(Private Attorneys General Act)

1 Plaintiff VICTOR NICIFORI (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members
2 of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon facts that
3 either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable
4 opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this Action against Defendant RAINBOW MEALWORMS, INC.
7 and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendant”) for 8 California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from 9 Defendant’s failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 10 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages,
11 failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records,
12 failure to pay accrued but unused vacation time, and failure to pay reporting wages.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Ninth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendant (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court
18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Tenth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf
20 of himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendant against whom one or 21 more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 22 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an 23 aggrieved employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil 24 penalties sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will 25 be established according to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to the California Constitution,
27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this Action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.
28

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff VICTOR NICIFORI is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

8. Defendant RAINBOW MEALWORMS, INC. is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California and registered to do business in the State of California.

9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct. RAINBOW MEALWORMS, INC. and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendant".

10. Defendant is, and at all times herein mentioned was, (a) conducting business in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendant employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Ninth Causes of Action as a class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees that worked for Defendant within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified Class action is provided to the Class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members").

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendant's employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class

1 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
2 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 3 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 4 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
5 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this Action will continue to 6 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 7 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class
8 Member.

9 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 10 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
11 Members is impractical.

12 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 13 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 14 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 15 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
16 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint
17 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

18 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 19 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,
20 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

21 a. Whether Defendant's failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 22 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;

23 b. Whether Defendant had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff
24 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late, or 25 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

26 c. Whether Defendant required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 27 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed 28

1 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class
2 Members;

3 d. Whether Defendant deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
4 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work
5 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

6 e. Whether Defendant failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members
7 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;

8 f. Whether Defendant failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members
9 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest
10 periods;

11 g. Whether Defendant failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class
12 Members for all hours worked;

13 h. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 14 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;

15 i. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 16 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;

17 j. Whether Defendant failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 18 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 19 employment;

20 k. Whether Defendant failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for 21 all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California Labor
22 Code section 2802;

23 l. Whether Defendant failed to pay reporting time wages in violation of the 24 applicable IWC Wage Order;

25 m. Whether Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 26 Class Members during their employment;

27 n. Whether Defendant complied with wage reporting as required by the California 28

Labor Code, including section 226;

- o. Whether Defendant's conduct was with malice, fraud, or oppression;
- p. Whether Defendant's conduct was willful or reckless;
- q. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- r. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendant's violation of California law; and
- s. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendant is a company engaged in packaging and distributing mealworms and other feeder insects.

18. Defendant employed Plaintiff to work as a packaging worker from approximately March 1991 to approximately October 2024.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendant was subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant engaged in an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring

1 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock without compensation,
2 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages..
3 Defendant also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay
5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendant
6 routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and 7 duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendant also failed to 8 pay wages owed for accrued vacation time upon termination of employment, and failed to pay
9 reporting wages.

10 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
11 and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with 12 timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendant routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and 13 the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
14 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
15 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
16 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
17 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
18 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
19 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 20 (10) hours. Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 21 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

22 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately
23 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 24 California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded its own written policies
25 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
26 Employees. Instead, Defendant's actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
27 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.
28

25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted.

26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded its own written policies regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees. Instead, Defendant's actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their rest periods.

1 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff,
2 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late,
3 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known
4 that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or 5 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed,
6 short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely failed to 7 authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest
8 periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
9 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, and/or 10 interrupted.

11 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required 12 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 13 Defendant prohibited overtime, Defendant still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 14 Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they were 16 not compensated.

17 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
18 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 19 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 20 all wages owed.

21 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 22 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 23 week.

24 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 25 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 26 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single workday and/or forty (40) hours in a single 27 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single workday and/or eighty (80) hours in a single work week. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.
28

33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendant's failure to pay minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock.

35. failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 202.

36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum

1 wages, meal and rest period premiums, and vested by unused vacation time.

2 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to
3 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
5 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 6 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 7 Defendant. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
8 worked, the actual gross wages earned, and the correct rates of pay.

9 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 10 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
11 Defendant knew or should have known that Defendant was required to keep complete and 12 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 13 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

14 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 15 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work
16 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

17 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 18 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for vested but unused vacation time.
19 Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees were 20 entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination, including vested and unused vacation
21 time. Plaintiff, the Class, and Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all final wages 22 owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including vested and unused vacation time.

23 41. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 24 Aggrieved Employees were sometimes required by Defendant to report for work and did report
25 for work, but were either not to put to work or were furnished with less than half of their usual or 26 scheduled day's work. On such occasions, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the 27 Aggrieved Employees required reporting time wages for half their usual or scheduled day's work.
28

1 Defendant also failed to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for two (2) hours
2 at the employee's regular rate of pay on days in which Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees were required to report for work a second time in one workday and were furnished
4 less than two (2) hours of work upon the second reporting.

5 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant knew or should have
6 known that it had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
7 pursuant to California law. Defendant had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 8 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 9 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase
10 Defendant's profits.

11 43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
12 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 13 to him [or her] under this article."

14 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

16 (Against All Defendants)

17 44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 18 every allegation set forth above.

19 45. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
20 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 21 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 22 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

23 46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendant is and was 24 required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendant, and working more 25 than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-
26 one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours
27 in a workweek.
28

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendant is and was required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

51. Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

54. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendant.

1 55. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
2 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an
3 applicable order of the California IWC.

4 56. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
5 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
6 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal
7 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 8 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 9 both the employer and employee.

10 57. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that 11 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more
12 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal 13 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 14 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 15 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

16 58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 17 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 18 legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 19 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

20 59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 21 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 22 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 23 thirty (30) minutes.

24 60. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully required
25 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that
26 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
27 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.
28

Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

69. During the relevant time period, Defendant willfully required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during rest periods, failed to allow Plaintiff and the other Class Member to take any rest period and/or failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff and the other Class Members to take uninterrupted, duty-free rest breaks.

70. During the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7 for work performed during rest periods, and/or for failure to authorize and permit Plaintiff and other Class Members from taking uninterrupted rest periods.

71. Defendant's conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7.

72. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor Code section 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendant one additional hour of pay at the employees' regular hourly rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period was not provided.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1)

(Against All Defendants)

73. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

1 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 101. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
5 every allegation set forth above.

6 102. Defendant's conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
7 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendant's
8 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest
9 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

10 103. Defendant's activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 11 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
12 Code section 17200, et seq.

13 104. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 14 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendant's policies

17 Additionally, Defendant's policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and

7 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

9 (Against All Defendants)

10 109. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
11 every allegation set forth above.

12 110. Plaintiff brings his tenth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 13 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 14 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
15 (“PAGA”).

16 111. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
17 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 18 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
19 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
20 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 21 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 22 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 23 2699(a).

24 112. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant and the Labor Code violations alleged above
25 were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved 26 employee” under PAGA.

27 113. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant
28

1 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor
2 Codes by:

- 3 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage
4 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 5 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
6 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 7 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
8 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 9 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 10 226.7 and 512.
- 11 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 12 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 13 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 14 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 15 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end 16 of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
- 17 f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed 18 during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- 19 g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, 20 itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.
- 21 h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved
22 Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period,
23 total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code
24 § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- 25 i. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for all vested but unused 26 vacation time in violation of Labor Code § 227.3.
- 27 j. Failing to pay reporting time wages to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees in violation of Labor Code § 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
28

114. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendant for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11010 and 11130, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 210, 225.5, 226, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, 1775, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

115. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On November 12, 2024, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to the Defendant, notified Defendant and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendant violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff’s intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff’s November 12, 2024 notice, and the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

116. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendant. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

117. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.
