, inter alia, short, late, interrupted, and missed meal and rest periods, and by failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift differentials, into the regular rate of compensation.

Labor Code § 246 mandates employers to comply with various requirements with respect to the provision of paid sick leave to employees. During the relevant time period, Defendants improperly calculated the sick leave rate of pay owed to Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees by failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift differentials, into the sick leave pay rate calculation.

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, sick, vacation, and premium wages as discussed herein.

Labor Code § 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. Labor Code § 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them within any time period specified by Labor Code § 204, including earned and unpaid minimum, overtime, and premium wages as discussed above.

Labor Code § 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from Defendants were in violation of Labor Code § 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include the total hours worked, including time spent working off the clock and during meal and rest periods, failure to state the correct gross and net wages earned for all time worked, and failure to state all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

Labor Code § 1174 requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case shall be kept on file for not less than two years. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the actual hours worked daily and the wages earned by Plaintiff and other aggrieved employees, including earned and unpaid

Labor Code § 227.3 requires an employer to pay all vested and unused vacation time to terminated employees at their final rates. Plaintiff and aggrieved employees' final rates should have included shift differentials but Defendants instead calculated their final rates based on their straight-time hourly rate in violation of Labor Code § 227.3.

Therefore, on behalf of all aggrieved employees, Plaintiff seeks all applicable penalties arising out of the above-referenced wage, hour, and payroll practices, or which could be assessed and collected by the LWDA, for violation of the Labor Code pursuant to PAGA. Labor Code § 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter (i.e. this letter) to the employer in question and file an online claim to the LWDA setting forth the claims and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the LWDA and employer an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action they deem appropriate. If the LWDA and Defendants elect not to take any action with respect to any of the foregoing claims, Plaintiff will seek these penalties in a civil action on behalf of all aggrieved employees within one year of the date of this letter as allowed by law.

(LABOR CODE §§ 2698, et seq.)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff DANIEL R. PEREZ (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint (“Complaint”) against Defendants HILLSIDES, a California non-profit corporation, and DOES 1 to 50 (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2698, et seq., and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”), in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.

2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including Los Angeles County, and some of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in Los Angeles County. Furthermore, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within Los Angeles County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee. Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 2698, et seq., and Wage Orders.

1 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the
2 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
3 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
4 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within Los Angeles County, and the State of California
5 and, therefore, were (and are) doing business in Los Angeles County and the State of California.

6 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 7 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
8 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 9 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed and 10 believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
11 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
12 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 13 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

14 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 15 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
16 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
17 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting
18 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

19 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
20 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 21 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 22 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
23 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining
24 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

25 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 26 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 27 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

28 ///

1 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and
2 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 3 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

4 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

5 10. Defendants own and operate mental health treatment facility in Pasadena, California.
6 Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately May 1,
7 2023 to approximately August 20, 2024 as a Child Care Counselor.

8 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
9 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being
10 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly
11 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 12 belief, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to perform work before their 13 scheduled shifts, after their scheduled shifts, and/or during off-the-clock meal breaks, and failed to 14 compensate employees for this time. Upon information and belief, Defendants also failed to 15 incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift
16 differentials, into the regular rate of pay. As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees
17 were not compensated for all earned minimum and overtime wages.

18 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all
19 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 20 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
21 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt
22 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed
23 by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiff's 24 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when 25 employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt
26 employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled,
27 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal
28 period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code

1 § 226.7. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of
2 meal period premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7 in the event that a legally
3 compliant meal period was not provided to their non-exempt employees.

4 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take
5 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to 6 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
7 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
8 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other
9 non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods
10 to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period
11 premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.
12 Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period
13 premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest
14 period was not authorized and permitted to their non-exempt employees.

15 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 16 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift
17 differentials, into the paid sick leave pay rate.

18 15. Labor Code § 227.3 requires an employer to pay all vested and unused vacation time
19 to terminated employees at their final rates. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees' final rates
20 should have included shift differentials but Defendants instead calculated their final rates based on 21 their straight-time hourly rate in violation of Labor Code § 227.3.

22 16. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, failure to 23 pay all meal and rest period premium wages, failure to pay all sick leave and vacation wages, and 24 unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as alleged above, Defendants maintained inaccurate
25 payroll records and issued inaccurate wage statements to Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees.
26 As a further result of Defendants' failure to pay all minimum and overtime wages, sick leave and 27 vacation wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed to timely pay all final
28 wages to Plaintiff and other former non-exempt employees upon their separation of employment

1 from Defendants.

2 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

3 17. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following
4 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 5 a. Minimum Wage Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
6 in the State of California who were subject to Defendants' timekeeping and payroll
7 policies and/or practices, from November 26, 2023 through the present.
- 8 b. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 9 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per 10 week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, from 11 November 26, 2023 through the present.
- 12 c. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 13 the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours;
14 and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, during the four years
15 immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- 16 d. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in 17 the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, from 18 November 26, 2023 through the present.
- 19 e. Vacation Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 20 State of California who were paid out accrued vacation wages upon separation from 21 November 26, 2023 through the present.
- 22 f. Sick Lave Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 23 State of California who received paid sick leave from November 26, 2023 through 24 the present.
- 25 g. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants
26 in the State of California who received a wage statement, from November 26, 2023
27 through the present.

28 ///

h. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the Minimum Wage Class, Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, Sick Leave, Vacation, and/or Meal Period Class from November 26, 2023 through the present.

18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime Class;
- b. Whether Defendants paid at least the minimum wage for all hours worked to members of the Minimum Wage Class;
- c. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512;
- d. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay all pay sick leaves pursuant to Labor Code § 246;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay all vacation wages pursuant to Labor Code § 227.3;
- g. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and
- h. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time

1 Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201
2 and 202.

3 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 4 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 5 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual
6 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

7 20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because
8 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
9 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
10 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all wages due to Defendants' regular rate
11 practices; not provided all required meal periods, not authorized and permitted all rest periods, did
12 not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal and rest periods, not paid all final wages upon 13 separation of employment, and not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements.

14 21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
15 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
16 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
17 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 18 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 19 members of the Classes.

20 22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
21 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 22 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 23 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 24 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this
25 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class
26 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 27 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 28 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited

1 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

2 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
3 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file
4 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and
5 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
6 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
7 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

8 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
9 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
10 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 11 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 12 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest
13 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or 14 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified
15 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

16 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

17 MINIMUM WAGE VIOLATIONS

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 25. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
20 fully set forth herein.

21 26. Labor Code §§ 1182.12, 1197, and Wage Orders, § 4 establish the right of 22 employees to be paid minimum wages for all hours worked, in amounts set by state or local law.
23 Labor Code §§ 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an employee who has not been paid the legal 24 minimum wage as required by Labor Code § 1197 may recover the unpaid balance together with 25 attorneys' fees and costs of suit, as well as liquidated damages in an amount equal to the unpaid
26 wages and interest accrued thereon. At all relevant times herein, Defendants failed to conform its 27 pay practices to the requirements of the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the 28 Minimum Wage Class for all hours worked, including, but not limited to, all hours they were

1 subject to the control of Defendants and/or suffered or permitted to work under the Labor Code and 2 Wage Orders.

3 27. Labor Code § 1198 makes unlawful the employment of an employee under 4 conditions that the IWC prohibits. California Labor Code § 1194(a) and 1194.2(a) provide that an 5 employer who has failed to pay its employees the legal minimum wage is liable to pay those
6 employees the unpaid balance of the unpaid wages as well as liquidated damages in an amount
7 equal to the wages due and interest thereon.

8 28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of minimum wages, Plaintiff and 9 members of the Minimum Wage Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid wages, including
10 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
11 218.6, 558, 1194, 1194.2, and 1199, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 12 3289.

13 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
14 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS
15 (Against All Defendants)

16 29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
17 fully set forth herein.

18 30. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 19 Wage Orders, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages and 20 compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure to 21 pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

22 31. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-
23 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours
24 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Orders. Wage Orders, § 3 requires an employer
25 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay
26 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime
27 Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours
28 actually worked.

1 32. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and
2 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
3 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
4 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
5 3287 and 3289.

6 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
10 fully set forth herein.

11 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
12 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 13 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 14 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Orders, § 11.

15 35. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 16 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 17 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

18 36. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 19 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
20 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
21 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Orders, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 37. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
26 fully set forth herein.

27 38. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Orders, § 12 and establish the right of 28 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period

1 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that
2 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
3 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals
4 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 5 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

6 39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 7 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
8 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
9 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Orders, and Civil Code §§

11 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES

13 (Against All Defendants)

14 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
15 fully set forth herein.

16 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff
18 and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements
19 that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay
20 and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay
21 period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of 22 Labor Code § 226.

23 42. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class
24 with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led 25 to, among other things, the non-payment of minimum and overtime wages, sick leave and vacation
26 wages, and meal and rest period premium wages owed and deprived them of the information
27 necessary to identify the discrepancies in Defendants' reported payroll data.

28 ///

1 43. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and
2 members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable
3 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

4 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 WAITING TIME PENALTIES

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 44. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
8 fully set forth herein.

9 45. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an 10 employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the 11 employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their 12 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit,
13 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 14 date of employment.

15 46. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
16 to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their 17 separation from employment, including unpaid minimum and overtime wages, sick leave and 18 vacation wages, as well as unpaid meal and rest period premium wages.

19 47. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 20 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members of 21 the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to 22 the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

23 48. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor
24 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting
25 Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of 26 daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

27 49. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 28 Waiting Time Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code §

1 203.

2 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 FAILURE TO PAY VESTED VACATION WAGES

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
6 fully set forth herein.

7 51. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 227.3, 8 requires an employer to pay all vested and unused vacation time to terminated employees at their 9 final rates.

10 52. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees' final rates should have included shift
11 differentials but Defendants instead calculated their final rates based on their straight-time hourly
12 rate in violation of Labor Code § 227.3.

13 53. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 14 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable 15 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 227.3.

16 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 UNFAIR COMPETITION

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
20 fully set forth herein.

21 55. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business
22 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 23 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Minimum Wage Class all minimum 24 wages due;
- 25 b. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 26 c. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
27 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
28 wages due;

- 1 d. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest
2 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium
3 wages due;
- 4 e. failing to pay vacation wages to Plaintiff and members of the Vacation Class;
- 5 f. failing to pay paid sick leave wages to Plaintiffs and members of the Sick Leave
6 Class;
- 7 g. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of 8 the Wage Statement Class; and
- 9 h. failing to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time
10 Penalty Class.

11 56. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
12 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally
13 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 14 Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to 15 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

16 57. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 17 herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 18 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired 19 and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

20 58. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately
21 preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

22 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code and Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties

13 under Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. with respect to the violations of the Labor Code identified in the
