1     I.     INTRODUCTION

2             This motion seeks preliminary approval of a non-reversionary proposed wage-and-hour
3 class action settlement by Plaintiff on behalf of herself involves all current and former hourly-paid
4 or non-exempt employees of Defendant Monica Perlman, M.D., Inc., A Professional Medical 5 Corporation (“Defendant”) within the State of California at any time during the period from August
6 15, 2020, through October 15, 2025 (“Class,” “Class Members,” and “Class Period”). At the time
7 of mediation, the number of Class Members is estimated to be seven hundred eighty-six (786), 8 which was confirmed by Defendant. (Declaration of Douglas Han In Support of Motion for 9 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Han Decl.”), ¶¶ 7, 8.)

10    II.    BACKGROUND

11             On August 15, 2024, Plaintiff filed a wage-and-hour class action lawsuit in the Superior 12 Court of California, County of San Diego, alleging eight (8) causes of action. (Han Decl., supra, at 13 ¶ 9.)

14             On November 4, 2024, Juan Londoño provided a written notice to the California Labor and 15 Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendant. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 10; Exhibit 16 3.)

17             After engaging in discovery, investigations, and negotiation, on July 29, 2025, the Parties
18 attended mediation with the mediator Jason Marsili but were unable to negotiate a settlement at the 19 time. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 11.) After continuing negotiations and with the mediator’s assistance,
20 the Parties reached a settlement via a mediator’s proposal. (Ibid.)

21             In line with the settlement, on October 27, 2025, an amended written notice was submitted
22 to the LWDA and Defendant that removed Juan Londoño and added Plaintiff as the named
23 representative. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 12; Exhibit 4.)

24             Plaintiff then filed a First Amended Complaint that adjusted the “class” definition and added
25 cause of action for violation of Labor Code section 2698. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 12; Exhibit 5.)

1 III. INVESTIGATION/ LITIGATION HISTORY

2 a. Discovery, Investigation, and the Parties’ Staunchly Conflicting Positions

3 After initiating this lawsuit, the Parties engaged in discovery. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 15.)
4 Plaintiff drafted and propounded special interrogatories and requests for production of documents.
5 Defendant responded to the formal discovery requests, and Defendant responded to the formal
6 discovery requests. (Ibid.) The Parties met and conferred and agreed to engage in the informal
7 exchange of information and then eventually attended mediation. (Ibid.)

8 Prior to the mediation, Defendant produced documents relating to its policies, practices, and 9 procedures. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 16.) As part of Defendant’s production, Plaintiff reviewed time
10 records, pay records, and information relating to the size and scope of the Class. (Ibid.) Putative 11 class members were also located and interviewed to attain a better understanding of the extent and 12 frequency of the alleged day-to-day violations. (Ibid.)

13 Based on the information provided by Defendant and interviews with putative class
14 members, Plaintiff contends – and Defendant denies – Defendant: (1) failed to provide employees
15 with legally mandated meal and rest breaks; (2) failed to pay employees for all hours worked; (3) 16 failed to include non-discretionary bonuses in employees’ regular rate of pay; (4) maintained an 17 improper rounding practice; (5) failed to reimburse employees for necessary business expenses; (6)
18 issued noncompliant wage statements; and (7) is liable for waiting time penalties. (Han Decl., 19 supra, at ¶¶ 18-26.)

20 b. The Parties Were Able to Reach an Agreement

21 i. The Parties Attended Mediation Which Led to the Settlement

22 The Parties attended mediation with an experienced mediator. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 27.)
23 While the Parties did not initially settle at mediation, continued negotiations with the mediator’s 24 assistance eventually resulted in a settlement via a mediator’s proposal, the terms of which were 25 memorialized in the Settlement Agreement. (Id. at ¶ 27; Exhibits 2, 6.)

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1                                   ii. The Settlement Was Reached as a Result of Arm’s-Length Negotiations

2           The Settlement Agreement was reached because of arm’s-length negotiations. (Han Decl., 3 supra, at ¶ 30.) Though cordial and professional, the settlement negotiations have always been 4 adversarial and non-collusive in nature. (Ibid.) At the mediation, the Parties’ counsel conducted
5 extensive arm’s-length settlement negotiations until an agreement was ultimately reached. (Ibid.)

6           Plaintiff and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of additional proceedings
7 necessary to continue the litigation through trial and any possible appeals. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 8 31.) Plaintiff and Class Counsel also considered the uncertainty and risk of further litigation, 9 potential outcome, and difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. (Ibid.) Based on the 10 foregoing, Plaintiff and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement Agreement is a fair, adequate,
11 and reasonable settlement and is in the best interests of the Class Members. (Ibid.)

12                                   iii. The Settlement Is the Result of Thorough Investigation and Discovery

13           The Parties investigated and evaluated the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and 14 defenses before reaching the Settlement and engaged in research and discovery to support the 15 Settlement Agreement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 32.) The Settlement Agreement was only possible
16 following investigation and evaluation of the relevant policies and practices, permitting Class
17 Counsel to engage in a comprehensive analysis of liability and potential damages. (Ibid.) This case 18 has reached the stage where the Parties understand “the strength of the case; the reasonableness of 19 the settlement in light of the attendant risks of litigation, and in light of the best possible recovery”
20 sufficient to support the reasonableness, adequacy, and fairness of the Settlement Agreement. (Han 21 Decl., supra, at ¶ 32; Boyd v. Bechtel Corp. (N.D.Cal. 1979) 485 F.Supp. 610, 617.)

23   ///

24   ///

1                   c. Terms of the Settlement

2                   i. Deductions from the Settlement

3           The Parties agreed that (subject to the Court’s approval) this matter be settled and 4 compromised for the non-reversionary sum of $850,000 (“Gross Settlement Amount”) which 5 includes: (1) Class Counsel Fees Payment up to $297,500 (35% of the Gross Settlement Amount);
6 (2) Class Counsel Litigation Expenses Payment up to $25,000; (3) Class Representative Service
7 Payment up to $10,000; (4) Administration Expenses Payment up to $15,000; and (5) PAGA
8 Penalties up to $85,000 to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 28.)

9                   ii. Calculating Settlement Payments

10          After all the Court-approved deductions from the Gross Settlement Amount, it is estimated 11 that $417,500 (“Net Settlement Amount”) will be paid to the Participating Class Members – with a 12 gross average Individual Class Payment estimated at $531.17. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 29.)

13          The Participating Class Members will receive a proportionate share of the Net Settlement
14 Amount as their Individual Class Payment using the formula set forth in the Settlement Agreement.
15 (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 27; Exhibit 2, supra, at § C(2)(e).) The Individual Class Payments will be 16 allocated twenty percent (20%) to the settlement of wage claims and eighty percent (80%) to the 17 settlement of claims for interests and penalties. (Ibid.)

18          The portion of the PAGA Penalties that is to be paid to each Aggrieved Employee as their 19 Individual PAGA Payment shall be determined using the formula set forth in the Settlement
20 Agreement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 27; Exhibit 2, supra, at § C(2)(d).) The Aggrieved Employees’
21 portion of the PAGA Penalties will be allocated as one hundred percent (100%) penalties. (Ibid.)

22                   iii. Notice to the Class

23          No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the Court grants Preliminary Approval of the 24 Settlement, Defendant will deliver the Class Data to the Administrator. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 27; 25 Exhibit 2, supra, at § G(4)(a).) No later than fourteen (14) calendar days after receiving the Class
26 Data, the Administrator will send the Class Notice with a translation to all Class Members identified
27 in the Class Data via first-class United States Postal Service mail. (Id. at § G(4)(c).)

The Gross Settlement Amount will be funded and distributed pursuant to the timeline and manner set forth in the Settlement. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 27; Exhibit 2, supra, at §§ D(2), D(3).) The uncashed settlement checks will be canceled and transmitted to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Class Member. (Id. at §§ D(3)(a), D(3)(c).)

Effective on the date when Defendant funds the entire Gross Settlement Amount and funds all employer payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of the Individual Class Payments, Plaintiff and Plaintiff's former and present spouses, representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns generally release and discharge the Released Parties from the Plaintiff's Release. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 27; Exhibit 2, supra, at § E(1).) Plaintiff also expressly waives and relinquishes the provisions, rights, and benefits, if any, of section 1542 of the Civil Code. (Ibid.)

1 With regards to class action releases, ““[A] court may release not only those claims alleged 2 in the complaint and before the court, but also claims which ‘could have been alleged by reason of 3 or in connection with any matter or fact set forth or referred to in’ the complaint.”” (Amaro v.
4 Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (2021) 69 Cal.App.5th 521, 537.) The scope of the releases in 5 this case are acceptable because they are limited to the scope of the allegations in the operative
6 complaints. Moreover, the released claims are ““based on the identical factual predicate as that 7 underlying the claims in the settled class action.”” (Ibid.) In other words, the released claims do
8 not ““go beyond the scope of the allegations in the operative complaint ... .”” (Ibid.)

9 d. Counsel for Both Parties Are Experienced in Similar Litigation

10 The Parties’ counsel are experienced in wage-and-hour employment law and class actions.
11 (Han Decl., supra, at ¶¶ 2-6; Exhibit 1.) Class Counsel have prosecuted numerous cases on behalf
12 of employees for Labor Code violations and are experienced and qualified to evaluate the class
13 claims, settlement versus trial on a fully informed basis, and viability of the defenses. (Ibid.) This 14 experience instructed Class Counsel on the risks and uncertainties of further litigation and guided 15 their determination to endorse the Settlement Agreement.<sup>1</sup> (Ibid.)

16 IV. ARGUMENT

17 a. Class Action Settlements Are Subject to Court Review

18 Rules of Court, rule 3.769 requires court approval for class action settlements.<sup>2</sup> “Before final 19 approval, the court must conduct an inquiry into the fairness of the proposed settlement.” (Rules of 20 Court, rule 3.769(g).) Rule 3.769 further requires a noticed motion for preliminary approval of class 21 settlements:

22 ///

23 ///

24 <sup>1</sup> The final factor mentioned in Dunk – the number of objectors – is not determinable until the 25 Class Notice has been provided to the Class, and they have had an opportunity to respond. This information will be provided to the Court in conjunction with the Motion for Final Approval.

26 <sup>2</sup> The California Supreme Court has authorized California’s trial courts to use Federal Rule
27 23 and cases applying it for guidance in considering class issues. (Vasquez v. Superior Court (1971) 28 4 Cal.3d 800, 821; Green v. Obledo (1981) 29 Cal.3d 126, 145-146.) Where appropriate, the Parties cite Federal Rule 23 and federal case law in addition to California law.

1 (a) A settlement or compromise of an entire class action, or a cause of action in 2 a class action, or as to a party, requires the approval of the court after 3 hearing.

4 . . .

5 (b) Any party to a settlement agreement may serve and file a written notice of 6 motion for preliminary approval of the settlement. The settlement 7 agreement and proposed notice to class members must be filed with the 8 motion, and the proposed order must be lodged with the motion.

9 Courts have discretion to approve settlements that are fair, not collusive, and consider “all 10 the normal perils of litigation as well as the additional uncertainties inherent in complex class
11 actions.” (In re Beef Industry Antitrust Litigation (5th Cir. 1979) 607 F.2d 167, 179, cert. den. sub
12 nom. Iowa Beef Processors, Inc. v. Meat Price Investigators Ass’n (1981) 452 U.S. 905.)

13 b. The Settlement Is a Reasonable Compromise of Claims

14 An understanding of the amount in controversy is an important factor in whether the 15 settlement “of the class members’ claims is reasonable in light of the strengths and weaknesses of 16 the claims and the risks of the particular litigation.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168
17 Cal.App.4th 116, 129; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186
18 Cal.App.4th 399, 409.) The most important factor in this regard is ““the strength of the case for 19 plaintiffs on the merits, balanced against the amount offered in settlement.”” (Kullar, at p. 130; 20 see also Munoz, at p. 409.)

21 Kullar’s instructions to the court is not to “decide the merits of the case or to substitute its 22 evaluation of the most appropriate settlement for that of the attorneys.” (Kullar v. Foot Locker 23 Retail, Inc., supra, 168 Cal.App.4th at p. 133.) Kullar does not require a statement of the maximum 24 amount the class could recover if plaintiff prevailed on all his claims, provided there is a record that 25 allows “an understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes
26 of the litigation.” (Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles, supra, 186 Cal.App.4th 27 at p. 409.) “[A]s the court does when it approves a settlement as in good faith under Code of Civil 28 Procedure § 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of reasonableness.” (Kullar, at p. 133.)

1                   i. The Settlement Amount of $850,000 Is Fair and Reasonable

2           The Settlement Agreement was only possible following significant investigation and 3 evaluation of the relevant policies and procedures, as well as the data produced, as referenced in 4 Section III above, permitting Class Counsel to engage in a comprehensive analysis of liability and 5 potential damages. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 32.)

6           The claims are predicated on the alleged: (1) failure to pay overtime wages; (2) failure to 7 pay minimum wages; (3) failure to provide meal and rest breaks and pay applicable premium wages; 8 (4) failure to timely pay wages; (5) failure to issue compliant wage statements; (6) failure to 9 reimburse business expenses; (7) violation of PAGA; and (8) violation of Business & Professions
10 Code section 17200. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 33.) Defendant vehemently denies the theories of 11 liability. (Id. at ¶ 34.)

12           While Plaintiff believes that the case is suitable for certification, uncertainties with respect
13 to certification are always present. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 35.) As the California Supreme Court 14 ruled in Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court (2004) 34 Cal.4th 319, class certification is 15 always a matter of the trial court's sound discretion. (Ibid.) Decisions following Sav-On Drug
16 Stores, Inc. have reached different conclusions regarding certification of wage-and-hour claims.<sup>3</sup>
17 (Ibid.) Thus, the calculations for potential damages were discounted.

25   <sup>3</sup> (See e.g. Harris v. Superior Court (2007) 154 Cal.App.4th 164 [reversing decertification of 26 class claiming misclassification and ordering summary adjudication in favor of employees], review
27 granted Nov. 28, 2007, (2007) 171 P.3d 545 [not cited as precedent, but rather for illustrative
28 purposes only]; Walsh v. IKON Office Solutions, Inc. (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 1440 [affirming

Cal.App.4th 121 [reversing denial of certification]; Dunbar v. Albertson's Inc. (2006) 141
Cal.App.4th 1422 [affirming denial of certification].)

1                   ii. The PAGA Penalties of $85,000 Are Reasonable

2           The provisions of the Labor Code potentially triggering PAGA penalties include Labor
3 Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a),
4 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800, and 2802. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 45.)
5 Defendant asserted that, regardless of the results of the underlying causes of action, PAGA penalties
6 are not mandatory but permissive and discretionary. (Ibid.) Defendant also maintained that it had a
7 strong argument that it would be unjust to award maximum PAGA penalties given the unsettled
8 state of the law regarding PAGA penalties. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 45; Thurman v. Bayshore Transit
9 Mgmt. (2012) 203 Cal.App.4th 1112 [reducing penalties by 30% under this authority].) Defendant
10 argued that when limited to the initial violation, the PAGA penalties could be limited to about 11 $49,700 (497 employees x $100 penalty for initial violation) on the low end and $347,900 (497
12 employees x $100 penalty for initial violation x 7 theories of recovery) on the high end. (Han Decl.,
13 supra, at ¶¶ 46-48.)

14           Plaintiff recognized that the risk that any PAGA award could be reduced. (Han Decl., supra, 15 at ¶ 49.) Many of the causes of action brought were also duplicative of the statutory claims. (Ibid.)
16 Allocating $85,000 to PAGA penalties was reasonable given that Defendant is also paying an 17 additional $765,000 in the class settlement. (Ibid.) When PAGA penalties are negotiated in good 18 faith and “there is no indication that [the] amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of 19 other Class Members,” such amounts are reasonable.<sup>4</sup> (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 49.)

20           Considering the defenses, supporting evidence, and position that the case is not suitable for 21 class treatment, the Settlement Agreement is reasonable, adequate, and fair.

22                   c. Discount Analysis Justifies the Settlement

23           Excluding the civil penalties, which could be completely discretionary, the total estimated 24 potential exposure, assuming certification and prevailing at trial, would be about $7,948,451.78 on 25 the low end and around $8,597,957.60 on the high end. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 50.)

| MAXIMUM TOTAL EXPOSURE                | $7,948,451.78to$8,597,957.60<sup>5</sup> |                    |             | $1,023,065.09to$1,125,362.26<sup>6</sup> |

The realistic recovery for this case is about $1,023,065.09 on the low end and $1,125,362.26 on the high end. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 59.) The Gross Settlement Amount is about ten percent (9.89%) of the maximum potential exposure and around seventy-five percent (75.53%) of the maximum realistic exposure at trial, which is a reasonable settlement. (Ibid.)

The only question at preliminary approval is whether the settlement is within the range of possible approval. (In re General Motors Corp. Engine Interchange Litigation (7th Cir. 1979) 594 F.2d 1106, 1124; Acosta v. TransUnion, LLC (C.D.Cal. 2007) 240 F.R.D. 564, 575.) “The fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be disapproved.” (Detroit v. Grinnell Corp. (2d Cir. 1974) 495 F.2d 448, 455; see also Linney v. Cellular Alaska P’ship (9th Cir. 1998) 151 F.3d 1234, 1242, “[I]t is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements. The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.”) This settlement is in line with the realistic exposure if Plaintiff had prevailed at trial and provides a significant recovery for the Class Members.

1           d. Conditional Certification of the Class Is Appropriate

2           Code of Civil Procedure section 382 “authorizes class actions ‘when the question is one of 3 a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is 4 impracticable to bring them all before the court.’” (Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v. Superior Court,
5 supra, 34 Cal.4th at p. 326.) California courts certify class actions if plaintiff identifies “both [1] an 6 ascertainable class and [2] a well-defined community of interest among class members.” (Ibid.)

7           The Class is ascertainable and numerous as to make it impracticable to join all Class
8 Members, and there are common questions of law and fact that predominate over any questions
9 affecting any individual Class Member. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 60.) Plaintiff contends that her
10 claims are typical of the claims of the Class, and Class Counsel will fairly and adequately protect 11 the interests of the Class. (Ibid.) Plaintiff asserts that the prosecution of separate actions by 12 individual Class Members would create the risk of inconsistent or varying adjudications. (Ibid.)

13           i. The Proposed Class Is Ascertainable and Sufficiently Numerous

14           “Ascertainability is required in order to give notice to putative class members as to whom 15 the judgment in the action will be res judicata.” (Hicks v. Kaufman & Broad Home Corp. (2001)
16 89 Cal.App.4th 908, 914.) “A class is ascertainable if it identifies a group of unnamed plaintiffs by 17 describing a set of common characteristics sufficient to allow a member of that group to identify 18 himself or herself as having a right to recover based on the description.” (Bartold v. Glendale 19 Federal Bank (2000) 81 Cal.App.4th 816, 828.) The proposed class must also be sufficiently 20 numerous. (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal.4th 429, 435.)

21           This case involves approximately seven hundred eighty-six (786) Class Members, meaning 22 that the Class is sufficiently numerous. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 61; Ghazaryan v. Diva Limousine, 23 Ltd. (2008) 169 Cal.App.4th 1524, 1531, n.5 [finding a proposed class of “as many as 190 current 24 and former employees” is sufficiently numerous].)

25       ///

26       ///

27       ///

1                                    ii. Class Members Share a Well-defined Community of Interest

2            The community of interest requirement “embodies three factors: (1) predominant common 3 questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the class; and 4 (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.” (Sav-On Drug Stores, Inc. v.
5 Superior Court, supra, 34 Cal.4th at p. 326.) “[T]he community of interest requirement for 6 certification does not mandate that class members have uniform or identical claims.” (Capitol
7 People First v. Department of Developmental Services (2007) 155 Cal.App.4th 676, 692 (emphasis 8 in original).) The courts focus on the defendant’s internal policies and “pattern and practice . . . in 9 order to assess whether that common behavior toward similarly situated plaintiffs renders class
10 certification appropriate.” (Ibid.) The application of each of these factors is discussed below.

11                                    1. Common Issues Predominate

12            The “common issues” requirement “involves analysis of whether the proponent’s ‘theory of 13 recovery’ is likely to prove compatible with class treatment.” (Capitol People First v. Department 14 of Developmental Services, supra, 155 Cal.App.4th at p. 690.) In other words, courts determine 15 whether the elements necessary to establish liability are susceptible to common proof, even if the 16 class members must individually prove their damages. (Brinker Restaurant Corp. v. Superior Court 17 (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1024). These types of claims are regularly granted class certification when 18 the plaintiff can present evidence of common policies. (See e.g. Jones v. JGC Dallas LLC (N.D.Tex.
19 Nov. 29, 2012, Civil Action No. 3:11-CV-2743-O) 2012 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 185042 [certified 20 collective action involving 190 dancers]; Espinoza v. Galardi South Enters. (S.D.Fla. Jan. 11, 2016, 21 No. 14-21244-CIV-GOODMAN) 2016 U.S.Dist.LEXIS 2904 [court certified class of dancers on 22 state law claims].)

23            Plaintiff asserts that common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims
24 alleged. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 62.) Plaintiff contends that all Class Members were subject to the 25 same or similar employment practices, policies, and procedures described in detail above. (Ibid.)

26                                    2. Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical of the Class Claims

27            Typical claims rely on legal theories and facts that are substantially like those of other class
28 members. (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 46.)

1 Plaintiff is a former employee of Defendant and alleges that she and the Class Members were 2 employed by the same company and injured by the common policies and practices related to the 3 claims described above. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 63.) Plaintiff seeks relief for these claims and 4 derivative claims on behalf of the Class. (Ibid.) Thus, the claims arise from the same employment
5 practices and are based on the same legal theories applicable to the Class. (Ibid.)

6 3. Plaintiff Is Adequate to Represent the Class

7 Plaintiff has proven to be an adequate class representative. (Han Decl., supra, at ¶ 64.)
8 Plaintiff conducted herself diligently and responsibly in representing the Class, understands the 9 fiduciary obligations, and actively participated in the prosecution of this case. (Ibid.) Plaintiff spent
10 time in meetings and conferences with Class Counsel to provide them with a complete
11 understanding of the work experience and environment. (Ibid.) Plaintiff has no interests adverse to 12 the interests of the other Class Members. (Ibid.)

13 4. Class Action Is Superior for the Fair and Efficient Adjudication 14 of this Controversy

15 A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of 16 this controversy. Plaintiff contends that the joinder of all Class Members is impractical and that 17 class treatment will permit many similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims for 18 settlement purposes simultaneously in a single forum without the duplication of effort and expense
19 that numerous individual actions would necessitate. Because some Class Members are also current 20 employees, Plaintiff believes that the fear of retaliation further supports the superiority of class-21 wide relief as this fear often discourages current employees from seeking legal redress.

f. Notice to the Class Complies with Rules of Court, Rule 3.769(f)

Rules of Court, rule 3.769(f), provides:

If the court has certified the action as a class action, notice of the final approval hearing must be given to class members in the manner specified by the court. The notice must contain an explanation of the proposed settlement and procedures for class members to follow in filing written objections to it and in arranging to appear at the settlement hearing and state any objections to the proposed settlement.

The Class Notice meets all these requirements. The Class Notice advises the Class Members of their right to participate in the Settlement, how and when to object to or request exclusion from the Settlement, and date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing.

Plaintiff submits the Settlement is in the best interests of the Class. Under the applicable class action criteria and guidelines, the Settlement should be preliminarily approved, Class should be conditionally certified for settlement purposes, and Class Notice should be approved.
