NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT, CLASS COUNSEL FEES PAYMENT, CLASS COUNSEL LITIGATION EXPENSES
PAYMENT, ENHANCEMENT AWARD, AND ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES PAYMENT; MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT THEREOF

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on June 2, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. in Department T-2 of the 3 above-captioned Court located at 3131 Arrow Street, Bakersfield, California 93308, pursuant to 4 California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court, and 5 California Labor Code section 2699(l), Jose Moreno (“Plaintiff”) will and hereby does move the Court
6 for an Order granting final approval of the proposed class action and Labor Code Private Attorneys 7 General Act of 2004, California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”) settlement between 8 Plaintiff and Defendant Kern Regional Center (“Defendant”).

9 Plaintiff requests that the Court enter an Order:

10 1. Granting final approval of the class action and PAGA settlement; 11 2. Approving the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the terms as set 12 forth in the Court-approved Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement Agreement” 13 or “Settlement”), including payment by Defendant of the Gross Settlement Amount of One Million 14 Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($1,800,000.00) equal to the amounts to pay (1) the 15 Participating Class Members and Aggrieved Employees pursuant to the terms of the Settlement; (2)
16 the Court-approved Class Counsel Fees Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment; (3) 17 the Court-approved Enhancement Award; (4) the Court-approved Administration Expenses Payment; 18 and (5) the Court-approved payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency 19 (“LWDA”) pursuant to PAGA;

20 3. Approving Class Counsel’s request for one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, 21 i.e., Six Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($600,000.00) in attorneys’ fees, plus 22 reimbursement of actual costs and expenses in the amount of Eighteen Thousand Seven Hundred 23 Twenty-Three Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents ($18,723.66);

24 4. Approving the Enhancement Award to Plaintiff in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars 25 and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) in recognition of his services to the Class Members;

26 5. Approving the Administration Expenses Payment to Apex Class Action LLC in the 27 amount of Nine Thousand Three Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($9,390.00); and 28 ///

8. Approving Sixty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($65,000.00) to be paid to the LWDA as seventy-five percent (65%) of the One Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($100,000.00) allocated to civil penalties under PAGA.

This Motion is made pursuant to Rule 3.769 and Rule 3.1113(e) of the California Rules of Court, which require approval by the Court of a class action settlement and permit the Court to extend the page limit for memoranda.

This Motion is based on the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Settlement Agreement, the Declarations of Class Counsel (Alexandra Rose), the Class Representative (Jose Moreno), and the Administrator (Beth Paris on behalf of Apex Class Action LLC), the pleadings and other records on file with the Court in this matter, and such evidence or oral argument as may be presented at the hearing on this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: May 8, 2026

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Jose Moreno (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) seeks final approval of the class 4 action settlement reached with Defendant Kern Regional Center (“Defendant”). Subject to Court 5 approval, Plaintiff and Defendant (together, the “Parties”) have settled the Released Class Claims and 6 Released PAGA Claims as defined in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement 7 Agreement” or “Settlement”) for a total amount of One Million Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars and 8 Zero Cents ($1,800,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”). (See Declaration of Alexandra Rose in 9 Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, Class Counsel
10 Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, Enhancement Award, and Administration 11 Expenses Payment [“Rose Decl.”], ¶ 11, Exh. 1).

12 The Court conditionally certified, for settlement purposes only, the Class defined as: “All 13 current and former non-exempt, hourly paid employees who worked for Defendant in the State of 14 California at any time during the Class Period” (“Class” or “Class Members”). (Settlement 15 Agreement, ¶ 1.5; Rose Decl., ¶ 9). The “Class Period” is defined as the period from October 2, 2020 16 through December 8, 2025. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.11; Rose Decl., ¶ 9). The “Participating Class 17 Members” consist of all Class Members who did not submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion.
18 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.33; Rose Decl., ¶ 9). The “Aggrieved Employees” consist of “all current 19 and former non-exempt, hourly paid employees who worked for Defendant in the State of California 20 at any time during the PAGA Period.” (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.4; Rose Decl., ¶ 9). The “PAGA 21 Period” is defined as the period from October 1, 2023 through December 8, 2025. (Settlement 22 Agreement, ¶ 1.29; Rose Decl., ¶ 9).

23 As discussed herein, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for final settlement 24 approval under California law because it is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (Rose Decl., Exh. 1; See 25 also, Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-30; Dunk v. Ford Motor 26 Company (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 180 1). The response of the Class to the Settlement confirms 27 that final settlement approval is appropriate. There have been no objections to and only three (3)
28 requests to opt-out from the Class Settlement. (Declaration of Beth Paris of Apex Class Action LLC, Regarding Notice and Settlement Administration [“Apex Decl.”], ¶¶ 11 and 12).

Because the Settlement achieves outstanding results for the Participating Class Members, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, Plaintiff respectfully requests, on behalf of the Class and without opposition from Defendant, that the Court approve the Settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, and enter judgment in accordance with the Settlement’s terms.

Plaintiff seeks the Court’s approval of an attorneys’ fee award of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Six Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($600,000.00) (“Class Counsel Fees Payment”), plus reimbursement of actual litigation costs and expenses in the amount of Eighteen Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty-Three Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents ($18,723.66) (“Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment”). Class Counsel’s request for an award of attorneys’ fees and costs is reasonable and appropriate in light of the outstanding work performed by Class Counsel in the matter, the contingent nature of this action, and the results achieved under the Settlement. (See Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19).

Plaintiff also requests the Court’s approval of the amount to be paid to Plaintiff in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) (“Enhancement Award”) for his services on behalf of the Class. This amount proposed to be awarded to Plaintiff is fair and reasonable for the reasons Plaintiff provided in his declaration. (See Declaration of Plaintiff Jose Moreno in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement, Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, Enhancement Award, and Administration Expenses Payment [“Moreno Decl.”] filed concurrently herewith). Courts approve incentive awards to plaintiffs when justified and appropriate to compensate plaintiffs for their time, effort, and inconvenience. (See e.g., Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F. Supp. 294, 299).

Finally, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the payment of Nine Thousand Three Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($9,390.00) (“Administration Expenses Payment”) to Apex Class Action LLC (“Apex” or “Administrator”) as compensation for its administration services it has and will provide in connection with the Settlement. (See, generally, Apex Decl.).

1 In order to efficiently present the Court with adequate information to determine whether to 2 grant final approval of the Settlement and award the Class Counsel Fees Payment, Class Counsel
3 Litigation Expenses Payment, Enhancement Award, and Administration Expenses Payment, Plaintiff 4 also moves for an order permitting the filing of this single consolidated memorandum, although it 5 exceeds the page limit established by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d), instead of filing 6 several separate motions.

7 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

8 Defendant is a private regional center contracted by the State of California to provide services 9 and support for individuals with developmental disabilities and their families. Plaintiff was employed 10 by Defendant as an hourly-paid, non-exempt Payroll Specialist from approximately January 2021 to 11 approximately June 2024. (Moreno Decl., ¶ 2).

12 On October 1, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the California Labor and Workforce 13 Development Agency (“LWDA”) by online submission and to Defendant by U.S. Certified Mail, 14 pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699.3, of the specified provisions of the California Labor 15 Code alleged to have been violated by Defendant (“PAGA Notice”). (Rose Decl., ¶ 2).

16 On October 2, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Class Action Complaint (“Operative Class Complaint”) 17 in the action entitled Jose Moreno v. Kern Regional Center, Kern County Superior Court Case No.
18 BCV-24-103353 (“Class Action”), thereby commencing a putative class action against Defendant.
19 (Id., ¶ 3). The Operative Class Complaint alleges nine (9) causes of action for violations of the 20 California Labor Code for failure to pay minimum wages, failure to pay overtime wages, failure to 21 provide compliant meal periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to provide compliant 22 rest periods and premium payments in lieu thereof, failure to timely pay wages during employment, 23 failure to provide compliant wage statements, failure to timely pay wages upon termination, and 24 failure to reimburse necessary business expenses, and for violations of California Business &
25 Professions Code Section 17200, et seq. based on the aforementioned California Labor Code 26 violations. (Ibid.).

27 ///

28 ///

1 On December 6, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Complaint for Enforcement Action Under the Private 2 Attorneys General Act, Cal. Labor Code §§ 2698 Et Seq. (“Operative PAGA Complaint”) against 3 Defendant in the action entitled Jose Moreno v. Kern Regional Center, Kern County Superior Court 4 Case No. BCV-24-104216 (“PAGA Action”). (Id., ¶ 4). The Operative PAGA Complaint alleges one 5 (1) cause of action under the Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”). (Ibid.).

6 On November 13, 2024, Plaintiff propounded written formal discovery onto Defendant 7 (specifically, Form Interrogatories – General (Set One), Form Interrogatories – Employment Law (Set 8 One), Special Interrogatories (Set One), Requests for Admission (Set One), and Requests for 9 Production of Documents (Set One)) and served a proposed Belaire-West notice. (Id., ¶ 5).

10 On October 8, 2025, the Parties participated in a formal mediation conducted by Hon. Carl J.
11 West (“Mediator”), a neutral and respected mediator with extensive experience in complex wage and 12 hour matters, and with the assistance of the Mediator’s evaluations, the Parties were able to reach an 13 agreement to resolve the Class Action and PAGA Action (together, “Actions”) on a class and 14 representative basis. (Id., ¶ 6). The Parties then worked diligently to negotiate and memorialize the 15 terms in a long form settlement agreement. (Ibid.).

16 On January 5, 2026, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement. (Id., ¶ 7 and Exh. 1).

17 On January 9, 2026, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and 18 PAGA Settlement (“Motion for Preliminary Approval”) and supporting documents. (Id., ¶ 8). On 19 February 5, 2026, the Court entered the Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action and 20 PAGA Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”), thereby preliminary approving the terms of the 21 Settlement Agreement, the Court Approved Notice of Class Action Settlement and Hearing Date for 22 Final Court Approval (“Class Notice”), and the proposed administration procedures and associated 23 deadlines. (Id., ¶ 8 and Exh. 2).

24 The Parties agree that the Class described herein may be certified for settlement purposes only.
25 If for any reason the Settlement is not approved, the certification will have no force or effect and will 26 immediately be revoked. The Parties further agree that certification for purposes of approving the 27 Settlement Agreement is in no way an admission that class certification is proper under the more 28 stringent standard applied for litigation and that evidence of this limited stipulation for settlement purposes only will not be admissible for any purpose in this or any other proceeding.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS AND PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Parties have agreed to settle the Class and PAGA claims at issue in the Operative Class Complaint and Operative PAGA Complaint (together, “Operative Complaints”) for a non-reversionary Gross Settlement Amount of One Million Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($1,800,000.00), which is exclusive of employer-side payroll taxes. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.20; Rose Decl., ¶ 11). The Gross Settlement Amount includes: (1) Class Counsel’s fees in the amount of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Six Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($600,000.00); (2) Class Counsel’s actual litigation costs and expenses, in the amount of Eighteen Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty-Three Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents ($18,723.66); (3) Administration Expenses Payment in the amount of Nine Thousand Three Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($9,390.00); (4) Enhancement Award in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00); and (5) PAGA Penalties in the amount of One Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($100,000.00). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.20, 3.2.1, 3.2.2, 3.2.3, and 3.2.5; Rose Decl., ¶ 11). After the above Court-approved amounts are deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount, the Participating Class Members will share in a Net Settlement Amount of approximately One Million Sixty-One Thousand Eight Hundred Eighty-Six Dollars and Thirty-Four Cents ($1,061,886.34). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.26; Rose Decl., ¶ 11).

The Settlement does not require Participating Class Members to submit claims as a prerequisite to receiving their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount (“Individual Class Payment”) nor does it require Aggrieved Employees to submit claims as a prerequisite to receiving their pro rata share of thirty-five percent (35%) of the PAGA Penalties (“Individual PAGA Payment”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.21, 1.22, 3.2.4, and 3.2.5.1; Rose Decl., ¶ 12). Individual Class Payments are calculated by the Administrator by dividing the Net Settlement Amount by the total number of weeks worked by all Participating Class Members for Defendant in non-exempt positions in California during the Class Period, based on weeks of actual work between hire dates, re-hire dates, and termination dates (“Workweeks”) and multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member’s Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.21, 1.42, and 3.2.4; Rose Decl., ¶ 12).

1 Individual PAGA Payments are calculated by the Administrator by dividing the amount of the 2 Aggrieved Employees' 35% share of PAGA Penalties ($35,000.00) by the total number of pay periods 3 worked by all Aggrieved Employees for Defendant in non-exempt positions in California during the 4 PAGA Period, based on pay periods of actual work between hire dates, re-hire dates, and termination 5 dates ("Pay Periods") and multiplying the result by each Aggrieved Employee's Pay Periods worked 6 during the PAGA Period. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.22, 1.28, and 3.2.5.1; Rose Decl., ¶ 12)

7 Each Individual Class Payment will be allocated as fifteen percent (15%) wages (the "Wage 8 Portion") and eighty-five percent (85%) penalties and interest (the "Non-Wage Portion"). (Settlement 9 Agreement, ¶ 3.2.4.1; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). The Wage Portions will be reported on an IRS Form W-2 10 and the Non-Wage Portions will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Administrator.
11 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.4.1; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). The Administrator will withhold the employee's 12 share of taxes and withholdings with respect to the wages portion of the Individual Class Payments, 13 and issue checks to Participating Class Members for their net payment of their Individual Class 14 Payment. (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 4.4.1; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). The employer's share of taxes and 15 contributions in connection with the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments will be paid by 16 Defendant separately and in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 17 3.1; Rose Decl., ¶ 14). Each Individual PAGA Payment will be allocated as one hundred percent 18 (100%) penalties and will be reported on an IRS Form 1099 (if applicable) by the Administrator.
19 (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 3.2.5.2; Rose Decl., ¶ 14).

20 Each Individual Class Payment and Individual PAGA Payment check will be valid and 21 negotiable for one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days from the date the checks are issued, and 22 thereafter, will be voided. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.1; Rose Decl., ¶ 15). Any funds associated 23 with such canceled checks will be distributed by the Administrator to Legal Aid at Work, 180 24 Montgomery St., Suite 600, San Francisco, California 94104 for use in Kern County in accordance 25 with California Code of Civil Procedure Section 384. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 4.4.3; Rose Decl., ¶ 26 15).

Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, all Participating Class Members, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, shall release Released Parties from any and all claims that were or could have been alleged in the Operative Class Complaint that arose during the Class Period, including without limitation with respect to the following claims: (1) Cal. Lab. Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 for unpaid minimum wages; (2) Cal. Lab. Code §§ 510 and 1198 for unpaid overtime wages; (3) Cal. Lab. Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a) for unpaid meal period premiums; (4) Cal. Lab. Code § 226.7 for unpaid rest period premiums; (5) Cal. Labor Code §§ 204 and 210 for wages not timely paid during employment; (6) Cal. Lab. Code § 226(a) for failure to provide accurate wage statements; (7) Cal. Lab. Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 for final wages not timely paid upon termination; (8) Cal. Lab. Code §§ 2800 and 2802 for failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; and (9) Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq. for unfair competition, as well as any potential penalties, interest, or attorneys' fees associated with all of such causes of action under California law (collectively, "Released Class Claims"). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.36 and 5.2). Except for the Released PAGA Claims, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period. (Id., ¶ 5.2).

Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, the State of California with respect to the Aggrieved Employees and Aggrieved Employees on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns shall release the Released Parties from all claims, demands, rights, liabilities, and causes of action under the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the claims asserted in the Operative PAGA Complaint, the PAGA Notice (and any amendments thereto), and ascertained in the course of the Actions, arising during or with respect to the PAGA Period, which include but are not limited to

1 California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 226.7(c), 510, 512(a), 2 558, 1174(d), 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 1198.5, 1199, 2698, et seq., 2699, 2699.3, 2699.5, 3 2800, and 2802 (collectively, “Released PAGA Claims”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶¶ 1.37 and 5.3).
4 The foregoing release shall be binding on Plaintiff, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of 5 California, and shall bar by res judicata any claim under the PAGA brought by any person, including 6 the Aggrieved Employees, on behalf of the State of California, as to any claims predicated on the 7 Released PAGA Claims. (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 5.3).

8 Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and 9 funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, 10 on behalf of his respective former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 11 administrators, successors, and assigns generally release and discharge Released Parties from all 12 claims, transactions, or occurrences that occurred during the Class Period, including, but not limited 13 to: (a) all claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged, based on the facts contained, in 14 the Operative Class Complaint, (b) all PAGA claims that were, or reasonably could have been, alleged 15 based on facts contained in the Operative PAGA Complaint, Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice, or ascertained 16 during the Actions and released under the Released PAGA Claims, and (c) any other claims, debts 17 liabilities, demands, damages, obligations, actions and causes of action, of any nature whatsoever, 18 whether known or unknown, or suspected or unsuspected, arising out of or in connection with their 19 employment with Defendant, the separation of such employment, or any other act, omission or event 20 occurring between the Parties at any time prior to the date the Plaintiff executes the Settlement 21 Agreement (“Plaintiff’s Release”). (Id., ¶ 5.1). The Plaintiff’s Release includes, without limitation: 22 (1) all claims for violation of any federal, state or local statute, ordinance or regulation relating to 23 employment benefits, leaves of absence, or discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or whistleblowing 24 in employment, specifically including, without limitation, the California Fair Employment and 25 Housing Act, the California Family Rights Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Family
26 and Medical Leave Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Older Workers Benefit 27 Protection Act, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, 28 and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation

1 Act, the Securities Act, the Immigration Reform and Control Act the Worker Adjustment and 2 Retraining Notification Act of 1988, the California Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification 3 Act, the Uniformed Service Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, and any regulation of any 4 administrative agency or governmental authority relating to employment benefits or discrimination or 5 harassment or retaliation in employment; (2) all claims for failure to pay minimum or overtime wages, 6 failure to provide meal periods and/or rest breaks, failure to timely pay wages during employment, 7 failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to 8 reimburse business expenses, failure to maintain accurate records, and any claim for violations of the 9 California Labor Code, California's Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq., and the applicable 10 California Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order; (3) any non-statutory tort or contractual claim, 11 including all claims for breach of oral, implied or written contract, breach of implied covenant of good 12 faith and fair dealing, negligent or intentional infliction of emotional distress, and conversion; (4) all 13 claims for wrongful termination of employment; (5) all claims for wages, penalties and/or benefits; 14 and (6) all claims for attorneys' fees and costs. (Ibid). The Plaintiff's Release does not extend to any 15 claims or actions to enforce the Settlement Agreement, or to any claims for vested benefits, 16 unemployment benefits, disability benefits, social security benefits, or workers' compensation benefits 17 that arose at any time, or based on occurrences outside the Class Period. (Ibid). Plaintiff acknowledges 18 that Plaintiff may discover facts or law different from, or in addition to, the facts or law that Plaintiff 19 now knows or believes to be true but agrees, nonetheless, that the Plaintiff's Release shall be and 20 remain effective in all respects, notwithstanding such different or additional facts or Plaintiff's 21 discovery of them. (Ibid). For purposes of the Plaintiff's Release, Plaintiff expressly waives and 22 relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the California Civil Code, 23 which reads:

24 A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE 25 CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO 26 EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE 27 AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY 28 AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED

(Id., ¶ 5.1.1).

1 The “Released Parties” means Defendant, and any of its past, present, and/or future, directors, 2 officers, partners, principals, Board members, trustees, shareholders, owners, members, managers, 3 employees, administrators, agents, attorneys, accountants, insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, 4 DBAs, parents, and subsidiaries. (Id., ¶ 1.38).

5 IV. THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION PROCESS

6 Apex has taken all necessary steps to effectuate the notice and settlement administration 7 process, as set forth in the Preliminary Approval Order.

8 On February 5, 2026, Apex received the Court approved text for the Class Notice from Class 9 Counsel. (Apex Decl., ¶ 4).

10 On February 19, 2026, Apex received the class data file from Defendant’s counsel, which 11 contained the full name, last known mailing address, Social Security number, number of Workweeks 12 and Pay Periods (collectively, “Class Data”). (Id., ¶ 5). The Class Data was uploaded to Apex’s 13 database and checked for duplicates and other possible discrepancies. (Ibid.). The Class Data 14 contained 669 individuals identified as Class Members. (Ibid.).

15 As part of the preparation for mailing, all 669 names and addresses contained in the Class Data 16 were then processed against the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database, maintained by the 17 United States Postal Service (“USPS”), for purposes of updating and confirming the mailing addresses 18 of the Class Members before mailing of the Class Notice. (Id., ¶ 6). The NCOA contains requested 19 change of addresses filed with the USPS. (Ibid.). To the extent that an updated address was found in 20 the NCOA database, the updated address was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid.). To the 21 extent that no updated address was found in the NCOA database, the original address provided by 22 Defendant’s counsel was used for the mailing of the Class Notice. (Ibid.).

23 On March 5, 2026, the Class Notice was mailed, via U.S. First Class Mail, to all 669 individuals 24 contained in the Class Data. (Id., ¶ 7). 14 Class Notices were returned to Apex as undeliverable. (Id., 25 ¶ 8). Apex performed a computerized skip trace on the 14 returned Class Notices that did not have a 26 forwarding address in an effort to obtain an updated address for the purpose of re-mailing the Class 27 Notice. (Ibid.). This skip trace effort resulted in obtaining 12 updated addresses, and the Class Notice 28 was promptly re-mailed to those Class Members, via U.S First Class Mail. (Ibid.). A total of 2 Class

1 Notices have been deemed undeliverable as no updated address was found notwithstanding the skip 2 tracing. (Id., ¶ 9).

3 Class Members had forty-five (45) calendar days after the Administrator mailed the Class 4 Notices to submit a Request for Exclusion, written objection, and/or challenge to Workweeks and/or 5 Pay Periods (“Response Deadline”). (Settlement Agreement, ¶ 1.40). The Response Deadline was 6 April 20, 2026 and the extended Response Deadline for Class Members who received a re-mailed 7 Class Notice was May 5, 2026. (Apex Decl., ¶ 10). The Administrator received three (3) Requests 8 for Exclusion and did not receive any written objections and/or challenges to Workweeks and/or Pay 9 Periods. (Id., ¶¶ 11-13). There are 666 Participating Class Members who worked 63,484 Workweeks 10 and 527 Aggrieved Employees who worked 16,897 Pay Periods. (Id., ¶ 15 and 17).

11 The estimated average gross Individual Class Payment is $1,585.00, the estimated highest 12 gross Individual Class Payment is $4,439.67, and the estimated lowest gross Individual Settlement 13 Class Payment is $16.63; the estimated average Individual PAGA Payment is $66.41, the estimated 14 highest Individual PAGA Payment is $120.14, and the estimated lowest Individual PAGA Payment is 15 $2.07. (Id., ¶¶ 16 and 18).¹

16 V. COMPLIANCE WITH PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS OF PAGA

17 On January 8, 2026, Class Counsel submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the 18 LWDA through its online submission portal in compliance with California Labor Code § 2699(s)(2).
19 (Rose Decl., ¶ 16). The LWDA has not objected or otherwise responded to the submissions. (Ibid.).

20 VI. EVALUATION OF SETTLEMENT FOR FINAL APPROVAL

21 A. The Legal Standard for Final Approval

22 Before granting final approval of a class action settlement, the Court must review the 23 settlement for fairness. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(g); Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 24 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801). A court must take into account relevant factors, including, for example, the 25 strength of the plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, 26

27 ¹ The actual average, highest, and lowest Individual Class Payment will be larger than the amounts stated in the Apex Decl.
28 because the Net Settlement Amount is larger due to Class Counsel’s request for reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses in an amount that is less than $25,000.00 (the difference between the amount sought and the amount authorized under the Settlement, i.e., $6,276.34 will be part of the Net Settlement Amount).

1 the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, 2 the experience and views of counsel, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.
3 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 244-45; Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 4 [“The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case”]; Officers for Justice v. Civil 5 Serv. Comm’n (9th Cir. 1982) 688 F.2d 615, 625). Considering such factors, a presumption of fairness 6 exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and 7 discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced 8 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; 9 Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802). “The settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or 10 rehearsal for trial on the merits. [The trial court is not] to reach any ultimate conclusions on the 11 contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, for it is the very uncertainty 12 of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual 13 settlements.” (Officers for Justice, supra, 688 F.2d at 625).

14 B. The Settlement Should be Finally Approved

15 California courts recognize that “a presumption of fairness exists where . . . [a] settlement is 16 reached through arm’s-length bargaining.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245; see also Clark v. Am.
17 Residential Servs. LLC, 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 799 (2009)). Here, the Parties’ settlement negotiations 18 were at all times made at arm’s-length and were adversarial. (Rose Decl., ¶ 17). The Parties engaged 19 in extensive informal discovery prior to reaching a settlement. (Id., ¶ 18).

20 C. The Settlement is Fair and Reasonable

21 Courts typically assess the status of discovery in determining whether a class action settlement 22 agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801). Prior to mediation, 23 Defendant produced a random thirty-three percent (33%) sampling of putative class members’ time 24 and pay data as well as Defendant’s relevant wage and hour policies, and information regarding the 25 total number of putative class members, the number of current versus former employees, the total 26 workweeks worked by the putative class members, and the average rate of pay for the putative class 27 members. (Rose Decl., ¶ 18). This allowed Class Counsel to conduct an informed assessment and 28 analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the potential class-wide damages. (Ibid).

1 Plaintiff's investigation was sufficient to satisfy the criteria for court approval set forth in Dunk v. Foot
2 Locker Retail, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 and Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008)
3 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 129-130 ("Dunk/Kullar").

4 Based on the information exchanged, the Parties extensively briefed issues regarding class 5 certification and liability and provided their analyses to the Mediator who helped the Parties debate 6 the strengths and weakness of their respective positions. (Rose Decl., ¶ 19). At all times, Plaintiff 7 was willing and prepared to litigate this matter through class certification and trial if the Parties had 8 been unable to reach a favorable resolution. (Ibid). Additionally, settlement negotiations were 9 conducted by highly capable and experienced counsel. (Ibid). Class Counsel are respected members 10 of the California State Bar with strong records of vigorous and effective advocacy and are experienced 11 in handling complex wage and hour class action litigation. (Ibid). Accordingly, Class Counsel had 12 sufficient information and experience to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

13 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff prevailed at 14 trial, nor does the settlement have to obtain 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable.
15 (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 246, 250). In evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement, a trial court 16 must consider "the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of 17 further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in 18 settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and 19 views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to 20 the proposed settlement." (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (2008)).

21 Here, the reasonableness of the Settlement is underscored by the fact that Defendant has legal 22 and factual grounds for defending the Actions. Based upon Class Counsel's experience litigating 23 similar complex matters, Plaintiff reasonably expected a vigorous and lengthy defense to both class 24 certification and the merits of the Action absent a settlement.

25 Class Counsel is aware of Defendant's defenses and arguments and has also taken into account 26 the uncertainty and risk of the outcome of further litigation, and the difficulties and delays inherent in 27 such litigation, including those involved in class and/or representative adjudication. (Rose Decl., ¶ 28 21). Plaintiff further recognizes the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability for the claims

1 asserted in the Actions, Defendant's defenses, and the difficulties in establishing entitlement to 2 monetary recovery. (Ibid). Plaintiff has also considered the Parties' settlement discussions, as well 3 as the evaluations of the Mediator, who is experienced and well-regarded in complex labor and 4 employment matters. (Ibid).

5 Defendant denied and continues to deny any liability and wrongdoing of any kind associated 6 with the claims alleged in the Actions, and further denies that class certification is appropriate for any 7 purpose other than the Settlement. (Id., ¶ 22). Defendant believes that it would ultimately prevail in 8 the Actions. (Ibid). Defendant proffered defenses to both certification and to the merits of Plaintiff's 9 claims. (Ibid). Defendant contended that Plaintiff's claims are not suitable for class certification 10 because individual issues would predominate should this case go to trial. (Ibid). As with all class 11 actions, these complex cases raise difficult management and proof issues and, accordingly, there is a 12 significant risk that the Court may deny class certification. (Ibid).

13 Class Counsel also recognized that, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification, proving the 14 amount of wages due to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and extremely 15 uncertain proposition. (Id., ¶ 23). In order to prove liability and damages, Class Counsel would need 16 to request and analyze thousands of pages of documents, obtain the Class Members' contact 17 information, contact them, and obtain declarations at great expense. (Ibid). Obtaining the cooperation 18 of current employees would also be difficult, given the likely reluctance to aid prosecution of a lawsuit 19 against a current employer. (Ibid). On the other hand, Defendant would likely be able to obtain the 20 cooperation of its employees. (Ibid). Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed at class certification and 21 trial, possible appeals would substantially delay any recovery by the Class. (Ibid).

22 In light of the Parties' respective legal positions and the risks of continued litigation, the Gross 23 Settlement Amount for resolution of the Class and PAGA claims, is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
24 (Id., ¶ 24).

1 VII. THE REQUESTED CLASS COUNSEL FEES PAYMENT AND CLASS 2 COUNSEL LITIGATION EXPENSES PAYMENT ARE REASONABLE AND 3 SHOULD BE APPROVED

4 Class Counsel seeks one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $600,000.00) for 5 fees for the time spent litigating this matter and reimbursement of actual costs and expenses totaling 6 Eighteen Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty-Three Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents ($18,723.66) incurred
7 in the prosecution of the Actions. (Rose Decl., ¶ 25). The requested fees and costs are fair 8 compensation for undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation on a 9 contingent fee basis, especially in light of the substantial benefits achieved by Class Counsel for the 10 Class Members. (Ibid).

11 A. Plaintiff's Fee Request of One-Third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount 12 is Proper Under the Common Fund Doctrine

13 Courts have long recognized the “common fund” or “common benefit” doctrine, under which 14 attorneys who create a common fund or benefit for a group of persons may be awarded their fees and 15 costs to be paid out of the fund. (See Serrano v. Priest (“Serrano III”) (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 34, 16 quoting D’Amico v. Board of Medical Examiners (1974) 11 Cal.3d 1; Glendale City Employees’
17 Association v. City of Glendale (1975) 15 Cal.3d 328, 341 fn.19; Quinn v. State of California (1995) 18 15 Cal.3d 162, 16 7; see also Boeing Co. v. Van Gernert (1980) 444 U.S. 472,478; Mills v. Electric 19 Auto-Lite Co. (1970) 396 U.S. 375, 391-392).

20 The California Supreme Court has held that, “when a number of persons are entitled in 21 common to a specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results 22 in the creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorneys’ fees 23 out of the fund.” (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 34, quoting D’Amico, 11 Cal.3d 1; see also Boeing, 24 supra, 444 U.S. at 478 (“[A] lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than 25 himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee from the fund as a whole.”); Mills, supra, 26 396 U.S. at 391-392 (United States Supreme Court endorsing the common fund approach in class 27 actions)). California Practice Guide: Civil Trials and Evidence (The Rutter Group) at § 17:172.3 28 explains the common fund doctrine as follows:

1 Where the lawsuit results in the recovery of a fund or property benefiting 2 others as well as plaintiff (e.g., a class action), the court has inherent 3 equitable power to order plaintiffs attorney fees paid out of the common fund or property [citations]. Such fee spreading assures that all of those benefited by the litigation pay their fair share of obtaining the recovery.

4 The percentage-of-the-fund approach appears to be the preferred method of awarding fees in 5 traditional common fund cases, such as this case. Where the settlement amount is a “certain or easily 6 calculable sum of money,” use of the percentage-of-the-fund method is appropriate. (Serrano III, 20 7 Cal. 3d at 35).

8 In Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, a wage and hour class action wherein 9 class counsel obtained a $19 million non-reversionary settlement on behalf of the class, the California 10 Supreme Court approved the use of the percentage of fund or common fund method to award one-11 third of the settlement amount or $6,333,333.33 to class counsel for attorneys’ fees. The Court stated:

12 Whatever doubts may have been created by Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d 25, [], or the 13 Court of Appeal cases that followed, we clarify today that use of the percentage method 14 to calculate a fee in a common fund case, where the award serves to spread the attorney 15 fee among all the beneficiaries of the fund, does not in itself constitute an abuse of 16 discretion. We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding 17 that when class action litigation established a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 18 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of 19 that fund, the court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created. The recognized advantages of the percentage method - including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation [] convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.

20 21 (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503).

22 In Quinn v. State of California (1995) 15 Cal.3d 162, 167, the California Supreme Court stated: 23 “[O]ne who expends attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive 24 benefits may require those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” Similarly, 25 in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, 110-111, the California Supreme 26 Court recognized that the common benefit doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when 27 an action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons are entitled to share.”

28 ///

1 Numerous appellate courts have similarly found. (See e.g., Knoff v. City and County of San 2 Francisco (1969) 1 Cal.App.3d 184, 203-204 (court upheld a “contingent percentage” award of 3 attorneys’ fees in a representative action as the proper exercise of the court’s broad equitable powers); 4 Rider v. County of San Diego (1992) 1 I Cal.App.4th 1410, 1423 (attorneys’ fees and expenses properly 5 awarded from common benefit composed of illegally imposed sales and use tax); Bank of America v.
6 Cory (1985) 164 Cal.App.3d 66, 89-92 (fees awarded from common benefit created by action 7 compelling state to claim dormant bank accounts); Parker v. Los Angeles (1974) 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 8 567-568 (court upheld fee award equal to one-third of the damages to owners of residential property 9 in an inverse condemnation action)).

10 The Supreme Court noted that several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative 11 “lodestar” approach for deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and 12 often indecipherable time records. (Laffitte, 1 Cal.5th at 503; see Lealao v. Beneficial California, Inc.
13 (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 31 n.5 citing In re Activision Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal 1989) 723 F. Supp. 1373, 14 1375). The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it aligns the interests of class 15 counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the litigation by providing 16 an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands on judicial resources.
17 (In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 1378-79). The Ninth Circuit now routinely uses the 18 percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (Lealao, 82 19 Cal.App.4th at 30-31; see e.g., In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 20 (approving attorney’s fee of 33%)).

21 A fee of one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $600,000.00) is easily within the 22 range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have awarded percentage fees in the range of 20% to 23 50%, depending on the circumstances of the case. (See In re Activision Sec. Litig., 723 F. Supp. at 24 1378). According to Professor Newberg: “No general rule can be articulated on what is a reasonable 25 percentage of a common fund...Usually 50 per cent of the fund is the upper limit on a reasonable fee 26 award from a common fund, in order to assure that fees do not consume a disproportionate part of the 27 recovery obtained for the class, though somewhat larger percentages are not unprecedented.”
28 (Newberg on Class Actions (4th Ed.), § 14.6). Class Counsel’s requested fee is reasonable and falls

1 well within the historical range of attorney's fee awards under the common fund theory. Based on 2 Class Counsel's showing of reasonableness, the Court should approve the requested fees pursuant to 3 the common fund approach.

4 B. The Circumstances of this Case Support a One-Third (1/3) Fee Award

5 Given the significant results achieved under the circumstances of this litigation, the requested 6 fee award is reasonable. As discussed in Sumitomo Copper Litigation, supra, 74 F. Supp. 2d at 396:

7 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent on the 8 success of his services to charge, when successful, as little as he 9 would charge a client who in advance of the litigation has agreed to 10 pay for his services, regardless of success. Nor, particularly in 11 complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a fee 12 depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

13 In that vein, this Court should consider the contingent nature of this case, the uncertainty of 14 the outcome, the quality of the counsel, and the preclusion from other employment.

15 C. The Contingent Nature of This Matter

16 From the outset of the Actions to the present, prosecution of this matter has involved significant 17 financial risk for Class Counsel. Class Counsel undertook this matter solely on a contingent basis, 18 with no guarantee of recovery. Class Counsel has placed its own resources at risk to prosecute this 19 matter with no guarantee of success. The risks of this matter are apparent in that class certification 20 would likely have been a hard-fought issue, especially given the uncertainty regarding certification of 21 cases such as this. Moreover, even if class certification were granted over Defendant's opposition, 22 there was no assurance that Plaintiff would succeed at trial. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 21-23). Despite such 23 challenges, Class Counsel was able to persuade Defendant that it faced significant liability exposure 24 such that it was willing to pay $1,800,000.00 to settle the Class Members' claims.

25 D. The Experience, Reputation, Ability of Counsel, and Skill in Litigation

26 Class Counsel has substantial experience in wage-and-hour and other class action litigation, 27 including litigation involving the legal issues in this matter. (Rose Decl., ¶¶ 28 and 29). Class 28 Counsel's skill in developing a factual record and convincing Defendant of its litigation exposure under California law was essential to achieving the Settlement. Through its skill and reputation, Class Counsel was able to obtain a settlement that provides an outstanding result for Class Members. (See generally Rose Decl.).

1 E. The Results Achieved

2 The excellent results achieved by the Settlement support Class Counsel's request for attorneys' 3 fees. Class Members' support for the results achieved by Class Counsel is demonstrated by the 4 absence of any objections to either the Class Settlement or to Class Counsel's request for fees, both of 5 which were described clearly in the Class Notice. As of the date of this Motion, Participating Class 6 Members will be paid, on average, approximately $1,585.00 each, which is intended to compensate 7 them for the alleged wage and hour violations they suffered during their employment. (Rose Decl., ¶ 8 13). This is a significant benefit for the Participating Class Members here as it represents a recovery 9 for highly disputed claims. Equally important is the fact that the State of California will receive 10 $65,000.00 for enforcement of labor laws and education of employers. (Id., ¶ 35).

11 Furthermore, the efficiency with which this litigation was conducted and resolved should be 12 rewarded. After preparing and investigating the cases prior to filing the Actions, Class Counsel 13 strongly litigated and then resolved the cases in an efficient manner. The Class Members will directly 14 benefit from the prompt and fair resolution of their claims. They will be receiving a significant award 15 in a relatively short period of time, as opposed to waiting years to recover some undetermined amount 16 if they succeeded at trial, which is an uncertainty in itself.

17 F. Preclusion of Other Employment

18 As California law recognizes, Class Counsel's commitment to this litigation should not be 19 assessed in a vacuum. (See Serrano, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 49). A relevant factor in determining 20 attorneys' fees is whether the litigation required Class Counsel to forego other employment. (See 21 ibid). Class Counsel had to consider its workload during this litigation when considering taking on 22 additional work that was available, and which Class Counsel had to forego in order to devote the time 23 necessary to pursue this litigation. (Rose Decl., ¶ 27).

24 G. The Requested Fees Are Also Justified Under the Lodestar Method

25 Fee calculations under the lodestar method would result in a similar award, demonstrating the 26 fairness of Class Counsel's percentage fee request. Under the lodestar method, a base fee amount is 27 calculated from a compilation of time reasonably spent on the case and the reasonable hourly 28 compensation of the attorney. The base amount is then adjusted by use of a multiplier in light of 1 various factors. (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). Class Counsel's hourly rates are summarized 2 in the Rose Decl. at ¶¶ 28-29.

3 One difficulty in determining the hourly rate of attorneys of similar skill and experience in the 4 relevant community is the scarcity of hourly fee-paying clients in class action litigation. (Rose Decl., 5 ¶ 29). As a practical matter, few if any employees or consumers pay attorneys' fees on an hourly basis 6 for such extensive litigation, and thus retainer agreements in such cases are based on a stepped-up 7 contingency fee (with the percentage increasing from one third to forty-five – and sometimes even 8 fifty percent, which is on par with personal injury contingency fee agreements – if the case goes to 9 trial). (Ibid). Therefore, there is no customary hourly billing rate for work that is routinely based on 10 a contingent fee relationship, but the nature of class action work should be strongly considered by the 11 Court. (Ibid). Wage and hour work presents a specialized and challenging area of law that is not 12 within the knowledge of many lawyers. (Ibid). This kind of class action work requires specialized 13 learning and the willingness to take large risks. (Ibid).

14 Class Counsel has spent approximately 374.60 total hours litigating these claims to date.²
15 (Rose Decl., ¶ 29). Class Counsel expects to spend another 10 hours in connection with the final 16 approval process (including preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing, and managing 17 the Settlement through its conclusion, including anticipated communications with defense counsel, the 18 Administrator, our client, and Class Members). (Id., ¶ 30). In addition to time spent during litigation, 19 reasonable hours also include the time spent before the Actions were filed, including time spent 20 interviewing the client, investigating the facts and the law, preparing the initial pleadings, as well as 21 litigating the cases. (Webb v. Board of Educ. (1985) 471 U.S. 234). Further, the fee award should 22 include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys' fee claim. (Serrano v. Priest (1982) 32 23 Cal.3d 621, 639 ("Serrano IV"). Based on the rates of Class Counsel, the total fees incurred to date

26 ² In Martino v. Denevi (1986) 182 Cal.App.3d 553, 559, the court addressed the issue of what evidence is required in 27 California to support a fee application. The court held: "Testimony of an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a 28 particular case is sufficient evidence to support an award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed time records."
Id. There is no need to attach the voluminous invoices prepared in a case as a basis for an award of fees and costs. Id.
Through Class Counsel's declaration in support of this application, however, Plaintiff presents a thorough breakdown of the hours spent and costs incurred in prosecuting this class action. Pursuant to Martino, supra, this presentation is sufficient to support the amount requested.

1 are $349,463. (Rose Decl., ¶ 29). By the conclusion of this matter, the total fees are estimated to be 2 approximately $356,963. (Id., ¶ 30).

3 In cases where a common fund analysis is not used, once the court establishes the lodestar 4 amount, it should adjust the fee award by a multiplier in order to make an appropriate fee award.
5 (Serrano III, supra, 20 Cal.3d at 48). In applying the multiplier, Newberg on Class Actions states that 6 “[m]ultiples ranging from one to four frequently are awarded in common fund cases when the lodestar 7 method is applied. A large common fund award may warrant an even larger multiplier.” (4 Newberg 8 on Class Actions 4th (4th ed. 2002) § 14.6). If the class members paid the fees that the market would 9 bear, they would pay a fee of anywhere from one-third to forty-five percent of any recovery. Since 10 this is the market rate, the lodestar calculation should be enhanced to reflect what the class members 11 would pay on the open market. (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48).

12 In Lealao, the court held that trial courts should award lodestar fees by examining the 13 percentage-of-the-benefit and adjusting the lodestar calculation accordingly. (Id. at 49 and 53). The 14 court indicated that this is an upward adjustment and should be akin to a contingency fee recovery; 15 the court stated, “[a]n adjustment reflecting the amount of the class recovery is not significantly 16 different from an adjustment reflecting a percentage of that amount; and California courts have 17 evaluated a lodestar as a percentage of the benefit.” (Id. at 46). The Lealao method appears 18 particularly appropriate because class actions generally are contingency fee cases for plaintiffs - and 19 the class action clients do not expect to pay an hourly fee.

20 The rationale of Lealao comports with the purpose of the multiplier. The multiplier is 21 “primarily to compensate the attorney for the prevailing party at a rate reflecting the risk of 22 nonpayment in contingency cases.” (Ketchum v. Moses (2001) 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1138). The Lealao 23 court reasoned:

24 Given the unique reliance of our legal system on private litigants to enforce 25 substantive provisions of law through class and derivative actions, attorneys 26 providing the essential enforcement services must be provided incentives 27 roughly comparable to those negotiated in the private bargaining that takes 28 place in the legal marketplace, as it will otherwise be economic for defendants to increase injurious behavior. It has therefore been urged (most persistently by Judge Richard Posner) that in defining a reasonable fee in such representative actions, the law should mimic the market.

1 In the class action context, that would mean attempting to award the fee that 2 informed private bargaining, if it were truly possible, might have reached.
3 The simplest way for the law to duplicate the bargain that informed parties 4 would reach if agency costs were low is to look to fee award levels in actions brought by sophisticated private parties under the same or comparable statutes.

5 (Lealao, 82 Cal.App.4th at 47-48 (internal citations and quotations omitted)). The court added:

6 [T]rial judges need the flexibility Serrano III provides, as it enables them to 7 relate fee awards to the economic realities that determine the efficacy of the private enforcement contemplated by our civil justice system.

8 Accordingly, we hold that, in cases in which the value of the class recovery 9 can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty and it is not otherwise inappropriate, a trial court has discretion to adjust the basic lodestar through the application of a positive or negative multiplier where necessary to ensure that the fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.

10 (Id. at 49-50).

11 In looking at similar cases, including those set forth above, Class Counsel's requested fee 12 comports to the market. Based on the reasonable hourly rates suggested by Class Counsel and the 13 collective hours worked in this matter, the requested fee award would represent a modest multiplier of 14 1.73 over the current total fee lodestar. In this regard, Class Counsel's fee request is reasonable.

15 H. No Class Member Objected to the Requested Attorneys' Fee Award

16 Class Counsel's intention to request the Court's approval for payment of attorneys' fees was 17 clearly disclosed to each Class Member in the Court-approved Class Notice. (Rose Decl., ¶ 32; See 18 also, Apex Decl., Exh. A). As of the filing of this Motion, there has not been a single objection to the 19 request for attorneys' fees. (Apex Decl., ¶ 12). It is fair to conclude that the Class approves of/does 20 not take issue with the requested award of attorneys' fees. Based thereon, Class Counsel's request for 21 one-third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, equaling Six Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero 22 Cents ($600,000.00), should be granted.

23 I. Plaintiff's Cost Request is Reasonable

24 Class Counsel seeks reimbursement of a total amount of Eighteen Thousand Seven Hundred 25 Twenty-Three Dollars and Sixty-Six Cents ($18,723.66) in costs and expenses in this matter, which 26 includes reasonable future costs for filing the Motion. (Rose Decl., ¶ 31 and Exh. 4). All costs and 27 expenses were reasonably incurred in prosecution of this matter.

28 ///

1 VIII. THE REQUESTED ENHANCEMENT AWARD TO PLAINTIFF IS 2 REASONABLE

3 The named Plaintiff should be awarded an Enhancement Award in the amount of Ten 4 Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($10,000.00) for his services as the Class Representative and the 5 risks in connection with that role. (Rose Decl., ¶ 33). Enhancement awards in wage and hour cases 6 typically range from $5,000.00 to $20,000.00, although some awards are higher. (Ibid). Often, 7 multiple class representatives receive awards in the above range. (See e.g., Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola 8 Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 412 [approving an enhancement request of 9 $10,000.00 per named plaintiff in a 188 member class]; Cook v. Niedert, 142 F.3d 1004, 1016 (7th Cir.
10 1998); Thornton v. East Texas Motor Freight, 497 F.2d 416, 420 (6th Cir. 1974) [“We also think there 11 is something to be said for rewarding those drivers who protect and help to bring rights to a group of 12 employees who have been the victims of discrimination.”]). Here, the requested Enhancement Award 13 is modest, reasonable, and should be approved.

14 Plaintiff’s actions establish that: (1) he sought to protect the interests of the Class above his 15 own personal interests; (2) the Participating Class Members will be benefitted from his actions by 16 receiving a payment without having to do anything; and (3) Plaintiff has put forth a significant amount 17 of time and effort pursuing the litigation and seeing it through to resolution. (See, generally, Moreno
18 Decl.; see also Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804 19 (discussing the criteria for determining class representative enhancement awards in concluding that a 20 requested award of $25,000 for two class representatives was too high)).

21 The requested award for Plaintiff is also reasonable given the financial and personal risk he 22 took in commencing the Actions, and in light of the benefits that his actions have conferred upon the 23 Class. (Moreno Decl., ¶ 7; See also Van Vranken v. Atl. Richfield Co. (N.D.Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp.
24 294, 299-300). Additionally, in considering a requested class representative enhancement award, 25 courts take into consideration a plaintiff’s reasonable fear of retaliation. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th 26 Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 977). Here, it is easy to see that a potential future employer could expend 27 little effort to discover Plaintiff brought the lawsuit – and based thereon, decline to offer Plaintiff 28 employment.

1 In sum, Plaintiff has performed considerable services on behalf of the Class during the 2 litigation. (See, generally, Moreno Decl.). Class Counsel cannot understate the importance of the role 3 of an employee who is willing to search out an attorney and step forward to assume the risk of litigation 4 and retaliation in order to represent a class and put the interests of the class before their own interests.
5 Plaintiff has understood that this is a class action where he is serving as the Class Representative and 6 must protect the Class Members' interests. (Id., ¶ 10). Plaintiff was the catalyst to the benefit reached 7 for the Class Members, and has actively protected the Class Members' interests during the pendency 8 of this matter and will continue to do so even if the cases were required to go to trial. (Ibid). Plaintiff 9 spent numerous hours participating in this matter by searching for an attorney, communicating with 10 his attorneys on numerous occasions, searching for and producing relevant documents related to his 11 employment, responding to his attorneys' inquiries, reviewing the settlement documents, and 12 approving the Settlement on behalf of all Class Members. (See, generally, Moreno Decl.).

13 In contrast, without having to take on any of the risk incurred by Plaintiff or time spent by 14 Plaintiff in litigating this matter, Participating Class Members will automatically be issued a payment 15 for their claims. It appears that the Participating Class Members recognize this enhancement was 16 justified because since the time the Class received notice of the requested Enhancement Award, no 17 one has objected to the request. Thus, the Enhancement Award to Plaintiff is warranted to compensate 18 him for his time and effort, the fear and stress associated with assuming the responsibility of serving 19 as the Class Representative, and the concrete risks he assumed as the Class Representative.

20 IX. THE REQUESTED ADMINISTRATION EXPENSES PAYMENT IS 21 REASONABLE

22 In Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, Plaintiff requested, and the Court approved, an 23 Administration Expenses Payment not to exceed Nine Thousand Three Hundred Ninety Dollars and 24 Zero Cents ($9,390.00). (Rose Decl., ¶ 34). Apex Class Action LLC is the approved Administrator.
25 (Ibid). It is an experienced class administrator and has adequately performed the administration tasks 26 required by the Preliminary Approval Order. Apex's actual costs to administer the Settlement are 27 indeed Nine Thousand Three Hundred Ninety Dollars and Zero Cents ($9,390.00). (Apex Decl., ¶ 19 28 and Exh. C). Based thereon, the requested costs should be approved.

1 X. THE PROPOSED LWDA ALLOCATION IS REASONABLE

2 Pursuant to California Labor Code Section 2699(s)(1), the Superior Court shall review and 3 approve the settlement of penalties sought under that California Labor Code Section. (Cal. Lab. Code 4 § 2699(s)(1)). For all of the reasons stated above, the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and 5 should be approved. As part of the Settlement, Defendant has agreed to pay One Hundred Thousand 6 Dollars and Zero Cents ($100,000.00) to settle the claims of the Aggrieved Employees brought 7 pursuant to PAGA, of which the payment of Sixty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($65,000.00) 8 (65% of the PAGA Penalties) will be paid to the LDWA for education and enforcement purposes.
9 (Rose Decl., ¶ 35).

10 It is extremely common in approved wage and hour class action cases that settle that only a 11 small portion of the total settlement is paid to PAGA penalties “in order to maximize payments to 12 class members.” (Magadia v. Wal-Mart Assocs. (N.D. Cal. May 31, 2019, No. 17-CV-00062-LHK) 13 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 91732, *90-91, citing as examples Ceja-Corona v. CVS Pharm., Inc. (E.D.
14 Cal. Jan. 14, 2015) 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 5118, 2015 WL 222500, at *2-3 [preliminarily approving 15 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $900,000]; Thio v. Genji, LLC (N.D.
16 Cal. 2014) 14 F. Supp. 3d 1324, 1330 [preliminarily approving $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a 17 total settlement amount of $1,250,000]; Franco v. Ruiz Food Prods. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2012) 2012
18 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 169057, 2012 WL 5941801, at *14 [granting final approval of $10,000 in PAGA 19 penalties out of a total settlement amount of $2,500,000]; Garcia v. Gordon Trucking, Inc. (E.D. Cal.
20 Oct. 31, 2012) 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160052, 2012 WL 5364575, at *3 [granting final approval of 21 $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $3,700,000]; Chu v. Wells Fargo Invs.,
22 LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 15821, 2011 WL 672645, at *1 [granting final 23 approval of $10,000 in PAGA penalties out of a total settlement amount of $6,900,000]). Like here, 24 in these approved settlements, the parties generally maximized statutory penalties and minimized 25 PAGA penalties to focus on claims to the class members, the persons who actually suffered the 26 California Labor Code violations. (Rose Decl., ¶ 36).

27 ///

28 ///

1 XI. THE CLASS RECEIVED THE BEST PRACTICABLE NOTICE

2 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 3 program. (See California Civil Code § 1781; Cartt v. Superior Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 973-4 74). To protect the rights of absent class members, the parties must provide class members with the 5 best notice practicable of a potential class action settlement. (Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts (1985)
6 472 U.S. 797, 811-12; Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin (1974) 417 U.S. 156, 174-76 [individual notice 7 must be sent to all class members who can be identified through reasonable efforts]; Mullane v. Central 8 Hanover Bank & Garretson Company (1950) 339 U.S. 306, 314 [best practicable notice is that which 9 is "reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of 10 the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections"])). The content and method of 11 the notice should be designed to apprise the class members of the terms of the proposed settlement 12 and of the class members' rights regarding the settlement. (See Mullane, supra, 339 U.S. at 314; 13 Philadelphia Housing Authority v. American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp. (E.D. Pa. 1970) 323 14 F. Supp. 364, 378).

15 The Class Notice approved by the Court met these requirements: it identified the Parties and 16 described the Actions, the Class, the Gross Settlement Amount, the proposed method for distribution 17 of the Gross Settlement Amount, the amounts proposed to be paid as the Enhancement Award to 18 Plaintiff, the Administration Expenses Payment to the Administrator, and the Class Counsel Fees 19 Payment and Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment to Class Counsel. (Rose Decl., ¶ 37; see 20 also Apex Decl., Exh. A thereto). The Class Notice described the proposed Settlement with enough 21 specificity to allow each Class Member to make an informed choice whether to accept and participate 22 in it. (Ibid). It also explained how and when Class Members may object to or opt out of the Class 23 Settlement. (Ibid). Finally, the Class Notice provided the date for the hearing on final approval of the 24 Settlement and informed Class Members how to obtain additional information about the Settlement.
25 (Ibid).
