Re: Labor Code § 2698, et seq. Penalties – PAGA Notice Letter to the LWDA
*Arriaga-Benson v. St. Helena Hospital, et al.

Gentlepersons:

This office represents Plaintiff Laura Arriaga-Benson (“Plaintiff”) and other similarly situated aggrieved non-exempt employees (collectively “Aggrieved Employees”) for violations of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 245 et seq., 246, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq. and 2802; provisions of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) Wage Order(s); and California Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. (“the Act”). Plaintiff would like to bring a representative action, pursuant to the Act, on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, against Defendants, St. Helena Hospital, Adventist Health; and DOES 1 through 50 inclusive (all defendants being referred to herein collectively as “Defendants”).

Additionally, this correspondence will serve to satisfy the notice requirements under the Act, along with a copy of Plaintiff’s Class Action Complaint, which is attached to this Notice letter.

The Complaint is being concurrently filed in Los Angeles Superior Court and will be assigned a local case number. The Complaint allegations and claims are incorporated into this Notice Letter.

We also set forth herein the facts and theories and the California Labor Code violations which Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of their Aggrieved Employees in California. The attached Class Action Complaint provides the details of Plaintiff's class-wide claims and claims under the Act, and the applicable California law governing them. It, along with this Notice Letter, addresses in detail numerous violations that subject Defendants to civil and statutory penalties under the Act.

Relevant Facts

Aggrieved Employees were employed by Defendants as non-exempt employees within the state of California within the statutory time period who suffer or suffered from the same wage and hour violations outlined below. Defendants had a common policy and/or practice of failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages for all hours worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to compensate for all hours worked and at the applicable hourly rates, including when operating under alternative workweek agreements.

Additionally, Plaintiff, and upon information and belief the other Aggrieved Employees, were required to work long hours, usually 10-12 hours per work shift. Plaintiff was regularly scheduled to work 5-7 days a week, and 10 hours per day under an alternative workweek schedule. Plaintiff contends that Defendants failed to pay her at the required overtime rate for all hours over eight in a shift, or over forty in a week, which also impacted when she should have been paid at the double time rate and resulted in underpayment of double time for those hours over twelve worked in a shift. Plaintiff contends there was not an enforceable alternative work week election conducted for her facility, or if it was, it was improperly conducted and/or reported to the Department of Industrial Relations's Alternative Workweek Elections Database. To the extent Plaintiff's facility and any other facilities in California were operating under a similarly invalid or ineffectual alternative workweek election, Plaintiff and those similarly Aggrieved Employees were not paid at least two hours of overtime premium wages on every work shift for the hours between their eighth and tenth worked.

Furthermore, Aggrieved Employees were not paid for the time that they worked "pre-shift" and "post-shift" without compensation by waiting to be let into the jobsite on occasions when the doors were locked, logging into their computers, and gathering equipment necessary for their work. Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees all wages due and owing because Defendants failed to pay on-call or standby pay. Defendants would contact Plaintiff when she was needed at work. During this time, Plaintiff was under Defendant's control because she was required to stay nearby and would have to report to work once Defendants called her in. However, Plaintiff was not paid the on-call or stand-by pay she was owed. Upon information and belief, Aggrieved Employees were also required to be on-call and were not compensated for the on-call or standby pay they were owed. Thus, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work hours, under the control of Defendants, without wages.

Because of the foregoing understatement of hours worked, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees proper overtime wages. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees consistently worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, and/or forty (40) hours a week. However, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day. Moreover, the uncompensated time, discussed above, was worked by Aggrieved Employees in excess of 8 hours a day, in excess of 40 hours a week, and/or on the seventh consecutive day of a workweek, further entitling Aggrieved Employees overtime wages which they were consistently denied, all in violation of Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

Additionally, Defendants did not pay Aggrieved Employees the correct overtime rate for the recorded overtime hours that they generated. In addition to an hourly wage, Defendants paid Aggrieved Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and belief, Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate. Therefore, during times when Aggrieved Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Aggrieved Employees, but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay from which sick pay and vacation pay were calculated and paid.

Additionally, Defendants had a common policy and/or practice of denying Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees proper meal periods. Specifically, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work through their meal periods which they were consistently denied. Also, what meal periods Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did take, were consistently less than 30 minutes, taken well after their fifth consecutive hour of work, and were on-duty due to Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting meal breaks with work demands, all in violation of Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders. Similarly, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work in excess of ten (10) hours a day, without ever receiving a second meal compliant period, all in violation of Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders. Defendants also paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Aggrieved Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay from which premium pay was calculated and paid.

Defendants have consistently failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with paid rest breaks of not less than 10 minutes for every work period of 4 or more consecutive hours, as required by Labor Code. Specifically, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work through their rest breaks which they were continuously denied. What rest breaks were taken were on-duty due to Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting rest breaks with work demands. Defendants also paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Aggrieved Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay from which premium pay was calculated and paid.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of failing to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenditures incurred in execution of their duties under Defendants' employ. Defendants have failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their job duties for Defendants, including personal cell phone usage, which was necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ.

Defendants consistently failed to issue accurate itemized wage statements as required by Labor Code § 226(a). Specifically, Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. The wage statements provided to Aggrieved Employees were confusing and required Aggrieved Employees to refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Aggrieved Employees. Moreover, the wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees failed to accurately account for unpaid wages, overtime, premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods and rest breaks, and reflected incorrect hours worked.

Moreover, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees all wages owed at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation as required by Labor Code §§ 201-203. Defendants also consistently failed to pay Aggrieved Employees all wages due on a semi-monthly basis.

Aggrieved Employees were also consistently denied to one day's rest in seven due to Defendants' scheduling requirements, which required Aggrieved Employees to involuntarily work more than six consecutive days without a day of rest, where the total hours worked exceeded 30 hours in any week or six hours in any one day thereof. For example, Defendant required Plaintiff and Employees to work specified shifts for seven or more consecutive calendar days. Not only have Defendants failed to pay any overtime premiums to Plaintiff and Employees for consecutive days worked after the sixth consecutive day, but Defendants have intentionally and repeatedly assigned Plaintiff and Employees work schedules requiring Plaintiff and Employees to work seven or more days in a row for well over a total of 30 hours. In addition, based on information and belief, Defendants defined the workweek in such a manner as to minimize or reduce the amount of overtime worked by Plaintiff and Employees, whether it be for weekly overtime over 40 hours of work or for overtime for working over 6 consecutive days.

PAGA Claim Details, Legal Bases for Violations and Penalties:

As addressed above and in further detail in the attached Class Action Complaint, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees complain of the following violations committed by Defendants:

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages for all hours worked. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states, "[t]he minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful." The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the relevant period is found in the Wage Orders.

In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum wage for all hours worked, including under Labor Code § 1197, IWC Wage Order MW-2014, and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), and 4(A)-4(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders. Paragraph 2(H) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders defines “Hours Worked” as “the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.” Additionally, pursuant to Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” states: “The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.” The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: “Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit.”

As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also, California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate, or at the minimum rate in the absence of a contractually agreed upon one. The underpayment of wages to Aggrieved Employees is and has been a direct consequence of Defendants’ unlawful compensation policies and practices, which applied uniformly to the Aggrieved Employees working at locations and work sites throughout California.

Defendants thus failed to pay Employees minimum wages they were owed, including by their consistent policy of failing to pay Employees for all hours worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to compensate for all hours worked and at the applicable hourly rates, including when operating under alternative workweek agreements. Aggrieved Employees were also not paid for the time that they worked, including as alleged above in connection with working during meal breaks and working “pre-shift” and “post-shift” without compensation by waiting to be let into the jobsite on occasions when the doors were locked, logging into their computers, and gathering equipment necessary for their work. Thus, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to work hours without wages. Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees all minimum wages due and owing because Defendants failed to pay on-call or standby pay. Defendants would contact Plaintiff when she was needed at work, requiring Plaintiff to remain under Defendants’ control, and Plaintiff was not paid the on-call or stand-by pay she was owed. Upon information and belief, Aggrieved Employees were also required to be on-call and were not compensated the on-call or standby pay they were owed. Additionally, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees. In light of the forgoing, the Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties. Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a). Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees further request recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory and civil penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other applicable statutes, including pursuant to Labor Code § 558, and Wage Order provisions. To the extent minimum wage compensation is determined to be owed to the Aggrieved Employees who have terminated their employment, Defendants' conduct also violates Labor Code §§ 201 and/or 202, and therefore these individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under California Labor Code § 203, which penalties are sought herein on behalf of these Aggrieved Employees. Defendants' failure to timely pay all wages owed also violated Labor Code § 204 and resulted in violations of Labor Code § 226 because they resulted in the issuance of inaccurate wage statements. Defendants' conduct as alleged herein was willful, intentional and not in good faith. Further, Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to seek and recover statutory costs.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime in Violation of Labor Code § 510

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees earned wages and overtime. Specifically, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees consistently worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day, in excess of forty (40) hours a week, and/or on the seventh consecutive day of a work week. However, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day, in excess of forty (40) hours a week, and/or on the seventh consecutive day of a work week. Defendants failed to compensate for all hours worked and at the applicable hourly rates for regular rate, overtime, and double-time pay, including when operating under alternative workweek agreements. Moreover, the uncompensated time, discussed above including the time they worked "pre-shift" and "post-shift" without compensation by waiting to be let into the jobsite on occasions when the doors were locked, logging into their computers, and gathering equipment necessary for their work, the failure to pay on-call or standby pay, and time spent working while clocked out for meal breaks caused Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours a week, further entitling Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to overtime wages which they were consistently denied, all in violation of Labor Code § 510 and applicable Wage Orders.

Additionally, Defendants did not pay Aggrieved Employees the correct overtime rate for the recorded overtime hours that they generated. In addition to an hourly wage, Defendants paid Aggrieved Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and belief, Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate. Therefore, during times when Aggrieved Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

Defendants have violated Labor Code § 1194 and Labor Code § 510 (and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A) and 4(A)-4(B) of the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a workday or in excess of forty hours in any workweek or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of twelve hours in any one day or for hours worked in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Employees wages for all hours worked, including by requiring off the clock work as addressed above and by under-reporting actual hours worked. This unpaid off the clock work resulted in Aggrieved Employees working past eight hours on a shift or more than forty hours in a week, which required that they be paid at the correct overtime rate of 1.5 times their regular rate.

When considered in combination with the other wage violations addressed above, Aggrieved Employees were not properly compensated, nor were they paid overtime and double time rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours or twelve hours in a given day, forty hours in a given week, and/or on the seventh consecutive day of a workweek. Defendants did not make available to Aggrieved Employees a reasonable protocol for correcting time records when Aggrieved Employees worked overtime hours or to fix incorrect time entries or those that Defendants unlawfully under-recorded to the Aggrieved Employees' detriment.

In light of the forgoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1174, 1194, 1198, 1199, and the relevant paragraphs of the IWC Wage Orders, including paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A), 4, and 20. Defendants are liable to Aggrieved Employees for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes and Wage Order provisions. Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Meal-Period Liability Under Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and Penalties

Defendants have regularly required Aggrieved Employees to work shifts in excess of five hours without providing them with uninterrupted meal periods of not less than thirty minutes as required under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, and paragraph 11 of the applicable Wage Orders. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were forced to incur shortened meal periods, were provided with meal periods late and well after the fifth hour of work, could not be relieved to take their meal periods, or were required to remain on-duty at all times and were unable to take off-duty meal periods or were otherwise not provided with the opportunity to take required meal periods.

On the occasions when Aggrieved Employees were provided with a meal period, it was often untimely or interrupted by having to respond to work demands or remain under Defendants' control due to Defendants' policy and practice requiring Aggrieved Employees to respond to emergencies and other situations, in violation of the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders. On shifts over ten hours, second meal periods were not provided. Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Aggrieved Employee's effective regular rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one hour of wages at their correctly calculated regular rate of compensation for each meal period not provided or deficiently provided, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code, including Labor Code § 558 and other applicable statutes and Wage Order provisions. Defendants also paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Aggrieved Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay from which premium pay was calculated and paid. Therefore, Defendants also miscalculated the rate at which they paid any meal period or rest period premiums when Defendant did attempt to pay them, resulting in further violations of section 226.7.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages as available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, 2699(f)(2) and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7 and Penalties

Defendants have consistently failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with paid rest breaks of not less than ten minutes for every work period of four or more consecutive hours, as required under Labor Code § 226.7. Specifically, Defendants provided rest periods untimely or for shortened durations, and Defendants' policies and procedures required Aggrieved Employees to remain under Defendants' control during breaks by requiring Aggrieved Employees to respond to emergencies and other situations. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Aggrieved Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay from which premium pay was calculated and paid. Therefore, Defendants also miscalculated the rate at which they paid any rest period premiums when Defendants did attempt to pay them, resulting in further violations of section 226.7.

Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided, or miscalculated any premiums paid. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 12 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one hour of wages at their correctly calculated regular rate of compensation for each rest period not provided or deficiently provided, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code, including Labor Code § 558 and other applicable statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages as available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Comply with Labor Code § 227.3

Pursuant to California Labor Code § 227.3, whenever a contract of employment or employment policy provides for paid vacation and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with said contract of employment or policy respecting eligibility or time served. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Aggrieved Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay from which vacation wages were calculated and paid. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 227.3. Plaintiff accordingly seeks this relief available for Defendants' violations of section Labor Code § 227.3 in connection with Aggrieved Employees and seeking the civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 227.3, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699.3(b), and 2699(f)(2), and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Comply with Labor Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246

California Labor Code § 245 et seq. requires that Defendants provide paid sick time to Aggrieved Employees, including at the amount, terms, and rate of compensation set forth in said law. At times relevant, Defendants have failed to compute the amount due for paid sick time in conformance with the pay calculation under California Labor Code § 246(1). Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Aggrieved Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay from which sick pay was calculated and paid. Rather than calculating the amount of paid sick time due when sick time is used according to the requirements set forth in California Labor Code § 246(1), Defendants paid sick leave to Aggrieved Employees at a lower rate, in violation of the law. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Defendants have violated

California Labor Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246. Plaintiff accordingly seeks this relief available for Defendants' violations of section Labor Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246 in connection with Aggrieved Employees and seeking the civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 245 et seq., 246, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699.3(b), and 2699(f)(2), and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures in Violation of Labor Code § 2802

Defendants have consistently required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to incur necessary business expenses in the execution of their duties under Defendants' employ. Specifically, Defendants have failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their job duties for Defendants, including personal cell phone usage, which was necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ in violation of Labor Code § 2802. Defendants systematically and uniformly failed to reimburse those lawful and necessary work-related expenses or losses incurred in direct discharge of their job duties during employment with Defendants and at the direction of the Defendants pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, paragraph 9. Defendants are liable for PAGA penalties resulting from their failure to reimburse necessary business expenses incurred by the Aggrieved Employees. Accordingly, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover, and hereby seek through this Representative Action, all civil and statutory penalties authorized for violations of California Labor Code §§ 1198 and 2802, and Section 9(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Plaintiff seeks all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2), and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Issue Accurate and Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Labor Code § 226

California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each employee with an accurate, itemized wage statements in writing. These statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a), Aggrieved Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees, by Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods and rest breaks, and reflected incorrect hours worked. Additionally, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records of the correct overtime wages based on proper regular rate calculations that included nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses earned. The wage statements provided to Aggrieved Employees were confusing and required Aggrieved Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct and potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Aggrieved Employees.

In light of these violations, and pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and paragraphs 4(b), 7, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ..."

Failure to Issue Semimonthly Payments in Violation of Labor Code § 204

In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees wages, overtime, premium pay, etc., and failing to provide them with checks and wage statements, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as well as the meal and rest periods taken by Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and the applicable IWC wage orders.

Defendants also required Aggrieved Employees to work hours off the clock for which they were not compensated, including during interrupted or otherwise on-duty meal and rest periods. Defendants also failed to pay all overtime premium wages owed for work conducted on a work shift and a workday or miscalculated these premiums by not including all forms of remuneration in the regular rate, as addressed above. Therefore, when Aggrieved Employees received wage statements and pay checks, they did not compensate all hours worked on a timely basis, resulting in Defendants' systematic failure to pay all wages owed to Aggrieved Employees twice monthly in accordance with the requirements of Labor Code § 204. Additionally, by not providing wage statements as required under section 204, Defendants systematically violated Labor Code § 204 and § 226.

Given the above described off the clock work, Plaintiff was not paid at the correct overtime rate for all hours she worked after eight hours into a shift, over forty in a work week, or on the seventh consecutive day of a work week. Plaintiff was also not paid all double time owed. Defendants' uniformly applied payroll policies and practices, resulting in further systematic and ongoing violations of the requirements of Labor Code § 204 applicable to Aggrieved Employees.

In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties, interest, fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201.3, 210, 218.5, 558, and 1194. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime, requiring off the clock work, not providing proper meal and rest periods, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failing to pay Employees wages upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and paragraph 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, entitling Aggrieved Employees to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 203, 204, 2926, 2927, and 2699.5 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Keep Records In Accordance With Labor Code § 1174

Labor Code § 1174 requires employers to keep records showing payroll data and the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to employees. By failing to pay Aggrieved Employees proper wages, overtime, double time, premium pay, etc., and by not properly recording meal period start and end times, all discussed herein, Defendants failed to maintain proper employment records in accordance with Section 1174. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1174.5 and 2699, et seq. Defendants have also failed to comply with paragraph 7 of the applicable California IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period, meal periods, wages earned pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, and total daily hours worked by itemizing in wage statements all deductions from payment of wages and accurately reporting total hours worked by the Aggrieved Employees, and they are entitled to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, 1198, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Waiting Time Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203

Some Aggrieved Employees no longer work for Defendants; they either resigned or were terminated from Defendants' employ. Based on the forgoing, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages earned by and owed to Aggrieved Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two hours of their resignation, as required by California under Labor Code § 203. In light of the forgoing, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558 and further specifically seek penalties and wages under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

Failure to Provide One Day's Rest in Seven

California Labor Code § 551 provides that every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest in seven. Additionally, California Labor Code § 552 prohibits employers from requiring employees to work more than six consecutive days without a day of rest. Moreover, California Labor Code § 556 exempts an employer from the day-of-rest requirement when the total hours worked by an employee do not exceed 30 hours in any week or six hours in any one day thereof.

During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly scheduled Aggrieved Employees to work six (6) or more hours per day and more than seven (7) consecutive days. Because Aggrieved Employees worked over 30 hours per week and over six (6) hours per day in a workweek, they were not exempt from the day-of-rest requirement. To the extent that Employees may have signed purported waivers of their right to a day's rest in seven, such waivers are invalid. In light of the forgoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to the Labor Code § 558.

Unfair Competition Under Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

Consequently, Defendants' conduct has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees and the general public in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

Plaintiff's PAGA Claim under Labor Code § 2698 et seq. and Recovery Bases:

After complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code § 2699.3 and the running of the notice period after the filing of the attached Class Action Complaint, Plaintiff will file an amended Complaint asserting, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney

General and the other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees seek penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants' violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5, including the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California Labor Code sections: §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 245 et seq., 246, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq. and 2802, including as follows:

(a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime premium wages for overtime hours worked under Labor Code §§ 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(b) Meal and Rest Period Claims: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees off-duty, timely, and unpaid meal periods and failure to authorize and permit them to take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with wage statements or with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ...";

(d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203,

204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(e) Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses: For Defendants' failure to reimburse the necessary work related expenses incurred under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802, and Sections 2(K), 4, 9, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), seeking civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, 2699.5, and 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 9 and 20 of the IWC Wage Orders, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(f) Failure to Provide Paid Sick Days: For Defendants' failure to provide Employees with all their required and earned sick days in violation of Labor Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246 the civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699.3(b), and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(g) Failure to Pay Vacation Wages: For Defendants' failure to provide Employees with all their vacation days in violation of Labor Code § 227.3 and seeking the civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 227.3, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699.3(b), and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1);

(h) Failure to Provide One Day's Rest in Seven: For Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code §§ 551 and 552, seeking relief available and the civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5 and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1); and

(i) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders constituting violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code § 2699.5, and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1).

We have been constrained to initially move forward with the filing of this Complaint, alleging the causes of action discussed herein, without the PAGA claim. Thus, any action by the LWDA would not resolve the entirety of the case, and the interest of judicial economy will be served by allowing the case to proceed as a cohesive whole.

This letter and the attached Complaint therefore provide the requisite notice under the Act to the LWDA and Defendants by setting forth the specific provisions of the Labor Code and related provisions Plaintiff alleges have been violated, including the facts and relevant theories alleged against St. Helena Hospital, Adventist Health, and any other named Defendants and joint employers. To prevent the violations described in the Complaint and herein from occurring, and to remedy past violations, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the LWDA conduct an investigation into Defendants' employment practices in accordance with the Act.

Wherefore we request that you advise us, by certified mail within sixty days of the postmark on this letter, whether you intend to proceed with these claims or whether Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees should include them in an amended Labor Code § 2698 et seq. claim under the Act in an amended Complaint.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff LAURA ARRIAGA-BENSON, (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) on behalf of herself and 2 all others similarly situated (collectively, “Employees”; individually, “Employee”) complains of 3 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all current and former 6 Employees within the State of California who, at any time four (4) years prior to the filing of this
7 lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt, hourly employees by Defendants ST. HELENA
8 HOSPITAL, a California nonprofit corporation; ADVENTIST HEALTH, an entity of unknown
9 form; and DOES 1 through 50 (all defendants being collectively referred to herein as 10 “Defendants”). Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of 11 the California Labor Code, relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) and 12 California Business & Professions Code, and seeks redress therefore.

13 2. Plaintiff is a resident of California and during the time period relevant to this 14 Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within the State of 15 California at Defendants’ facilities and offices in California. Plaintiff and the other Class members
16 worked for Defendants in Napa County, and in other nonexempt positions, throughout California
17 and, and consistently worked at Defendants’ behest without being paid all wages due. More 18 specifically, Plaintiff and the other similarly situated Class members were employed by 19 Defendants and worked at Defendants’ offices and other facilities where the conduct giving rise to 20 the allegations in this Class Action Complaint occurred. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff 21 was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities, (2) was 22 subjected to the same policies and practices, and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of 23 Defendants as the other Employee Class members who served in similar and related positions.

24 3. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class to perform work
25 while remaining under Defendants’ control before and after being on the clock for their daily work
26 shift. Defendants thus failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours worked and 27 provided them with inaccurate wage statements that prevented Plaintiff and the Class from 28 learning of these unlawful pay practices. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class

1 with lawful meal and rest periods, as employees were not provided with the opportunity to take
2 timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal and rest periods as required by the Labor Code.

3 THE PARTIES

4 A. The Plaintiff

5 4. Plaintiff LAURA ARRIAGA-BENSON has resided in California and during the 6 time period relevant to this Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly
7 employee within the State of California.

8 B. The Defendants

9 5. Defendant ST. HELENA HOSPITAL is a California nonprofit corporation with its 10 principle executive offices in St. Helena, California and has been listed as the employer on 11 Plaintiff's paystubs, wage statements, and personnel file during the relevant time period. ST.
12 HELENA HOSPITAL lists a mailing address in St. Helena, California with the California 13 Secretary of State and employs Plaintiff and the Class members at Defendants' offices and 14 facilities in St. Helena, California, and throughout California and conducts business throughout 15 California.

16 6. Defendant ADVENTIST HEALTH is an entity of unknown form and has been 17 listed as the employer on Plaintiff's paystubs and personnel file during the relevant time period.
18 ADVENTIST HEALTH does not list a California address with the California Secretary of State, 19 but upon information and belief, employs Plaintiff and Employees in Napa County, including at 20 Defendants' offices and facilities in Napa, California and throughout California and conducts 21 business throughout California.

22 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 23 whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently 24 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of 25 Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants 26 designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in 27 some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend 28 this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them, exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or permitted Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed Employees.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Employees of Defendants pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, the obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred at least in part in Napa County and Defendants maintain and operate company offices and facilities in Napa County, and employ Plaintiff and other Class members in Napa County and throughout California.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

10. The Employees who comprise the Class and Collective, including Plaintiff, are nonexempt employees pursuant to the applicable Wage Order of the IWC. Defendants hire Employees who work in nonexempt positions at the direction of Defendants in the State of California. Plaintiff and the Class members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours worked or were not paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Specifically, Plaintiff and Employees were not paid for the time that they worked “pre-shift” and “post-shift” without compensation by waiting to be let into the jobsite on occasions when the doors were locked, logging into their computers, and gathering equipment necessary for their work.

1 Defendants also failed to pay for on-call or standby time. Specifically, Defendants would contact
2 Plaintiff and inform her that she was needed at work. Plaintiff then had to report to work and was 3 not paid the on-call or standby pay she was owed. Upon information and belief, Class Members
4 were also required to be on-call and were not compensated for on-call or standby pay. Plaintiff
5 also contends that Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members all wages due and 6 owing, failed to provide meal and rest breaks, and failed to furnish accurate wage statements, all in 7 violation of various provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

8 11. During the course of Plaintiff and the Class members' employment with 9 Defendants, they were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed and 10 for all overtime hours worked, and were forced to work during their meal and rest breaks.
11 Defendants also failed to maintain timekeeping records for Plaintiff that would permit her to 12 discover the nature and extent of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping practices. Plaintiff, and upon 13 information and belief the other Class members, were required to work long hours, usually 10-12
14 hours per work shift. Yet Defendants systematically failed to pay them for all their hours worked.
15 Plaintiff was regularly scheduled to work 5-7 days a week, and 10 hours per day under an 16 alternative workweek schedule. Plaintiff contends that Defendants failed to pay her at the 17 required overtime rate for all hours over eight in a shift, or over forty in a week, which also 18 impacted when she should have been paid at the double time rate and resulted in underpayment of 19 double time for those hours over twelve worked in a shift. Plaintiff contends there was not an 20 enforceable alternative work week election conducted for her facility, or if it was, it was 21 improperly conducted and/or reported to the Department of Industrial Relations's Alternative 22 Workweek Elections Database. To the extent Plaintiff's facility and any other facilities in 23 California were operating under a similarly invalid or ineffectual alternative workweek election,
24 Plaintiff and those similarly situated Class members were not paid at least two hours of overtime 25 premium wages on every work shift for the hours between their eighth and tenth worked.

26 12. As a matter of uniform Company policy, Plaintiff and the Class members were not 27 paid regular wages and overtime. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked shifts over 28 eight (8) hours in a day, over forty (40) hours in a work week, and on the seventh consecutive day

1 of a work week, but they were not paid at the appropriate overtime rate for all such hours, by 2 operating under invalid or unenforceable alternative work week agreements leading to at least 3 two hours of unpaid overtime premium wages per shift. Plaintiff and the Class members were 4 also required to work during their meal and rest breaks and were not compensated by Defendants
5 in violation of the California Labor Code. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked 6 substantial overtime hours during their employment with Defendants for which they were not 7 compensated, in violation of the California Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

8 13. Additionally, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary
9 commissions, incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials. However, upon 10 information and belief, Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including
11 nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials
12 into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate.
13 Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and received
14 nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials,
15 Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

16 14. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 17 present, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay,
18 nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials. However, upon information and belief,
19 Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions,
20 incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials, into the calculation of the 21 regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating sick pay. Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and 22 Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, 23 nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials, Defendants failed to pay all sick pay by 24 paying a lower overtime rate than required.

25 15. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 26 present, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay,
27 nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials. However, upon information and belief,
28 Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions,

1 incentive pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials, into the calculation of the 2 regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating vacation pay. Therefore, during times when
3 Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive
4 pay, nondiscretionary bonuses, and/or shift differentials, Defendants failed to pay all vacation pay
5 by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

6 16. As a matter of uniform Company policy, Plaintiff and the Class members were 7 required to work during their meal and rest breaks which were not compensated by Defendants in 8 violation of the California Labor Code. Plaintiff and the Class members were also not paid
9 regular wages and overtime for the time they were required to comply with other requirements
10 imposed upon them, which they had to complete while working through their meal and rest
11 breaks and without compensation. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked shifts over 12 eight (8) hours in a day, over forty (40) hours in a work week, and/or on the seventh consecutive 13 day of a work week, but they were not paid at the appropriate overtime rate for all such hours, 14 including by being required to perform work duties and tasks without pay and while off-the-15 clock. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked substantial overtime hours during their 16 employment with Defendants for which they were not compensated, in violation of the California
17 Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

18 17. As a result of the above described off-the-clock work, the pressures to work
19 through breaks, and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants' hands, Plaintiff and the 20 Class members were not properly paid for all wages earned and for all wages owed to them by 21 Defendants, including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than 22 forty (40) hours in any given week. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices,
23 Plaintiff and Class members incurred overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately
24 and completely compensated. To the extent applicable, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and 25 the Class members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for the first eight hours of the 26 seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the rate of 2 times the regular 27 rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work day, as required under the 28 Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

1 18. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
2 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
3 Employees for all hours worked and failing to pay minimum wage for all time worked as required
4 by California Law.

5 19. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
6 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
7 Employees overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all hours worked in excess of 8 eight (8) hours a day, in excess of forty (40) hours a week, and/or on the seventh consecutive day
9 of a work week. Defendants also had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay Employees 10 double-time rates for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours a day and/or hours worked in 11 excess of eight hours a day on the seventh consecutive day of a work week, all in violation of 12 Labor Code § 510 and the corresponding sections of IWC Wage Orders.

13 20. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 14 continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Employees to work shifts in excess
15 of five (5) hours without providing them with uninterrupted meal periods of not less than thirty 16 (30) minutes and shifts in excess of ten (10) hours without providing them with second meal
17 periods of not less than thirty minutes; nor did Defendants pay Employees “premium pay,” i.e. one 18 hour of wages at each Employee’s effective regular rate of pay, for each meal period that 19 Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

20 21. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 21 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with paid rest breaks of not less 22 than ten (10) minutes for every work period of four (4) or more consecutive hours; nor did
23 Defendants pay Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not 24 provided or were deficiently provided at one hour of wages at each Employee’s effective regular 25 rate of pay, for each rest period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

26 22. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
27 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
28 accurate, and itemized wage statements as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

1 Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees by Defendants failed to accurately account
2 for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal periods and rest breaks, and reflected 3 incorrect hours worked, all of which Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were 4 owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. The wage statements provided to Employees were 5 confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify
6 whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees.

7 23. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
8 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
9 accurate, and itemized wage statements, in writing, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

10 24. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 11 present, Defendants have failed to reimburse Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the 12 performance of their job duties for Defendants including, but not limited to, the cost of personal 13 cellphone usage, which was necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ in 14 violation of Labor Code § 2802.

15 25. Additionally, from at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 16 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to keep accurate time and wage 17 records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

18 26. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing 19 to the present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages fur and owed to 20 Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 21 required by California wage-and-hour laws.

22 27. From at least four years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 23 present, Defendants violated Labor Code § 551 by not providing Plaintiff and Employees to one 24 day's rest in seven. Defendants required Employees to work more than six consecutive days 25 without a day of rest, where the total hours worked exceeded 30 hours in any week or six hours in 26 any one day thereof. For example, Defendant required Plaintiff and Employees to work specified 27 shifts for seven or more consecutive calendar days. Not only have Defendants failed to pay any 28 overtime premiums to Plaintiff and Employees for consecutive days worked after the sixth consecutive day, but Defendants have intentionally and repeatedly assigned Plaintiff and Employees work schedules requiring Plaintiff and Employees to work seven days in a row for well over a total of 30 hours. In addition, based on information and belief, Defendants defined the workweek in such a manner as to minimize or reduce the amount of overtime worked by Plaintiff and Employees, whether it be for weekly overtime over 40 hours of work or for overtime for working over 6 consecutive days.

28. In light of the foregoing, Employees bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 245 et seq., 246, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1199, and 2802.

29. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, Employees seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

30. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as follows: all individuals employed by Defendants within the State of California at any time within four (4) years of the filing of this lawsuit.

31. Further, Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

c. Subclass 3. Meal Period Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

d. Subclass 4. Rest Break Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Employees to take uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

e. Subclass 5. Vacation Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated at the Employee's regular rate of pay for their vacation wages.

f. Subclass 6. Sick Pay Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated at the Employee's regular rate of pay for their sick pay wages.

g. Subclass 7. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

h. Subclass 8. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

i. Subclass 9. Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' failure to reimburse for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of Employees job duties for Defendants.

j. Subclass 10. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon termination.

k. Subclass 11. One Day's Rest Class. All Class members who worked more than six consecutive days in a row for a total of over 30 hours at the direction of Defendants.

k. Subclass 12. UCL Subclass. All Class members who are owed restitution as a result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

32. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

33. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action

1 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community
2 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

3 A. Numerosity

4 34. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all
5 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class members has not been 6 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 7 time period relevant to this lawsuit, employed more than 100 individuals within the State of 8 California.

9 35. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 10 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 11 information as to the number and location of all class members.

12 B. Commonality

13 36. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any 14 questions affecting only individual class members. These common questions of law and fact 15 include:

- 16 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages;
- 17 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees wages for all hours worked;
- 18 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees overtime as required under Labor
19 Code § 510;
- 20 d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable
21 IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite meal periods or 22 premium pay in lieu thereof;
- 23 e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage
24 Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite rest breaks or premium pay 25 in lieu thereof;
- 26 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees vacation wages as required under 27 Labor Code § 227.3;
- 28 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees sick pay as required under Labor

Code § 245;

h. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a);

i. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;

j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Employees for necessary business expenses;

k. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;

l. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 551 and 552 for requiring Class Members to work over six consecutive days in a row for at least six hours a day for over 30 hours total;

m. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and

n. Whether Employees are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

C. Typicality

37. The claims of the named plaintiff are typical of those of the other Employees.

Employees all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of law, as alleged herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

38. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Employees.

Counsel who represents Employees are experienced and competent in litigating employment class actions.

E. Superiority of Class Action

39. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Employees is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to all Employees predominate over any questions affecting only individual Employees. Each Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Employees properly.

1 40. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their 2 claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system.
3 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class action.

4 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 41. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 8 full herein.

9 42. Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages for all hours worked.
10 Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Employees time records and failing to pay
11 Employees for all hours worked. Employees would work hours and not receive wages, including 12 as alleged above in connection with working during meal breaks, and working “pre-shift” and 13 “post-shift” without compensation by waiting to be let into the jobsite on occasions when the 14 doors were locked, logging into computers, and gathering equipment necessary for their work.
15 Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate for all hours worked and at the applicable hourly
16 rates, including when operating under alternative workweek agreements. Defendants also failed
17 to pay for on-call or standby time. Specifically, Defendants would contact Plaintiff and inform 18 her that she was needed at work. Plaintiff then had to report to work and was not paid the on-call
19 or standby pay she was owed. Additionally, Defendants had a consistent policy of failing to pay
20 Employees for hours worked during alleged meal periods for which Employees were consistently 21 denied, as also addressed herein. Defendants thus regularly failed to pay minimum wages to 22 Plaintiff and Class members. Moreover, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Employees at the 23 applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants’ uniform pattern of unlawful wage
24 and hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a whole, as a result 25 of implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate compensation to Plaintiff and 26 the other members of the Class as to minimum wage pay.

27 43. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage”
28 states:

1 The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the 2 minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less
3 wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

4 44. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 5 relevant period is found in the Wage Orders. Pursuant to the Wage Orders, Employees are 6 therefore entitled to double the minimum wage during the relevant period.

7 45. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private 8 civil action pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a) which states:

9 Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any 10 employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 11 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 12 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of 13 this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest
14 thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

15 46. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages
16 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission.

17 47. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies:

18 In any action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of 19 the payment of a wage less than the minimum wages fixed by an 20 order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover
21 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully
22 unpaid and interest thereon.

23 48. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have 24 willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this 25 indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Employees.

26 49. Wherefore, Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages
27 (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum 28 wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant 29 to California Labor Code § 1194(a).

30 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

31 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

32 (Against All Defendants)

33 50. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in

1 full herein.

2 51. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code §
3 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees:
4 (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a
5 workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours worked 6 on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours
7 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of eight
8 (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not 9 paying Employees wages for all hours worked including time off the clock working “pre-shift”
10 and “post-shift” without compensation by waiting to be let into the jobsite on occasions when the 11 doors were locked, logging into computers, and gathering equipment necessary for their work.
12 Moreover, Defendants failed to pay Employees wages for all hours worked, as addressed above, 13 by operating under invalid or unenforceable alternative work week agreements leading to at least 14 two hours of unpaid overtime premium wages per shift. Defendants also failed to pay for on-call 15 or standby time. Specifically, Defendants would contact Plaintiff and inform her that she was 16 needed at work. Plaintiff then had to report to work and was not paid the on-call or standby pay
17 she was owed. Employees regularly worked over 8 hours on a given day or over 40 hours in a 18 given week without receiving overtime compensation.

19 52. Defendants’ failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a 20 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid
21 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct
22 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages
23 and overtime compensation earned by Employees. Each such failure to make a timely payment of 24 compensation to Employees constitutes a separate violation of California Labor Code § 204.

25 53. Employees have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code §§
26 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

27 54. Consequently, pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 204, 510, and 1194 (and the 28 relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission), Defendants are liable to Employees for

1 the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their 2 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

3 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

4 MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

5 (Against All Defendants)

6 55. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
7 full herein.

8 56. Employees regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and greater than ten 9 (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ someone for a shift of 10 more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of not less than thirty 11 (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or her with a second 12 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

13 57. Defendants failed to provide Employees with meal periods as required under the 14 Labor Code. Employees were consistently required to work through their meal periods which they 15 were consistently denied. Employees were also required to take meal periods after working well 16 beyond the five (5) hour shifts. What meal periods were provided were also not duty-free due to 17 Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting the meal breaks with work demands. Furthermore,
18 Employees were regularly required to work for more than 10 hours in a given shift without 19 receiving a second uninterrupted thirty (30) minute meal period as required by law.

20 58. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each meal period not 21 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11 and 22 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an 23 employee a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one 24 hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period
25 is not provided. Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each meal period
26 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11
27 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order. Additionally, as detailed above, when Defendants did 28 pay meal period premiums, they did so at the normal regular rate of pay without factoring in all

1 forms or remuneration/compensation or by otherwise incorrectly calculating the regular rate.

2 59. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 3 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal
4 period not provided or deficiently provided, a sum to be proven at trial.

5 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

7 (Against All Defendants)

8 60. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 9 full herein.

10 61. Employees consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts. Pursuant to the 11 Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order, Employees were entitled to paid rest breaks of 12 not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift.

13 62. Defendants failed to provide Employees with timely rest breaks of not less than ten 14 (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. What rest breaks were provided were also 15 not duty-free due to Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting rest breaks with work 16 demands.

17 63. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each rest period not 18 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC
19 Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in 20 accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the 21 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.
22 Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each rest period not provided or 23 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage
24 Order. Additionally, as detailed above, when Defendants did pay rest period premiums, they did
25 so at the normal regular rate of pay without factoring in all forms or remuneration/compensation 26 or by otherwise incorrectly calculating the regular rate.

27 64. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 28 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day

1 worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to be proven at trial.

2 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 FAILURE TO PAY VACATION WAGES

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 65. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
6 full herein.

7 66. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 227.3, whenever a contract of employment or 8 employment policy provides for paid vacation and an employee is terminated without having 9 taken off her vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to her as wages at her final rate 10 in accordance with said contract of employment or policy respecting eligibility or time served.

11 67. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, nondiscretionary
12 bonuses, and/or shift differentials to Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of 13 remuneration in the regular rate of pay upon which vacation wages were calculated and paid.

14 68. Therefore, Plaintiff and Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor
15 Code § 227.3.

16 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH LABOR CODE §§ 245 ET SEQ. AND 246

18 (Against All Defendants)

19 69. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 20 full herein.

21 70. California Labor Code § 245 et seq. requires that Defendants provide paid sick time 22 to Employees, including at the amount, terms, and rate of compensation set forth in said law. At 23 times relevant, Defendants have failed compute the amount due for paid sick time in conformance
24 with the pay calculation under California Labor Code § 246(l).

25 71. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, nondiscretionary
26 bonuses, and/or shift differentials to Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of 27 remuneration in the regular rate of pay upon which sick pay was calculated and paid. Rather than 28 calculating the amount of paid sick time due when sick time is used according to the requirements

1 set forth in California Labor Code § 246(1), Defendants paid sick leave to Employees at a lower 2 rate, in violation of the law.

3 72. Therefore, Plaintiff and Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor
4 Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246.

5 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
6 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES
7 IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2802

8 (Against All Defendants)

9 73. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 10 full herein.

11 74. Under Labor Code § 2802(a), an employer must indemnify its employees for all 12 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge
13 of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

14 75. Employees incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job duties
15 for Defendants, including the cost of cell phone usage, which was necessary to perform their 16 duties under Defendants' employ. From four (4) years prior to the original filing of this lawsuit
17 and continuing to the present, Defendants consistently failed to reimburse Employees for these 18 necessarily incurred business expenses.

19 76. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Employees have been deprived of 20 reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts,
21 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

22 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
23 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)

24 (Against All Defendants)

25 77. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 26 full herein.

27 78. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her 28 employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings,

1 total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these
2 statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else
3 serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these 4 statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the 5 employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

6 79. Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in 7 writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees, by 8 Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal
9 periods and rest breaks, and reflected incorrect hours worked, all of which Defendants knew or 10 reasonably should have known were owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. The wage
11 statements provided to Employees were confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery
12 and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a 13 miscalculation by the Employees.

14 80. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a),
15 Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received 16 all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and 17 forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact 18 compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

19 81. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e), Employees are entitled to recover
20 the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation 21 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not 22 exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an 23 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

24 82. With respect to violations of Labor Code § 226, Labor Code § 226.3 imposes a 25 civil penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for initial violations for each employee for 26 each pay period, and one thousand dollars ($1000) for each subsequent violation for each 27 employee for each pay period.

28 83. Plaintiff is seeking penalties against Defendants under Labor Code § 226.3, and

1 any other applicable statute allowing recovery of penalties as alleged herein in an amount to be 2 shown according to proof.

3 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174

5 AND 1174.5

6 (Against All Defendants)

7 84. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
8 full herein.

9 85. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time
10 and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any 11 employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek 12 damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

13 86. During the course of Plaintiff's and Employees' employment, Defendants 14 consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Employees as 15 required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Employees proper wages, 16 overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

17 87. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California
18 Labor Code § 1174.5. for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

19 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 88. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 23 full herein.

24 89. Numerous Employees are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit
25 Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

26 90. Defendants failed to pay these Employees all wages due and certain at the time of 27 termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

28 91. The wages withheld from these Employees by Defendants remained due and owing 1 for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation of employment.

2 92. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged above, was willful in that Defendants
3 knew wages to be due but failed to pay them; this violation entitles these Employees to penalties
4 under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up 5 to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

6 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE §§ 551, 552 FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE ONE

8 DAY'S REST IN SEVEN

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 93. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 11 full herein.

12 94. At all relevant times herein, Labor Code § 551 provides that every person
13 employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest in seven. Additionally, Labor
14 Code § 552 prohibits employers from requiring employees to work more than six consecutive days 15 without a day of rest.

16 95. At all relevant times herein set forth, Labor Code § 556 exempts an employer from 17 the day-of-rest requirement when the total hours worked by an employee do not exceed 30 hours 18 in any week or six hours in any one day thereof.

19 96. During the relevant time period, Defendants scheduled Plaintiff and Employees to 20 work six (6) or more hours per day or for a total of more than 30 hours for more than six (6)
21 consecutive calendar days. Not only have Defendants failed to pay any overtime premiums to 22 Plaintiff and Employees for consecutive days worked after the sixth consecutive day, but 23 Defendants have intentionally and repeatedly assigned Plaintiff and Employees work schedules
24 requiring Plaintiff and Employees to work approximately ten days consecutively for well over a 25 total of 30 hours. In addition, based on information and belief, Defendants defined the workweek
26 in such a manner as to minimize or reduce the amount of overtime worked by Plaintiff and 27 Employees, whether it be for weekly overtime over 40 hours of work or for overtime for working 28 over six (6) consecutive days. Because Plaintiff and Employees worked over 30 hours per week

1 and/or over six (6) hours per day in a workweek, they were not exempt from the day-of-rest
2 requirement. To the extent that Plaintiff and Employees may have signed purported waivers of 3 their right to a day's rest in seven, such waivers are invalid. Thus, during the relevant time period,
4 and in violation of Labor Code § 551 and 552, Defendants willfully caused Plaintiff and 5 Employees to work more than six days in seven.

6 97. Labor Code § 558(a) further provides “[a]ny employer or other person acting on 7 behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any 8 provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission
9 shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for 10 each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid.... (2) For 11 each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay 12 period for which the employee was underpaid....” Labor Code § 558(c) provides “[t]he civil 13 penalties provided for in this section are in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty provided 14 by law.”

15 98. Plaintiff and Employees are therefore entitled to recover statutory penalties
16 authorized for violations of California Labor Code §§ 551, 552 and 558, and Plaintiff also seeks 17 attorneys’ fees and costs.

18 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.

20 (Against All Defendants)

21 99. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 22 full herein.

23 100. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, Employees, and the general public, brings this claim
24 pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as alleged in 25 this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Employees and the 26 general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 27 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

28 101. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code

1 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive
2 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

3 102. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair
4 business practices.

5 103. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 6 wages and overtime, providing them with meal and rest periods, etc., are fundamental public
7 policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State vigorously 8 to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to 9 work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their 10 employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to comply with minimum 11 labor standards.

12 104. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 13 in this Complaint, Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 14 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 15 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Defendants' conduct has deprived 16 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and 17 privileges guaranteed to all employees under the law.

18 105. Defendants' conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 19 violation of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

20 106. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 21 overtime, failing to provide meal and rest periods, etc., either knew or in the exercise of reasonable 22 care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct violates the 23 Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

24 107. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Employees have 25 been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

26 108. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in such 27 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court 28 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be

1 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 2 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 3 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Employees to the money Defendants
4 have unlawfully failed to pay.

5 RELIEF REQUESTED

6 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 7 1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
- 8 2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work
9 performed by Employees and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior to 10 the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 11 3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and 12 interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
- 13 4. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees
14 for each missed or deficient meal period where no premium pay was paid therefor from four (4) 15 years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 16 5. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees
17 for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided and where no
18 premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may 19 be proven;
- 20 6. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Employees, as may be proven;
- 21 7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3, as may be proven;
- 22 8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 227.3, as may be proven;
- 23 9. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 245 and 246, as may be proven;
- 24 10. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Employees who quit or were 25 fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;
- 26 11. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, as may be proven;
- 27 12. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code 28 § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;

1 13. For compensatory damages in the amount of all previously unreimbursed business
2 expenditures necessarily incurred by Employees in the discharge of their job duties for Defendants
3 from four (4) years prior to the original filing of this action, as may be proven;

4 14. For penalties and compensatory damages in the amount equal to the proper rate of 5 pay for work beyond the sixth consecutive day for at least six hours a day or for over 30 hours
6 total;

7 15. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and 8 all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or 9 duties adumbrated in this Complaint;

10 16. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;

11 17. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

12 18. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;

13 19. For an award of attorneys' fees; and 14 20. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.
