5. Failure to Provide Accurate Written Wage Statements (Lab. Code §§ 226(a));
6. Failure to Timely Pay All Final Wages (Lab. Code §§ 201, 202 and 203);
7. Failure to Indemnify (Lab. Code § 2802);
8. Unfair Competition (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.); and
9. Civil Penalties (Lab. Code § 2698, et seq.)

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff ISAIAS MORALES (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated,
2 the State of California, and the general public, complains and alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class and representative action against Defendants LBC LIMITED
5 PARTNERSHIP, an Oklahoma limited partnership, LARRY BILL CALVIN LLC, a California
6 limited liability company, MATHIS HOME, a business entity of unknown form, MATHIS SLEEP
7 STUDIO, a business entity of unknown form, and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, (collectively
8 referred to as “Defendants”) for alleged violations of the California Labor Code and California 9 Business and Professions Code. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have:

- 10 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
- 11 b. failed to pay them overtime and/or double time wages by failing to include all 12 applicable remuneration in calculating the regular rate of pay;
- 13 c. failed to provide them with meal periods;
- 14 d. failed to provide them with rest periods;
- 15 e. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
- 16 f. failed to pay them proper sick time pay;
- 17 g. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
- 18 h. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures;
- 19 i. failed to pay them all their final wages following separation of employment.

20 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class and 21 representative action to recover unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil and statutory penalties,
22 restitution, and related relief on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public.

23 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

24 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary
25 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants’ conduct exceeds the minimal 26 jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California.

27 3. Venue is proper in the County of Riverside pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure
28 sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions

1 that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found,
2 maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

3 4. Venue is proper in Riverside County because Defendants have at all times alleged 4 herein, conducted business in Riverside County and throughout California. As such, venue is proper
5 in any county in California.

6 PARTIES

7 5. Plaintiff ISAIAS MORALES is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, an 8 individual residing in the State of California.

9 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that Defendant LBC
10 LIMITED PARTNERSHIP is an Oklahoma limited partnership doing business in the State of 11 California.

12 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that Defendant LARRY 13 BILL CALVIN LLC is a California limited liability company, doing business in the State of 14 California.

15 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that Defendant MATHIS
16 SLEEP STUDIO is a business entity of unknown form doing business in the State of California.

17 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that Defendant MATHIS
18 HOME is a business entity of unknown form doing business in the State of California.

19 10. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as 20 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff
21 will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when 22 ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously 23 named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged 24 herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of 25 them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE
26 defendants when ascertained.

27 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
28 mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners,

1 directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some
2 or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course
3 and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent, and ratification by such other 4 defendants.

5 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
6 mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and 7 conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts
8 and omissions alleged herein.

9 13. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code
10 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 11 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 12 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

13 14. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period 14 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

- 15 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 16 separately, and/or any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties in hourly or 17 non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action (“Hourly Employee Class”).
- 18 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 19 a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 20 c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a 21 shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 22 d. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 23 separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning 24 three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- 25 e. Sick-Pay Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who, at any 26 time from four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action, worked for more than 30 days for 27 Defendants, and were not paid for at least one hour of sick time for every 30 hours of work thereafter, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 12-month period of employment.
- 28 f. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.

g. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.

h. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.

15. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes and/or by limitation to particular issues.

16. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

17. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members. These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- a. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their rest periods;
- b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their meal periods;
- c. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- d. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class members for all time worked;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay proper sick time pay;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, total

- hours worked, and the name and address of the legal entity employing them;
- g. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or incomplete final wage payments;
 - h. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
 - i. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code section 203; and
 - j. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;

18. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this Complaint.

19. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

20. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of Plaintiff and absent class members.

21. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a

1 class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue
2 the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent
3 or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

4 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

5 22. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and 6 statutory periods.

7 23. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
8 and Class Members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay.
9 Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to perform work during unpaid meal periods,
10 which were systemically denied. Additionally, for some pay periods, Plaintiff and Class Members
11 were paid strictly on a commission and/or performance bonus basis. However, Plaintiff and Class
12 Members were never separately compensated for paid rest breaks, when such breaks were taken.
13 Finally, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to respond to calls and messages from 14 management during non-working hours, for which no wages were paid.

15 24. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 16 eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff
17 and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

18 25. Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members overtime wages at the 19 proper and applicable regular rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members earned 20 commissions, spiff pay, and/or performance-based non-discretionary bonuses in addition to their 21 hourly pay. However, these supplemental earnings were not accounted for when determining Plaintiff
22 and Class Members' regular rates of pay, and respective and proper overtime rates of pay.

23 26. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 24 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
25 Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the opportunity to take their meal periods,
26 including second meal periods, prior to the completion of their fifth and tenth hours of work.
27 Furthermore, Plaintiff and Class Members were not relieved of all work duties during unpaid meal 28 periods.

1 27. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with uninterrupted, duty-free meal
2 breaks of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period and were required to work
3 through meal breaks due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal period as part of each
4 work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to take their meal periods
5 or advised employees of their meal and rest period rights; and (3) Defendants' practice of requiring 6 putative class members to continue working through their meal periods due to the excessive workload.

7 28. Plaintiff and Class Members were not compensated for the additional hours worked 8 during their meal periods.

9 29. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 10 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
11 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
12 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
13 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
14 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
15 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; and (3) Defendants'
16 policy and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their rest breaks
17 due to the excessive workload. Additionally, for some pay periods, Plaintiff and Class Members were 18 paid strictly on a commission and/or performance bonus basis. However, Plaintiff and Class Members 19 were never separately compensated for paid rest breaks, when such breaks were taken.

20 30. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay 21 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

22 31. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as 23 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226.

24 32. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as "gross wages 25 earned" were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

26 33. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as "total hours worked 27 by the employee" were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 28 not included.

34. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

35. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(8) as the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members failed to state “the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer.”

36. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

37. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to pay the costs of maintaining their cell phones which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to make deliveries in their personal vehicles that resulted in Plaintiff and Class Members incurring fuel and mileage costs. Plaintiff and Class members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

38. Finally, Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff and Class Members the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law. Specifically, the sick pay paid to Plaintiff and Class Members did not account for the performance-based non-discretionary bonuses, which were never factored into the rate upon which sick pay was accrued and paid.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

(Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

39. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

40. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been

1 non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor
2 Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

3 41. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
4 Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt
5 employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period
6 of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty 7 minutes for each work period of ten hours.

8 42. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
9 Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work
10 during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of 11 premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

12 43. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
13 Code section 200.

14 44. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 15 violate the applicable Wage Order.

16 45. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

17 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than 18 five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except 19 that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete 20 the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 21 the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty 22 during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 23 ‘on duty’ meal period and counted as time worked. An ‘on duty’ meal
24 period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an 25 employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written
26 agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed
27 to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, 28 revoke the agreement at any time.

24 46. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
25 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
26 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

27 47. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
28 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period

1 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
2 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 and the applicable Wage Order.
3 Specifically, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were denied the opportunity to take their 4 meal periods, including second meal periods, prior to the completion of their fifth and tenth hours of 5 work Furthermore, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were not relieved of all work
6 duties during unpaid meal periods.

7 48. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
8 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-
9 Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

10 49. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
11 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
12 Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten (10) or more hours and failed
13 to pay them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

14 50. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal Period Sub-Class
15 members of their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

16 51. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-
17 Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees'
18 regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

19 52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of 20 himself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest
21 thereon, and costs of suit.

22 53. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the
23 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and the 24 Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

25 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

26 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

27 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

28 (Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

1 54. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
2 herein.

3 55. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been
4 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor
5 Code and the applicable Wage Order.

6 56. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on 7 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten 8 (10) minutes of net rest time for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must 9 be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

10 57. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 11 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to 12 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each 13 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

14 58. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
15 Code section 200.

16 59. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 17 violate the Wage Order.

18 60. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
19 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
20 with net rest period of at least ten (10) uninterrupted minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or 21 major fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

22 61.

23 62. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 24 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
25 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second 26 rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that 27 encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Rest Period Sub-Class
28 members of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Rest Period

1 Sub-Class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive workload.
2 Additionally, for some pay periods, Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were paid strictly
3 on a commission and/or performance bonus basis. However, Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class
4 members were never separately compensated for paid rest breaks, when such breaks were taken.

5 63. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class
6 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

7 64. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself
8 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and 9 costs of suit.

10 65. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the 11 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Rest
12 Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

13 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

14 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

15 (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

16 (Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

17 66. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 18 herein.

19 67. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been 20 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the 21 applicable Wage Order.

22 68. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines "hours worked" as "the time during 23 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee
24 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so."

25 69. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
26 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours 27 that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

28 70. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an

1 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage
2 Order.

3 71. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
4 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition
5 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

6 72. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less
7 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a
8 payroll period.

9 73. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 10 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 11 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

12 74. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 13 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

14 75. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned
15 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer 16 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 17 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

18 76. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 19 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

20 77. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees 21 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half (1.5) times their 22 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, all
23 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight (8) hours
24 worked on the seventh consecutive day of one workweek.

25 78. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 26 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two (2) times their respective 27 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for all 28 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

1 79. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied
2 centrally devised policies and practices to him and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 3 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

4 80. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
5 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at 6 statutory and/or agreed rates.

7 81. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were consistently required to perform
8 work, off-the-clock for which they were not paid wages. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
9 Class members were required to perform work during unpaid meal periods, which were systemically
10 denied. Additionally, for some pay periods, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were 11 paid strictly on a commission and/or performance bonus basis. However, Plaintiff and Hourly
12 Employee Class members were never separately compensated for paid rest breaks, when such breaks
13 were taken. Finally, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were required to respond to calls 14 and messages from management during non-working hours, for which no wages were paid.

15 82. The uncompensated time Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class worked caused
16 Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve
17 (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
18 members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

19 83. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were also not paid proper wages and 20 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee
21 Class members earned commissions, spiff pay, and/or performance-based non-discretionary bonuses
22 in addition to their hourly pay. However, these supplemental earnings were not accounted for when 23 determining Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members' regular rates of pay, and respective and 24 proper overtime rates of pay.

25 84. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
26 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 27 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period,
28 including overtime wages.

85. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover unpaid straight time and overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

86. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY PROPER SICK PAY

(Lab. Code § 246)

(Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class)

87. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

88. Labor Code Section 246 affords an employee “who works in California for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment [] paid sick days . . . of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked” and “no less than 24 hours of accrued sick leave or paid time off by the 120th calendar day of employment or each calendar year, or in each 12-month period.”

89. Additionally, Subsection (1) of Section 246 provides:

For the purposes of this section, an employer shall calculate paid sick leave using any of the following calculations:

(1) Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek.

90. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class members the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law. Specifically, the sick pay paid to Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class members did not account for the performance-based non-discretionary bonuses, which were never factored into the rate upon which sick pay was accrued and paid.

91. Therefore, Sick Pay Class members are owed the unpaid balance of said wages pursuant to the Wage order according to proof at trial, interest pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.6 and 1194(a), Civil Code §§ 3287 and § 3289, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and/or penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558(a).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

(Lab. Code § 226)

(Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

92. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

93. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California. For purposes of this subdivision, 'copy' includes a duplicate of the itemized statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

94. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) has sought to harmonize the

1 “detachable part of the check” provision and the “accurate itemized statement in writing” provision
2 of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee
3 retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with 4 electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic 5 statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

6 95. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
7 limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members
8 with written wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class
9 members failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages
10 described above.

11 96. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
12 members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE
13 Opinion Letters. Plaintiff’s and Wage Statement Class members’ wage statements were only 14 provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

15 97. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(8) as the wage statements
16 issued to Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members failed to state “the name and address of the 17 legal entity that is the employer.”

18 98. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ failure to provide Plaintiff and 19 Wage Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements was intentional in that 20 Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally
21 provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor
22 Code section 226(a).

23 99. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that
24 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
25 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
26 statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants’ unlawful pay practices, has required
27 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused 28 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the

1 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government
2 agencies.

3 100. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Wage
4 Statement Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in
5 which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period
6 in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of 7 $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

8 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

10 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

11 (Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

12 101. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
13 herein.

14 102. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have 15 been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages
16 earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

17 103. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been 18 discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

19 104. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have 20 resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of resignation have been entitled to 21 payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

22 105. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
23 limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class
24 members all their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

25 106. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
26 limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time
27 Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code
28 sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

107. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to timely pay all final wages to him and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members has been willful in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those requirements.

108. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the dates that their final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

109. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

(Lab. Code § 2802)

(Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

110. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

111. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

112. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to pay the costs of maintaining their cell phones which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ and Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to make deliveries in their personal vehicles for Defendants that resulted in Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members incurring fuel and mileage costs. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for

1 these necessary work-related expenses.

2 113. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 3 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the filing of 4 the Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

5 114. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 6 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 7 costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

8 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 UNFAIR COMPETITION

10 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

11 (Plaintiff and UCL Class)

12 115. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
13 herein.

14 116. Business and Professions Code section 17200 defines "unfair competition" to include
15 any unlawful business practice.

16 117. Business and Professions Code sections 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost
17 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code
18 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 19 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

20 118. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees for all hours
21 they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or reasonable should 22 know that employees have worked.

23 119. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-allege and incorporate the FIRST, SECOND,
24 THIRD, FOURTH, and SEVENTH causes of action herein.

25 120. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

26 121. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

27 122. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
28 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 215, 216, 225,

1 226.6, 226.7, 246, 354, 408, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, and
2 2802 as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the violations
3 alleged herein.

4 123. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
5 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: provide non-exempt
6 employees with compliant meal and rest periods; pay premium wages for failure to provide proper
7 meal and rest periods; pay for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay; proper sick time pay; and 8 reimbursement for necessary business expenditures.

9 124. Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes 10 unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.
11 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. protects against unfair competition and allows
12 a person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 13 unlawful or fraudulent business practice to seek restitution on his own behalf and on behalf of 14 similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

15 125. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
16 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form
17 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' conduct.

18 126. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been 19 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

20 127. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code, 21 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in 22 the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

23 128. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
24 relief for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act
25 violates or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

26 129. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,
27 Plaintiff requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
28 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor

1 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

2 130. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
3 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
4 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
5 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seeks 6 an order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 7 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission
8 Wage Orders.

9 131. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 10 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
11 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful
12 and unfair business practices.

13 132. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
14 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
15 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

16 133. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of
17 himself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
18 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful
19 and unfair business practices.

20 Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine and/or the 21 common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover reasonable 22 attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

23 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 CIVIL PENALTIES

25 (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.)

26 134. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully alleged herein.

27 135. During the applicable limitations period, Defendants have violated Labor Code §§
28 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 226.8, 246, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12,

1 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802.¹

2 136. Labor Code §§ 2699(a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, on behalf of himself
3 and other current and former employees, to bring a representative civil action to recover civil penalties
4 pursuant to the procedures set forth in Labor Code § 2699.3 that may, but need not, be brought or 5 maintained as a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

6 137. Plaintiff, a former employee against whom Defendants committed one or more of the 7 alleged Labor Code violations during the applicable limitations period, is an aggrieved employee
8 within the meaning of Labor Code § 2699(c). Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt
9 hourly employee in California. Aggrieved Employees include all non-exempt hourly employees of 10 Defendants within the state of California from one year prior to the date of this letter and continuing 11 through the present (Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are collectively referred to herein as 12 “Aggrieved Employees”)

13 138. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code §
14 2699.3. Notice was provided to the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”)
15 and 65 days have elapsed without the LWDA providing Plaintiff with any notice of an intent to 16 investigate.

17 139. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff seeks the following civil 18 penalties for Defendants’ violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226.7, 226(a), 226.8, 19 246, 510, 512, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802:

- 20 i. For violations of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 226.7, 246, 1174, 1194, 1198 21 and 2802, one hundred dollars ($100) for each employee per pay period for 22 each initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200) for each employee per 23 pay period for each subsequent violation (penalties set by Labor Code § 24 2699(f)(2));

26 ¹ Plaintiff hereby reserves the right to seek penalties on behalf of all Aggrieved Employees, for 27 Defendants’ violations of the applicable provisions of the Labor Code, suffered by Aggrieved
28 Employees, but not directly suffered by Plaintiff under Huff v. Securitas Security Services USA, Inc.
(2018) 23 Cal.App.5th 745.

- 1 ii. For violations of Labor Code § 203, a penalty in an amount not exceeding thirty 2 (30) days' pay as waiting time (penalties set by Labor Code § 256);
- 3 iii. For violations of Labor Code § 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for each
4 employee for each initial violation that was neither willful nor intentional, two
5 hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus 25% of the amount unlawfully
6 withheld from each employee, for each initial violation that was either willful
7 or intentional, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus twenty-
8 five percent (25%) of the amount unlawfully withheld from each employee,
9 for each subsequent violation, regardless of whether the subsequent violation
10 was either willful or intentional (penalties set by Labor Code § 210);
- 11 iv. For violations of Labor Code § 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for each 12 employee for each initial violation that was neither willful nor intentional, two 13 hundred dollars ($200) for each employee, plus twenty-five percent (25%) of 14 the amount unlawfully withheld from each employee, for each initial violation
15 that was either willful or intentional, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each 16 employee, plus twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount unlawfully withheld 17 from each employee, for each subsequent violation, regardless of whether the 18 subsequent violation was either willful or intentional (penalties set by Labor 19 Code § 225.5);
- 20 v. For violations of Labor Code § 226(a), if this action is deemed to be an initial 21 citation, two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each
22 violation. Alternatively, if an initial citation or its equivalent occurred before 23 the filing of this action, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each employee for 24 each violation (penalties set by Labor Code § 226.3);
- 25 vi. For violation of Labor Code §§ 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 26 employee for each initial pay period for which the employee was underpaid,
27 and one hundred dollars ($100) for each employee for each subsequent pay
28 period for which the employee was underpaid (penalties set by Labor Code § 558);

vii. For violations of Labor Code § 1197, one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee for each initial violation of Labor Code § 1197 that was intentional and two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation of Labor Code § 1197, regardless of whether the initial violation was intentional (penalties set by Labor Code § 1197.1); viii. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g), Plaintiff seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with Plaintiff's claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, all others similarly situated, and the general public, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants as follows:

- a. An order that the action be certified as a class action;
- b. An order that Plaintiff be appointed class representative;
- c. An order that counsel for Plaintiff be appointed class counsel;
- d. Unpaid wages and overtime;
- e. Actual damages;
- f. Liquidated damages;
- g. Unreimbursed expenses;
- h. Restitution;
- i. Declaratory relief;
- j. Pre-judgment interest;
- k. Statutory penalties;
- l. Civil penalties;
- m. Costs of suit;
- n. Reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- o. Such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
