3 Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382.....8

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.769(d) and (e), Plaintiff Cynthia Vanegas
4 (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) seeks preliminary approval of a class action settlement of wage and hour
5 claims, including representative claims brought under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004
6 (“PAGA”), against Defendant Adept Fasteners, Inc. (hereinafter “Defendant”). The proposed Class
7 is defined as all current and former employees employed by Defendant in the State of California
8 (“Class Members”) during the period from September 23, 2020, through September 5, 2025 (“Class 9 Period”).¹ The main terms of the Settlement are as follows:

- 10 1. A Gross Settlement Amount of $285,000.00, which will be distributed to 11 approximately 252 Class Members on a pro rata basis according to the total 12 Workweeks worked by each Class Member during the Class Period;
- 13 2. Attorneys’ fees of up to one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently 14 estimated to be $95,000.00) and up to $25,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation 15 costs to Plaintiff’s Counsel;
- 16 3. A Class Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 to Plaintiff;
- 17 4. Costs of settlement administration of up to $6,250.00; and
- 18 5. Allocation of $6,500.00 to PAGA penalties, sixty-five percent (65%) of which 19 ($4,225.00) will be paid to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency 20 (“LWDA”), and thirty-five percent (35%) of which ($2,275.00) will be paid to all 21 current and former non-exempt employees employed by Defendant in the State of 22 California (“Aggrieved Employees”) at any time from November 6, 2023, through 23 September 5, 2025 (“PAGA Period”).

24 ///

25 _____

26 ¹ The escalator clause of the Settlement Agreement provided Defendant an option to 27 shorten the Class Period in the event the escalator was triggered. Settlement Agreement at § 8. In 28 advance of this Motion’s filing, Defendant provided the Class List to the Administrator, and the Administrator confirmed that the escalator clause was not triggered. Declaration of Norma Ayala of Apex Class Action Re Workweeks at ¶¶ 4-5.

1 The Settlement meets all criteria for preliminary approval and falls within the range of 2 reasonableness given the risks and expenses of further litigation. The Settlement was reached 3 through informed, arm's length bargaining between experienced attorneys with the assistance of 4 an experienced neutral. As such, Plaintiff requests that the Court grant preliminary approval of the 5 Settlement, conditionally certify the Class for settlement purposes only, appoint Plaintiff as the 6 Class Representative, appoint Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel, appoint Apex Class Action as 7 the Settlement Administrator, authorize the Settlement Administrator to administer notice of the 8 Settlement to the Class, and set a final approval hearing date.

9 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

10 On September 23, 2024, Plaintiff Cynthia Vanegas filed this putative class action against 11 Defendant Adept Fasteners, Inc. (hereinafter "Defendant") alleging: (1) failure to pay minimum 12 and straight time wages; (2) failure to pay overtime wages; (3) failure to provide meal periods; (4) 13 failure to authorize and permit rest periods; (5) failure to timely pay final wages at termination; (6) 14 failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements; (7) failure to indemnify employees for 15 expenditures; (8) failure to produce requested employment records; and (9) unfair business 16 practices ("Class Action"). Declaration of John G. Yslas in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for 17 Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement ("Yslas Decl.") at ¶ 3.

18 On November 6, 2024, Plaintiff provided written notice to the LWDA and Defendant of 19 the specific provisions the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and 20 theories in support. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4, Exhibit 1. The LWDA did not notify Plaintiff that it intended 21 to investigate within 65 days of this written notice. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4. Therefore, on January 10, 22 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint in this Class Action adding a cause of action for 23 civil penalties under PAGA. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 5.

24 On July 7, 2025, the Parties participated in a private full-day mediation with mediator, the 25 Hon. Amy Hogue (Ret.). Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial, conducted at arm's 26 length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their clients. Id. The 27 Parties accepted a mediator's proposal and agreed upon general settlement terms. Id. The Parties 28 memorialized their agreement in a Memorandum of Understanding on July 30, 2025. Id.

1 The Parties negotiated the terms of the Settlement over the next few months, which was 2 finalized in January 2026. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 7, Exhibit 3 (“Settlement Agreement”). On February 3 10, 2026, Plaintiff submitted a copy of the Settlement Agreement to the LWDA. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 4 8, Exhibit 4.

5 III. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT TERMS

6 A. Terms of the Proposed Settlement

7 The parties have agreed to settle the claims alleged in this Class Action and PAGA Action
8 for a Gross Settlement Amount of $285,000.00. Settlement Agreement at § 3.1. Subject to Court 9 approval, the following payments will be deducted from the Gross Settlement Amount: (1) a Class 10 Representative Service Payment of up to $7,500.00 to Plaintiff; (2) attorneys’ fees of up to one 11 third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount (currently estimated to be $95,000.00) and 12 reimbursement of litigation costs of up to $25,000.00 to Plaintiff’s Counsel; (3) costs of settlement
13 administration of up to $6,250.00 to Apex Class Action; (4) individual class payments to Class 14 Members; and (5) PAGA penalties in the amount of $6,500.00, which will be allocated 65% to the 15 LWDA ($4,225.00) and 35% to Aggrieved Employees ($2,275.00). Id. at § 3.2. After all requested 16 deductions are made, the remaining Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be 17 $479,716.67. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 21.

18 Individual class payments will be calculated based on the number of workweeks worked 19 by each Class Member during the Class Period. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.4. For tax purposes, 20 the individual class payments will be allocated 20% to wages and 80% to interest, reimbursement, 21 and penalties. Id. at § 3.2.4.1. Defendant will separately pay any and all employer payroll taxes
22 owed on the wage positions of the individual class payments separate from the Gross Settlement 23 Amount. Id. at 3.1.

24 Individual PAGA Payments to Aggrieved Employees will be calculated based on the 25 number of PAGA Pay Periods worked by each Aggrieved Employee during the PAGA Period. Id.
26 at § 3.2.5.1. For tax purposes, the Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated 100% to penalties.
27 Id. at § 3.2.5.2.

28 Any deductions not approved by the Court will be retained by the Settlement Administrator

1 in the Net Settlement Amount. Id. at § 3.2. Funds from any uncashed checks will be transmitted 2 by the Settlement Administrator to the California Controller’s Unclaimed Property Fund in the 3 name of the Class Member thereby leaving no “unpaid residue.” Id. at § 4.3.3. None of the Gross 4 Settlement Amount will revert to Defendant. Id. at § 3.1.

5 B. Proposed Settlement Administration

6 The parties’ proposed Class Notice complies with the requirements of California Rules of 7 Court, rule 3.766(d). See Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement. It provides information regarding 8 the nature of this lawsuit, a summary of the settlement terms, the formula used for calculating 9 individual class and PAGA payments and instructions to dispute the calculations, instructions on 10 how to opt-out of or object to the Settlement, the date, time, and location of the final approval 11 hearing, and the amounts sought for the class representative service payment, attorneys’ fees and 12 litigation costs, and settlement administration costs. See generally, id. The Class Notice also 13 notifies Class Members that they do not need to submit a claim in order to participate in the 14 Settlement and receive a payment. See id. The Settlement Administrator will mail Class Members 15 the Class Notice by first-class mail. Settlement Agreement at § 7.4.2.

16 If a Class Notice is returned as undeliverable, the Settlement Administrator will re-mail the 17 Class Notice within three (3) business days to the forwarding address provided by the U.S. Postal 18 Service. Id. at § 7.4.3. If no forwarding address is provided, the Settlement Administrator will 19 conduct a Class Member Address Search and re-mail the Class Notice to the most current address 20 obtained. Id. The deadline to opt-out of the Settlement or to submit an objection or dispute will be 21 extended by 14 days for all Class Members whose Class Notice was remailed. Id. at § 7.4.4.

22 C. Proposed Releases

23 Effective on the date when Defendant fully funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and 24 all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff, 25 Class Members, and Class Counsel will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

Release by Participating Class Members:

All Participating Class Members will release the Released Parties from (i) all claims, rights, demands, liabilities, and causes of action, alleged or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts alleged in the Action, including, 1) failure to pay all wages (including minimum wages, other wages, and paid sick leave at the correct rates of pay and straight time wages); 2) failure to pay all overtime wages (including failure to pay at the regular rate of pay); 3) meal period violations and claims for meal period premium pay; 4) rest period violations and claims for rest period premium pay; 5) failure to pay all wages during employment and upon termination; 6) wage statement violations and failure to keep required records (Lab. Code § 1174); 7) failure to reimburse expenses, and 8) Unfair Competition Law violations. The enumeration of these specific claims shall neither enlarge nor narrow the scope of res judicata based on the claims that were asserted in the Action or could have been asserted in the Action based on the facts and circumstances alleged in the Complaint. The Released Class Claims are those that accrued during the Class Period. Except as set forth in Section 5.3 of this Agreement, Participating Class Members do not release any other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the Class Period.

Settlement Agreement at § 5.2.

Release by Aggrieved Employees:

All Aggrieved Employees are deemed to release all claims for PAGA civil penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts alleged the Action and in Plaintiff's November 6, 2024 PAGA Notices, including, 1) failure to pay all wages for all hours worked (including minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages); 2) failure to pay all overtime wages (including failure to pay at the regular rate of pay); 3) meal period violations and claims for meal period premium pay; 4) rest period violations and claims for rest period premium pay; 5) failure to pay all earned wages two times per month; 6) failure to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods taken or missed; 7) failure to pay all wages upon termination; 8) wage statement violations; 9) failure to reimburse expenses; and 9) failure to keep accurate and complete payroll records. The Released PAGA Claims are those that accrued during the PAGA Period.

Settlement Agreement at § 5.3.

"Released Parties" means "Defendant and each of their insurers, predecessors, successors, assigns, employees, officers, directors, agents, and attorneys." Settlement Agreement at § 1.42.

Only Plaintiff will agree to a general release and a waiver of Civil Code § 1542. Id. at §§ 5.1, 5.1.1.

IV. THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT MEETS ALL CRITERIA FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

A. Provisional Certification of the Class is Appropriate

Class certification is appropriate when there is: (1) an ascertainable and sufficiently

1 numerous class; (2) a well-defined community of interest among class members; and (3) substantial 2 benefits from certification that render proceeding as a class superior to the alternatives. Brinker 3 Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court, 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1021 (2012). Although courts still need to 4 review and consider each element for certification, a lesser standard can be used to provisionally
5 certify a settlement class. Global Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal.App.4th 6 836, 859 (2003).

7 1. The Proposed Class is Numerous and Ascertainable

8 “Ascertainability” is determined by examining the class definition and the size of the class, 9 and may also involve examining the means available to identify class members. Noel v. Thrifty 10 Payless, Inc., 7 Cal.5th 955, 980-981, 985-986 (2019). As the settlement eliminates the need for 11 trial, “the case management issues inherent in the ascertainable class determination need not be 12 confronted.” Global Minerals, 113 Cal.App.4th at 859. Further, under California law, there is no 13 minimum number of class members for maintenance of a class action. Hendershot v. Ready to Roll 14 Transp., Inc., 228 Cal.App.4th 1213, 1222 (2014). Class sizes as small as 10 have been permitted.
15 Rose v. City of Hayward, 126 Cal.App.3d 926, 934 (1981), disapproved on other grounds by Noel, 16 7 Cal.5th at 986.

17 The Class here consists of all current and former employees employed by Defendant in the 18 State of California during the Class Period. See Settlement Agreement at § 1.5. The Class is also 19 readily ascertainable from Defendant’s business records, because all Class Members are or were 20 employees of Defendant. Id. Defendant’s records show there are approximately 252 Class 21 Members, making joinder of all Class Members impracticable. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10.

22 2. A Well-Defined Community of Interest Exists

23 The community of interest requirement embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 24 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 25 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class. Brinker, 53 Cal.4th at 1021.

26 a. Common Questions Predominate

27 In determining whether common issues “predominate,” courts consider both plaintiff’s 28 legal theories and defendant’s affirmative defenses. Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat’l Ass’n, 59 Cal.4th 1, 28-29 (2014). The “predominate common questions” factor does not require that all class members have identical claims. Ayala v. Antelope Valley Newspapers, Inc., 59 Cal.4th 522, 530 (2014). Rather, the focus is on whether issues shared by the class members are sufficiently uniform to permit class-wide assessment, and whether individual variations in proof on those issues are manageable. Id.

Plaintiff has alleged that Defendant maintained common employment policies and/or practices that unlawfully deprived Class Members of wages, meal periods, rest periods, reimbursements for business expenses, accurate wage statements, timely payment of wages upon separation of employment, and timely production of employment records. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. These allegations present common factual and legal questions of, inter alia, whether Defendant applied the same scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and employment record production policies to all Class Members, whether these policies and practices resulted in Labor Code violations, whether Defendant’s conduct was intentional, and whether Class Members are entitled to damages and/or penalties. Id. These common questions could be resolved using Class Members’ time records, payroll records, testimony from Defendant’s designated representative(s), and Class Members’ testimony. Id. Therefore, the Court can and should exercise its discretion to grant conditional class certification for settlement purposes.

b. Plaintiff is Typical of the Class

Typicality does not require that the representative plaintiff’s claims and those of the class members be identical or perfectly aligned. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228 (2001), disapproved on other grounds by Hernandez v. Restoration Hardware, Inc., 4 Cal.5th 260, 269-280 (2018). Typicality does not require that a plaintiff’s claims be identical to those of other class members, only that their claims and the defenses applicable to them are sufficiently similar to those of other class members that a named plaintiff is able to adequately represent the class and focus on common issues. Medraza v. Honda of North Hollywood, 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 99 (2008).

Plaintiff has alleged that she and Class Members were employed by the same Defendant and injured by Defendant’s common wage and hour policies and practices, including Defendant’s scheduling, timekeeping, pay, meal period, rest period, reimbursement, and employment record production policies. See Yslas Decl. at ¶ 11. Through informal discovery, Plaintiff confirmed that these challenged policies and practices applied to Plaintiff and Class Members alike. See id. at ¶ 9. Therefore, Plaintiff’s claims and Class Members’ claims arise from the same challenged employment policies and practices and are based on the same legal theories.

c. Plaintiff and Plaintiff’s Counsel Will Adequately Represent the Class

Certification requires adequacy of both the proposed class representative and of the proposed class counsel. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 382. “Only a conflict that goes to the very subject matter of the litigation will defeat a party’s claim of representative status.” Richmond v. Dart Industries, 29 Cal.3d 462, 470 (1981). Only conflicts that are “irreconcilable” can defeat adequacy. Nat’l Solar Equip. Owners’ Ass’n v. Grumman Corp., 235 Cal.App.3d 1273, 1286 (1991). The proposed representative Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel present no such conflict.

Plaintiff’s interests are coextensive with Class Members’ interests. Declaration of Cynthia Vanegas in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement (“Vanegas Decl.”) at ¶ 6. Plaintiff has demonstrated an ability to advocate for the interests of Class Members by initiating this lawsuit, providing information and documents to her attorneys, meeting with her attorneys regarding the claims, making herself available the day of mediation to answer questions, and reviewing the proposed Settlement. Vanegas Decl. at ¶ 7.

Likewise, Wilshire Law Firm, PLC has expended considerable time and effort on this case and will continue to do so through final approval. See generally, Yslas Decl. Therefore, Plaintiff should be appointed Class Representative, and her counsel should be appointed Class Counsel.

3. A Class Action is Superior to a Multitude of Individual Lawsuits

Courts have held that class treatment of wage and hour claims is clearly “superior to the other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.” Dean Witter Reynolds, Inc. v. Superior Court, 211 Cal.App.3d 758, 772-773 (1989). This is so because “[p]ublic policy has long favored the ‘full and prompt payment of wages due an employee.’” Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court, 34 Cal.4th 319, 340 (2004). Here, a class action is superior to a

1 multitude of individual lawsuits. Given the size and amount of each Class Members' claim, Class 2 Members have little incentive to litigate their claims on an individual basis because the out-of-3 pocket expenses and personal commitment necessary to litigate each claim likely outweigh any 4 potential recovery. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 10. Therefore, a class action is the superior method for seeking 5 relief.

6 B. The Settlement Meets the Standards for Preliminary Approval

7 The moving party must demonstrate that "the settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable."
8 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 126 (2008). "In determining whether a 9 class settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable, the trial court should consider relevant factors, 10 such as the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further 11 litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, 12 the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of 13 counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the 14 proposed settlement." Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 244-245 (internal quotations and citations 15 omitted).

16 1. The Settlement is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness

17 A settlement is entitled to "a presumption of fairness . . . where: (1) the settlement is reached 18 through arm's length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel 19 and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the 20 percentage of objectors is small." Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 (1996).
21 The Settlement here satisfies the first three factors. Plaintiff will analyze the fourth factor at final 22 approval after Class Members have been notified of the Settlement and provided with an 23 opportunity to object.

24 a. The Settlement is the Result of Arm's Length Negotiation

25 Courts have recognized that the involvement of a respected mediator provides a high degree 26 of assurance that the settlement is the result of arm's length bargaining. See Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 27 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 52-53 (2008). The Settlement in this matter was the product of a full-day 28 mediation session with a respected mediator. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 6. The negotiations were adversarial,

1 conducted at arm's length, and tempered by the efforts of both sides to serve the interests of their 2 clients. Id.

3 b. Sufficient Investigation and Discovery Have Been Conducted

4 Prior to attending mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel thoroughly investigated the claims, 5 applicable law, and potential defenses. Id. at ¶ 9. Plaintiff's Counsel assessed the value to the class 6 claims using the data and documents Defendant produced in informal discovery. Id. The data and 7 documents produced by Defendant included the number of Class Members and Aggrieved 8 Employees, the number of workweeks in the Class Period, and the number of pay periods in the 9 PAGA Period, the average rate of pay, documents concerning Plaintiff, Defendant's written wage-10 and-hour policies, and a random sampling of Class Members' time and payroll records. Id.
11 Plaintiff's Counsel engaged an expert to quantify the potential exposure using the time and payroll 12 records, and then assessed the risks associated with each claim meriting reductions in the likely 13 success at class certification and likely recovery at trial. Id.

14 c. Plaintiff's Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation

15 Plaintiff is represented by Wilshire Law Firm, PLC. Id. at ¶ 1. Plaintiff's Counsel has 16 extensive experience litigating wage-and-hour class actions on behalf of employees. See id. at 17 ¶¶ 22-35. Plaintiff's Counsel has been involved as counsel in numerous class actions that have 18 resulted in millions of dollars in recovery. See id.

19 2. The Settlement is Reasonable Given the Strengths of Plaintiff's 20 Claims and the Risks and Expense of Further Litigation

21 A settlement does not have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be considered fair 22 and reasonable. See Rebney v. Wells Fargo Bank, 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1139 (1991). Although 23 the exposure Plaintiff's Counsel calculated is substantial, the various risks at succeeding at class
24 certification and through trial affected the valuation of the claims for settlement purposes. Yslas 25 Decl. at ¶ 12. Based on an analysis of the facts and legal contentions in this case, documents and 26 information from Defendant, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated Defendant's maximum exposure. Id.
27 Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not having the claims certified and the risk of not 28 having prevailed at trial, even if the claims are certified. Id. After using the data Defendant provided, including class member timekeeping and payroll records, as well as class member demographics, with the assistance of a statistics expert, Plaintiff's Counsel created a damages model to evaluate the realistic range of potential recovery for the class. Id.

Minimum and Overtime Wages: Plaintiff's unpaid minimum and overtime wage claims were based on the allegation that Defendant implemented a 9/80 alternative workweek schedule (eight 9-hour days and one 8-hour day per biweekly pay period), but it was facially invalid because it was not approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of the affected employees in the workweek. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 13. Plaintiff alleges that as a result, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members at the proper overtime rate. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel conservatively estimated that Class Members shorted 0.30 of an hour of overtime wages per week in calculating potential exposure to be approximately $307,253.12 for these claims (30,185 workweeks x $22.62 hourly rate x 1.5 overtime rate of pay x 1.00 hour of unpaid work per workweek). Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 40% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $49,160.50 ($$307,253.12 \times 40\% \times 40\%$). Id.

Meal Periods: Plaintiff's meal period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant meal periods or pay meal period premiums in lieu thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 14. For example, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to provide her and other Class Members with timely uninterrupted meal periods. Plaintiff's Counsel's expert found a facial violation rate of approximately 1.9% in Defendant's time and payroll records for shifts greater than five (5) hours. Id. Therefore, potential liability for the meal period claims is approximately $47,974.62 (111,626 shifts greater than 5 hours x $22.62 hourly rate x 1.9% violation rate). Id. However, Defendant argued that Class Members were covered by meal period waivers. Id. Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a risk discount based on a 50% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 40% chance of succeeding at trial on the merits, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $9,594.92 ($$47,974.62 \times 50\% \times 40\%$). Id.

Rest Periods: Plaintiff's rest period claim was based on the allegation that Defendant failed to provide Class Members with legally compliant rest periods or pay rest period premiums in lieu thereof. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 15. For example, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant had a rest period policy that failed to account for the timeliness of rest periods and failed to provide any more than two (2) rest periods in a workday despite a qualifying shift entitling employees to more. Id. Based on these allegations, Plaintiff's Counsel applied a 100% violation rate to all shifts of 3.5 hours or longer. Id. Therefore, potential liability for the rest period claims is approximately $2,591,776.98 (114,579 shifts of 3.5 hours or longer x $22.62 hourly rate x 100% violation rate). Id. However, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this figure to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving rest period claims, particularly because rest periods do not have to be recorded, and to account for the possibility of Class Members voluntarily choosing to forego a rest period. Id. Because this claim would have relied exclusively on Class Member testimony, Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this claim based on a 30% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 20% chance of succeeding at trial, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $155,506.62 ($2,591,776.98 x 30% x 20%). Id.

Reimbursements: Plaintiff's reimbursement claim was based on the allegation that Defendant failed to indemnify Class Members for expenses incurred as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendant. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 16. For example, Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to reimburse her and other Class Members for mandatory personal cell phone use for work. Id. For purposes of calculating Defendant's liability based on a best-case scenario for Plaintiff and the Class, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Defendant were liable to each class member for $50 per month, or $12.50 per workweek, in unreimbursed expenses, for a total amount of approximately $377,312.50 ($7.50 x 30,185 workweeks). Id. Plaintiff's Counsel discounted this figure based on an evaluation of a 30% chance of succeeding at class certification and a 30% chance of succeeding at trial to account for the difficulty of certifying and proving expense reimbursement claims, yielding a realistic damage estimate of approximately $33,958.13 ($377,312.50 x 30% x 30%). Id.

In sum, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated that Plaintiff's maximum recovery for the off-the-clock claim, meal period violations, and rest period violations (i.e., the wage claims) is approximately $2.94 million, but after factoring in the risk and uncertainty of certification and prevailing at trial, Plaintiff's Counsel estimates that Plaintiff's realistic estimated recovery for 1 these non-penalty wage claims is approximately $214,262.04. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 17.

2 Derivative Penalties: Plaintiff alleged that as a result of Defendant's failure to pay all wages 3 owed, Defendant owed waiting time penalties and wage statement penalties. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 18.
4 With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory penalties, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated 5 that Defendant's realistic potential liability is approximately $64,052.42. Id. Defendant's 6 maximum potential liability for waiting time penalties is approximately $450,590.40 ([80 7 employees x $22.62 hourly rate x 8.00 hours/day x 30 days] + [80 employees x $22.62 hourly rate 8 x 0.20 hours of overtime/day x 1.5 overtime rate x 30 days]) based on approximately 80 formerly 9 employed class members during the 3-year statute of limitations period and an average shift length 10 of 8.20 hours. Id. Defendant's maximum potential liability for inaccurate wage statements is 11 approximately $616,950.00 ([189 employees x 1 initial violation/employee x $50 for an initial 12 violation] + [(6,264 pay periods - 189 initial violations) x $100 for each subsequent violation]) 13 based on approximately 189 class members who worked during the 1-year statute of limitations 14 period and approximately 6,264 pay periods in that statutory timeframe. Id. In light of the 15 foregoing, Plaintiff's Counsel believes that it would be unrealistic to expect the Court to award the 16 full $1,067,540.40 in statutory penalties given Defendant's defenses, the contested nature of 17 Plaintiff's claims, the challenges of establishing willfulness as applicable, and the discretionary 18 nature of penalties. Id. Considering that the underlying wage claims are realistically estimated to 19 be approximately $214,262.04, such a disproportionate award would also raise due process 20 concerns. Id. As such, Plaintiff's counsel discounted these figures to account for the risk and 21 uncertainty of obtaining class certification and prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation 22 of approximately $27,035.42 for waiting time penalty claims ($450,590.40 x 30% x 20%), and 23 approximately $37,017.00 for wage statement penalty claims ($616,950.00 x 30% x 20%), or 24 approximately $64,052.42 total for statutory penalties. Id.

25 PAGA: For the PAGA claim, Plaintiff's Counsel determined that Defendant's potential 26 exposure could potentially reach $613,800.00, assuming the initial $100 penalty would apply for 27 each of the 6,138 pay periods in the PAGA Period. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 19. However, even assuming 28 success on the merits of each claim, PAGA gives the Court discretion to reduce penalties for a

1 variety of reasons, including where to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary
2 and oppressive, or confiscatory. Id. As such, Plaintiff's counsel discounted this figure to account 3 for the risk and uncertainty of prevailing at trial, resulting in a realistic evaluation of approximately 4 $61,380.00 for PAGA penalties ($613,800.00 x 10%). Id. The settlement allocates $6,500.00 of 5 the Gross Settlement Amount to PAGA, therefore the PAGA allocation amounts to approximately 6 11% of the realistic maximum damages for PAGA penalties ($6,500.00 / $61,380.00). Id.

7 Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff's Counsel predicted that the realistic maximum 8 recovery for all claims, including penalties, would be approximately $373,652.59. Yslas Decl. at 9 ¶ 20. This means that the gross settlement figure represents approximately 76% of the realistic 10 maximum recovery ($285,000.00 / $373,652.59). Id. Considering the risk and uncertainty of 11 prevailing at class certification and at trial, this is an excellent result for the Class. Id. Indeed, 12 because of the proposed Settlement, Class Members will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will 13 avoid the risk of an unfavorable judgment. Id.

14 Based on the figures in the Settlement Agreement, the Net Settlement Amount available for 15 class settlement payments is currently estimated to be $144,750.00 for approximately 252 Class 16 Members. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 21. As a result, each Settlement Class Member would be eligible to 17 receive an average net benefit of approximately $574.40. Id. Based on the estimated Net Settlement
18 Amount available for individual class payments and there being approximately 30,185 workweeks
19 in the Class Period, the estimated weekly valuation for individual class payments is $4.80 20 ($144,750.00 / 30,185 workweeks). Id. Based on these current estimates, the lowest estimated 21 individual class payment could be $4.80 ($4.80 x 1 week) and the highest estimated individual 22 class payment could be $1,243.20 ($4.80 x approximately 259 weeks in the Class Period). Id.

23 C. The Requested Service Payment is Reasonable

24 Plaintiff seeks a class representative service payment of up to $7,500.00 for accepting the 25 responsibilities of representing the interests of the Class and potential costs that were not borne by 26 any other Class Members. Settlement Agreement at § 3.2.1. A named plaintiff is eligible for 27 payment that reasonably compensates him or her for undertaking and fulfilling a fiduciary duty to 28 represent absent class members. See Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal.App.4th 1380, 1393 (2010); Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App.4th 715, 726 (2004).

Throughout this case, Plaintiff assisted counsel in providing information necessary to prosecute the claims, meeting with counsel regarding the claims, maintaining regular contact with counsel, making herself available the day of mediation to answer questions, and reviewing the Settlement to ensure it was fair to the Class. Vanegas Decl. at ¶ 7. No action would likely have been taken by Class Members individually and no compensation would have been recovered for them, but for Plaintiff's services on behalf of the Class. By actively pursuing this action, Plaintiff furthered the California public policy goal of enforcing the State's wage and hour laws. See Sav-On, 34 Cal.4th at 340. The requested class representative service payments are reasonable and should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff has provided a declaration regarding her work performed to date and will provide additional information as requested or required by the Court at final approval.

D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Are Reasonable

The purpose of an attorneys' fee award in class action litigation is to reward counsel who invested in a case despite the risk of non-payment and achieved a substantial positive result for the class. California courts routinely award attorneys' fees equaling one third or more of the potential value of the common fund. See Chavez, 162 Cal.App.4th at 66, fn. 11 ("Empirical studies show that, regardless of whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

Additionally, Courts utilize "multipliers" to account for the risk of taking on cases where there is no guarantee of recovery, uncertainties as to the amount that will be recovered, uncertainty as to the cost of litigating the case (both in effort and expenses), and uncertainty about how much time will pass before the recovery is obtained. Ketchum v. Moses, 24 Cal.4th 1122, 1132-33 (2001); see also Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal.3d 25, 48-49 (1977) (approving the adjustment of the lodestar figure based on factors specific to the case to ensure fair market value for legal services provided on a contingency basis). Application of that rule is particularly appropriate where the case is brought to redress important rights of vulnerable persons. Ketchum, 24 Cal.4th at 1133.

Generally, "[m]ultipliers can range from 2 to 4 or even higher." Wershba v. Apple

1 Computers, Inc., 91 Cal.App.4th at p. 255 (2001); see also Sutter Health Uninsured Pricing Cases,
2 171 Cal.App.4th 495, 512 (2009) (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a cross-check in an antitrust class
3 action); Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.App.4th 43, 60 (2008) (applying a 2.5 multiplier on a 4 lodestar cross-check); Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1051 n.6 (9th Cir. 2002)
5 (“most” common fund cases apply a multiplier of 1.0-4.0); Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l, 231
6 Cal.App.4th 860, 881-82 (2004) (affirming a 2.13 multiplier after finding that “2 to 4” is a 7 reasonable range for multipliers on a cross-check). See also Bronshteyn v. State of California –
8 Department of Consumer Affairs, 114 Cal.App.5th 537 (2025) (court did not abuse its discretion 9 by awarding 1.75 multiplier for fees incurred up to and including the jury verdict and a 1.25 10 enhancement for hours worked after the verdict where hourly rates for plaintiff’s five senior 11 attorneys were $1,100.00 and $1,000.00); Tran v. Golden State FC LLC, et al. (LASC Case No.
12 BC699931), Fee Order filed April 8, 2022 (approving hourly rate of $1,300.00 for plaintiff’s 32-13 year attorney).

14 Plaintiff seeks appointment of Wilshire Law Firm, PLC as Class Counsel. The attorneys 15 performed significant work and expended litigation costs in prosecuting this matter with no 16 guarantee of payment. Yslas Decl. at ¶ 22. Plaintiff’s Counsel seeks preliminary approval of up to 17 one third (1/3) of the Gross Settlement Amount, currently estimated to be $95,000.00, and up to 18 $25,000.00 in reimbursement of litigation costs. Given the work performed in this matter, the 19 extensive information exchange, and the substantial recovery obtained on behalf of the Class, 20 Plaintiff’s Counsel achieved a settlement through efficient and diligent work. See generally, Yslas 21 Decl. At final approval, Plaintiff’s Counsel will fully brief the merits of its request for the award 22 of attorneys’ fees and litigation costs.

23 E. The Administration Costs are Reasonable

24 The Parties have agreed upon using Apex Class Action to administer this Settlement.
25 Settlement Agreement at § 1.2. Plaintiff seeks preliminary approval of $6,250.00 for Apex Class 26 Action to administer this Settlement pursuant to Apex Class Action’s bid. See Declaration of Sean 27 Hartranft of Apex Class Action in Support of Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class 28 Action and PAGA Settlement at ¶ 7, Exhibit B.

1 V. CONCLUSION

2 The Parties have negotiated a fair and reasonable settlement of the class claims in light of 3 the risks presented in this case. Plaintiff has presented the materials and information necessary to 4 demonstrate that the requirements for preliminary approval have been met, and therefore 5 respectfully request that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement and schedule a date for the 6 final approval hearing.
