1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Labor Code § 2698,
3 et seq., Plaintiff Jeff Dollarhide (“Plaintiff”) hereby moves the Court for an order approving 4 the non-reversionary settlement with Defendants Coating Specialists and Inspection Services 5 and RMA Companies¹ (collectively, “Defendants”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”), as 6 set forth in the Joint Stipulation and Settlement Agreement of PAGA Representative Action 7 (“Settlement Agreement” or “SA”), which was filed with the Court on April 28, 2026. For the 8 Court’s convenience, the Parties are refiling the Settlement Agreement, along with the Notice 9 to accompany checks to aggrieved employees as Exhibits B and C to the accompanying 10 Declaration of Max Gavron (“Gavron Decl.”) filed herewith.

11 As demonstrated below and in Mr. Gavon’s Declaration, the proposed settlement 12 warrants the Court’s approval. This settlement was reached after significant litigation, 13 investigation, and informal discovery, including Defendants’ production of information 14 regarding the number of pay periods at issue in this action. Furthermore, pursuant to the terms 15 of the settlement, Defendants will pay the total amount of $50,000.00 (the “Gross PAGA 16 Settlement Amount”), which includes an estimated payment of approximately $10,112.91 in 17 civil penalties to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”). The 18 proposed release is narrowly tailored to release only claims for civil penalties under PAGA 19 predicated on the specific Labor Code violations alleged in the Complaint and PAGA Notice.
20 Defendants deny Plaintiff’s claims and further assert that they had updated payroll practices 21 prior to Plaintiff’s filing of his PAGA notice with the LWDA. To avoid the burden and 22 expense of further litigation, the Parties entered into the Joint Stipulation and Settlement of the 23 PAGA Representative Action. The proposed settlement constitutes an adequate, fair, and 24 reasonable settlement on behalf of the LWDA and aggrieved employees and accomplishes the 25 goals of the PAGA.

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. The PAGA Notice

On November 21, 2024, Plaintiff submitted written notice under Labor Code § 2699.3 to the LWDA and Defendants, alleging that Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 204 and 210 (the “PAGA Notice”). See Declaration of Max W. Gavron (“Gavron Decl.”) ¶¶ 3-4, Exhibit A.

As set forth in the PAGA Notice, Plaintiff contends that, as matter of policy and practice, Defendants failed to pay wages in a timely manner, in violation of Labor Code § 204. See Gavron Decl. ¶ 4.

B. The Operative Complaint

On January 24, 2025, Plaintiff filed a representative action complaint against Defendants in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego (the “Action”). See Gavron Decl. ¶ 5. The Complaint alleges a single cause of action for violation of Labor Code § 2698, et seq., based on the facts described in Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice. Id. As alleged in the Complaint, Plaintiff contends that Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to make timely payments of wages to employees according to the terms of Labor Code § 204(d). Id. ¶ 6. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, as a matter of policy and practice, paid the wages of employees beyond the time periods allowed pursuant to Labor Code § 204. Id. Plaintiff seeks civil penalties under PAGA, as well as attorneys’ fees, and costs. See id. Defendants dispute and deny Plaintiff’s allegations and claims asserted in the operative Complaint. See id. ¶¶ 21-23.

C. Settlement

Following the filing of Defendants’ responsive pleading, the Parties engaged in informal discovery and exchanged information regarding the number of aggrieved employees, pay periods at issue during the PAGA period. Gavron Decl. ¶ 7. Using the data provided by Defendants, Plaintiff’s counsel performed a comprehensive evaluation of the claims and potential penalties. Id.

The Parties ultimately agreed to a settlement of the Action and worked to memorialize the terms of the settlement in a long-form Joint Stipulation and Settlement Agreement of

1 PAGA Representative Action, a true and correct copy of which is attached to the Declaration 2 of Max W. Gavron as Exhibit B. Id. ¶ 8. Additionally, the Parties have agreed to send the 3 Notice explaining the Settlement Agreement to aggrieved employees. Id. ¶ 8, Exh. C.

4 The Parties recognize the risk, expense, and delay in continuing litigation and believe 5 the settlement to be fair, reasonable, and adequate. See Gavron Decl. ¶¶ 21-23. Accordingly, 6 the Parties desire to settle, compromise, and discharge all disputes and claims arising from or 7 relating to the afore-referenced claims and allegations.

8 III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED PAGA SETTLEMENT

9 The material terms of the settlement are described below and set forth in detail in the 10 concurrently filed Settlement Agreement, a true and correct copy of which is attached as 11 Exhibit B to the Declaration of Max W. Gavron.

12 A. The Aggrieved Employees

13 The current Action is being settled on behalf of the following employees: current and 14 former individuals who were employed by Defendants in California at any time from 15 November 21, 2023, through the Release End Date (“PAGA Members”). See SA ¶ 10. The 16 PAGA Period is November 21, 2023, through the Release End Date [November 9, 2024]. Id.
17 ¶¶ 12, 14. Based on Defendants’ records, there are approximately 62 PAGA Members. Id. ¶ 18 10. These individuals worked approximately 1,200 pay periods during the PAGA Period. See 19 id. ¶ 57.

20 B. Gross PAGA Settlement Amount and Allocation

21 The Settlement Agreement requires Defendants to pay the Gross PAGA Settlement
22 Amount of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00). See SA ¶ 29.a. Based on the Gross PAGA
23 Settlement Amount, Defendants will pay approximately $41.67 per pay period ($$50,000 \div$ 24 1,200 pay periods) to resolve the claims in this case. See Gavron Decl. ¶ 11.

25 The balance of the Gross PAGA Settlement Amount remaining after deduction of the 26 approved attorneys’ fees and litigation costs, settlement administration costs, and Plaintiff’s 27 Representative Enhancement (“Net PAGA Fund”) will be available for distribution to the 28 LWDA and PAGA Members. See SA ¶¶ 8, 29.c, 32. The Net PAGA Fund will total

1 approximately $15,558.33. See Gavron Decl. ¶ 12. Sixty-five percent (65%) of the net amount,
2 or approximately $10,112.91, will be paid to the LWDA for PAGA penalties (“LWDA 3 Payment”). See SA ¶ 29.c; Gavron Decl. ¶ 13. The remaining thirty-five percent (35%), or 4 approximately $5,445.42, will be distributed to the PAGA Members. See SA ¶ 29.c; Gavron 5 Decl. ¶ 13. However, these amounts will be higher when they are adjusted to account for the 6 actual litigation costs incurred and requested by Plaintiff’s counsel.

7 The amount any particular PAGA Member will be entitled to recover will depend on 8 the number of pay periods in which he or she worked during the PAGA Period, with some 9 entitled to receive more and others less. See SA ¶ 32.a. This is fair, as it directly allocates 10 greater penalties to individuals who have allegedly suffered greater harm. See Gavron Decl. ¶ 11 18. Any checks distributed to PAGA Members that are not cashed within 180 days shall be 12 sent to the State of California State Controller’s Office Unclaimed Property Fund in the name 13 of the PAGA Member. See SA ¶ 41.

14 As part of the settlement, Defendants do not object to Plaintiff’s counsel’s request for 15 attorneys’ fees of approximately one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, i.e., Sixteen 16 Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six Dollars and Sixty-Seven Cents ($16,666.67), and 17 reimbursement of litigation costs in an amount up to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), 18 subject to the Court finally approving this settlement. See SA ¶ 30.² Any portion of the 19 requested attorneys’ fees and/or costs not approved by the Court shall be added back to the 20 Gross Settlement Amount for distribution according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.
21 See id.

22 Also, as part of the settlement, Defendants do not object to Plaintiff’s request for a 23 Representative Enhancement to Plaintiff in an amount not to exceed Five Thousand Dollars

24
25 ² At the time the Parties negotiated the Settlement Agreement, Plaintiff’s counsel did not have 26 a final tally of the litigation costs incurred to date. As such, the Parties included a maximum 27 amount that could be attributed to costs under the settlement. Plaintiff’s counsel requests 28 reimbursement of $1,918.99 for litigation-related expenses. See Gavron Decl. ¶ 40, Ex. E. The difference between what was allocated and the amount actually incurred will revert to the Net PAGA Fund and be distributed pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, which results in a greater recovery for the PAGA Members and LWDA.

1 ($5,000.00). See SA ¶ 31. Any portion of the Representative Enhancement to Plaintiff that is 2 not approved by the Court shall be added back to the Gross PAGA Settlement Amount for 3 distribution according to the terms of the Settlement Agreement. See id. ¶.

4 Finally, the settlement provides for the payment of the fees and expenses reasonably 5 incurred by the Settlement Administrator. See SA ¶ 34. The Parties have agreed to utilize 6 Phoenix Settlement Administrators to administer the settlement, with the administration costs
7 estimated to be Two Thousand Seven Hundred Seventy-Five Dollars ($2,775.00). See SA ¶¶ 8 18, 34.

9 C. Scope of the Released Claims

10 In exchange for the payments described above, Plaintiff and the PAGA Members will 11 release the Released Parties from the Released Claims. See SA ¶¶ 13, 35. As defined in the 12 Settlement Agreement, the term “Released Claims” means:

13 all PAGA claims pled in the Lawsuit and any PAGA Notice sent to 14 the LWDA by Plaintiff in or prior to the Lawsuit, and any PAGA 15 claims which could have reasonably been alleged under the facts, 16 allegations and/or claims pled in the Lawsuit or any PAGA Notice 17 sent to the LWDA by Plaintiff in or prior to the Lawsuit, against the Released Parties, for work performed during the PAGA Period, including but not limited to the following:

18 a. The Claims set forth in the Lawsuit, specifically: penalties 19 pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act of 2004
20 (Labor Code § 2698, et seq.) for alleged violations of the California 21 Labor Code including: (1) failure to timely pay all employees as 22 required by Labor Code sections 204 and 210; (2) claims reasonably 23 predicated on the same or similar facts and/or claims alleged in the Lawsuit and/or PAGA Notice, including claims under the California
Labor Code for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, and 2698 et seq. []

24 See SA ¶ 35. The settlement is not intended to release does not extend to violations of any 25 predicate statutes other than PAGA. See id. The settlement also does not affect a waiver of 26 claims by PAGA Members against the Released Parties for any individual wage and hour 27 claims. See id.

1 IV. THE PAGA SETTLEMENT IS REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

2 A. PAGA Overview

3 In 2004, California enacted PAGA, which allows aggrieved employees, on behalf of 4 the LWDA and other aggrieved employees, to bring suit against their employers for alleged 5 violations of the California labor laws and to obtain penalties that previously could only be 6 obtained by the State. The PAGA was enacted because the Legislature determined that it was 7 “in the public interest to allow aggrieved employees, acting as private attorneys general, to 8 recover civil penalties for Labor Code violations,” since the State had not been able to fully or 9 adequately enforce its labor laws. Arias v. Superior Court, 46 Cal. 4th 969, 980 (2009);
10 Ochoa- Hernandez v. Cjaders Foods, Inc., 2010 WL 1340777, *4 (N.D. Cal. April 2, 2010) 11 (“The act’s declared purpose is to supplement enforcement actions by public agencies, which 12 lack adequate resources to bring all such actions themselves. Unlike class actions, these civil 13 penalties are not meant to compensate unnamed employees because the action is 14 fundamentally a law enforcement action” [citations omitted].)

15 Labor Code § 2699(a) states that any Labor Code provision “that provides for a civil 16 penalty to be assessed and collected by the [LWDA] may, as an alternative, be recovered 17 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and 18 other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” An 19 “aggrieved employee” means “any person who was employed by the alleged violator and 20 against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.” Lab. Code § 2699(c).
21 Prior to commencing an action, the allegedly aggrieved employee must provide notice to the 22 LWDA and the employer setting forth the “specific provisions of [the Labor Code] alleged to 23 have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violation.” Lab.
24 Code § 2699.3(a)(1). If the LWDA decides not to investigate the allegations or issue a citation
25 to the employer, the proposed representative plaintiff is entitled to commence a PAGA action 26 after 65 days. Lab. Code § 2699.3(a)(2).

27 The California Supreme Court has explained that a plaintiff who brings a PAGA claim 28 “represents the same legal right and interest as state labor law enforcement agencies,” and

1 brings PAGA claims “as the proxy or agent” of the State. Arias, 46 Cal. 4th at 986. Of the civil 2 penalties recovered, sixty-five percent (65%) goes to the LWDA, and the remaining thirty-five 3 percent (35%) goes to the “aggrieved employees” for collecting the penalties on behalf of the 4 State Lab. Code § 2699(m); Baumann v. Chase Inv. Servs. Corp., 747 F.3d 1117, 1123 (9th 5 Cir. 2014) (a PAGA representative’s recovery is “an incentive to perform a service to the state, 6 not restitution for wrongs done to members of the class”).

7 B. This Settlement Meets the Moniz and Kullar Approval Requirements

8 In Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc., 72 Cal. App. 5th 56, 76-77 (2021), the Court of Appeal 9 noted that in approving PAGA settlements, “the trial court conducts an ‘independent 10 assessment of the adequacy of the settlement terms,’ which requires that the court have before 11 it a record from which it can discern sufficient information about the amount in controversy 12 and the realistic range of outcomes.” Id. In so noting, the Court of Appeal cited Kullar v. Foot 13 Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 130, 133 (2008). Although Kullar is a class action 14 case, to the extent that it applies, the Kullar Court noted that a class action settlement should 15 be approved when the plaintiff has conducted sufficient discovery and the settlement is 16 reasonable in light of the strengths of the plaintiff’s claims. Here, Plaintiff addresses both 17 Kullar factors.

18 As discussed above, the only predicate claim at issue is Defendant’s alleged failure to 19 timely pay wages pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204 and 210, which require that wages be paid no 20 later than seven (7) days after the end of the pay period. As such, there is only one violation 21 per employee per pay period. Defendant provided the number of pay periods at issue to permit 22 Plaintiff to calculate maximum penalties, which is $100 per pay period pursuant to Labor Code 23 § 2699(f)(2)(A). Defendant’s maximum exposure is $120,000.00 (1,200 pay periods at issue x 24 $100 per pay period). Therefore, the $50,000 accounts for 41.67% of Defendant’s total 25 exposure. Plaintiff respectfully submits that this amount is fair, adequate and reasonable.
26 Again, Defendants deny Plaintiff’s claims and further assert that prior to Plaintiff’s filing of his 27 PAGA notice, it had updated its payroll practices insofar as Plaintiff’s claims are concerned.
28 To avoid the burden and expense of further litigation, The Parties entered into the Joint 1 Stipulation and Settlement of the PAGA Representative Action.

2 Further, while Plaintiff believes that the claims have merit, Defendant could have 3 various defenses, including that it addressed Plaintiff's claims prior to the filing of the PAGA
4 notice, acted in good faith to warrant a reduction of penalties etc. Pursuant to Labor Code § 5 2699(f)(2) the Court can decline to award PAGA penalties where "...if, based on the facts and 6 circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise, would result in an award that is unjust, 7 arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." As the California Court of Appeal has affirmed, trial 8 courts are well within their discretion to reduce PAGA penalties "for technical violations that 9 cause no injury," especially where the "violation was inadvertent." Raines v. Coastal Pac.
10 Food Distributors, Inc., 23 Cal. App. 5th 667, 681 (2018).

11 In deciding whether to award the maximum penalty amount, courts may focus on 12 whether the employer made a good faith effort to follow the law. Thurman v. Bayshore 13 Transit Management, Inc., 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112, 1136 (2012). In Thurman, the Court of 14 Appeal upheld the trial court's significant reduction of PAGA penalties by 30% because the 15 employer was not initially on notice that it was in violation of the law and because it would 16 have been unfair to award penalties where the employer was unaware of the violations. Id.
17 When the employer was made aware of the violations, it timely took steps to come into 18 compliance. Id. By contrast, the imposition of full penalties was justified when an employer 19 took a "cavalier approach to fulfilling its contractual and statutory obligations" and 20 demonstrated "reckless disregard" with respect to paying its employees. Amaral v. Cintas
21 Corp., 163 Cal. App. 4th 1157, 1214 (2008)

22 Indeed, as recently shown in the Court of Appeal's decision in Carrington v. Starbucks 23 Corp., 30 Cal. App. 5th 504 (2018), while the plaintiff prevailed on his PAGA claim upon 24 trial, the trial court reduced the maximum PAGA penalty amount by 90%, citing the 25 employer's good faith attempt at complying with the law. Id. at 517. Upon review, the Court of 26 Appeal found such reduction to be proper. Id. at 539.

27 Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully submits that he has conducted adequate discovery 28 and believes that the settlement is fair in light of Defendant's potential defenses.

1 C. The Settlement is Reasonable and Effectuates PAGA’s Objectives

2 The court’s focus in a PAGA case is not the amount that aggrieved employees will 3 ultimately receive as a result of a settlement, but instead, on whether the settlement achieves 4 PAGA’s objectives. Under PAGA, the penalties recovered are meant to supplement agency 5 funding for education and enforcement purposes. See Lab. Code § 2699(i). Here, the 6 settlement represents an extraordinary recovery for the aggrieved employees and the State, and 7 thus the settlement certainly effectuates PAGA’s purpose.

8 The settlement is also consistent with the State’s public policy favoring resolution of 9 disputes. “California law favors the settlement of disputes as our high court clarified in 10 Neary[]. Settlement is efficient; it reduces costs, saves resources, and minimizes court 11 congestion. [] The parties are best positioned to understand their interests and resolve a dispute 12 in a mutually beneficial manner without court intervention into the settlement.” Consumer 13 Advocacy Group, Inc. v. Kintetsu, 141 Cal. App. 4th 46, 62-63 (2006) (citing Neary v. Regents 14 of Univ. of Cal., 3 Cal. 4th 273, 277- 278 (1992)).

15 D. The Scope of the Release is Appropriately Limited

16 Because an aggrieved employee’s PAGA action is a substitute for an action brought by 17 the government, “judgment in [a PAGA] action is binding not only on the named employee 18 plaintiff but also on government agencies and any aggrieved employee not a party to the 19 proceeding.” Arias, 46 Cal. 4th at 986. However, “the nonparty employees, because they were 20 not given notice of the action or afforded any opportunity to be heard, would not be bound by 21 the judgment as to remedies other than civil penalties.” Id. at 987; see also, Lab. Code § 22 2699(g)(l) (non-party aggrieved employees retain all rights “to pursue or recover other 23 remedies available under state or federal law, either separately or concurrently with an action 24 taken under this part”).

25 Here, if approved, the settlement would release the Released Parties from all claims for 26 civil PAGA penalties predicated on Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, and 2698, et seq.
27 – and nothing more. See SA ¶ 35. The settlement would not impact any PAGA Member’s 28 ability to pursue PAGA claims predicated on other Labor Code violations. See id. Nor does the

1 settlement release individual wage and hour claims that PAGA Members may have against 2 Defendants. See id. Therefore, the limited scope of the release also supports approval.

3 E. The Attorneys' Fees are Reasonable

4 Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) provides for the recovery of attorneys' fees and costs in 5 any successful action brought under PAGA. Although this is not a class action, in class actions 6 California state and federal courts have recognized that an appropriate method for determining 7 award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage of the total value of benefits to class
8 members by the settlement. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 254 9 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal. 3d 25, 34 (1977) ("Serrano III"); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 10 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F. 2d 759, 769 (9th Cir.
11 1997). The purpose of this equitable doctrine is to avoid unjust enrichment of counsel and to 12 "spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary 13 does not bear the entire burden alone." Vincent, 557 F. 2d at 769.

14 The common fund doctrine is predicated on the principle of preventing unjust 15 enrichment. When a litigant's efforts create or preserve a fund from which others derive 16 benefits, he may require the passive beneficiaries to compensate those who created the fund.
17 Both California state and federal courts have embraced this doctrine. Serrano III, 20 Cal. 3d at 18 35; Vincent, 557 F. 2d at 769. Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v. Sweet, 12 Cal.
19 4th 105, 110 (1995), the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine 20 has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a 21 fund in which other persons are entitled to share." The reasons for applying the common fund 22 doctrine include: "fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit 23 because his recovery might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair 24 advantage to the others who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their share of 25 the burden of its recovery; encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant who will 26 be more willing to undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or 27 recovery of the fund if he is assured that he will be properly and directly compensated should 28 his efforts be successful." Id.

1 Indeed, the California Supreme Court has held that the award of attorneys' fees in 2 common fund wage and hour class action settlements should start with the percentage method.
3 See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 480, 503 (2016) ("We join the overwhelming 4 majority of federal and state courts in holding that when class action litigation establishes a 5 monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial court in its equitable powers 6 awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the amount of a 7 reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created.").

8 The California Supreme Court in Laffitte affirmed a fee award representing 33 1/3 9 percent of the fund. Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 506. And this was based on a lodestar amount that 10 required a multiplier of 2.13. Id. at 487. As the Court held, only when the multiplier is 11 "extraordinarily high or low [should] the trial court [] consider whether the percentage method 12 should be adjusted so as to bring the imputed multiplier within a justifiable range." Id. at 505.

13 Here, as set forth in their declarations, Plaintiff's counsel estimate that they have spent 14 at least 61.7 hours litigating this current action, and anticipate spending approximately 10 15 additional hours attending to post-settlement matters, including responding to correspondence 16 and calls and dealing with the administrator. See Gavron Decl. ¶¶ 34-39, Ex. D; Declaration of 17 Dennis S. Hyun ("Hyun Decl.") ¶ 8, Exh. A. Based thereon and based on their respective 18 hourly rates, the lodestar equates to $60,045.00, which exceeds the amount of the requested 19 fees and results in a negative multiplier of 0.27. See Gavron Decl. ¶¶ 34-39, Exh. D. Thus, the 20 requested fee amount of $16,666.67 is fair and reasonable.

21 Additionally, Plaintiff's counsel's cost reimbursement request in the amount of 22 $1,918.99 is also reasonable. See Gavron Decl. ¶ 40, Exh. E. The costs were all directly 23 incurred in the prosecution of this action, including filing fees, service of process fees, postage, 24 and other costs. See id. The costs requested are also far less than those permitted under the 25 settlement further supporting their reasonableness. As such, the requested costs should be 26 awarded as fair and reasonable.

27 F. Plaintiff's Representative Enhancement Should be Approved

28 Courts have held that named plaintiffs in class or private attorney general actions can

1 request a service award. Rodriguez v. W. Publ'g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 958-59 (9th Cir. 2009)
2 (explaining that service awards “are intended to compensate class representatives for work 3 done on behalf of the class, to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing 4 the action, and, sometimes, to recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney 5 general”) (emphasis added).

6 Here, Plaintiff seeks $5,000.00 for his service award, which is intended to compensate 7 Plaintiff for the time spent on this case, including reviewing pleadings and the potential for 8 hesitation from later prospective employers that might find out he brought this claim. See SA ¶ 9 31; Declaration of Jeff Dollarhide ¶¶ 4-5. This requested enhancement is consistent with 10 awards approved in other common fund cases. See Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co., 901 11 F. Supp. 294, 299-300 (N.D. Cal. 1995) (incentive award of $50,000); In re Dun & Bradstreet 12 Credit Servs. Customer Litig., 130 F.R.D. 366, 374 (S.D. Ohio 1990) (two incentive awards of 13 $ 55,000, and three incentive awards of $35,000); Brotherton v. Cleveland, 141 F. Supp. 2d 14 907, 913-14 (S.D. Ohio 2001) (granting a $50,000 incentive award); Enter. Energy Corp. v.
15 Columbia Gas Transmission Corp., 137 F.R.D. 240, 251-52 (S.D. Ohio 1991) ($50,000 16 awarded to each class representative); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., No. C-06-4068, 2007 U.S.
17 Dist. LEXIS 8476, at *51-52 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 27, 2007) (awarding $25,000 incentive award in 18 FLSA overtime wages class action); Cook v. Niedert, 142 F.3d 1004, 1016 (7th Cir. 1998) 19 (affirming $25,000 incentive award to class representative in ERISA case).

20 G. The Settlement Administrator’s Costs Should be Approved

21 The Parties have agreed to pay actual costs of administration, or $2,775.00, to the 22 Settlement Administrator, Phoenix Settlement Administrators, to administer this settlement.
23 See SA ¶¶ 18, 34. The Parties believe that the administration fee is reasonable and should be 24 approved.

25 H. Notice to the LWDA Has Been Provided

26 As discussed above, and concurrent with the filing of this Motion, Plaintiff uploaded 27 the instant motion to the LWDA’s website. Gavron Decl. ¶ 41, Exh. F.

1 V. CONCLUSION

2 Based on the above, Plaintiff requests the Court approve the current PAGA settlement.
