16 Attorneys for Plaintiff JELISA MARGARET SPRAGGINS, 17 on behalf of the general public as private attorney general

18 SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
19 FOR THE COUNTY OF ALAMEDA

20 JELISA MARGARET SPRAGGINS, on 21 behalf of the general public as private attorney 22 general,

23 Plaintiff,

24 v.

25 BAY AREA COMMUNITY RESOURCES, a
26 California Corporation; and DOES 1-50, 27 inclusive,

28 Defendants.

CASE NO.: 25CV107598

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL
ACT (Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq).

COMES NOW Plaintiff JELISA MARGARET SPRAGGINS (“Plaintiff”), on behalf the general public and all non-exempt aggrieved employees, acting on behalf of the California Attorney General as private attorney general, asserts claims against Defendants BAY AREA COMMUNITY RESOURCES, a California Corporation; and DOES 1-50, inclusive (collectively “Defendants”) as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a representative action for recovery of penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”), Cal. Lab. Code sections 2698 et seq. PAGA permits “aggrieved employees” to bring a lawsuit as a representative action on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other current and former aggrieved employees, to recover civil penalties and address an employer’s violations of the California Labor Code.

2. In this case, Defendants violated various provisions of the California Labor Code. As set forth below, Defendants implemented policies and practices which led to unpaid wages resulting from Defendant’s: (a) failure to pay wages including overtime, (b) failure to provide meal periods for every work period exceeding more than ten (10) hours per day and failure to pay an additional hour’s of pay or accurately pay an additional hour’s of pay in lieu of providing a meal period; (c) failure to provide rest breaks for every four hours or major fraction thereof worked and failure to pay an additional hour’s of pay or accurately pay an additional hour’s of pay in lieu of providing a rest period; (d) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements, (e) failure to timely pay wages upon separation, and (f) failing to reimburse business expenses. As a result Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq. on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other aggrieved employees.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The California Superior Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California Constitution Article VI, Section 10, which grants the Superior Court “original jurisdiction in all cases except those given by statute to other trial courts.” The statutes under which this action is brought do not give jurisdiction to any other court.

4. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,

1 each Defendant either has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally 2 avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the 3 California Courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4 5. Venue as to each Defendant is proper in this judicial district pursuant to Code of 5 Civil Procedure section 395. Defendants are doing business throughout California, including but 6 not limited to Alameda County, and each Defendant is within the jurisdiction of this Court for 7 service of process purposes. The unlawful acts alleged herein have a direct effect on Plaintiff and 8 all other aggrieved employees within the State of California. Defendants employ numerous 9 aggrieved employees in in the State of California.

10 6. On information and belief, Defendants have conducted business within the State of 11 California during the purported liability period and continue to conduct business throughout the 12 State of California. The unlawful acts alleged herein have had a direct effect on Plaintiff, and the 13 similarly situated non-exempt aggrieved employees within California.

14 7. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because on 15 information and belief there are no federal questions at issue, as the issues herein are based solely 16 on California statutes and law, including the California Labor Code, the IWC Wage Orders, the 17 California Code of Civil Procedure, the California Civil Code, and the California Business and 18 Professions Code.

19 8. On information and belief, during the statutory liability period and continuing to 20 the present ("liability period"), Defendant consistently maintained and enforced against 21 Defendant's Non-Exempt Aggrieved Employees, among others, the following unlawful practices 22 and policies, in violation of California state wage and hour laws: (a) failure to pay wages including 23 overtime, (b) failure to provide meal periods for every work period exceeding more than ten (10) 24 hours per day and failure to pay an additional hour's of pay or accurately pay an additional hour's 25 of pay in lieu of providing a meal period; (c) failure to provide rest breaks for every four hours or 26 major fraction thereof worked and failure to pay an additional hour's of pay or accurately pay an 27 additional hour's of pay in lieu of providing a rest period; (d) failing to provide accurate itemized 28 wage statements, (e) failure to timely pay wages upon separation, and (f) failing to reimburse

1 business expenses. As a result Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq. on behalf 2 of the general public as private attorney general and all other aggrieved employees.

3 9. Plaintiff on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other 4 aggrieved employees bring this action pursuant to Labor Code 2698, et. seq. for violations 5 enumerated under 2699.5 as follows: sections 201-203, 510, 512, 558, 226, 226.7, 226.3, 1174, 6 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802 and seeking penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and 7 costs

8 III. PARTIES

9 10. Plaintiff, JELISA MARGARET SPRAGGINS, was at all times relevant to this 10 action, a resident of California. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in approximately November 11 2021 as a Non-Exempt Employee with the title of Extended Learning Teacher until Plaintiff's 12 separation from Defendants' employ in approximately March 2024. Plaintiff's duties included but 13 were not limited lesson planning, teaching, and yard duty.

14 11. Defendants BAY AREA COMMUNITY RESOURCES operates as a business that 15 provides direct school-and-community-based services. Defendants focuses its efforts on providing 16 afterschool and expanded learning, behavioral and mental health, fiscal sponsorship, healthy 17 communities and schools, national service, and youth workforce and reentry services. (Last visited 18 Nov. 11, 2024 <https://www.bacr.org/about-us>).. Plaintiff estimates there are in excess of 100 Non-19 Exempt Employees who work or have worked for Defendants over the last year.

20 12. Other than identified herein, Plaintiff is unaware of the true names, capacities, 21 relationships, and extent of participation in the conduct alleged herein, of the Defendants sued as 22 DOES 1 through 50, but is informed and believes and thereon alleges that said defendants are 23 legally responsible for the wrongful conduct alleged herein and therefore sues these defendants by 24 such fictitious names. Plaintiff will amend this complaint when their true names and capabilities 25 are ascertained.

26 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each defendant, directly 27 or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiff and other members of 28 Aggrieved Employees, and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions.

1 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendants acted in all respects
2 pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business 3 plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each Defendants are legally 4 attributable to the other defendants.

5 14. On information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to pay all earned wages in 6 the form regular wages and overtime wages, and meal and rest period premium wages, to its Non-7 Exempt Employees and members of the Representative Group; nor have Defendants returned to 8 Plaintiff or members of the Representative Group, upon or after separation from employment with 9 Defendants, all wages earned and owing. Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code 2698, et. seq.
10 on behalf of the general public as private attorney general and all other aggrieved employees.

11 IV. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

12 1. At all times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff and other persons in the 13 capacity of non-exempt positions, however titled, throughout the state of California.

14 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes Aggrieved Employees have at all times pertinent 15 hereto been Non-Exempt within the meaning of the California Labor Code and the implementing 16 rules and regulations of the IWC California Wage Orders.

17 3. Defendants continue to employ Non-Exempt Employees, however titled, in 18 California and implement a uniform set of policies and practices to all non-exempt employees, as 19 they were all engaged in the generic job duties related to providing assistance and support to 20 Defendants' school/learning programs.

21 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants are and 22 were advised by skilled lawyers and other professionals, employees, and advisors with knowledge 23 of the requirements of California's wage and employment laws.

24 5. Defendants employed Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees as a Non-Exempt hourly 25 paid employees during the liability period.

26 6. Plaintiff alleges that all Aggrieved Employees are citizens of the State of 27 California.

28 7. On information and belief, during the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and Aggrieved

1 Employees frequently worked well over eight (8) hours in a day and forty (40) hours in a work 2 week.

3 8. During the relevant time frame, Defendants compensated Plaintiff and Aggrieved 4 Employees based upon an hourly rate.

5 9. During the relevant time frame, all Aggrieved Employees are citizens of the state of 6 California.

7 10. On information and belief, during the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and Aggrieved 8 Employees were typically scheduled to work 5 days a week for 7 to 8 hours a day. Plaintiff's and 9 Aggrieved Employee's typical shifts were from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. or from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 10 p.m.

11 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the Aggrieved Employees were required to 12 keep similar schedules.

13 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants failed to 14 compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all time worked resulting in an underpayment 15 of minimum and overtime wages. For instance, Defendants implemented and maintained an 16 unlawful rounding practice whereby Plaintiff's and Aggrieved Employees' would be instructed by 17 Defendants' management to only input their shift start and end times. Plaintiff and Aggrieved 18 Employees were not able to input the actual time they would start working or the actual time that 19 they would end their shifts. On a consistent and regular basis, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 20 would perform pre-shift activities approximately 15-30 minutes prior to the start of their shifts.
21 Such pre-shift activities included but were not limited to preparing and/or finalizing the day's 22 lesson plan, and cleaning up the classroom. On a consistent and regular basis, Plaintiff and 23 Aggrieved Employees would perform post-shift activities for approximately 1 hour after the end 24 of their shifts. Such post-shift activities included but were not limited to providing children rides, 25 preparing lessons, and cleaning up the classroom, and contacting children's parents through the 26 use of their personal cellphones. As a result of the above practices, Plaintiff and Aggrieved 27 Employees were not compensated correctly for minimum and overtime wages.

28 13. In addition, the Aggrieved Employees frequently worked in excess of eight (8) hours a day and/or over forty (40) hours in a workweek, but were not properly paid for such time

1 at the employee's correct rate of pay per hour for overtime. During the relevant time period, 2 Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations such as bonuses into Plaintiff's and Aggrieved 3 Employees' regular rate of pay for overtime calculation purposes.

4 14. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to work shifts in 5 excess of five hours without being provided a lawful meal period and over ten hours in a day 6 without being provided a second lawful meal period as required by law.

7 15. Indeed, during the relevant time, as a consequence of Defendants' staffing and 8 scheduling practices, lack of coverage, work demands, and Defendants' policies and practices, 9 Defendants frequently failed to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees timely, legally 10 complaint uninterrupted 30-minute meal periods on shifts over five hours as required by law.

11 16. Similarly, as a consequence of Defendants' staffing and scheduling practices, lack 12 of coverage, work demands, and Defendants' policies and practices, Defendants frequently failed 13 to provide Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees legally compliant second meal periods on shifts 14 over ten hours as required by law.

15 17. On information and belief, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to 16 maintain walkie-talkies on their person during work hours including during meal periods.
17 Approximately 2-3 times a week, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were interrupted during 18 meal periods as they would need to respond to calls that came over the walkie-talkies.

19 18. On information and belief, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not waive their 20 rights to meal periods under the law.

21 19. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees were not provided with valid lawful on-duty 22 meal periods.

23 20. Despite the above-mentioned meal period violations, Defendants failed to 24 compensate Plaintiff, and on information and belief, failed to compensate Aggrieved Employees, 25 one additional hour of pay at their regular rate as required by California law when meal periods 26 were not timely or lawfully provided in a compliant manner.

27 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants know, 28 should know, knew, and/or should have known that Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees

1 were entitled to receive premium wages based on their regular rate of pay under Labor Code 2 §226.7 but were not receiving such compensation.

3 22. During the relevant time frame, Plaintiff and the Non-Exempt Employees were 4 systematically not authorized and permitted to take one net ten-minute paid, rest period for every 5 four hours worked or major fraction thereof, which is a violation of the Labor Code and IWC 6 wage order.

7 23. Defendants maintained and enforced scheduling practices, policies, and imposed 8 work demands that frequently required Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to forego their lawful, 9 paid rest periods of a net ten minutes for every four hours worked or major fraction thereof. Such 10 requisite rest periods were not timely authorized and permitted as a result of Defendants' failure to 11 provide relief for Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees to take their lawfully required breaks.

12 24. On information and belief, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were required to 13 maintain walkie-talkies on their person during work hours including during rest periods.
14 Approximately 2-3 times a week, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were interrupted during rest 15 periods as they would need to respond to calls that came over the walkie-talkies.

16 25. Despite the above-mentioned rest period violations, Defendants did not compensate 17 Plaintiff, and on information and belief, did not pay Aggrieved Employees one additional hour of 18 pay at their regular rate as required by California law, including Labor Code section 226.7 and the 19 applicable IWC wage order, for each day on which lawful rest periods were not authorized and 20 permitted.

21 26. Defendants also failed to provide accurate, lawful itemized wage statements to 22 Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees in part because of the above specified violations. In 23 addition, upon information and belief, Defendants omitted an accurate itemization of total hours 24 worked, including premiums due and owing for rest period violations, gross pay and net pay 25 figures from Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' wage statements.

26 27. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges, that at all times herein 27 mentioned, Defendants knew that at the time of termination of employment (or within 72 hours 28 thereof for resignations without prior notice as the case may be) they had a duty to accurately

1 compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for all wages owed including minimum wages, 2 meal and rest period premiums, at the time of separation. Defendants had the financial ability to 3 pay such compensation, but willfully, knowingly, recklessly, and/or intentionally failed to do so in 4 part because of the above-specified violations. Therefore, Defendants failed to timely pay such 5 owed wages pursuant to Labor Code sections 201-203.

6 28. Defendants also failed to reimburse Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for 7 business expenses incurred pursuant to Labor Code section 2802. For instance, Plaintiff and 8 Aggrieved Employees also used their personnel cellphones to conduct work related activities at 9 the direction of Defendants' Management as Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were instructed to 10 provide their cellphone numbers to their student's parents. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees 11 would use their personal cellphones to communicate with their students' parents approximately 12 20-25 minutes each day. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were also not reimbursed for home 13 internet use or personal computer usage as they would perform work from home. Plaintiff and 14 Aggrieved Employees were also not reimbursed for school supplies purchased for their 15 classrooms.

16 29. Upon information and belief, Defendants knew and or should have known that it is 17 improper to implement policies and commit unlawful acts such as:

18 (a) requiring employees to work four (4) hours or a major fraction thereof without 19 being provided a minimum ten (10) minute rest period and without compensating the employees 20 with one (1) hour of pay at the employees' regular rate of compensation for each workday that a 21 rest period was not provided;

22 (b) failing to pay all wages including overtime wages;

23 (c) failing to provide accurate itemized wage statements;

24 (d) failure to reimburse business expenses;

25 (e) failing to timely pay wages.

26 30. In addition to the violations above, and on information and belief, Defendants knew 27 they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for the allegations asserted 28 herein and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but willfully,

1 knowingly, recklessly, and/or intentionally failed to do so.

2 31. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees they seek to represent are covered by, and 3 Defendants are required to comply with, applicable California Labor Codes, Industrial Welfare 4 Commission Occupational Wage Orders (hereinafter “IWC Wage Orders”) and corresponding 5 applicable provisions of California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et seq.

6 VI. REPRESENTATIVE CLAIMS

7 THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT- LABOR CODE §§ 2698 *et seq.

8 32. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges each and every allegation 9 contained above, as though fully set forth herein.

10 33. On November 12, 2024 Plaintiff complied with notice requirements pursuant to 11 Labor Code section 2699.3. A copy of the letter sent to the LWDA is attached hereto as Exhibit 12 A, indicating that the LWDA and Defendants were put on notice of the claims alleged here and 13 that the notice requirement has been satisfied. Sixty five days have passed and the LWDA has not 14 indicated intent to investigate the claims. Therefore, Plaintiff may proceed with this action in a 15 representative capacity. The substance and violations set forth in this Complaint of which the 16 LWDA was provided timely notice, Plaintiff has also sent a copy of this PAGA Representative 17 Action Complaint to the LWDA.

18 34. Plaintiff is an aggrieved employee as defined in Labor Code Section 2699(a).
19 Plaintiff brings this cause of action on behalf of all current and former California Non-Exempt 20 Employees of Defendants.

21 35. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a) Plaintiff seek to recover civil penalties for 22 which Defendants are liable due to numerous Labor Code violations as set forth in this Complaint, 23 including without limitation Labor Code section 201-203, 510, 512, 558, 226, 226.7, 226.3, 1174, 24 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2802 and, 2698 et seq., applicable IWC Wage Orders and 25 California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et. seq.

26 36. At all times relevant, Plaintiff and all other aggrieved employees regularly 27 performed non-exempt work in excess of 50% of the time, and thus, were subject to the meal and 28 rest break requirements of the applicable IWC wage order and the Labor Code.

1 37. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and Aggrieved employees are 2 entitled to penalties to the extent they were not paid at the prevailing wage rate for all hours 3 worked.

4 38. For the violations below, Plaintiff and the Representative Aggrieved Employees are 5 entitled to recover Penalties and attorneys' fees and costs under Labor Code section 2698, et. seq.

6 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES INCLUDING OVERTIME

7 39. At all times relevant, the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and the 8 Aggrieved Employees require employers to pay its employees for each hour worked at least 9 minimum wage. "Hours worked" means the time during which an employee is subject to the 10 control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, 11 whether or not required to do so, and in the case of an employee who is required to reside on the 12 employment premises, that time spent carrying out assigned duties shall be counted as hours 13 worked.

14 40. At all relevant times, Labor Code §1197 provides that the minimum wage for 15 employees fixed by the IWC is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a 16 lesser wage than the established minimum is unlawful. Further, pursuant to the IWC Wage Order 17 and Labor Code, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are to be paid minimum wage for each hour 18 worked, and cannot be averaged At all times relevant, the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff 19 and Aggrieved Employees' employment by Defendants provided that employees working for 20 more than eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a work week are entitled to overtime 21 compensation at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in 22 excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a work week. An employee who works 23 more than twelve (12) hours in a day is entitled to overtime compensation at a rate of twice the 24 regular rate of pay.

25 41. At all relevant times, Labor Code §1197.1 states "[a]ny employer or other persons 26 acting individually as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, who pays or causes to be 27 paid to any employee a wage less than the minimum fixed by an applicable state or local law, or 28 by an order of the commission shall be subject to a civil penalty, restitution of wages, liquidated

1 damages payable to the employee, and any applicable penalties pursuant to Section 203.

2 42. Labor Code §510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at the rate of one and 3 one-half times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or 4 forty (40) hours in a work week and to overtime compensation at twice the regular rate of pay for 5 hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the 6 seventh day of work in a particular work week.

7 43. At all times relevant, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees regularly performed non-8 exempt work and thus were subject to the overtime requirements of the IWC Wage Orders, CCR § 9 11000, et. seq. and the Labor Code.

10 44. At all times relevant, Defendants have failed to accurately pay minimum and 11 overtime owed to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees as a result of the off-the-clock work, 12 unlawful rounding practices, and failure to incorporate all remunerations in the employee's regular 13 rate for overtime calculation purposes described above.

14 45. Accordingly, Defendants owe Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees overtime wages, 15 and have failed to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees the overtime wages owed.

16 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF

17 46. Pursuant to Labor Code §512, no employer shall employ an employee for a work 18 period of more than five (5) hours without providing a meal break of not less than thirty (30) 19 minutes in which the employee is relieved of all of his or her duties. An employer may not 20 employ an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the 21 employee with a second meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total 22 hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual 23 consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

24 47. Pursuant to the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees' 25 employment by Defendants, in order for an "on duty" meal period to be permissible, the nature of 26 the work of the employee must prevent an employee from being relieved of all duties relating to 27 his or her work for the employer and the employees must consent in writing to the "on duty" meal 28 period. On information and belief, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees did not consent in writing

1 to an “on duty” meal period. Further, the nature of the work of Plaintiff and Aggrieved 2 Employees was not such that they were prevented from being relieved of all duties. Despite the 3 requirements of the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff’s and Aggrieved Employees’ 4 employment by Defendants and Labor Code §512 and §226.7, Defendants did not provide 5 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees with all their statutorily authorized meal periods.

6 48. For the four (4) years preceding the filing of this lawsuit, Defendants failed to 7 provide Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, timely and uninterrupted meal periods of not less than 8 thirty (30) minutes pursuant to the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved 9 Employees’ employment by Defendants. As a proximate result of the aforementioned violations, 10 Plaintiff and the other Aggrieved Employees have been damaged in an amount according to proof 11 at time of trial.

12 49. By their failure to provide a compliant meal period for each shift worked over five 13 (5) hours and their failure to provide a compliant second meal period for any shift worked over ten 14 (10) hours per day by Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees, and by failing to provide 15 compensation in lieu of such non-provided meal periods, as alleged above, Defendants violated 16 the provisions of Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512 and applicable IWC Wage Orders.

17 50. Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees Plaintiff seeks to represent did not 18 voluntarily or willfully waive meal periods and were regularly required to work shifts without 19 being provided all of their legally required meal periods. Defendants created a working 20 environment in which Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not provided all of their meal 21 periods due to shift scheduling and/or work related demands placed upon them by Defendants as 22 well as a lack of sufficient staffing to meet the needs of Defendants’ business as discussed above.
23 On information and belief, Defendants’ implemented a policy and practice which resulted in 24 systematic and companywide violations of the Labor Code. On information and belief, 25 Defendants’ violations have been widespread throughout the liability period and will be evidenced 26 by Defendants’ time records for the Aggrieved Employees.

27 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF

28 51. Pursuant to the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees’

1 employment by Defendants, "Every employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest 2 periods, which insofar as practicable shall be in the middle of each work period.... [The] 3 authorized rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) 4 minutes net rest time per four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof.... Authorized rest period 5 time shall be counted as hours worked, for which there shall be no deduction from wages." Labor 6 Code §226.7(a) prohibits an employer from requiring any employee to work during any rest period 7 mandated by an applicable order of the IWC.

8 52. Defendants were required to authorize and permit employees such as Plaintiff and 9 Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods, based upon the total hours worked at a rate of ten (10) 10 minutes net rest per four (4) hours worked, or major fraction thereof, with no deduction from 11 wages. Despite said requirements of the IWC wage orders applicable to Plaintiff's and Aggrieved 12 Employees' employment by Defendants, Defendants failed and refused to authorize and permit 13 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees, to take ten (10) minute rest periods for every four (4) hours 14 worked, or major fraction thereof.

15 53. On information and belief Defendants created a working environment in which 16 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees were not provided all of their rest periods due to shift 17 scheduling and/or work related demands placed upon them by Defendants as well as a lack of 18 sufficient staffing to meet the needs of Defendants' business as discussed above. On information 19 and belief, Defendants implemented a policy and practice which resulted in systematic and 20 companywide violations of the Labor Code. On information and belief, Defendants' violations 21 have been widespread throughout the liability period.

22 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

23 54. Section 226(a) of the California Labor Code requires Defendants to itemize in wage 24 statements all deductions from payment of wages and to accurately report total hours worked by 25 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees including applicable hourly rates and reimbursement expenses 26 among other things. Defendants have knowingly and intentionally failed to comply with Labor 27 Code section 226 and 204 on wage statements that have been provided to Plaintiff and Aggrieved 28 Employees.

1 55. IWC Wage Orders require Defendants to maintain time records showing, among 2 others, when the employee begins and ends each work period, meal periods, split shift intervals 3 and total daily hours worked in an itemized wage statement, and must show all deductions and 4 reimbursements from payment of wages, and accurately report total hours worked by Plaintiff and 5 Aggrieved Employees. On information and belief, Defendants have failed to record all or some of 6 the items delineated in Industrial Wage Orders and Labor Code §226.

7 56. Defendants have failed to accurately record all time worked.

8 57. Defendants have also failed to accurately record the meal and rest period premiums 9 owed and all wages owed per pay period.

10 58. Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees have been injured as they were unable to 11 determine whether they had been paid correctly for all hours worked per pay period among other 12 things.

13 59. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226, Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are 14 entitled up to a maximum of $4,000 each for record keeping violations.

15 60. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226.3, any employer who violates subdivision (a) 16 of Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) 17 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 18 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a 19 wage deduction statement or fails to keep the records required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.

20 FAILURE TO PAY TIMELY PAY WAGES UPON SEPARATION LABOR CODE

21 § 203

22 61. Plaintiff incorporates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above as 23 though fully set forth herein.

24 62. Labor Code §§201-202 requires an employer who discharges an employee to pay 25 compensation due and owing to said employee immediately upon discharge and that if an 26 employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 27 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-28 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is 1 entitled to his or her wages on their last day of work.

2 63. Labor Code §203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay compensation 3 promptly upon discharge, as required by Labor Code §§201-202, the employer is liable for 4 waiting time penalties in the form of continued compensation for up to thirty (30) work days.

5 64. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully failed and refused, and 6 continue to willfully fail and refuse, to pay Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees their wages, 7 earned and unpaid, either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their 8 voluntarily leaving Defendants' employ. These wages include regular and overtime, meal and rest 9 period premiums.

10 65. As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees for waiting 11 time penalties pursuant to Labor Code §203, in an amount according to proof at the time of trial.

12 FAILURE TO INDEMNIFY NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENSES

13 66. Plaintiff incorporates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained above as 14 though fully set forth herein.

15 67. Labor Code § 2802 requires Defendants to indemnify Plaintiff and Aggrieved 16 Employees for necessary expenditures incurred in direct consequences of the discharge of his or 17 her duties. As a necessary part of employment, Plaintiff and on information and belief Aggrieved 18 Employees, were not adequately reimbursed by Defendants for expenses related to personal 19 cellphone usage, home computer and internet usage, and for the purchase of classroom supplies, 20 which were incurred as a direct consequence of the discharge of duties by Plaintiff and Aggrieved 21 Employees. Despite these realities of the job, Defendants failed to provide reimbursements.

22 68. Labor Code §2804 states in pertinent part: "Any contract or agreement, express or 23 implied, made by any employee to waive the benefits of this article or any part thereof is null and 24 void, and this article shall not deprive any employee or his or her personal representative of any 25 right or remedy to which he is entitled under the laws of this State."

26 69. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 27 Employees have been deprived of un-reimbursed expense amounts to be determined at trial, and 28 are entitled to the recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees,

1 and costs, pursuant to Labor Code § 2802.

2 FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE RECORDS

3 70. Additionally, Defendants have no accurate records relating to aggrieved 4 employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours worked, total hours worked per payroll 5 period and applicable pay rates, in violation of applicable Wage Orders. Similarly, Defendants 6 failed to maintain accurate records relating to hours worked daily in violation of Labor Code 7 sections 1174(d), 1174.5.

8 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

9 As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct and pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(a) 10 Plaintiff and Aggrieved Employees are entitled to civil penalties for which Defendants are liable 11 due to numerous Labor Code violations as set forth in this Complaint, including without limitation 12 Labor Code section 201-203, 510, 512, 558, 226, 226.7, 226.3, 1174, 1174.5, 1175, 1194, 1197, 13 1197.1, 1198, 2802 and, 2698 et seq., applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Code of 14 Regulations, Title 8, section 11000 et. seq.

15 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, as follows:

- 16 1. For penalties according to proof, pursuant to Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq.; 17 2. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and 18 3. For such other and further relief as the Court deems proper.
