AGUILA TOBIAS ACOSTA, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated, Plaintiff, v. LA PLAYA HOTEL GROUP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; HOTEL CARMEL GROUP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; CASA LOMA BEACH HOTEL, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; NORTH COAST GROUP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive, Defendants.	Case No.: 25CV003941 [Assigned for All Purposes to the Hon. Hon. Thomas W. Wills, Dept. 15] PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT; MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES Preliminary Approval Hearing: Date: February 6, 2026 Time: 8:30 a.m. Dept: 15 Action Filed: September 30, 2024

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on February 6, 2026, at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in Department 15 of the Superior Court of California, County of Monterey, Monterey Courthouse, located at 1200 Aguajito Road, Monterey, California 93940, Plaintiff Aguila Tobias Acosta ("Plaintiff") will and hereby does move this Court for an Order:

1. Granting preliminary approval of the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement ("Settlement");
2. Conditionally certifying the proposed Class for settlement purposes only;
3. Appointing Plaintiff Aguila Tobias Acosta as the Class Representative;
4. Appointing John G. Yslas, Eugene Zinovyev, John Brown, Gabriella Solé, Emily K. Borman, and Courtney M. Miller of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel;
5. Appointing Phoenix Settlement Administrators as the Settlement Administrator; and
6. Setting a final approval hearing date.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), this Motion is made on the grounds that the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for preliminary approval and falls well within the range of reasonableness. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm's length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral, and Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel will fairly and adequately represent the Class.

This Motion is based on this Notice of Motion, the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of John G. Yslas, the Declaration of Aguila Tobias Acosta, and on all records and documents on file, together with such oral and documentary evidence that may be presented at the hearing on this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: December 8, 2025

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff Aguila Tobias Acosta ("Plaintiff") seeks preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour claims, including representative claims brought under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA"), against Defendants La Playa Hotel Group, LLC; Hotel Carmel Group, LLC; Casa Loma Beach Hotel, LLC; and North Coast Group, LLC (collectively "Defendants"). The proposed Class is defined as all persons who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid or non-exempt employee ("Class Members") at any time during the period from September 30, 2020, through the date of preliminary approval, except as provided in Paragraph 8 of the Settlement Agreement ("Class Period"). The main terms of the Settlement are as follows:

1. A Gross Settlement Amount of $850,000.00, which will be distributed to approximately 792 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the total Workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period;
2. Attorneys' fees of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $283,333.33) and up to $30,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs to Plaintiff's Counsel;
3. A Class Representative Service Payment of up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff;
4. Costs of settlement administration of up to $11,000.00; and
5. Allocation of $42,500.00 to PAGA penalties, sixty-five percent (65%) of which ($27,625.00) will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA"), and thirty-five percent (35%) of which ($14,875.00) will be paid to all persons who worked for Defendants in California as hourly-paid non-exempt employees ("Aggrieved Employees") at any time during the period from November 8, 2023, through the date of preliminary approval, except as provided in Paragraph 8 of the Settlement Agreement ("PAGA Period").

The Settlement meets all criteria for preliminary approval and falls within the range of reasonableness given the risks and expenses of further litigation. The Settlement was reached through informed, arm's length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of an experienced neutral. As such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint Phoenix Settlement Administrators as the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to administer notice of the Settlement to the Class, and set a final approval hearing date.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On September 30, 2024, Plaintiff filed this putative class action against Defendant La Playa Hotel Group, LLC alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for expenditures; (8) failure to produced requested employment records; and (9) unfair business practices, in the Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara, Case No. 24CV448300 ("Class Action"). Declaration of John G. Yslas in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Yslas Decl.") at ¶ 3.

On November 8, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant La Playa Hotel Group, LLC of the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories in support. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4, Exhibit 1. A Therefore, on January 21, 2025, Plaintiff filed a separate action against Defendant La Playa Hotel Group, LLC for civil penalties under PAGA, in the Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara, Case No. 25CV456929 ("PAGA Action"). Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4. On August 14, 2025, Plaintiff provided amended written notice to the LWDA and Defendants La Playa Hotel Group, LLC and Casa Loma Beach Hotel, LLC of the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories in support. Id., Exhibit 2. On September 3, 2025, Plaintiff provided further amended written notice to the LWDA and Defendants La Playa Hotel Group, LLC; Hotel Carmel Group, LLC; Casa Loma Beach Hotel, LLC; North Coast Group, LLC (collectively "Defendants") of the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories in support. Id., Exhibit 3.

While Plaintiff contends that the original venue was proper, in light of Defendant's contention that the majority of the putative class members and allegedly aggrieved employees are in Monterey County, the Parties stipulated to transfer venue accordingly. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 5. On July 10, 2025, the Court entered an order on the Parties' stipulation, consolidating the Class Action and the PAGA Action, with the Class Action being the least case, and ordering the Class Action transferred to the Superior Court of California, County of Monterey. Id. On August 5, 2025, the Class Action was transferred to the Superior Court of California, County of Monterey. Id. On September 25, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint in the Class Action against Defendants, which added defendants and a cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA. Id.

The Parties participated in a private full-day mediation with mediator Kevin Barnes ("Mr. Barnes") on June 23, 2025. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id. The mediator made a proposal and the Parties accepted it. Id. The parties negotiated the terms of the Settlement over the next couple months, which was finalized in October 2025. Id. at ¶ 7, Exhibit 4 ("Settlement Agreement"). On December 8, 2025, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. Id. at ¶ 8, Exhibit 3.

III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

A. Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The parties have agreed to settle the claims alleged in this Class Action and PAGA Action for a Gross Settlement Amount of $850,000.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.1. Subject to Court approval, the following payments will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) a Class Representative Service Payment of up to $10,000.00 to Plaintiff; (2) attorneys' fees of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently $283,333.33) and reimbursement of litigation costs of up to $30,000.00 to Plaintiff's Counsel; (3) costs of settlement administration of up to $11,000.00 to Phoenix Settlement Administrators; (4) individual class payments to Class Members; and (5) PAGA penalties in the amount of $42,500.00, which will be allocated 65% to the LWDA ($27,625.00) and 35% to Aggrieved Employees ($14,875.00). Id. at § 3.2. After all requested deductions are made, the remaining Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $473,166.67.

Individual class payments will be calculated based on the number of workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period. Id. at § 3.2.4. For tax purposes, the individual class payments will be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to interest and penalties. Id. at § 3.2.4.1. Defendant will separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes owed on the wage positions of the individual class payments separate from the Gross Settlement Amount. Id. at 3.1.

Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees will be calculated based on the number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period. Id. at § 3.2.5.1. For tax purposes, the Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated 100% to penalties. Id.

Any deductions not approved by the Court will be retained by the Settlement Administrator in the Net Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.2. Funds from any uncashed checks will be transmitted by the Settlement Administrator to the Boys & Girls Club of Monterey County. Id. at § 4.4.3. None of the Gross Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Id. at § 3.1.

B. Proposed Settlement Administration

The parties' proposed Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of Court, Rule 3.766(d). See Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement. It provides information regarding the nature of this lawsuit, a summary of the settlement terms, the formula used for calculating individual class and PAGA payments and instructions to dispute the calculations, instructions on how to opt-out of or object to the Settlement, the date, time, and location of the final approval hearing, and the amounts sought for the class representative service payment, attorneys' fees and litigation costs, and settlement administration costs. See generally, id. The Class Notice also notifies Class Members that they do not need to submit a claim in order to participate in the Settlement and receive a payment. See id. The Settlement Administrator will mail Class Members the Class Notice by first-class mail. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.2.

If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the Class Notice within five (5) days to the forwarding address provided by the U.S. Postal Service. Id. at § 7.4.3. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. Id. The deadline to opt-out of the Settlement or to submit an objection or dispute will be extended by 14 days for all Class Members whose Class Notice was remailed. Id. at § 7.4.4.

C. Proposed Releases

Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount and all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

Released Class Claims: "All Participating Class Members will release all claims, rights, demands, liabilities, and causes of action, alleged or which could have reasonably been alleged based on the facts alleged in the Operative Complaint. The Released Class Claims are those that accrued during the Class Period." Settlement Agreement at § 5.2.

Released PAGA Claims: "All Aggrieved Employees will release all claims for PAGA civil penalties that are alleged or reasonably could have been alleged based on the facts alleged in Plaintiff's November 8, 2024, August 14, 2025, and September 3, 2025 PAGA Notices. The Released PAGA Claims are those that accrued during the PAGA Period." Settlement Agreement at § 5.3.

"Released Parties" means Defendants. Settlement Agreement at § 1.42.

Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release and a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. Id. at § 5.1.

IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MEETS ALL CRITERIA FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

Class certification is appropriate when there is: (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently numerous class; (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members; and (3) substantial benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class superior to the alternatives. Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Although courts still need to review and consider each element for certification, a lesser standard can be used to provisionally certify a settlement class. Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal.App.4th 836, 859 (2003).

1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

"Ascertainability" is determined by examining the class definition and the size of the class, and may also involve examining the means available to identify class members. Noel v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-981, 985-986 (2019). As the settlement eliminates the need for trial, "the case management issues inherent in the ascertainable class determination need not be confronted." Global Minerals, 113 Cal.App.4th at 859. Further, under California law, there is no minimum number of class members for maintenance of a class action. Hendershot v. Ready to Roll Transp., Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1222 (2014). Class sizes as small as 10 have been permitted. Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981), disapproved on other grounds by Noel, 7 Cal.5th at 986.

The Class here consists of all persons who worked for Defendants in California as hourly-paid or non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period. See Settlement Agreement at § 1.5. The Class is also readily ascertainable from Defendant's business records, because all Class Members are or were employees of Defendant. Id. Defendant's records show there are approximately 792 Class Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10.

2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists

The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1021.

a. Common Questions Predominate

In determining whether common issues "predominate," courts consider both plaintiff's legal theories and defendant's affirmative defenses. Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat'l Ass'n, 59 Cal.4th 1, 28-29 (2014). The "predominate common questions" factor does not require that all class members have identical claims. Ayala v. Antelope Valley Newspapers, Inc., 59 Cal.4th 522, 530 (2014).

Rather, the focus is on whether issues shared by the class members are sufficiently uniform to permit class-wide assessment, and whether individual variations in proof on those issues are manageable. Id.

Plaintiff has alleged that Defendants maintained common employment policies and/or practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal periods, rest periods, reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, timely payment of wages upon separation of employment, and timely production of requested employment records. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. These allegations present common factual and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendants applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and employment record production policies to all Class Members, whether these policies and practices resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendants' conduct was intentional, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved using Class Members' time records, payroll records, testimony from Defendants' designated representative(s), and Class Members' testimony. Id. Therefore, the Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes.

b. Plaintiff is Typical of the Class

Typicality does not require that the representative plaintiff's claims and those of the class members be identical or perfectly aligned. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228 (2001), disapproved on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc., 4 Cal.5th 260, 269-280 (2018). Typicality does not require that a plaintiff's claims be identical to those of other class members, only that their claims and the defenses applicable to them are sufficiently similar to those of other class members that a named plaintiff is able to adequately represent the class and focus on common issues. Medrazo v. Honda of North Hollywood, 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 99 (2008).

Plaintiff has alleged that he and Class Members were employed by the same Defendant and injured by Defendant's common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendants' scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and employment record production policies. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. Through informal discovery, Plaintiff confirmed that these challenged policies and practices applied to Plaintiff as well as Class Members. See id. at ¶ 9. Therefore, Plaintiff's claims and Class Members' claims arise from the same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal theories.

c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class

Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative and of the proposed class counsel. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. "Only a conflict that goes to the very subject matter of the litigation will defeat a party's claim of representative status." Richmond v. Dart Industries, 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 (1981). Only conflicts that are "irreconcilable" can defeat adequacy. Nat'l Solar Equip. Owners' Ass'n v. Grumman Corp., 235 Cal.App.3d 1273, 1286 (1991). The proposed representative Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel present no such conflict.

Plaintiff's interests are coextensive with Class Members' interests. Declaration of Aguila Tobias Acosta in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Acosta Decl.") at ¶ 6. Plaintiff has demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of Class Members by initiating this lawsuit, providing documents and information to his attorneys, being available on the day of mediation to answer questions, meeting with his attorneys regarding the claims, and reviewing the proposed Settlement. Id. at ¶ 7.

Likewise, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Yslas Decl. Therefore, Plaintiff should be appointed Class Representative, and his counsel should be appointed Class Counsel.

3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

Courts have held that class treatment of wage and hour claims is clearly "superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy." Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. v. Superior Court, 211 Cal.App.3d 758, 772-773 (1989). This is so because "[p]ublic policy has long favored the 'full and prompt payment of wages due an employee.'" Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 (2004). Here, a class action is superior to a multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of each Class Members' claim, Class Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweigh any potential recovery. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10. Therefore, a class action is the superior method for seeking relief.

B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

The moving party must demonstrate that "the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable." Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 126 (2008). "In determining whether a class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, such as the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement." Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-245 (internal quotations and citations omitted).

1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

A settlement is entitled to "a presumption of fairness . . . where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm's length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996). The Settlement here satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at final approval after Class Members have been notified of the Settlement and provided with an opportunity to object.

a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm's Length Negotiation

Courts have recognized that the involvement of a respected mediator provides a high degree of assurance that the settlement is the result of arm's length bargaining. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-53 (2008). The Settlement in this matter was the product of a full-day mediation session with a respected mediator. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id.

b. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery Have Been Conducted

Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Id. at ¶ 9. Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value to the class claims using the documents and data Defendant produced in informal discovery. The data and documents produced by Defendant included the number of Class Members and Aggrieved Employees, the number of workweeks in the Class Period, and the number of pay periods in the PAGA Period, documents concerning Plaintiff, employee handbooks and wage-and-hour policies, and a random sampling of Class Members' time and payroll records. Id.

c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

Plaintiff is represented by Wilshire Law Firm, PLC. Id. at ¶ 1. Plaintiff's Counsel has extensive experience litigating wage-and-hour class actions on behalf of employees. See id. at ¶¶ 22-32. Plaintiff's Counsel has been involved as counsel in numerous class actions that have resulted in millions of dollars in recovery. See id.

2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's Claims and the Risks and Expense of Further Litigation

A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered fair and reasonable. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Although the exposure Plaintiff's Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks at succeeding at class certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for settlement purposes. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 12. Based on an analysis of the facts and legal contentions in this case, documents and information from Defendants, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated Defendants' maximum exposure. Id. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not having the claims certified and the risk of not prevailing at trial, even if the claims are certified. Id. After using the data Defendants provided, including class member timekeeping and payroll records, as well as class member demographics, with the assistance of a statistics expert, Plaintiff's Counsel created a damages model to evaluate the realistic range of potential recovery for the class. Id.

Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiff's unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims were based on the allegation that Defendants rounded the timecard entries of Plaintiff and Class Members to the detriment of Class Members. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 13. After reviewing the sampling of timecard and payroll records provided by Defendants, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that the rounding was more often in Defendants' favor than not, albeit only slightly. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel could not attribute significant settlement value to this claim. Id.

Meal Periods: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendants failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant meal periods or pay meal period premiums in lieu thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 14. For example, Plaintiff alleges that meal periods were routinely late, short, or missed altogether for him and the other Class Members while working for Defendants. Id. Plaintiff's Counsel's expert found a violation rate of approximately 56.9% in Defendants' time and payroll records for shifts greater than five (5) hours. Id. Therefore, potential liability for the meal period claims is approximately $979,872.31 (89,506 shifts greater than 5 hours x $19.24 hourly rate x 56.9% violation rate). Id. However, Defendants argued that Class Members were covered by meal period waivers. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 50% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $195,974.46 ($979,872.31 x 50% x 40%). Id.

Rest Periods: Plaintiff's rest period claim was based on the allegation that Defendants failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant rest periods or pay rest period premiums in lieu thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 15. For example, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants had a facially unlawful rest period policy that required him and other Class Members to remain on the premises during working hours and required them to clock out if they left the premises. Id. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts of 3.5 hours or longer. Id. Therefore, potential liability for the rest period claims is approximately $1,782,836.12 (92,633 shifts of 3.5 hours or longer x $19.24 hourly rate x 100% violation rate). Id. However, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this figure to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving rest period claims, particularly because rest periods do not have to be recorded, and to account for the possibility of Class Members voluntarily choosing to forego a rest period. Id. Because this claim would have relied exclusively on Class Member testimony, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this claim based on a 30% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 20% chance of succeeding at trial, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $106,970.17 ($1,782,836.12 x 30% x 20%). Id.

Reimbursements: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based on the allegation that Defendants failed to indemnify Class Members for expenses incurred as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 16. For example, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants required him and other Class Members to incur the cost of maintaining and cleaning their required uniforms, without compensation. Id. For purposes of calculating Defendants' liability based on a best-case scenario for Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Defendants were liable to each class member for $25 per pay period, or $12.50 per workweek, in unreimbursed expenses, for a total amount of approximately $455,000.00 ($12.50 x 36,400 workweeks). Id. Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this figure based on an evaluation of a 30% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 30% chance of succeeding at trial to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving expense reimbursement claims, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $40,950.00 ($455,000.00 x 30% x 30%). Id.

In sum, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Plaintiff's maximum recovery for the off-the-clock claim, meal period violations, and rest period violations (i.e., the wage claims) is approximately $2.76 million, but after factoring in the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at certification and trial, Plaintiff's Counsel estimates that Plaintiff's realistic estimated recovery for these non-penalty wage claims is approximately $302,944.63. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 17.

Derivative Penalties: Plaintiff alleged that as a result of Defendants' failure to pay all wages owed, Defendants owed waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 18. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory penalties, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Defendants' realistic potential liability is approximately $76,330.58. Id. Defendants' maximum potential liability for waiting time penalties is approximately $800,576.40 (190 employees x $19.24 hourly rate x 7.30 hours/day x 30 days) based on approximately 190 formerly employed class members during the 3-year statute of limitations period. Id. Defendants' maximum potential liability for inaccurate wage statements is approximately $471,600.00 ([216 employees x 1 initial violation/employee x $50 for an initial violation] + [(4,824 pay periods - 216 initial violations) x $100 for each subsequent violation]) based on approximately 216 class members who worked during the 1-year statute of limitations period and approximately 4,824 pay periods in the statutory timeframe. Id. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believes that it would be unrealistic to expect the Court to award the full $1,272,176.40 in penalties given Defendants' defenses, the contested nature of Plaintiff's claims, the challenges of establishing willfulness as applicable, and the discretionary nature of penalties. Id. Considering that the underlying wage claims are realistically estimated to be approximately $302,944.63, such a disproportionate award would also raise due process concerns. Id. As such, Plaintiff's counsel discounted these figures to account for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately $48,034.58 for waiting time penalty claims ($800,576.40 x 30% x 20%), and approximately $28,296.00 for wage statement penalty claims ($471,600.00 x 30% x 20%), or approximately $76,330.58 total for statutory penalties. Id.

PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that Defendants' potential exposure could potentially reach $903,200.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would apply for each of the 9,032 pay periods in the PAGA Period. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 19. However, even assuming success on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a variety of reasons, including where to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory. Id. As such, Plaintiff's counsel discounted this figure to account for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately $90,320.00 for PAGA penalties ($903,200.00 x 10%). Id. The settlement allocates $42,500.00 of the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA, therefore the PAGA allocation amounts to 47% of the realistic maximum damages for PAGA penalties ($42,500.00 / $90,320.00). Id.

Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff's Counsel predicted that the realistic maximum recovery for all claims, including penalties, would be approximately $510,545.21. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 20. This means that the realistic maximum recovery represents approximately 60% of the $850,000.00 gross settlement figure ($510,545.21 / $850,000.00). Id. Considering the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. Id. Indeed, because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. Id.

The Net Settlement Amount available for class settlement payments is currently estimated to be $473,166.67 for approximately 792 Class Members. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 21. As a result, each Settlement Class Member would be eligible to receive an average net benefit of approximately $597.43. Id.

C. The Requested Service Payment is Reasonable

Plaintiff seeks a class representative service payment of up to $10,000.00 for accepting the responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and potential costs that were not borne by any other Class Member. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1. A named plaintiff is eligible for payment that reasonably compensates him for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393 (2010); Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004).

Throughout this case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in providing documents and information necessary to prosecute the claims, meeting with counsel regarding the claims, maintained regular contact with counsel, was available on the day of mediation to answer questions, and reviewed the Settlement to ensure it was fair to the Class. Acosta Decl. at ¶ 7. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th at 340. The requested class representative service payment is reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff has provided a declaration regarding his work performed to date and will provide additional information as requested or required by the Court at final approval.

D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equaling one third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66, fn. 11 ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

Plaintiff seeks appointment of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel. The attorneys performed significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no guarantee of payment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 22. Plaintiff's Counsel seeks preliminary approval of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, currently estimated to be $283,333.33, and up to $30,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the extensive information exchange, and the substantial recovery obtained on behalf of the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Yslas Decl. At final approval, Plaintiff's Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award of attorneys' fees and litigation costs.

E. The Administration Costs are Reasonable

The Parties have agreed upon using Phoenix Settlement Administrators to administer this Settlement. Settlement Agreement at § 1.2. Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of $4,290.00 for Phoenix Settlement Administrators to administer this Settlement pursuant to Phoenix Settlement Administrators' not-to-exceed bid. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 35, Exhibit 4. The services covered by this payment are extensive and necessary to carry out the Settlement administration. Id.

V. CONCLUSION

The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the class claims in light of the risks presented in this case. Plaintiff has presented the materials and information necessary to demonstrate that the requirements for preliminary approval have been met, and therefore respectfully requests that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement and schedule a date for the final approval hearing.
