1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Michelle Villanueva-Juarez (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of a non-reversionary 4 $110,000.00 gross settlement of claims for civil penalties alleged pursuant to the California Private 5 Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). After a fully day of mediation
6 with experienced and neutral mediator Hon. Carl J. West (ret.), and months of extended settlement 7 negotiations, Plaintiff reached a resolution with Defendant Onesource Medical Diagnostics, LLC
8 (“Defendant”) (collectively, Plaintiff and Defendant are the “Parties”). The Parties have executed a 9 PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”), a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10 1 to the Declaration of Kane Moon in Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement (“Moon 11 Decl.”) submitted concurrently herewith. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff now files 12 this motion seeking an order approving the proposed Settlement.

13 The Settlement resolves all claims for civil penalties under PAGA that arose during the PAGA 14 Period and that were alleged in the above-captioned matter (“Action”). This Settlement is on behalf of 15 the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”), Plaintiff, and all persons 16 employed by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt employees who worked for 17 Defendant during the PAGA Period (“Aggrieved Employees”). (Settlement, ¶ 1.4.) For purposes of 18 settlement, the “PAGA Period” is November 28, 2023, through March 4, 2026. (Id. at ¶ 1.25.) Plaintiff 19 is unaware of any other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be 20 impacted by approval of the Settlement, nor has Defendant pointed to any. (Moon Decl., ¶ 24.)

21 Settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. Pursuant to the operative PAGA statute, 22 the “court shall review and approve any penalties sought as part of a proposed settlement agreement 23 pursuant to this part.” (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) In deciding whether to grant approval of a proposed 24 settlement, the primary issue to be decided is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable.
25 Specifically, the issue is whether the PAGA penalties to which the parties have agreed provide “genuine 26 and meaningful” relief that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the 27 public,” and whether the penalties are reasonable in light of the potential verdict value in this case.
28 (Villalobos v. Calandri Sonrise Farm LP (C.D. Cal. July 22, 2015) No. CV 12-2615 PSG (JEMx), 2015

1 WL 12732709, at *5; see also O'Connor v. Uber Techn., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 2 1135.)

3 As set forth herein, the proposed Settlement embodies all the features of a settlement that is fair, 4 adequate, and reasonable, as (1) it is the product of an arm's-length negotiation, (2) negotiated by 5 attorneys experienced in wage and hour litigation, (3) following sufficient investigation necessary to 6 evaluate the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, and (4) reflects a reasoned compromise
7 based directly on the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, as well as the risks, expense, 8 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation.

9 The meaningful value achieved by the Settlement at issue may be gleaned from the fact that the 10 LWDA and the estimated 41 Aggrieved Employees will, cumulatively, receive no less than $51,954.86
11 as PAGA Penalties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 20.) This is a significant recovery, not only because further litigation 12 may have resulted in a net-zero recovery based on the facts of the case and defenses asserted by 13 Defendant, but also because an investigation by experienced PAGA counsel and analysis of discovery 14 revealed minimal identifiable violations, the discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties, and the 15 risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues
16 and current state of the law. For these reasons, as set forth more fully below, Plaintiff respectfully 17 requests the Court enter the proposed order and proposed judgment submitted concurrently herewith.

18 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

19 A. Plaintiff's Claims and Procedural Background

20 Defendant is a medical diagnostics provider specializing in general orthopedic imaging and 21 neck and spine injuries with numerous locations throughout southern California. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.)
22 Plaintiff worked for Defendant from June 2022 to October 2024 as a front desk/patient coordinator.
23 (Id.) Throughout her employment, Plaintiff was classified as non-exempt and paid on an hourly 24 basis. (Id.) Plaintiff contends she and her former coworkers were subjected to the same or similar 25 unlawful labor practices during their employment by Defendant, including failure to pay all wages. (Id.)

26 Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages stems from allegations of Defendant's failure to pay 27 employees all minimum, overtime, sick pay, and regular rate wages owed, including due to 28 Defendant's failure to compensate employees for off-the-clock work, such as for temperature

1 checks and pre- and post-shift work, and Defendant's failure to incorporate all remunerations into 2 the regular rate of pay for purposes of computing overtime pay. (Id. at ¶ 5.) Plaintiff's meal and rest
3 period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work and Defendant's employment
4 practices, employees regularly experienced missed, untimely, or interrupted breaks, and that Defendant 5 failed to provide any premiums for non-compliant rest breaks or all premiums for non-compliant meals.
6 (Id.) Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse employees for all reasonable and necessary 7 business expenses incurred, including expenses incurred for the purchase and maintenance of scrubs 8 and non-slip shoes and mileage expenses. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges she and other employees did not 9 receive all wages owed at the time of termination nor accurate itemized wage statements due to 10 Defendant's failure to pay all wages and premiums. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff alleges Defendant is 11 liable for civil penalties under PAGA. (Id.)

12 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of the Labor Code, Plaintiff filed a Class Action 13 Complaint on December 4, 2024, alleging Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum wages, 14 (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize and 15 permit rest breaks, (5) failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final 16 wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair
17 business practices. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

18 Pursuant to PAGA, on November 28, 2024, Plaintiff submitted notice of the alleged Labor Code 19 violations to the LWDA, with certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id.
20 at ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) The administrative exhaustion period under PAGA expired without the LWDA indicating 21 any intent to investigate the allegations. (Id. at ¶ 7.) On February 3, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended 22 Class and Representative Action Complaint to allege a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under 23 PAGA (the "Operative Complaint"). (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private 24 attorney general with respect to the PAGA claims involved in this action. (Id.) In compliance with 25 Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of 26 the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned case number. (Id. at ¶ 8.) To date, the LWDA 27 has not sought to intervene in this action. (Id.)

28 After this action was filed, Plaintiff requested for the dismissal of the Class Claims based

1 on an arbitration agreement. (Id. at ¶ 9.) On April 4, 2025, the Court entered an Order granting 2 Plaintiff’s Request for Dismissal of Class Claims. (Id.)

3 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations. (Id.
4 at ¶ 10.) Defendant argues all employees were properly paid for all hours worked and that it did not 5 require or permit employees to work off-the-clock. (Id.) As for the regular rate claim, Defendant argues 6 there was no issue with paying employees the proper regular rate of pay because any additional 7 remuneration was discretionary and thus, not required to be incorporated into the regular rate of pay for 8 purposes of computing overtime pay. (Id.) Defendant maintains all employees were provided with the 9 opportunity to take all their code-compliant meal and rest breaks and that missed breaks, if any, were 10 solely the result of employees’ voluntary choice. (Id.) As for the unreimbursed business expenses, 11 Defendant maintains it did not require employees to incur any business-related expenses. (Id.) To the 12 extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant argue penalties 13 are not warranted because employees suffered no actual damage or harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., 14 Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013) No. C 12–05860 CRB, 2013 WL 622032, at 15 *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to provide full and 16 accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not sufficient.”].)
17 Additionally, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes the imposition of 18 waiting time penalties because Plaintiff would be unable to show Defendant’s alleged conduct was done 19 willfully or knowingly. (Moon Decl., ¶ 10; see, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012) 20 No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx), 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, Defendant claims it did 21 not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶ 10.)
22 Defendant also maintains the claims are not susceptible to proof on a representative basis because of the 23 individualized and varying nature of each employee’s experience, making this matter unmanageable.
24 (Id.)

25 B. Discovery and Investigation

26 The Parties engaged in informal discovery exchange prior to mediation. (Id. at ¶ 11.)
27 Defendant provided information and documents, which enabled Plaintiff’s Counsel to meaningfully 28 investigate Plaintiff’s allegations and assess the value of the PAGA claims. (Id.) Specifically,

Defendant produced Plaintiff's personnel file and her time and payroll records, documents regarding Defendant's written policies and practices in effect during the relevant period, and time and corresponding payroll records of all Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)

Prior to mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information that Defendant produced, including the time/pay records and Defendant's written policies, in conjunction with information provided by Plaintiff. (Id. at ¶ 12.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained an expert to analyze the time/pay records and prepare a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) The time/pay records contained 9,186 shifts (representing 99% of all shifts), which allowed the expert to prepare an analysis with a high degree of certainty. (Id.) Further, Plaintiff's Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding the claims and defenses asserted in this action. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel were able to evaluate the probability of success on the merits and Defendant's monetary exposure. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and her Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues involved allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

C. Settlement Negotiations

On February 2, 2026, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation facilitated by the Hon. Carl West (ret.), an experienced PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 13.) The negotiations were at arm's length and although conducted in a professional matter, were adversarial. (Id.) Both sides went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but they were also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) Negotiations were protracted, with extended discussions and instances in which it appeared the Parties would not reach a resolution. (Id.) Following a full discussion of the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses, the Parties ultimately reached a resolution, the material terms of which are encompassed within the Settlement at issue. (Id.)

In reaching a resolution, the Parties recognized that the issues presented in this action are likely only to be resolved with extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings, and that further litigation will lead to inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense disproportionate to the potential benefits of litigation. (Id. at ¶ 14.) Plaintiff and her Counsel also considered the risk and uncertainty of the outcome inherent in any litigation when determining whether this Settlement

1 was the correct option. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and her Counsel believe the proposed Settlement is in 2 the best interests of Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code 3 section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the proposed Settlement has been 4 submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 5 15, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 15.)

6 D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

7 The Settlement's key financial and other terms include:

8 1. Gross Settlement Amount, Funding, Disbursement, and Uncashed Checks. The Gross
9 Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $110,000.00 and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant
10 shall fully fund the GSA by transmitting the funds to the Administrator no later than 45 calendar days 11 after the Effective Date. (Id. at ¶ 4.1.) Disbursement will occur within 14 days after Defendant fully 12 funds the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.) For any Aggrieved Employee whose Individual PAGA Payment check is 13 uncashed and cancelled after 180 calendar days after mailing (the "void date"), the Administrator shall 14 transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund
15 in the name of the Aggrieved Employee who did not cash the check. (Id. at ¶¶ 4.2.1, 4.2.3.)

16 2. Aggrieved Employee Size Estimates and Escalator Clause. Based on its records, Defendant 17 represents that there are no more than 1,027 Pay Periods during the PAGA Period. (Id. at ¶ 8.) In the 18 event that the final number of Pay Periods worked during the PAGA Period increases by more than 19 10% or more than an additional 103 Pay Periods, then the Gross Settlement Amount shall be 20 increased pro rata by the percentage that the actual number of Pay Periods exceeds 1,027 multiplied
21 by the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e. if the final number of Pay Periods worked during the PAGA 22 Period increased to 11% above the represented Pay Periods, or to 1,139 Pay Periods, the Gross 23 Settlement Amount would increase by 1% to $111,100.00). (Id.)

24 3. PAGA Counsel Fees Payment and PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment. The 25 Settlement includes attorneys' fees in an amount up to 33 1/3% of the GSA (i.e., at least $36,666.66), 26 subject to the escalator clause, plus reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not to exceed 27 $20,000.00, payable to Plaintiff's Counsel from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.1.) In the event actual costs are 28 less and/or the amount of fees and costs approved by the Court are less than the amounts requested, the

1 difference will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) To date, Plaintiff's Counsel incurred
2 $18,878.48 in actual litigation costs. (Moon Decl., ¶ 18, Ex. 4.)

3 4. Administration Costs. The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses Payment to 4 the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount up to $2,500.00, for its fees and expenses in 5 administering this Settlement. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.) In the event the amount of actual administration 6 costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be 7 allocated to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected Phoenix Class Action
8 Administration Solutions as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement based on its bid of $2,500.
9 (Id. at ¶ 1.2; Moon Decl., ¶ 19, Ex. 5; Declaration of Jodey Lawrence Re: Qualifications and Costs for 10 Settlement Administration, ¶ 22, Ex. B.)

11 5. Net Settlement Amount. After deducting the PAGA Counsel Fees, PAGA Counsel
12 Litigation Expenses Payment, and Administration Expenses Payment from the GSA, in the amounts 13 specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the amounts requested and the amounts awarded 14 will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount as PAGA Penalties. (Settlement, ¶ 1.17.) Accordingly, 15 the Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be no less than $51,954.84,¹ which will be distributed 65%
16 (i.e., no less than $65\% * $51,954.84 = $33,770.66$) to the LWDA and 35% (i.e., no less than $35\% *$ 17 $$51,954.81 = $18,184.20$) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff's claims.
18 (Moon Decl., ¶ 20.)

19 6. Individual PAGA Payments. Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to his or her pro 20 rata amount from the 35% share of PAGA Penalties that is directly proportional to the number of pay 21 periods worked in the PAGA Period without having to submit any claim form. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3.1.)
22 This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $443.52 for each of the estimated 41 23 Aggrieved Employees ($$18,184.20 / 41$), and a PAGA Pay Period value of $17.71 for each of the 24 1,027 estimated PAGA Pay Periods ($$18,184.20 / 1,027$). (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.) Individual PAGA 25

26 ¹ The estimated Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following amounts from the 27 GSA ($110,000.00): $18,878.48 for the PAGA Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment, $36,666.66 for 28 the PAGA Counsel Fees Payment, and $2,500.00 for the Administration Expenses Payment. (See Settlement, ¶ 3.2; Moon Decl., ¶ 20, n1.)

1 Payments will be reported for tax purposes using IRS form 1099. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3.2.) Aggrieved
2 Employees will receive an explanatory letter, in English and Spanish, with their payment. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.1.)

3 7. Individual Settlement: Plaintiff is not receiving an enhancement as part of the PAGA 4 Settlement. (See generally id. at ¶ 3 [the Settlement does not provide a separate award to Plaintiff].) The 5 Parties have entered into a separate Release and Settlement Agreement, in which Defendant has agreed 6 to pay Plaintiff $5,000.00 in consideration for Plaintiff's general waiver and release, as further detailed 7 in the Release and Settlement Agreement. (Moon Decl., ¶ 22, Ex. 9.)

8 8. Release by Plaintiff, the State of California, and Aggrieved Employees: Effective on the 9 date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff, the State of California 10 and all Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective 11 former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, administrators, successors, and assigns, the 12 Released Parties from all claims, rights, demands, liabilities, causes of action, and theories of 13 liability for PAGA penalties that were pled or could have been pled based on the factual allegations 14 contained in the PAGA Notice and Operative Complaint during the PAGA Period, including any 15 alleged Violations of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.7, 227.3, 510, 16 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2699, 2699.3, 2802, as well as IWC Wage Orders
17 and Wage Orders 1 and 16. (Id. at ¶ 5.1.)

18 III. DISCUSSION

19 A. Availability of Civil Penalties

20 The LWDA and its constituent departments and divisions are authorized to assess and collect 21 civil penalties for specified violations of the Labor Code committed by an employer. With a stated goal 22 of improving enforcement of existing Labor Code obligations, the California Legislature adopted the 23 Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, permitting, as an alternative, an aggrieved employee to initiate 24 a private civil action on behalf of him- or herself and other current or former employees.” (Lab. Code § 25 2699(a).) Before an employee may file an action seeking to recover civil penalties for violations of any 26 of the Labor Code provisions enumerated in Labor Code section 2699.5, he or she must comply with 27 the Act's administrative procedures as set forth in Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), which 28 include providing notice to the LWDA and the employer of the alleged Labor Code violations, and then

1 waiting a prescribed period of time to permit the LWDA to investigate and to decide whether to cite the 2 employer for the alleged violations. (Id. at §§ 2699.3, 2699.5; Caliber Bodyworks, Inc. v. Superior
3 Court (2005) 134 Cal.App.4th 365, 370; see also Dunlap v. Superior Court (2006) 142
4 Cal.App.4th 330.)

5 Here, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff submitted notice of the 6 Labor Code violations at issue to the LWDA, and she exhausted administrative remedies
7 without the LWDA noticing any intent to investigate the claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7, Ex. 2.)
8 Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general pursuant to PAGA.
9 (Id. at ¶ 7.)

10 B. The Settlement Merits Approval

11 Settlement of PAGA claims must be approved by a Court. (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) Here, 12 the circumstances weigh heavily in favor of approval, as explained below.

13 1. The Relief Is Genuine, Meaningful, and Consistent with the Dual Statutory Purposes
14 of Deterrence and Punishment under PAGA

15 The $110,000.00 GSA amounts to “genuine and meaningful” relief “consistent with the 16 underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 34; see O’Connor, 201
17 F.Supp.3d at 1133–35 [denying settlement approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% 18 of the estimated full worth].) This is an excellent result, particularly because, under the Settlement, 19 Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of 20 not being able to recover anything at all. (Moon Decl., ¶ 34.)

21 The Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory 22 purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees 23 with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of 24 this litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in employee-wide discovery, and 25 participate in mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Assuming approval is granted, Defendant will also 26 have to pay civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. (Id.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs, 27 Defendant will pay at least $110,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which at least $51,954.86 is 28 allocated toward PAGA Penalties and will be distributed as 65% to the LWDA and 35% to

1 Aggrieved Employees, in compliance with PAGA law governing the claims in this Action. (See 2 Settlement, ¶ 3.2.3.) This amount represents roughly 51% of the realistic exposure for the claims
3 ($51,954.86 / $102,700.00), as discussed below. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Additionally, the release 4 obtained under the Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any 5 individual (non-PAGA) claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties. (Id.; 6 Settlement, ¶ 5.1.)

7 2. The Settlement Amount Provides a Realistic Value for the Claims that is within the 8 “Ballpark” of Reasonableness

9 There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-collusive, 10 and arm’s-length negotiations between the Parties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 13.) Plaintiff’s Counsel performed 11 an extensive investigation into the facts, claims, and defenses at issue and Defendant’s potential liability, 12 including a review of governing law and analysis of informal discovery, including Defendant’s written 13 policies and time/pay data for all of Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–12.) Plaintiff’s Counsel used 14 the foregoing discovery and investigation to prepare for mediation and, with the assistance of a statistics
15 expert, assessed the probability of success on the merits and Defendant’s monetary exposure, discussed 16 the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses in depth at mediation and months of continued 17 negotiations, and ultimately negotiated the resulting Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–14.)

18 Based on Plaintiff’s Counsel’s analysis of the arguments and information provided by 19 Defendant, on an expert analysis of the time/pay records, and on information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff’s 20 Counsel evaluated Defendant’s both maximum (optimistic) and risk-adjusted (realistic) potential 21 exposure in preparation for mediation. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although the expert’s analysis revealed that the time 22 and pay records supported several violations by Defendant, those identifiable violations were primarily 23 limited to the regular rate and meal period claims. (Id.) The records themselves did not provide strong 24 support for the expense reimbursement, off-the-clock, or rest break claims, and derivative penalties for 25 the claims, as these claims are predominantly testimony based. (Id.) In other words, Plaintiff’s analysis 26 revealed that certain claims were not as strong as originally believed. (Id.)

27 Because Defendant did not require employees to record rest periods, there are no records to 28 establish the rest period claim on the merits. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Additionally, there are no records to establish

1 the off-the-clock work and reimbursement claims on the merits. (Id.) Rather, proof of these claims would 2 need to be supported by declarations from Aggrieved Employees regarding missed rest periods, off-3 the-clock work, and expenses incurred as the records themselves cannot demonstrate what breaks 4 were missed, when, and why, the time, if any, Aggrieved Employees spent working off the clock, and 5 the expenses that Aggrieved Employees incurred. (Id.)

6 Indeed, the maximum exposure figures that were calculated for mediation were based on 7 assumed high violation rates that would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as they assume either the 8 participation of all Aggrieved Employees (which would be difficult given the particularly large size of 9 this group), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require 10 the participation of a majority of Aggrieved Employees to establish a sound representation of all non-11 exempt employees). (Id. at ¶ 27.) The reality is that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to 12 participate due to fear of retaliation. (Id.) However, even assuming those employees would be willing 13 to participate, obtaining such declarations would potentially reveal that each Aggrieved Employee had 14 a different experience. (Id.) The individualized nature of their employment experience and the 15 numerosity of employees affected present significant risk with manageability and proof on the merits.
16 (Id.)

17 Even as to the regular rate and meal period claims, our analysis found that Defendant's exposure 18 is less than initially believed. (Id. at ¶ 28.) As to meal periods, a review of the time/pay records shows 19 only a 19.7% of unique meal break violations for shifts over 5 hours. (Id.) The records also show that 20 18.3% of the identified unique meal break violations have meal break waivers for shifts over 6 hours, 21 reducing the net violation rate to 1.4%. (Id.) As to the regular rate issue, Plaintiff's expert identified 46 22 total payments that were not factored into the regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime pay, 23 resulting in a 74.1% violation rate (761 pay periods with overtime pay and additional compensation).
24 (Id.) However, this violation rate assumes that the 46 bonus payments were non-discretionary payments 25 that should have been factored into the regular rate. (Id.)

26 The likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its 27 overall exposure. (Id. at ¶ 29.) For example, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the 28 claims could bar manageability of this representative action or otherwise significantly reduce

1 Defendant's overall liability. (Id.) Further, the maximum exposure analysis involved a claim-by-claim 2 penalty calculation, which is overly optimistic as it presumes Plaintiff would be able to stack the 3 penalties, although penalty stacking is not expressly permitted by PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 30.) Rather, without 4 either (i) a prior finding by the LWDA or a court within the past five years that the employer violated
5 PAGA or (ii) evidence that the employer's conduct was malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive, PAGA
6 only provides for a maximum $100 penalty for each pay period. (Lab. Code § 2699(f)(2)(A)–(B).)
7 Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it would be unrealistic to expect the Court would award the full 8 (penalty-stacked) exposure given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties and given Defendant's 9 defenses, including that any failure to pay premiums, regular rate wages, or for off-the-clock work was 10 not knowingly or willfully done, and additionally, to the extent employees received wage statements 11 that were allegedly inaccurate, employees suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. (Moon Decl., ¶ 12 30.) Moreover, awarding the full penalties amount would likely raise Due Process concerns. (Id.) For 13 the foregoing reasons, the realistic exposure is thus far below the optimistic maximum estimate. (Id. at 14 ¶ 31.)

15 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it is more reasonable to assess penalties on 16 a $100 civil penalty per pay period basis pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)(A) for each of the 17 estimated 1,027 pay periods at issue, as opposed to a claim-by-claim approach. (Id. at ¶ 32.)
18 Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel estimate Defendant's PAGA exposure to be $102,700.00 ($100 x 19 1,027). (Id.) The GSA of $110,000 exceeds Defendant's estimated PAGA exposure and represents 20 roughly 107% of the exposure ($110,000 / $102,700). (Id.)

21 The proposed Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 22 reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶ 33.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 23 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability 24 of appeal, it is clear the GSA of $110,000.00 is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that 25 settlement approval is appropriate. (Id.; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th
26 116, 133; see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09
27 [holding that Kullar does not require "an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class 28 could recover if it prevailed on all its claims," but instead, only an "understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

3. The Settlement Is a Fair and Reasonable Result Following a Thorough Investigation and Accounting of Various Litigation Risks

Plaintiff’s Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the allegations. (Moon Decl., ¶ 36.) Based on the foregoing discovery and on their own independent investigation and evaluation, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. (Id.) Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial risk, appellate risk, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant on the merits, the Settlement is in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California. (Id.)

Although Plaintiff’s Counsel believe there is merit to Plaintiff’s allegations, they also acknowledge a legitimate controversy exists as to each allegation. (Id. at ¶ 37.) Plaintiff’s Counsel also recognize that proving the amounts of penalties owed to each Aggrieved Employee would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel are also of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 38.) Indeed, a Court may reduce PAGA penalties “if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.” (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 38.) While Plaintiff’s Counsel believe there would be no persuasive grounds to reduce penalties, they recognize that the Court could determine otherwise and significantly reduce any award of penalties. (Id. at ¶ 39.) This wide range of potential recovery and additional delays and risks of trial provide justification to settle for a reasonable amount of recovery at this point in the litigation. (Id.) In all, based on the investigation and analysis of the claims in preparation for mediation, the claim-by-claim exposure did not comport with the realistic exposure that Defendant faced, as discussed above. (Id.)

Plaintiff’s Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues, the risk of not prevailing at trial, and the risk that

1 even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, the penalties would be limited due to the largely discretionary nature
2 of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 40.) The provisions of the Labor Code triggering PAGA
3 penalties in this case include Labor Code sections 203, 210, 226, 1197.1, and 2802. (Id.) However,
4 PAGA penalties are not mandatory, but rather, permissive. (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) Accordingly, 5 it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming she is first able to 6 win on the merits regarding her individual claims at arbitration and then defeat the manageability
7 issues presented at litigation by the large number of Aggrieved Employees in this action, Plaintiff 8 may still be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the Settlement. (Moon Decl., 9 ¶ 40.)

10 The Settlement avoids the significant risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further 11 litigation. (Id. at ¶ 41.) Though the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, 12 informal discovery, and employee data analysis, they have not participated in formal discovery 13 procedures, including depositions and expert discovery. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff would have to 14 proceed with arbitration of her individual claims and win on the merits before proceeding with 15 litigation of the representative PAGA claims. (Id.) Preparation for trial and the prospect of appeals in 16 the wake of any summary judgment ruling would remain for the Parties. (Id.) As a result, the Parties 17 would incur considerably more attorneys' fees and costs through trial, a lengthy and uncertain process 18 that could result in recovering less than was settled for. (Id.)

19 C. The Requested Attorneys' Fees/Costs Are Reasonable and Should Be Approved

20 In line with the Settlement, my firm requests an award attorneys' fees in an amount up 21 to 33 1/3% of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., $36,666.66), plus reimbursement for actual 22 litigation costs of up to $20,000.00. (Moon Decl., ¶ 67; see Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.)

23 1. Plaintiff's Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the Common Fund Method

24 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 25 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.) The 26 California Supreme Court has held, "when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific 27 fund, and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or 28 preservation of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney's fees out of the fund."

1 (Id. at p. 34.)

2 Here, Plaintiff's Counsel seek an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of 3 recovery/common fund" theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 68.) The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation 4 costs proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire 5 burden alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of 6 Cal. (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, "one who expends attorneys' fees in 7 winning a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require those passive 8 beneficiaries to bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of 9 San Francisco v. Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the 10 common fund doctrine has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought by one party 11 creates a fund in which other persons[] are entitled to share." (Id. at pp. 110–11 [pincite omitted].) The 12 reasons for applying this doctrine include:

13 fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit because his recovery 14 might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair advantage to the others 15 who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their share of the burden of its 16 recovery; encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or recovery of the fund if he is assured that he will be properly and directly compensated should his efforts be successful.

17 (Id. at p. 111.)

18 Several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative "lodestar" approach for deciding 19 fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable time records.
20 Commenting on the lodestar approach, Chief Judge Marilyn Hall Patel wrote in In re Activision 21 Securities Litigation (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp.1373:

22 This court is compelled to ask, "Is this process necessary?" Under a cost-benefit analysis,
23 the answer would be a resounding, "No!" Not only do the Lindy and Kerr-Johnson analyses 24 consume an undue amount of court time with little resulting advantage to anyone, but, in fact, it may be to the detriment of the class members.

25 (Id. at p. 1375 [emphasis added].) The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it 26 aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of 27 the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the 28 demands on judicial resources. (Id. at pp. 1378–79.) California Courts now routinely use the percentage of the common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (See, e.g., In re Pac. Enter. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378–79 [approving attorneys’ fee award of 33%].)

2. The Matter Involves a Fee and Cost Shifting Provision under PAGA

Labor Code section 2699 provides for the recovery reasonable attorney’s fees as well as costs of suit. (Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Specifically, it states: “Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs . . .” (Id.) Under this provision, Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the total recovery for the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This fee/cost-shifting provision reflects the understanding that Plaintiff’s Counsel must accept significant risk of substantial expenses and consumption of time, energy, and other resources in litigating a PAGA claim, and thus, that Plaintiff’s Counsel is not only permitted, but entitled, to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs if successful in litigating a PAGA claim.

The Settlement at issue is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff’s Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action involved significant financial risk for Plaintiff’s Counsel who undertook this matter on a contingent basis, with no guarantee of recovery. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 64–67.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this litigation on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, they committed to pursue it to its conclusion, and were accordingly precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain. (Id. at ¶ 65.)

3. Counsel’s Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their prior experience in pursuing class and representative actions on behalf of employees, Plaintiff’s Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class action and representative matters. (Id. at ¶¶ 42–55.) Plaintiff’s Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in a multitude of class and representative actions resulting in beneficial results to class members and aggrieved employees in California. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate Plaintiff’s Counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

Plaintiff’s Counsel’s experience in wage-and-hour class and representative actions was integral

1 in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of this 2 Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 59.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation requires skill and 3 knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural 4 law of representative action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 54.) Based on these and other factors, Plaintiff’s Counsel 5 have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for aggrieved employees.
6 (See e.g., id. at ¶¶ 46, 51.) Thus, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

7 4. While the Lodestar Method Is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, the Court May 8 Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees

9 “Despite its primacy, the lodestar method is not necessarily utilized in common fund cases.”
10 (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 27.) Courts have criticized the lodestar 11 method as a drain on the judicial system and a disincentive on attorneys to take on high-risk, challenging 12 cases. (Id. at p. 29.) Indeed, the lodestar approach: “(1) ‘increases the workload of an already overtaxed 13 judicial system,’ (2) is ‘insufficiently objective and produce[s] results that are far from homogenous,’ 14 (3) ‘creates a sense of mathematical precision that is unwarranted in terms of the realities of the practice 15 of law,’ (4) ‘is subject to manipulation by judges who prefer to calibrate fees in terms of percentages of 16 the settlement fund or the amounts recovered by the plaintiffs or of an overall dollar amount,’ (5) 17 ‘encourages lawyers to expend excessive hours, and . . . engage in duplicative and unjustified work,’ (6) 18 ‘creates a disincentive for the early settlement of cases,’ (7) deprives trial courts of ‘flexibility to reward 19 or deter lawyers so that desirable objectives, such as early settlement, will be fostered,’ (8) ‘works to the 20 particular disadvantage of the public interest bar,’ and (9) results in ‘confusion and lack of 21 predictability.’” (Id. [quoting Third Circuit Task Force, Court Awarded Attorney Fees (1985) 22 108 F.R.D. 237, 246–49].)

23 Although California Courts support the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used 24 to cross-check fee awards. “It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can be 25 monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to ‘cross-check’ or adjust the lodestar in comparison 26 to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and within the range 27 of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In re Consumer Privacy 28 Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557 [quoting Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at pp. 49–50].)

1 Applying the lodestar method is a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the number of hours 2 reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate, and the second step is to apply a multiplier to the 3 lodestar to account for various factors. (Id. at p. 556.) “The purpose of such adjustment is to fix a fee at 4 the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, retrospectively, whether 5 the litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of 6 the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate for such services.” (Id.) “Under 7 certain circumstances, a lodestar calculation may be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit 8 analysis.” (Id. at pp. 556–57.)

9 Further, “California case law permits fee awards in the absence of detailed time sheets.”
10 (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 255.) The Court “should defer 11 to the winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to how much time he was required to spend 12 on the case.” (Moreno v. City of Sacramento (9th Cir. 2008) 534 F.3d 1106, 1112.) Generally, 13 hours are reasonable if they were “reasonably expended in pursuit of the ultimate result 14 achieved in the same manner that an attorney traditionally is compensated by a fee-paying 15 client.” (Hensley v. Eckerhart (1983) 461 U.S. 424, 431.)

16 Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel current lodestar is no less than $58,510.00, which is based on no
17 less than 70.2 hours of attorney time spent to-date at their customary hourly rates. (Moon Decl., ¶ 18 60.) Thus, in comparison to this lodestar, although application of a positive multiplier would be 19 warranted in this case, none is requested. (Id. at ¶¶ 62-63.) In other words, Plaintiff’s Counsel are 20 requesting less than what they are reasonably entitled to. Further, the foregoing lodestar does not reflect 21 additional works that will be devoted to this litigation, including to obtain and monitor approval of 22 the Settlement and requested awards, oversee the settlement administration process and 23 distribution of funds, respond to inquiries, and communicate with Plaintiff regarding the case.
24 (Id. at ¶ 61.) The amount of fees requested under the Settlement is warranted based on the contingent
25 risk that Plaintiff’s Counsel incurred, the difficulty of the questions involved, the substantial benefit 26 conferred on the Aggrieved Employees and State of California as a result of the Settlement, and the skill 27 displayed by Plaintiff’s Counsel. (Id. at ¶ 63.) Plaintiff’s Counsel also bear the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary if Defendant fails to pay. (Id. at ¶ 61.) Thus, the request for attorneys' fees is more than reasonable under a lodestar check.
28

5. Plaintiff's Counsel's Costs Were Actually and Reasonably Incurred

Winning counsel are entitled to recover the out-of-pocket costs and expenses they reasonably incurred in investigating, prosecuting, and settling a case. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 974; Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Here, Plaintiff's Counsel seek reimbursement in the total amount of $18,878.48 for expenses that were actually and reasonably incurred in this litigation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 69, Ex. 4.) Moreover, this amount is below the maximum allocation under the Settlement and thus, the remainder ($1,121.52) will revert to the PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ 69; Settlement, ¶ 3.2.1.) Thus, costs should be reimbursed in full.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant approval of the Settlement and enter the proposed approval order and proposed judgment submitted herewith.

Respectfully submitted,
