1 Plaintiffs Marlin Osorio and Sue Ling Manjarrez (“Plaintiffs”), based upon facts that 2 either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable
3 opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants Airport Terminal Management, Inc.,
6 and Does 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code
7 violations and unfair business practices stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay minimum 8 wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and 9 permit rest periods, failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods,
10 failure to timely pay all wages to terminated employees, failure to indemnify necessary business 11 expenses, and failure to furnish accurate wage statements.

12 2. Plaintiffs bring the First through Eighth Causes of Action individually and as a 13 class action on behalf of himself and certain current and former employees of Defendants 14 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members” and defined more fully 15 below). The Class consists of Plaintiffs and all other persons who have been employed by any 16 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee during the statute of 17 limitations period applicable to the claims pleaded here.

18 3. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 19 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, and based 20 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants’ business in California, Defendants
21 are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare
22 Commission (“IWC”), and the California Business & Professions Code.

23 4. Despite these requirements, throughout the statutory period Defendants 24 maintained a systematic, company-wide policy and practice of:

- 25 (a) Failing to pay employees for all hours worked, including all minimum
26 wages, and overtime wages in compliance with the California Labor Code
27 and IWC Wage Orders;
28

- (b) Failing to provide employees with timely and duty-free meal periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, failing to maintain accurate records of all meal periods taken or missed, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a meal period violation occurred;
- (c) Failing to authorize and permit employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods in compliance with the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, and failing to pay an additional hour's pay for each workday a rest period violation occurred;
- (d) Failing to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses incurred;
- (e) Willfully failing to pay employees all minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages due within the time period specified by California law when employment terminates; and
- (f) Failing to maintain accurate records of the hours that employees worked.
- (g) Failing to provide employees with accurate, itemized wage statements containing all the information required by the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

5. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

6. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs and the Class. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of "respondeat superior".

1 THE PARTIES

2 A. Plaintiffs

3 7. Plaintiff Marlin Osorio is a California resident that worked for Defendants in the 4 County of Los Angeles, State of California from approximately 2021 to July 2024.

5 8. Plaintiff Sue Ling Manjarrez is a California resident currently employed by 6 Defendants in the County of Los Angeles, State of California beginning in October 2022.

7 9. Plaintiffs reserve the right to seek leave to amend this complaint to add new 8 Plaintiffs, if necessary, in order to establish suitable representative(s) pursuant to La Sala v.
9 American Savings and Loan Association (1971) 5 Cal.3d 864, 872, and other applicable law.

10 B. Defendants

11 10. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief 12 allege, that Defendants are:

- 13 (a) Business entities with their principal places of business in Los Angeles, 14 California.
- 15 (b) Business entities conducting business in numerous counties throughout the 16 State of California, including in Los Angeles County; and
- 17 (c) The former employers of Plaintiff Osorio, and the current and/or former 18 employers of the putative Class and Plaintiff Manjarrez. Defendants
19 suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the Class to work, and/or controlled 20 their wages, hours, or working conditions; and
- 21 (d) At all times mentioned herein, Defendants are and were the joint employers
22 of Plaintiffs and the Class.

23 11. Plaintiffs do not currently know the true names or capacities of the persons or 24 entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious
25 names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages
26 suffered by Plaintiffs and the Class as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set
27 forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, 28 together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

1 12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 2 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of,
3 and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs and the Class in the State of California.

4 13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times
5 each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs 6 and the other employees described in the class definitions below, and exercised control over their 7 wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege 8 that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer,
9 director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest
10 and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some 11 or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to 12 some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters
13 alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted 14 pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or 15 should have known about, and authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and 16 abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

17 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

18 14. Plaintiffs are California residents who worked for Defendants in the County of Los 19 Angeles, State of California during the statutory period. During the statutory time period, 20 Defendants classified Plaintiffs as non-exempt employees. Plaintiffs were typically scheduled to 21 work at least 5 days in a workweek, and typically in excess of 8 hours in a single workday.

22 15. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs for all hours
23 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages), failed to provide Plaintiffs with 24 uninterrupted meal periods, failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs to take uninterrupted rest
25 periods, failed to indemnify Plaintiffs for necessary business expenses, failed to timely pay all
26 final wages to Plaintiffs when Defendants terminated Plaintiff Osorio's employment, and failed
27 to furnish accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience
28 working for Defendants was typical and illustrative.

1 16. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of 2 not paying Plaintiffs and the Class for all hours worked, including all overtime wages.
3 Throughout the statutory period, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to work off-the-clock, and 4 uncompensated. For example, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to wait in line in order to 5 clock into work, off the clock and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to 6 undergo security screening prior to clocking into work, off the clock and uncompensated. Also,
7 Plaintiffs and the Class were required to park in designated areas, which would require them to 8 take a shuttle from the parking lot to the work premises, leading to off the clock time, 9 uncompensated. Also, during certain periods of time, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to 10 undergo temperature screening prior to clocking into work, off the clock and uncompensated.
11 Also, Plaintiffs and the Class were often interrupted during meal breaks without compensation.
12 Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiffs and the Class received nondiscretionary bonuses
13 (such as safety bonuses) and other remuneration. However, Defendants failed to incorporate all 14 remuneration when calculating the correct overtime rate of pay, meal break premium rate of pay, 15 and sick day rate of pay, leading to underpayment.

16 17. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to provide 17 Plaintiffs and the Class with legally compliant meal periods. Defendants sometimes, but not 18 always, required Plaintiffs and the Class to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day
19 without providing 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five 20 hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiffs and the Class for meal periods that were not 21 provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendants also did not 22 adequately inform Plaintiffs and the Class of their right to take a meal period by the end of the 23 fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work.
24 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and 25 the Class in compliance with California law.

26 18. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 27 and permit Plaintiffs and the Class to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants
28 sometimes, but not always, required Plaintiffs and the Class to work in excess of four

1 consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute,
2 continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four
3 hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs and the Class for rest periods that were not authorized
4 or permitted. Defendants also did not adequately inform Plaintiffs and the Class of their right to 5 take a rest period. Moreover, Defendants did not have adequate policies or practices permitting
6 or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiffs and the Class, nor did Defendants have adequate policies
7 or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendants also did not have adequate policies
8 or practices to verify whether Plaintiffs and the Class were taking their required rest periods.
9 Further, Defendants did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore 10 Defendants cannot demonstrate that Plaintiffs and the Class took rest periods during the middle 11 of each work period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and 12 permit Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

13 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiffs and the 14 Class to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without 15 reimbursement, such as requiring Plaintiffs and the Class to purchase items such as gloves, back 16 braces, specific types of shoes, hand sanitizers, and the purchase of uniforms. Also, Plaintiffs and 17 the Class were required to use their own personal cellular telephones for work purposes, 18 including to communicate. Although a company telephone was provided for purposes of 19 receiving orders, Plaintiffs and the Class were required to use their personal cellular telephones
20 to make telephone calls and to communicate with supervisors, and to conduct training.

21 20. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants willfully failed and refused to timely
22 pay Plaintiffs and the Class at the conclusion of their employment all wages for all minimum
23 wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest period premium wages. Further,
24 Defendants did not pay Plaintiffs and the Class their final paychecks immediately upon 25 termination.

26 21. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs and the 27 Class with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, and all gross 28 and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages earned for hours worked,

1 correct overtime hours worked, correct wages for meal periods that were not provided in 2 accordance with California law, correct wages for rest periods that were not authorized and
3 permitted to take in accordance with California law, and Defendant's address). Further, the wage
4 statements do not show Defendant's address as required by California law. As a result of these 5 violations of California Labor Code § 226(a), the Plaintiffs and the Class suffered injury because,
6 among other things:

- 7 (a) the violations led them to believe that they were not entitled to be paid
8 minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and rest 9 period premium wages to which they were entitled, even though they were 10 entitled;
- 11 (b) the violations led them to believe that they had been paid the minimum, 12 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages, even 13 though they had not been;
- 14 (c) the violations led them to believe they were not entitled to be paid
15 minimum, overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium wages 16 at the correct California rate even though they were;
- 17 (d) the violations led them to believe they had been paid minimum, overtime,
18 meal period premium, and rest period premium wages at the correct
19 California rate even though they had not been;
- 20 (e) the violations hindered them from determining the amounts of minimum, 21 overtime, meal period premium, and rest period premium owed to them;
- 22 (f) in connection with their employment before and during this action, and in 23 connection with prosecuting this action, the violations caused them to have 24 to perform mathematical computations to determine the amounts of wages
25 owed to them, computations they would not have to make if the wage 26 statements contained the required accurate information;

- 1 (g) by understating the wages truly due them, the violations caused them to
2 lose entitlement and/or accrual of the full amount of Social Security,
3 disability, unemployment, and other governmental benefits;
4 (h) the wage statements inaccurately understated the wages, hours, and wages
5 rates to which Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled, and Plaintiffs and the 6 Class were paid less than the wages and wage rates to which they were 7 entitled.

8 Thus, Plaintiffs and the Class are owed the amounts provided for in California Labor Code §
9 226(e), including actual damages.

10 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

11 22. Plaintiffs bring certain claims individually, as well as on behalf of each and all 12 other persons similarly situated, and thus, seek class certification under California Code of Civil 13 Procedure § 382.

14 23. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek relief
15 authorized by California law.

16 24. The proposed Class consists of and is defined as:

17 All persons who worked for any Defendant in California as an hourly, non-18 exempt employee at any time during the period beginning four years before the 19 filing of the initial complaint in this action and ending when notice to the Class is sent.

20 25. At all material times, Plaintiffs were members of the Class.

21 26. Plaintiffs undertake this concerted activity to improve the wages and working 22 conditions of all Class Members.

23 27. There is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation and the Class is 24 readily ascertainable:

- 25 (a) Numerosity: The members of the Class (and each subclass, if any) are so 26 numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical.
27 The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiffs at this time, 28

1 however, the Class is estimated to be greater than 100 individuals and the 2 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of 3 Defendants' records.

4 (b) Typicality: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately
5 protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared,
6 well-defined community of interest, and Plaintiffs' claims (or defenses, if 7 any) are typical of all Class Members' claims as demonstrated herein.

8 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs are qualified to, and will, fairly and adequately
9 protect the interests of each Class Member with whom there is a shared, 10 well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as 11 demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have no conflicts with or interests
12 antagonistic to any Class Member. Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class 13 counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, 14 certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have incurred, and throughout the 15 duration of this action, will continue to incur costs and attorneys' fees that 16 have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this 17 action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

18 (d) Superiority: A Class Action is superior to other available methods for the 19 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, including consideration 20 of:

- 21 1) The interests of the members of the Class in individually
- 22 controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
- 23 2) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy
- 24 already commenced by or against members of the Class;
- 25 3) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of
- 26 the claims in the particular forum; and
- 27 4) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a
- 28 class action.

1 (e) Public Policy Considerations: The public policy of the State of California
2 is to resolve the California Labor Code claims of many employees through 3 a class action. Indeed, current employees are often afraid to assert their 4 rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are 5 also fearful of bringing actions because they believe their former 6 employers might damage their future endeavors through negative
7 references and/or other means. Class actions provide the class members 8 who are not named in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows 9 for the vindication of their rights at the same time as their privacy is 10 protected.

11 28. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class (and each subclass, if 12 any) that predominate over questions affecting only individual members, including without 13 limitation, whether, as alleged herein, Defendants have:

- 14 (a) Failed to pay Class Members for all hours worked, including minimum 15 wages, and overtime wages;
- 16 (b) Failed to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages to 17 Class Members;
- 18 (c) Failed to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium
19 wages to Class Members;
- 20 (d) Failed to promptly pay all wages due to Class Members upon their 21 discharge or resignation;
- 22 (e) Failed to maintain accurate records of all hours Class Members worked, 23 and all meal periods Class Members took or missed;
- 24 (f) Failed to reimburse Class Members for all necessary business expenses; 25 and
- 26 (g) Violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et. seq. as a 27 result of their illegal conduct as described above.

28 29. This Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to

1 California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because:

- 2 (a) The questions of law and fact common to the Class predominate over any
- 3 question affecting only individual members;
- 4 (b) A class action is superior to any other available method for the fair and
- 5 efficient adjudication of the claims of the members of the Class;
- 6 (c) The members of the Class are so numerous that it is impractical to bring all
- 7 members of the class before the Court;
- 8 (d) Plaintiffs, and the other members of the Class, will not be able to obtain
- 9 effective and economic legal redress unless the action is maintained as a
- 10 class action;
- 11 (e) There is a community of interest in obtaining appropriate legal and
- 12 equitable relief for the statutory violations, and in obtaining adequate
- 13 compensation for the damages and injuries for which Defendants are
- 14 responsible in an amount sufficient to adequately compensate the members
- 15 of the Class for the injuries sustained;
- 16 (f) Without class certification, the prosecution of separate actions by
- 17 individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - 18 1) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual
 - 19 members of the Class which would establish incompatible standards
 - 20 of conduct for Defendants; and/or
 - 21 2) Adjudications with respect to the individual members which would,
 - 22 as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other
 - 23 members not parties to the adjudications, or would substantially
 - 24 impair or impede their ability to protect their interests, including but
 - 25 not limited to the potential for exhausting the funds available from
 - 26 those parties who are, or may be, responsible Defendants; and,
 - 27 (g) Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to
 - 28 the Class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to

1 the class as a whole.

2 30. Plaintiffs contemplate the eventual issuance of notice to the proposed members of 3 the Class that would set forth the subject and nature of the instant action. The Defendants' own 4 business records may be utilized for assistance in the preparation and issuance of the 5 contemplated notices. To the extent that any further notices may be required, Plaintiffs would 6 contemplate the use of additional techniques and forms commonly used in class actions, such as 7 published notice, e-mail notice, website notice, first-class mail, or combinations thereof, or by 8 other methods suitable to the Class and deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the Court.

9 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

10 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Minimum Wages for All Hours Worked)

11 31. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
12 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

13 32. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of 14 an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or 15 not required to do so.

16 33. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendants knowingly failed to pay to 17 Plaintiffs and the Class compensation for all hours they worked. By their failure to pay 18 compensation for each hour worked as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the 19 provisions of Section 1194 of the California Labor Code, and any additional applicable Wage
20 Orders, which require such compensation to non-exempt employees.

21 34. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover minimum wages for 22 all non-overtime hours worked for Defendants.

23 35. By and through the conduct described above, Plaintiffs and the Class have been 24 deprived of their rights to be paid wages earned by virtue of their employment with Defendants.

25 36. By virtue of the Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional compensation to 26 Plaintiffs and the Class for their non-overtime hours worked without pay, Plaintiffs and the Class 27 suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently unknown to 28

1 Plaintiffs and the Class, but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court, and which 2 will be ascertained according to proof at trial.

3 37. By failing to keep adequate time records required by California Labor Code §
4 1174(d), Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of minimum wage
5 compensation due Plaintiffs and the Class.

6 38. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194.2, Plaintiffs and the Class are 7 entitled to recover liquidated damages (double damages) for Defendants' failure to pay minimum 8 wages.

9 39. California Labor Code section 204 requires employers to provide employees with 10 all wages due and payable twice a month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable
11 to this cause of action, Plaintiffs and the Class were entitled to be paid twice a month at rates
12 required by law, including minimum wages. However, during all such times, Defendants 13 systematically failed and refused to pay Plaintiffs and the Class all such wages due, and failed to 14 pay those wages twice a month.

15 40. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to seek recovery of all unpaid minimum
16 wages, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code §§
17 218.5, 218.6, and 1194(a).

18 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

20 41. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
21 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

22 42. California Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be 23 employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless 24 they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

25 43. California Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 provide that employees in California 26 shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional 27 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, California
28 Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed

1 by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

2 44. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs and the Class have worked more than eight
3 hours in a workday, as employees of Defendants.

4 45. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Class
5 overtime compensation for the hours they have worked in excess of the maximum hours
6 permissible by law as required by California Labor Code § 510 and 1198. Plaintiffs and the 7 Class are regularly required to work overtime hours.

8 46. By virtue of Defendants' unlawful failure to pay additional premium rate
9 compensation to the Plaintiffs and the Class for their overtime hours worked, Plaintiffs and the 10 Class have suffered, and will continue to suffer, damages in amounts which are presently 11 unknown to them but which exceed the jurisdictional minimum of this Court and which will be 12 ascertained according to proof at trial.

13 47. By failing to keep adequate time records required by Labor Code § 1174(d), 14 Defendants have made it difficult to calculate the full extent of overtime compensation due to 15 Plaintiffs and the Class.

16 48. Plaintiffs and the Class also request recovery of overtime compensation according 17 to proof, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a), as well
18 as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the 19 California Labor Code and/or other statutes.

20 49. California Labor Code § 204 requires employers to provide employees with all 21 wages due and payable twice a month. The Wage Orders also provide that every employer shall 22 pay to each employee, on the established payday for the period involved, overtime wages for all 23 overtime hours worked in the payroll period. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 24 Class with all compensation due, in violation of California Labor Code § 204.

26 ///

1 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Provide Meal Periods)

3 50. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
4 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

5 51. Under California law, Defendants have an affirmative obligation to relieve the 6 Plaintiffs and the Class of all duty in order to take their first daily meal periods no later than the 7 start of Plaintiffs' and the Class' sixth hour of work in a workday, and to take their second meal
8 periods no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Section 512 of the 9 California Labor Code, and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders require that an employer
10 provide unpaid meal periods of at least 30 minutes for each five-hour period worked. It is a
11 violation of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee
12 to work during any meal period mandated under any Wage Order.

13 52. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants regularly failed to provide Plaintiffs
14 and the Class with both meal periods as required by California law. By their failure to permit
15 and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take all meal periods as alleged above (or due to the fact 16 that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take these uninterrupted meal periods), 17 Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of the California Labor Code and 18 the applicable Wage Orders.

19 53. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 20 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s), 21 plus interest thereon.

22 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods)

24 54. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
25 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

26 55. Defendants are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 27 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 28 two hours). Section 512 of the California Labor Code, the applicable Wage Orders require that

1 the employer permit and authorize all employees to take paid rest periods of 10 minutes each for 2 each 4-hour period worked. Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten
3 minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so
4 required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws. It is a violation of Section 226.7 of 5 the California Labor Code for an employer to require any employee to work during any rest
6 period mandated under any Wage Order.

7 56. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants failed to authorize Plaintiffs and the 8 Class to take rest breaks, regardless of whether employees worked more than 4 hours in a 9 workday. By their failure to permit and authorize Plaintiffs and the Class to take rest periods as 10 alleged above (or due to the fact that Defendants made it impossible or impracticable to take 11 these uninterrupted rest periods), Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Section 226.7 of 12 the California Labor Code and the applicable Wage Orders.

13 57. Under California law, Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to be paid one hour of 14 premium wages rate for each workday he or she was not provided with all required rest break(s), 15 plus interest thereon.

16 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants for Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses)

18 58. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
19 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

20 59. Defendants violated Labor Code section 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, by 21 failing to pay and indemnify the Plaintiffs and the Class for their necessary expenditures and 22 losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to 23 directions of Defendants.

24 60. As a result, Plaintiffs and the Class were damaged at least in the amounts of the 25 expenses they paid, or which were deducted by Defendants from their wages.

26 61. Plaintiffs and the class they represent are entitled to attorney's fees, expenses, and 27 costs of suit pursuant to Labor Code section 2802(c) and interest pursuant to Labor Code section 28 2802(b).

1 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Pay Wages of Discharged Employees – Waiting Time
3 Penalties)

4 62. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
5 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

6 63. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if 7 an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are 8 due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment,
9 his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter,
10 unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to 11 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

12 64. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiffs and 13 many other members of the Class ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the 14 employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants failed, and 15 continue to fail to pay terminated Class Members, without abatement, all wages required to be 16 paid by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within 17 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

18 65. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and those Class members who are no longer
19 employed by Defendants their wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge, or within 20 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor
21 Code §§ 201 and 202.

22 66. California Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay 23 wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall 24 continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is 25 commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

26 67. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally 27 accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days
28 maximum pursuant to California Labor Code § 203.

1 68. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 218.5, 218.6 and 1194, Plaintiffs and the 2 Class are also entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees, interest, expenses, and costs
3 incurred in this action.

4
5 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

6 (Against all Defendants for Failure to Provide and Maintain Accurate and 7 Compliant Wage Records)

8 69. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
9 paragraphs 1 through 21 in this Complaint.

10 70. At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code § 226(a) provides that 11 every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement
12 in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours
13 worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate
14 if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made
15 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages 16 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 17 employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee 18 identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 19 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 20 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

21 71. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with 22 complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the 23 failure to correctly identify the gross wages earned by Plaintiffs and the Class, the failure to list
24 the true "total hours worked by the employee," and the failure to list the true net wages earned.

25 72. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs 26 and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-protected rights.

27 73. Specifically, Plaintiffs and the members of the Class have been injured by 28 Defendants' intentional violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) because they were denied

1 both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate, itemized wage
2 statements under California Labor Code § 226(a).

3 74. Calculation of the true wage entitlement for Plaintiffs and the Class is difficult and 4 time consuming. As a result of this unlawful burden, Plaintiffs and the Class were also injured as 5 a result of having to bring this action to attempt to obtain correct wage information following
6 Defendants' refusal to comply with many of the mandates of California's Labor Code and related 7 laws and regulations.

8 75. Plaintiffs and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their actual 9 damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a).

10 76. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief, as well as an award of 11 attorney's fees and costs to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor
12 Code § 226(h).

13 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Against all Defendants for Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, 15 et seq.)

16 77. Plaintiffs incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
17 paragraphs 1 through 20 in this Complaint.

18 78. Defendants, and each of them, are "persons" as defined under California Business
19 & Professions Code § 17201.

20 79. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
21 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, other Class members, and to the general public. Plaintiffs 22 seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil 23 Procedure § 1021.5.

24 80. Defendants' activities, as alleged herein, are violations of California law, and 25 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
26 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

27 81. A violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. may be 28 predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. All of the acts described herein as violations of, among other things, the California Labor Code, are unlawful and in violation of public policy; and in addition are immoral, unethical, oppressive, fraudulent and unscrupulous, and thereby constitute unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

82. Defendants' failure to pay minimum wages, and other benefits in violation of the California Labor Code constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Pay Overtime Wages

83. Defendants' failure to pay overtime compensation and other benefits in violation of California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198 constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of All Hours Worked

84. Defendants' failure to maintain accurate records of all hours worked in accordance with California Labor Code § 1174.5 and the IWC Wage Orders constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

85. Defendants' failure to provide meal periods in accordance with California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

86. Defendants' failure to authorize and permit rest periods in accordance with California Labor Code § 226.7 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

Failure to Indemnify Necessary Business Expenses

87. Defendants' failure to indemnify employees for necessary business expenses in accordance with California Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code §§

17200, et seq.

Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

88. Defendants' failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements in accordance with California Labor Code § 226, as alleged above, constitutes unlawful and/or unfair activity prohibited by California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

89. By and through their unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described herein, the Defendants, have obtained valuable property, money and services from Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, and have deprived Plaintiffs, and all persons similarly situated, of valuable rights and benefits guaranteed by law, all to their detriment.

90. Plaintiffs and the Class Members suffered monetary injury as a direct result of Defendants' wrongful conduct.

91. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, is entitled to, and do, seek such relief as may be necessary to disgorge money and/or property which the Defendants have wrongfully acquired, or of which Plaintiffs and the Class have been deprived, by means of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. Plaintiffs and the Class are not obligated to establish individual knowledge of the wrongful practices of Defendants in order to recover restitution.

92. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, are further entitled to and do seek a declaration that the above described business practices are unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent, and injunctive relief restraining the Defendants, and each of them, from engaging in any of the above-described unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices in the future.

93. Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative class, have no plain, speedy, and/or adequate remedy at law to redress the injuries which the Class Members suffered as a consequence of the Defendants' unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices. As a result of the unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices described above, Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of members of the putative Class, have suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless the Defendants, and each of them, are restrained

1 from continuing to engage in said unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business practices.

2 94. Plaintiffs also allege that if Defendants are not enjoined from the conduct set forth
3 herein above, they will continue to avoid paying the appropriate taxes, insurance and other 4 withholdings.

5 95. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., Plaintiffs
6 and putative Class Members are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by 7 Defendants during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this complaint; a
8 permanent injunction requiring Defendants to pay all outstanding wages due to Plaintiffs and 9 Class Members; an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §
10 1021.5 and other applicable laws; and an award of costs.

11 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

12 Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act 13 of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

14 96. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein
15 paragraphs 1 through 94 in this Complaint.

16 97. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 17 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

18 98. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 19 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: "Notwithstanding any other provision of 20 law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by 21 the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, 22 commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative,
23 be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself or 24 herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 25 2699.3."

26 99. Plaintiff Osorio has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to California
27 Labor Code § 2699.3. On October 12, 2024, he gave written notice by online filing to the Labor 28 and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and current and former aggrieved employees, including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiff Osorio also paid the filing fee. Plaintiff Osorio's PAGA case number is LWDA-CM-1055989-24. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA.

100. The statute of limitations is tolled while a Plaintiff Osorio exhausts his/her administrative remedies with California's Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA) prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Cal. Lab. Code § 2699.3(d).)

101. More than 65 days has elapsed since Plaintiff Osorio provided notice, but the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants' Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

102. In addition, Plaintiffs seeks penalties for Defendants' violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods, and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded. Additionally, pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(5), every employer shall keep total hours worked in the payroll period and applicable rates of pay.

103. During the time period of employment for Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees, Defendants failed to maintain records pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Orders by failing to maintain accurate records showing meal periods, and accurate records showing when employees begin and end each work period. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal

1 periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore,
2 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages,
3 all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result,
4 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses
5 related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and 6 attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law,
7 all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. Because of Defendants'
8 knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and 9 the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing,
10 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

11 104. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs is entitled to an award
12 of civil penalties on behalf of himself, the State of California, and similarly Aggrieved
13 Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to 14 be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies 15 permitted by law.

16 105. In addition, Plaintiffs seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
17 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action 18 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

19 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

20 Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated only with respect to 21 the class claims, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as 22 follows:

23 Class Certification

- 24 1. That this action be certified as a class action with respect to the First, Second,
25 Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Causes of Action;
- 26 2. That Plaintiffs be appointed as the representative of the Class; and
- 27 3. That counsel for Plaintiffs be appointed as Class Counsel.

28 As to the First Cause of Action

- 1 4. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
2 Labor Code §§ 204 and 1194 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all
3 minimum wages due;
- 4 5. For general unpaid wages as may be appropriate;
- 5 6. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
6 such amounts were due;
- 7 7. For liquidated damages;
- 8 8. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 9 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
- 10 9. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

11 As to the Second Cause of Action

- 12 10. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
13 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 and applicable IWC Wage Orders by willfully failing to pay all 14 overtime wages due;
- 15 11. For general unpaid wages at overtime wage rates as may be appropriate;
- 16 12. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid overtime compensation commencing 17 from the date such amounts were due;
- 18 13. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to 19 California Labor Code § 1194(a); and,
- 20 14. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

21 As to the Third Cause of Action

- 22 15. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California
23 Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;
- 24 16. For unpaid meal period premium wages as may be appropriate;
- 25 17. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date
26 such amounts were due;
- 27 18. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, 28 and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

19. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fourth Cause of Action

20. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the IWC Wage Orders;

21. For unpaid rest period premium wages as may be appropriate;

22. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

23. For reasonable attorneys' fees under California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

24. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Fifth Cause of Action

25. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and the IWC Wage Orders;

26. For general unpaid wages and reimbursement of business expenses as may be appropriate;

27. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid compensation commencing from the date such amounts were due;

28. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

29. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Sixth Cause of Action

30. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by willfully failing to pay all compensation owed at the time of termination of the employment;

31. For statutory wage penalties pursuant to California Labor Code § 203 for former employees who have left Defendants' employ;

32. For pre-judgment interest on any unpaid wages from the date such amounts were due;

33. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

34. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Seventh Cause of Action

35. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the record keeping provisions of California Labor Code § 226(a) and applicable IWC Wage Orders, and willfully failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements thereto;

36. For penalties and actual damages pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(e);

37. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code § 226(h);

38. For reasonable attorneys' fees and for costs of suit incurred herein; and

39. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

As to the Eighth Cause of Action

40. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to maintain accurate records of meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, and failing to maintain accurate records of all hours worked and meal periods, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to indemnify necessary business expenses;

41. For restitution of unpaid wages to Plaintiffs and all Class Members and prejudgment interest from the day such amounts were due and payable;

42. For the appointment of a receiver to receive, manage and distribute any and all funds disgorged from Defendants and determined to have been wrongfully acquired by Defendants as a result of violations of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200 et seq.;

43. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit incurred herein pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5;

44. For injunctive relief to ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and,

45. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem equitable and appropriate.

///

1 As to the Ninth Cause of Action

2 46. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California
3 Labor Code by failing to pay wages for all hours worked (including minimum, straight time, and 4 overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods,
5 failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to reimburse for necessary business expenses
6 incurred by Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees, and failing to maintain accurate records of 7 all hours worked and meal periods;

8 47. An award of civil penalties on behalf of himself and all similarly aggrieved
9 employees pursuant to PAGA;

10 48. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

11 49. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

12 50. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and 13 51. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.

14 As to all Causes of Action

15 52. For any additional relief that the Court deems just and proper.

Notice of Labor Code Violations and PAGA Penalties

Re: Marlin Osorio v. Airport Terminal Management, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that my office has been retained by Marlin Osorio (“Plaintiff”) to pursue a Labor Code Private Attorney General Act (PAGA) representative action (Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2699, et seq.) against his former employer, Airport Terminal Management, Inc. (“Defendant”). The purpose of this letter is to comply with PAGA and set forth the facts and theories of California Labor Code violations which we allege Defendant engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of Defendant’s aggrieved employees.

Plaintiff wishes to pursue a PAGA representative action on behalf of Plaintiff as an aggrieved employee, on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all other current and former aggrieved employees who worked for Defendant in California at any time within the applicable statutory period (hereafter, the “Aggrieved Employees”).

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of Defendant suffered the Labor Code violations described below.

Factual Background Regarding Plaintiff’s Employment with Defendant

Defendant owns and operates an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such, Defendant is subject to the California Labor Code and the Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”).

Plaintiff worked for Defendant as a wheelchair agent from approximately 2021 to July 2024, primarily in Los Angeles County. Defendant classified Plaintiff as non-exempt from overtime. During the time period that Plaintiff was employed by Defendant, Plaintiff typically at least 5 days per week, and in excess of 8 hours each workday.

Throughout Plaintiff's employment, Defendant committed numerous labor code violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiff's experience working for Defendant was typical and illustrative.

Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Overtime

Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee. "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.

In addition, Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight (8) hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the Industrial Welfare Commission is unlawful.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not paying Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including all overtime wages. Throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to work off-the-clock, and uncompensated. For example, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to wait in line in order to clock into work, off the clock and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to undergo security screening prior to clocking into work, off the clock and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to park in designated areas, which would require them to take a shuttle from the parking lot to the work premises, leading to off the clock time, uncompensated. Also, during certain periods of time, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to undergo temperature screening prior to clocking into work, off the clock and uncompensated. Also, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were often interrupted during meal breaks without compensation. Also throughout the statutory period, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees received nondiscretionary bonuses (such as safety bonuses) and other remuneration. However,

Defendants failed to incorporate all remuneration when calculating the correct overtime rate of pay, meal break premium rate of pay, and sick day rate of pay, leading to underpayment.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay for all hours worked, including overtime.

Failure to Provide Meal Periods

Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the start of sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in the workday. Further, employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with all required meal period(s).

Despite these legal requirements, Defendant wrongfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with legally compliant meal periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-minute, continuous and uninterrupted, duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a meal period by the end of the fifth hour of work, or, for shifts greater than 10 hours, by the end of the tenth hour of work. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate written policies or practices providing meal periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of meal periods. Defendant also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were taking their required meal periods. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was to not provide meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods and that were not provided.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to provide meal periods and pay meal period premium wages.

Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of 10 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is 6 hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

Defendant, however, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendant authorizing and permitting them to take a 10 minute, continuous and uninterrupted, rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), or without compensating Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take a rest period. Moreover, Defendant did not have adequate policies or practices permitting or authorizing rest periods for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, nor did Defendant have adequate policies or practices regarding the timing of rest periods. Defendant also did not have adequate policies or practices to verify whether Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were taking their required rest periods. Further, Defendant did not maintain accurate records of employee work periods, and therefore Defendant cannot demonstrate that Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees took rest periods during the middle of each work period. Accordingly, Defendant's policy and practice was for Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods and to not authorize or permit them to take any rest periods.

Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest period(s). Defendant, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

As a result, Defendant are liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 210, 558, and 2699(f)(2) for failing to authorize and permit rest periods and pay rest period premium wages.

Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

Defendant, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees.

Defendant's failure to provide and maintain records required by the Labor Code IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendant's records. Therefore, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendant. As a direct result, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendant to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendant's knowing failure to comply with the Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 1174.5 for failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods.

Failure to Reimburse and Indemnify Expenses

California Labor Code § 2802 requires employers to reimburse employees for their necessary expenditures and losses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of their duties or of their obedience to directions of the employer.

Throughout the statutory period, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants without reimbursement, such as requiring Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to purchase items such as gloves, back braces, specific types of shoes, hand sanitizers, and the purchase of uniforms. Also, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to use their own personal cellular telephones for work purposes, including to communicate. Although a company telephone was provided for purposes of receiving orders, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were required to use their personal cellular telephones to make telephone calls and to communicate with supervisors, and to conduct training.

Failure to Pay All Accrued Vacation Wages at Termination

Labor Code § 227.3 requires employers to pay employees for all unused vested vacation time at their final rate of pay upon termination of their employment.

During the statutory period, Defendant maintained a policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees the correct amount of vacation pay owed at the termination of employment. For instance, when Plaintiff's employment with Defendant terminated, he was owed vacation wages at his true final wage rate on his final paycheck from Defendant even though he had accrued unused vacation time. On information and belief, Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff the correct amount of vacation pay was not a single, isolated incident, but was instead part of Defendant's policy and practice that applied to the Aggrieved Employees.

As a result, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to pay all accrued vacation wages at termination.

Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge, and the employment of others will be. However, during the relevant time period, Defendant failed, and continues to fail to pay Plaintiff and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendant's employ. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum and straight time wages), missed meal periods, and missed rest periods.

Defendant's conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to 30 days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) for failing to timely pay all wages at termination.

Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Lab. Code § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Lab. Code § 226(e)(1).)

Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to provide employees with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly identify hourly rates, the failure to correctly list gross wages earned, and the failure to list the true net wages earned, including wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law, and correct wages earned for all hours worked.

As a result of Defendant violating Labor Code § 226, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

Accordingly, Plaintiff and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendant’s failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding $4,000 dollars per employee.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 226.3 for failing to furnish accurate itemized wage statements.

Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

Based on its failure to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendant also violated Labor Code § 204.

Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendant systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendant, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendant, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendant owes employees the legally required wages for unpaid wages, and Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

Moreover, Defendant is liable to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code § 210 for failing to pay all earned wages twice per month.

Action for Civil Penalties Under PAGA

In light of the above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant violated the following provisions of the Labor Code with respect to the Aggrieved Employees:

1. Labor Code § 204, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198 by failing to pay for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time wages and overtime wages;
2. Labor Code § 226.7, 512 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to provide meal periods;
3. Labor Code § 226.7 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to authorize and permit rest periods;
4. Labor Code § 1174.5 and applicable Wage Orders by failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed;
5. Labor Code § 2802 by failing to reimburse and indemnify employees for expenses and losses in the direct consequence and discharge of their duties;
6. Labor Code § 227.3 by failing to pay all vacation wages at termination;
7. Labor Code §§ 201 to 203 by willfully failing to pay all wages owed at termination;
8. Labor Code § 226 by failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements; and

9. Labor Code § 204 by failing to pay all earned wages two times per month.

Therefore, on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, Plaintiff seeks applicable penalties related to the violations alleged above pursuant to the PAGA. These include, but are not limited to, penalties under Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1197.1, 2802, and 2699(f)(2).

Plaintiff has placed Defendant on notice by mailing a certified copy of this correspondence to its corporate address, as indicated on the first page.
