1 TO THE COURT, AND TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on August 4, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. in Department 17 of this Court 3 located at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California, 90012 pursuant to Code of Civil 4 Procedure section 382 and California Rules of Court, rule 3.769 et seq., Plaintiff Elizabeth Romero 5 (“Plaintiff”) will, and hereby does, move the Court for an order granting preliminary approval of the 6 proposed class action settlement between Plaintiff and Defendant L.A. Gem and Jewelry Design, Inc.
7 Specifically, Plaintiff moves the Court for an order:

- 8 1. Granting preliminary approval of the Joint Stipulation of Class and Representative Action 9 Settlement Agreement;
- 10 2. Certifying a Class, for settlement purposes only;
- 11 3. Approving the Class Notice and plan for its distribution;
- 12 4. Appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative, for settlement purposes only;
- 13 5. Appointing Moon Law Group, PC as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes only;
- 14 6. Appointing ILYM Group Inc. as the Administrator; and
- 15 7. Scheduling a Final Approval Hearing no earlier than 120 days from the date of 16 preliminary approval.

17 The motion will be based upon this notice, the attached memorandum of points and 18 authorities, the supporting declarations and attachments thereto, the record and files in this action, 19 and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may properly receive at or before the 20 hearing.

21 As this Motion is unopposed, the Parties respectfully request relief from the page limit 22 requirement set by California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1113(d).

23 Respectfully submitted,

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Elizabeth Romero (“Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a proposed $425,000.00 non-reversionary, wage-and-hour class action settlement (the “Settlement”) with L.A. Gem and Jewelry Design, Inc. (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”). The Settlement will provide substantial monetary payments to an estimated 187 Class Members who worked an estimated aggregate of 22,251 Workweeks, of which roughly 128 are Aggrieved Employees who worked an estimated aggregate of 4,168 PAGA Pay Periods. As set forth more fully below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all the criteria for settlement approval under California law. The Settlement was reached after extensive investigation, informal discovery, and negotiations between the Parties. The negotiations were at arm’s-length and were facilitated through private mediation by an experienced and neutral class action mediator, Steven Rottman, Esq. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement, certify the proposed Class, approve the proposed Class Notice to Class Members, and set a final approval hearing no earlier than 120 days from the date of preliminary approval.

II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

A. Plaintiff’s Claims and Procedural History

This is a wage-and-hour class action and representative action for alleged Labor Code violations and claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). (Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Representative Action Settlement [“Moon Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California employed during the Class Period, as set forth in the Joint Stipulation of Class and Representative Action Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”). (Id.)

Defendant is a jewelry design and manufacturing company based primarily in Los Angeles County, California, where it operates both its warehouse and office facilities. (Id. at ¶ 3.) Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class Period. (Id.)

1 Plaintiff worked for Defendant from approximately 2005 through January 2024, in a non-exempt, 2 hourly-paid position. (Declaration of Plaintiff Elizabeth Romero in Support of Class Action and 3 PAGA Representative Action Settlement [“Plaintiff Decl.”], ¶ 2.) Plaintiff contends she and her 4 coworkers were subjected to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for 5 all hours worked. (Id. at ¶ 6; Moon Decl., ¶ 3.)

6 Plaintiff’s claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that 7 Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work and Defendant rounded 8 employees’ time to their detriment. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff’s meal and rest period claims are 9 based on allegations that due to the nature of their work, Class Members’ breaks were often short,
10 late, interrupted, and sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium
11 wages for non-compliant breaks. (Id.) Plaintiff further brings a claim for unreimbursed necessary 12 business expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to use their personal 13 vehicles and cellphone for work purposes without reimbursement from Defendant. (Id.) Finally, 14 Plaintiff also brings derivative claims for waiting time penalties, wage statement violations, unfair
15 business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

16 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, 17 Plaintiff filed a class action on December 3, 2024, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) 18 failed to pay minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal 19 periods, (4) failed to authorize and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business 20 expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate
21 itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair business practices. (Id. at ¶ 5.)

22 Pursuant to PAGA, on November 29, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California
23 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, 24 with certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at ¶ 6, Ex. 2.) On 25 February 6, 2025, Plaintiff timely filed a First Amended Class and Representative Action 26 Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the “Operative 27 Complaint”). (Id. at ¶ 6.) In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff 28 subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the

1 Court-assigned case number. (Id.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the 2 alleged violations or intervene in this Action. (Id.)

3 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
4 (Id. at ¶ 7.) Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including 5 compensating Class Members for any and all off-the-clock work and overtime work, and therefore, 6 Plaintiff and other Class Members were paid all wages owed. (Id.) Defendant argues its time-
7 rounding practice is neutral on its face and in compliance with California law. (Id.) Defendant
8 maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period obligations. (Id.) Defendant asserts it 9 complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were 10 compensated for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. (Id.) To the extent employees 11 received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no 12 actual damage or harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 13 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an 14 injury arising from an employer’s failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the 15 omission of the required information alone is not sufficient.”].) With respect to Plaintiff’s claim 16 for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes
17 the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff cannot prove Defendant’s alleged failure 18 to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 7; see, e.g., Pedroza 19 v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 9506073, 20 *5.) For these reasons, among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, 21 and further claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under 22 PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7.) Defendant also maintains the claims are improper for class treatment, 23 in part, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims that could bar
24 class certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability. (Id.)

25 B. Discovery and Investigation

26 The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Steven Rottman, Esq., an experienced class and 27 PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 8.) In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for 28 an informal production of documents and information before mediation. (Id.) Prior to mediation,

1 Plaintiff obtained from Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were 2 necessary and helpful to evaluate the claims asserted in this action. (Id.) Defendant produced a 3 statistically sound sample of time and pay records for approximately 11% of the putative Class, 4 Plaintiff's personnel file and time and pay records, and Defendant's written employment policies in 5 effect during the Class Period. (Id.) Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated 6 number of current and formerly employed Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay
7 Periods. (Id.)

8 In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 9 Defendant provided, including the sample records and documents regarding Defendant's wage-and-10 hour policies. (Id. at ¶ 9.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze the sample records 11 and prepare a damage analysis prior to the mediation. (Id.) The sample time and pay records analyzed 12 contained 19,556 actual shifts worked (representing roughly 23% of total shifts worked in the Class 13 Period), which allowed Plaintiff's expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty.
14 (Id.) In conjunction with their extensive factual investigation, Plaintiff's Counsel also investigated
15 the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, 16 Plaintiff's Counsel was able to evaluate the probability of class certification, success on the merits, 17 and Defendant's maximum and realistic monetary exposure for all claims. (Id.) Thus, Plaintiff's and 18 her Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues raised by the pleadings allowed 19 them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

20 C. Settlement Negotiations and Notice of Settlement to the LWDA

21 On May 29, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Steven 22 Rottman, Esq. (Id. at ¶ 10.) The negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a 23 professional manner, were adversarial. (Id.) The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore 24 the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but each side was also prepared to litigate their 25 position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) After a full discussion 26 regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's defenses and with 27 the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which are set 28 out in the Settlement. (Id., Ex. 1.)

1 In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 2 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff’s preliminary 3 approval motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 11, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated
4 any objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 11.)

5 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

6 Under the Settlement, Defendant will pay a non-reversionary amount of no less than 7 $425,000.00 (“GSA”), subject to potential increase under an Escalator Clause, to resolve this 8 action. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant will separately pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on 9 the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Other key terms of the Settlement are 10 outlined in the counsel declaration submitted concurrently herewith. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 12–30.) The 11 proposed Settlement Administrator— ILYM Group Inc.—was jointly selected by the Parties
12 based on its bid of $7,850.00. (Id. at ¶ 16, Ex. 5; Settlement, ¶¶ 1.2, 7.1.)

13 The Class is defined as all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of 14 Defendant in California employed during the period from December 3, 2020, through February 15 19, 2026. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.4, 1.11.) “Aggrieved Employees” is defined as all current and former hourly-16 paid or non-exempt employees of Defendant in California employed during the period from 17 November 29, 2023, through February 19, 2026. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.29, 1.31.) The Settlement allocates 18 $25,000.00 from the GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed
19 65% ($16,250.00) to the LWDA and 35% ($8,750.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA 20 law governing Plaintiff’s claims. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.33, 3.2.5.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be 21 entitled to a pro rata share of the 35% share of the PAGA Penalties directly proportional to their 22 number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.5.1.) This results in an average Individual PAGA 23 Payment of roughly $68.36 for each of the estimated 128 Aggrieved Employees ($8,750 / 128), 24 and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $2.10 for each of the 4,168 estimated Pay Periods in the 25 PAGA Period ($8,750 / 4,168). (Moon Decl., ¶ 18.)

26 After deducting the Class Representative Service Payment, the Class Counsel Fees and 27 Expenses Payments, the PAGA Penalties allocation, and the Administration Expenses Payment 28 from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution to Participating Class Members. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.26, 3.2.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than $215,833.33 for an estimated Class of 187 individuals.¹ (Moon Decl., ¶ 19.) Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked during the Class Period. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.4.) The estimated $215,833.33 Net Settlement Amount results in an average Individual Class Payment of roughly $1,154.19 for each of the estimated 187 Class Members ($$215,833.33 / 187$),² and a Workweek value of roughly $9.70 for each of the 22,251 estimated Workweeks in the Class Period ($$215,833.33 / 22,251$). (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.)

To the best of Plaintiff's knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has Defendant pointed to any. (Moon Decl., ¶ 30.)

III. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

The law favors the settlement of lawsuits, particularly in class actions and other complex cases. (See, e.g., Neary v. Regents of Univ. of Cal. (1992) 3 Cal.4th 272, 277–81.) To prevent fraud, collusion, or unfairness to the class, the settlement of a class action requires court approval. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1800–01 [citing authority omitted].) To approve a settlement, the Court must find “the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.” (Id.) This Court has wide discretion in making this determination. (Mallick v. Super. Ct. (1979) 89 Cal.App.3d 434, 438.) Fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness are presumed, as here, when: “(1) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the

² At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown and will be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class Data. (Settlement, ¶ 4.2.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21, n.2.)

In evaluating a settlement, the trial court considers the following factors: (1) the strength of plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status through trial; (4) the settlement amount offered; (5) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) counsel’s experience and views; (7) the presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the class members’ reaction to the proposed settlement. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128.) To approve a class action settlement, “the court must satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of reasonableness.” (Id. at p. 133.) The record need not contain an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical recovery. (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

As discussed below, Plaintiff’s Counsel have provided materials and information exceeding the threshold required for this Court to conclude the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

A. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, Adequate, and the Product of Investigation, Litigation, and Negotiation

1. The Settlement Is the Product of Discovery, Investigation, Informed and Non-Collusive Arm’s-Length Negotiations, and Realistic Claims Analysis

Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement, unless evidence to the contrary is offered. (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 11.51.) Settlement is favored, and settlement agreements are realistically assessed. (Stamburgh v. Super. Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir. 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447 [“The fact that the plaintiff might have received more if the case had been fully litigated is no reason not to approve the settlement.”].) Thus, there is a presumption here that negotiations were conducted in good faith.

Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. (Moon Decl., ¶ 31.) As previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arms’-length

1 negotiations, private mediation, and the assistance of a statistics expert. (Id.) Based on Defendant's 2 informal class-wide discovery production, on Plaintiff's Counsel independent investigation and 3 evaluation, and on counsel's extensive experience in wage-and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are 4 of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id.)

5 Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 6 Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on 7 information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted 8 exposure that Defendant faced. (Id. at ¶ 32.) Specifically, based on the information provided for 9 mediation, the total estimated realistic recovery (adjusted for risks at certification and proof on the 10 merits) for the alleged claims, including penalties, is estimated to be $595,347.09. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 11 32, 39.) This amount was calculated as follows: $1,295.50 (50% discount) for the rounding claim; 12 $23,061.95 (85% discount) for the off-the-clock work claim; $362,616.39 (75% discount) for the 13 meal period claim; $120,035.55 (85% discount) for the rest period claim; $32,726.25 (85% discount)
14 for the unreimbursed business expenses claim; $9,171.45 (95% discount) for the waiting time 15 penalties claim; $25,600.00 (95% discount) for the wage statement claim; and $20,840.00 (95% 16 discount) for the PAGA penalties claim. (Id. at ¶¶ 32–38.) The foregoing discounts were based on 17 the evidence presented for mediation and arguments made during arm's-length settlement
18 negotiations. (Id.)

19 The $425,000.00 gross settlement figure represents roughly 71.4% of the total realistic 20 recovery. (Id. at ¶ 39.) This is an excellent result for the Class, particularly because, under the 21 Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, avoiding the risk of not being 22 able to recover anything. (Id.)

23 2. The Class Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties' Respective Positions

24 and Significant Risks to Certification and Proof on the Merits

25 A settlement is not judged against what a plaintiff might recover had he prevailed at trial, nor 26 does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba 27 v. Apple Comp., Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246, 250 ["Compromise is inherent and necessary 28 in the settlement process . . . even if 'the relief afforded by the proposed settlement is substantially

1 narrower than it would be if the suits were to be successfully litigated,’ this is no bar to a class 2 settlement because ‘the public interest may indeed be served by a voluntary settlement in which each 3 side gives ground in the interest of avoiding litigation.’”] [quoting Air Line Stewards v. Am. Airlines, 4 Inc. (7th Cir. 1972) 455 F.2d 101, 109].)

5 Here, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, 6 appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 7 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 31.) While Plaintiff is 8 confident in the merits of her claims, a legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. (Id.
9 at ¶ 42.) Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount owed to each Class Member would be an 10 expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.)

11 The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or 12 some of Plaintiff’s claims. (Id. at ¶ 43.) Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing 13 at trial due to low or no participation by Class Members. (Id.) Indeed, the individualized and testimony-14 intensive nature of the claims could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise 15 significantly reduce any recovery whatsoever. (Id.) For example, the rest period and unreimbursed 16 expense claims are testimony-driven claims and assume a 50% and 100% violation rate, respectively, 17 which would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as it assumes either the participation of a majority 18 or all employees (which would be difficult given the reality that many, if not all, employees would 19 be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical 20 data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority of employees to establish 21 a sound representation of all non-exempts). (Id.) Even assuming employees would be willing to 22 participate, obtaining declarations would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a different 23 experience. (Id.)

24 Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue her claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 25 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial 26 and possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. (Id. at ¶ 27 44.) Although the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, 28 and class-wide data analysis, they have not conducted extensive formal discovery. (Id.) Moreover,

1 preparation for class certification and a trial would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of 2 appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment
3 ruling. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys’ fees and costs through 4 trial. (Id.) In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further 5 litigation. (Id.)

6 The proposed $425,000.00 Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when 7 compared to the reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. (Id. at ¶ 45) When considering the 8 risks of litigation, the uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary 9 to establish liability, and the probability of appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the 10 “ballpark” of reasonableness, and that preliminary settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.; (Kullar, 11 supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 133; see Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at pp. 408–09.)

12 3. The PAGA Settlement Is Fair Considering the Parties’ Respective Positions 13 and Significant Risks

14 With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that 15 satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and 16 providing Aggrieved Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Moon Decl., ¶ 40; 17 Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage 18 in informal class-wide discovery, and participate in mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 40.) Defendant will also 19 have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is 20 granted. (Id.; Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs as well as the 21 employer’s share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less than $425,000.00 to resolve this matter—22 of which $25,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims and will be distributed, in compliance with 23 Labor Code section 2699 as 65% ($16,250.00) to the LWDA and 35% ($8,750.00) to Aggrieved
24 Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees 25 from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties.
26 (Moon Decl., ¶ 40.)

27 Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly 28 contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff

1 prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id.)
2 Indeed, under PAGA, a Court can reduce penalties “if, based on the facts and circumstances of the 3 particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 4 confiscatory.” (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award
5 granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 6 40.) Further, Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative 7 basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, penalties would 8 likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and in light of other 9 defenses available to Defendant. (Id. at ¶ 41.) Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be 10 successful at trial, assuming she is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 11 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 12 Settlement. (Id.)

13 In sum, the $25,000 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes “genuine and 14 meaningful” that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (See 15 O’Connor v. Uber Tech., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133–35 [denying settlement 16 approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].)

17 4. Plaintiff’s Counsel Have Extensive Experience in Class and PAGA Action
18 Litigation, Which Was Integral to Negotiating the Settlement

19 The Settlement negotiations were conducted by highly capable counsel with considerable 20 experience and demonstrated competence with litigating wage-and-hour class actions. (Moon Decl., 21 ¶¶ 50–65.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have a strong record of vigorous and effective advocacy for their 22 clients and are experienced in handling complex wage-and-hour class action litigation. (Id.) Their 23 experience was helpful in assessing the reasonableness of the Settlement at issue here, and from this 24 experience they concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than 25 provided under the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 66.) Although Plaintiff and her counsel were prepared to try 26 the claims alleged in the litigation, they support the proposed Settlement as being in the best interest 27 of the Class based on objective evidence that has been considered and weighed against the risks, 28 expenses, and time consumption to both sides of continued litigation. (Id. at ¶¶ 10, 31.)

1 B. The Proposed Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

2 Subject to the Court’s approval, the Settlement provides a fee application of one-third of the 3 GSA for Class Counsel’s attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not to 4 exceed $25,000.00.³ (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.) These amounts are disclosed to Class Members in the 5 proposed Class Notice and are reasonable. (Id. at Ex. A.)

6 1. Counsel Request a Fees Award Based On the “Common Fund” Method

7 California courts have long awarded attorneys’ fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 8 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.)
9 The California Supreme Court has held, “when a number of persons are entitled in common to a 10 specific fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the 11 creation or preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney’s fees out 12 of the fund.” (Id. at p. 34.)

13 Plaintiff’s Counsel seek an award of attorneys’ fees on the “percentage of recovery/common 14 fund” theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 68.) The purpose of this approach is to “spread litigation costs 15 proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 16 burden alone.” (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State
17 of California (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, “one who expends 18 attorneys’ fees in winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require 19 those passive beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs.” (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in 20 City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court 21 recognized that the common fund doctrine has been applied “consistently in California when an 22 action brought by one party creates a fund in which other persons[] are entitled to share.” (Id. at pp.
23 110–11 [pincite omitted].)

24 The California Supreme Court affirmed in Laffitte v. Robert Half International Inc. (2016) 1 25 Cal.5th 480 that, “when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class 26

27
28 ³ Plaintiff’s Counsel’s current litigation costs are $23,988.78, and they anticipate incurring additional costs up to final approval. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 15, 73, Ex. 4.)

1 members, and the trial court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the 2 court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the 3 fund created.” (Id. at p. 503.) The court explained: “The recognized advantages of the percentage 4 method—including relative ease of calculation, alignment of incentives between counsel and the 5 class, a better approximation of market conditions in a contingency case, and the encouragement it 6 provides counsel to seek an early settlement and avoid unnecessarily prolonging the litigation[]— 7 convince us the percentage method is a valuable tool that should not be denied our trial courts.” (Id.
8 [internal citations omitted].) This line of legal authority supports a request for attorneys’ fees based 9 on the percentage of recovery/common fund method.

10 2. The Requested Fee Award Is in Line with Typical Cases

11 According to a leading treatise on class actions: “No general rule can be articulated on what 12 is a reasonable percentage of a common fund. Usually 50% of the fund is the upper limit on a 13 reasonable fee award from a common fund in order to assure that the fees do not consume a 14 disproportionate part of the recovery obtained for the class, although somewhat larger percentages 15 are not unprecedented.” (Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 14.03.) Attorneys’ 16 fees that are fifty percent of the fund are typically considered the upper limit, with thirty to forty 17 percent commonly awarded in cases where the settlement is relatively small. (Id.; see also Van 18 Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 F.Supp. 294, 297 [stating that most cases 19 where 30–50% was awarded involved “smaller” settlement funds of under $10 million].)

20 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel’s fees request for one-third of the GSA, is in line with the prevailing 21 guidelines established in California case law and academic literature and is consistent with awards in 22 California. (Compare Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2, with Chavez v. Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66, 23 n.11 [“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method 24 is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”].) Accordingly, 25 Plaintiff requests the Court preliminarily approve the attorneys’ fees as negotiated by the Parties.

26 3. This Matter Involves a “Fee-Shifting” Provision of the Labor Code

27 Labor Code sections 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699, and 2802 provide for the recovery of reasonable 28 fees and costs of suit, for the claims made in this action. (Lab. Code §§ 218.5, 226, 1194, 2699(k)(1), 1 2802(d).) Under these sections, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys’ fees, 2 even if those fees were larger than the total class recovery at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This 3 Settlement is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, 4 energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff’s Counsel for their 5 decision to assume risk by taking on this matter on a contingent basis with no guarantee of recovery.

6 (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 69–72.) In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for 7 Plaintiff’s Counsel. (Id.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this litigation, they committed to pursue
8 it to its conclusion, placing their fiduciary duty to the Class ahead of all other concerns. (Id. at ¶ 73.)

9 4. Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Fees Request

10 As demonstrated by their past experience in pursuing class actions on behalf of consumers 11 and employees, Plaintiff’s Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class actions. (Id. at 12 ¶¶ 50–65.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in numerous class 13 actions that resulted in millions in recovery. (Id.) As noted above, their experience in wage-and-hour 14 litigation was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and 15 the reasonableness of the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 66.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour 16 litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and 17 federal) as well as the procedural law of class action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 64.) Based on these and other 18 factors, Plaintiff’s Counsel have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross 19 recovery for the class. (See id. at ¶¶ 54, 59.) Because it is reasonable to compensate counsel 20 commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

21 C. The Enhancement Award to Plaintiff Is Reasonable

22 Named plaintiffs in class action lawsuits “are eligible for reasonable incentive payments to 23 compensate them for the expense or risk they have incurred in conferring a benefit on other members 24 of the class.” (Munoz, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th at p. 412.) Courts routinely grant approval of class 25 action settlement agreements containing enhancements for the class representatives, which are 26 necessary to provide incentive to represent the class and are appropriate given the benefit the class 27 representatives help to bring about for the class. (See Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp. (9th Cir. 2009) 28 563 F.3d 948, 958–59.) Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage-and-hour cases

1 because they promote the important public policies underlying the wage-and-hour laws. This strong 2 policy is codified in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this 3 state to vigorously enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required 4 or permitted to work under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, 5 the California Supreme Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory 6 rights under the Labor Code is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect 7 employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct. (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, class 8 representatives should be rewarded for assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of class members.
9 (See Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co. (W.D.N.Y. 2005) 228 F.R.D. 174, 187.)

10 Under the Settlement here, subject to the Court’s approval, a Class Representative Service 11 Payment of $7,500.00 will go to Plaintiff, in addition to her amount as a Class Member. (Settlement, 12 ¶¶ 1.13, 3.2.1.) This award is for her services in support of the Action, the benefits she helped bring 13 about for the Class, and her General Release. (Id. at ¶ 1.13.) Plaintiff has devoted a great deal of time 14 and work assisting counsel in the case and communicated with counsel frequently for litigation and 15 to prepare for mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 46–49; Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 11–21.) The requested award is 16 fair and reasonable, particularly considering the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for all Class
17 Members. (Moon Decl., ¶ 46–49.)

18 When compared with the amounts awarded in typical class action cases, the amount requested 19 here is particularly reasonable. A 2006 study examining the average incentive award given to class 20 action plaintiffs from 1993 to 2002 found that the “average award per class representative was 21 $15,992 and the median award per class representative was $4357.” (Eisenberg & Miller, Incentive
22 Awards to Class Action Plaintiffs: An Empirical Study (2006) 53 UCLA L. Rev. 1303, 1307–08.) 23 The same study found that named plaintiffs in employment discrimination class actions received an 24 average award of $69,850 and a median award of $31,081, while named plaintiffs in other 25 employment class actions received an average award of $12,121 and a median award of $13,059. (Id.
26 at p. 1333.) The authors of the study found that higher awards in employment cases reflected the 27 “courts’ wish to make representative plaintiffs whole by compensating them for the high costs of 28 their service to the class, including risks of stigmatization or retaliation on the job.” (Id. at p. 1308.)

1 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES IS WARRANTED

2 A. Legal Standard

3 The proposed Settlement Class is well suited for class certification. The claims all derive from 4 a core set of alleged violations of California’s wage and hour laws and regulations. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 5 4–5.) For the reasons set forth more fully below, the Class, for purposes of Settlement, satisfies the 6 prerequisites for certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382. (Code Civ. Proc. § 382.)
7 Section 382 provides that “when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many 8 persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, 9 one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.” (Id.) There are two requirements to section 10 382: “(1) there must be an ascertainable class[]; and (2) there must be a well defined community of 11 interest in the questions of law and fact involved affecting the parties to be represented.” (Daar v.
12 Yellow Cab Co. (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 [internal citations omitted].) To clarify these 13 requirements, the California Supreme Court has looked to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to 14 explain that the community-of-interest requirement itself embodies three factors: “(1) predominant 15 common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 16 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Richmond v. Dart 17 Indus., Inc. (1981) 29 Cal. 3d 462, 470.)

18 California law and policy favor the fullest and most flexible use of the class action device.
19 (Id. at pp. 469–73.) Indeed, “Courts long have acknowledged the importance of class actions as a 20 means to prevent a failure of justice in our judicial system” particularly where the rights of consumers 21 are at issue. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 434.) Any doubt as to the 22 appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in favor of certification. (Richmond, supra, 29 23 Cal.3d at pp. 473–75.)

24 B. The Criteria for Class Certification Are Satisfied

25 1. The Class Is Ascertainable and Numerous

26 When determining whether a class is ascertainable, California courts focus on the following 27 three factors: “(1) the class definition, (2) the size of the class and (3) the means of identifying class 28 members.” (Miller v. Woods (1983) 148 Cal.App.3d 862, 873.) Here, Plaintiff maintains there is an

1 easily ascertainable Class, defined by objective and precise criteria. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.4, 1.11.) The 2 proposed Class that Plaintiff seeks to represent is ascertainable because (1) the Class definition is 3 sufficiently precise, (2) the Class consists of about 187 individuals, and (3) Class Members can be 4 readily identified by Defendant’s records. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.4, 1.11.) Because Class Members are identified
5 using specific criteria in the regular business records of Defendant—their employment by Defendant 6 in California, non-exempt classification, hourly wage, and actual work during the Class Period—the 7 Class is ascertainable. (See Wilner v. Sunset Life Ins. Co. (2000) 78 Cal.App.4th 952, 959–60 [class 8 membership defined by ownership of product that is the subject of the lawsuit is sufficient to make 9 the class ascertainable].) “The requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 that there be 10 ‘many’ parties to a class action suit is indefinite and has been construed liberally.” (Rose v. City of 11 Hayward (1981) 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934.) “Where a question is of common interest to ‘many’
12 persons, an action may be maintained as a class action even where the parties are numerous and it is 13 in fact practicable to join them all.” (Id.) “No set number is required as a matter of law for the 14 maintenance of a class action.” (Id.) “Thus, our Supreme Court has upheld a class representing the 15 10 beneficiaries of a trust in an action for removal of the trustees.” (Id. [citing Bowles v. Super. Ct.
16 (1955) 44 Cal.2d 574]; see also Collins v. Rocha (1972) 7 Cal.3d 232 [upholding a class of 9 plaintiffs 17 and 35 members].) Therefore, numerosity is plainly satisfied.

18 2. There Are Many Common Issues of Law and Fact Which Predominate

19 To satisfy the community of interest requirement, a proponent must show (1) common 20 questions of law and fact that predominate over individual issues, (2) class representatives have 21 claims or defenses typical of the class, and (3) class representatives adequately represent the class.
22 (Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at p. 1806.) This inquiry tests whether proposed classes are sufficiently 23 cohesive to rationally warrant adjudication by representation. (See, e.g., Clothesrigger, Inc. v. GTE 24 Corp. (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 605, 611–12.)

25 Here, Plaintiff’s claims satisfy all three requirements. The employment practices at issue 26 include whether Defendant: paid employees all minimum, overtime, and double time wages owed; 27 reimbursed employees for necessary business expenses; provided employees with and authorize meal 28 and rest periods or paid premiums for non-compliant breaks; paid all final wages to employees at the

1 time of termination; intentionally failed to pay all final wages; provided inaccurate itemized wage 2 statements and whether Class Members were harmed; engaged in unfair business practices; and 3 violated civil penalty provisions under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 4–5.) Plaintiff contends the factual 4 and legal issues are the same for all Class Members, and further that all Class Members suffered from 5 and seek redress for the same alleged injuries. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 5–6.) Considering Class Members 6 would need to prove the same issues of law and fact to prevail, and their legal remedies are identical, 7 it would be preferable to resolve all claims through a settlement than to force each Class Member to 8 litigate their own individual claims. Thus, the Court should grant conditional class certification for 9 settlement purposes because common questions of law and fact predominate over any individual 10 questions within the Class.

11 3. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Claims of the Class

12 The typicality requirement does not focus on the individual characteristics or circumstances 13 of the representative plaintiff compared to those of the remainder of the class, but rather, upon the 14 typicality of the proposed representative’s claims as they relate to the defendant’s conduct and 15 activities. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47 [“The only requirements are [sic] that 16 common questions of law and fact predominate and that the class representative be similarly situated” 17 vis-à-vis the class.] [emphasis in original].) A representative plaintiff’s claims are typical of the class 18 if they arise from the same event, practice, or course of conduct, and if the claims rest on the same 19 legal theories. (Id.) That is precisely the case here. Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant and 20 alleges she was subject to the same policies and practices as other similarly situated employees.
21 (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 2–6.)

22 4. Plaintiff and Her Counsel Meet the Adequacy Requirement

23 The adequacy of representation requirements is met by fulfilling two conditions: (1) a named 24 plaintiff must be represented by counsel qualified to conduct the pending litigation, and (2) a named 25 plaintiff’s interests cannot be antagonistic to those of the class. (McGhee v. Bank of Am. (1976) 60 26 Cal.App.3d 442, 450.)

27 Here, all requirements are met. Plaintiff retained counsel with extensive experience in 28 prosecuting complex class actions, including similar class actions that previously settled. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 50–65.) Based on their experience, Plaintiff’s Counsel unquestionably are “qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation.” (Miller, supra, 148 Cal.App.3d at p. 874.) Plaintiff has, with counsel, litigated this case and diligently reviewed the settlement terms, showing dedication, and with full knowledge and acceptance of duties, she has committed to her role as Class Representative. (Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 11–21.) In addition, Plaintiff and her Counsel have no conflicts with one another, other Class Members, or the proposed Administrator. (Id. at ¶¶ 8–10; Moon Decl., ¶ 67.)

5. A Class Action Is Superior to a Multiplicity of Litigation

Finally, in making its class certification decision, the Court must determine that a class action would be superior to alternative means for the fair and efficient adjudication of the litigation. (See Leyva v. Medline Indus. Inc. (9th Cir. 2013) 716 F.3d 510, 514–15.) By consolidating many potential individual actions into a single proceeding, this Court’s use of the class action device enables it to manage this litigation in a manner that serves the economics of time, effort, and expense for the litigants and the judicial system. (Id.) Absent class treatment, similarly situated employees with small, but nevertheless meritorious, claims for damages would, as a practical matter, have no means of redress because of the time, effort, and expense required to prosecute individual actions. (Id. at p. 515; Gentry, supra, 42 Cal.4th at pp. 457–62.) Moreover, in the context of settlement, the superiority concerns are essentially non-existent. (See generally, e.g., Stamburgh, supra, 62 Cal.App.3d.)

V. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE IS CONSTITUTIONALLY SOUND AND SATISFIES RULES OF COURT

Class Notice requirements are set forth in the California Rules of Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.766(e)–(f), rule 3.769(f).) Here, the proposed Class Notice, in the form attached to the Settlement as Exhibit A, meets all the requirements of California Rules of Court. The Notice summarizes the proceedings to date and the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement in an informative and coherent manner. (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2, Ex. A.) It also states that the final approval decision has yet to be made, and provides the date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing. (Id.) It explains the right and procedures to opt-out or submit any written objections and/or arrange to appear at the Final Approval Hearing and verbally state any objections. (Settlement, ¶¶ 7.5–7.7.)

1 It makes clear the Settlement does not constitute an admission of liability by Defendant, who denies 2 all liability, and it recognizes that this Court has not ruled on the merits of the action. (Settlement, 3 Exh. A.) Thus, the proposed Notice meets all the requirements of California Rule of Court 3.769(f).
4 (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.769(f).)

5 The Class Notice also fulfills the requirement of neutrality in class notices. (Newberg, 6 Newberg on Class Actions (3rd ed. 1992) § 8.39.) Accordingly, the Notice complies with the 7 standards of fairness, completeness, and neutrality required of a combined settlement-certification 8 class notice.

9 California law vests the Court with broad discretion in fashioning an appropriate notice 10 program. (Cartt v. Super. Ct. (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 970, 973–74.) There is no statutory or due 11 process requirement that all class members receive actual notice, but in this matter, Class Members 12 will receive direct mailed notice, which is the best possible form of notice under the circumstances.
13 (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2.) As the Court of Appeals has explained, “[t]he notice given should have a 14 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the Class Members . . .” (Cartt, 50 15 Cal.App.3d at p. 974.)

16 VI. CONCLUSION

17 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant this motion, enter the 18 proposed order submitted herewith regarding preliminary approval, and set a final approval hearing 19 no earlier than 120 days from the preliminary approval order.

20 Respectfully submitted,
