SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

JUAN PENA, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

HINTON TRANSPORTATION
INVESTMENTS, INC., a Michigan
Corporation; and DOES 1-50, inclusive.

Defendants.

CASE NO.: 24STCV29266

Assigned to the Hon. Samantha P. Jessner

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

HEARING INFO

Date: June 2, 2026

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Dept.: 7

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on May 14, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. or as soon thereafter as 3 the matter may be heard by the Honorable Samantha P. Jessner in Department 7 of the Los 4 Angeles County Superior Court, located at 312 N. Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, 5 Plaintiff Juan Pena, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, will and hereby 6 does move the Court for entry of an Order granting final approval of the parties' Class Action and 7 PAGA Settlement Agreement (the "Settlement Agreement" and/or the "Settlement"), which was 8 preliminary approved by this Court on January 20, 2026.

9 This Motion, which is supported and unopposed by Defendant Hinton Transportation 10 Investments, Inc. ("Defendant"), seeks final approval of a $350,000 Settlement on behalf of the 11 Settlement Class Members and entry of judgment.

12 Specifically, Plaintiff will and hereby does move the Court to grant final approval of the 13 Settlement Agreement, and enter the Proposed Order and Final Judgment filed concurrently 14 herewith:

15 1. Finally certifying the Settlement Class, as defined in the Settlement Agreement 16 and the Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of the Class Action Settlement;

17 2. Finally appointing Plaintiff Juan Pena as the Class Representative for purposes of 18 settlement;

19 3. Finally appointing Joshua Falakassa of Falakassa Law, P.C. and Mehrdad Bokhour 20 of Bokhour Law Group, P.C. as Class Counsel for purposes of settlement;

21 4. Finding that the Class Notice was properly provided to the Settlement Class in 22 accordance with the Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement;

23 5. Finally approving the Settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable, based upon the 24 terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

25 6. Binding Participating Class Members to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, 26 including the Release specified therein; and 27 7. Retaining jurisdiction to enforce the Settlement Agreement.

28 This Motion is based upon this notice, the accompanying memorandum of points and

1 authorities, the Declarations of Mehrdad Bokhour and Joshua Falakassa in Support of Final 2 Approval of Class Action Settlement, the Declaration of Plaintiff Juan Pena in Support of the 3 Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, and the Declaration of 4 Tim Cunningham of CPT Group, Inc.—all filed concurrently herewith; the records and files in this 5 Action, and any other further evidence or argument that the Court may receive at or before the 6 hearing.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This motion seeks final approval of a wage-and-hour class action settlement between 4 Plaintiff Juan Pena (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Hinton Transportation Investments, Inc.
5 (“Defendant”) (collectively, the “Parties”) in the amount of $350,000 (the “Gross Settlement 6 Amount”) to be distributed to 54 individuals who are or were employed by Defendant as non-7 exempt hourly employees in California between November 6, 2020 through July 6, 2025 (the 8 “Class Members” or the “Class”).

9 Plaintiff also represents a group of PAGA Members on behalf of the State of California 10 as private attorney general pursuant to the California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act 11 of 2004 (“PAGA”). (Lab. Code, §§ 2698–2699.5.) The PAGA Members include any non-exempt 12 hourly employee who works or worked for Defendant in California at any time from November 13 6, 2023, through July 6, 2025.

14 A true and correct copy of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement 15 (“Settlement Agreement”) is attached as Exhibit B to the concurrently filed Declaration of 16 Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement 17 (“Bokhour Decl.”). The Settlement Agreement, in its entirety, is incorporated herein by reference.

18 On or about January 20, 2026, the Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement 19 Agreement. Pursuant to that order, on January 23, 2026, CPT Group, Inc. (the “Settlement 20 Administrator” or “CPT”) mailed the Court-approved Notice of Proposed Class Action 21 Settlement (the “Class Notice”) to all 54 Class Members. (See Declaration of Tim Cunningham 22 of CPT, in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Cunningham 23 Decl.”), at ¶¶ 3-15.)

24 A copy of the Class Notice is attached to the Cunningham Decl.

25 II. SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT AND ESSENTIAL POINTS

26 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff respectfully requests 27 that this Court grant final approval of the Class and PAGA Representative Action Settlement 28 Agreement (the “Settlement Agreement” and/or the “Settlement”) already on file in this action,

1 which is unopposed by Defendant and enter the Proposed Order and Final Judgment in this matter.

2 There are several essential reasons why this Settlement should be approved, and judgment 3 entered accordingly. They are as follows:

4 • The parties agreed to a $350,000 Settlement Amount tailored to a limited release
5 of the claims alleged on behalf of the Settlement Class Members;

6 • The Settlement Class Members were deemed to participate in the Settlement 7 (unless the Settlement Class Members opted out of the Settlement), and were not required to 8 submit a claim form to receive funds;

9 • There is no reversion to Defendant; and 10 • There are zero objections to the Settlement and zero Requests for Exclusion from 11 the Settlement.

12 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court issue an order 13 (1) finally certifying the Class; (2) finally appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative; 14 (3) finally appointing Plaintiff's attorneys as class counsel, (4) finding that notice of the 15 settlement was properly provided to the Class Members; (5) finally approving the Settlement 16 Agreement as fair, adequate, and reasonable; (6) finally approving the allocation for attorneys' 17 fees of one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, plus necessary incurred litigation costs; 18 (7) finally approving CPT as the settlement administrator; (8) finally approving the allocation of 19 $20,000 from the Gross Settlement Amount for PAGA penalties; (9) finally approving a class 20 representative incentive payment to Plaintiff in an amount of $10,000; (10) binding all 21 participating class members to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, including the release 22 specified therein; and (11) retaining jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the Settlement 23 Agreement.

24 In accordance with the analysis and law set forth herein, the Settlement should be 25 approved, and judgment entered based on the determination that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, 26 adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

27 III. PERTINENT BACKGROUND AND SETTLEMENT TERMS

28 Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members include all current and former non-exempt, hourly employees of Defendant who worked in California at any time between August 30, 2019 to August 17, 2024 (Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement; ¶ 24 (“Bokhour Decl.)).

Plaintiff’s primary allegations were that Defendant (1) failed to pay all wages owed, (2) failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods or pay compensation in lieu thereof at the “regular rate of pay”, (3) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, (4) failed to provide timely pay upon separation of employment, and (5) claims for civil penalties under the PAGA arising from the alleged Labor Code violations. (Id.)

The Settlement Class includes 54 individuals who performed work in a non-exempt position for Defendant in California at any time during the Class Period. The following is a breakdown reflecting how the funds are allocated under the Settlement Agreement (Declaration of Tim Cunningham Regarding Notice and Settlement Administration (“Cunningham Decl.”), ¶ 14):

	Total Amount
Settlement Amount	$350,000.00
Attorneys’ Fees (30%)	$116,666.67
Litigation Costs	$15,800.45
Settlement Administrator Costs	$7,500
PAGA payment to LWDA	$6,500
PAGA payment to PAGA Members	$3,500
Class Representative Service Payment	$10,000
Net Settlement Amount	$190,032.88

Settlement Class Members who did not opt out of the Settlement in a timely manner will be deemed to participate in the Settlement and shall become Participating Class Members without having to submit a claim form or take any other action. Each Participating Class Member will receive a pro-rata share of the Net Settlement Amount according to the percentage of weeks he/she worked during the Class Period, such that the amount actually distributed to Participating Class Members will equal 100% of the Net Settlement Amount.

Assuming the Court approves all the amounts in the Settlement, the average payment to each Participating Class Member is estimated to be approximately $3,519.13, and the highest payment is estimated to be approximately $11,389.84. (Cunningham Decl. ¶ 15.)

1 Thirty percent (30%) will be allocated as wages subject to withholdings of all applicable 2 local, state, and federal taxes; and seventy percent (70%) will be allocated as interest and as civil 3 penalties (pursuant to, e.g., California Labor Code Sections 203 and 226) from which no taxes 4 will be withheld.

5 The Settlement Administrator will provide Defendant with wire transfer information 6 within three (3) days after the Effective Date. Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount 7 in two installments as follows: fifty percent (50%) of the GSA shall be paid within thirty (30) 8 calendar days after the Effective Date, and the remaining fifty percent (50%) of the GSA, shall 9 be paid within ninety (90) calendar days after the first payment (i.e., one hundred-and-twenty 10 (120) calendar days after the Effective date).

11 The Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement on January 20, 2026. Inherent 12 in the Court's grant of preliminary approval is a determination that the Settlement is 13 presumptively fair and provides fair and reasonable benefits to the Settlement Class. Thereafter, 14 the Settlement Administrator, CPT, disseminated the Class Notice. (Cunningham Decl. ¶¶ 3-7.) 15 The results of the notice process are set forth in The Declaration of Tim Cunningham and 16 discussed in detail in Section III below. Nevertheless, the reaction to the Settlement was 17 overwhelmingly positive, as no Settlement Class Member objected to the Settlement and no 18 Settlement Class Member requested exclusion from the Settlement. This represents a 100% 19 participation rate by the Settlement Class. (Cunningham Decl., ¶¶ 11-13.)

20 In light of this overwhelmingly positive reaction to the Settlement and its overall terms, it 21 is clear that the Settlement, which was the product of arm's-length negotiations, is fair and 22 reasonable, and the parties therefore respectfully request that the Court grant final approval and 23 enter the proposed judgment as requested. (See Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 24 1794, 1800–1802 [class action settlements should be approved if they are fair and reasonable, and 25 a low percentage of objectors and opt-outs is evidence of an agreement's fairness].)

26 IV. THE NOTICE PROCESS

27 A. Notice to the Settlement Class Members

28 Pursuant to the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and the Settlement Agreement, the 1 parties directed the Settlement Administrator to review and update the Settlement Class Member 2 addresses, mail the Court-approved Class Notice to the Settlement Class Members, and process

3 their responses. (Cunningham Decl., ¶¶ 3-7.)

4 Before mailing the Class Notice, the Settlement Administrator performed a National 5 Change of Address search on all Settlement Class Members to determine if any had moved.
6 (Cunningham Decl., ¶ 6.)

7 On January 23, 2026, the Class Notice was sent via first-class mail to 54 Settlement Class 8 Members, advising them about the lawsuit and the Settlement. (Cunningham Decl., ¶ 6.)

9 Only a total of two Class Notices have been deemed undeliverable despite the Settlement 10 Administrator's skip-tracing efforts. To date, the settlement administrator has not received any 11 objections or requests for exclusion. (Cunningham Decl., ¶ 7).

12 In accordance with California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 (d) and 3.769 (f), the Class 13 Notice provided Settlement Class Members with (1) a brief explanation of the case; (2) an 14 explanation of each Settlement Class Member's right to opt out of the Settlement Class; (3) an 15 explanation of the process (and relevant deadlines) through which a Settlement Class Member 16 could opt out of the Settlement Class; (4) notice about the binding nature of the Judgment for 17 Settlement Class Members who do not opt-out; (5) an explanation of each Settlement Class 18 Member's right to appear through counsel; (6) an explanation of each Settlement Class Member's 19 right to appear at the fairness hearing and express views on the Settlement, i.e., object or otherwise 20 respond; and (7) an explanation of each Settlement Class Member's right to participate in the 21 Settlement and receive payment accordingly. (Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" to the Tim 22 Cunningham Declaration is a true and correct copy of the Class Notice.)

23 B. There are Zero Objections and Zero Requests for Exclusion

24 California law makes clear that the percentage of objectors and opt-outs is an important 25 factor in the Court's consideration of a proposed class action settlement. (See Dunk, supra, 48 26 Cal.App.4th at 1802.) Indeed, the Ninth Circuit and other federal courts recognize that in the final 27 fairness analysis, the number or percentage of class members who object to the settlement is a 28 significant factor. (See Mandujano v. Basic Vegetable Prods., Inc., (9th Cir. 1976) 541 F.2d 672, 677; In re American Bank Note Holographics, Inc. (SDNY 2001) 127 F.Supp.2d 418, 425 [“[i]t is well settled that the reaction of the class to the settlement is perhaps the most significant factor to be weighed in considering its adequacy.”])

In this case, as noted above, there are zero objections to the Settlement and zero requests for exclusion from the Settlement--meaning that all of the Settlement Class Members elected to participate in the Settlement. (Cunningham Decl., ¶¶ 11-15.) Thus, the Settlement Class overwhelmingly viewed this as a fair and reasonable Settlement.

V. EVALUATION OF THE SETTLEMENT

It is axiomatic that California law strongly favors and encourages settlements. (See Stambaugh v. Super. Ct. (1976) 62 Cal.App.3d 231, 236.) This presumption in favor of settlement applies with particular force in the context of class actions. (See Ferguson v. Lieff, Cabraser, Heimann & Bernstein (2003) 30 Cal.4th 1037 (Kennard, J., concurring and dissenting) [“[p]ublic policy favoring settlement is especially weighty for class actions”]; Bell v. Am. Title Ins. Co. (1991) 226 Cal.App.3d 1589, 1607-1608 [affirming the trial court’s approval of a class settlement and implicitly endorsing its citation of federal precedent for the notion that there is a “strong public policy in favor of settlement of class actions”]; see also Franklin v. Kaypro Corp. (9th Cir. 1989) 884 F.2d 1222, 1229, quoting Van Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp. (9th Cir. 1976) 529 F.2d 943, 950 [“it hardly seems necessary to point out that there is an overriding public interest in settling and quieting litigation. This is particularly true in class action suits”].)

When entertaining a request for final approval of a class action settlement, a court’s fundamental consideration is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. (See Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, fn. 7 [noting that state courts look to federal authority concerning the approval of class settlements]; California Rules of Court, rule 3.769 (g).)

Importantly, fairness is presumed when: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; (4) the percentage of objectors and opt outs is small, and (5) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund to a possible

1 recovery in light of all attendant risks of litigation.” (Dunk 1802.) All five of these factors are 2 discussed in detail below.

3 A. The Settlement Was Reached Through Informed Arms-Length Negotiation

4 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a settlement unless 5 evidence to the contrary is offered. Thus, there is a presumption here that the negotiations were 6 conducted in good faith. (See, 3 Alba Conte & Newberg, supra, at § 11.51.) The proposed 7 Settlement here was the product of arm’s-length negotiations before a highly experienced and 8 reputable California wage-and-hour class-action mediator, Todd Smith, Esq. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 9 26.)

10 Here, Plaintiff and Class Counsel have diligently investigated the claims raised in this 11 litigation and, after taking into account the disputed factual and legal issues involved in this 12 action, the risks attending further prosecution, and the benefits to be received pursuant to the 13 compromise and settlement of the Action as set forth in the Settlement, concluded that the 14 Settlement terms are fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the Settlement Class. (Bokhour 15 Decl. ¶ 27.)

16 As the Settlement Agreement itself reveals, there is no preferential treatment for any 17 segment of the Settlement Class, as the Settlement is designed to fairly and adequately 18 compensate all Settlement Class Members. Pursuant to California Rules of Court Rule 3.769(b), 19 the parties have disclosed the agreed-upon and proposed attorneys’ fees, which are well within 20 the range of reasonableness for matters of this nature. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 28.)

21 B. Plaintiff’s Investigation Was More Than Sufficient

22 As set forth at the time of preliminary approval, Class Counsels’ extensive investigation 23 into the facts and merits of the wage and hour claims alleged included analyzing substantial 24 amounts of information, correspondence, documents, timekeeping records, and payroll data, 25 relevant wage and hour policies and procedures, and evidence relating to the class size and the 26 commonality of the claims.

27 During this process, Plaintiff and Class Counsel conducted investigations into the 28 potential claims of the similarly situated employees, including interviewing multiple putative

1 class members, as well as researching and investigating Defendant's defenses.

2 Finally, Class Counsel synthesized and analyzed information provided by Defendant 3 regarding the total Settlement Class Members, the number of current and former non-exempt 4 employees, and the number of employees who worked during various time periods and prepared 5 comprehensive damages calculations regarding the wage and hour claims at issue. (Bokhour Decl.
6 ¶ 29.)

7 C. Class Counsel Are Experienced in Similar Litigation and Endorse the 8 Settlement

9 Class Counsel are experienced in this type of litigation, and they have (and hereby do) 10 represent that this Settlement is fair and reasonable. (Bokhour Decl., ¶¶ 3-13; Declaration of 11 Joshua Falakassa in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement 12 ("Falakassa Decl." ¶¶ 3-8); see 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Franchising v. Southland Corp. (2000)
13 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1152 [Final approval of settlement affirmed where counsel were all 14 experienced litigators with class-action experience and had recommended settlement based on the 15 negotiated terms].)

16 D. Reasonable Estimate of the Nature and Amount of Recovery

17 Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval contained a comprehensive Kullar analysis 18 (which sufficiently provided the Court with "basic information about the nature and magnitude 19 of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the consideration being paid for the 20 release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise." (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc.
21 (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133.) Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010)
22 186 Cal.App.4th 399, later clarified Kullar by noting that an explicit statement of the maximum 23 theoretical amount that the class could recover was not part of the "basic information" that 24 counsel was required to produce:

25 Greenwell misunderstands Kullar, apparently interpreting it to require 26 the record in all cases to contain evidence in the form of an explicit 27 statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if 28 it prevailed on all its claims – a number which appears nowhere in the record of the case. But Kullar does not, as Greenwell claims, require any such explicit statement of value; it requires a record which allows

1 “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic 2 range of outcomes of the litigation.

3 Of course, a settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a 4 plaintiff prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought
5 to be fair and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 246, 250.)
6 (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process ... even if the relief afforded 7 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 8 successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed 9 be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding 10 litigation.”)

11 In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation, this negotiated Settlement reflects the 12 best practicable recovery for the Settlement Class. While the total Settlement amount is, of course, 13 a compromise figure, the potential risks and opportunities for both parties were carefully weighed, 14 resulting in a fair and equitable Settlement. Based upon detailed data obtained through discovery 15 and information exchanges and factoring in claim certification probabilities and liability 16 probabilities, Class Counsel formulated detailed damages models to evaluate the claims in 17 preparation for mediation and to reach a realistic and reasonable resolution. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 29.)

18 Of course, Defendant denies that any damages should be assessed and denies all of the 19 value assessed by Plaintiff. (Id.) Notwithstanding these arguments, the Settlement commits 20 Defendant to pay a Settlement Amount of $350,000 to settle the litigation.

21 VI. THE REQUESTED ATTORNEYS’ FEES ARE FAIR, REASONABLE, AND 22 SHOULD BE AWARDED

23 For their efforts in creating a common fund for the benefit of the Settlement Class, the 24 Settlement Agreement provides that Class Counsel may seek reasonable Attorneys’ Fees of 25 $116,666.67, which is one-third of the Settlement Amount. These fees are warranted under the 26 law and within the range of fees commonly awarded in similar class action cases.

27 As shown herein, the requested percentage of one-third of the Settlement Amount as 28 payment for Attorneys’ Fees should be granted for several reasons, including the following: (1) one-third is the standard benchmark in California for class action settlements (see e.g., Chavez v.

1 Netflix, Inc. (2008) 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 66 n. 11 (“Empirical studies show that, regardless 2 whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used fee awards in class actions average 3 around one-third of the recovery”); and (2) that the California Supreme Court recently held that 4 the percentage of the fund method survives in California class action cases (Laffitte v. Robert Half 5 International, Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480).

6 Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Attorneys’ Fees request should receive final approval.

7 A. Plaintiff is Entitled to Recover Reasonable Attorneys’ Fees Under the Labor
8 Code

9 Plaintiff and the Settlement Class in this action are entitled to recover reasonable 10 Attorneys’ Fees and Costs under section 218.5 of the California Labor Code, which provides that, 11 “[i]n any action brought for the nonpayment of wages ... the Court shall award reasonable 12 attorneys’ fees and costs to the prevailing party.”

13 In addition, Plaintiff and the Settlement Class are entitled to recover reasonable Attorneys’ 14 Fees pursuant to section 1194.2 of the Labor Code, which provides that, “... any employee 15 receiving less than the legal minimum wage ... applicable to the employee is entitled to recover 16 in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage... including ...
17 reasonable attorney’s fees, and costs of suit.”

18 Plaintiff is further entitled to Attorneys’ Fees and Costs under section 226(e) of the Labor 19 Code (employee who prevails on claim for itemized wage statement violation “is entitled to an 20 award of costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees”); under PAGA (Labor Code § 2699(g), which 21 provides “Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable 22 attorney’s fees and costs, including any filing fee paid”); and, potentially, section 1021.5 of the 23 California Code of Civil Procedure.

24 B. Class Counsels’ Request for Fees Is Reasonable and Properly Calculated as a 25 Percentage of the Common Fund

26 Under the “common fund” doctrine, the request for Attorneys’ Fees in the amount of 27 33.33% of the Settlement Amount is reasonable and appropriate, because (1) it is within the 28 approved range for percentages awarded as attorneys’ fees in similar cases; (2) it is supported by

1 the high quality and amount of Class Counsels' work on this case and the positive results obtained
2 for the Settlement Class; (3) the Settlement Class had sufficient notice of the attorneys' fee 3 request; and (4) it is supported by the fact that this case was handled on a contingency basis and 4 was undertaken despite numerous risks and expenses.

5 1. The Attorneys' Fees Requested Here Fall Within the Reasonable Range
6 Awarded in Similar Cases Under the Well-established Common Fund
7 Method

8 The California Supreme Court has approved trial courts' use of the common fund method 9 for awarding attorneys' fees in wage-and-hour class actions, like this one, and routinely upholds 10 attorneys' fee requests of 1/3 of the total settlement amount obtained for the class. (See Laffitte v.
11 Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal. 5th 480, 506; see also, 4 Newberg on Class Actions, § 14:6 at 12 552 ("fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery").

13 2. The High Quality of Work and Excellent Result Obtained Supports the 14 Award

15 In addition to the fact that a class benefit was created with a significant common fund, the 16 fairness of the requested fee award of one-third of that common fund is supported by the high 17 quality of work performed by Class Counsel and the favorable result obtained for the Class 18 Members given the significant challenges faced by Plaintiff in this action. As the record 19 demonstrates, Class Counsel conducted the litigation on behalf of the class in a competent, 20 professional and efficient manner. In doing so, Class Counsel confronted substantial litigation 21 risks with well-developed arguments, careful factual analysis and creative strategy to overcome 22 legal obstacles, such as those created by challenging factual issues pertaining to each of the 23 substantive claims. The effective legal work performed by Class Counsel, which resulted in a 24 significant benefit for class members, justifies the one-third of the common fund that is requested 25 as reasonable attorneys' fees.

26 Class Counsel diligently, efficiently, and creatively pursued this case and promptly 27 reached a successful settlement for the benefit of the Class Members. Despite the numerous risks 28 and obstacles afflicting Plaintiff's claims as detailed in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary

1 Approval, Plaintiff's counsel crafted and negotiated a fair and reasonable Settlement Agreement 2 for the benefit of the Class Members.

3 The fact that the settlement was embraced and supported by the Class Members, as 4 evidenced by zero objections and no opt-outs of 54 Class Members, clearly demonstrates that the 5 Class Members support the Settlement Agreement and results achieved by Class Counsel through 6 the litigation of this matter.

7 Moreover, Class Counsel demonstrated considerable skill in obtaining such a significant 8 settlement despite the numerous challenges in this case, which could have precluded any 9 recovery. "Class Counsel demonstrated professional skills that benefited the class. In particular, 10 Class Counsel presented carefully developed legal arguments, evaluated complex factual issues, 11 and implemented an effective strategy in framing the litigation and negotiations. As a result, Class 12 Counsel obtained a settlement that significantly benefits the class.

13 As a result of this litigation, the Class Members stand to receive a significant Net 14 Settlement Amount of $190,032.88.

15 3. Settlement Class Members Had Sufficient Notice of the Requested Fees

16 Rule 3.769 of the California Rules of Court requires that the Class Members be notified 17 of any agreement regarding an application for attorneys' fees. Here, the Class Notice, 18 preliminarily approved by the Court and distributed to the Settlement Class Members, apprised 19 them that Class Counsel will ask for Attorneys' Fees of one-third of the Settlement Amount as 20 reasonable compensation for the work Class Counsel performed and will continue to perform in 21 this lawsuit through final approval. (Cunningham Decl.¶ 7; Exh. A.)

22 The Class Notice also advised the Settlement Class Members of the procedures for 23 objecting to the proposed Settlement and appearing at the settlement hearing, where they could 24 present their objections to any aspect of the Settlement, including the amount of Attorneys' Fees 25 to be awarded to Class Counsel. (Litwin v. iRenew Bio Energy Solutions, LLC (2014) 226 26 Cal.App.4th 877, 883 ["[p]rocedural due process requires that affected parties be provided with 27 'the right to be heard at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner'"].) In accordance with 28 the foregoing, it is respectfully submitted that the instant notice complied with Rule 3.769 and, as

1 a result, the Settlement Class Members’ due process rights were fulfilled.

2 4. The Contingent Nature of Class Counsel’s Representation of Plaintiff
3 and the Settlement Class Further Supports the Fee Award at One Third 4 of the Common Fund

5 An additional factor in favor of granting the requested fee award is that this case was both 6 legally and financially risky for Class Counsel. (See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp (9th Cir. 2002) 7 290 F.3d 1043, 1048-49.) Class Counsel has been representing the Settlement Class in this matter 8 on a strictly contingency basis, and as such, incurred the risk of non-recovery after a substantial 9 investment of time, money, and resources, and has done so since the inception of this case without 10 any payment or compensation. Specifically, there was the prospect of enormous cost inherent in 11 this class action litigation, as well as the prospect of a prolonged battle with well-funded 12 corporations who were represented by an experienced law firm; the risk that Defendant could 13 prevail on its arguments that the Settlement Class should not be certified; and the risk that 14 Defendant could prevail on the merits of some or all of the claims.

15 If Plaintiff had lost this case, Class Counsel would have recovered nothing and would 16 have lost its out-of-pocket costs.

17 Finally, the absence of any valid objections to the requested fee award, coupled with the 18 100% Class participation rate, also supports the appropriateness and reasonableness of the 19 requested attorneys’ fees. (In re Heritage Bond Litigation (C.D. Cal., June 10, 2005, No. 02-ML-20 1475 DT) 2005 WL 1594403, at *21 [“The absence of objections or disapproval by class members 21 to Class Counsel’s fee further supports finding the fee request reasonable.”].)

22 5. A Lodestar Cross-Check Confirms the Reasonableness of the Fee Award

23 Despite recognized limitations of the so-called lodestar method, some California and 24 federal courts acknowledge the utility of a lodestar “cross-check.”¹ (Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.
25 4th at 46-47.) Under the “lodestar multiplier” method of cross-checking the reasonableness of 26

27 ¹ In practice, the lodestar method is difficult to apply, time-consuming to administer, inconsistent in result, and 28 capable of manipulation. In addition, the lodestar creates inherent incentive to prolong the litigation until sufficient hours have been expended. Herr, David F., Manual for Complex Litigation, § 14.121 (1988); See also In re Activision attorneys' fees in class actions, the court ascertains Class counsel's total "lodestar" amount by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by each attorney or legal staff member by their hourly rates, and then enhances or reduces this lodestar figure by a "multiplier" to account for a range of factors, such as the novelty or difficulty of the case, its contingent nature, and the degree of success achieved. PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 545-96; Press v. Lucky Stores, Inc. (1983) 34 Cal.3d 311, 322; Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at 43 [court has discretion to use a multiplier to ensure that the "fee awarded is within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation"].)

Historically, California courts have approved multipliers of 1.5 to 4. See Coalition for Los Angeles County Planning v. Board of Supervisors (1977) 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (multiplier of 2+ approved); Sternwest Corp v. Ash (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 74, 75. The multiplier requested by Class Counsel below is within the range of multipliers found to be appropriate by various federal and state courts in California. In Sternwest Corp. v. Ash (1986) 183 Cal.App.3d 74, for instance, the Court of Appeal remanded for a lodestar enhancement of "two, three, four or otherwise." Id. At 76; see also Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 255 ("Multipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher"); City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 78, 83 (affirming 2.34 multiplier); Coalition for Los Angeles County Planning in the Pub. Interest v. Board of Supervisors, 76 Cal.App.3d 241, 251 (affirming multiplier of approximately 2); Craft v. County of San Bernardino, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27526 (C.D. Cal. Apr. 1, 2008) (applying 5.2 multiplier); See also Steinder v. Am. Broadcasting Co., Inc. (9th Cir. 2007) 248 Fed. Appx. 780, 783 (approving multiplier of 6.85 and citing cases with comparable or higher multipliers); Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp. (9th Cir. 2002) 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 (finding no abuse of discretion in awarding a multiplier of 3.65).

In Torchia v. WW Grainger, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2014) 304 F.R.D. 256, 275-278, a federal magistrate in Fresno approved attorneys' fees of $550,000 constituting a 3.57 multiplier on class counsel's total lodestar of $153,856, in a wage and hour class action where class counsel expended 457.85 hours on the case, engaged in limited formal discovery, and where the case settled for $2,750,000 within one year from filing the Complaint with 909 class members claiming $1,305,200 and the remainder, except for the attorneys' fees and costs, reverting to the company.

As set forth in the declarations of Class Counsel submitted herewith, the actual aggregated lodestar between the attorneys working on this case is approximately $85,362.50, which is summarized in the following table and the declaration of Class Counsel:

Attorney	Experience	Hourly Rate	Hours	Total Lodestar
Mehrdad Bokhour	13 years	$750	65 ²	$48,750
Joshua Falakassa	12 years	$725	50.5	$36,612.50
Total Lodestar				$85,362.50

(See Bokhour Decl., ¶ 19, Falakassa Decl. ¶ 16.)

The requested fee of $116,666.66 represents a modest multiplier of 1.36 on the combined lodestar of $85,362.50, which is well within the range that courts regularly approve.

The hourly rates above are comparable to those of other attorneys with similar experience, if not somewhat lower (i.e., the Laffrey Matrix at www.laffreymatrix.com indicates that the rate for a 4-year attorney is $455/hour and for a 12-year attorney is $742/hour). Moreover, the Wolters Kluwer 2017 Real Rate Report ("Real Rate Report") provides directly applicable information in this regard. The Real Rate Report is based on an extensive, statistically significant compilation of data comprising 25.8 million billing entries and 23.9 million hours billed by over 112,100 individual timekeepers from 4,620 law firms, totaling $9.02 billion in billed fees. (See Wolters Kluwer's ELM Solutions, Inc., 2017 Real Rate Report). The Real Rate Report then compiles and analyzes this data to provide the hourly rates for partners and associates in major metropolitan areas. For the southern California area, which is based on billing entries for 1,125 partners and 1,566 associates, the Real Rate Report states that (a) the rates for partners in Los Angeles is between $640 and $869.75 per hour for the middle and upper quartiles, and (b) the rates for associates in Los Angeles is between $478.74 and $638.97 for the median and upper quartiles.

² Includes an estimated 15 hours of additional work preparing for and attending the hearing (inclusive of finalizing and filing the motion, appearing at the hearing, addressing the Court's questions/concerns, submitting revised documents, responding to class members who are anxious to receive their check, and so on), as well as 20 hours in anticipated work to be performed after the final approval, working with counsel, administrator, and Class Members (which includes up to 1.5 years of case management relating to ensuring timely payment from Defendant, reviewing the calculations, checks are timely mailed, responding to class members questions about the timing of checks/missing checks/lost checks and remailings, working with the administrator regarding uncashed checks and remailings, assisting with the Administrator's declarations regarding payments and uncashed checks, potentially filing an amended judgment, appearing at the final disbursement hearing and/or submitting paperwork related thereto.

1 And, perhaps most importantly, the information in the Real Rate Report is not based on self-2 reported numbers, surveys, sampling, reviews, or other publications – instead, it is based on the 3 actual hours and fees billed by law firms. These numbers are not surprising, given that the 4 National Law Journal article reported that in 2014, partners in Los Angeles charged an average 5 of $665, while the average associate rate was $401. (Sloan, $1,000 Per Hour Isn't Rare Anymore;
6 Nominal Billing Levels Rise, But Discounts Ease Blow (2014) Nat. Law Journal.). (Bokhour
7 Decl., ¶ 24-26.)

8 Thus, not only are Plaintiff's Counsel's rates reasonable and typical, but the attorneys' 9 fees requested are in line with Plaintiff's Counsel's lodestar, all confirming that the fee request is 10 fair and reasonable.

11 Class Counsel are also highly experienced in Class/PAGA litigation, including having 12 been selected as a "Super Lawyer" in employment litigation on multiple occasions and having 13 achieved some of the largest settlements in California in 2021 through 2025. (Bokhour Decl. ¶¶ 14 2-6; Falakassa Decl. ¶¶ 3-8). Indeed, Class Counsel's rates are typical of those charged by defense 15 counsel with similar experience doing similar employment litigation in this region.

16 6. Public Policy Considerations Require the Award of Adequate Fees So 17 Competent and Experienced Counsel Will Undertake Such 18 Representations

19 In many complex actions such as this one, able counsel for plaintiffs can be retained only 20 on a contingent basis. A large segment of the public would be denied a remedy and the ability to 21 retain counsel to pursue low-value individual claims in actions such as the current case if fees 22 awarded by the courts in successful cases did not fairly and adequately compensate counsel for 23 the services provided, the serious risks undertaken, and the delay before any compensation is 24 received.

25 Fair fee awards in successful cases ensure that competent legal services will be available.
26 The complexity and societal importance of this type of litigation call for the most capable counsel 27 available to plaintiffs. To encourage first-rate attorneys to represent plaintiffs on a contingent 28 basis in this type of important litigation, attorneys' fees awarded should reflect this goal. In its

1 landmark decision, Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 4 Cal.3d 800, a unanimous Supreme Court 2 noted:

3 “Thirty years ago commentators, in urging the utility of the class suit to vindicate 4 the rights of stockholders, made this incisive observation: ‘Modern society seems 5 increasingly to expose men to . . . group injuries for which individually they are in 6 a poor position to seek legal redress, either because they do not know enough or 7 because such redress is disproportionately expensive. If each is left to assert his 8 rights alone if and when he can, there will at best be a random and fragmentary 9 enforcement, if there is any at all. This result is not only unfortunate in the particular 10 case, but it will operate seriously to impair the deterrent effect of the sanctions 11 which underlie much contemporary law. The problem of fashioning an effective 12 and inclusive group remedy is thus a major one.’ [Citation.]” (Vasquez v. Superior 13 Court, supra, 4 Cal.3d 800, 807.)

14 The same rationale applies to this litigation. California's express judicial policy is to favor 15 the maintenance of these types of representative actions. (See, e.g., *Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
16 Superior Court* (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, 340; Pearce v. Superior Court (1983) 149 Cal.App.3d 17 1058, 1065; Kraus v. Trinity Management Services, Inc. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 116, 126.)

18 One of the purposes for awarding fees in such a situation is:

19 “[E]ncouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to 20 undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection of recovery of the 21 fund if he is assured that he will be promptly and directly compensated should his efforts 22 be successful.” (In re Stauffer’s Estate (1959) 53 Cal.2d 124, 132.)

23 Conversely, a reduction in attorneys’ fees due to the size of the settlement in this case 24 would create perverse incentives for class action attorneys—effectively penalizing them for 25 obtaining more favorable results on behalf of the class. Public policy would be best served by 26 encouraging class action attorneys to recover the greatest reasonably possible amount on behalf 27 of the injured class members. The award of attorneys’ fees as requested by Class Counsel would 28 properly reward Class Counsel’s efforts in advancing a ‘clear public policy’ and would encourage additional such efforts. These important public policy considerations support the Court’s approval of the fee requested.

29 VII. THE REQUESTED COSTS AND SERVICE PAYMENT ARE REASONABLE

30 A. The Requested Costs Are Reasonable and Merit Approval

31 Class Counsel’s actual costs through the final approval hearing are estimated to be

1 $15,800.45. These costs include mediation, filing, expert, and process service fees. They are 2 reasonable and uncontested. (Bokhour Decl. ¶ 22.)

3 B. The Requested Class Representative Service Payment is Reasonable and 4 Merits Approval

5 A named plaintiff is an essential ingredient of any class action, and a service payment 6 is appropriate to induce individuals to step forward and assume the burdens and obligations of 7 representing the settlement class. Courts regularly approve service payments to compensate 8 named plaintiffs for their service to the class and the risks they incurred during the litigation.
9 (See, e.g., Bell v. Farmers Insurance Exchange (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (upholding 10 “service payments” to named Plaintiff for their efforts in bringing class action); Rodriguez v.
11 West Publishing (9th Cir. 2009) 563 F.3d 948, 959 (stating that incentive awards are “intended 12 to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the class, to make up for 13 financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, and, sometimes, to recognize 14 their willingness to act as a private attorney general.”).

15 Under the Settlement, Defendant agreed not to oppose Plaintiff’s request for a Class 16 Representative Service Payment in the amount of $10,000, which Plaintiff seeks in recognition 17 of his contributions as the Class Representative. Plaintiff came forward and undertook 18 significant risks, including the risk of being blackballed in the industry, losing his job, and being 19 liable for Defendant’s costs if he lost the case. This factor is significant for a relatively low-20 wage earner, and the potential risk is very real. (See Whiteway v. FedEx Kinkos Office & Print 21 Svcs., Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 17, 2007) No. C 05-2320 SBA, 2007 WL 4531783, at *3 (“the few 22 courts to consider this ‘class representatives’ dilemma’ have not found it inequitable to assess 23 costs upon the lead or named plaintiff in a class action.”).)

24 As further detailed in Plaintiff’s Declaration in Support of Preliminary Approval of 25 Class Action Settlement on file with this Court, Plaintiff committed a significant number of 26 hours to assist with the investigation, litigation, settlement processes of this case to assist on 27 the matter. Plaintiff also spent considerable time helping prepare for and aid in the mediation 28 and settlement process. The requested Class Representative Service Payment of $10,000 to 1 Plaintiff is reasonable, particularly in light of the substantial benefits Plaintiff generated for the 2 Settlement Class Members, the risks he undertook while giving up the right to separately pursue 3 his individual wage and hour claims.

4 The Class Notice sent to each Settlement Class Member detailed the proposed Class 5 Representative Service Payment. No Settlement Class Member objected to the proposed 6 payment to Plaintiff. Thus, Plaintiff requests that the Court approve the service payments as 7 reasonable and appropriate.

8 VIII. OTHER MATTERS RE: FINAL APPROVAL

9 A. Settlement Administration Costs

10 The parties agreed that the Settlement Administrator, CPT, would be compensated for 11 services performed. The Settlement Administrator's requested fee is $7,500. (Cunningham 12 Decl., ¶ 14)

13 B. Uncashed Checks

14 The Settlement Agreement provides that any checks that remain uncashed after 180 days 15 will be transferred to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the 16 Class Member.

17 C. Final Report

18 Defendant shall fund the Gross Settlement Amount in two installments as follows: fifty 19 percent (50%) of the GSA shall be paid within thirty (30) calendar days after the Effective Date, 20 and the remaining fifty percent (50%) of the GSA, shall be paid within ninety (90) calendar days 21 after the first payment (i.e., one hundred-and-twenty (120) calendar days after the Effective date).
22 As such, the parties propose submitting a final report in the form of a declaration from the 23 Settlement Administrator setting forth the money that was actually paid to the Settlement Class 24 Members and potentially unclaimed funds represented by such checks to the California 25 Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member.

26 D. Submission to the LWDA

27 Plaintiff has complied with all notice requirements under Labor Code section 2699(1)(2), 28 and the LWDA has not objected. As set forth in the Declaration of Mehrdad Bokhour in Support

1 of Final Approval of Class Action Settlement at ¶ 24, the Settlement was previously submitted 2 to the LWDA in accordance with Labor Code § 2699(1)(2).

3 IX. CONCLUSION

4 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable and 5 merits approval. This Motion is unopposed by Defendant. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff 6 requests that the Court grant this Motion and finally approve the Settlement.
