Attorneys for Plaintiff CESAR MANUEL LOPEZ-GAVINO as representative of the State of California and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, and on behalf of himself and Aggrieved Employees

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF ALAMEDA COUNTY

CESAR MANUEL LOPEZ-GAVINO on behalf of himself and all other Aggrieved Employees,

Plaintiff,

v.

QUALITY COLLISION NORCAL, LLC, a
Delaware Limited Liability company doing
Business in California; BROOKS MOTOR
CARS LLC. a California Limited Liability
Corporation and DOES 1- 50, Inclusive,

Defendant,

Case No. 25CV117806

COMPLAINT

1. Civil Penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA)

Plaintiff, Cesar Manuel Lopez-Gavino, ("Plaintiff"), as a representative of the State of California and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (LWDA), and on behalf of himself and other current or former Aggrieved Employees, complains and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a representative action brought by Plaintiff, as a representative of the State of California and the LWDA, and on behalf of himself and other Aggrieved Employees, to collect civil penalties for Defendant's Labor Code violations.

2. Defendants and employers, Quality Collision NorCal, LLC and Brooks Motor Cars LLC., (“ Collectively referred to as Defendants”), violated numerous wage and hour laws with respect to Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees by failing to provide, for example: accurate and itemized wages statements, payment for all hours worked (including regular wages and overtime), failure to provide a minimum wage, lawful meal periods, lawful rest periods, timely payment during employment, failure to reimburse for expenses incurred during the course and scope of employment, and payment upon separation of employment.

PARTIES

The Plaintiff

3. Plaintiff is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a resident of California, currently residing in Alameda County.

4. Aggrieved Employees are all former and/or current non-exempt employees holding various positions and employed by Defendant within California during the relevant time period who may have been subject to at least one or more Labor Code violations set forth in the PAGA Notice dated November 19, 2024 and attached hereto as Exhibit A (“Aggrieved Employees”).

The Defendants

5. Defendant Quality Collision NorCal, LLC., is a Delaware Limited Liability company doing business in California which, at all relevant times mentioned herein, existing, doing business and employing individuals in the County of Alameda, State of California. Plaintiff is informed and thereon alleges that Defendant exercised control over Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' wages, hours, and working conditions.

6. Defendant Brooks Motor Cars LLC., is a California Limited Liability company which, at all relevant times mentioned herein, existing, doing business and employing individuals in the County of Alameda, State of California. Plaintiff is informed and thereon alleges that

1 Defendant exercised control over Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' wages, hours, and working 2 conditions.

3 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 4 otherwise of Defendants named herein as DOES 1-50, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff at this 5 time and therefore said Defendants are sued by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will seek leave to 6 amend this Complaint to insert the true names and capacities of said Defendants when the same
7 become known to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that each of 8 the fictitiously-named Defendants are responsible for the wrongful acts alleged herein and is 9 therefore liable to Plaintiff as alleged hereinafter.

10 8. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that at all times
11 relevant, Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, employees, managing agents, 12 supervisors, conspirators, parent corporation, joint employers, alter ego, and/or joint ventures of 13 the other Defendants, and each of them, and in doing the things alleged herein, were acting at 14 least in part within the course and scope of said agency, employment, conspiracy, joint 15 employment, alter ego status, and/or joint venture and with the permission and consent of each of 16 the other Defendants.

17 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that Defendants,
18 and each of them, including those Defendants named DOES 1-50, acted in concert with one
19 another to commit the wrongful acts alleged therein, and aided, abetted, incited, compelled,
20 and/or coerced one another in the wrongful acts alleged herein, and/or attempted to do so.
21 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereupon alleges, that the Defendants, and 22 each of them, including those Defendants named as DOES 1-50, formed and executed a 23 conspiracy or common plan pursuant to which they would commit the unlawful acts alleged 24 herein, with all such acts alleged herein done as part of and pursuant to said conspiracy, intended
25 to and actually causing Plaintiff harm.
26
27
28

1 10. Whenever and wherever reference is made in this Complaint to any act or failure
2 to act by a defendant or co-defendant, such allegations and references shall also be deemed to 3 mean the acts and/or failures to act by each defendant acting individually, jointly and severally.

4 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5 11. Venue is proper in Alameda County, because Defendant maintains its locations
6 and transacts business in this county, the obligations and liability primarily arise in this county,
7 and work was primarily performed by Plaintiff and other Aggrieved Employees in this county.

8 12. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction over this matter. The individual 9 claims are under the seventy-five thousand dollar ($75,000.00) jurisdictional threshold for 10 federal court and PAGA penalties cannot be aggregated to meet the minimum jurisdictional
11 amount required for diversity removal. Further, there is no federal question at issue as the issues
12 herein are based solely on California statutes and law, including, but not limited to, the California
13 Labor Code, Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders, California Code of Civil Procedure, 14 and California Rules of Court.

15 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

16 13. Defendant is in the business of autobody shop for collision repairs on vehicles
17 such as Aston Martin, Mercedes-Benz, Tesla, Bentley, Jaguar, Maserati, Lamborghini, and Land
18 Rover. Defendant employed Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in California during the relevant
19 PAGA period. Aggrieved Employees are all former and/or current non-exempt employees
20 holding various positions and employed by Defendant within California during the relevant time
21 period who may have been subject to at least one or more Labor Code violations set forth in the 22 PAGA Notice dated November 19, 2024 and attached hereto as Exhibit A

23 14. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant as a mechanic from about January 2020 till 24 September 2024. Plaintiff's primary duties include taking cars apart such as the doors and 25 windows, conducting wheel alignments on vehicles, working on the motor of the vehicle, and 26 working on the suspension of the vehicles.

27 15. The position required Plaintiff to work more than 8 hours a day and/or 40 hours
28 per week without lawful compensation. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were regularly not

1 paid for minimum wages and overtime for compensable work time spent under the control of
2 Defendant, including off-the-clock work which was in excess of regularly scheduled, eight-hour
3 daily shifts.

4 16. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not paid for all compensable work time
5 at the correct regular rate of pay for any premium payments. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees
6 received non-discretionary pay including but not limited to payments identified as “Bonus-Sup”
7 that was not included in their regular rate calculations for premium payments.

8 17. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were subject to not having all their 9 compensable work time recorded due to Defendant’s lack of adequate staffing. Not all of Plaintiff
10 and Aggrieved Employees’ compensable work time spent under the control of Defendant was 11 accounted for and compensated. Specifically, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant
12 (1) adjusted clock in and clock out times to the disadvantage of Plaintiff and other Aggrieved
13 Employees by rounding up clock-in times when Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees clocked-in 14 before the scheduled start of their respective shifts and rounded down clock-out times when 15 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees worked past the scheduled end time for their shifts, as well
16 as (2) requiring Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to continue working when ostensibly on 17 duty-free meal periods, or requiring them to return to work before the end of their thirty-minute
18 meal periods but prohibiting them from clocking back in until the legally required thirty-minute
19 mark.

21 18. Based on information and belief, Plaintiff believes he and Aggrieved Employees 22 were also not being reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their 23 job duties. Specifically, Defendant required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, regardless of 24 classification, to use their personal cellular telephones to communicate with colleagues and 25 supervisors in the course of performing their respective duties but failed to reimburse them for 26 use of the personal cellular devices nor the consumption of personal calling. Specifically,
27 Plaintiff used their telephone to communicate with fellow co-workers and supervisors regarding 28 their job duties. Plaintiff was also required to download an application such as CCC One Repair

Facility on to their personal cell phones to upload photos of the vehicles they worked on without reimbursement.

19. Defendant failed to authorize and permit all required meal and rest periods for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintained unlawful meal/rest period policies and practices. In order to curtail labor costs, Defendant regularly did not staff enough employees to provide sufficient coverage to maintain their business operations so Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees could not both complete their assigned daily duties and take complete, timely and uninterrupted meal and rest breaks. Defendant prioritized completion of daily duties and customer satisfaction ahead of meal and rest period compliance. Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with an additional hour of premium pay at the regular rate of pay for each meal/rest period violation, as required by Labor Code section 226.7.

20. As a result of the violations described above, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees experienced collateral or derivative violations. Specifically, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees accurate itemized wage statements in writing in compliance with Labor Code section 226 and failed to compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all wages owed at the time employment with Defendant had ended.

21. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for violation of the code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code section 2699.3.

22. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, Labor Code section 2699, subdivision (f) imposes upon Defendant a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each Aggrieved Employee per pay period

1 for each subsequent pay period in which Defendant violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

2 23. Defendant's conduct during the PAGA period with respect to Plaintiff and
3 Aggrieved Employees violates numerous Labor Code sections as detailed herein.

4 24. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant has engaged in a systematic pattern of wage and 5 hour violations under the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders.

6 25. At all relevant times herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff and Aggrieved
7 Employees who were subject to the employment policies described herein, in whole or in part,
8 and therefore suffered at least one or more of the violations set forth herein.

9 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
10 or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive wages
11 for all hours worked, including the applicable minimum, regular, and overtime wages, and that 12 they were not receiving all wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation
13 of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved
14 Employees for all hours worked. Accordingly, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved
15 Employees all earned minimum, regular, and/or overtime compensation.
16

17 27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
18 or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
19 required meal periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and Aggrieved
20 Employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty meal
21 period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant had a pattern, practice,
22 and policy of not providing timely meal periods. Defendant failed to pay an additional hour of 23 pay to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for late meal periods. As a result of Defendant's
24 unlawful policy and practice, Plaintiff and aggrieved employees did not receive all meal periods
25 or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' regular 26 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted 30 minute off-duty meal period.

27 28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
28 or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all

1 required rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff and Aggrieved
2 Employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted off-duty rest
3 period. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Defendant had a pattern, practice,
4 and policy of not providing timely rest periods. Defendant failed to pay an additional hour of 5 pay to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for each rest periods were not provided or was 6 interrupted. As a result of Defendant's unlawful policy and practice, Plaintiff and Aggrieved
7 Employees did not receive all required rest periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay
8 at Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' regular rate of pay when they did not receive a timely,
9 uninterrupted 10 minute off-duty rest period.

11 29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
12 or should have known that Plaintiff and certain Aggrieved Employees were entitled to timely
13 payment of wages due upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff
14 and certain Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages due, within permissible
15 time periods, upon separation of employment.

16 30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant knew
17 or should have known that Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive itemized
18 wage statements that accurately showed their actual hours worked, total hours worked, number
19 of hours worked at each hourly rate, gross and net wages earned, and correct employer
20 information in accordance with California law. As a result of the wage violations specified
21 above, and in violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not provided
22 with accurate itemized wage statements that accurately reported their gross and net wages
23 earned, total hours worked, each applicable rate of pay in effect during the pay period with the 24 corresponding number of hours worked, and the address of the legal entity that is the employer,
25 among other things.

26 Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant knew or should have 27 known that Defendant was required to maintain accurate records of the hours worked by Plaintiff
28 and Aggrieved Employees. In violation of the Labor Code, Defendant failed to maintain accurate

1 records of hours worked by Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees due to its off-the-clock and/or 2 unfair rounding practices, among other things.

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act,
5 Labor Code § 2699 et seq., For Violations of the Labor Code)

6 31. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the preceding paragraphs of this 7 Complaint as if fully alleged herein.

8 32. By this complaint, Plaintiff brings this case as a representative action seeking
9 penalties for himself, the Aggrieved Employees, and the State of California in a representative
10 capacity, as provided by the PAGA, Labor Code sections 2698 et seq. Plaintiff is an Aggrieved
11 Employee who was employed by Defendant and subject to at least one of the Labor Code
12 violations set forth in Labor Code section 2699.5. Plaintiff specifically alleged the following in 13 their notice to the LWDA and Defendants: violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 14 226, 226.3, 226.7, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198 and 15 2802.

16 33. Under Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), a plaintiff may bring a cause
17 of action under PAGA only after giving the LWDA and the employer notice of the Labor Code
18 sections alleged to have been violated, and after receiving notice from the LWDA of its intention
19 not to investigate, or after 65 days have passed without notice from the LWDA.

20 34. Prior to filing this complaint, on November 19, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice 21 of the specific provisions alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 22 support the alleged violations, as required by Labor Code section 2699.3 to Defendants Brooks
23 Motor Cars LLC and Quality Collision NorCal LLC. The written notice was given via certified 24 mail to Defendant, and the LWDA by electronically filing the notice via the Department of 25 Industrial Relations website. Plaintiff was given an LWDA case number of LWDA-CM-
26 1062446-24 and LWDA-CM-1062439-24. True and correct copies of Plaintiff's notices to the 27 LWDA and Defendant are attached hereto as Exhibit A.
28

35. The LWDA has not provided Plaintiff with any notice that it intends to investigate the violations as alleged in Plaintiff's notices, and more than 65 calendar days have elapsed since the postmark date on the latter notice.

36. California Labor Code §§2698-2699.5, in relevant part provides, “any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency...for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an Aggrieved Employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

37. As an Aggrieved Employee, Plaintiff brings this civil action to recover civil penalties for Defendant's Labor Code violations.

First Violation

(Failure to Provide Meal Periods, in Violation of Labor Code Section 512)

38. Under California Labor Code §512(a), “An employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.”

39. Defendant violated Labor Code § 512 by failing to provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees who worked shifts of greater than five hours, uninterrupted and/or timely meal periods within the first five hours of the shifts worked. Defendant furthermore, did not provide the requisite second meal period after Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees worked more than 10 hours.

40. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff one hour's pay at Plaintiff's regular rate of pay for each day Defendant failed to provide a meal period in compliance with section 512.

1 Second Violation

2 (Failure to Provide Rest Periods, in Violation of Labor Code Section 226.7)

3 41. Under California Labor Code §226.7(b), “An employer shall not require an 4 employee to work during a meal or rest or recovery period mandated pursuant to an applicable
5 statute, or applicable regulation, standard, or order of the Industrial Welfare Commission”

6 42. Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) provides, “Every employer shall authorize 7 and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle
8 of each work period. The authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked 9 daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof.”

10 43. Defendant failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to 11 take rest periods and mandated by the Wage Order.

12 44. Under §226.7(c), an employer who violates §226.7(b), “...shall pay the employee 13 one additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of compensation for each workday that 14 the meal or rest or recovery period is not provided.”

15 45. Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees who were not 16 provided rest periods one hour of pay at their regular rate of pay.

17 Third Violation

18 (Failure to Provide Complete and Accurate Wage Statements, 19 in Violation of Labor Code Section 226)

20 46. Under California Labor Code §226(a), an employer is legally obligated to provide 21 its employees, semi-monthly or at the time of payment of wages, “an accurate itemized statement
22 in writing...”. Defendants have not complied with all requirements of California Labor Code 23 §226(a).

25 47. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
26 for Defendant’s Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney’s fees and costs, under 27 Labor Code § 2699.
28

1 Fourth Violation

2 (Failure to Pay Overtime Wages)

3 48. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and IWC Wage Orders, an 4 employer is required to compensate employees for all overtime, which is calculated at one and
5 one-half (1½) times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per 6 day and/or forty (40) hours per week, and for the first eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive 7 workday, with double time for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any workday
8 and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh consecutive day of work in 9 any workweek.

10 49. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
11 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
12 Labor Code § 2699.

13 Fifth Violation

14 (Failure to Pay Minimum Wages)

15 50. Pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and IWC Wage Orders, 16 payment to an employee of less than the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked in a 17 payroll period is unlawful.

18 51. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
19 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
20 Labor Code § 2699.

21 Sixth Violation

22 (Failure to Timely Pay Wages During Employment)

23 52. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 204, for all labor performed between the 1st 24 and 15th days of any calendar month, an employer is required to pay its employees between the 25 16th and 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed. California Labor Code §
26 204 also provides that for all labor performed between the 16th and 26th days of any calendar
27 month, Defendant was required to pay their employees between the 1st and 15th day of the 28

1 following calendar month. In addition, California Labor Code § 204 provides that all wages
2 earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday of the 3 next regular payroll period.

4 53. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
5 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
6 Labor Code § 2699.

7 Seventh Violation

8 (Failure to Pay All Wages Due to Discharged and Quitting Employees)

9 54. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 201, 202, and 203, Defendant is required to 10 pay all earned and unpaid wages to an employee who is discharged. California Labor Code § 11 201 mandates that if an employer discharges an employee, the employee's wages accrued and 12 unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately.

13 55. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties
14 for Defendant's Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
15 Labor Code § 2699.

16 Eighth Violation

17 Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses in Violation of Labor Code § 2802

18 (Against all Defendants and DOES 1 to 50, inclusive)

19 56. Labor Code § 2802 provides that an employer shall indemnify his or her 20 employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 21 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of 22 the employer.

23 57. Defendants failed to indemnify and reimburse Plaintiff for all necessary
24 expenditures or losses incurred by Plaintiff in direct consequence of the discharge of Plaintiff's 25 job duties.

26 58. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2802, Plaintiff is entitled to recover business expenses
27 incurred as a result of discharging his duties, including interest.

28 59. Plaintiff, on behalf of the State of California and the LWDA, seeks civil penalties

1 for Defendants' Labor Code violations alleged herein, as well as attorney's fees and costs, under
2 Labor Code § 2699.

4 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 6 1. For penalties in an amount according to proof;
7 2. For reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to PAGA; and 8 3. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

SUBJECT CESAR MANUEL LOPEZ-GAVINO v. QUALITY COLLISION NORCAL LLC and BROOKS MOTOR CARS, LLC —NOTICE OF LABOR CODE VIOLATIONS UNDER
CAL. LABOR CODE §2699.3

Dear Representative:

This office represents CESAR MANUEL LOPEZ-GAVINO (“Mr. Lopez-Gavino” or Complainant) with respect to their claims against QUALITY COLLISION NORCAL LLC and BROOKS MOTOR CARS LLC (“Employer”) for violations of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders. This letter is being sent simultaneously to Employers by certified mail. Employers jointly exercised control over the wages, hours, or working conditions, directly or indirectly of the Complainant and Aggrieved Employees and are thus jointly and severally liable.

Employers are a corporation doing business in the State of California. Employers employed Mr. Lopez-Gavino from approximately January 2020, until their last date of employment of approximately September 2024. During their employment with Employers, Mr. Lopez-Gavino was employed as a “mechanic” at Employers’ autobody shop located at 9829 Bigge St Oakland, CA 94603.

Mr. Lopez-Gavino intends to seek penalties for violations of the California Labor Code which are recoverable under California Labor Code section 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”). Mr. Lopez-Gavino is seeking penalties on behalf of themselves and in a representative capacity on behalf of the State of California and all current and former non-exempt/hourly employees of any of the Employers working within California holding various positions who experienced the same violations as themselves as set forth in this notice.

("Aggrieved Employees"). This letter is being sent in compliance with California Labor Code section 2699.3.

As detailed below, Employers violated several of California's wage and hour laws during Complainant's employment, including but not limited to violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 227.3, 510, 512(a), 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("IWC Wage Order"). The claims made on behalf of Complainant and Aggrieved Employees are based upon the following facts and theories:

1. FAILURE TO PAY FOR ALL TIME WORKED AT CORRECT RATES OF PAY, INCLUDING MINIMUM WAGES, STRAIGHT TIME WAGES, AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION.

Employers have engaged in numerous unlawful practices which resulted in the failure to pay Complainant and Aggrieved Employees for all time worked at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were provided non-discretionary pay, including, but not limited to of "Bonus-Sup" that was not incorporated in their regular rate of pay thus causing underpayment of wages and premium payments, including but not limited to rest and meal period premiums and overtime compensation.

First, Employers regularly required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock in order to complete their duties and responsibilities. This off-the-clock work included, amongst other things, requiring Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to: (1) respond to Employers and work-related requests and perform work while clocked out for purported meal breaks; (2) perform work before clocking in for the start of their shift; and (3) perform work after clocking out for the end of their shift. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not compensated for this off-the-clock work, resulting in a failure to pay minimum wages and straight time wages.

Employers also failed to accurately record the actual time worked by Complainant and Aggrieved Employees. Finally, and as a matter of policy and/or practice, Employers failed to pay overtime to Complainant and Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration and all compensable work time.

As a result of the foregoing practices, Employers have failed to pay Complainant and Aggrieved Employees all owed wages for all wages earned at the correct rates of pay, including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime compensation. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 204, 510, 1194, 1197, 1197.1 and 1198.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of the applicable IWC Wage Order; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 558, 1197.1, and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

2. FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS AND PAY MEAL PERIOD PREMIUMS

Employers required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work more than five (5) hours per day but were not provided with uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods. Further, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted 30-minute meal period when they worked over ten (10) hours per day. Employers regularly required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work through their first and second meal periods, to take their first meal period after their fifth (5th) hour of work, and/or to take their second meal periods after their tenth (10th) hour of work. On the occasions that Complainant and Aggrieved Employees did take a meal period, their meal periods were frequently interrupted or cut short.

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Complainant and Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, complete and duty-free meal periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of meal periods or systematically disregarded its own purported meal period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all non-exempt/hourly employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant meal period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant meal periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods; and (6) Employers' policy and culture prevented Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal periods.

Accordingly, Employers violated of the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), 512(a) and 1198.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties of the applicable IWC Wage Order; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

3. FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE AND PERMIT REST PERIODS AND PAY REST PERIOD PREMIUMS.

Employers failed to authorize and permit Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant 10-minute periods. Employers required Complainant and Aggrieved Employees to work through rest periods. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with uninterrupted, duty-free rest periods when they worked more than four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof. Further, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not provided with a second uninterrupted, duty-free rest period when they worked more than six (6) hours in a day, or a third uninterrupted, duty-free rest period after working more than ten (10) hours in day. In the rare event that a rest period was taken, it was frequently interrupted or cut short. Moreover, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were never completely relieved of duty as required by Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 2 Cal.5th 257 (2016).

Employers' policies, practices, and procedures were responsible for the violations alleged above and prevented Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and complete rest periods because, amongst other reasons: (1) Employers did not have legally-compliant policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods or systematically disregarded its own purported rest period policies; (2) Employers' management at various levels, affecting all hourly-non-exempt employees, failed and refused to implement and enforce legally compliant rest period policies and practices; (3) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees regarding their right to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (4) Employers failed to adequately inform and train Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees about their right to premium wages for non-compliant rest periods; (5) Employers failed to ensure that there was adequate staffing to allow Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees to take timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods; (6) Employers required Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees to remain on-call and respond to work-related requests at all times, including during rest periods, which included responding to in person verbal interruptions; and (7) Employers' policy and culture prevented Complainant and other Aggrieved Employees from taking timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free rest periods because of the priority placed on completing job requirements over employees' right to receive rest periods.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees did not receive an extra hour of wages at their regular rate of pay for the rest periods which were not provided to them in compliance with California law.

Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7(a), and 1198.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order; California Labor Code sections 558 and 1199 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

4. FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY WAGES DURING EMPLOYMENT.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 204(a).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

5. FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE TO DISCHARGED AND QUITTING EMPLOYEES.

As to each pay period, Employers have failed to timely pay all wages earned because Complainant Aggrieved Employees were not paid all the wages they were owed including, inter alia, overtime compensation, straight time wages, and meal and rest period premiums. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 201(a), 202(a) and 203(a).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code sections 210 and 1199; and attorneys' fees and costs.

6. FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS.

As a result of the practices described above, the wage statements provided to Complainant and Aggrieved Employees never included the actual hours worked as the time worked was detrimentally rounded, the correct name and address of the legal employing entity, and the correct rates of pay. Accordingly, Employers violated California Labor Code section 226(a).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties; penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.3; and attorneys' fees and costs.

7. FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE RECORDS.

Employers have failed to maintain accurate records relating to Complainant and Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours worked, and total hours worked per payroll period. Accordingly, Employers violated the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 1198.5 and 1174(d).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order; California Labor Code section 1174.5 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

8. FAILURE TO REIMBURSE NECESSARY EXPENDITURES.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employees for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer. IWC Wage Order requires employers to provide employees with the tools or equipment necessary for the performance of their job. During the relevant time period, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Employers. These costs include but are not limited to the use of Complainant and Aggrieved Employees personal use of their cell phones to communicate with fellow co-workers and supervisors regarding their job duties. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were also required to download an application on to their personal cell phones to upload photos of the vehicles they worked on.

Without reimbursement, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were required to purchase their own specialized tools to perform their job duties as required by Employer without full reimbursement.

Without reimbursement Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were required to drive their personal vehicles to Defendants other vehicle auto body locations located in Dublin California and Walnut Creek California. These locations were outside the usual scope of their place of employment and this time was not compensated for all wages.

Without reimbursement, Complainant and Aggrieved Employees were directed and required to purchase their own mechanics jumpsuit. Employer then sewed on their own embroidered patches with the with the company name "Brooks Motor Cars" and their logo. Complainant and Aggrieved Employees washed and maintained Employers uniforms without reimbursement nor were they compensated with wages for the time spent maintaining Employers uniforms.

Accordingly, Employers violated IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; penalties pursuant to paragraph (20)(A) of IWC Wage Order; and attorneys' fees and costs.

9. FAILURE TO PAY VACATION TIME.

Pursuant to California Labor Code section 227.3, ". . . whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served." During the relevant time period, Employers failed to pay Complainant and other

Aggrieved Employees for all earned and unused and accrued vacation time at their final rate of pay at the time of termination of their employment. Accordingly, Employers have violated California Labor Code section 227.3.

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA default penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; California Labor Code section 227 penalties; and attorneys' fees and costs.

10. FAILURE TO PAY SICK TIME.

Pursuant to California Labor Code section 246(l), all sick pay must be paid at the regular rate of pay. Employers have failed to pay Complainant and Aggrieved Employees their sick pay at the correct rate of pay. Accordingly, Employers have violated California Labor Code section 246(l).

Complainant and Aggrieved Employees will therefore seek PAGA penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 2699; California Labor Code section 227 penalties; relief under California Labor Code 248.5, and attorneys' fees and costs.
