DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff FRANCISCO ROSAS (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Sutter. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Sutter. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Sutter.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff FRANCISCO ROSAS is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Sutter.

1 6. Defendant THIARA BROTHERS, LLC, at all times herein mentioned, was and
2 is, upon information and belief, a California limited liability company, and at all times herein
3 mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of 4 California, including the County of Sutter. Defendant THIARA NUT COMPANY, at all times
5 herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation, and at all
6 times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the 7 State of California, including the County of Sutter. Defendant EMPIRE FARMING
8 COMPANY, LLC, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a
9 California limited liability company, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer
10 whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of 11 Sutter.

12 7. At all relevant times, Defendants THIARA BROTHERS, LLC, THIARA NUT
13 COMPANY, and EMPIRE FARMING COMPANY, LLC were the “employer” of Plaintiff
14 within the meaning of all applicable California laws and statutes.

15 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants THIARA BROTHERS, LLC, THIARA
16 NUT COMPANY, EMPIRE FARMING COMPANY, LLC, and DOES 1 through 100, and each
17 of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants,
18 employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all
19 times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, 20 partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-
21 interest, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly 22 committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and 23 consent of each defendant designated herein.

24 ///

26 ///

9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.

10. Defendants THIARA BROTHERS, LLC, THIARA NUT COMPANY, EMPIRE FARMING COMPANY, LLC, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as “Defendants.”

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within the State of California at any time during the period from four years prior to the filing of this Complaint to final judgment.

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- 1 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
2 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 3 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 4 greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is 5 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- 6 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
7 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately
8 protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a 9 well-defined community of interest.
- 10 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 11 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
12 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has 13 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's 14 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 15 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 16 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, 17 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 18 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 19 each class member.
- 20 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 21 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
22 of all class members is impractical.

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked;
- c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other class members;
- d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7(c);
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked;

- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to class members within the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other class members during their employment;
- i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- o. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California, including the County of Sutter.

18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Sutter.

19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members' employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all hours worked, and failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay related premium wages, in violation of California law.

25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

1 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's
4 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or

9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
10 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's 11 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 12 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 13 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 14 missed.

15 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 18 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

19 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that class members were entitled to receive the wages owed to 21 them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest 22 period premiums, and that class members did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at 23 the time of their discharge or resignation.

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

1 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 their wages within a specified time period during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the 4 other class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period
5 during their employment.

6 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, Plaintiff 9 and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 10 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 11 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

12 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that they had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for 14 Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not 15 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

16 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 18 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

19 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
21 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 22 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
23 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all
24 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. COMPANY, LLC, and DOES 1 through 100)

46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 45, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

47. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

49. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

50. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

54. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

88. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 87, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

89. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of their employees an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

90. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and other class members.

91. As a result of Defendants’ violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

92. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by Defendants’ intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

93. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with California Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

94. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 94, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

96. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer.

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”))

11 98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 12 through 97, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
13 forth herein.

99. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themself, and other current or former employees.

100. On October 25, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about December 30, 2024, the sixty-five (65) days' notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted his administrative remedies.

1 101. Plaintiff and the other non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as
2 defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they all are or were non-exempt
3 employees of Defendants employed in California at any time during the period from October
4 25, 2023, to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against 5 them.

6 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

7 102. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
8 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
9 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 10 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

11 103. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other 12 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 13 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

14 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

15 104. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to authorize and permit
16 their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or 17 major fraction thereof and were further required to provide their non-exempt employees with a
18 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked, pursuant to the mandates of Labor
19 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

20 105. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
21 aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks
22 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

23 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

24 106. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
25 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

26 ///

27 ///

1 107. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
2 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing within the required time
3 period.

4 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

5 108. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
6 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to the mandates of Labor
7 Code sections 201 and 202.

8 109. As a policy and practice, as a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations
9 alleged above, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved former employees their final wages,
10 pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Accordingly, Defendants owe 11 waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

12 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

13 110. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
14 regarding their California employees, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 226 and 15 1174.

16 111. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 17 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
18 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding
19 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 20 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 21 hours worked at each hourly rate.

22 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

23 112. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse their 24 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
25 consequences of the discharge of their duties, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections
26 2800 and 2802.

27 ///

114. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under California Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- b. Penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11040 in the amount of fifty dollars ($50) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- c. Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

28

- e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes; and
- f. Attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.5, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

Re: Thiara Brothers, LLC, Thiara Global, Inc., Thiara Nut Company & Empire Farming Company, LLC

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Francisco Rosas against Thiara Brothers, LLC, Thiara Global, Inc., Thiara Nut Company, and Empire Farming Company, LLC (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Thiara").

Mr. Rosas is pursuing his California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Rosas may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Thiara Brothers, LLC is a California limited liability company located at 1590 Malta Dr., Yuba City, CA 95993. Thiara Global, Inc. is a California corporation located at 1227 Bridge St, Yuba City, CA 95991. Thiara Nut Company is a California corporation located at 1227 Bridge St, Suite C, Yuba City, CA 95991. Empire Farming Company, LLC is a California limited liability company located at 1590 Malta Dr., Yuba City, CA 95993.

¹ Mr. Rosas does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Rosas will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Rosas is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Rosas and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

Thiara employed Mr. Rosas as an hourly-paid non-exempt field worker within one year of the date of this letter (until sometime in 2024) in the State of California. Thiara directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Rosas' and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

The "aggrieved employees" that Mr. Rosas may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of Thiara within the State of California.

Thiara failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Thiara has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Thiara failed to compensate Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. Thiara also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into Mr. Rosas' and other aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, Thiara failed to pay Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee's regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee's total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee's total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, Thiara routinely required Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with Thiara's policies and expectations and fulfill orders. Thiara failed to provide coverage to Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, Thiara failed to authorize and permit Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, Thiara failed to compensate Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." Thiara required Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." Thiara required Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, Thiara failed to pay Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Thiara failed to pay Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, Thiara did not provide Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from Thiara were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, Thiara failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, Thiara did not provide Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Rosas and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Thiara, including for using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work-related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Rosas and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Rosas will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Thiara within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
