DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff NEHEMIAH PITTS (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself and all others similarly
2 situated, hereby brings this First Amended Class and Representative Action Complaint
3 (“Complaint”) against Defendants TST, INC., a California corporation, and DOES 1 to 50
4 (collectively “Defendants”), and on information and belief alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, hereby brings this 7 Complaint for recovery of unpaid wages and penalties under California Business and Professions
8 Code § 17200, et seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 198, 2802,
9 2698, et seq., and Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order 1-2001 (“Wage Order 1”), 10 in addition to seeking injunctive relief, declaratory relief, and restitution. This Complaint is brought 11 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants’
12 violations of the Labor Code because the amount in controversy exceeds $25,000.

13 2. Venue is proper in this judicial district because Defendants maintain offices, have 14 agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including San Bernardino County, and 15 some of the acts and omissions complained of herein occurred in San Bernardino County.
16 Furthermore, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants within San Bernardino County.

17 PARTIES

18 3. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant herein was, an individual over the age of 19 eighteen (18) and is a California resident. Within the statute of limitations periods applicable to 20 each cause of action pled herein, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee.
21 Plaintiff was, and is, a victim of Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or customs complained of 22 herein and has been deprived of the rights guaranteed by Business and Professions Code § 17200, et 23 seq., Labor Code §§ 201-204, 226, 226.7, 246, 510, 512, 516, 558, 198, 2802, 2698, et seq., and 24 Wage Order 1.

25 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 26 applicable statute of limitations for each cause of action pled herein and continuing to the present,
27 Defendants engaged in, and continue to engage in, business, and employed Plaintiff and other,
28 similarly-situated non-exempt employees within San Bernardino County, and the State of California

1 and, therefore, were (and are) doing business in San Bernardino County and the State of California.

2 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner, or 3 corporate, of the defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 50, inclusive, and for that reason, said
4 defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiff will seek leave from this Court to 5 amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered. Plaintiff is informed and 6 believes, and based thereon alleges, that each of said fictitious defendants, whether individual,
7 partners, or corporate, was responsible in some manner for the acts and omissions alleged herein,
8 and proximately caused Plaintiff and the Classes (as defined below) to be subject to the unlawful 9 employment practices, wrongs, injuries, and damages complained of herein.

10 6. At all times herein mentioned, each of said Defendants participated in the doing of 11 the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendant; and furthermore,
12 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each of the other
13 defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein mentioned, were acting 14 within the course and scope of said agency and employment.

15 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that at all times
16 material hereto, each of the Defendants named herein was the agent, employee, alter ego and/or 17 joint venturer of, or working in concert with each of the other co-Defendants and was acting within 18 the course and scope of such agency, employment, joint venture, or concerted activity. To the extent
19 said acts, conduct, and omissions were perpetrated by certain Defendants, each of the remaining 20 Defendants confirmed and ratified said acts, conduct, and omissions of the acting Defendants.

21 8. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, were members of, and 22 engaged in, a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the course and 23 scope of, and in pursuance of, said joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise.

24 9. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, and 25 each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and all of the 26 other Defendants in proximately causing the injuries and damages as herein alleged.

1 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

2 10. Defendants own and operate an aluminum production facility in Chino, California.
3 Defendants employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 2017
4 to approximately May 6, 2024 as a quality assurance inspector.

5 11. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Defendants' timekeeping
6 and/or payroll policies and practices resulted in Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees not being 7 compensated for all hours actually worked. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees regularly
8 worked more than eight hours in a workday or 40 hours in a workweek. Upon information and 9 belief, Defendants failed to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary 10 remuneration, including shift differentials, into the regular rate of pay and/or improperly calculated
11 overtime hours worked during overnight shifts. As a result, Plaintiff and other non-exempt 12 employees were not compensated for all earned vertime wages.

13 12. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with all 14 legally compliant meal periods due to Defendants' meal period policies/practices, which have 15 frequently resulted in late (commencing after the fifth hour of work), short (less than 30 minutes),
16 and/or missed meal periods. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff and other non-exempt
17 employees were not able to take their legally compliant meal breaks due to work demands imposed
18 by Defendants. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not keep accurate records of Plaintiff's 19 and other non-exempt employees' hours worked, including accurate time records showing when 20 employees take their meal periods. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other non-exempt 21 employees were not provided with all legally compliant meal periods to which they were entitled,
22 Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees with the required meal
23 period premium(s) for each workday there was a meal period violation as mandated by Labor Code
24 § 226.7. Upoin information and belief, Defendant failed to include incorporate multiple rates of pay 25 and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift differentials, into the regular rate of 26 compensation.

27 13. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take 28 all required rest periods due to Defendants' unlawful rest period policies/practices, which failed to

1 authorize and permit a net 10-minute rest period for every four hours worked, or major fraction
2 thereof. Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees were not able to take their legally compliant rest
3 breaks due to work demands imposed by Defendants. On those occasions when Plaintiff and other
4 non-exempt employees were not authorized and permitted to take all legally compliant rest periods
5 to which they were entitled, Defendants failed to compensate them with the required rest period
6 premium(s) for each workday there was a rest period violation as mandated by Labor Code § 226.7.
7 Upon information and belief, Defendants maintained no mechanism for the payment of rest period
8 premium payments as required by Labor Code § 226.7, in the event that a legally compliant rest 9 period was not authorized and permitted to their non-exempt employees.

10 14. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants violated Labor Code § 246 by 11 failing to incorporate multiple rates of pay and/or all non-discretionary remuneration, including shift 12 differentials, into the paid sick leave pay rate.

13 15. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime wages, failure to pay all meal
14 and rest period premium wages, and unlawful timekeeping and payroll practices as alleged above,
15 Defendants maintained inaccurate payroll records and issued inaccurate wage statements to Plaintiff
16 and other non-exempt employees. As a further result of Defendants' failure to pay all overtime
17 wages, sick leave wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, Defendants failed to timely pay 18 all final wages to Plaintiff and other former non-exempt employees upon their separation of 19 employment from Defendants.

20 16. Additionally, Defendants required Plaintiff and other non-exempt employees to use 21 their personal cellphones to take and upload pictures of products. Despite requiring employees to 22 incur these necessary business expenses, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and other non-23 exempt employees for the cost of these expenses.

24 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

25 17. Class Definitions: Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and the following 26 Classes pursuant to § 382 of the California Code of Civil Procedure:

- 27 a. Overtime Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the 28 State of California who worked more than eight hours per day and/or 40 hours per week and were subject to Defendants' timekeeping policies and/or practices, during the four years immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.

- b. Meal Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who: (i) worked at least one shift in excess of 5.0 hours; and/or (ii) worked at least one shift in excess of 10.0 hours, from August 20, 2023 through the present.
- c. Rest Period Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who worked at least one shift of 3.5 or more hours, from August 20, 2023 through the present.
- d. Wage Statement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who received a wage statement, during the one year immediately preceding the filing of this action through the present.
- e. Waiting Time Penalty Class: All of Defendants' formerly employed members of the Overtime Class, Rest Period Class, and/or Meal Period Class from August 20, 2023 through the present.
- f. Expense Reimbursement Class: All current and former non-exempt employees of Defendants in the State of California who were not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses, from August 20, 2023 through the present.

18. Numerosity/Ascertainability: The members of the Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be impractical, if not impossible. The membership of the Classes is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, it is estimated that the members of the Classes number greater than 50 individuals. The identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' employment records, including payroll records.

19. Common Questions of Law and Fact Predominate/Well-Defined Community of Interest: There are predominant common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiff and members of the Classes, which predominate over questions affecting only individual members including, without limitation to:

- 1 a. Whether Defendants properly paid all overtime wages to members of the Overtime
2 Class;
3 b. Whether Defendants provided all legally compliant meal periods or paid meal period
4 premium wages due to members of the Meal Period Class pursuant to Labor Code §§
5 226.7 and 512;
6 c. Whether Defendants authorized and permitted all legally compliant rest periods or 7 paid all rest period premium wages due to members of the Rest Period Class
8 pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 516;
9 d. Whether Defendants reimbursed members of the Expense Reimbursement Class for 10 all necessary business expenses pursuant to Labor Code § 2802;
11 e. Whether Defendants furnished legally compliant wage statements to members of the 12 Wage Statement Class pursuant to Labor Code § 226; and 13 f. Whether Defendants timely paid all final wages to members of the Waiting Time
14 Class at the time of their separation of employment pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201
15 and 202.

16 These common questions of law and fact set forth above are numerous and substantial and 17 stem from Defendants' policies and/or practices applicable to each individual class member. As 18 such, the common questions predominate over individual questions concerning each individual 19 class member's showing as to their eligibility for recovery or as to the amount of their damages.

20 20. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Classes because 21 Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt employee in California during the statute(s)
22 of limitations period applicable to each cause of action pled in the Complaint. As alleged herein,
23 Plaintiff, like the members of the Classes, was not paid all overtime wages owed due to Defendants'
24 timekeeping and payroll policies/practices, not provided all required meal periods, not authorized 25 and permitted all rest periods, did not receive premium pay for non-compliant meal and rest periods, 26 not reimbursed for all necessary business expenses, not paid all final wages upon separation of 27 employment, and not provided with accurate, compliant, itemized wage statements.

28 ///

1 21. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff is fully prepared to take all necessary steps
2 to represent fairly and adequately the interests of the members of the Classes. Moreover, Plaintiff's
3 attorneys are ready, willing and able to fully and adequately represent the members of the Classes
4 and Plaintiff. Plaintiff's attorneys have litigated numerous wage-and-hour class actions in state and 5 federal courts in the past and are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the 6 members of the Classes.

7 22. Superiority: The Labor Code is broadly remedial in nature and serves an important
8 public interest in establishing minimum working conditions and standards in California. These laws 9 and labor standards protect the average working employee from exploitation by employers who 10 have the responsibility to follow the laws and who may seek to take advantage of superior economic 11 and bargaining power in setting onerous terms and conditions of employment. The nature of this 12 action and the format of laws available to Plaintiff and members of the Classes make the class 13 action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to redress the violations alleged 14 herein. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, Defendants would necessarily 15 gain an unconscionable advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited 16 resources of each individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources.

17 23. Moreover, requiring each member of the Class(es) to pursue an individual remedy
18 would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by employees who would be disinclined to file 19 an action against their former and/or current employer for real and justifiable fear of retaliation and 20 permanent damages to their careers at subsequent employment. The claims of the individual
21 members of the Class are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution
22 considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending hereto.

23 24. Furthermore, the prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members,
24 even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
25 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would establish 26 potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or legal determinations with 27 respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest 28 of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which would substantially impair or

1 impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests. As such, the Classes identified
2 hereinabove are maintainable as classes under § 382 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 OVERTIME WAGE VIOLATIONS

5 (Against All Defendants)

6 25. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
7 fully set forth herein.

8 26. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1198, and 9 Wage Order 1, § 3, which provide that non-exempt employees are entitled to all overtime wages
10 and compensation for all overtime hours worked and provide a private right of action for the failure 11 to pay all overtime compensation for overtime work performed.

12 27. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to properly compensate non-
13 exempt employees, including Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class, for all overtime hours
14 worked pursuant to Labor Code § 1194 and Wage Order 1. Wage Order 1, § 3 requires an employer
15 to pay an employee one and one-half (1½) times and two times the employee's regular rate of pay
16 for overtime and double time hours work. Defendants caused Plaintiff and members of the Overtime
17 Class to work overtime hours but failed to compensate these employees for all overtime hours 18 actually worked.

19 28. As a consequence of Defendants' non-payment of overtime wages, Plaintiff and 20 members of the Overtime Class seek recovery of the balance of unpaid overtime wages, including
21 interest thereon, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§
22 204, 210, 216, 218.6, 510, 1194, and 1198; Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5; and Civil Code §§
23 3287 and 3289.

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

25 MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 29. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
28 fully set forth herein.

1 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
2 in their affirmative obligation to provide all of their non-exempt employees in California, including 3 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class, with all legally compliant meal periods in 4 accordance with the mandates of the Labor Code and Wage Order 1, § 11.

5 31. Despite Defendants' violations, Defendants did not pay an additional hour of pay to 6 Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class at their respective regular rates of compensation, in 7 accordance with California Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 226.7, and 512.

8 32. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful meal period practices, Plaintiff and 9 members of the Meal Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for meal period
10 violations including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, pursuant to Labor Code
11 §§ 226.7, 512, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289.

12 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

13 REST PERIOD VIOLATIONS

14 (Against All Defendants)

15 33. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
16 fully set forth herein.

17 34. Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and Wage Order 1, § 12 and establish the right of 18 employees to be provided with a rest period of at least 10 minutes for each four-hour period
19 worked, or major fraction thereof. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 20 despite Defendants' failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class
21 to take all legally compliant rest periods as alleged herein, Defendants did not pay these individuals 22 an additional hour of pay at their respective regular rate for the rest periods that they failed to 23 authorize and permit them to take, as required by Labor Code § 226.7.

24 35. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful rest period practices, Plaintiff and 25 members of the Rest Period Class seek recovery of unpaid premium wages for rest period violations
26 including interest thereon, statutory penalties, and costs of suit, statutory penalties, attorneys' fees,
27 and costs of suit according to Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, Wage Order 1, and Civil Code §§
28 3287 and 3289.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAGE STATEMENT PENALTIES
(Against All Defendants)

36. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

37. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knowingly and intentionally, as a matter of uniform policy and practice, failed to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements that included, among other requirements, all hours worked, total gross wages earned, all rates of pay and corresponding number of hours worked, total net wages earned, the inclusive dates of the pay period, and/or the correct name and address of the legal entity that is the employer in violation of Labor Code § 226.

38. Defendants' failure to furnish Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class with accurate and complete, itemized wage statements resulted in actual injury, as said failures led to, among other things, the non-payment of overtime and sick leave wages and meal and rest period premium wages owed and deprived them of the information necessary to identify the discrepancies in Defendants' reported payroll data.

39. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful wage statement practices, Plaintiff and members of the Wage Statement Class seek damages and/or statutory penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 226.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
WAITING TIME PENALTIES
(Against All Defendants)

40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

41. This cause of action is brought pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201-203, which require an employer to pay all wages immediately at the time of separation of employment in the event the employer discharges the employee or the employee provides at least 72 hours of notice of their

1 intent to quit. In the event the employee provides less than 72 hours of notice of their intent to quit,
2 said employee's wages become due and payable not later than 72 hours upon said employee's last 3 date of employment.

4 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
5 to timely pay Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time Class all final wages due to them at their 6 separation from employment, including unpaid overtime and sick leave wages as well as unpaid
7 meal and rest period premium wages.

8 43. Furthermore, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that as a 9 matter of uniform policy and practice, Defendants continue to fail to pay Plaintiff and members of 10 the Waiting Time Class all earned wages at the end of employment in a timely manner pursuant to 11 the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201-202.

12 44. Defendants' failure to pay all final wages was willful within the meaning of Labor
13 Code § 203. Defendants' willful failure to timely pay Plaintiff and the members of the Waiting 14 Time Class their earned wages upon separation from employment results in continued payment of 15 daily wages up to thirty days from the time the wages were due.

16 45. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 17 Waiting Time Class seek statutory penalties, and costs of suit according to California Labor Code § 18 203.

19 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 46. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
23 fully set forth herein.

24 47. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were subject to Labor Code § 2802, which 25 states that "an employer shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary expenditures or 26 losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his 27 or obedience to the directions of the employer."

28 ///

1 48. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse Plaintiff and 2 members of the Expense Reimbursement Class all necessary business expenses they incurred in the 3 performance of their job duties.

4 49. As a consequence of Defendants' unlawful practices, Plaintiff and members of the 5 class seek recovery of unreimbursed business expenses, including interest thereon, reasonable
6 attorneys' fees, and costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

7 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 UNFAIR COMPETITION

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
11 fully set forth herein.

12 51. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair and/or unlawful business 13 practices in California in violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., by:

- 14 a. failing to pay Plaintiff and members of the Overtime Class all overtime wages due;
- 15 b. failing to provide Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period Class with all meal
16 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all meal period premium
17 wages due;
- 18 c. failing to authorize and permit Plaintiff and members of the Rest Period Class all rest
19 periods to which they are entitled, and failing to pay them all rest period premium
20 wages due;
- 21 d. failing to reimburse all necessary business expenses to Plaintiff and members of the 22 Expense Reimbursement Class;
- 23 e. failing to issue accurate and itemized wage statements to Plaintiff and members of 24 the Wage Statement Class; and
- 25 f. failing to timely pay all final wages to Plaintiff and members of the Waiting Time
26 Penalty Class.

27 52. Defendants' utilization of these unfair and/or unlawful business practices deprived
28 Plaintiff and continues to deprive members of the Classes of compensation to which they are legally

1 entitled, constitutes unfair and/or unlawful competition, and provides an unfair advantage over 2 Defendants' competitors who have been and/or are currently employing workers and attempting to 3 do so in honest compliance with applicable wage and hour laws.

4 53. Because Plaintiff is a victim of Defendants' unfair and/or unlawful conduct alleged 5 herein, Plaintiff for himself and on behalf of the members of the Classes, seeks full restitution of 6 monies, as necessary and according to proof, to restore any and all monies withheld, acquired
7 and/or converted by Defendants pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17208.

8 54. The acts complained of herein occurred within the last four years immediately
9 preceding the filing of the Complaint in this action.

10 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
11 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT
12 (Against All Defendants)

13 55. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs as though
14 fully set forth herein.

15 56. Plaintiff, an "aggrieved employee" within the meaning of Labor Code §§ 2698, et 16 seq., acting on behalf of himself and other aggrieved employees (collectively, "Aggrieved 17 Employees"), brings this representative action against Defendants to recover the civil penalties due
18 to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California according to proof pursuant 19 to Labor Code §§ 558 and 2699(a) and (f) including, but not limited to: (1) $100.00 for each initial 20 violation for each failure to pay each employee and $200 for each subsequent violation or willful or 21 intentional violation pursuant to Labor Code §§ 210 and/or 225.5 for each failure to pay each 22 employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully withheld; (2) $50.00 for each initial violation and 23 $100 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 558 per employee per pay period; (3)
24 $100 for each initial violation and $250 for each subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code §
25 1197.1 per employee per pay period; (4) $250 for each initial violation and $1,000 for each 26 subsequent violation pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3 per employee per pay period; (5) pursuant to 27 Labor Code § 256, a civil penalty in an amount not exceeding 30 days per former employee as 28 waiting time under the terms of Labor Code § 203; and/or (6) $100 for each initial violation and

1 $200 for each subsequent violation per employee per pay period for those violations of the Labor
2 Code for which no civil penalty is specifically provided, based on the following Labor Code
3 violations:

- 4 a. Failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime compensation in violation
5 of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1194, and 1198;
- 6 b. Failing to provide all legally required meal periods, and failure to pay meal period
7 premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of compensation in 8 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, and 1198;
- 9 c. Failing to authorize and permit all legally required rest periods, and failure to pay
10 rest period premium wages, to Aggrieved Employees at the regular rate of 11 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7, 516, 558, and 1198;
- 12 d. Failing to furnish Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage 13 statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;

24 57. On or about October 17, 2024, Plaintiff notified Defendants via certified mail, and 25 notified the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) via its website, of 26 Defendants’ violations of the Labor Code and Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties
27 under Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. with respect to the violations of the Labor Code identified in the 28 preceding paragraph. Now that 33 days and 65 days have passed from Plaintiff notifying

1 Defendants and the LWDA of these violations, Defendants have not cured any curable violations,
2 and the LWDA has not provided notice that it intends to investigate the violations, Plaintiff has
3 exhausted administrative requirements for bringing a claim under the Private Attorneys General Act
4 with respect to these violations.

5 58. Plaintiff has incurred attorneys' fees and costs, which Plaintiff is entitled to receive 6 under California Labor Code § 2699(g).
