1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Under Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff seeks approval of the Settlement
4 Agreement entered between Plaintiff and Defendant Snowdrop Holdings, LLC (“Defendant”).
5 Plaintiff entered the Settlement Agreement on behalf of herself and all current and former hourly-
6 paid or non-exempt employees who worked for Defendant within the State of California at any 7 time during the period from October 23, 2023, through December 20, 2025.

8 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

9 On October 23, 2024, Plaintiff provided a written notice to the California Labor and 10 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant. On December 27, 2024, Plaintiff
11 filed a representative Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) action against Defendant.¹

12 On October 21, 2025, the Parties participated in mediation that eventually resulted in the 13 settlement of this matter via a mediator’s proposal.²

14 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

15 A. Allocation of the Gross Settlement Amount

16 The Settlement Agreement provides that Defendant will pay a non-reversionary Gross
17 Settlement Amount of $169,999. The PAGA Penalties Fund will be the Gross Settlement Amount
18 less the following payments: (1) Plaintiff’s Counsel Fees Payment of $59,499.65; (2) Plaintiff’s
19 Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment of $18,282.93; (3) Service Payment of $10,000; and (4)
20 Administration Expenses Payment of $6,000.³

27 ² (Id. at ¶¶ 11-15.)

28 ³ (Settlement Agreement attached as Exhibit 2 to the Declaration of Douglas Han (“Settlement Agreement”), §§ 7(a), 7(b).) 9

1 The current amount of the PAGA Penalties Fund is estimated to be $76,216.42. Sixty-five
2 percent (65%) of the PAGA Penalties Fund will be transmitted to the LWDA as the LWDA
3 Payment pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(m). The remaining thirty-five percent (35%) of 4 the PAGA Penalties Fund will be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees.⁴

5 B. Distribution of the PAGA Penalties Fund

6 No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall provide 7 the Administrator with a list of the Aggrieved Employees. The Gross Settlement Amount will be 8 deposited into a Qualified Settlement Fund created by the Administrator and will be disbursed to 9 the appropriate entities and persons in the manner and timeline set forth in the Agreement. The 10 uncashed settlement checks will be directed to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property
11 Fund in the name of the employee.⁵

12 C. The Scope of the Release

13 Upon Defendant's funding of the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, LWDA, and 14 Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their former and present
15 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released
16 Parties from all the claims for the PAGA penalties that were alleged, or could have been alleged,
17 based on the facts stated in the operative complaint and PAGA Notice and that occurred during 18 the PAGA Period.⁶ (Arias v. Sup. Ct. (2009) 46 Cal.4th 969, 980, 986 [a plaintiff suing under 19 PAGA "does so as the proxy or agent of the state's labor law enforcement agencies," and, as 20 such, "represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement agencies ..."].)
21 A judgment in a PAGA action "binds not only that [plaintiff] employee but also the state labor
22 law enforcement agencies." (Ibid.) Furthermore, "[b]ecause an aggrieved employee's action
23 under [PAGA] functions as a substitute for an action brought by the government itself, a judgment 24 in that action binds all those, including nonparty aggrieved employees, who would be bound by 25 a judgment in an action brought by the government." (Ibid.) "Accordingly, with respect to the

1 recovery of civil penalties, nonparty employees as well as the government are bound by the
2 judgment in an action brought under [PAGA]” (Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 46 Cal.4th at p. 986.)

3 D. No Right to Object to or Opt Out of the Settlement

4 “[A] PAGA action is a statutory action for penalties brought as a proxy for the state ...
5 there is no need to protect absent employees’ due process rights[.]” (Williams v. Sup. Ct. (2017)
6 3 Cal.5th 531, 546.) “Unnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do
7 they have the ability to opt-out of the representative PAGA claim.” (Ochoa-Hernandez v.
8 CJADERS Foods, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010), 2010 WL 3570777, at *5.) “PAGA does not 9 make other potentially aggrieved employees parties” and no “due process concerns arise under 10 PAGA because absent employees do not own a personal claim for PAGA civil penalties and 11 whatever personal claims the absent employees might have for relief are not at stake.” (Williams, 12 at pp. 546-547 (internal references omitted, citing Amalgamated Transit Union, Local 1756, AFL-
13 CIO v. Sup. Ct. (2009) 46th Cal.4th 993, 1003 and Iskanian v. CLS Trans. Los Angeles, LLC, 14 (2014) 58 Cal.4th 348, 381.)) “[A]bsent fellow employees will be bound by the outcome of any 15 PAGA action[.]” (Williams, at p. 548 (internal references omitted, citing Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 16 46 Cal.4th at pp. 980-981; Fireside Bank v. Sup. Ct. (2007) 40 Cal.4th 1069, 1074 and Richmond
17 v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal, 3d 462, 474.)

18 Consistent with the law, the Settlement Agreement does not have a procedure for the 19 Aggrieved Employees to object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement.

20 IV. STANDARD FOR APPROVAL OF PAGA SETTLEMENT

21 PAGA allows an “aggrieved employee” to bring a civil action on behalf of themselves, other
22 aggrieved employees, and State of California to recover civil penalties with respect to provisions
23 of the Labor Code that do not provide for civil penalties. Before bringing a civil action under 24 PAGA, an employee must comply with Labor Code section 2699.3. (Lab. Code, § 2699(a).) A 25 court “may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil penalty amount ... if, based on the 26 facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is 27 unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Id. at § 2699(e)(2).)

28 ///

1 The settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. (Lab. Code, § 2699(s)(2).) “A
2 PAGA claim asserted on a non-class representative basis . . . is not considered a class action but
3 a law enforcement action” and does not have to meet the requirements of a class action. (Casida
4 v. Sears Holdings Corp. (E.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2012) 2012 WL 253217, at *3; Thomas v. Aetna
5 Health of Cal., Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 2, 2011) 2011 WL 2173715, at *11; Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra,
6 46 Cal.4th at pp. 980-988 (affirming lower court’s holding that “plaintiff need not satisfy class
7 action requirements” to assert a PAGA claim); Pedroza v PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2013)
8 2013 WL 1490667, at *15.) A court’s review of a PAGA settlement involves analysis of several 9 unique features that render the approval process distinct from approval of a class action
10 settlement. A court reviewing a PAGA settlement only needs to “ensur[e] that a negotiated 11 resolution is fair to those affected.” (Williams v. Sup. Ct., supra, 3 Cal.5th at p. 549 (citing Lab.
12 Code, § 2699(s)(2)).) The Court of Appeal has held that “a trial court should evaluate a PAGA
13 settlement to determine whether it is fair, reasonable, and adequate in view of PAGA’s purposes
14 to remediate present labor law violations, deter future ones, and to maximize enforcement of state
15 labor laws.” (Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, 77.)

16 The court’s focus is on whether the total settlement amount achieves PAGA’s objectives.
17 PAGA’s purpose “to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that 18 otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement
19 agencies.” (Ochoa-Hernandez, supra, 2010 WL 3570777, at *4 (citing Arias v. Sup. Ct., supra, 20 46 Cal.4th at p. 986).) The penalties recovered under PAGA are, in part, to “be distributed to the 21 [LWDA] for enforcement of labor laws . . . and for education of employers and employees about 22 their rights and responsibilities under this code, to be continuously appropriated to supplement
23 and not supplant the funding to the agency for those purposes.” (Lab. Code, § 2699(n).)

24 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND SHOULD BE APPROVED.

25 A. The Factors Giving Rise to a Presumption of Fairness Exist.

26 A settlement agreement that is “the product of extensive and hard-fought adversarial 27 negotiations between the parties” is entitled to a presumption of fairness. (Wershba v. Apple
28 Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 245.)

1 The Court should give considerable weight to the competency, experience, and opinion
2 of counsel and the involvement of a neutral mediator in assuring that the settlement is a product
3 of hard-fought negotiations that were entered without collusion. (Kirkorian v. Borelli (N.D. Cal.
4 1988) 695 F.Supp. 446, 451 (opinion of experienced counsel is entitled to considerable weight);
5 Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D. Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 616-617, 622 (recommendations of 6 Plaintiff's Counsel should be given a presumption of reasonableness); see also Satchell v. Fed.
7 Express Corp. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2007) 2007 WL 1114010, at *4 (stating the "assistance of an 8 experienced mediator in the settlement process confirms that the settlement is non-collusive").)
9 The Settlement Agreement is presumptively fair. This is because the Settlement Agreement: (1) 10 is the product of non-collusive, arm's-length negotiations; (2) was negotiated by counsel with 11 experience in similar wage-and-hour litigation; and (3) occurred after the Parties' counsel
12 engaged in investigation of the strengths of this case and risks of continued litigation.

13 B. The Relative Strength of the PAGA Claim and Range of Possible Outcomes.

14 Defendant maintained that it had compliant employment policies and practices throughout
15 the statutory period. If this case had not been settled, Defendant would have challenged Plaintiff's
16 standing as an Aggrieved Employee and denied that the other employees were aggrieved.
17 Defendant also argued that the Court was unlikely to assess cumulative penalties for the 18 maximum number of possible separate Labor Code violations because the "subsequent violation"
19 theory of PAGA recovery would not be triggered in this case, and it would be unjust, arbitrary,
20 oppressive, and/or confiscatory. (See e.g. Bernstein v. Virgin Am., Inc. (9th Cir. 2021) 3 F.4th 21 1127, 1144.) Defendant asserted that the PAGA penalties are not mandatory but permissive and 22 discretionary and maintained that it had a strong argument that it would be unjust to award the 23 maximum PAGA penalties. (Thurman v. Bayshore Transit Mgmt., Inc. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 24 1112 [reducing penalties by 30% under this authority].)⁷

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28 ⁷ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 19-22.)

1 The provisions of the Labor Code triggering the PAGA penalties include, but are not
2 limited to, Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246,
3 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802. For 4 Plaintiff to recover civil penalties, Plaintiff must prove the underlying Labor Code violations with 5 respect to the Aggrieved Employees and show that Defendant's conduct gave rise to penalties.
6 (See e.g. Elliot v. Spherion Pac. Work, LLC (C.D. Cal. 2008) 572 F.Supp.2d 1169, 1181-1182.)⁸

7 Plaintiff alleges that the PAGA penalties could be approximately $34,500 (345 employees
8 x $100 penalty for initial violation) on the low end and approximately $207,000 (345 employees
9 x $100 penalty for initial violation x 6 theories of recovery) on the high end. But Plaintiff
10 recognized the risk that any PAGA award could be reduced, meaning that the Gross Settlement
11 Amount for the PAGA penalties was reasonable and significant. When the PAGA penalties are 12 negotiated in good faith and "there is no indication that [the] amount was the result of self-interest
13 at the expense of other Class Members," such amounts are generally considered reasonable.
14 (Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009) No. 08-00844, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS
15 33900 at *24; see e.g. Nordstrom Com. Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 579 ("[T]rial court 16 did not abuse its discretion in approving a settlement which does not allocate any damages to the 17 PAGA claims."))⁹

18 C. The Settlement Avoids Risky, Complex, and Lengthy Litigation.

19 The courts favor voluntary conciliation and settlement of complex litigation. (Class 20 Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle (9th Cir. 1992) 955 F.2d 1268, 1276.) Generally, "unless the settlement
21 is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and expensive
22 litigation with uncertain results." (Nat'l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc. (C.D. Cal.
23 Jan. 5, 2004) 221 F.R.D. 523, 526 (citation omitted).)

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

27 ⁸ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 23.)

28 ⁹ (Id. at ¶ 24-27.)

Both sides used pre-mediation time to investigate the veracity, strength, and scope of the PAGA claim. The Parties engaged in discovery and exchanged documents and data to mediate the claims relevant to the Labor Code violations and applicable defenses thereto and to determine the potential value and strength of the PAGA claim. Plaintiff's Counsel believed that it would be best to pursue a settlement rather than take the risky and uncertain trial route. Even if the Parties had managed to negotiate a similar settlement later, it would have been severely undercut by the additional costs and expenses incurred. In other words, the Settlement offers immediate recovery rather than only the possibility of recovery at some indeterminate later date.¹⁰

D. The Settlement Is Fair, Adequate, and Reasonable.

"[T]he very essence of a settlement is compromise, 'a yielding of absolutes and an abandoning of highest hopes.'" (Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n (9th Cir. 1981) 688 F.2d 615, 624.) "The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators." (Id. at p. 625.)

The Settlement Agreement provides a reasonable monetary benefit to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees. The proposed plan of allocation of the PAGA Penalties Fund to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees also fully complies with Labor Code section 2699(m). Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel recognize the expense, length, risk, and uncertainty of continued proceedings necessary to litigate this dispute. To recover civil penalties, Plaintiff would have to prove that the Aggrieved Employees suffered from the underlying Labor Code violations and that Defendant's conduct gave rise to penalties, which could take several months, or even years, to prove. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel also considered Defendant's agreement to enter a settlement that confers reasonable relief. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel determined that the Settlement Agreement represents a fair, adequate, and reasonable resolution.¹¹

¹¹ (Id. at ¶¶ 19-22, 38.)

1 E. Experience and Views of Plaintiff’s Counsel Favor Settlement Approval.

2 Plaintiff’s Counsel are experienced in complex representative and class action wage-and-
3 hour litigation. Plaintiff’s Counsel believe that the benefit offered by the Settlement is fair and 4 reasonable and in the best interests of the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees.¹²

5 VI. APPROVAL OF THE PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL FEES PAYMENT.

6 A. A Fee Award of Percentage of the Entire Fund is Appropriate.

7 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of Plaintiff’s Counsel Fees Payment
8 of $59,499.65 (35% of the Gross Settlement Amount) to Plaintiff’s Counsel. The Plaintiff’s
9 Counsel Fees Payment is commensurate with the: (1) risks taken by Plaintiff’s Counsel; (2) time,
10 effort, and expense dedicated by Plaintiff’s Counsel; (3) skills and determination shown by 11 Plaintiff’s Counsel; (4) value achieved by Plaintiff’s Counsel; and (5) other cases turned down
12 by Plaintiff’s Counsel. Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel have been awarded at least thirty-five 13 percent (35%) fee requests or more in similar class action and representative matters throughout
14 the State of California.¹³

15 The propriety of calculating and awarding attorneys’ fees as a percentage of a monetary
16 fund preserved or recovered for the benefit of others has been confirmed by the California
17 Supreme Court. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 486, 506.) While trial 18 courts have discretion to apply either a lodestar method or percentage of-the-fund method, the 19 California Supreme Court has taken the position trial courts “retain the discretion to forgo a 20 lodestar cross-check and use other means to evaluate the reasonableness of a requested percentage
21 fee[.]” and “[t]he percentage of fund method survives in California.” (Ibid. (internal quotes
22 omitted); see also Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., supra, 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 253.)

23 The percentage fee method is preferred in representative actions because “it better 24 approximates the workings of the marketplace than the lodestar approach.” (Lealao v. Beneficial
25 Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 49.) California law provides that the award for attorneys’
26 fees should be equivalent to fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace and paid in comparable

27 ¹² (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 2-7; Exhibit 1.)

28 ¹³ (Id. at ¶ 34.)

litigation based on the result achieved and risk incurred. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at pp. 47, 50; Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 503.) In cases where the agreement provides the defendant agrees to pay the attorneys a percentage of the fund created by the agreement, use of that percentage method is appropriate. (Lealao, at p. 32.) The fees in class and representative actions should approximate the probable terms of a contingent fee contract negotiated by a sophisticated attorney and client. (Id. at p. 48.) “The ultimate goal ... is the award of a ‘reasonable’ fee to compensate counsel for their efforts, irrespective of the method of calculation.” (Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557-558 (quotation omitted).)

Plaintiff’s Counsel are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs as a matter of right. (Lab. Code, § 2699(k)(1).) Plaintiff’s Counsel are entitled to fees and costs under Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 as this case is by definition “for the benefit” of others and has secured monetary awards for the Aggrieved Employee.¹⁴ The payment to the LWDA will also benefit the agency in enforcing labor laws and educating “employers and employees about their rights and responsibilities under [the Labor Code].” (Id. at § 2699(m).)

B. The Plaintiff’s Counsel Fees Payment is Reasonable Based on the Factors Considered.

The factors courts consider in determining whether fee awards are reasonable are: (1) time and labor required; (2) novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) requisite skills to perform the legal services; (4) preclusion of other employment by the attorney; (5) customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitation imposed; (8) amount involved and results obtained; (9) experience, reputation and ability of the attorney; (10) undesirability of the case; (11) nature and length of the professional relationship; and (12) awards in similar cases. (Camden I Condo. Ass’n, Inc. v. Dunkel (11th Cir. 1991) 946 F.2d 768, 772.) It should be highlighted that the percentage award sought is commensurate with the: (1) results obtained; (2) risks taken; (3) difficulty of this case; and (4) skills displayed and the quality of work, which are addressed below.

1. The Results Obtained

The results attorneys obtain for their clients is an important factor when determining the reasonability of a percentage-based fee. (Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 489.) Law firms that obtain exceptional results expect those results to be reflected in their fees.

The results obtained herein are reasonable as Plaintiff's Counsel obtained a settlement of $169,999 without the need for extended litigation. If this case went to trial, there was no guarantee that the trial would have been short or that either party would have prevailed. Even if the Parties reached a similar settlement, it would have been undercut by additional expenses incurred. The resolution of this dispute at this stage is preferred as the Parties were moving to a phase where significant time and money would inevitably have to be spent to prepare for trial.

By avoiding the uncertainties associated with conducting trial and Defendant's responses to the allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel obtained those results more quickly and surely than if the matter had been litigated to final resolution. Under the law, this factor supports the Plaintiff's Counsel Fees Payment. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

2. The Risks Taken

Whether or not representation is provided on a contingency basis is an important factor:

A contingent fee must be higher than a fee for the same legal services paid as they are performed [and] [...] compensates the lawyer not only for the legal services he renders but for the loan of those services. A lawyer who both bears the risk of not being paid and provides legal services is not receiving the fair market value of his work if he is paid only for the second of these functions. If he is paid no more, competent counsel will be reluctant to accept fee award cases.

(Cates v. Chiang (2013) 213 Cal.App.4th 791, 823.)

Plaintiff executed a contingent fee agreement. This meant that no recovery would have equated to no compensation for 195.2 hours of work and $18,282.93 litigation costs incurred. Several factors also made this case difficult, thereby contributing to the risks taken. These factors included: (1) locating and interviewing putative aggrieved employees to corroborate the allegations; (2) difficulties in pinning down job responsibilities, wages paid, breaks taken; (3)

1 number of documents that had to be reviewed and analyzed; (4) shifting wage-and-hour laws; (5)
2 drafting and propounding formal discovery request and reviewing the responses; and (6)
3 Defendant's initial firm resistance to the relief requested.¹⁵

4 Attorneys being paid on an hourly basis as opposed to being paid on a contingent basis are 5 assuming less risks. (See e.g. Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-1133.) The 6 contingent risks are a major factor when determining attorneys' fees. (See e.g. Laffitte v. Robert
7 Half Int'l, Inc., supra, 1 Cal.5th at p. 504 (noting that trial court had carefully considered risks
8 and contingency involved in awarding 33 and 1/3% fee).)

9 3. The Difficulty of the Litigation

10 The unsettled nature of the law, factual complexities underlying the policies and practices
11 in place, and other issues made this case complex and difficult. Plaintiff's Counsel overcame
12 these obstacles by obtaining a settlement that is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Plaintiff's Counsel 13 obtaining a fair settlement despite these roadblocks speaks volumes of their skill and experience.
14 (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 42 ("special skill and experience of 15 counsel" is a relevant factor when determining fee award).)

16 Due to the difficulty of this case, Plaintiff's Counsel devoted several hours to this matter.
17 The Task & Time Chart sets forth the hours devoted to this matter, allocating the total time to the 18 tasks required to reach a conclusion. As stated in the previous section, this was not a clear-cut 19 case. Plaintiff's Counsel had to overcome roadblocks and obstacles before they could reach the 20 settlement, which further illustrates the difficulty of this case.¹⁶

21 4. The Skill Displayed and Quality of Work

22 The level of skill displayed and quality of work it produced justify the Plaintiff's Counsel
23 Fees Payment. Plaintiff's Counsel are skilled and experienced representatives and class action
24 wage-and-hour litigators, and the Task & Time Chart further illustrates this assertion.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ¹⁵ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 28, 30, 31, 35.)

28 ¹⁶ (Id. at ¶ 30; Exhibit 3.)

1 Plaintiff's Counsel used the pre-mediation time period to investigate the veracity,
2 strength, and scope of the PAGA claim and to prepare for representative adjudication. This 3 included: (1) engaging case strategy and analysis; (2) requesting and gathering relevant 4 documents; (3) drafting, reviewing, and revising pleadings, formal discovery requests, and 5 mediation brief; (4) preparing for and appearing at court proceedings; (5) calculating potential
6 damages for mediation purposes; (6) preparing for and attending mediation and settlement
7 negotiations; and (7) working with Defendant's counsel to draft and finalize the Agreement (and 8 exhibit). Plaintiff's Counsel also undertook the arduous task of locating and interviewing putative
9 aggrieved employees to verify if the PAGA claim raised individualized issues.¹⁷

10 Plaintiff's Counsel's skills and expertise contributed to the settlement in this case. Under 11 California law, this factor (skills displayed and quality of work) supports the Plaintiff's Counsel
12 Fees Payment. (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc., supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at p. 51.)

13 C. The Lodestar Methodology Justifies the Plaintiff's Counsel Fees Payment.

14 When a common fund is involved, courts may use the lodestar method. A court tasked 15 with cross-checking a percentage-based fee considers the reasonableness of the lodestar figure, 16 which is the time reasonably spent multiplied by the reasonable hourly compensation of the 17 attorneys. (Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48.) The court may then adjust, increase, or 18 decrease that figure after considering factors like the novelty and complexity of the issues, skill
19 and expertise, extent the litigation precluded other employment, and risk involved. (Id. at p. 49.)

20 Based on the 195.2 hours worked, the base lodestar fees calculation is $152,470, resulting 21 in a negative multiplier of 0.39 when cross-checked to the Plaintiff's Counsel Fees Payment.¹⁸

22 1. The Work Performed for a Reasonable Number of Hours.

23 Counsel is entitled to compensation for every hour reasonably spent. (Ketchum v. Moses, 24 supra, 24 Cal.4th at p. 1133.) The reasonableness is assessed by "the entire course of the 25 litigation, including pretrial matters, settlement negotiations, discovery, litigation tactics, and the 26 trial itself[.]" (Vo v. Las Virgenes Municipal Water Dist. (2000) 79 Cal.App.4th 440, 447.)

27 ¹⁷ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 13.)

28 ¹⁸ (Id. at ¶¶ 31, 33.)

1 This matter required a fair amount of time and labor. The Task & Time Chart evidenced
2 the numerous tasks that were performed to seek all necessary information. The Task & Time
3 Chart further illustrates that Plaintiff's Counsel spent a reasonable number of hours working on 4 this case, thereby demonstrating that the application for the attorneys' fees is reasonable.¹⁹

5 The case involved, among other things, gathering and analyzing data from Defendant and 6 other sources. Plaintiff's Counsel undertook preparation to resolve the entire matter through 7 mediation. These preparations included locating and interviewing putative aggrieved employees, 8 drafting and propounding formal discovery requests and reviewing the responses, gathering and 9 reviewing a myriad of documents, determining the scope of the Aggrieved Employee, verifying
10 the strengths of the PAGA claim, etc.

11 2. The Hourly Rates are Reasonable.

12 Plaintiff's Counsel's hourly rates are supported by the 2022 Real Rate Report that was 13 compiled by Wolters Kluwer, which surveyed the hourly rates charged in 2022 by hundreds of 14 attorneys in the State of California. By extension, the hourly rates are in line with the Laffey 15 Matrix. The hourly rates are also reasonable for the following reasons: (1) several courts in the 16 State of California have awarded Plaintiff's Counsel fees at similar rates; (2) comparable hourly
17 rates for similar services have been deemed reasonable in several cases in the State of California;
18 and (3) surveys of legal rates have supported the hourly rates. This shows that the hourly rates 19 used for the lodestar calculation are well within the range of non-contingent rates charged by 20 comparable attorneys performing similar work in the State of California.²⁰

28 ²⁰ (Id. at ¶¶ 31-33; Exhibits 4, 5.)

1 VII. THE PLAINTIFF’S COUNSEL LITIGATION EXPENSES PAYMENT SHOULD
2 BE APPROVED

3 The Settlement Agreement allows for the payment of the Plaintiff’s Counsel Litigation
4 Expenses Payment of up to $20,000. Plaintiff’s Counsel incurred litigation costs and expenses in 5 the sum of $18,282.93. Plaintiff’s Counsel request that the Court order the reimbursement of the 6 above-mentioned litigation costs and expenses.²¹

7 VIII. THE SERVICE PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

8 The purpose of such an award is to incentivize plaintiffs to step into the shoes of the state
9 labor agency and undertake the risks associated with initiating a lawsuit and serving in a
10 representative capacity. (Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch. (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (“service 11 payments” compensate named plaintiff “for [her] efforts in bringing the action”); Clark v. Am.
12 Residential Servs., LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 (“an incentive award is appropriate ‘if 13 it is necessary to induce an individual to participate in the suit’”); accord Ingram v. The Coca-
14 Cola Co. (N.D. Ga. 2001) 200 F.R.D. 685, 694 (internal quotation marks omitted) (“Courts
15 routinely approve incentive awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provided 16 and the risks they incurred during the course of the [...] litigation.”).)

17 The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of the Service Payment of $10,000
18 to Plaintiff for the services and contributions on behalf of the Aggrieved Employee. Plaintiff spent 19 time and effort in locating and producing relevant documents and past employment records,
20 reviewing relevant documents, and providing the facts and evidence supporting the allegations.
21 Plaintiff was available whenever needed by Plaintiff’s Counsel and actively tried to obtain and 22 provide as much information as possible. Plaintiff spent hours speaking with Plaintiff’s Counsel 23 about the alleged violations, discussing the work experience and work environment, helping 24 Plaintiff’s Counsel develop a strategy to obtain additional documents, aiding Plaintiff’s Counsel
25 to determine the importance of the documents produced, and reviewing the operative complaint,
26 answer, formal discovery requests, and Settlement Agreement (and exhibit). Plaintiff also made 27

28 ²¹ (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 35; Exhibit 6.) ²²

herself available all day to participate in and assist with mediation.²²

Plaintiff was advised of and accepted the risks and sacrifices associated with serving as the named plaintiff. Plaintiff is also not related to anyone associated with Plaintiff's Counsel, has not received any undisclosed compensation, and has not entered any undisclosed agreement. This is further proof that Plaintiff's interests are not adverse to the Aggrieved Employees.²³

IX. THE ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES PAYMENT SHOULD BE APPROVED

The Settlement Agreement provides for the payment of the Administration Expenses Payment of up to $6,000 to the Administrator. The Administration Expenses Payment are intended to cover the costs incurred by the Administrator for performing its duties outlined in the Settlement Agreement. Plaintiff's Counsel have previously worked with the Administrator and are familiar with its superior reputation and work.²⁴

X. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff requests that the Court grant approval of the Settlement Agreement. Plaintiff further requests that the Court retain continuing jurisdiction over the enforcement and administration of the Settlement Agreement.
