DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff GABRIEL MINJAREZ (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, including the County of Riverside. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Riverside. Defendants employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Riverside.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff GABRIEL MINJAREZ is an individual residing in the State of California.

1 6. Defendant GIBSON & SCHAEFER, INC., at all times herein mentioned, was
2 and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of
3 California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are
4 engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Riverside. Defendant
5 IMPERIAL VALLEY AGGREGATES, LLC, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon 6 information and belief, a California limited liability company headquartered in the State of
7 California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are 8 engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Riverside.

9 7. At all relevant times, Defendants GIBSON & SCHAEFER, INC. and IMPERIAL 10 VALLEY AGGREGATES, LLC were the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all 11 applicable California laws and statutes.

12 8. At all times herein relevant, Defendants GIBSON & SCHAEFER, INC.,
13 IMPERIAL VALLEY AGGREGATES, LLC, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them,
14 were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants,
15 employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all
16 times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, 17 partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-
18 interest, co-conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly 19 committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and 20 consent of each defendant designated herein.

22 ///

1 9. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or
2 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
3 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 4 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
5 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 6 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
7 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 8 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

9 10. Defendants GIBSON & SCHAEFER, INC., IMPERIAL VALLEY
10 AGGREGATES, LLC, and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as 11 “Defendants.”

12 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 13 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 14 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers
15 liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

16 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17 12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the 18 general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil 19 Procedure section 382.

20 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

21 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants
22 within the State of California at any time during the period from four years prior 23 to the filing of this Complaint to final judgment.

24 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

25 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in 26 the litigation:

27 ///

- 1 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
2 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is 3 unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be 4 greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is 5 readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- 6 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members'
7 claims as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately
8 protect the interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a 9 well-defined community of interest.
- 10 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 11 each class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community
12 of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has 13 no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's 14 attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing 15 class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has 16 incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, 17 costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 18 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of 19 each class member.
- 20 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 21 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
22 of all class members is impractical.

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

1 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class
2 action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great
3 state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees
4 are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect
5 retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are 6 not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of 7 their rights.

8 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 9 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 10 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 11 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or 12 reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 13 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
14 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;
- 15 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to 16 work over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week
17 and failed to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff
18 and the other class members;
- 19 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 20 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- 21 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class 22 members legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to 23 compensate them the related premium wages pursuant to California
24 Labor Code section 226.7(c);
- 25 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the 26 other class members for all hours worked;

27 ///

- 1 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to class members within 2 the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- 3 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and 4 the other class members during their employment;
- 5 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 6 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 7 j. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records
8 for Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 9 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 10 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 11 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 12 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 13 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- 14 n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary 15 penalties resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 16 o. Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to 17 compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

18 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

19 17. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff
20 and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California,
21 including the County of Riverside.

22 18. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-23 exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of 24 Riverside.

25 19. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
26 members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members'
27 employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

28

1 20. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of
2 Plaintiff's and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff
3 and the other class members.

4 21. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other 5 class members.

6 22. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 7 State of California.

8 23. Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day,
9 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

10 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
11 engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or 12 non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing
13 to pay them for all hours worked, and failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks
14 or pay related premium wages, in violation of California law.

15 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 certain wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 18 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

19 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods
21 during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC")
22 Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

1 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 all timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's
4 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or 5 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper
6 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
7 period was missed.

8 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
9 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all
10 timely rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's 11 and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or 12 interrupted, and that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or 13 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was 14 missed.

15 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
16 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
17 at least minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were 18 not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

19 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that class members were entitled to receive the wages owed to 21 them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest 22 period premiums, and that class members did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at 23 the time of their discharge or resignation.

24 ///

25 ///

26 ///

1 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
2 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
3 their wages within a specified time period during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the 4 other class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period
5 during their employment.

6 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
7 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
8 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, Plaintiff 9 and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 10 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of 11 hours worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

12 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
13 knew or should have known that they had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for 14 Plaintiff and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not 15 keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

16 34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
17 knew or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to 18 reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses.

19 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
20 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class
21 members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 22 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely
23 represented to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all 24 in order to increase Defendants' profits.

25 ///

14 employment.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

3 (Against GIBSON & SCHAEFER, INC., IMPERIAL VALLEY AGGREGATES, LLC,
4 and DOES 1 through 100)

5 46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1
6 through 45, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 47. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order
9 provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either 10 time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of 11 hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

12 48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 13 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who 14 work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at 15 the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more 16 than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

17 49. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 18 required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two 19 times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

20 50. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation
21 at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours
22 in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day
23 of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in

52. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

54. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

6 period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

7 59. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage
8 Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not
9 require, cause, or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours

64. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.

65. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

69. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

2 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period
3 mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

4 71. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage
5 Order provides that “[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest 6 periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the 7 “rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes 8 net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is 9 less than three and one-half (3 ½) hours.

5 77. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
6 through 76 and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 78. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections

5 82. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1

8 83. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code sections
9 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid
10 at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits their 11 employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours 12 thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of their intention to 13 quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting.

14 84. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and 15 willfully failed to pay class members who are no longer employed by Defendants their wages,
16 earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

17 85. Defendants' failure to pay class members who are no longer employed by

2 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

3 (Against GIBSON & SCHAEFER, INC., IMPERIAL VALLEY AGGREGATES, LLC,
4 and DOES 1 through 100)

5 88. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
6 through 87, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set
7 forth herein.

8 89. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section 9 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of their employees an accurate itemized

23 90. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiff and the 24 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include but 25 are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiff and other

27 ///

1 91. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
2 Plaintiff and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily
3 protected rights.

4 92. More specifically, Plaintiff and the other class members have been injured by 5 Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because 6 they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving,
7 accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

8 93. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the 9 greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor
10 Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 11 employee.

12 94. Plaintiff and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to

97. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”))

(Against GIBSON & SCHAEFER, INC., IMPERIAL VALLEY AGGREGATES, LLC,
and DOES 1 through 100)

98. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 97, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

99. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”), or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themselves, and other current or former employees.

100. On October 2, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code he contends were violated, and the theories supporting his contentions. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference is a copy of the written notice to the LWDA. Plaintiff believes that on or about December 6, 2024, the sixty-five (65) days' notice period expired as to all Defendants, and the LWDA did not take any action to investigate or prosecute this matter. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted his administrative remedies.

1 101. Plaintiff and the other non-exempt employees are “aggrieved employees” as
2 defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they all are or were non-exempt
3 employees of Defendants employed in California at any time during the period from October 2, 4 2023, to the present, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

5 Failure to Pay Minimum and Overtime Wages

6 102. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to compensate their non-
7 exempt employees minimum wages for all hours worked and overtime wages for all hours
8 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a workweek, pursuant to the 9 mandate of Labor Code sections 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198.

10 103. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other 11 aggrieved current and former employees for all hours worked, resulting in a failure to pay all 12 minimum wages and overtime wages, where applicable.

13 Failure to Provide Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

14 104. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to authorize and permit 15 their non-exempt employees to take a 10-minute rest break for every four (4) hours worked or 16 major fraction thereof and were further required to provide their non-exempt employees with a
17 30-minute meal period for every five (5) hours worked, pursuant to the mandates of Labor
18 Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

19 105. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other
20 aggrieved current and former employees with legally mandated meal periods and rest breaks
21 and failed to pay proper compensation for this failure.

22 Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment

23 106. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees
24 within a specified time period pursuant to the mandate of Labor Code section 204.

25 107. As a policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
26 aggrieved current and former employees all wages due and owing within the required time 27 period.
28

1 Failure to Timely Pay Wages Upon Termination

2 108. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to pay their employees all
3 wages owed in a timely fashion at the end of employment pursuant to the mandates of Labor
4 Code sections 201 and 202.

5 109. As a policy and practice, as a result of Defendants' Labor Code violations
6 alleged above, Defendants failed to pay aggrieved former employees their final wages,
7 pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 201 and 202. Accordingly, Defendants owe
8 waiting time penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 203.

9 Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements

10 110. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to keep accurate records
11 regarding their California employees, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 226 and 12 1174.

13 111. As a result of Defendants' various Labor Code violations, Defendants failed to 14 keep accurate records regarding Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees.
15 For example, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records regarding 16 Plaintiff and the other aggrieved current and former employees' gross wages earned, total hours 17 worked, all deductions, net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates and the number of 18 hours worked at each hourly rate.

19 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses

20 112. At all times relevant herein, Defendants were required to reimburse their 21 employees for any and all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employees in direct
22 consequences of the discharge of their duties, pursuant to the mandates of Labor Code sections 23 2800 and 2802.

24 113. As a policy and practice, Defendants regularly failed to reimburse Plaintiff and 25 the other aggrieved current and former employees for all business expenses incurred and owed
26 to them within the required time period.

Pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699, Plaintiff, individually, and on behalf of other current and former aggrieved employees, requests and is entitled to recover from Defendants, and each of them, civil penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and costs pursuant, including but not limited to:

- a. Penalties under California Labor Code section 2699 in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;

Penalties under California Labor Code section 210 in addition to, and entirely independent and apart from, any other penalty provided in the California Labor Code in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- d. Penalties under Labor Code section 1197.1 in the amount of a hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation;
- e. Any and all additional penalties as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes; and
- f. Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code sections 218.5, 1194, and 2699, and any other applicable statute.

Re: Gibson & Schaefer, Inc. & Imperial Valley Aggregates, LLC

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Gabriel Minjarez against Gibson & Schaefer, Inc. and Imperial Valley Aggregates, LLC (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20¹ for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "GSI").

Mr. Minjarez is pursuing his California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Mr. Minjarez may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Gibson & Schaefer, Inc. is a California corporation located at 83801 Avenue 45, Indio, CA 92201. Imperial Valley Aggregates, LLC is a California limited liability company located at 83801 Avenue 45, Indio, CA 92201.

GSI employed Mr. Minjarez as an hourly-paid non-exempt Concrete Mixer and Truck Driver within one year of the date of this letter (until in or around July of 2024) in the State of California. GSI directly controlled the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Mr. Minjarez's and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

¹ Mr. Minjarez does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Mr. Minjarez will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Mr. Minjarez is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Mr. Minjarez and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Mr. Minjarez may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of GSI within the State of California.

GSI failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

GSI has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. GSI failed to compensate Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. GSI also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into Mr. Minjarez’s and other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, GSI failed to pay Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, GSI routinely required Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with GSI's policies and expectations and fulfill orders. GSI failed to provide coverage to Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, GSI failed to authorize and permit Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, GSI failed to compensate Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." GSI required Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." GSI required Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, GSI failed to pay Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, GSI failed to pay Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, GSI did not provide Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from GSI were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, GSI failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, GSI did not provide Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Mr. Minjarez and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by GSI, including for using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work-related purposes.

We believe that Mr. Minjarez and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Mr. Minjarez will seek these penalties on his own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of GSI within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
