10 Attorneys for Plaintiffs Savan Kourm and Jennifer L Cedergren, 11 individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated.

12 SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
13 FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN JOAQUIN

14 SAVAN KOURM, individually, and on 15 behalf of all others similarly situated,

16 Plaintiffs,

17 v.

18 WESTCARE CALIFORNIA, INC.; and
19 DOES 1 through 20, inclusive,

20 Defendants.

Case No. STK-CV-UOE-2024-0009524

*Assigned for All Purposes to:
Judge George J. Abdallah; Dept. 10A*

[Amended as a matter of right, pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3(a)(2)(C)]

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Pay Minimum Wages;
2. Failure to Pay Overtime Wages;
3. Failure to Provide Meal Periods;
4. Failure to Permit Rest Breaks;
5. Failure to Reimburse Business Expenses;
6. Failure to Provide Accurate Itemized Wage Statements;
7. Failure to Pay All Wages Due Upon Separation of Employment;
8. Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.; and
9. Enforcement of Labor Code § 2698 et seq. ("PAGA")

1 Plaintiffs Savan Kourm and Jennifer L Cedergren, individually and on behalf of others
2 similarly situated, allege as follows:

3 NATURE OF ACTION AND INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

4 1. Plaintiffs Savan Kourm and Jennifer L Cedergren (“Plaintiffs”) bring this putative
5 class action and representative action pursuant to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal.
6 Lab. Code. § 2698 et seq., against defendants WestCare California, Inc., and DOES 1 through
7 20, inclusive (collectively, “Defendants”), on Plaintiff’s own behalf and on behalf of persons
8 who are and were employed by any or all Defendants as non-exempt employees throughout 9 California.

10 2. Defendants provide services or goods throughout California.

11 3. Through this action, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants engaged in a systematic 12 pattern of wage and hour violations under the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare
13 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Orders, all of which contribute to Defendants’ deliberate unfair 14 competition.

15 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants have 16 increased their profits by violating state wage and hour laws by, among other things:

- 17 (a) failing to pay all wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages);
- 18 (b) failing to provide lawful meal periods or compensation in lieu thereof;
- 19 (c) failing to authorize or permit lawful rest breaks or provide compensation 20 in lieu thereof;
- 21 (d) failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs;
- 22 (e) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;
- 23 (f) failing to pay wages timely during employment; and
- 24 (g) failing to pay all wages due upon separation of employment.

25 5. Plaintiffs seek monetary relief against Defendants on behalf of Plaintiffs and all
26 others similarly situated in California to recover, among other things, unpaid wages, un-27 reimbursed business expenses, benefits, interest, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, and 28 penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 246, 510, 512,

1 558, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, 2802, 2698, et seq., and 2 Code of California Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

3 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4 6. This is a class action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. The 5 monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of 6 the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

7 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California
8 Constitution, Article VI, § 10, which grants the Superior Court original jurisdiction in all causes
9 except those given by statutes to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 10 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

11 8. This Court has jurisdiction over all Defendants because, upon information and 12 belief, they are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 13 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 14 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 15 substantial justice.

16 9. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants
17 reside, transact business, or have offices in this county, and the acts and omissions alleged herein
18 took place in this county.

19 THE PARTIES

20 10. Plaintiff Savan Kourm is a resident of California and worked for Defendants 21 during the relevant time periods as alleged herein.

22 11. Plaintiff Jennifer L Cedergren is a resident of California and worked for 23 Defendants during the relevant time periods as alleged herein.

24 12. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege that at all times hereinafter
25 mentioned, Defendants were and are subject to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders as 26 employers, whose employees were and are engaged throughout this county and the State of 27 California.

1 13. Plaintiffs are unaware of the true names or capacities of the defendants sued
2 herein under the fictitious names DOES 1 through 20, but will seek leave of this Court to amend
3 this Complaint and serve such fictitiously named defendants once their names and capacities
4 become known.

5 14. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that DOES 1 through 20
6 are or were the partners, agents, owners, shareholders, managers, or employees of Defendants at 7 all relevant times.

8 15. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each defendant acted 9 in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendant, carried out a joint 10 scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each defendant
11 are legally attributable to the other defendant. Furthermore, defendants in all respects acted as the 12 employer and/or joint employer of Plaintiffs and the class members.

13 16. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each and all of the 14 acts and omissions alleged herein were performed by, or are attributable to, Defendants and/or 15 DOES 1 through 20, acting as the agent or alter ego for the other, with legal authority to act on 16 the other's behalf. The acts of any and all Defendants were in accordance with, and represent, the 17 official policy of Defendants.

18 17. At all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, acted within the scope of 19 such agency or employment, or ratified each and every act or omission complained of herein. At 20 all relevant times, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of 21 each and all the other Defendants in proximately causing the damages herein alleged.

22 18. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that each of said
23 Defendants is in some manner intentionally, negligently, or otherwise responsible for the acts, 24 omissions, occurrences, and transactions alleged herein.

25 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

26 19. Plaintiffs bring this action under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 on Plaintiff's own
27 behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated who were affected by Defendants' Labor
28 Code, Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, and IWC Wage Order violations.

1 20. All claims alleged herein arise under California law for which Plaintiffs seek
2 relief authorized by California law.

3 21. Plaintiffs' proposed class consists of and is defined as follows:

4 Class

5 All California citizens currently or formerly employed by any or all Defendants as 6 non-exempt employees in the State of California at any time between April 1,
7 2023 and the date of class certification ("Class").

8 22. Plaintiffs also seek to certify the following subclasses of employees:

9 Waiting Time Subclass

10 All members of the Class who separated their employment with any or all
11 Defendants at any time between April 1, 2023 and the date of class certification
12 ("Waiting Time Subclass").

13 23. Plaintiffs reserve the right to modify or re-define the Class, establish additional 14 subclasses, or modify or re-define any class or subclass definition as appropriate based on 15 investigation, discovery, and specific theories of liability.

16 24. Members of the Class and the Waiting Time Subclass described above will be 17 collectively referred to as "Class Members."

18 25. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class Members that 19 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members including, but not limited to,
20 the following:

21 (a) Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members all wages 22 (including minimum wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked by 23 Plaintiffs and Class Members.

24 (b) Whether Defendants required Plaintiffs and Class Members to work over 25 eight (8) hours per day, over twelve (12) hours per day, and/or over forty 26 (40) hours per week and failed to pay them proper overtime compensation 27 for all overtime hours worked.

- 1 (c) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and Class Members of timely
2 meal periods or required Plaintiffs and Class Members to work through 3 meal periods without legal compensation.
- 4 (d) Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiffs and Class Members of rest breaks
5 or required Plaintiffs and Class Members to work through rest breaks.
- 6 (e) Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and Class Members for 7 necessary business-related costs expended for the benefit of Defendants.
- 8 (f) Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and Class Members 9 accurate itemized wage statements.
- 10 (g) Whether Defendants failed to pay wages timely to Plaintiffs and Class
11 Members;
- 12 (h) Whether Defendants failed to timely pay the Waiting Time Subclass all 13 wages due upon termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of 14 resignation.
- 15 (i) Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless.
- 16 (j) Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 17 Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.

18 26. There is a well-defined community of interest in this litigation and the proposed 19 Class and subclasses are readily ascertainable:

20 (a) Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all
21 members is impractical. Although the members of the Class are unknown to Plaintiffs at this 22 time, on information and belief, the Class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals.
23 The identities of the Class Members are readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants'
24 employment and payroll records.

25 (b) Typicality: Plaintiff's claims (or defenses, if any) are typical of the claims
26 (or defenses, if any) of the Class Members because Defendants' failure to comply with the 27 provisions of California's wage and hour laws entitled each Class Member to similar pay,
28 benefits, and other relief. The injuries sustained by Plaintiffs are also typical of the injuries

1 sustained by the Class Members, because they arise out of and are caused by Defendants'
2 common course of conduct as alleged herein.

3 (c) Adequacy: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent and protect the 4 interests of all Class Members because it is in Plaintiff's best interest to prosecute the claims
5 alleged herein to obtain full compensation and penalties due. Plaintiff's attorneys, as proposed 6 class counsel, are competent and experienced in litigating large employment class actions and 7 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiffs have 8 incurred and, throughout the duration of this action, will continue to incur attorneys' fees and 9 costs that have been and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the 10 substantial benefit of the Class Members.

11 (d) Superiority: The nature of this action makes use of class action
12 adjudication superior to other methods. A class action will achieve economies of time, effort, and 13 expense as compared with separate lawsuits and will avoid inconsistent outcomes because the 14 same issues can be adjudicated in the same manner for the entire Class and Waiting Time
15 Subclass at the same time. If appropriate, this Court can, and is empowered to, fashion methods 16 to efficiently manage this case as a class action.

17 (e) Public Policy Considerations: Employers in the State of California violate
18 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights
19 out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. Former employees are fearful of bringing actions 20 because they believe their former employers might damage their future endeavors through 21 negative references and/or other means. Class actions provide class members who are not named 22 in the complaint with a type of anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights while 23 affording them privacy protections.

24 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

25 27. At all relevant times mentioned herein, Defendants employed Plaintiffs and other 26 California residents as non-exempt employees throughout California.

27 28. Defendants continue to employ non-exempt employees within California.

1 29. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all times herein
2 mentioned, Defendants were advised by skilled lawyers, employees, and other professionals who
3 were knowledgeable about California's wage and hour laws, employment and personnel
4 practices, and the requirements of California law.

5 30. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or 6 should have known that Plaintiffs and Class Members were entitled to receive wages for all time
7 worked (including minimum wages and overtime wages) and that they were not receiving all 8 wages earned for work that was required to be performed. In violation of the Labor Code and 9 IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and Class Members were not paid all wages (including minimum 10 wages and overtime wages) for all hours worked at the correct rate and within the correct time.

11 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or 12 should have known that Plaintiffs and Class Members were entitled to receive all required meal
13 periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular 14 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period. In violation of the 15 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and Class Members did not receive all meal
16 periods or payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular 17 rate of pay when they did not receive a timely, uninterrupted meal period.

18 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or 19 should have known that Plaintiffs and Class Members were entitled to receive all rest breaks or 20 payment of one (1) additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay
21 when a rest break was late, missed, or interrupted. In violation of the Labor Code and IWC Wage
22 Orders, Plaintiffs and Class Members did not receive all rest breaks or payment of one (1)
23 additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and Class Members' regular rate of pay when a rest break
24 was missed, late, or interrupted.

25 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or 26 should have known that Plaintiffs and Class Members were entitled to reimbursement and/or 27 indemnification for all necessary business expenditures or losses as a direct consequence of the 28 discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the directions of Defendants. In violation of the

1 Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and Class Members incurred necessary business
2 expenses or losses, but were not reimbursed nor indemnified of such expenses or losses that were 3 incurred as a direct consequence of the discharge of their duties, or of their obedience to the 4 directions of Defendants.

5 34. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or 6 should have known that Plaintiffs and Class Members were entitled to receive itemized wage
7 statements that accurately showed the following information pursuant to the Labor Code: (1)
8 gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by the employee; (3) the number of piece-rate units
9 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis; (4) all
10 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be 11 aggregated and shown as one item; (5) net wages earned; (6) the inclusive dates of the period for 12 which the employee is paid; (7) the name of the employee and only the last four digits of his or 13 her social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security
14 number; (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer; and (9) all applicable 15 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 16 each hourly rate by the employee. In violation of the Labor Code, Plaintiffs and Class Members 17 were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

18 35. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or 19 should have known that the Waiting Time Subclass was entitled to timely payment of wages due
20 upon separation of employment. In violation of the Labor Code, the Waiting Time Subclass did 21 not receive payment of all wages within the permissible time periods.

22 36. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants knew or 23 should have known they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and Class Members, and Defendants
24 had the financial ability to pay such compensation but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally
25 failed to do so in order to increase Defendants' profits.

26 37. Therefore, Plaintiffs bring this lawsuit seeking monetary and injunctive relief
27 against Defendants on Plaintiff's own behalf and on behalf of all Class Members to recover,
28 among other things, unpaid wages (including minimum wages and overtime wages), unpaid meal

1 period premium payments, unpaid rest period premium payments, unreimbursed business
2 expenditures, interest, attorneys' fees, penalties, costs, and expenses.

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

5 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 1194, 1194.2, and 1197; Violation of IWC Wage Order §3-4)

6 38. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
7 though fully set forth herein.

8 39. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197 provide that the minimum wage for employees
9 fixed by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser 10 wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

11 40. Plaintiffs and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of Labor
12 Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

13 41. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class
14 Members all wages owed when Defendants did not pay minimum wage for all hours worked.

15 42. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay at least minimum wage
16 to Plaintiffs and Class Members for all hours worked pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197.

17 43. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members the required minimum
18 wage violates Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1197. Pursuant to these sections, Plaintiffs and Class
19 Members are entitled to recover the unpaid balance of their minimum wage compensation as 20 well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

21 44. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to 22 recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and the accrued
23 interest thereon.

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME

26 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 510, 1194, and 1198; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 3)

27 45. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
28 though fully set forth herein.

1 46. Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is 2 unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either one and one-half
3 (1½) or two (2) times the person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours
4 worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

5 47. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that Defendants are and 6 were required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and Class Members at the rate of one
7 and one-half times (1½) their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in 8 excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek and for the first 9 eight (8) hours of work on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

10 48. The applicable IWC Wage Orders further provide that Defendants are and were 11 required to pay overtime compensation to Plaintiffs and Class Members at a rate of two times 12 their regular rate of pay when working and for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in 13 a day or in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

14 49. California Labor Code § 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one
15 and one-half (1½) times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a
16 day or forty (40) hours in a week and for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh
17 consecutive day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours 18 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the 19 seventh day of work in a workweek.

20 50. Labor Code § 510 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders provide that employment
21 of more than six days in a workweek is only permissible if the employer pays proper overtime
22 compensation as set forth herein.

23 51. Plaintiffs and Class Members were employees entitled to the protections of 24 California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194.

25 52. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiffs and Class
26 Members to work in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, forty (40) hours in a week, and/or on a 27 seventh consecutive day of work, entitling them to overtime wages.

53. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members overtime wages for all overtime hours worked. To the extent these hours qualify for the payment of overtime wages, Plaintiffs and Class Members were not paid proper overtime wages.

54. In violation of California law, Defendants knowingly and willfully refused to perform their obligations and compensate Plaintiffs and Class Members for all wages earned and all hours worked.

55. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California law, violates the provisions of Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

56. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to recover their unpaid overtime and double time compensation as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 11)

57. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

58. Labor Code § 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.

59. Section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states, “[n]o employer shall employ any person for a work period of more than five (5) hours without a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, except that when a work period of not more than six (6) hours will complete the day’s work the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee.”

60. Labor Code § 512(a) provides that an employer may not require, cause, or permit an employee to work for a period of more than five (5) hours in a day without providing the employee with an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if

1 the total work period per day of the employee is not more than six (6) hours, the meal period may 2 be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and the employee.

3 61. Labor Code § 512(a) also provides that an employer may not employ an employee
4 for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a
5 second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no
6 more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the 7 employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

8 62. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and Class Members worked more than 9 five (5) or ten (10) hours and did not receive all compliant meal periods because their meal
10 periods were missed, late, short, interrupted, and/or they were not permitted to take a second 11 meal period.

12 63. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order require 13 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of 14 compensation for each work day that a compliant meal period is not provided.

15 64. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members meal
16 period premiums for missed, late, and/or short meal periods pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7(b)
17 and section 11 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

18 65. As a result of Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members an 19 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant meal period was not provided, Plaintiffs and 20 Class Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

21 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FAILURE TO PERMIT REST BREAKS

23 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7; Violation of IWC Wage Order § 12)

24 66. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
25 though fully set forth herein.

26 67. Labor Code § 226.7(a) provides that no employer shall require an employee to 27 work during any rest period mandated by the IWC Wage Orders.
28

1 68. Section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order states “[e]very employer shall 2 authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in 3 the middle of each work period[,]” and the “[a]uthorized rest period time shall be based on the 4 total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) hours or major
5 fraction thereof[,]” unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3½) hours.

6 69. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and Class Members did not receive all
7 ten (10) minute rest periods for every four (4) hours or major fraction thereof worked, including 8 working in excess of ten (10) hours, because they were required to work through their rest 9 periods and/or were not authorized to take their rest periods.

10 70. Labor Code § 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order requires 11 an employer to pay an employee one (1) additional hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of 12 compensation for each work day that a compliant rest period is not provided.

13 71. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members rest
14 period premiums for missed, late, and/or interrupted rest periods pursuant to Labor Code §
15 226.7(b) and section 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

16 72. As a result of Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiffs and Class Members an
17 additional hour of pay for each day a compliant rest period was not provided, Plaintiffs and Class
18 Members suffered and continue to suffer a loss of wages and compensation.

19 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE BUSINESS EXPENSES

21 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2800, 2802)

22 73. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
23 though fully set forth herein.

24 74. Labor Code § 2800 states that “[a]n employer shall in all cases indemnify his 25 employee for losses caused by the employer’s want of ordinary care.”

26 75. Labor Code § 2802(a) states that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his or her 27 employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 28

1 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of 2 the employer”

3 76. Labor Code § 2802(b) states that “[a]ll awards made by a court . . . for 4 reimbursement of necessary expenditures under this section shall carry interest at the same rate
5 as judgments in civil actions. Interest shall accrue from the date on which the employee incurred
6 the necessary expenditure or loss.”

7 77. Labor Code § 2802(c) states that “[f]or purposes of this section, the term
8 “necessary expenditures or losses” shall include all reasonable costs, including, but not limited
9 to, attorney’s fees incurred by the employee enforcing the rights granted by this section.”

10 78. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and Class Members incurred necessary
11 business-related costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants.

12 79. In violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802, Defendants failed to reimburse or 13 indemnify Plaintiffs and Class Members for their expenses due to Defendants’ knowing and 14 intentional failure to reimburse necessary business expenditures in connection with Plaintiff’s
15 and Class Members’ work and job duties.

16 80. As a direct result, Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered and continue to 17 suffer losses, and therefore seek complete reimbursement and indemnification of necessary 18 business expenditures or losses, interest thereon at the required rate, and all reasonable costs in 19 enforcing the rights under Labor Code § 2802, including, but not limited to attorneys’ fees.

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

22 (Violation of Labor Code § 226; Violation of IWC Wage Order)

23 81. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
24 though fully set forth herein.

25 82. Labor Code § 226(a) requires Defendants to provide each employee with an 26 accurate wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, including, the following:
27 (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-rate
28 units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all

1 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be
2 aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for
3 which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her
4 social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number,
5 (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly
6 rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each
7 hourly rate by the employee.

8 83. During the relevant time period, Defendants have knowingly and intentionally
9 failed to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) on wage statements that were provided to Plaintiffs
10 and Class Members. The deficiencies include, among other things, the failure to correctly state 11 the gross and net wages earned, total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect, and the 12 number of hours worked at each hourly rate by Plaintiffs and Class Members.

13 84. As a result of Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to comply with Labor
14 Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs and Class Members have suffered injury and damage to their 15 statutorily-protected rights. Specifically, Plaintiffs and Class Members are deemed to suffer an 16 injury pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) where, as here, Defendants intentionally violated Labor
17 Code § 226(a). Plaintiffs and Class Members were denied both their legal right to receive, and 18 their protected interest in receiving, accurate itemized wage statements under Labor Code
19 § 226(a). In addition, because Defendants failed to provide the accurate rates of pay on wage
20 statements, Defendants prevented Plaintiffs and Class Members from determining if all hours
21 worked were paid at the appropriate rate and the extent of the underpayment. Plaintiffs had to 22 file this lawsuit in order to analyze the extent of the underpayment, thereby causing Plaintiffs to 23 incur expenses and lost time. Plaintiffs would not have had to engage in these efforts and incur
24 these costs had Defendants provided the accurate hours worked, wages earned, and rates of pay.
25 This has also delayed Plaintiff's ability to demand and recover the underpayment of wages from 26 Defendants.

27 85. Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater 28 of all actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a) or fifty

1 dollars ($50.00) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurred and one hundred dollars
2 ($100.00) per employee for each violation in subsequent pay periods in an amount not exceeding
3 four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) per employee, plus attorneys' fees and costs.

4 86. Defendants' violations of California Labor Code § 226(a) prevented Plaintiffs and 5 Class Members from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wages paid to them and resulted 6 in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a result of Defendants' knowing and 7 intentional failure to comply with California Labor Code § 226(a), Plaintiffs and Class Members 8 have suffered an injury, in the exact amount of damages and/or penalties to be shown according 9 to proof at trial.

10 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 FAILURE TO PAY ALL WAGES DUE UPON SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

12 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203)

13 87. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as 14 though fully set forth herein.

15 88. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 16 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that 17 if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 18 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-19 two (72) hours previous notice of an intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to 20 his or her wages at the time of quitting.

21 89. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed to pay the Waiting
22 Time Subclass all their earned wages upon termination, either at the time of discharge or within 23 seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ.

24 90. Defendants' failure to pay the Waiting Time Subclass all their earned wages at the 25 time of discharge or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employ is in 26 violation of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202.

27 91. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed
28 immediately upon discharge or resignation in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 202, then

1 the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date at the same rate until 2 paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30)
3 days.

4 92. Pursuant to Labor Code § 203, the Waiting Time Subclass is entitled to recover
5 from Defendants the statutory penalty, which is defined as the Waiting Time Subclass members'
6 regular daily wages at their regular hourly rate of pay for each day they were not paid, up to a 7 maximum of thirty (30) days.

8 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §§ 17200, ET SEQ.

10 (Violation of Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

11 93. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above as
12 though fully set forth herein.

13 94. California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., prohibits acts of 14 unfair competition, which includes any “unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice . .
15 . .”

16 95. A violation of California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., may 17 be predicated on a violation of any state or federal law. In the instant case, Defendants’ policies
18 and practices violated state law, causing Plaintiffs and Class Members to suffer and continue to 19 suffer injuries-in-fact.

20 96. Defendants’ policies and practices violated state law in at least the following 21 respects:

- 22 (a) Failing to pay all wages earned (including minimum wage and overtime
23 wages) to Plaintiffs and Class Members at the proper rate and in a timely 24 manner in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1198.
- 25 (b) Failing to provide compliant meal periods without paying Plaintiffs and 26 Class Members premium wages for every day said meal periods were not 27 provided in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

- 1 (c) Failing to authorize or permit compliant rest breaks without paying
2 Plaintiffs and Class Members premium wages for every day said rest
3 breaks were not authorized or permitted in violation of Labor Code §
4 226.7.
- 5 (d) Failing to reimburse Plaintiffs and Class Members for necessary business-
6 related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.
- 7 (e) Failing to provide Plaintiffs and Class Members with accurate itemized
8 wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- 9 (f) Failing to timely pay all earned wages to the members of the Waiting
10 Time Subclass upon separation of employment in violation of Labor Code
11 §§ 201, 202, and 203.

12 97. As alleged herein, Defendants systematically engaged in unlawful conduct in 13 violation of the California Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders, such as failing to pay all wages 14 (minimum and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods and rest breaks or 15 compensation in lieu thereof, failing to reimburse necessary business-related costs and 16 expenses, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to pay all wages due and 17 owing upon separation of employment in a timely manner to the Waiting Time Subclass, all in 18 order to decrease their costs of doing business and increase their profits.

19 98. At all relevant times herein, Defendants held themselves out to Plaintiffs and 20 Class Members as being knowledgeable concerning the labor and employment laws of 21 California.

22 99. At all times relevant herein, Defendants intentionally avoided paying Plaintiffs
23 and Class Members wages and monies, thereby creating for Defendants an artificially lower 24 cost of doing business in order to undercut their competitors and establish and/or gain a greater 25 foothold in the marketplace.

26 100. By violating the foregoing statutes and regulations as herein alleged, Defendants'
27 acts constitute unfair and unlawful business practices under California Business and Professions
28 Code §§ 17200, et seq.

101. As a result of the unfair and unlawful business practices of Defendants as alleged herein, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to injunctive relief, disgorgement, and restitution in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

102. Plaintiffs seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiffs, Class Members, and the general public. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Plaintiffs and Class Members are entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

ENFORCEMENT OF LABOR CODE §§ 2698 ET SEQ. (“PAGA”)

103. Plaintiffs hereby re-allege and incorporate by reference the previous paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

104. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(a), any provision of the Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees for violation of the Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.

105. For all provisions of the Labor Code except those for which a civil penalty is specifically provided, Labor Code § 2699(f) imposes upon Defendants a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent pay period in which Defendants violated these provisions of the Labor Code.

106. Defendants' conduct violates numerous Wage Order and Labor Code sections, including, but not limited to, the following:

a. violation of Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 246, 510, 1182.12, 1194, 1197, and 1198 for failure to timely pay all earned wages at the

1 correct rate of pay (including minimum wage and overtime wages) to 2 Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees during employment and upon 3 separation of employment as herein alleged;

4 b. violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512 for failure to provide meal
5 periods to Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay
6 premium wages for missed meal periods as herein alleged;

7 c. violation of Labor Code § 226.7 for failure to permit rest breaks to 8 Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees and failure to pay premium
9 wages for missed rest periods as herein alleged;

10 d. violation of Labor Code § 226 for failure to provide accurate itemized
11 wage statements to Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees as herein 12 alleged;

13 e. violation of Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5 for failure to maintain 14 accurate and complete records showing, among other things, the hours 15 worked daily by and the wages paid to aggrieved employees; and

16 f. violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 for failure to reimburse
17 Plaintiffs and other aggrieved employees for necessary business expenses 18 as herein alleged.

19 107. Plaintiffs are “aggrieved employees” because they were employed by the alleged 20 violator and had one or more of the violations committed against them, and therefore are 21 properly suited to represent the interests of all other aggrieved employees.

22 108. Plaintiffs have exhausted the procedural requirements under Labor Code §
23 2699.3 as to Defendants and are therefore able to pursue a claim for penalties on behalf of 24 themselves and all other aggrieved employees under PAGA.

25 109. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2699(a), 2699.3 and 2699.5, Plaintiffs are entitled to 26 recover civil penalties, in addition to other remedies, for violations of the Labor Code sections 27 cited above.

110. For bringing this action, Plaintiffs are entitled to attorney's fees and costs incurred herein.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

On Plaintiffs' own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, Plaintiffs pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. For certification under California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 of the proposed Class and any other appropriate subclass;

2. For appointment of Savan Kourm and Jennifer L Cedergren as class representatives;

3. For appointment of Aegis Law Firm, PC, as class counsel for all purposes;

4. For compensatory damages in an amount according to proof at trial;

5. For an award of damages in the amount of unpaid compensation including, but not limited to, unpaid wages, unreimbursed expenses, benefits, and penalties;

6. For economic and/or special damages in an amount according to proof at trial;

7. For liquidated damages pursuant to Labor Code § 1194.2;

8. For statutory penalties to the extent permitted by law, including those pursuant to the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders;

9. For injunctive relief as provided by the California Labor Code and California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;

10. For restitution as provided by Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;

11. For an order requiring Defendants to restore and disgorge all funds to each employee acquired by means of any act or practice declared by this Court to be unlawful, unfair, or fraudulent and, therefore, constituting unfair competition under Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.;

12. For pre-judgment interest;

13. For reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of suit, and interest to the extent permitted by law, including, but not limited to, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5 and Labor Code §§ 226(e), 1194, and 2698 et seq.;
