("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt

2 overtime wages at the proper overtime rate of pay; failure to authorize or permit all legally required

11 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and

1 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Santa Clara from in or around May 31,

6 hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant SELECT SECURITY SERVICES in the 7 establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or policies.
8 Defendant SELECT SECURITY SERVICES operates in Santa Clara County and employed 9 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Santa Clara County, including but not limited to, at 1000 10 Hillview Court, Milpitas, CA 95035.

11 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1

14 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 15 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

16 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
17 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued

20 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 24 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 25 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously 27 complaint.

28 8. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

(Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

9. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

10. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, and the applicable Wage Orders.

11. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California Labor Code:

12. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage: Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

13. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees for all "hours worked" at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the Wage Orders.

14. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

1 (a) Arbitrarily deducting 10% from Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved
2 California-based hourly non-exempt employees' pay checks.

3 15. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 4 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants' 5 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 6 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 7 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable 8 Wage Order.

9 16. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay 10 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 11 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer 12 is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked," which includes all time that an employee 13 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 14 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 15 the benefit of the employer.'

16 17. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 17 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40) 18 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

19 Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours 20 in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in 21 any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half 22 (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours 23 in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay 24 for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a 25 workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an 26 employee.

27 Labor Code section 510.

28 18. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Arbitrarily deducting 10% from Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved

1 California-based hourly non-exempt employees' pay checks; and

2 (b) Failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-3 based hourly non-exempt employees for all overtime hours, including when they worked seven (7) 4 consecutive days in a workweek.

5 19. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each 6 workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 7 employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the 8 foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved 9 California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, 10 more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed 11 to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code 12 sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

13 20. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 14 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to 15 pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 16 hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and 17 shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

18 21. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an 19 uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of 20 all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the 21 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11; 22 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ 23 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee 24 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh 25 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period 26 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal 27 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 28 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

1 22. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 2 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay 3 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 4 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 4 at §11.

5 23. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 6 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-7 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 8 limited to:

9 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 10 hourly non-exempt employees a second uninterrupted duty-free meal period of no less than thirty 11 (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-12 based hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

13 24. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 14 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 15 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that 16 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did 17 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

18 25. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 19 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 20 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal 21 periods in compliance with California law.

22 26. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that 23 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
24 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 25 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

26 27. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest 27 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code 28 section 226.7; Wage Order 4 at §12. Under California law, "[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes'

1 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 2 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
3 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 4 Wage Order 4 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
5 Wage Order 4 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers to permit –
6 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 7 (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 8 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

9 28. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 10 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 11 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 12 Order 4 at § 12.

13 29. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 14 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly 15 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 16 limited to:

17 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 18 hourly non-exempt employees with net ten (10) minute rest breaks for every four (4) hours worked 19 or major fraction thereof due to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 20 hourly non-exempt employees being too busy and/or having no coverage.

21 (b) Failing to provide Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 22 hourly non-exempt employees a third uninterrupted duty-free rest period of no less than ten (10) net 23 minutes on each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 24 hourly non-exempt employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

25 30. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 26 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 27 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday 28 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 1 226.7.

2 31. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 3 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving 4 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods 5 in compliance with California law.

6 32. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 7 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 8 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 9 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 10 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 11 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll 12 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7) 13 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 14 section 204(d).

15 33. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 16 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 17 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 18 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants' 19 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 20 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 21 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

22 34. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 23 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 24 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage 25 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 26 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful 27 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246, 28 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor

1 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 2 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

3 35. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section 4 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 5 his or her wages, the employer must “furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 6 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 7 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 8 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare 9 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee 10 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders 11 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive 12 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 13 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 14 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 15 worked at each hourly rate by the employee.”

16 36. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff 17 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages 18 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 19 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff’s and other current and former aggrieved California-based 20 hourly non-exempt employees’ wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 21 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

22 37. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 23 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee’s employment ends. The 24 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72) 25 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

26 38. As a derivative of Plaintiff’s allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
27 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all 28 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages,

1 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 2 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

3 39. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 4 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 5 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 6 section 2699.3.

7 40. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 8 section 2699.3. On October 3, 2024, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 9 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 10 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 11 violations alleged.

12 41. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 13 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 14 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 15 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 16 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

17 42. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 18 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 19 510, 512, and 1194, During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding 20 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 21 amounts:

22 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), and 226.7; one 23 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two 24 hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation 25 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

26 b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty 27 dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each 28 subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period

1 [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

2 c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each 3 employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one 4 hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts 5 established by Labor Code section 558].

6 d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for 7 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 8 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
9 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 10 section 210].

11 e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for 12 each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any 13 willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee,
14 plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code 15 section 225.5].

16 43. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of 17 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

18 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

19 WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED
20 EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

21 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

22 1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the 23 IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

24 2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations 25 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California 26 Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

27 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable 28 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and

1 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 2 appropriate.
