1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on April 3, 2026, at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as
3 the matter may be heard, in Department 23 of the Sacramento County Superior Court, located at 4 720 Ninth Street, Sacramento, California 95814, before the Honorable Jill H. Talley, Plaintiff
5 Gerald Carson, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, will and hereby does 6 move the Court for an order:

- 7 1. Certifying the proposed Settlement Class for settlement purposes only;
- 8 2. Preliminarily appointing Plaintiff Gerald Carson as the Class Representative for 9 settlement purposes only;
- 10 3. Appointing Mehrdad Bokhour of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. and Joshua S.
11 Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. as Class Counsel for settlement purposes only;
- 12 4. Preliminarily approving the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement as 13 fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- 14 5. Approving the form and manner of the Class Notice and directing its 15 dissemination to Class Members, including notice of their rights to request exclusion from or 16 object to the Settlement;
- 17 6. Setting a date for the Final Approval Hearing to determine whether the 18 Settlement should be granted final approval.

19 This Motion is based upon this Notice of Motion and Motion, the accompanying 20 Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declarations of Mehrdad Bokhour, Joshua S.
21 Falakassa, and Plaintiff Gerald Carson, the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement, the 22 Proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval, the pleadings and records on file in this action,
23 and such other oral or documentary evidence as may be presented at the hearing.

24 Pursuant to Local Rule 1.06(A), the Court will issue a tentative ruling by 2:00 p.m. on 25 the court day before the hearing. Tentative rulings may be accessed online via the Court's

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Through this Motion, Plaintiff Gerald Carson (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of 4 all others similarly situated, seeks preliminary approval of the Class Action Settlement
5 Agreement. Subject to Court approval, Plaintiff and Defendant Concord Feed & Fuel, Inc.
6 (“Defendant”) (collectively the “Parties”) have agreed to settle the claims asserted in this Action
7 and the proposed Class Members’ claims against Defendant for a Gross Settlement Amount of 8 $850,000.

9 Plaintiff seeks to represent a settlement Class consisting of all persons who are or were 10 employed by Defendant Concord Feed & Fuel, Inc. in California and classified as non-exempt
11 hourly employees at any time during the Class Period, defined as October 28, 2020 through 12 December 31, 2025 (the “Class” or “Class Members”).

13 Likewise, the PAGA Members include all persons who are or were employed by 14 Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt hourly employees at any time during the 15 PAGA Period, defined as October 28, 2023 through December 31, 2025 (“PAGA Members”).¹

16 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant will not oppose Class
17 Counsel’s application for an award of attorneys’ fees not to exceed $283,333.33, representing
18 one third of the Gross Settlement Amount, reimbursement of Class Counsel’s litigation expenses
19 not to exceed $25,000, Settlement Administration Expenses not to exceed $10,000, PAGA
20 penalties in the total amount of $10,000, of which $6,500 or 65 percent will be paid to the 21 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency and $3,500 or 35 percent will be paid to 22 the PAGA Members, and a Class Representative Service Payment not to exceed $10,000 to 23 Plaintiff Gerald Carson. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 3.2 et seq.):

24

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$850,000
Class Counsel Fees Payment	$283,333.33
Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment	$25,000.00

25

27 ¹ The Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement and Release of Claims is attached as 28 Exhibit “A” to the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour (“Bokhour Declaration”) submitted herewith and is referred to herein as the Settlement Agreement or the Settlement. The proposed Class Notice is attached as Exhibit “B” to the Bokhour Declaration.

Administration Expenses Payment	$10,000.00
PAGA Penalties to LWDA (65% of $100 award)	$6,500.00
PAGA Penalties to PAGA Members	$3,500.00
Class Representative Service Payment	$10,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$511,666.67

The Settlement Class consists of approximately 375 non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period. Plaintiff alleges that, regardless of job title or position, all non-exempt hourly employees were subject to the same wage and hour policies and practices.

Individual Class Payments will be distributed on a pro rata basis based on the number of Workweeks each Participating Class Member worked during the Class Period, as reflected in Defendant's payroll records. Class Members who worked more Workweeks during the Class Period will receive proportionally larger Individual Class Payments.

Based on Defendant's records, Class Members collectively worked approximately 43,500 Workweeks during the Class Period. After deductions approved by the Court, the Net Settlement Amount will be distributed on a pro rata basis according to each Participating Class Member's number of Workweeks. Based on these figures, the average Individual Class Payment is conservatively estimated to be approximately $1,350 to $1,550. A Class Member who worked the entire Class Period would receive the highest Individual Class Payment, which is estimated to be approximately $2,900 to $3,000. Class Members who worked fewer Workweeks will receive proportionally smaller payments.

The Settlement is non-reversionary, and Settlement Class Members are not required to submit claim forms to receive payment. Each Settlement Class Member will be mailed a Court-approved Class Notice containing information regarding the estimated Individual Class Payment, the opportunity to challenge the number of Workweeks credited during the Class Period, and instructions for submitting a Request for Exclusion or an Objection to the Settlement.

All Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will automatically receive their Individual Class Payment following the Court's grant of Final Approval. PAGA Members eligible for Individual PAGA Payments may not opt out of the PAGA portion of the Settlement and will receive their share of the PAGA Penalties regardless of whether they participate in the class settlement.

Because the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is the result of arm's length negotiations between experienced counsel with the assistance of an experienced mediator, following a thorough exchange of relevant information and documents, it warrants preliminary approval. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (1) preliminarily approving the Settlement; (2) conditionally certifying the Settlement Class pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 for settlement purposes only; (3) approving the form and manner of dissemination of the proposed Class Notice; (4) appointing Plaintiff Gerald Carson as Class Representative and appointing Mehrdad Bokhour of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. and Joshua S. Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. as Class Counsel for settlement purposes only; (5) appointing CPT Group, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator; and (6) scheduling a Final Approval Hearing. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 12.)

II. BACKGROUND

A. THE PARTIES AND THE PROPOSED CLASS

Defendant Concord Feed & Fuel, Inc., provides food and supplies for pets and ranch animals in Northern California. The company is based in Concord, California, and operates as a retail supplier of animal feed, livestock supplies, pet products, ranch equipment, and related agricultural goods. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 13.)

Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee with the title of "Yard/Forklift Operator" out of Sacramento, California, beginning on March 14, 2021, until his separation from employment on August 24, 2024. Plaintiff, along with other non-exempt hourly employees, including, but not limited to, Service Technician, Yard Worker, Forklift Operator, Cashier/Sales, Truck Driver, Counter Sales Representative, and all other non-exempt positions, were responsible for supporting various aspects of Defendant's business operations in California. Plaintiff alleges that, in performing these duties, Defendant failed to consistently provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt hourly employees with all wages, meal and rest periods, and other protections required by the California Labor Code and applicable wage orders.

1 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 14.)

2 The proposed Settlement Class consists of all individuals who are or were employed by
3 Defendant in California as non-exempt hourly employees at any time during the Class Period,
4 defined as October 28, 2020 through December 31, 2025. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.8, 1.11, 5 1.13.)

6 B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

7 On October 28, 2024, Plaintiff provided notice to the California Labor and Workforce
8 Development Agency pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a). (Settlement
9 Agreement, Recitals.)

10 On the same date, Plaintiff filed a Class Action in Sacramento County Superior Court,
11 asserting class claims based on Defendant's alleged: (1) failure to pay minimum and overtime
12 wages; (2) failure to provide meal periods; (3) failure to provide rest breaks; (4) failure to pay
13 sick time; (5) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (6) failure to pay all wages 14 due upon separation of employment; (7) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; and 15 (8) violation of California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL").

16 On January 2, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a PAGA cause of 17 action (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 15; Settlement Agreement, Recitals.)

18 Throughout the investigation and litigation of this Action, Defendant denied Plaintiff's
19 allegations and maintained that it complied with all applicable laws. Prior to engaging in 20 protracted and expensive litigation, however, the Parties agreed to explore early resolution 21 through private mediation.

22 In preparation for mediation and settlement discussions, the Parties conducted a thorough
23 investigation into the facts and legal issues presented by the Action. This investigation included 24 interviews with putative class members, an analysis of Defendant's operations and 25 compensation practices, and the informal exchange of discovery materials, including 26 Defendant's written policies and procedures, as well as a representative sampling of payroll and 27 timekeeping records for Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members. Class Counsel has 28 extensive experience litigating wage and hour class actions and PAGA representative actions,

1 and conducted substantial legal and factual analysis of the claims and potential defenses at issue.
2 Class Counsel diligently investigated the claims asserted on behalf of the Settlement Class
3 Members and PAGA Members.

4 Based on this investigation and their independent evaluation of the strengths and risks of 5 the claims, Class Counsel believes that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and 6 adequate, and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members and PAGA Members,
7 particularly in light of the risks associated with continued litigation, Defendant's asserted
8 defenses, and potential appellate issues.

9 On September 15, 2025, the Parties participated in an all-day mediation presided over by Jeffrey
10 Winikow, Esq., which resulted in the proposed Settlement by way of a mediator's proposal.
11 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 17; Settlement Agreement, Ex. A.)

12 The Parties now respectfully request that the Court grant preliminary approval of the 13 Settlement Agreement.

14 C. SUMMARY OF PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS

15 Plaintiff alleges various wage and hour violations on behalf of non-exempt hourly
16 employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 17 18.)

18 First, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay all wages, and failed to properly 19 calculate and pay overtime wages and sick pay by excluding non-discretionary bonuses and 20 other forms of remuneration from the "regular rate of pay." (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 19.)

21 Further, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant maintained unlawful meal and rest period
22 policies and practices that failed to provide Settlement Class Members with timely, duty-free,
23 and compliant meal periods or premium wages in lieu thereof, and failed to provide duty-free
24 rest periods of at least ten minutes for every four hours worked or a major fraction thereof.
25 Plaintiff alleges that these policies required employees to remain on duty and or on the premises
26 during rest periods.

27 Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse Settlement Class Members for 28 necessary business expenses, including the required use of personal cell phones for work-related

1 purposes. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 20.)

2 Plaintiff additionally alleges that Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due upon
3 separation of employment and failed to furnish accurate itemized wage statements in violation
4 of Labor Code section 226.

5 Finally, Plaintiff asserts representative claims under the Private Attorneys General Act
6 (“PAGA”), seeking civil penalties for the alleged Labor Code violations described above.
7 (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 21.)

8 D. SUMMARY OF DEFENDANT’S DEFENSES

9 Defendant contested and denied all material allegations raised by Plaintiff, both on the 10 merits and with respect to the propriety of class certification and PAGA representative
11 treatment. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 22.)

12 Defendant asserted that it paid all wages owed, and its timekeeping practices were 13 lawful and neutrally applied, that it properly calculated and paid all overtime and sick pay using 14 the correct “regular rate of pay” calculation, and that its meal and rest period policies complied 15 with California law and were implemented in practice. Defendant denied requiring employees to 16 remain on duty or on the premises during rest periods. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 23.)

17 Moreover, Defendant contended that Plaintiff’s derivative claims for wage statement
18 violations, waiting time penalties, and PAGA penalties failed in the absence of any underlying 19 Labor Code violations, and denied any obligation to pay such penalties. Defendant also asserted 20 that the use of personal cell phones was not required for business purposes and that a
21 reimbursement policy was available for qualifying expenses. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 24.)

22 Finally, Defendant argued that the Action was unsuitable for class or representative
23 treatment because liability would require individualized inquiries into employees’ job duties,
24 break practices, and managerial oversight. Defendant also asserted that Plaintiff was not a 25 typical class representative because he worked in a role that comprised approximately 25
26 percent of the proposed class, while the remaining Class Members held materially different
27 positions with distinct duties and experiences. Defendant contended that these differences
28 defeated typicality and predominance. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 25.)

1 III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

2 The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement.

3 A. SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION AND ALLOCATION

4 The Settlement provides for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of $850,000,
5 which will be distributed to Settlement Class Members without the need to submit a claim form
6 or take any affirmative action. Subject to Court approval, the Gross Settlement Amount will be 7 used to fund the following:

- 8 • Class Counsel attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed $283,333.33,
9 representing one third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and litigation expenses
10 not to exceed $25,000;
- 11 • A Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff Gerald Carson in an amount 12 not to exceed $10,000;
- 13 • Settlement Administration Expenses not to exceed $10,000;
- 14 • PAGA Penalties totaling $10,000, of which $6,500 or 65 percent will be paid to 15 the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency pursuant to Labor
16 Code section 2699(i), and $3,500 or 35 percent will be distributed to PAGA
17 Members as Individual PAGA Payments; and
- 18 • The Net Settlement Amount, which will be distributed to Participating Class
19 Members as Individual Class Payments on a pro rata basis based on the number 20 of Workweeks worked during the Class Period.

21 Defendant will separately pay the employer share of payroll taxes owed on the portion
22 of Individual Class Payments allocated as wages. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 3.1–3.2 et seq.)

23 After all Court approved deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, it is estimated 24 that approximately $511,666.67 will remain as the Net Settlement Amount available for 25 distribution to Participating Class Members. Based on Defendant's records, Settlement Class
26 Members collectively worked approximately 43,500 Workweeks during the Class Period.
27 Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be distributed on a pro rata basis based on each
28 Participating Class Member's number of Workweeks. Based on these figures, the average

Individual Class Payment is conservatively estimated to be approximately $1,350 to $1,550, with the highest estimated Individual Class Payment for a Class Member who worked the entire Class Period estimated to be approximately $2,900 to $3,200, subject to Court approval and adjustment based on opt-outs and final Workweek calculations. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 7.)

B. NOTICE PROCEDURES

Upon Court approval, the proposed Class Notice will be distributed to Settlement Class Members and will include, among other information, the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods credited to each individual, as well as the estimated Individual Class and Individual PAGA Payments. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.10, 7.4.2; Bokhour Decl., Ex. B.)

No later than 14 days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval, Defendant will provide the Settlement Administrator with the Class Data, including each Settlement Class Member's name, last known mailing address, Social Security number, and the number of Workweeks and PAGA Pay Periods worked during the Class Period and PAGA Period. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.7, 4.2.)

Within 15 days after receiving the Class Data, the Settlement Administrator will update addresses using the National Change of Address database and mail the Court-approved Class Notice to Settlement Class Members via first-class U.S. Mail. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 7.4.2, 7.4.4.)

If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable with a forwarding address, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the Notice within five business days. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Notice to the most current address identified. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.9, 7.4.3.) For any Class Notice that is re-mailed, the deadline to submit a Request for Exclusion, Objection, or Challenge to credited Workweeks or PAGA Pay Periods will be extended by fourteen calendar days beyond the standard Response Deadline, and the re-mailed Notice will inform Class Members of the extended deadline. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.43, 7.4.4.)

The most recently confirmed address maintained by the Settlement Administrator will be presumed to be the best available address for purposes of mailing settlement checks and any further notices. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 4.4.1.)

C. EXCLUSION AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES

Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit a valid Request for Exclusion will be deemed Participating Class Members and will be bound by the terms of the Settlement without the need to submit a claim form or take any other affirmative action. The Court-approved Class Notice will inform Settlement Class Members of their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement by submitting a written Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than 45 calendar days after the initial mailing of the Class Notice, defined as the Response Deadline. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 1.43, 7.5.1, 7.5.2.)

The Class Notice will also inform Settlement Class Members of their right to object to the Settlement. Any Participating Class Member who wishes to object must submit a written objection to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than the Response Deadline. The objection must include the objector's full name, current address, telephone number, approximate dates of employment with Defendant, and the case name and number. The objection may include a statement of the basis for the objection and any supporting legal authority or evidence, and if represented by counsel, the name and contact information of the objector's attorney. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.5.4.)

D. SETTLEMENT ALLOCATION FORMULA FOR SETTLEMENT SHARES

Individual Class Payments will be calculated by the Settlement Administrator based on the Class Data provided by Defendant. After accounting for any approved challenges to credited Workweeks and excluding individuals who timely submit valid Requests for Exclusion, the Settlement Administrator will determine the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members during the Class Period. Each Participating Class Member's share of the Net Settlement Amount will then be calculated on a pro rata basis according to the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period, as a proportion of the total Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.6.1(d)(ii).)

The Class Notice will inform each Settlement Class Member of the estimated number of Workweeks credited during the Class Period. Any Settlement Class Member who believes the credited number of Workweeks is inaccurate may submit documentation to the Settlement Administrator by the Response Deadline to challenge the calculation. The Settlement Administrator will review any such challenge, consult with Class Counsel and Defense Counsel as appropriate, and issue a final and binding determination. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 7.6.2.)

E. TIMING OF SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

Defendant shall fund the Settlement by making a one-time deposit of the Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified Settlement Fund maintained by the Settlement Administrator. The Settlement Administrator will provide Defendant with wire transfer instructions no more than three days after the Effective Date, and Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount within 15 calendar days after the Effective Date, unless that day falls on a weekend or holiday, in which case funding shall occur on the next court day. Defendant shall separately fund and pay the employer share of payroll taxes owed on the portion of Individual Class Payments allocated as wages, as calculated and directed by the Settlement Administrator. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 4.3, 8.1.)

The Settlement Administrator shall deposit the Gross Settlement Amount into an interest-bearing Qualified Settlement Fund that satisfies the requirements of U.S. Treasury Regulation section 468B 1. All payments under the Settlement shall be made from the Qualified Settlement Fund in accordance with the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 6.2, 8.2.)

Within seven calendar days after Defendant funds the Gross Settlement Amount, the Settlement Administrator shall issue and mail the following payments:(a) Individual Settlement Payments to Participating Class Members and PAGA Members;

- Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members
- Individual PAGA Payments to PAGA Members
- The Court approved Class Representative Service Payment to Plaintiff
- The Court approved attorneys' fees and litigation expenses to Class Counsel
- the LWDA PAGA Payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency

- 1 ○ The Court approved Settlement Administration Expenses to the Settlement
2 Administrator

3 Disbursement of attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and the Class Representative
4 Service Payment shall not precede the mailing of Individual Class Payments and Individual
5 PAGA Payments. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 4.4, 8.3.)

6 Each settlement check issued to Participating Class Members and PAGA Members shall 7 remain negotiable for one hundred eighty calendar days from the date of mailing. If a settlement
8 check is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator shall perform a Class Member 9 Address Search and re-mail the check to any forwarding or newly identified address. The 10 Settlement Administrator shall re-issue replacement checks for any lost or misplaced checks
11 requested prior to the void date. (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 4.4.1, 4.4.2.)

12 If any Individual Class Payment or Individual PAGA Payment check remains uncashed
13 after the void date, the Settlement Administrator shall cancel the check and transmit the funds
14 represented by the check to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of 15 the Class Member or PAGA Member, leaving no unpaid residue subject to California Code of 16 Civil Procedure section 384. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 4.4.3.)

17 The release of claims under the Settlement shall be binding on all Participating Class
18 Members and PAGA Members regardless of whether they cash their settlement checks.
19 (Settlement Agreement ¶¶ 5.2, 5.3.)

20 F. TAX TREATMENT

21 The Individual Class Payments paid to Participating Class Members for Class Claims
22 will be allocated for tax purposes based on the nature of the allegations in the Action as follows:
23 thirty three percent (33%) of each Individual Class Payment will be allocated as wages and will
24 be subject to applicable local, state, and federal tax withholdings, and sixty seven percent (67%)
25 will be allocated as interest and penalties, which are not subject to wage withholding. The 26 Settlement Administrator shall be responsible for calculating and withholding applicable taxes
27 on the wage portion and shall issue IRS Form W 2s for the wage portion and IRS Form 1099s
28 for the non wage portion, along with any required state tax forms. Participating Class Members shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes owed on their Individual Class Payments. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 3.6.))

G. PARTICIPATING CLASS MEMBERS' RELEASE OF CLAIMS

In consideration for their awarded Individual Class Payments, and effective as of the date the Settlement becomes Final and has been fully funded, all Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, will release the Released Parties from all claims arising out of or related to the allegations set forth in the Operative Complaint, including any claims that were alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint and that arose during the Class Period.

The released claims include, without limitation, claims for: (1) failure to pay minimum wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide compliant meal periods or pay meal period premiums; (4) failure to provide compliant rest periods or pay rest period premiums; (5) failure to pay sick time; (6) failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements; (7) failure to pay all wages due during employment or upon separation of employment; (8) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; (9) unfair competition under the California Unfair Competition Law; (10) failure to produce employment records; and (11) all related claims for liquidated damages, penalties, restitution, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs, as more fully set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 5.2.)

In consideration for their awarded Individual PAGA Payments, and effective as of the date the Settlement becomes Final, all PAGA Members who worked for Defendant during the PAGA Period, including those who submit Requests for Exclusion from the class settlement, will release the Released Parties from all claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts and allegations in the Operative Complaint or the PAGA Notices and that arose during the PAGA Period. The released PAGA claims include, without limitation, claims for civil penalties based on alleged violations of the Labor Code provisions identified in the Settlement Agreement, including claims for: (1) failure to pay minimum wages in violation of Labor Code sections 200, 204, 558, 1182.12, 1194,

1 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, and 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (2) failure to pay
2 proper overtime wages in violation of Labor Code sections 200, 204, 210, 510, 558, 1194, 1197,
3 and 1198, and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (3) failure to provide compliant meal periods
4 and pay missed meal period premiums in violation of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 516,
5 and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (4) failure to provide compliant rest periods and pay
6 missed rest break premiums in violation of Labor Code section 226.7 and 516, and the 7 applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (5) failure to pay sick time in violation of Labor Code sections
8 246, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199 and the applicable IWC Wage Order(s); (6) failure to 9 provide complete and accurate wage statements in violation of Labor Code sections 226 and 10 226.3; (7) failure to pay all wages due and owing during employment and at separation in 11 violation of Labor Code sections 201–204; and (8) failure to reimburse necessary business
12 expenses in violation of Labor Code sections 2802–2804. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 5.3.)

13 In addition to the class and PAGA releases described above, Plaintiff, as Class
14 Representative, has agreed to a broader General Release of all known and unknown claims
15 against the Released Parties, including a waiver of rights under California Civil Code section
16 1542, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement ¶ 5.1.)

17 IV. PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE CLASS UNDER THE LESSER
18 STANDARD OF SCRUTINY FOR SETTLEMENT-ONLY CERTIFICATION IS 19 APPROPRIATE FOR PURPOSES OF SETTLEMENT

20 California Rule of Court 3.769(d) authorizes the Court to provisionally certify a 21 settlement class at the preliminary approval stage. It is well established that courts apply a lesser 22 standard of scrutiny when evaluating class certification for settlement purposes only, because 23 the manageability concerns present in a litigation class are not implicated and the Court’s 24 review of the settlement itself serves to protect absent class members. Dunk v. Ford Motor Co.
25 (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1807 at n.19.

26 Because no trial is contemplated, the Court need not consider whether the Action would 27 present intractable management problems if litigated. Instead, the focus is whether provisional 28 certification is appropriate to effectuate the Settlement and ensure adequate notice to the Class.

1 (Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 633.)

2 For purposes of this Settlement only, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court
3 provisionally certify the Settlement Class under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

4 A. NUMEROSITY AND ASCERTAINABILITY

5 Numerosity is satisfied where the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is 6 impracticable. (Code Civ. Proc., § 382.) Ascertainability is satisfied where class members can 7 be identified by objective criteria and provided notice without unreasonable time or expense.
8 (Medraza v. Honda of N. Hollywood (2008) 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 101.)

9 Here, Defendant's records reflect that the Settlement Class consists of approximately 10 375 non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class
11 Period. Joinder of this many individuals would be impracticable, and the class is readily
12 ascertainable through Defendant's payroll and employment records, which identify Class
13 Members by objective criteria. Accordingly, numerosity and ascertainability are satisfied.

14 B. WELL-DEFINED COMMUNITY OF INTEREST

15 1. Commonality

16 Commonality is satisfied where questions of law or fact common to the class
17 predominate over questions affecting individual members. Washington Mut. Bank v. Superior
18 Court (2001) 24 Cal.4th 906, 913.

19 Plaintiff alleges that Settlement Class Members were subject to common wage and hour
20 policies and practices, including policies governing timekeeping, calculation of the "regular rate 21 of pay," meal and rest periods, wage statements, and reimbursement of business expenses.
22 While the Parties dispute whether common issues would predominate if the Action were 23 litigated, they agree that commonality is satisfied for purposes of settlement only.

24 2. Typicality

25 Typicality examines whether the claims of the proposed class representative are 26 reasonably coextensive with those of the class. (Newberg on Class Actions § 3:13.)

27 The Parties agree that Plaintiff's claims arise from the same alleged wage and hour 28 policies and practices challenged on a classwide basis, and that typicality is satisfied under the

1 lesser standard applicable to settlement only certification.

2 3. Adequacy of Representation

3 Adequacy requires that the class representative's interests are aligned with those of the 4 class and that class counsel are qualified and experienced. Barboza v. West Coast Digital GSM,
5 Inc. (2009) 179 Cal.App.4th 540, 546.

6 Plaintiff was employed by Defendant during the Class Period, was subject to the same
7 challenged policies as other Class Members, understands his responsibilities as Class
8 Representative, and has no conflicts of interest with the Settlement Class. Plaintiff is 9 represented by Class Counsel with extensive experience litigating wage and hour class actions
10 and PAGA representative actions. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2–5; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2–11.) Adequacy 11 is therefore satisfied.

12 4. Superiority

13 Certification of the Settlement Class is superior to individual litigation because it 14 permits a global resolution of the claims in a single proceeding, promotes judicial economy, and 15 provides meaningful relief to Class Members whose individual claims would be impractical to 16 litigate on a standalone basis. Settlement only certification is therefore appropriate.

17 V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT,
18 WHICH IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

19 A. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND 20 APPROVAL UNDER THE CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

21 California law favors the settlement of disputes, particularly in the class action context, 22 where settlement conserves judicial resources and avoids the expense, delay, and uncertainty of 23 continued litigation. (Bush v. Superior Court (1992) 10 Cal.App.4th 1374, 1385.) Nevertheless, 24 a class action may not be compromised or dismissed without court approval. (Cal. Rules of 25 Court, rule 3.769(a).)

26 The California Rules of Court establish a three step process for approval of a class 27 action settlement: (1) preliminary approval of the proposed settlement; (2) notice to the class in 28 the manner directed by the court; and (3) a final approval hearing at which the court determines whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(c), (e)–(g).)

The decision whether to approve a proposed settlement lies within the court’s sound discretion. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234.) In exercising that discretion, however, the court is not to conduct a trial on the merits or resolve disputed factual or legal issues underlying the claims. (Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625.)

At the preliminary approval stage, the court’s task is limited to determining whether the settlement appears to be within the range of possible approval and whether notice to the class is warranted. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801–1802.) Preliminary approval is appropriate where there are no obvious deficiencies and no grounds to doubt the settlement’s fairness. (Manual for Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41.)

B. THE SETTLEMENT IS THE RESULT OF SERIOUS, INFORMED, NON-COLLUSIVE NEGOTIATIONS

The Settlement was reached through extensive arm’s-length negotiations between experienced counsel and was facilitated by an experienced mediator with substantial expertise in wage-and-hour class and PAGA actions. The negotiations were adversarial and non-collusive, and followed a thorough investigation of the factual and legal issues in the Action.

Although Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe the claims have merit, they also recognized the substantial risks associated with continued litigation, including the risk of an adverse ruling on class certification, summary judgment, trial, or appeal. Defendant vigorously denied liability and asserted multiple defenses that, if successful, could have significantly limited or eliminated any recovery for the Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 35.) These risks were appropriately considered in reaching the Settlement.

C. THE EXTENT OF THE INVESTIGATION WAS MORE THAN SUFFICIENT TO PERMIT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

Prior to reaching the Settlement, Plaintiff and Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation into the factual and legal bases of the claims. As described above, this

1 investigation included interviews with putative class members, review of Defendant’s policies
2 and practices, and the informal exchange of relevant payroll, timekeeping, and compensation
3 data. Class Counsel also conducted extensive legal research and developed damages models to 4 assess potential exposure and litigation risk. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 14, 26.)

5 This level of investigation was more than sufficient to permit Class Counsel and the 6 Court to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and to support preliminary 7 approval of the Settlement.

8 D. THE SETTLEMENT IS A REASONABLE COMPROMISE OF CLAIMS

9 In evaluating a proposed class settlement, the court must have sufficient information to 10 understand the nature and magnitude of the claims and to determine whether the settlement
11 represents a reasonable compromise in light of the risks of continued litigation. Kullar v. Foot
12 Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133. Kullar does not require an explicit 13 statement of the maximum theoretical recovery in every case. Rather, the record must permit an 14 understanding of the amount in controversy and the realistic range of possible outcomes. Munoz
15 v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 409.

16 Here, Defendant disputed both liability and class certification, arguing that it complied
17 with California law, maintained compliant written policies, and that any alleged violations were 18 individualized and not amenable to class treatment. Defendant also asserted defenses that could 19 have significantly reduced or eliminated recovery. While Plaintiff believes the claims are 20 suitable for class treatment, he recognizes that class certification and liability determinations are 21 inherently uncertain.

22 Considering the risks, expense, and delay associated with continued litigation, the 23 Settlement represents a reasonable and fair compromise that provides meaningful relief to Class
24 Members now, rather than the possibility of a greater recovery years later or no recovery at all.
25 (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 39–40.)

26 Based upon Class Counsel’s independent investigation and detailed data obtained
27 through informal discovery and information exchanges, and factoring in claim certification
28 probabilities and liability probabilities, Class Counsel formulated detailed damages models to

1 evaluate the claims in preparation for mediation and in order to reach a realistic and reasonable
2 resolution as further detailed below. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 26.)

3 1. Failure to Properly Calculate and Pay the Correct “Regular Rate of 4 Pay”

5 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to properly calculate the “regular rate of pay” by 6 excluding certain non-discretionary bonuses and incentive payments when calculating overtime
7 and sick pay wages, resulting in alleged underpayment in violation of California law. (Bokhour
8 Decl. ¶ 27.)

9 Based on a review of payroll and paystub data produced during the investigation,
10 Plaintiff estimated that the alleged exclusion of certain incentive payments may have resulted in 11 underpayment of overtime, sick pay and meal premium wages for some Class Members
12 totalling approximately $76,068. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 28.)

13 Defendant disputed these allegations and asserted that it properly paid all wages and 14 many of the incentive payments at issue were discretionary and therefore properly excluded
15 from regular rate calculations. Defendant further contended that it made adjustments and offset 16 payments where appropriate, that overtime and sick pay were lawfully calculated and paid in 17 good faith, and that any potential underpayments, to the extent they occurred at all, were 18 limited, de minimis, and not widespread across the Class. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

19 While Plaintiff maintains that certain bonuses and incentive payments were non-20 discretionary and should have been included in the regular rate of pay, Plaintiff also 21 acknowledges the significant litigation risks associated with this claim. Those risks include the 22 possibility that the Court could deny class certification due to individualized variations in 23 compensation structures and incentive programs, as well as risks on the merits, including 24 summary judgment or an unfavorable trial result. Plaintiff further acknowledges that the 25 estimated lost wages attributable to this theory were relatively modest. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 30)

26 In light of these risks and uncertainties, Plaintiff applied a 35% discount to the estimated 27 value of this claim, resulting in an estimated adjusted value of $49,444. Although this amount is 28 not staggering, the real value of this claims is derived from the derivative waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 31.)

2. Waiting Time Penalties

Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due upon separation of employment, entitling former employees to waiting time penalties under Labor Code sections 201 through 203. Based on Defendant's records, approximately 165 Settlement Class Members separated from employment during the applicable statutory period. Assuming the statutory maximum penalty of thirty (30) days, an 8-hour workday, and an average hourly rate of $21.72, Plaintiff estimated a maximum theoretical exposure of approximately $860,112 for waiting time penalties. (165 employees × 8 hours per day × $21.72 per hour × 30 days.) (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 32.)

Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that any alleged failure to timely pay wages at separation was not willful and therefore did not give rise to waiting time penalties. Defendant further contended that it maintained compliant payroll practices and that any waiting time penalties claim was derivative of underlying wage claims. Defendant contended that the claims lacked merit or were unsuitable for class treatment. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 33.)

To account for these risks, including the risk of denial of class certification and the risk of an adverse ruling at summary judgment or trial, Plaintiff applied a combined 50% percent discount to the maximum theoretical exposure. Applying this discount, Plaintiff estimates a risk-adjusted value of approximately $430,056 for the waiting time penalties claim. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 34.)

3. Failure to Provide Meal and Rest Periods or Compensation in Lieu Thereof at the "Regular Rate of Pay"

With respect to Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims, Settlement Class Members collectively worked approximately 154,745 shifts during the Class Period. Based on an analysis of a representative sample of Defendant's timekeeping and payroll records produced prior to mediation, Plaintiff applied an estimated 20 percent violation rate for meal periods and a 33 percent violation rate for rest periods. Using an applicable premium rate of $21.72 per missed break, Plaintiff estimated a maximum theoretical exposure of approximately $672,212 for the meal period claim (154,745 shifts × 20 percent × $21.72) and approximately $1,120,353 for the rest period claim (154,745 shifts × 33 percent × $21.72). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 35.)

However, Defendant disputed liability on both claims and asserted that meal and rest-period compliance presented highly individualized issues that were inappropriate for class treatment. Defendant maintained that its written policies were facially compliant with California law, that employees were afforded flexibility to take breaks, and that compliance varied based on job duties, location, management practices, and individual employee choice. Defendant also argued that it had a Donohue attestation procedure in place that disproved Plaintiff's allegations and provided common proof of a lack of violations. Defendant further argued that these individualized issues created a substantial risk that the Court would deny class certification. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 36.)

Defendant also contended that, even if certification were granted, it would prevail on the merits by demonstrating that compliant meal and rest periods were provided or that premium compensation was paid when required. Defendant asserted that Plaintiff would be unable to present reliable representative evidence sufficient to establish liability or damages on a classwide basis.

In light of these risks, Plaintiff applied a 60% discount to the maximum theoretical exposure for these claims. Applying this discount, Plaintiff estimates a risk-adjusted value of approximately $268,884 for the meal period claims and approximately $448,141 for the rest period claims. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 37.)

4. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Plaintiff further alleged that Defendant issued non-compliant itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code section 226, based on the same alleged conduct underlying Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages, meal and rest period premiums, and failure to include all required forms of compensation in the regular rate of pay. Based on Defendant's records, Plaintiff estimates that approximately 6,216 allegedly non-compliant wage statements were issued during the Class Period.

1 In calculating Defendant's maximum potential exposure, Plaintiff conservatively
2 assumed that only the initial statutory penalty of fifty dollars per violation would apply,
3 consistent with Labor Code section 226(e) and authority holding that higher penalties apply
4 only after notice of a violation. (Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2 (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 1157,
5 1207.) Using this conservative assumption, Plaintiff estimated a maximum theoretical exposure
6 of approximately $310,800 (6,216 wage statements multiplied by $50). (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 38.)

7 Defendant disputed this claim and asserted that its wage statements fully complied with 8 Labor Code section 226. Defendant further argued that, even if any technical deficiencies 9 existed, they were not knowing and intentional and did not result in the injury required to 10 recover penalties. Defendant also relied on its defenses to the underlying wage and hour claims
11 and to class certification. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 39.)

12 In light of these risks, including the risk of denial of class certification and the risk of an 13 adverse ruling on the merits, Plaintiff applied a 80% discount to the maximum theoretical 14 exposure. Applying this discount, Plaintiff estimates a risk-adjusted value of approximately 15 $62,160 for the wage statement penalty claim. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 40.)

16 5. PAGA Penalties

17 Plaintiff also sought civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004
18 ("PAGA") for alleged Labor Code violations for which PAGA penalties are available, and 19 asserted that such penalties could be assessed on a cumulative basis. Assuming application of 20 the default penalty of $100 per pay period under Labor Code section 2699(f)(2), and assuming 21 no reduction or exercise of judicial discretion, Plaintiff estimated a maximum theoretical 22 exposure of approximately $621,600, based on approximately 6,216 pay periods. (Bokhour
23 Decl. ¶ 41.)

24 This theoretical maximum, however, does not account for significant legal and practical 25 uncertainties. Courts are divided as to whether PAGA penalties may be stacked across multiple 26 violations within a single pay period, particularly where the violations are derivative of one 27 another. In addition, Labor Code section 2699(e)(2) grants courts broad discretion to reduce 28 civil penalties where necessary to avoid awards that are unjust, arbitrary, oppressive, or confiscatory. Courts routinely exercise this discretion, particularly where an employer did not act willfully or where the legal obligations were unsettled. See Cotter v. Lyft, Inc. (2016) 193 F. Supp. 3d 1030, 1037. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 42.)

In light of these risks, the Parties agreed to allocate $10,000 of the Gross Settlement Amount to the resolution of the PAGA claim, which Plaintiff submits is fair, reasonable, and adequate under the circumstances. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 43.)

In sum, when factoring in defenses and risks of ongoing litigation, Plaintiff estimates the risk-adjusted class recovery as follows:

• Regular Rate of Pay Claim:	$49,444.20
• Labor Code §§ 201 – 203 Claims:	$430,056
• Meal Period Claims:	$268,884
• Rest Break Claims:	$448,141
• Wage Statement Claims:	$62,160
• PAGA Penalties	$10,000
• Total Risk-Adjusted Penalties and Damages:	$1,268,685.20

Given the realistic value of Plaintiff’s claims, the $850,000 Settlement Amount is an excellent result for the Class, considering that the Settlement Amount totals approximately 66.9% of Plaintiff’s risk-adjusted value of the case. Preliminary approval is appropriate since the Settlement will provide significant monetary relief to the Class. For these reasons, Plaintiff submits that the agreed-upon Settlement is fair and reasonable. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 44.)

E. CLASS COUNSEL IS EXPERIENCED IN SIMILAR WAGE-AND-HOUR LITIGATION

The views of experienced counsel are entitled to significant weight in determining whether a proposed class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility (N.D. Cal. 1980) 87 F.R.D. 15, 18, aff’d (9th Cir. 1981) 661 F.2d 939; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (court must take into account “the experience and view of counsel”) (internal quotation and citation omitted).

Class Counsel are highly experienced in wage and hour class actions and PAGA representative actions. Collectively, Class Counsel have litigated over one hundred wage and hour class and PAGA cases, have been repeatedly recognized as Super Lawyers in employment litigation, an honor awarded to only a small percentage of attorneys statewide, and have achieved substantial class action settlements on behalf of California employees. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 2–5; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 2–10.)

After conducting an independent investigation and engaging in arm’s length negotiations, Class Counsel carefully evaluated the strengths and weaknesses of the claims, the defenses asserted by Defendant, the risks associated with class certification and liability, and the realistic risk adjusted value of the case. Based on that analysis, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of the Action and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class and PAGA Members.

F. THE CLASS NOTICE CONFORMS TO ALL APPLICABLE STATUTES AND RULES

The proposed Class Notice fully and fairly informs Settlement Class Members of the nature of the Action, the material terms of the Settlement, and their rights and options under the Settlement Agreement and applicable law. The notice program is reasonably calculated to reach all or nearly all Settlement Class Members and therefore satisfies due process.

The content and dissemination of the Class Notice comply with California Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769. The Class Notice describes the material settlement terms, the proposed attorneys’ fees and costs and Settlement Administration Expenses, the Final Approval Hearing, and the procedures and deadlines for requesting exclusion or submitting an objection, and informs Class Members of their estimated Individual Class Payments. (Ex. B.)

The Class Notice will be mailed by the Settlement Administrator via first-class U.S. Mail to the last known addresses of Settlement Class Members, using Defendant’s records, with address updating and re-mailing procedures for undeliverable notices. This method constitutes meaningful notice with a reasonable likelihood of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class. (Archibald v. Cinerama Hotels (1976) 15 Cal.3d 853, 861.)

The 45-day response period provides Class Members with a reasonable opportunity to evaluate the Settlement, seek advice if desired, and elect whether to participate, object, or request exclusion. Settlement Class Members who do not request exclusion will be bound by the Settlement and will automatically receive settlement payments upon Final Approval

G. THE NON-REVERSIONARY “CHECKS CASHED” DISTRIBUTION ENSURES MAXIMAL RECOVERY FOR CLASS MEMBERS

Under the Settlement, all Settlement Class Members who do not request exclusion will automatically receive an Individual Settlement Payment without submitting a claim form. This structure maximizes participation and ensures that Class Members receive payment unless they affirmatively opt out.

The Settlement is non-reversionary, meaning that no portion of the Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Any settlement checks that are not negotiated within the applicable check-cashing period will be sent to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund, subject to Court approval. These terms are favored by courts because they promote class recovery and confirm that the Settlement was reached through arm’s length negotiations and without collusion.

H. THE ATTORNEYS’ FEES ALLOCATION UNDER THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT IS FAIR

Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel requests an amount not exceeding one-third of the Settlement Amount in attorneys’ fees. (See, e.g., Laffite v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th. 480 (approving 1/3 fee in the amount of $6.33 million at a 2.13 lodestar multiplier, when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the Class Members, the trial court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created); see also Stuart v. RadioShack Corp. (N.D. Cal. Aug. 9, 2010) No. C-07-4499 EMC, 2010 WL 3155645 (approving fee award of 1/3 of the total maximum settlement amount of $4.5 million) (the court noted that the fee award of 1/3 of the total settlement was “well within the range of percentages which courts have upheld as reasonable in other class action lawsuits”); Singer v. Becton Dickinson and Co. (S.D. Cal. June 1, 2010) No. 08-cv-1501-IEG (BLM), 2010 WL 2196104, at *8 (approving fee award of 33.33% of the common fund); Romero v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2007) No. 1:05cv0484 DLB, 2007 WL 3492841, at *4 (awarding fees of 1/3 of common fund

1 in a wage and hour class action, noting: “[f]ee awards in class actions average around one-third
2 of the recovery.”); Martin v. FedEx Ground Package System, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 31, 2008) No.
3 C 06-6883 VRW, 2008 WL 5478576, at *8 (approving fees of 1/3 of common fund). (Bokhour
4 Decl. ¶¶ 54.)

5 Once the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Class
6 Notice is disseminated, Class Counsel will submit a request for attorneys’ fees and costs with its 7 final approval motion.

8 I. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE PAYMENTS ARE FAIR AND 9 APPROPRIATE

10 The Settlement Agreement provides for a Service Award to Plaintiff Gerald Carson in 11 an amount not to exceed $10,000. The requested Service Award is reasonable in light of 12 Plaintiff’s substantial time, effort, and personal risk undertaken on behalf of the Class and 13 PAGA Members.

14 Plaintiff actively assisted Class Counsel throughout the litigation, including by 15 providing detailed factual information supporting the class and PAGA claims, producing 16 documents, participating in strategy discussions and mediation preparation, remaining available 17 throughout the litigation to analyze claims and defenses, attending and assisting during 18 mediation, and reviewing the Settlement documents. Plaintiff also assumed the risk associated 19 with serving as Class Representative, including potential exposure to costs and workplace
20 retaliation. (See Declaration of Plaintiff in Support of Preliminary Approval.)

21 The requested Service Award is within the range approved by courts in comparable
22 cases. See, e.g., Bond v. Ferguson Enterprises, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2011) No. 1:09 cv 1662 OWW
23 MJS, 2011 WL 2648879 (approving $11,250 service award); Ross v. U.S. Bank National 24 Association (N.D. Cal. 2010) No. C 07 02951 SI, 2010 WL 3833922, at *2 (approving $20,000
25 service award); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2010) 266 F.R.D. 415, 493
26 (approving $15,000 service awards).

27 Accordingly, the requested Service Award is fair, reasonable, and appropriate under the 28 circumstances.

1 VI. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT CPT GROUP, INC. AS THE SETTLEMENT
2 ADMINISTRATOR

3 Subject to Court approval, the Parties have stipulated that CPT Group, Inc. be appointed
4 as the Settlement Administrator. CPT Group, Inc. is experienced in administering class action
5 settlements and is well qualified to administer the notice and distribution process in this Action.
6 Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Settlement Administration Costs shall not exceed
7 $10,000, subject to Court approval. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 46.)

8 VII. TIMELINE AND SCHEDULING A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

9 The final step in the approval process is a hearing at which the Court considers the terms
10 of the Settlement and hears any timely objections and arguments from the Parties in support of 11 final approval.

12 VIII. CONCLUSION

13 For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant his 14 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement.
