LWDA Case No.:

Re: Labor Code § 2698, et seq. Penalties – PAGA Notice Letter to the LWDA
*Denise C. Ponciano v. McConnell's Fine Ice Creams LLC, et al.

Gentlepersons:

This office represents Plaintiff Denise C. Ponciano ("Plaintiff") and other similarly situated aggrieved employees (collectively "Aggrieved Employees") for violations of California Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 515, 551, 552, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802; provisions of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) Wage Order(s); and California Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

The purpose of this letter is to comply with the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, pursuant to California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. ("the Act"). Unless specified below, Plaintiff would like to bring a representative action, pursuant to the Act, on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated, Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California, against Defendants McConnell's Fine Ice Creams, LLC; Michael Palmer; Eva Ein; and DOES 1 through 50 inclusive (all defendants being referred to herein collectively as "Defendants").

Additionally, this correspondence will serve to satisfy the notice requirements under the Act, along Plaintiff's Class Action Complaint, which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein. The Complaint is being concurrently filed in Santa Barbara County Superior Court and will be assigned a local case number. The Complaint allegations and claims are incorporated into this Notice Letter.

We also set forth herein the facts and theories and the California Labor Code violations which Defendants engaged in with respect to Plaintiff and all of their Aggrieved Employees in California. The Class Action Complaint provides the details of Plaintiff's class-wide claims and claims under the Act, and the applicable California law governing them. It, along with this Notice Letter, addresses in detail numerous violations that subject Defendants to civil and statutory penalties under the Act.

Relevant Facts

Plaintiff was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee in California. Aggrieved Employees include all non-exempt hourly employees of Defendants within the state of California from one year prior to the date of this letter and continuing through the present (Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are collectively referred to herein as "Aggrieved Employees"). However, with regard to the allegations under Labor Code § 226(a) only, Plaintiff expands the scope and definition of the Aggrieved Employees to all employees of Defendants within the state of California from one year prior to the date of this letter and continuing through the present.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Aggrieved Employees proper wages and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.

Specifically, Aggrieved Employees performed work during their unpaid meal periods such as – entering code for discounts, answering other employees' questions, and traveling from one store to another. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees were required by management to perform work for which no wages were paid after they had clocked out of their shifts, such as turning on the store alarm and locking up. Additionally, Aggrieved Employees were required to submit to Covid-19 testing prior to clocking into their shifts, which included temperature checking and a symptom quiz. Next, Plaintiff and Class Member were required to be on-call or standby to be called in to a shift, which required Aggrieved Employees to remain in close proximity to their work location, and were not paid extra for this on-call time. Finally, Aggrieved Employees were required to work seven consecutive days, without being paid the proper minimum overtime and double time rates to which they were entitled. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

This uncompensated time caused Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Aggrieved Employees to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Aggrieved Employees the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with California Law. Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Aggrieved Employees were denied the opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work. Additionally, Aggrieved Employees were consistently required to perform work-related duties during unpaid meal periods, which were systemically denied, including entering code for discounts, answering other employees' questions, and traveling from one store to another.

Aggrieved Employees were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal period as part of each work shift; and (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to take their meal periods, or that advised Aggrieved Employees of their meal and rest period rights.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Aggrieved Employees the opportunity to take rest breaks in compliance with the California Law. Aggrieved Employees were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Aggrieved Employees of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy and practice of delaying the commencement of Aggrieved Employees' rest breaks due to the mandatory and uncompensated pre-shift duties discussed above. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees' rest breaks were either late, interrupted, or altogether denied. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees were denied the opportunity to take second and third rest breaks.

Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Aggrieved Employees premium pay wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

Defendants also had a common policy and practice of failing to pay Aggrieved Employees all reporting time pay to which they were entitled under California Law. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were required to show up to work on a regular basis without being paid half of their usual or scheduled day's work.

Defendants also had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Aggrieved Employees the requisite and accrued vacation time pay in accordance with California Law. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees accrued vested vacation wages during their employment with Defendants. However, Defendants failed to pay all accrued vacation time owed to Aggrieved Employees upon their separation from employment.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Aggrieved Employees the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees worked for Defendants for more than 30 days, but were not paid at least one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 12 month period of work.

Aggrieved Employees were not provided with accurate wage statements as mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage statements as "a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing." Additionally, the wage statements issued to Aggrieved Employees were not recorded in "ink or other indelible form.”

Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as “gross wages earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as “total hours worked by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters. Plaintiff’s and Aggrieved Employees’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

Defendants have consistently required Aggrieved Employees to incur necessary business expenses in the execution of their duties under Defendants’ employ. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were required to use their cell phones for approximately an hour a day at work to communicate with supervisors and co-workers and use work apps, which was necessary to perform their duties under Defendants’ employ. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees had to upgrade their phones to iPhones to be included in certain work group-chats where other co-workers were using iMessage. Additionally, Aggrieved Employees incurred other necessary work-related expenses, such as purchasing a phone charger and a speaker for the workplace, which were used by all coworkers to charge their phones and play music in the front of the store. Aggrieved Employees were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

Labor Code section 551 provides: Every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven. Labor Code section 552 states “no employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven.” Defendants had a common policy and practice of systematically scheduling Aggrieved Employees for work for seven days with no rest day in between. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek (in violation of Labor Code sections 551 and 552). Defendants did not pay Aggrieved Employees proper overtime wages every day, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked. This constitutes a violation of the law including Labor Code sections 551-552 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Orders based on its practice of providing total compensation that is less than the required legal overtime compensation for the overtime worked.

PAGA Claim Details, Legal Bases for Violations and Penalties:

As addressed above and in further detail in the Class Action Complaint, the Aggrieved Employees complain of the following violations committed by Defendants:

Failure to Pay Minimum Wages

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages for all hours worked. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” states, “[t]he minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.” The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the relevant period is found in the Wage Orders.

In California, employees must be paid at least the then applicable state minimum wage for all hours worked, including under Labor Code § 1197, IWC Wage Order MW-2014, and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), and 4(A)-4(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders. Paragraph 2(H) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders defines “Hours Worked” as “the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.” Additionally, pursuant to Labor Code § 204, other applicable laws and regulations, and public policy, an employer must timely pay its employees for all hours worked. Defendants failed to do so.

California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” states: “The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.” The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private civil action pursuant to Labor Code § 1194(a) which states: “Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit.”

As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission. Also, California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and those Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders entitle non-exempt employees to an amount equal to or greater than the minimum wage for all hours worked. All hours must be paid at the statutory or agreed rate, or at the minimum rate in the absence of a contractually agreed upon one. The underpayment of wages to Aggrieved Employees is and has been a direct consequence of Defendants’ unlawful compensation policies and practices, which applied uniformly to the Aggrieved Employees working at locations and work sites throughout California.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Aggrieved Employees proper wages and overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay.

Aggrieved Employees were consistently required to perform work, off-the-clock, for which they were not paid wages. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees performed work during their unpaid meal periods such as – entering code for discounts, answering other employees’ questions, and traveling from one store to another. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees were required by management to perform work for which no wages were paid after they had clocked out of their shifts, such as turning on the store alarm and locking up. Additionally, Aggrieved Employees were required to submit to Covid-19 testing prior to clocking into their shifts, which included temperature checking and a symptom quiz. Next, Plaintiff and Class Member were required to be on-call or standby to be called in to a shift, which required Aggrieved Employees to remain in close proximity to their work location, and were not paid extra for this on-call time. Finally, Aggrieved Employees were required to work seven consecutive days, without being paid the proper minimum overtime and double time rates to which they were entitled. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

Defendants have the ability to pay minimum and overtime wages for all time worked and have willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Aggrieved Employees.

In light of the forgoing, the Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties. Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney’s fees and costs of suit pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a). the other Aggrieved Employees further request recovery of all unpaid wages, according to proof, interest, statutory costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory and civil penalties against Defendants, in a sum as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other applicable statutes, including pursuant to Labor Code § 558, and Wage Order provisions. To the extent minimum wage compensation is determined to be owed to the Aggrieved Employees who have terminated their employment, Defendants’ conduct also violates Labor Code §§ 201 and/or 202, and therefore these individuals are also be entitled to waiting time penalties under California Labor Code § 203, which penalties are sought herein on behalf of these Aggrieved Employees. Defendants’ failure to timely pay all wages owed also violated Labor Code § 204 and resulted in violations of Labor Code § 226 because they resulted in the issuance of inaccurate wage statements. Defendants’ conduct as alleged herein was willful, intentional and not in good faith. Further, other Aggrieved Employees are entitled to seek and recover statutory costs.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime in Violation of Labor Code § 510

Defendants violated the law by failing to pay Aggrieved Employees earned wages and overtime. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees consistently worked in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day, and/or forty (40) hours a week. However, Aggrieved Employees were not paid overtime wages for hours worked in excess of 8 hours a day. Moreover, the uncompensated time, discussed above caused Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or 40 hours a week, further entitling Aggrieved Employees overtime wages which they were consistently denied, all in violation of Labor Code § 510 and applicable Wage Orders.

Defendants have violated Labor Code § 1194 and Labor Code § 510 (and paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A) and 4(A)-4(B) of the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees: (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a workday or in excess of forty hours in any workweek or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of twelve hours in any one day or for hours worked in excess of eight hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not paying Employees wages for all hours worked, including by requiring off the clock work as addressed above and by under-reporting actual hours worked. With work shifts generally requiring eight hours or more of work on a given day, this unpaid off the clock work resulted in Aggrieved Employees working past eight hours on a shift or more than forty hours in a week, which required that they be paid at the correct overtime rate of 1.5 times their regular rate.

When considered in combination with the other wage violations addressed above, Aggrieved Employees were not properly compensated, nor were they paid overtime and double time rates for hours worked in excess of 8, 10, and 12 hours in a given day, and/or forty hours in a given week. Defendants did not make available to Employees a reasonable protocol for correcting time records when Employees worked overtime hours or to fix incorrect time entries or those that Defendants unlawfully under-recorded to the Employee's detriment. Defendants have also violated these provisions by requiring other similarly situated Aggrieved Employees to work through meal periods when they were required to be clocked out or to otherwise work off the clock to complete their daily job duties.

In light of the forgoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to the California Labor Code, including Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 558, 1174, 1194, 1198, 1199, and the relevant paragraphs of the IWC Wage Orders, including paragraphs 2(K), 2(S), 3(A), 4, and 20. Defendants are liable to Employees for the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against Defendants, and each of them, and any additional sums as provided by the Labor Code and/or other statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 510, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Meal-Period Liability Under Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 and Penalties

Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Aggrieved Employees the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with California Law. Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Aggrieved Employees were denied the opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work. Additionally, Aggrieved Employees were consistently required to perform work-related duties during unpaid meal periods, which were systemically denied, including entering code for discounts, answering other employees' questions, and traveling from one store to another.

Aggrieved Employees were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal period as part of each work shift; and (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to take their meal periods, or that advised Aggrieved Employees of their meal and rest period rights.

Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees "premium pay," i.e. one hour of wages at each Aggrieved Employee's effective regular rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided, including by miscalculating any premium payments they did make. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one hour of wages at their correctly calculated regular rate of compensation for each meal period not provided or deficiently provided, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code, including Labor Code § 558 and other applicable statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages as available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, 2699(f)(2) and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Rest-Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7 and Penalties

Defendants have consistently failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with paid rest breaks of not less than 10 minutes for every work period of 4 or more consecutive hours, as required by Labor Code. Aggrieved Employees were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Aggrieved Employees of their rest period rights; (3) Defendants' policy and practice of delaying the commencement of Aggrieved Employees' rest breaks due to the mandatory and uncompensated pre-shift duties discussed above. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees' rest breaks were either late, interrupted, or altogether denied. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees were denied the opportunity to take second and third rest breaks.

Defendants also failed to pay Aggrieved Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided, or miscalculated any premiums paid. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 12 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one hour of wages at their correctly calculated regular rate of compensation for each rest period not provided or deficiently provided, as well as the assessment of any statutory penalties against the Defendants, and each of them, in a sum as provided by the Labor Code, including Labor Code § 558 and other applicable statutes and Wage Order provisions.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff is seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages as available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Pay Proper Sick Time

Labor Code Section 246 affords an employee “who works in California for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment [] paid sick days . . . of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked” and “no less than 24 hours of accrued sick leave or paid time off by the 120th calendar day of employment or each calendar year, or in each 12-month period.”

Additionally, Subsection (l) of Section 246 provides:

For the purposes of this section, an employer shall calculate paid sick leave using any of the following calculations:

(1) Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the same manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime in that workweek.

Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Aggrieved Employees the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees worked for Defendants for more than 30 days, but were not paid at least one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 12 month period of work.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 203, 204, 246, 2926, 2927, and 2699.5 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 246, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Pay Proper Reporting Time Pay

The IWC Wage Orders, require that reporting time pay be provided to any employee who is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work.

Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that all or substantially all of the Aggrieved Employees are subject to Defendants' policies and practices requiring them to call in or otherwise show up to work but not being paid half said their usual or scheduled day's work.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 203, 204, 510, 1198, 2926, 2927, and 2699.5 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 246, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Pay Vested Vacation Wages Upon Separation in Violation of Labor Code § 227.3
California Labor Code section 227.3 provides:

Unless otherwise provided by a collective-bargaining agreement, whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served; provided, however, that an employment contract or employer policy shall not provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon termination. The Labor Commissioner or a designated representative, in the resolution of any dispute with regard to vested vacation time, shall apply the principles of equity and fairness.

At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Aggrieved Employees accrued vested vacation time during their employment with Defendants. However, Defendants' implemented a common policy and practice of failing to pay Aggrieved Employees for all accrued vacation wages upon separation of employment, in violation of Labor Code 227.3.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 203, 204, 227.3, 1198, 2926, 2927, and 2699.5 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 246, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures in Violation of Labor Code § 2802

Defendants have consistently required Aggrieved Employees to incur necessary business expenses in the execution of their duties under Defendants' employ. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were required to use their cell phones for approximately an hour a day at work to communicate with supervisors and co-workers and use work apps, which was necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ. Moreover, Aggrieved Employees had to upgrade their phones to iPhones to be included in certain work group-chats where other co-workers were using iMessage. Additionally, Aggrieved Employees incurred other necessary work-related expenses, such as purchasing a phone charger and a speaker for the workplace, which were used by all coworkers to charge their phones and play music in the front of the store. Aggrieved Employees were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

Defendants systematically and uniformly failed to reimburse those lawful and necessary work related expenses or losses incurred in direct discharge of their job duties during employment with Defendants and at the direction of the Defendants pursuant to Labor Code § 2802(a) and the applicable IWC Wage Orders, paragraph 9. Defendants are liable for PAGA penalties resulting from their failure to reimburse necessary business expenses incurred by the Aggrieved Employees. Accordingly, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover, and hereby seek through this Representative Action, all civil and statutory penalties authorized for violations of California Labor Code §§ 1198 and 2802, and Section 9(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and Plaintiff seeks all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2), and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Issue Accurate and Itemized Wage Statements in Violation of Labor Code § 226

California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each employee with an accurate, itemized wage statements in writing. These statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a), Aggrieved Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

Defendants failed to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. The wage statements given to Aggrieved Employees failed to accurately account for unpaid wages, overtime, premium pay for deficiently provided meal periods and rest breaks.

Additionally, for the purposes of Subsection (a)(9), Plaintiff seeks to expand the scope of the Aggrieved Employees she seeks to represent to extend to all individuals employed by Defendants during the applicable period. The wage statements issued to Aggrieved Employees failed to state all applicable hourly rates for which Aggrieved Employees were paid as required by Labor Code § 226(a)(9).

In light of these violations, and pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e) and paragraphs 4(b), 7, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to “a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ...”

Failure to Issue Semimonthly Payments in Violation of Labor Code § 204

In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees wages, overtime, premium pay, etc., and failing to provide them with checks and wage statements, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as well as the meal and rest periods taken by Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and the applicable IWC wage orders.

Defendants also required Aggrieved Employees to work hours off the clock for which they were not compensated, including during interrupted or otherwise on-duty meal and rest periods. Defendants also failed to pay all overtime premium wages owed for work conducted on a work shift and a workday or miscalculated these premiums by not including all forms of remuneration in the regular rate, as addressed above. Therefore, when Aggrieved Employees received wage statements and pay checks, they did not compensate all hours worked on a timely basis, resulting in Defendants’ systematic failure to pay all wages owed to Aggrieved Employees twice monthly in accordance with the requirements of Labor Code § 204. Additionally, by not providing wage statements as required under section 204, Defendants systematically violated Labor Code § 204 and § 226.

Given the above described off the clock work, Plaintiff was not paid at the correct overtime rate for all hours he worked after eight hours into a shift or over forty in a work week and that he was not paid all double time owed either. Defendants’ uniformly applied payroll policies and practices thus resulted in further systematic and ongoing violations of the requirements of Labor Code § 204.

In light of the foregoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties, interest, fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201.3, 210, 218.5, 558, and 1194. In failing to pay Aggrieved Employees minimum wages and overtime, off the clock work, by not providing proper meal and rest periods, failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and failing to pay Employees wages upon termination or timely upon resignation, all discussed above, Defendants failed to timely pay Aggrieved Employees wages on a semimonthly basis as required under Labor Code § 204. Defendants also failed to maintain records showing accurate hours worked daily and the wages paid to Aggrieved Employees, as required by Labor Code § 1174 and paragraph 7 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, entitling Aggrieved Employees to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 203, 204, 2926, 2927, and 2699.5 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 204, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure to Keep Records In Accordance With Labor Code § 1174

Labor Code § 1174 requires employers to keep records showing payroll data and the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to employees. By failing to pay Aggrieved Employees proper wages, overtime, double time, premium pay, etc., and by not recording meal period start and end times, all discussed herein, Defendants failed to maintain proper employment records in accordance with Section 1174. In light of the forgoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1174.5 and 2699, et seq. Defendants have also failed to comply with paragraph 7 of the applicable California IWC Wage Orders by failing to maintain time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period, meal periods, wages earned pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, and total daily hours worked by itemizing in wage statements all deductions from payment of wages and accurately reporting total hours worked by the Aggrieved Employees, and they are entitled to recover penalties pursuant to paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to provide the Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, 1198, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Waiting Time Penalties Pursuant to Labor Code § 203

Some Aggrieved Employees no longer work for Defendants; they either resigned or were terminated from Defendants' employ. Based on the forgoing, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages earned by and owed to Aggrieved Employees at the time of their termination of within seventy-two hours of their resignation, as required by California under Labor Code § 203. In light of the forgoing, Aggrieved Employees seek to recover wages and penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558 and further specifically seek penalties and wages under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

Under the PAGA, and following exhaustion of the notice period, Plaintiff asserts PAGA claims for failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), 2699.5, and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

Failure To Provide One Day Of Rest In Seven Pursuant to Labor Codes § §551-552

Labor Code section 551 provides: Every person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven. Labor Code section 552 states "no employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven.” Defendants had a common policy and practice of systematically scheduling Aggrieved Employees for work for seven days with no rest day in between. Specifically, Aggrieved Employees were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day, forty (40) hours per week, and/or seven (7) straight workdays in a workweek (in violation of Labor Code sections 551 and 552). Defendants did not pay Aggrieved Employees proper overtime wages every day, as a result of, without limitation, failing to accurately track and/or pay for all minutes actually worked.

This constitutes a violation of the law including Labor Code sections 551-552 and 1198, and the d applicable Wage Orders based on its practice of providing total compensation that is less than the required legal overtime compensation for the overtime worked.

Unfair Competition Under Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq.

Consequently, Defendants’ conduct has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Aggrieved Employees and the general public in violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

Plaintiff’s PAGA Claim under Labor Code § 2698 et seq. and Recovery Bases:

After complying with the notice procedures of Labor Code § 2699.3 and the running of the notice period after the filing of the Class Action Complaint, Plaintiff will file an amended Complaint asserting, as a representative action on behalf of the California Attorney General and the other similarly Aggrieved Employees, a PAGA claim for violations of the above addressed underlying claims and seeking penalties as specified by the applicable corresponding provisions.

The Aggrieved Employees seek penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants’ violation of Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5, including the penalty provisions, without limitation, based, inter alia, on the following California Labor Code sections: §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 510, 512, 551, 552, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802, including as follows:

(a) Wage Claims: For failure to provide the Aggrieved Employees all earned regular pay and minimum wages for regular hours worked and for failure to pay overtime premium wages for overtime hours worked, failure to pay proper reporting time and sick pay under Labor Code §§ 510, 1194(a), 1197, and 1198, and paragraphs 2(K), 3(A), 4(A), 4(B) and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 227.3, 246, 510, 551, 552, 558, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1198, 1199, 2699(f)(2), and 2699.5, and also for attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1);

(b) Meal and Rest Period Claims: For failure to provide the Aggrieved Employees off-duty, timely, and unpaid meal periods and failure to authorize and permit them to take off-duty, timely, and paid rest periods, or pay one hour of regular pay in lieu thereof, under Labor Code §§ 512, 1198, and 226.7, and Sections 11, 12(A), and 12(B) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties available and applicable, including under paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and wages under Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512, 558, including sections 558(a)(1)-(3), 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1);

(c) Inaccurate Wage Statements and Failure to Maintain Records: For failure to provide the Aggrieved Employees with wage statements or with accurate, itemized wage statements and failure to maintain employment records for Aggrieved Employees under Labor Code §§ 226, 1174, and 1198.5, and Sections 7(A), 7(B), and 7(C) of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s) seeking all civil and statutory penalties and wages available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 226(e), 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1199, and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1). More specifically, by providing inaccurate wage statements and failing to maintain records as required under Labor Code § 226(a), Defendants committed ongoing violations giving rise to civil penalties under Labor Code § 226.3, which in addition to other penalties provided by law, subjects Defendants to "a penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, ...";

(d) Failure to Timely Pay Wages: For failure to timely pay all wages owed, including at least semi-monthly and upon separation or termination, under Labor Code §§ 201, 201, 203, 204, 1197.5, 2926, and 2927 seeking all civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 210, 558, 1197, 1198, 1199 and 2699(f)(2), and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and also for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1);

(e) Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses: For Defendants' failure to reimburse the necessary work related expenses incurred under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, and 2802, and Sections 2(K), 4, 9, and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order(s), seeking civil penalties available and applicable under Labor Code §§ 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802, 2699.5, and 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 9 and 20 of the IWC Wage Orders, and also attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1);

(f) All Alleged Violations of the IWC Wage Orders: For any above addressed violation of the applicable provisions of the IWC Wage Orders constituting violations of Labor Code § 1198 and Labor Code § 2699.5 and seeking penalties available and applicable under Labor Code § 2699(f)(2) and paragraph 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, and for attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(k)(1).

We have been constrained to initially move forward with the filing of this Complaint, alleging the causes of action discussed herein, without the PAGA claim. Thus, any action by the LWDA would not resolve the entirety of the case, and the interest of judicial economy will be served by allowing the case to proceed as a cohesive whole.

This letter and the attached Complaint therefore provide the requisite notice under the Act to the LWDA and Defendants by setting forth the specific provisions of the Labor Code and related provisions Plaintiff alleges have been violated, including the facts and relevant theories alleged against Defendants and joint employers. To prevent the violations described in the Complaint and herein from occurring, and to remedy past violations, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the LWDA conduct an investigation into Defendants' employment practices in accordance with the Act.

Wherefore we request that you advise us, by certified mail within sixty days of the postmark on this letter, whether you intend to proceed with these claims or whether the Aggrieved Employees should include them in an amended Labor Code § 2698 et seq. claim under the Act in an amended Complaint.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff DENISE C. PONCIANO (“Plaintiff”), on behalf of herself, all others similarly
2 situated, and the general public, complains and alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class action against Defendant MCCONNELL’S FINE ICE
5 CREAMS LLC, a California limited liability company; MICHAEL PALMER; EVA EIN; and DOES
6 1 through 50, inclusive, (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for alleged violations of the 7 California Labor Code and California Business and Professions Code. As set forth below, Plaintiff
8 alleges that Defendants have:

- 9 a. failed to pay them overtime wages at the correct rate;
10 b. failed to pay them double time wages at the correct rate;
11 c. failed to pay them overtime and/or double time wages by failing to include all
12 applicable remuneration in calculating the regular rate of pay;
13 d. failed to provide them with meal periods;
14 e. failed to provide them with rest periods;
15 f. failed to pay them premium wages for missed meal and rest periods;
16 g. failed to pay them proper reporting time pay;
17 h. failed to pay them proper sick time pay;
18 i. failure to pay proper vacation wages;
19 j. failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements;
20 k. failed to reimburse them with necessary business expenditures;
21 l. failed to pay them all their final wages following separation of employment.

22 Based on these alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class action to recover
23 unpaid wages, liquidated damages, penalties, restitution, and related relief on behalf of herself, all 24 others similarly situated, and the general public.

25 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to hear this case because the monetary
27 damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff from Defendants’ conduct exceeds the minimal 28 jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California.

3. Venue is proper in the County of Santa Barbara pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 395(a) and 395.5 in that liability arose this county because at least some of the transactions that are the subject matter of this Complaint occurred therein and/or each defendant is found, maintains offices, transacts business and/or has an agent therein.

4. Venue is proper in Santa Barbara County because Defendants have at all times alleged herein, conducted business in Santa Barbara County, and throughout California. As such, venue is proper in any county in California.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff DENISE C. PONCIANO is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, an individual residing in the State of California.

6. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendant MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California limited liability company doing business in the State of California.

7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants MICHAEL PALMER and EVA EIN (collectively the "Individual Defendants"), at all times relevant to this Complaint, were the alter egos of MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC. Plaintiff alleges, upon information and belief, that the Individual Defendants, either individually or with members of their family, owned, controlled, and dominated MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC; that they commingled the funds of MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC with their personal assets, as well as the assets of other entities owned in whole or in part by them; that they failed to segregate the funds of these separate entities; that they wrongly diverted corporate funds or assets to non-corporate uses; that they treated the assets of MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC as their own; that they held themselves out as being personally liable for the debts of MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC; that they failed to maintain minutes or adequate corporate records and confused the records of various entities; that they used the same office or business location and employed the same employees and attorneys for all entities; that they failed to adequately capitalize MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC; that they used MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC as a mere shell, instrumentality, or conduit for the business of an individual or individuals, namely, themselves

1 and their families; that they disregarded legal formalities and failed to maintain arm' s-length
2 relationships among related entities; that they used the corporate entity to procure labor, services, and
3 merchandise for themselves or other entities; that they diverted assets from MCCONNELL'S FINE
4 ICE CREAMS LLC to the detriment of creditors, or manipulated assets and liabilities between 5 entities so as to concentrate the assets in one and the liabilities in another; that they used
6 MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC as subterfuges of illegal transactions; and that they
7 formed and used MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC to transfer to it their existing liabilities.
8 Plaintiff further avers that recognizing the acts and conduct described in this Complaint as those only
9 of MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE CREAMS LLC would promote an inequitable and unjust result,
10 namely, the deprivation of Plaintiff's fundamental rights under the Labor Code, as described herein.

11 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes that MICHAEL PALMER and EVA EIN are natural
12 persons who are the owners, directors, officers, or managing agents of MCCONNELL'S FINE ICE
13 CREAMS LLC, who violated, or caused to be violated, the Labor Code Sections alleged herein, and 14 are liable under Labor Code §558.1.

15 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued herein as 16 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff
17 will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when 18 ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that each of the fictitiously
19 named defendants are responsible in some manner for the occurrences, acts and omissions alleged 20 herein and that Plaintiff's alleged damages were proximately caused by these defendants, and each of 21 them. Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE
22 defendants when ascertained.

23 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
24 mentioned herein, some or all of the defendants were the representatives, agents, employees, partners,
25 directors, associates, joint venturers, joint employers, owners, principals or co-participants of some
26 or all of the other defendants, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting within the course
27 and scope of such relationship and with the full knowledge, consent, and ratification by such other 28 defendants.

1 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that, at all relevant times
2 mentioned herein, some of the defendants pursued a common course of conduct, acted in concert and
3 conspired with one another, and aided and abetted one another to accomplish the occurrences, acts
4 and omissions alleged herein.

5 12. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to Code
6 of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest among the 7 persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because Plaintiff is 8 unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class action.

9 13. Relevant Time Period: The relevant time period is defined as the time period 10 beginning four years prior to the filing of this action until judgment is entered.

- 11 a. Hourly Employee Class: All persons employed by Defendants, collectively or 12 separately, and/or any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties in hourly or 13 non-exempt positions in California four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action (“Hourly Employee Class”).
- 14 b. Meal Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked in 15 a shift in excess of five hours during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 16 c. Rest Period Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who worked a 17 shift of at least three and one-half (3.5) hours the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 18 d. Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 19 were required to call in or otherwise show up to work without being paid half of 20 their usual or scheduled day's work from four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.
- 21 e. Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Hourly Employee Class members who 22 separated from their employment with Defendants during the period beginning three years before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.
- 23 f. Sick-Pay Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who, at any 24 time from four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action, worked for more than 30 days for 25 Defendants, and were not paid for at least one hour of sick time for every 30 hours of work thereafter, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 12-month period of 26 employment.
- 27 g. Vacation Pay Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California who 28 earned paid vacation time and/or paid time off without receiving compensation for all vested paid vacation time during the Relevant Time Period.

- 1 h. Wage Statement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in California during 2 the period beginning one year before the filing of this action and ending when final 3 judgment is entered.
- 4 i. Expense Reimbursement Class: All persons employed by Defendants in 5 California who incurred business expenses during the Relevant Time Period.
- 6 j. UCL Class: All Hourly Employee Class and Expense Reimbursement Class members employed by Defendants in California during the four years prior to the filing of this action and ending on the date that final judgment is entered in this action.

7 14. Reservation of Rights: Pursuant to Rule of Court 3.765(b), Plaintiff reserves the right
8 to amend or modify the class definitions with greater specificity, by further division into sub-classes
9 and/or by limitation to particular issues.

10 15. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of each
11 individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact number of 12 class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that the actual number 13 exceeds the minimum required for numerosity under California law.

14 16. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all
15 class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class members.
16 These common questions include, but are not limited to:

- 17 a. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 18 employees with their rest periods;
- 19 b. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide 20 employees with their meal periods;
- 21 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay premium wages to class members when they 22 have not been provided with meal and rest periods at the appropriate rates of pay;
- 23 d. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class 24 members for all time worked;
- 25 e. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay proper 26 reporting time pay;
- 27 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay proper sick time pay;
- 28 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay proper vacation wages;

- h. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and total hours worked;
- i. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or incomplete final wage payments;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse class members for all necessary business expenses incurred during the discharge of their duties;
- k. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code section 203; and
- l. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;

17. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to comply with the California Labor Code and Business and Professions Code as alleged in this Complaint.

18. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative and has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

19. Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in that they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are experienced in wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of Plaintiff and absent class members.

20. Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair and efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties and the Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to simultaneously and efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the unnecessary duplication of

1 effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In addition, the monetary amounts
2 due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively small and would thus make it
3 difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a
4 class action will serve an important public interest by permitting class members to effectively pursue
5 the recovery of monies owed to them. Further, a class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent
6 or contradictory judgments inherent in individual litigation.

7 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

8 21. Plaintiff worked for Defendants as a non-exempt employee during the relevant and 9 statutory periods.

10 22. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
11 and Class Members proper wages and overtime for all hours worked. Plaintiff and Class Members
12 were also consistently required to perform work, off-the-clock, for which they were not paid wages.
13 Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members performed work during their unpaid meal periods such as 14 – entering code for discounts, answering other employees’ questions, and traveling from one store to 15 another. Moreover, Plaintiff and Class Members were required by management to perform work for 16 which no wages were paid after they had clocked out of their shifts, such as turning on the store alarm
17 and locking up. Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to submit to Covid-19
18 testing prior to clocking into their shifts, which included temperature checking and a symptom quiz.
19 Next, Plaintiff and Class Member were required to be on-call or standby to be called in to a shift,
20 which required Plaintiff and Class Members to remain in close proximity to their work location, and 21 were not paid extra for this on-call time. Finally, Plaintiff and Class Members were required to work
22 seven consecutive days, without being paid the proper minimum overtime and double time rates to 23 which they were entitled. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was under the direction and 24 control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

25 23. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Class Members to work in excess of 26 eight (8), ten (10) and/or twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, entitling Plaintiff
27 and Class Members to minimum and overtime wages, which they were systemically denied.

28 24. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and

1 Class Members the opportunity to take meal periods in compliance with the California Law.
2 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the 3 opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth hour of work.
4 Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members were consistently required to perform work-related duties
5 during unpaid meal periods, which were systemically denied, including entering code for discounts,
6 answering other employees' questions, and traveling from one store to another.

7 25. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with meal periods of at least thirty (30)
8 minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each meal
9 period as part of each work shift; (2) no formal written meal policy that encouraged employees to 10 take their meal periods, or that advised Class Members of their meal and rest period rights; and (3)
11 Defendants' practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their meal and 12 rest periods due to the excessive workload.

13 26. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically denying Plaintiff and 14 Class Members the opportunity to take rest periods in compliance with the California Law. Plaintiff
15 and Class Members were not provided with rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4)
16 hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1) Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest
17 period as part of each work shift, including second rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2)
18 no formal compliant written rest period policy that encouraged employees to take their rest periods,
19 or that properly advised Plaintiff and Class Members of their rest period rights; and (3) Defendants'
20 policy and practice of requiring putative class members to continue working through their rest breaks
21 due to the excessive workload. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members' rest breaks were either late,
22 interrupted, or altogether denied. Moreover, Plaintiff and Class Members were denied the opportunity
23 to take second and third rest breaks.

24 27. Furthermore, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members premium pay 25 wages at their appropriate regular rates of pay for each meal and rest period denied.

26 28. Defendants also had a common policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff and Class
27 Members all reporting time pay to which they were entitled under California Law. Specifically,
28 Plaintiff and Class Members were required to call in or otherwise show up to work without being paid

1 half of their usual or scheduled day's work.

2 29. Plaintiff and Class Members were not provided with accurate wage statements as
3 mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226. Specifically, Defendants failed to issue wage
4 statements as “a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or 5 separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing.”
6 Additionally, the wage statements issued to Plaintiff and Class Members were not recorded in “ink
7 or other indelible form.”

8 30. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as “gross wages
9 earned” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

10 31. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as “total hours worked 11 by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were 12 not included.

13 32. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages earned”
14 were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including overtime, were not included.

15 33. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable
16 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each 17 hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that: all hours worked, including 18 overtime, were not included.

19 34. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Class Members with paper pay
20 stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE Opinion Letters.
21 Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ wage statement were only provided in electronic format in violation
22 of Labor Code § 226.

23 35. Plaintiff and Class Members were not reimbursed for business expenses incurred in 24 executing their duties under Defendant’s employ. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members were 25 required to use their cell phones for approximately an hour a day at work to communicate with 26 supervisors and co-workings and use work apps, which was necessary to perform their duties under 27 Defendants’ employ. Moreover, Plaintiff and Class Members had to upgrade their phones to iPhones
28 to be included in certain work group-chats where other co-workers were using iMessage.

1 Additionally, Plaintiff and Class Members incurred other necessary work-related expenses, such as
2 purchasing a phone charger and a speaker for the workplace, which were used by all coworkers to
3 charge their phones and play music in the front of the store. Plaintiff and Class members were not
4 reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

5 36. Defendants also had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay
6 Plaintiff and Class Members the requisite and accrued vacation time pay in accordance with 7 California Law. Specifically, Plaintiff and Class Members accrued vested vacation time and/or paid
8 time off. However, Defendants failed to pay all accrued vacation time and/or paid time off owed to 9 Plaintiff and Class Members upon their separation from employment.

10 37. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
11 and Class Members the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law. Specifically,
12 Plaintiff and Class Members worked for Defendants for more than 30 days but were not paid at least
13 one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least 3 days of sick time for every 12 month
14 period of work.

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

17 (Lab. Code §§ 226.7, 512, 1174, and 1198)

18 (Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class)

19 38. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if 20 fully alleged herein.

21 39. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-Class members have been 22 non-exempt employees of Defendant entitled to the full meal period protections of both the Labor
23 Code and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Order.

24 40. Labor Code section 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
25 Commission Wage Order impose an affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt
26 employees with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period
27 of five hours, and to provide them with two uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods of at least thirty 28 minutes for each work period of ten hours.

1 41. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 11 of the applicable Industrial Welfare
2 Commission Wage Order (“Wage Order”) both prohibit employers from requiring employees to work
3 during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-exempt employees an hour of 4 premium wages on each workday that the employee is not provided with the required meal period.

5 42. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
6 Code section 200.

7 43. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that
8 violate the applicable Wage Order.

9 44. Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order states:

10 No employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than 11 five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except 12 that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete 13 the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 14 the employer and employee. Unless the employee is relieved of all duty 15 during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 16 ‘on duty’ meal period and counted as time worked. An ‘on duty’ meal period shall be permitted only when the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written agreement between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.

17 45. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
18 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Meal Period Sub-Class
19 members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

20 46. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
21 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
22 Sub-Class with uninterrupted, duty-free meal periods for at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
23 hour work period, as required by Labor Code section 512 and the applicable Wage Order.
24 Specifically, due to understaffing and heavy workloads, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class
25 members were denied the opportunity to take timely meal periods prior to the completion of their fifth
26 hour of work. Additionally, Plaintiff and Meal Period Sub-Class members were consistently 27 required to perform work-related duties during unpaid meal periods, which were systemically denied,
28 including entering code for discounts, answering other employees’ questions, and traveling from one

1 store to another.

2 47. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
3 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to pay premium wages to Meal Period Sub-
4 Class members when they worked five (5) hours without clocking out for any meal period.

5 48. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
6 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the Meal Period
7 Sub-Class with a second meal period when they worked shifts of ten (10) or more hours and failed
8 to pay them premium wages as required by Labor Code 512 and the applicable Wage Order.

9 49. Moreover, Defendants written policies fail to inform Meal period Class Members of 10 their meal period rights under the Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

11 50. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Meal Period Sub-
12 Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the employees'
13 regular rates of pay when required meal periods were not provided.

14 51. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6, 226.7 and 512, Plaintiff, on behalf of 15 herself and the Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest
16 thereon, and costs of suit.

17 52. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the
18 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the 19 Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

22 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7 and 1198)

23 (Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class)

24 53. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 25 herein.

26 54. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class members have been 27 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of both the Labor
28 Code and the applicable Wage Order.

1 55. Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on
2 employers to permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten
3 (10) minutes of net rest time for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, that must 4 be in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

5 56. Labor Code section 226.7 and Section 12 of the applicable Wage Order both prohibit 6 employers from requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to 7 pay non-exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees' regular rates of pay, on each
8 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

9 57. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of Labor
10 Code section 200.

11 58. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 12 violate the Wage Order.

13 59. Plaintiff alleges that, at all relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
14 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing members of the Rest Period Sub-Class
15 with net rest period of at least ten (10) uninterrupted minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or 16 major fraction thereof, as required by the applicable Wage Order.

17 60. Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were not provided with rest periods of 18 at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
19 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift, including second 20 rest breaks for shifts of six (6) hours or more; (2) no formal compliant written rest period policy that 21 encouraged employees to take their rest periods, or that properly advised Rest Period Sub-Class
22 members of their rest period rights; and (3) Defendants' policy and practice of requiring Rest Period
23 Sub-Class members to continue working through their rest breaks due to the excessive workload and 24 maintaining and monitoring their cellular phones during breaks. Specifically, Plaintiff and Rest
25 Period Sub-Class members' rest breaks were either late, interrupted, or altogether denied. Moreover,
26 Plaintiff and Rest Period Sub-Class members were denied the opportunity to take second and third 27 rest breaks.

28 61. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Rest Period Sub-Class

1 members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not provided.

2 62. Pursuant to Labor Code section 204, 218.6 and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself
3 and Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest thereon, and 4 costs of suit.

5 63. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the
6 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Rest
7 Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

8 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

9 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

10 (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197 and 1198)

11 (Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class)

12 64. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged
13 herein.

14 65. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members are or have been 15 non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor Code and the 16 applicable Wage Order.

17 66. Section 2 of the applicable Wage Order defines "hours worked" as "the time during 18 which an employee is subject to the control of the employer, and includes all the time the employee
19 is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so."

20 67. Section 4 of the applicable Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt
21 employees at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours
22 that an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

23 68. Labor Code section 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an
24 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable Wage 25 Order.

26 69. Labor Code section 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated
27 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in addition
28 to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

1 70. Labor Code section 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less
2 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Order for all hours worked during a
3 payroll period.

4 71. Labor Code section 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other
5 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent or employee of another person, to pay an 6 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

7 72. Labor Code section 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 8 conditions that violate the applicable Wage Order.

9 73. Labor Code section 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned
10 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the employer
11 designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor performed in 12 excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

13 74. Labor Code section 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower 14 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

15 75. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order require employees
16 to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half (1.5) times their 17 respective regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, all
18 hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight (8) hours
19 worked on the seventh consecutive day of one workweek.

20 76. Labor Code section 510 and Section 3 of the applicable Wage Order also require 21 employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two (2) times their respective 22 regular rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in one workday and for all
23 hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on a seventh consecutive workday during the workweek.

24 77. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have applied
25 centrally devised policies and practices to her and Hourly Employee Class members with respect to 26 working conditions and compensation arrangements.

27 78. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay hourly wages to Plaintiff and Hourly
28 Employee Class members for all time worked, including but not limited to, overtime hours at

1 statutory and/or agreed rates.

2 79. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were not paid proper wages and 3 overtime for all hours worked, at the proper rates of pay. Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
4 members were consistently required to perform work, off-the-clock for which they were not paid
5 wages. Specifically, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members performed work during their
6 unpaid meal periods such as – entering code for discounts, answering other employees’ questions,
7 and traveling from one store to another. Moreover, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members
8 were required by management to perform work for which no wages were paid after they had clocked
9 out of their shifts, such as turning on the store alarm and locking up. Additionally, Plaintiff and 10 Hourly Employee Class members were required to submit to Covid-19 testing prior to clocking into 11 their shifts, which included temperature checking and a symptom quiz. Next, Plaintiff and Hourly
12 Employee Class members were required to be on-call or standby to be called in to a shift, which 13 required Plaintiff and Class Members to remain in close proximity to their work location, and were 14 not paid extra for this on-call time. Finally, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members were 15 required to work seven consecutive days, without being paid the proper minimum overtime and 16 double time rates to which they were entitled. The forgoing and uncompensated working time was 17 under the direction and control of Defendants, for which no wages were paid.

18 80. This uncompensated time caused Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to 19 work in excess of eight (8), ten (10), and twelve (12) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week,
20 entitling Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class members to minimum and overtime wages, which 21 they were systemically denied.

22 81. As a result of Defendants’ unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Hourly Employee Class
23 members have suffered damages in an amount, subject to proof, to the extent they were not paid the 24 full amount of wages earned during each pay period during the applicable limitations period,
25 including overtime wages.

26 82. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 204, 218.6, 223, 510, 1194 and 1194.2, Plaintiff, on 27 behalf of herself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover unpaid straight time and 28 overtime wages, interest thereon and costs of suit.

83. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Hourly Employee Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

RECOVERY OF REPORTING TIME PAY

(Plaintiff and Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class)

84. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

85. The IWC Wage Orders, require that reporting time pay be provided to any employee who is required to report for work and does report, but is not put to work or is furnished less than half said employee's usual or scheduled day's work.

86. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that all or substantially all the Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class are subject to Defendants' policies and practices requiring them to call in or otherwise show up to work but not being paid half said their usual or scheduled day's work.

87. Therefore, Reporting Time Pay Sub-Class Members are owed the unpaid balance of said wages pursuant to the Wage order according to proof at trial, Interest pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.6 and 1194(a), Civil Code §§ 3287 and § 3289, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and/or penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 558(a).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY PROPER SICK PAY

(Lab. Code § 246)

(Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class)

88. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

89. Labor Code Section 246 affords an employee “who works in California for 30 or more days within a year from the commencement of employment [] paid sick days . . . of not less

1 than one hour per every 30 hours worked” and “no less than 24 hours of accrued sick leave or paid
2 time off by the 120th calendar day of employment or each calendar year, or in each 12-month
3 period.”

4 90. Additionally, Subsection (l) of Section 246 provides:

5 For the purposes of this section, an employer shall calculate paid sick leave
6 using any of the following calculations:

7 (1) Paid sick time for nonexempt employees shall be calculated in the same
8 manner as the regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee
9 uses paid sick time, whether or not the employee actually works overtime
10 in that workweek.

11 91. Defendants had a common policy and practice of systemically failing to pay Plaintiff
12 and Sick Pay Class Members the requisite sick time pay in accordance with California Law.
13 Specifically, Plaintiff and Sick Pay Class Members worked for Defendants for more than 30 days,
14 but were not paid at least one hour of sick pay for every 30 hours of work, or at least 3 days of sick
15 time for every 12 month period of work.

16 92. Therefore, Sick Pay Class Members are owed the unpaid balance of said wages
17 pursuant to the Wage order according to proof at trial, interest pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.6 and 18 1194(a), Civil Code §§ 3287 and § 3289, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and/or penalties
19 pursuant to Labor Code § 558(a).

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PAY VACATION WAGES

22 (Lab. Code § 227.3)

23 (Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class)

24 93. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully alleged herein.

25 94. California Labor Code section 227.3 provides:

26 Unless otherwise provided by a collective-bargaining agreement,
27 whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for 28 paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to her as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served; provided, however, that an employment contract or employer policy shall not provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon termination. The

1 Labor Commissioner or a designated representative, in the resolution
2 of any dispute with regard to vested vacation time, shall apply the principles of equity and fairness.

3 95. At all relevant times during the applicable limitations period, Plaintiff and members
4 of the Vacation Pay Class accrued vacation time, and/or paid time off, during their employment
5 with Defendants.

6 96. However, Defendants implemented a common policy and practice of failing to pay
7 Plaintiff and Vacation Pay Class members for all accrued vacation wages upon separation of 8 employment, in violation of Labor Code 227.3.

9 97. By reason of the above, Plaintiff and the members of the Vacation Pay Class are 10 entitled to restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of 11 the filing of the original Complaint until the date of entry of judgment.

12 98. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the members of the Vacation Pay Class, seeks 13 interest thereon pursuant to California Labor Code section 218.6, costs pursuant to California
14 Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil 15 Procedure section 1021.5.

16 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

18 (Lab. Code § 226)

19 (Plaintiff and Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

20 99. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 21 herein.

22 100. Labor Code section 226(a) states:

23 An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, 24 shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if 25 wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours 26 worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that 27 all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 28 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the

1 name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social
2 security number or an employee identification number other than a
3 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that 4 is the employer and, if the employer is a farm labor contractor, as 5 defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1682, the name and address of the 6 legal entity that secured the services of the employer, and (9) all
7 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 8 corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 9 employee and, beginning July 1, 2013, if the employer is a temporary 10 services employer as defined in Section 201.3, the rate of pay and the 11 total hours worked for each temporary services assignment. The 12 deductions made from payment of wages shall be recorded in ink or 13 other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, 14 and a copy of the statement and the record of the deductions shall be 15 kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 16 employment or at a central location within the State of California. For 17 purposes of this subdivision, ‘copy’ includes a duplicate of the itemized
18 statement provided to an employee or a computer-generated record that 19 accurately shows all of the information required by this subdivision.

11 101. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement (“DLSE”) has sought to harmonize the 12 “detachable part of the check” provision and the “accurate itemized statement in writing” provision
13 of Labor Code section 226(a) by allowing for electronic wage statements so long as each employee
14 retains the right to elect to receive a written paper stub or record and that those who are provided with 15 electronic wage statements retain the ability to easily access the information and convert the electronic 16 statements into hard copies at no expense to the employee. (DLSE Opinion Letter July 6, 2006).

17 102. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
18 limitations period, Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members
19 with written wage statements as described above. Additionally, the wage statements issued to class
20 members failed to account for the unpaid minimum wages, overtime, and premium pay wages
21 described above.

22 103. Furthermore, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class
23 Members with paper pay stubs as required by Labor Code § 226, applicable Wage Orders, and DLSE
24 Opinion Letters. Plaintiff’s and Wage Statement Class members’ wage statements were only 25 provided in electronic format in violation of Labor Code § 226.

26 104. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ failure to provide Plaintiff and 27 Wage Statement Class members with accurate written wage statements was intentional in that 28 Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage statements but have intentionally

1 provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known do not comply with Labor
2 Code section 226(a).

3 105. Plaintiff and Wage Statement Class members have suffered injuries, in that
4 Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them
5 about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage
6 statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants' unlawful pay practices, has required
7 discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused
8 difficulty and expense in attempting to reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the 9 submission of inaccurate information about wages and deductions to federal and state government 10 agencies.

11 106. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Wage
12 Statement Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00 for the initial pay period in 13 which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for each subsequent pay period
14 in which a violation of Labor Code section 226(a) occurred, not to exceed an aggregate penalty of 15 $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

16 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

18 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

19 (Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

20 107. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 21 herein.

22 108. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members have 23 been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely payment of all wages
24 earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

25 109. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 201, employees who have been 26 discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

27 110. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code section 202, employees who have 28 resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours' notice of resignation have been entitled to

1 payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

2 111. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
3 limitations period, Defendants have failed to timely pay Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class
4 members all their final wages in accordance with the Labor Code.

5 112. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times during the applicable
6 limitations period, Defendants have maintained a policy or practice of paying Waiting Time
7 Penalties Sub-Class members their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code
8 sections 201 or 202 by failing to timely pay them all final wages.

9 113. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that Defendants' failure to 10 timely pay all final wages to her and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members has been willful
11 in that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code sections 201
12 and/or 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practices that are incompatible with those 13 requirements.

14 114. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and 15 Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the dates that their 16 final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of thirty days, and interest thereon.

17 115. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
18 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
19 Class members, seeks awards of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

20 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY

22 (Lab. Code § 2802)

23 (Plaintiff and Reimbursement Class)

24 116. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 25 herein.

26 117. Labor Code section 2802(a) states:

27 An employer shall indemnify his or her employee for all necessary
28 expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the

1 directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee,
2 at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful.

3 118. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members were not reimbursed for 4 business expenses incurred in executing their duties under Defendant's employ. Specifically, Plaintiff
5 and Expense Reimbursement Class members were required to use their cell phones for 6 approximately an hour a day at work to communicate with supervisors and co-workers and use work
7 apps, which was necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ. Moreover, Plaintiff and 8 Expense Reimbursement Class members had to upgrade their phones to iPhones to be included in 9 certain work group-chats where other co-workers were using iMessage. Additionally, Plaintiff and 10 Expense Reimbursement Class members incurred other necessary work-related expenses, such as 11 purchasing a phone charger and a speaker for the workplace, which were used by all coworkers to 12 charge their phones and play music in the front of the store. Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement
13 Class members were not reimbursed for these necessary work-related expenses.

14 119. Accordingly, Plaintiff and Expense Reimbursement Class members are entitled to 15 restitution for all unpaid amounts due and owing to within four (4) years of the date of the filing of 16 the Complaint and until the date of entry of judgment.

17 120. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, and Expense Reimbursement Class members, seeks 18 interest thereon and costs pursuant to Labor Code section 218.6, and reasonable attorneys' fees and 19 costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

20 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 UNFAIR COMPETITION

22 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.)

23 (Plaintiff and UCL Class)

24 121. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully alleged 25 herein.

26 122. Business and Professions Code section 17200 defines "unfair competition" to include
27 any unlawful business practice.

28 123. Business and Professions Code sections 17203-17204 allow a person who has lost

1 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with Code
2 of Civil Procedure section 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 3 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

4 124. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt employees for all hours
5 they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or reasonable should 6 know that employees have worked.

7 125. Plaintiff and the UCL Class members re-allege and incorporate the FIRST, SECOND,
8 THIRD, FOURTH, FIFTH, SIXTH, NINTH causes of action herein.

9 126. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair competition.

10 127. Defendants have or may have acquired money by means of unfair competition.

11 128. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges that by committing the Labor
12 Code violations described in this Complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code sections 215, 216, 225,
13 226.6, 226.7, 227.3, 246, 354, 408, 512, 510, 553, 1175, 1174, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198,
14 1199, and 2802 as well as applicable Wage Orders, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the 15 violations alleged herein.

16 129. Defendants have committed criminal conduct through their policies and practices of,
17 inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligations as an employer to: provide non-exempt
18 employees with compliant meal and rest periods; pay for all hours worked at the proper rates of pay;
19 proper sick time pay; reporting time pay; and reimbursement for necessary business expenditures.

20 130. Defendants' unlawful conduct as alleged in this Complaint amounts to and constitutes 21 unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq.
22 Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. protects against unfair competition and allows
23 a person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 24 unlawful or fraudulent business practice to seek restitution on she own behalf and on behalf of 25 similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

26 131. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
27 limitations period, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property in the form
28 of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a result of Defendants' conduct.

1 132. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been
2 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

3 133. Due to the unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code,
4 Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable companies doing business in 5 the State of California that comply with their legal obligations.

6 134. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") permits civil recovery and injunctive
7 relief for "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice," including if a practice or act
8 violates or is considered unlawful under any other state or federal law.

9 135. Accordingly, pursuant to Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203,
10 Plaintiff requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
11 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
12 Code and applicable Wage Orders.

13 136. Accordingly, pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code sections 17200 and 17203, Plaintiff
14 requests the issuance of temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief enjoining
15 Defendants, and each of them, and their agents and employees, from further violations of the Labor
16 Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders; and upon a final hearing seeks 17 an order permanently enjoining Defendants, and each of them, and their respective agents and 18 employees, from further violations of the Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission
19 Wage Orders.

20 137. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of 21 herself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully
22 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful
23 and unfair business practices.

24 138. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
25 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
26 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

27 139. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of
28 herself and UCL Class members, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies rightfully

1 belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of its unlawful
2 and unfair business practices.

3 140. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine
4 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and UCL Class members are entitled to recover
5 reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, all others similarly situated, and the general
8 public, prays for relief and judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 9 a. An order that the action be certified as a class action;
10 b. An order that Plaintiff be appointed class representative;
11 c. An order that counsel for Plaintiff be appointed class counsel;
12 d. Unpaid wages and overtime;
13 e. Actual damages;
14 f. Liquidated damages;
15 g. Unreimbursed expenses;
16 h. Restitution;
17 i. Declaratory relief;
18 j. Pre-judgment interest;
19 k. Statutory penalties;
20 l. Costs of suit;
21 m. Reasonable attorneys' fees; and 22 n. Such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
