24 wages for hours worked while subject to the control of Defendant.

20. Other than identified herein, Plaintiff are unaware of the true names, capacities, relationships and extent of participation in the conduct alleged herein, of the Defendant sued as DOES 1 through 50, but is informed and believes and thereon alleges that said Defendant is legally responsible for the wrongful conduct alleged herein and therefore sues these Defendant by such fictitious names. 1 plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendant is legally attributable
2 to the other Defendant.

4 IV. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

5 22. At all times set forth herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff and other persons in the 6 capacity of non-exempt positions, however titled, throughout the state of California.

7 23. Plaintiff is informed and believes Aggrieved Employees have at all times pertinent
8 hereto been Non-Exempt within the meaning of the California Labor Code and the implementing 9 rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

10 24. Defendant continues to employ Non-Exempt Employees, however titled, in 11 California and implement a uniform set of policies and practices to all non-exempt employees, as 12 they were all engaged in the generic job duties related to Defendant's manufacturing business.

13 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant is and was 14 advised by skilled lawyers and other professionals, employees, and advisors with knowledge of 15 the requirements of California's wage and employment laws.

16 26. On information and belief, during the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and Aggrieved
17 Employees frequently worked well over eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in a work 18 week.

19 27. During the relevant time frame, Defendant compensated Plaintiff and Aggrieved
20 Employees based upon an hourly rate.

21 28. On information and belief, during the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and Aggrieved
22 Employees typically worked five (5) days a week.

23 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the Aggrieved Employees were required to 24 keep similar schedules.

25 30. During the liability period, Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved
26 Employees for all hours worked, resulting in underpayment of minimum and overtime wages. For 27 instance, Plaintiff would have to wait in line to clock in and spend time off the clock donning and 28

1 doffing as required by Defendant's management. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees have not
2 been compensated for such off the clock work activities.

3 31. During the relevant time, as a consequence of Defendant' staffing and scheduling
4 practices, work demands, and Defendant' policies and practices, Defendant frequently failed to 5 provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees timely, legally complaint uninterrupted 30-minute
6 meal periods on shifts over five hours as required by law.

7 32. On information and belief, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not sign a meal
8 waiver.

9 33. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with valid lawful on-duty
10 meal periods.

11 34. Despite the above-mentioned meal period violations, Defendant failed to 12 compensate Plaintiff, and on information and belief, failed to compensate Aggrieved Employees,
13 one additional hour of pay at their regular rate as required by California law when meal periods
14 were not timely or lawfully provided in a compliant manner.

15 35. Plaintiff are informed and believe, and thereon alleges, that Defendant know,
16 should know, knew, and/or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were
17 entitled to receive premium wages based on their regular rate of pay under California Labor Code
18 § 226.7 but were not receiving such compensation.

19 36. In addition, during the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and the Non-Exempt
20 Employees were systematically not authorized and permitted to take one net ten-minute paid, rest
21 period for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof, which is a violation of the California
22 Labor Code and IWC wage order.

23 37. Defendant maintained and enforced scheduling practices, policies, and imposed
24 work demands that frequently required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to forego their lawful,
25 paid rest periods of a net ten minutes for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof. Such 26 requisite rest periods were not timely authorized and permitted as a result of Defendant' failure to 27 provide relief for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to take their lawfully required breaks.
28

1 38. Despite the above-mentioned rest period violations, Defendant did not compensate
2 Plaintiff, and on information and belief, did not pay Aggrieved Employees one additional hour of
3 pay at their regular rate as required by California law, including California Labor Code § 226.7
4 and the applicable IWC wage order, for each day on which lawful rest periods were not authorized
5 and permitted.

6 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
7 or should have known that Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive
8 all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees
9 did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest
10 period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

11 40. During the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
12 Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter
13 alia, California Labor Code section 204.

14 41. Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for business
15 expenses incurred pursuant to California Labor Code § 2802. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees
16 were not reimbursed for uniform maintenance costs.

17 42. Upon information and belief, Defendant knew and or should have known that it is 18 improper to implement policies and commit unlawful acts such as:

19 (a) requiring employees to work four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof without 20 being provided a minimum ten (10) minute rest period and without compensating the employees
21 with one (1) hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each workday that a
22 rest period was not provided;

23 (b) requiring employees to work in excess of five (5) hours or ten (10) hours per day
24 without being provided an uninterrupted thirty minute meal period and/or a second meal period,
25 and without compensating employees with one (1) hour of pay at the regular rate of compensation
26 for each workday that such a meal period was not provided;

27 (c) failing to pay overtime and minimum wages;
28

- (d) failing to provide accurate wage statements;
- (e) failing to timely pay wages during employment; and
- (f) failing to reimburse necessary business expenses

43. In addition to the violations above, and on information and belief, Defendant knew they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for the allegations asserted herein, and that Defendant had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, recklessly, and/or intentionally failed to do so.

44. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees they seek to represent are covered by, and Defendant are required to comply with, applicable California Labor Codes, Industrial Welfare Commission Occupational Wage Orders (hereinafter “IWC Wage Orders”) and corresponding applicable provisions of California Code of Regulations, Title 8, § 11000 et seq.

V. REPRESENTATIVE CLAIMS

THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT- LABOR CODE §§ 2698 et seq.

45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

46. PAGA is a mechanism by which the State of California can enforce state labor laws through the employee suing under the PAGA who do so as the proxy or agent of the state’s labor law enforcement agencies. An action to recover civil penalties under PAGA is fundamentally a law enforcement action designed to protect the public and not to benefit private parties. The purpose of the PAGA is not to recover damages or restitution, but to create a means of “deputizing” citizens as private attorneys general to enforce the Labor Code. In enacting PAGA, the California Legislature specified that “it was...in the public interest to allow aggrieved employees, acting as private attorneys general to recover civil penalties for Labor Code violations...” Stats. 2003, Ch. 906, section 1. Accordingly, PAGA claims cannot be subject to arbitration.

47. Plaintiff brings this Representative Action on behalf of the State of California with respect to himself and all other individuals who are or previously were employed by Defendant as non-exempt California employees during the applicable statutory period (the “aggrieved employees”).

48. On September 23, 2024 Plaintiff complied with notice requirements pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3. A copy of the letter sent to the LWDA is attached hereto as Exhibit A, indicating that the LWDA and Defendant were put on notice of the claims alleged here and that the notice requirement has been satisfied. Sixty-five days have passed and the LWDA has not indicated intent to investigate the claims. Therefore, Plaintiff may proceed with this action in a representative capacity. The substance and violations set forth in this Complaint of which the LWDA was provided timely notice, Plaintiff has also sent a copy of this PAGA Representative Action Complaint to the LWDA.

49. Plaintiff are an aggrieved employee as defined in Labor Code Section 2699(a). Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of all current and former California non-exempt Employees of Defendant.

50. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a) Plaintiff seek to recover civil penalties for which Defendant is liable due to numerous Labor Code violations as set forth in this Complaint, including without limitation Labor Code section 201-204, 226, 226.3, 226(b), 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5 2802, and 2698 et seq., applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et. seq.

51. Defendant violated Labor Code section 510, and 1194 by failing to accurately pay overtime wages owed. Therefore, Defendant violated section 510, and 1194 by not compensating its Non-Exempt Employees for work performed in excess of eight hours (8) in a day or forty hours in a work week (40). Section 510 of the Labor Code codifies the right to overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a work week and to overtime compensation twice the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work in a particular work week.

52. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512, no employer shall employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours without providing a meal break of not less than thirty (30)

1 minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties. Also pursuant to California
2 law and the relevant IWC Wage Order(s), no employer shall require an employee to work more
3 than ten hours without being provided a second meal period, which can be waived by mutual
4 consent up until the twelfth hour.

5 53. For the Liability Period, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
6 Employees timely and uninterrupted first meal periods of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

7 54. For the Liability Period, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
8 Employees proper second meal periods for shifts in excess of ten hours.

9 55. Pursuant to the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
10 Employees, "Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which 11 insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period.... [The] authorized rest period
12 time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per 13 four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.... Authorized rest period time shall be counted as 14 hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages." Labor Code §226.7(a) prohibits 15 an employer from requiring any employee to work during any rest period mandated by an 16 applicable order of the IWC. Defendant were required to authorize and permit employees such as 17 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods, based upon the total hours worked at 18 a rate of ten (10) minutes net rest per four (4) hours worked, or major fraction thereof, with no
19 deduction from wages.
20

21 56. Despite said requirements applicable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, 22 Defendant failed and refused to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 23 take ten (10) minute rest periods for every four (4) hours worked, or major fraction thereof.
24 Plaintiff regularly worked shifts without properly authorized rest periods. Defendant did not pay
25 Plaintiff an hour of wages for each day that a rest period violation occurred. On information and 26 belief, the Aggrieved Employees endured similar violations as a result of Defendant's rest period
27 policies and practices.

28 57. By their failure to provide rest periods for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, Defendant violated the provisions of Labor Code sections 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s).

58. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were also injured because the wage statements Defendant provided to them failed to accurately state the hours worked and also to state that the Aggrieved Employees were being paid one hour of pay at their regular rate for days in which they were not provided with each of their authorized meal and rest periods. Defendant has made it impossible to properly calculate important information from the wage statements that were provided to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees throughout the liability period.

59. On information and belief, Defendant willfully failed to pay all wages due and owing upon separation from employment. These wages include minimum and overtime wages.

60. On information and belief, Defendant willfully failed to pay all wages due and owing during employment. These wages include minimum and overtime wages.

61. On information and belief, Defendant failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements which failed to include all hours worked, including overtime, due and owing to Plaintiff and the aggrieved employees pursuant to Labor Code section 226(a).

62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, any employer who violates subdivision (a) of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.

63. Additionally, Defendant has no accurate records relating to aggrieved employees' work periods, total daily hours worked, total hours worked per payroll period and applicable pay rates, in violation of applicable Wage Orders. Similarly, Defendant failed to maintain accurate records relating to hours worked daily in violation of Labor Code sections 1174(d), 1174.5.

64. As a result of Defendant's unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees are entitled to penalties to the extent they were not paid at the prevailing wage rate for all hours worked.

1 65. On information and belief, Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and aggrieved
2 Employees for business expenses incurred as described above. Labor Code § 2802 requires
3 Defendant to indemnify Plaintiff and aggrieved Employees for necessary expenditures incurred in 4 direct consequences of the discharge of his or her duties. Despite these realities of the job,
5 Defendant failed to provide reimbursements.

6 66. Labor Code §2804 states in pertinent part: “Any contract or agreement, express or 7 implied, made by any employee to waive the benefits of this article or any part thereof is null and 8 void, and this article shall not deprive any employee or his or her personal representative of any 9 right or remedy to which he is entitled under the laws of this State”

10 67. Labor Code §204 (a) states in pertinent part “All wages, other than those mentioned
11 in Section 201, 201.3, 202, 204.1, or 204.2, earned by any person in any employment are due and 12 payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in advance by the employer as the 13 regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month
14 shall be paid for between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was 15 performed, and labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar
16 month, shall be paid for between the 1st and 10th day of the following month.” Despite, this 17 Defendant failed to timely pay all wages owed timely during employment.

18 68. Plaintiff and the Representative aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover
19 Penalties and attorneys’ fees and costs sunder Labor Code section 2698, et. seq.
20

21 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

22 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant, as follows:

- 23 1. For penalties according to proof, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.;
- 24 2. For reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs; and
- 25 3. For such other and further relief as the Court deems proper.
