1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff David S. Diaz (“Plaintiff”) filed a First Amended Complaint in this Court
4 (“Action”) against Defendants Blaze Pizza Operations, LLC, and Blaze Pizza, LLC (together 5 referred to as “Defendants,” Defendants and Plaintiff together referred to as the “Parties”).
6 Plaintiff alleged claims for failure to pay minimum and overtime wages, failure to provide meal 7 and rest breaks, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to pay final wages, failure to 8 reimburse business expenses, and civil penalties under Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”)

9 After engaging in substantial investigation and extensive negotiations with the assistance 10 of a respected mediator, Hon. Carl J. West (Ret.), the Parties agreed to settle all claims alleged in 11 the Action on a class-wide, non-reversionary basis for $900,000.00, inclusive of all fees and 12 costs. The Parties’ Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement 13 Agreement”) defines the class as “all non-exempt, hourly-paid individuals employed by 14 Defendants in California during the Class Period,” which is the period from May 8, 2020, through 15 June 1, 2025 (“Class” or “Class Members”). All of the approximately 1,165 Class Members will 16 receive a settlement payment unless they opt out of the Class Settlement.

17 The proposed settlement reflected in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and 18 adequate, and in the best interests of the Class. Consequently, Plaintiff, with the consent of 19 Defendants, hereby move this Court for an order: (1) granting preliminary approval of the 20 proposed class action settlement, as embodied in the Settlement Agreement filed concurrently 21 herewith; (2) approving the Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for Final Court 22 Approval (“Class Notice”) to be sent to Class Members; and (3) setting a hearing for final 23 approval of the class action settlement.

24 II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

25 A. Procedural History

26 On May 8, 2024, Plaintiff commenced this Action by filing a Complaint alleging causes 27 of action against Defendant for (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages; (2) Failure to Pay Wages 28 and Overtime Under Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability Labor Code § 226.7; (4) Rest-

1 Break Liability Labor Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226; (6) Violation of Labor 2 Code § 221; (7) Violation of Labor Code § 204; (8) Violation of Labor Code § 203; (9) Failure to 3 Maintain Records Required under Labor Code §§ 1174, 1174.5; (10) Failure to Produce 4 Requested Records, Labor Code §§ 226 And 1198; (11) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business
5 Expenses Under Labor Code § 2802; and (12) Violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200
6 et seq. (Declaration of Enoch J. Kim “Kim Decl.” ¶ 11.)

7 On October 23, 2024, Plaintiff gave notice to the LWDA and Defendant that Plaintiff 8 intended to proceed with a representative action under PAGA (LWDA-CM-1057865-24) pursuant 9 to Labor Code § 2699.3, subd.(a). (Id.) On January 24, 2025, Plaintiff filed the First Amended 10 Complaint, which added claims for penalties under PAGA (“Operative Complaint”). (Id.)

11 B. Investigation

12 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel investigated and researched the facts and 13 circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and the law applicable thereto. (Kim Decl., ¶ 17.) 14 This required thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, as well as 15 preliminary research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.) After conducting their 16 initial investigation, Class Counsel determined that Plaintiff’s claims were well-suited for class 17 and representative action adjudication owing to what appeared to be a common course of conduct 18 affecting a similarly situated group of employees. (Id.)

19 After filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and 20 claims giving rise to the action, including: (1) conducting informal discovery and meeting and 21 conferring with defense counsel about the same; (2) hiring an expert to review and analyze a 22 sampling of time and pay records as well as Plaintiff’s wage statements; (3) researching the 23 applicable law and potential defenses; (4) constructing damage models based on interpretations of 24 California law; and (5) reviewing information provided by Defendants at mediation. (Kim Decl., 25 ¶ 18.) Class Counsel’s expert analysis was informed by a data sample produced by Defendants 26 that is statistically reliable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 19; Gorlick Decl., ¶ 7.)

27 Defendants, for their part, vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, 28 and the propriety of class certification. (Kim Decl., ¶ 20.) After Class Counsel analyzed the 1 relevant documents and other gathered data, Class Counsel believed that this case was appropriate

2 for resolution via mediation. (Id.) Given the high level of risk present for both sides, the Parties
3 elected to mediate Plaintiff's claims and explore the possibility of settlement. (Id.)

4 C. Settlement Efforts

5 On May 7, 2025, the Parties participated in private mediation before Hon. Carl J. West 6 (Ret.) and were able to reach an agreement on general terms. (Kim Decl., ¶ 21.) During 7 mediation, Plaintiff's and Defendants' counsel discussed all aspects of the case, including the 8 risks of litigation and the risks to both parties of proceeding with a motion for class certification 9 as well as the law relating to unpaid wages, meal periods, rest periods, wage statements, and final 10 pay. (Id.) As a result of the mediation, the Parties agreed to settle the lawsuit according to the 11 terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Kim Decl., Exhibit 1.)

12 From Class Counsel's review of the strengths and weaknesses of the case and the risks 13 and delays posed by further litigation, Class Counsel believes that the Settlement is fair and 14 reasonable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 22.) Further, and based on the settlement negotiations, which were 15 extensive and conducted in good faith and at arm's length between attorneys with substantial 16 experience litigating class actions and wage and hour cases, the Settlement Agreement was the 17 product of a non-collusive settlement process in which the Parties were forced to make significant 18 compromises in the interest of reaching a full and complete settlement of the lawsuit. (Id.)

19 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

20 Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Defendants have agreed to pay 21 $900,000.00 as the Gross Settlement Amount on a non-reversionary basis. (Kim Decl., ¶ 23; Exh.
22 1, §3.1.) The Settlement Agreement defines the "Class" as "all non-exempt, hourly-paid 23 individuals employed by Defendants in California during the Class Period," which is the period 24 from May 8, 2020, through June 1, 2025. (Kim Decl., ¶ 24, Exh. 1 §§ 1.5 and 1.12.) The "Net 25 Settlement Amount," available for distribution to Class Members, shall be the Gross Settlement 26 Amount, less the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, 27 Class Representative Service Payment, Individual PAGA Payments, the LWDA PAGA Payment, 28 and the Administration Expenses Payment. (Kim Decl., ¶ 25, Exh. 1, §1.28.). These amounts are 1 detailed as follows:

- 2 • Class Counsel Fees Payment of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, which 3 is currently estimated to be $300,000.00 and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses 4 Payment of actual and reasonable litigation costs and expenses; (Kim Decl., ¶ 25; 5 Exh. 1, §3.2.2);
- 6 • Administration Expenses Payment of not more than $13,090.00 to Apex Class 7 Action Administration (“Apex”) to serve as the Administrator; (Kim Decl., ¶ 25; 8 Exh. 1, §3.2.3);
- 9 • Class Representative Service Payment of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff; and (Kim Decl., 10 ¶ 25; Exh. 1, §3.2.1);
- 11 • PAGA Penalties in the amount of $50,000.00 for civil penalties under PAGA, with 12 65% ($32,500.00) paid to the LWDA for the LWDA PAGA Payment and 35% 13 ($17,500.00) paid to Aggrieved Employees for their Individual PAGA Payments.
14 (Kim Decl., ¶ 25; Exh. 1, §3.2.5.)

15 Defendants shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount, and also fund the amounts 16 necessary to fully pay Defendants’ share of payroll taxes. (Kim Decl., ¶ 23; Exh. 1, § 3.1.)

17 The “Individual Class Payment” is each Participating Class Member’s pro rata share of 18 the Net Settlement Amount calculated according to the number of Workweeks worked during the 19 Class Period. (Kim Decl., ¶ 26; Exh. 1, §1.23.) The “Individual PAGA Payment” means the 20 Aggrieved Employee’s pro rata share of 35% of the PAGA Penalties calculated according to the 21 number of PAGA Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period. (Kim Decl., ¶ 27; Exh. 1, §1.24.)

22 Defendants will pay their employer-side payroll tax obligations on the Wage Portion of 23 the Individual Class Payments in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; 24 Exh. 1, §3.1.) 15% of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be 25 allocated to settlement of wage claims (the “Wage Portion”), and are subject to tax withholding 26 and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form. (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; Exh. 1, § 3.2.4.1.) The remaining 27 85% will be allocated to settlement of claims for interest and penalties (the “Non-Wage Portion”).
28 (Kim Decl., ¶ 28; Exh. 1, § 3.2.4.1.)

1 Class Members will receive the Class Notice via first class mail (after the Settlement 2 Administrator conducts a national change of address search). (Kim Decl., ¶ 30; Exh. 1, §7.4.2.) If 3 the Class Notice is returned as non-deliverable on or before the Response Deadline and a new 4 address is obtained by way of a returned Class Notice, then the Settlement Administrator will 5 promptly forward the original Class Notice to the updated address via first-class regular U.S. mail, 6 indicating on the original packet the date of such re-mailing. (Kim Decl., ¶ 30; Exh. 1, § 7.4.3.) 7 Class Members will have an opportunity to dispute the Workweeks and PAGA Pay Period 8 information provided in their Class Notice and produce evidence to support their contentions. (Kim 9 Decl., ¶ 31; Exh. 1, § 7.6) The Settlement Administrator shall decide the dispute and must 10 encourage the Class Member disputing their credited workweeks to produce supporting 11 documentation in order to resolve the dispute. (Id.)

12 Class Members wishing to opt out from the Settlement Agreement must send a signed 13 written request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator within 45 days from the initial 14 mailing of the Class Notice. (Kim Decl., ¶ 32; Exh. 1, §7.5.1.) Participating Class Members will 15 also have the opportunity to object to the Settlement Agreement by serving a copy of the 16 objection to the Settlement Administrator within 45 days after the mailing of the Class Notice.
17 (Id.; Exh. 1, §7.7.2.)

18 The Parties have also selected Apex Class Action Administration (“Apex”) to handle the 19 notice and administration of the Settlement. (Kim Decl., Exh. 1, § 7.1.) Apex has procedures in 20 place to protect the security of class data, adequate insurance in the event of a data breach or 21 defalcation of funds, and is qualified to administer the Settlement. (Kim Decl., Exh. 3; see also 22 Sutherland Decl.) The procedures for mailing notice and processing exclusions and objections as 23 well as distribution of the Net Settlement Amount are detailed in the Settlement Agreement. (Kim 24 Decl., Exh. 1, §§ 7, 7.1-7.8.5.)

25 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS APPROPRIATE

26 Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage and hour actions as class actions. (Prince 27 v. CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc.
28 (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved

1 in favor of class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. (Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 2 473-75.) The decision to certify a class is a procedural one, and should be based on the allegations 3 in the operative complaint, and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims.
4 (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.)

5 To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for 6 maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-7 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be 8 represented. (See Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab 9 Company (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704.) These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

10 A. There Is A Numerous and Ascertainable Class

11 Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size 12 of the class and the means available for identifying class members. (See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal. 3d 13 at 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego County (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 14 1271.) Class members are “ascertainable” where they may be readily identified without 15 unreasonable expense or time. See Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal. App. 3d 926, 932 (1981) 16 (finding that “class members are ‘ascertainable’ where they may be readily identified without 17 unreasonable expense or time by reference to official records).

18 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant do not dispute for settlement purposes only, this 19 requirement and the requirement of numerosity is met. Class Members are “all non-exempt, 20 hourly-paid individuals employed by Defendants in California during the Class Period,” which is 21 the period from May 8, 2020, through June 1, 2025. (Kim Decl., ¶ 77(a).) Documents and 22 information exchanged between the Parties reflect a class of approximately 1,165 Class Members.
23 (Kim Decl., ¶ 77(a).) The Class Members have already been identified by reference to 24 Defendants’ payroll and personnel records. (Kim Decl., ¶ 77(b).)

25 Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

26 B. There Is A Well-Defined Community of Interest

27 A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and 28 fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

1 [D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each 2 member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of any 3 recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The mere 4 fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself preclude 5 a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as every 6 member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate 7 numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right 8 to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which 9 determined in plaintiff' favor whatever questions were common to 10 the class.

11 Id. at 809.

12 Plaintiff contends, and Defendants do not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 13 common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiff, and the 14 Class is united in its proof. (Kim Decl., ¶ 77(e).) Because Plaintiff has alleged a single scheme, 15 “the relevant proof [does] not vary among class members” and “clearly presents a common 16 question fundamental to all class members.” (See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust 17 Litigation (SDNY 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust 18 Litigation, (SDNY 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518).) California courts show “no hesitancy” in 19 inferring class-wide causation, class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common course 20 of action has been shown. (B.W.I. Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350.) This inference 21 ““eliminates the need for each class member to prove individually the consequences of the 22 defendants’ actions to him or her.”” (Id. at 1351 (quoting Rosack v. Volvo of America Corp (1982) 23 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 753 [emphasis added])).)

24 This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendants’ alleged failure to 25 provide meal and rest periods, failure to pay minimum and overtime wages due to allegedly 26 common and unlawful policies, failure to pay final wages when required, failure to provide 27 accurate written wage statements, failure to indemnify for business expenses, and largely 28 derivative claims under the Business & Professions Code and PAGA. (Kim Decl., ¶ 77(e).)
Plaintiff contends these practices affected Class Members in the same way. (Id.)

29 C. The Named Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical

30 A class representative’s claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, 31 or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their

1 claims rest on the same legal theories. The class representative's claims must be "typical" but not 2 necessarily identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative is 3 similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class members.
4 (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc.
5 (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 ("[I]t has never been the law in California that the class 6 representative must have identical interests with the class members.") Thus it is not necessary that 7 the class representative should have personally incurred all of the damages suffered by each of the 8 other class members. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228.)

9 Plaintiff contends, and Defendants do not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 10 Plaintiff's claims are typical of Class Members' claims because they arose from the same factual 11 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Kim Decl., ¶ 77(c).) Plaintiff was employed by 12 Defendants during the Class Period and subject to the allegedly unlawful meal and rest break 13 policies and pay practices at issue in this litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is a member of the 14 Class. (Id.) The central issues of this litigation (whether Defendant failed to pay all wages, 15 whether Defendants failed to provide meal and rest periods, etc.) which would arise if this were 16 an individual action brought by Plaintiff, apply to the other Class Members as well. (Id.) Thus, 17 the claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class. (Id.)

18 D. Adequacy of Class Counsel and Class Representative

19 Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their clients zealously 20 and have no conflicts of interest. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 3-8, 77(d).) The Class Representative's interests 21 are aligned with those of Class Members, he has suffered the same injuries as Class Members, 22 and has no conflicts of interest. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel and the Class Representative are 23 adequate.

24 E. Predominance and Superiority

25 Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the class. (Kim Decl., ¶77(f).) 26 The class action mechanism is superior to individualized actions because Class Members have 27 little incentive to bring claims that are small. (Id.)
28

V. THE TWO-STEP APPROVAL PROCESS

Any settlement of class action litigation must be reviewed and approved by the Court. This is accomplished in two steps: (1) An early (preliminary) review by the trial court, and (2) a detailed review after the notice has been distributed to the class members for their comments or objections. In this regard, the Manual for Complex Litigation (Second) explains:

A two-step process is followed when considering class settlements... If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representative or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then the court should direct that notice be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing, at which evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.

(Manual for Complex Litigation (Second) (1985) at § 30.44.) The preliminary approval of the class action settlement by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements. (See, e.g., Newberg, § 11.25; North County Contractor's Assn., Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Services (1994) 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1094-95.) Thus, the preliminary approval of the class action settlement by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements.

Settlements to resolve PAGA claims also require court approval. (Labor Code § 2699(1)(2).) There is no articulated standard for approving PAGA settlements. PAGA settlements for as little as $0 have been approved. (See Nordstrom Com'n Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 589 (approving PAGA settlement and release that allocated $0 to PAGA claim).) Courts have also approved settlements for $20,000 or less. (See, e.g., Hicks v. Toys 'R' Us-Delaware, Inc., (C.D. Cal. Sept. 2, 2014) 2014 WL 4703915, at *1 (approving $5,000 PAGA payment in $4 million settlement); Chu v. Wells Fargo Invest. LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 WL 672645, at *1 (approving PAGA payment of $7,500 in $6.9 million settlement); Williams v. Brinderson Constructors (C.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2017) 2017 WL 490901, at *5 ($10,000 PAGA settlement in $300,000 settlement).)

A review of the preliminary approval criteria demonstrates a substantial basis for granting the instant Motion and proceeding to a final settlement approval hearing.

VI. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND ADEQUATE

As a matter of public policy, courts both encourage the use of the class action device and favor settlement over continued litigation. (See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system.”); Class Plaintiff v. City of Seattle (1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class action litigation is concerned.”).)

Moreover, courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement unless evidence to the contrary is offered. In short, there is a presumption that the negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Newberg, §11.51; Rodriguez v. West Publ. Corp. (C.D. Cal. August 10, 2007) 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767, 24-25 ; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447.) Courts do not substitute their judgment for that of the proponents, particularly when settlement has been reached by experienced counsel familiar with the litigation. (Rodriguez, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767 at 24; Hammon v. Barry (D.D.C. 1990) 752 F. Supp. 1087.)

In Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 128 (2008), the court laid out several factors that should be analyzed in determining if a class action settlement should be approved. These factors include: (1) the strength of plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status through trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.

The Settlement here satisfies each of these factors. Class Counsel conducted extensive informal discovery before entering into meaningful settlement negotiations in this matter, including a detailed analysis of Defendants’ sampling of time and pay records as well as Plaintiff’s wage statements. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 17-21.) This discovery permitted Class Counsel to fairly evaluate the strengths of the case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation. Class Counsel is very experienced in the handling of wage and hour class actions and supports this

1 Settlement. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 3-8.)

2 A. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case.

3 Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to pay wages (minimum, straight, and overtime), 4 failed to provide meal and rest breaks or pay premiums, failed to furnish accurate wage 5 statements, unlawfully collected wages from Class Members, failed to timely pay wages 6 including final wages, and failed to reimburse necessary business expenses, failed to maintain or 7 produce records, and largely derivative claims under the Unfair Competition Law ("UCL"). (Kim 8 Decl., ¶ 12.) Plaintiff seeks related violations of California's Business & Professions Code, and 9 penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699 et seq. (Id.)

10 Class Counsel felt confident that the claims in this case would be certified given that 11 Defendants' policies were applicable to all Class Members and unlawful. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 33-58.)
12 Defendants contended, however, that their policies complied with California law and denied 13 Plaintiff's allegations.

14 B. The Risks Associated with the Merits.

15 As with all litigation, there are risks that a party will not prevail on the merits. In this case, 16 Plaintiff contended that Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members proper minimum 17 wages for all hours worked and proper overtime wages for hours worked in excess of eight hours 18 in a day and 40 hours a week. (Kim Decl., ¶ 37.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Plaintiff and 19 Class Members were required to work off-the clock due to the work demands placed upon them 20 by Defendants' management and customers during breaks and beyond their scheduled shifts.
21 (Kim Decl., ¶ 38.) Furthermore, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants also failed to include all forms 22 of remuneration in the regular rate of pay used to calculate and pay overtime. (Id.)

23 Defendants contended that they paid for all reported hours worked, that they instructed 24 Class Members to record all hours worked, that any off-the-clock work performed was without 25 Defendants' knowledge and de minimis, and that they paid proper minimum and overtime wages.
26 (Id.) Defendants argued that given their written policies and practices, any unrecorded hours were 27 likely subject to individualized inquiry and unlikely to be certified. Given the difficulty in 28 certifying this claim, Class Counsel had to apply a significant discount to damages based on this

1 theory. (Id.)

2 Plaintiff also contended that Defendants did not provide timely and uninterrupted meal 3 breaks to Class Members, and failed to pay premium wages at applicable regular rates of pay in 4 lieu thereof. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 41-46.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleged that Plaintiff and Class 5 Members' meal periods were systematically interrupted by work duties. (Id.) On the occasions 6 when Defendants did pay any meal period premiums, Plaintiff alleges that the meal period 7 premiums were not paid at the proper regular rate of pay. (Id.)

8 Defendants disagreed with Class Counsel's interpretation of the law and facts. (Kim Decl., 9 ¶ 42.) Defendants contended that Class Members were given a reasonable opportunity to take 10 their meal periods, and in fact received their meal periods most of the time. (Id.) Defendants 11 argued they have a high meal period compliance rate and paid meal period premiums when meal 12 periods were not provided. (Id.) Given Defendants' defenses and potential hurdles facing 13 certification of this claim, Class Counsel had to apply a significant discount on this theory. (Id.)

14 Plaintiff also contended that the same argument applied to rest breaks. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 44-15 46.) Plaintiff contended that Defendants did not provide Class Members with paid 10-minute rest 16 breaks for every four hours or major fraction thereof. (Id.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleged that Class 17 Members were often required to work during rest periods, including by responding to work 18 requirements. (Id.) Plaintiff alleged that Class Members were also not permitted to leave their 19 work premises during rest breaks. (Id.)

20 Defendants maintained that they did provide the reasonable opportunity for Class 21 Members to take duty-free rest breaks. (Kim Decl., ¶ 45.) Defendants also pointed out that, unlike 22 meal periods, rest breaks need not be recorded, so any rest break violations would likely be 23 difficult to prove at trial and difficult to certify. (Id.) Defendants dispute all allegations that breaks 24 were not received. (Id.) As these considerations would likely depress the damages vel non 25 ultimately awarded, Class Counsel applied significant and appropriate discounts to the rest-break 26 claim. (Id.)

27 C. The Risks Associated with Paystub Violations and Waiting Time Penalties.

28 In order to establish liability for these penalties, Plaintiff would first have to establish

1 liability for the underlying claims. Plaintiff would then have to establish that Defendants' conduct
2 was willful and knowing. (Labor Code §§ 203, 226(e).)

3 With waiting time penalties, there is always the risk that the trier of fact would not have 4 held that Defendants' actions were done "willfully." A good faith belief in a legal defense can 5 preclude a finding of willfulness. (Gonzalez v. Downtown LA Motors (2013) 215 Cal.App.4th 36, 6 54; 8 C.C.R. § 13520.) As discussed above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to pay for all 7 hours worked and premiums for non-compliant meal breaks due to the underreporting of hours 8 and off the clock work. Plaintiff contends the Class Members are entitled to these wages and 9 premiums, which they allege were not paid at the time of their termination or resignation. If 10 Plaintiff is successful on their claims, the penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 shall attach.
11 Defendants, however, contend they provided employees with the reasonable opportunity to take 12 meal breaks, asked Class Members to confirm the accuracy of their time records, and therefore 13 had good-faith defenses under Brinker and its progeny. Defendants likewise contend that they 14 properly paid all hours worked by its employees. Based upon Defendants' potential success in 15 establishing both that a good faith dispute existed with regard to unpaid wages, and Defendants 16 endeavored in good faith to supply accurate wage statements, Defendants argue the claims for 17 paystub violations and waiting time penalties have little or no value. See Maldonado v. Epsilon 18 Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal. App. 5th 1308, 1336-1337 (2018) (wage statements that accurately report 19 wages paid to employees do not violate Labor Code § 226, even if it is later determined that 20 employer did not properly pay all wages due). As such, there was risk associated with wage 21 statement and waiting time penalties that Class Counsel had to consider. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 47-53.)

22 D. The Risks Associated with the PAGA Penalties.

23 Labor Code § 2699.3 gives aggrieved employees the right to recover civil penalties for 24 specific Labor Code violations by way of a civil action. The PAGA provides a penalty amount of 25 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 26 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 27 violation. Labor Code § 2699(e)(2). However, if a civil penalty is provided in a specified amount 28 by the Labor Code section relating to the underlying alleged Labor Code violation, that amount

1 shall apply. (Id.) The PAGA also gives the Court discretion to award any lesser amount than the 2 maximum civil penalty. (Id. [“...a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil 3 penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular 4 case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 5 confiscatory.”]); See, e.g., Lopez v. Friant & Assocs., LLC, 15 Cal. App. 5th 773, 788 (2017), rev.
6 denied (2018), (recognizing court’s ability to reduce PAGA penalties). Courts have held that 7 situations similar to the current one (e.g. injuryless violations, technical errors, and substantial 8 compliance) should lead to reductions in penalties. See Thurman v. Bayshore Transit 9 Management, Inc., 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112, 1134-1135 (2012) (holding that reduction was 10 justified when employer “attempted to comply with the law”); Fleming v. Covdien, Inc., No. ED 11 CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 154590 at *8-9 (C.D. Cal. August 12, 2011) 12 (reducing PAGA penalties more than 80% – from $2.8 million to $500,000 – when “employees 13 suffered no injury” employers were “not aware” of the violation and “took prompt steps to correct 14 all violations once notified”). Additionally, the amended PAGA statute (applicable here) applies 15 mandatory discounts of up to 85% when a defendant establishes that it took “all reasonable steps” 16 to comply with Labor Code obligations. (Labor Code § 2699(g)). Defendants argued that due to 17 their lawful and compliant policies, trainings, and audits, they would be entitled to PAGA’s 18 mandatory discounts. (Kim Decl., ¶ 56.)

19 Plaintiff discounted potential penalties under this claim given this authority, and for 20 reasons already discussed. The PAGA claims are premised on the same underlying unpaid wages, 21 meal and rest break, wage statement, and waiting time claims, and thus subject to the same 22 disputes and defenses. There is also a dispute as to whether violations in later pay periods trigger 23 the $200 penalty under PAGA as a “subsequent violation.” (Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 24 Cal. App. 4th 1157, 1203 (2008).) As such, there is a fair amount of risk associated with PAGA 25 claims makes the settlement’s proposed PAGA payment of $50,000 appropriate. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 26 54-57.)

27 E. The Risk, Expense, Complexity and Likely Duration of Any Litigation.

28 Given the risks outlined above, the issues in this case were complex and the risk for

1 Plaintiff and Class Members associated with this litigation was significant. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 61-64.) 2 A class trial would have required the retention of expensive expert witnesses, the accrual of 3 extensive litigation costs, and the parties would have had to spend a substantial amount of time
4 litigating this matter. (Id.)

5 Finally, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues, it is likely that any 6 outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal would result in 7 further delay for Class Members who will have already waited considerable time for resolution in 8 this matter.

9 F. The Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial.

10 In class actions, decertification is always a possibility. There is always a risk that a trial of 11 this magnitude can become unmanageable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 61-64.) Given cases like Duran v. U.S.
12 Bank Nat. Assn., 59 Cal. 4th 1, 34 (2014) that deal with the complexity of using statistical 13 samples in class actions, decertification is a real risk that Class Counsel must take into account.

14 G. The Amount Offered in Settlement.

15 There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-16 collusive, and arms-length negotiations between the parties with an experienced mediator. In 17 order to determine the approximate potential damages which would be owed to each of the Class 18 Members, Class Counsel analyzed the time records for Plaintiff and Defendant provided Class 19 Counsel with records for a sampling of Class Members. By analyzing this information, Class 20 Counsel was able to estimate the full value of the case if Plaintiff were to prevail at trial. (Kim 21 Decl., ¶¶ 17-22.)

22 Based on the data provided, Class Counsel estimated the realistic exposure on the primary 23 claims in this case as follows: unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims at $110,806.40, meal 24 period claim at $178,893.60, rest period claim at $487,094.86, wage statement claim at 25 $121,225.00, waiting time penalties at $228,216.90, and on PAGA at $95,590.00, for a total 26 realistic maximum exposure of $1,221,826.76. (Kim Decl., ¶ 35.)

27 The Gross Settlement Amount of $900,000.00 represents a recovery for the Class of 28 approximately 74% of the total realistic exposure Plaintiff estimated that Defendants could face

1 on the primary claims in this case. (Kim Decl., ¶ 60.) Plaintiff and Class Counsel submit that this 2 is an excellent result in the face of uncertainty and the prospects of protracted and contested 3 litigation through class certification, summary judgment, and trial, and particularly in light of all 4 of the factors described above. (Id.)

5 Class Counsel believes that the settlement is fair and reasonable and serves the best 6 interests of Class Members. Although the recommendations of counsel proposing the class 7 settlement are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, 8 particularly if counsel has been involved in litigation for some period of time, appear to be 9 competent, and have experience with this type of litigation, and significant discovery has been 10 completed. See Newberg, §11.47.

11 VII. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS FAIR AND 12 REASONABLE

13 It is appropriate to provide a relatively modest additional incentive payment to the class 14 representative. See Newberg, § 12.1; Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 15 F.Supp. 294.

16 Plaintiff is entitled to a reasonable service payment for his efforts and initiative in 17 bringing and helping to prosecute this class action. (Kim Decl., ¶ 72.) Plaintiff spent significant 18 time better apprising himself of his rights, deciding whether remedial action should be taken, how 19 it should be taken, searching for attorneys, and contacting Class Counsel, who spent many hours 20 with Plaintiff discussing the case and the law. (Id.) In the end, Plaintiff decided to vindicate not 21 only their own rights but also those of their co-workers by filing a class action lawsuit. (Id.)

22 The courage it took to stand up to Defendants by filing and litigating this action in this 23 way should not be underestimated. (Kim Decl., ¶ 73.) By suing Defendants, Plaintiff increased 24 the risk of retaliation by prospective employers. (Id.) But Plaintiff did not allow his fear of the 25 potential repercussions of being a class representative deter them from acting for the benefit of 26 Class Members. (Kim Decl., ¶ 74.) To the contrary, Plaintiff has been intimately involved in this 27 case since its inception. (Id.) He has devoted a substantial amount of time to helping Class 28 Counsel effectively develop and prosecute this action at every stage of the litigation. (Id.) Both

1 before and after the filing of this lawsuit, Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel on numerous 2 occasions to discuss every aspect of their case. (Id.) Plaintiff provided Class Counsel with 3 information about Defendants and about the industry generally, reviewed documents, identified 4 witnesses, consulted Class Counsel throughout the litigation repeatedly and at length, participated 5 in the mediation process, monitored the progress of the litigation with Class Counsel, and 6 reviewed and signed the Settlement Agreement. (Id.)

7 In sum, Plaintiff has diligently, adequately, and fairly represented Class Members, and 8 have not placed their interests above any member of the putative class. (Kim Decl., ¶ 75.) This 9 sort of payment to a class representative has been a common feature of settlements negotiated by 10 Class Counsel and has been routinely approved by trial courts. (Id.)

11 The Settlement allocates an incentive award in the amount of $10,000.00 to the Class 12 Representative. (Kim Decl., ¶ 25.) This amount is a far cry from the $50,000 of enhancement 13 awards to the two named plaintiffs approved by the trial court in Clark. See Clark Clark v.
14 American Residential Services, LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th at 807. Although Class Counsel 15 appreciate that the Court has a duty to ensure that class representatives are not overcompensated 16 at the expense of the class, modest incentive awards in employment class actions, such as the one 17 here, are necessary not only to compensate class representatives for the time they spend in the 18 case, but also, and more importantly, to encourage aggrieved employees to challenge questionable 19 employment practices notwithstanding the very real consequences they may face.

20 In light of the foregoing, Class Counsel believes that the incentive award in the amount of 21 $10,000.00 to Class Representative is fair and reasonable. (Kim Decl., ¶ 76.)

22 VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE PROVIDES ADEQUATE NOTICE TO THE 23 CLASS MEMBERS.

24 Constitutional due process requires that class members be provided with notice sufficient 25 to give them an opportunity to be heard in the proceedings. Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank &
26 Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306. Proper notice must provide the class members with sufficient 27 information to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement. (Id.
28 at 314.) The notice must apprise the class members of the pendency of the action; reasonably

1 convey information regarding the settlement and the class members' rights, entitlements, and 2 obligations; and afford class members the opportunity to present their objections. (Id.)

3 The Class Notice meets constitutional standards because it provides all the information a 4 reasonable person would need to make a fully informed decision about the settlement. It will 5 notify all class members of the terms of the settlement, of its effect on their rights, of their options 6 as class members (i.e., participate, object, opt out, do nothing), and of the consequences of 7 exercising those options. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 65-67.) Moreover, the Class Notice will specifically 8 direct any Class Members who have questions or concerns to contact the Settlement
9 Administrator or Class Counsel. (Id.)

10 The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether the notice has "a 11 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members." (Cartt v. Superior 12 Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 974.) The Judicial Council of California's Deskbook on the 13 Management of Complex Civil Litigation (Matthew Bender 2003), § 3.74 notes that individual 14 notice by mail is preferred when possible and dissemination of combined certification/settlement 15 notice is a common and accepted practice. (In re Vitamin Cases (2003) 107 Cal.App.4th 820, 16 828.)

17 Here, the Class Notice will be sent via first-class mail to each Class Member. (Kim Decl., 18 ¶¶ 30, 65.) If any Class Notices are returned undeliverable without a forwarding address, the 19 Settlement Administrator will use the national change of address database and perform a skip 20 trace to locate the Class Member and mail a new Class Notice to him or her at the correct address.
21 (Id.) Thus, most, if not all, Class Members will likely receive the Class Notice.

22 Pursuant to controlling authority, the proposed Class Notice and method of distribution 23 fully comport with due process requirements. Therefore, the Court should approve the Class 24 Notice and direct that it be distributed as proposed herein.

25 IX. STANDING TO OBJECT TO PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

26 Non-settling parties and third parties periodically may attempt to object to proposed class 27 action settlements, but the right of non-settling parties to object at the final settlement approval 28 hearing, let alone the preliminary approval hearing, is quite limited. As a general rule, only class

1 members have standing to object to a proposed settlement. “Beginning from the unassailable 2 premise that settlements are to be encouraged, it follows that to routinely allow non-class 3 members to inject their concerns via objection at the settlement stage would tend to frustrate this 4 goal.” (Gould v. Alleco, Inc. (4th Cir. 1998) 883 F.2d 281, 284.) Since an application is being 5 filed to obtain a good faith determination, no persons other than class members have standing to 6 object to the proposed settlement. (In re School Asbestos Litigation (3rd Cir. 1990) 921 F.2d 7 1330.)

8 X. THE STIPULATED AWARD OF ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS IS 9 REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

10 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to approval by this Court, Class Counsel will 11 seek an award of fees of $300,000.00, one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and reasonable 12 litigation costs and expenses incurred in to prosecute this Action. (Kim Decl. ¶ 69.) The requested 13 fees are fair compensation for a law firm involved in undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and 14 time-consuming litigation solely on a contingent basis. (Kim Decl. ¶¶ 69-70.) Defendants will not 15 oppose Class Counsel’s above fees and cost request. (Kim Decl. ¶ 69.)

16 Here, Class Counsel has borne the entire risk and costs of litigation and will not receive 17 any compensation until recovery is obtained. (Kim Decl., ¶¶ 69-71.) The Court should also 18 consider the benefit obtained by Class Counsel on behalf of Class Members. Thus, the requested 19 award for Class Counsel is reasonable.

20 XI. ACTION REQUESTED AS A PART OF THE MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY 21 APPROVAL

22 The parties respectfully request this Court, as part of the preliminary approval process, to 23 grant the following relief and make the following orders:

- 24 1. Approve the Settlement Agreement;
- 25 2. Approve the Class Notice, attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A;
- 26 3. Consider and determine that the proposed class action settlement as set forth in the 27 Settlement Agreement preliminarily appears fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- 28 4. Enter an order conditionally certifying the action as a class action for settlement purposes only and preliminarily approving the proposed class action settlement and the

1 Settlement Agreement;

2 5. Approve and appoint Emil Davtyan, David Yeremian, Alvin B. Lindsay, Enoch J. Kim, 3 and Norayr Zakaryan of D.Law, Inc. to serve as Class Counsel for settlement purposes;

4 6. Approve and appoint Apex Class Action Administration (“Apex”) as the Settlement 5 Administrator to handle the notice and claims procedures as set forth in the Settlement 6 Agreement;

7 7. Approve the proposed settlement’s allocation of funds to claims made under PAGA;

8 8. Order Defendants to disclose to Apex the names, last-known addresses, telephone 9 numbers, Social Security numbers, start and end dates of active employment as a non-exempt 10 employee of Defendant in the State of California, and any other information required by the 11 Settlement Administrator to effectuate the terms of the Settlement;

12 9. Order that Apex mail the Class Notices to Class Members; and 13 10. Set a date for the Final Approval Hearing.
