CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION

DECLARATION OF KANE MOON IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION AND PAGA SETTLEMENT

*[Filed with Plaintiff's Notice of Motion and Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of Plaintiff, the Declaration of Sean
Hartranft, and [Proposed] Preliminary Approval Order]*

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL HEARING:

Date: April 15, 2026

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Dept.: 6

Judge: Honorable Stephen E. Benson

Complaint filed: December 20, 2024

Trial Date: Not Set

I, KANE MOON, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice as such before all Courts of the State of California and am one of the attorneys of record for Plaintiff Eligio Leyva Solano (“Plaintiff”) and the putative Class. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein and if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to the facts described herein.

CASE BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2. This is a wage-and-hour class and representative action for alleged Labor Code violations and claims for civil penalties pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). Plaintiff seeks to represent a class of all persons who worked for Defendant Gridley Packing, Inc. (“Defendant”) as an hourly, non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period, as set forth in the Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement”). A true and correct copy of the Settlement is attached to the instant Declaration as Exhibit 1. The proposed Class Notice is attached to the Settlement as Exhibit A.

3. Defendant is a fruit grower and wholesaler located in Gridley, California in Butte County. Defendant employed Plaintiff and other non-exempt, hourly-paid employees during the Class Period. Plaintiff contends he and his coworkers were subjected to the same unlawful labor practices, including failure to pay wages for all hours worked.

4. Plaintiff's claim for unpaid minimum and overtime wages stem from allegations that Defendant failed to compensate Plaintiff and others for off-the-clock work. Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their work, Class Members' breaks were often short, late, interrupted, and sometimes missed altogether, and that Defendant did not pay all premium wages for non-compliant breaks. Plaintiff further brings a claim for unreimbursed necessary business expenses based on allegations that Class Members were required to purchase tools and protective equipment and to use their personal cell phones and vehicles for work-related purposes without reimbursement from Defendant. Finally, Plaintiff also brings derivative claims for waiting time penalties, wage statement violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties under PAGA.

1 5. Because of the foregoing alleged violations of various provisions of the Labor Code, Plaintiff 2 filed a class action on December 20, 2024, which alleges Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay 3 minimum wages, (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to 4 authorize and permit rest periods, (5) failed to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely 5 pay final wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in 6 unfair business practices.

7 6. Pursuant to PAGA, on December 19, 2024, Plaintiff gave written notice to the California Labor 8 and Workforce Development Agency (the “LWDA”) of the alleged Labor Code violations, with certified 9 mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. A true and correct copy of Plaintiff’s PAGA 10 Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. On September 24, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Class and 11 Representative Action Complaint to add a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under PAGA (the 12 “Operative Complaint”). In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), Plaintiff subsequently 13 submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the Operative Complaint containing the Court-assigned 14 case number. To date, the LWDA has not indicated its intent to investigate the alleged violations or intervene 15 in this Action.

16 7. Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff’s factual allegations.
17 Defendant asserts it complied with all its compensation obligations, including compensating Class Members 18 for any and all off-the-clock work, and therefore, Plaintiff and other Class Members were paid all wages 19 owed. Defendant maintains compliance with all its meal and rest period obligations. Defendant asserts it 20 complied with all its reimbursement obligations, and that Plaintiff and other employees were compensated 21 for any and all business expenses necessarily incurred. To the extent employees received wage statements 22 that were allegedly inaccurate, Defendant asserts employees suffered no actual damage or harm as a result.
23 (See, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013, No. C 12–05860 CRB) 2013 WL 622032, 24 at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer’s failure to provide full and 25 accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone is not sufficient.”].) With 26 respect to Plaintiff’s claim for waiting time penalties, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all 27 wages precludes the imposition of waiting time penalties since Plaintiff cannot prove Defendant’s alleged 28

1 failure to pay all final wages at the time of separation was “willful.” (See, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc.
2 (C.D. Cal. June 14, 2012, No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx)) 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, 3 among others, Defendant denies all of Plaintiff’s claims and allegations, and further claims it did not engage 4 in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA. Defendant also maintains the claims are 5 improper for class treatment, in part, due to the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage 6 claims that could bar class certification or significantly reduce Defendant’s overall liability.

7 DISCOVERY AND INVESTIGATION

8 8. The Parties agreed to mediate this action with Lynn Frank, Esq., an experienced class and 9 PAGA action mediator. In preparation for mediation, the Parties agreed to a protocol for an informal 10 production of documents and information before mediation. Prior to mediation, Plaintiff obtained from 11 Defendant, through informal discovery, documents and data that were necessary and helpful to evaluate the 12 claims asserted in this action. Defendant produced a statistically sound sample of time and pay records for 13 the putative Class (representing 98% of the Class), Plaintiff’s personnel file and time and pay records.
14 Defendant also provided information regarding the estimated number of current and formerly employed 15 Class Members, Aggrieved Employees, and PAGA Pay Periods.

16 9. In preparation for mediation, Plaintiff’s Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information 17 Defendant provided, including the sample records. Plaintiff’s Counsel retained a statistics expert to analyze 18 the sample records and prepare a damage analysis prior to the mediation. The sample time and pay records 19 analyzed contained the records for 2,936 Workweeks (approximately 91% of all Workweeks in the Class), 20 which allowed Plaintiff’s expert to prepare an analysis with a reasonable degree of certainty. In conjunction 21 with their extensive factual investigation, Plaintiff’s Counsel also investigated the applicable law regarding 22 the claims and defenses asserted in the litigation. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel was able to evaluate the 23 probability of class certification, success on the merits, and Defendant’s maximum and realistic monetary 24 exposure for all claims. Thus, Plaintiff’s and his Counsel’s familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal 25 issues raised by the pleadings allowed them to act intelligently in negotiating the Settlement.

26 SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND NOTICE TO THE LWDA

27 10. On July 31, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation with Lynn Frank, 28

1 Esq. The negotiations were at arm's length and, although conducted in a professional manner, were 2 adversarial. The Parties went into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, 3 but each side was also prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been 4 reached. After a full discussion regarding the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's claims and Defendant's 5 defenses and with the assistance of the mediator, the Parties reached a resolution, the material terms of which 6 are set out in the Settlement.

7 11. In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the 8 proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff's preliminary approval 9 motion and the hearing date. A true and correct copy of the LWDA's email confirming receipt thereof is 10 attached hereto as Exhibit 3. To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement.

11 KEY TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

12 12. GSA and Funding: The Gross Settlement Amount ("GSA") is $157,500.00, subject to potential 13 increase under an Escalator Clause, and is non-reversionary. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.) Defendant will separately 14 pay its employer-side payroll taxes owed on the Wage Portion of Individual Class Payments. (Id.) Defendant 15 will fully fund the GSA by transmitting the funds to the Administrator 60 days after the Effective Date of the 16 Settlement, but no sooner than 12 months. (Id. at ¶ 4.3.)

17 13. Escalator Clause: The Settlement provides an escalator clause under which should the number 18 of Class Period Workweeks exceed the estimated count of 3,200 by more than 10%, then Defendant has the 19 option to (a) increase the GSA on a pro rata basis for each additional Workweek above the escalator or (b) 20 shorten the end date of the Class Period such that the total Workweeks does not exceed 3,520. (Id. at ¶ 8.)

21 14. Class Representative Service Payment: The Settlement includes a payment up to $7,500.00 22 payable from the GSA, subject to the Court's approval, to Plaintiff as the Class Representative, in addition 23 to the amount he is eligible to receive as a Class Member. (Id. at ¶¶ 1.14, 3.2.1.) This award is for initiating 24 and providing services in support of the Action and in recognition for the risks attendant to the role as the 25 named Plaintiff and Class Representative. (Id. at ¶ 1.14.) In the event the award finally approved is less, the 26 difference will revert to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.1.)

1 15. Class Counsel Fees and Litigation Expenses Payments: The Settlement permits a fee application
2 of not more than one-third of the GSA (currently estimated to be $52,500.00) for reasonable attorneys' fees, 3 plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs not to exceed $25,000.00, payable to Class Counsel from the 4 GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.2.) In the event the amounts finally approved are less, the difference will revert to 5 Participating Class Members. (Id.) To date, my firm has incurred $18,343.22 in actual litigation costs, and a 6 true and correct copy of a report showing current costs is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

7 16. Administration Costs Payment: The Settlement provides an Administrator Expenses Payment 8 to the Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount not to exceed $6,990.00, except for a showing of 9 good cause and as approved by the Court. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.3.) In the event the amount of actual administration 10 costs is less and/or the amount approved by the Court is less than requested, the difference will be allocated 11 to the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected Apex Class Action as the neutral entity to 12 administer this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 1.2.) A true and correct copy of Apex's bid of $6,990.00 is attached hereto 13 as Exhibit 5.

14 17. PAGA Penalties; Individual PAGA Payments: The Settlement allocates $10,000.00 from the 15 GSA for settlement of the Released PAGA Claims, which will be distributed 65% ($6,500.00) to the LWDA 16 and 35% ($3,500.00) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff's claims. (Id. at ¶ 17 1.34.) Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to a pro rata share of the 35% share of the PAGA Penalties 18 directly proportional to their number of PAGA Pay Periods. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.5.1.) This results in an average 19 Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $25.00 for each of the estimated 140 Aggrieved Employees ($3,500 / 20 140), and a PAGA Pay Period value of roughly $2.49 for each of the 1,407 estimated Pay Periods in the 21 PAGA Period ($3,500 / 1,407).

22 18. Net Settlement Amount: After deducting the Class Representative Service Payment, the Class
23 Counsel Fees and Litigation Expenses Payments, the PAGA Penalties allocation, and the Administrator 24 Expenses Payment from the GSA, in the amounts specifically approved by the Court, any difference in the 25 amounts requested and the amounts awarded will be allocated to the Net Settlement Amount for distribution 26
27
28

1 to Participating Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount will be no less than 2 $55,510.00 for an estimated Class of 258 individuals.¹

3 19. Class Members/Period: The Class is defined as all persons who worked for Defendant as an 4 hourly, non-exempt employee at any time during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 1.5.) For purposes of Settlement, 5 the “Class Period” is the period from December 20, 2020 to September 29, 2025. (Settlement, ¶ 1.12.)

6 20. Individual Class Payments: Each Class Member who does not opt-out will be entitled to a pro 7 rata share of the Net Settlement Amount that is directly proportional to the number of Workweeks worked 8 during the Class Period. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.4.) The estimated $55,510.00 Net Settlement Amount results in an 9 average Individual Class Payment of roughly $215.16 for each of the estimated 258 Class Members 10 ($$55,510.00 / 258$),² and a Class Workweek value of roughly $17.35 for each of the 3,200 estimated 11 Workweeks in the Class Period ($$55,510.00 / 3,200$).

12 21. Tax Allocations: Individual Class Payments will be allocated as 20% as wages and 80% as 13 penalties and interest for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.4.1.) Individual PAGA Payments will be allocated as 14 100% penalties for tax purposes. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.5.1.)

15 22. Disbursement and Uncashed Funds: Disbursement will occur within 14 days of completed 16 funding. (Id. at ¶ 4.4.) Class Members will not need to submit any claim form as a condition of receiving 17 individual settlement payments. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.) Any funds remaining uncashed after 180 days from issuance 18 will be transmitted to the California State Controller’s Unclaimed Property office in the name of each 19 individual who failed to timely cash his or her check. (Id. at ¶¶ 4.4.1, 4.4.3.)

20 23. Released Class Claims by Participating Class Members: The “Released Class Claims” is limited 21 to claims that were alleged in, or that reasonably could have been alleged, based on the facts stated in the 22 Operative Complaint and ascertained in the court of the Action for the period from December 20, 2020

23 ¹ The Net Settlement Amount was calculated by deducting the following from the $157,500.00 GSA: 24 $7,500.00 for the Class Representative Service Payment, up to $6,990.00 for the Administrator Expenses 25 Payment, $10,000.00 for the PAGA Penalties to the LWDA and Aggrieved Employees, $52,500.00 for the Class Counsel Fees Payment, and up to $25,000.00 for the Class Counsel Litigation Costs Payment.
(Settlement, ¶¶ 3.1–3.2.5.)

26 ² At this time, the actual amounts to Class Members and/or Aggrieved Employees are unknown and will 27 be calculated by the Administrator following preliminary approval and receipt and processing of the Class 28 Data. (Settlement, ¶ 7.4.2.) The high and low range of payments will be provided to the Court in a motion for final approval.

1 to September 29, 2029. (Id. at ¶ 5.2.) The release excludes any claims for vested benefits, wrongful 2 termination, violation of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, unemployment insurance, disability, social 3 security, workers' compensation, or claims based on facts occurring outside the period from December 20, 4 2020 to September 29, 2025. (Id.)

5 24. Released PAGA Claims by PAGA Members and LWDA: The "Released PAGA Claims" is 6 limited to claims for PAGA penalties that were alleged, or reasonably could have been alleged, based on 7 the facts stated in the Operative Complaint, the PAGA Notice, and ascertained in the course of the Action 8 for the period from December 19, 2023 to September 29, 2025. (Id. at ¶ 5.3.) The release excludes any 9 claims outside of the PAGA Period. (Id.)

10 25. Plaintiff's Section 1542 Release: Under the Settlement, Plaintiff has agreed to a general release 11 of any and all claims against the Released Parties, including a release of rights pursuant to California Civil 12 Code section 1542. (Id. at ¶ 5.1.)

13 26. Effective date of claims releases: The release of all claims will be effective only upon entry of 14 the Court's final approval order. (Id. ¶¶ at 5.1–5.3.)

15 27. Released Parties: Defendant and its past, present and future subsidiaries, parents, affiliated and 16 related companies, divisions, successors, predecessors or assigns; and their past, present, and future officers, 17 directors, shareholders, partners, agents, insurers, employee, advisors, accountants, representatives, trustees, 18 heirs, executors, administrators, predecessors, successors or assigns. (Id. at ¶ 1.41.)

19 28. Class Notice; Disputes, Requests for Exclusion, Objections: The Class Notice, with Spanish 20 translation, will be mailed via first-class United States Postal Service to the current address of each Class 21 Member. (Id. at ¶ 7.4.2.) The proposed Class Notice sets forth, in plain terms, a statement of case, the terms 22 of the Settlement, the approximate amounts of attorneys' fees, costs, PAGA Penalties, and service award 23 being sought, an explanation of how the individual payments are calculated, the Final Approval Hearing 24 information, the procedure for disputing the number of Workweeks and/or Pay Periods credited to each 25 Class Members, and how Class Members may, should they choose, opt-out or otherwise object to the 26 Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 7.4–7.7.3, Ex. A.)

27 29. No Related Actions: To the best of my knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving 28

1 similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has 2 Defendant pointed to any.

3 THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

4 30. Plaintiff's Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of this case. As 5 previously noted, the Settlement at issue was reached through arm's-length negotiations, private mediation, 6 and the assistance of a statistics expert. Based on Defendant's informal class-wide discovery production, on 7 Plaintiff's Counsel independent investigation and evaluation, and on their extensive experience in wage-8 and-hour litigation, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, 9 and adequate. Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant delay, trial 10 risk, appellate risk, and the defenses Defendant may assert both to certification and on the merits, the 11 Settlement is in the best interest of the Class and LWDA.

12 31. Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's review of the time, payroll, and additional data provided by 13 Defendant, on Plaintiff's expert's analysis of the sample records provided by Defendant, and on information 14 from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel evaluated the estimated maximum and risk-adjusted exposure that 15 Defendant faced. Based on a review of Defendant's records, it is estimated that there are approximately 258
16 Class Members who collectively worked 3,200 Workweeks during the Class Period. (Settlement, ¶ 4.1.)
17 Additionally, there are an estimated 140 Aggrieved Employees who collectively worked 1,407 PAGA Pay 18 Periods during the PAGA Period. It was also estimated that there are 225 former employees falling within 19 the three-year statute of limitations ("SOL") period for waiting time penalties, that Class Members' average 20 hourly rate was $15.67, and that the average regular hourly rate was $15.67.

21 Accordingly, we calculated Defendant's potential exposure as follows:

Claim	Relevant Time Period	Rate	Number of Violations	Realistic Recovery
Unpaid Wages (Off the Clock)	3,200 Workweeks	$15.67 average hourly rate	20,275.5 net unpaid hours (assuming 5.25 hours per Workweek) (90% overtime)	$46,068.98

Meal Period Violations	3,200 Workweeks	$15.67 average hourly rate	13,324 unique meal break violations	$52,196.77*
Rest Period Violations	3,200 Workweeks	$15.67 average hourly rate	17,587 rest break violations (assuming 99% break violations for break-eligible shifts)	$27,558.83
Unreimbursed Business Expenses Violations	3,200 Workweeks	$145 / Class Member	Based on Expert Analysis of Records	$2,030.00*
Labor Code § 203	Based on approx. 225 terminated employees within the 3-year SOL	$15.67 average hourly rate / 30-day max.	Assumes 8.0 hours / day	$42,309.00
Labor Code § 226	Based on approx. 140 employees within the 1-year SOL	$50 per initial pay period / $100 per subsequent pay periods / $4,000 employee max.	Based on 1,407 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$6,685.00
PAGA	Based on 1,407 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$100 per pay period	Based on 1,407 pay periods within the 1-year SOL	$7,035.00
Total				$183,883.58
* These figures are discounted based on a 25% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 10% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.  These figures are discounted based on a 5% probability of prevailing at class certification and on the merits.³

³ It is reasonable to apply discounts to account for risks at certification and trial, in part, because the Judicial Council of California found that only 21.4% of all class actions were certified either as part of a settlement or as part of a contested certification motion. (See Findings of the Study of California Class Action Litigation, 2000-2006, available at <http://www.courts.ca.gov/documents/class-action-lit-study.pdf>.) Further, the likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its overall exposure.

1 32. As discussed above, Plaintiff's unpaid wages claim is based on allegations that Defendant 2 failed to pay all minimum and overtime wages due to off-the-clock work performed before and after 3 shifts. Plaintiff alleges that Class Members were required to arrive at least fifteen minutes before their 4 scheduled shifts sometimes to ensure the shifts start on time or sometimes to assist loading tools on 5 trucks. Plaintiff also claims he had to unload tools from trucks, inspect trucks, and wait with other Class 6 Members for the manager to tell them they would need to go to for the next day's shift. Therefore, 7 Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Class Members spent an average 5.25 hours of off the clock per Workweek.
8 Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel and data expert estimated Defendant failed to pay Class Members for 9 approximately 20,275.5 hours, 90% of which should have been paid at the overtime rate. From this, and 10 in light of the average rates of the Class Members, Defendant's estimated maximum potential liability is 11 $460,689.77. Defendant contends that all time worked was compensated, that the time before and after shifts 12 was de minimis, that Class Members were not permitted to work off-the-clock, and that this claim is highly 13 individualized and not susceptible to class-wide treatment. I acknowledge that "off-the-clock" claims are 14 difficult to be tried on a class wide basis because there is no apparatus that can be used to prove this claim—15 there are no records to be used as evidence. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I 16 discounted the maximum potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the unpaid 17 wages claim due to off-the-clock work is therefore $46,068.98.

18 33. Plaintiff's meal period claim is based on allegations that Defendant did not provide or maintain 19 sufficient meal period practices, such that Class Members were not always permitted or able to take meal 20 periods and/or were sometimes subjected to late, short and/or interrupted meal periods without compensation 21 in lieu thereof. The sample of time and corresponding payroll records for the putative Class indicated that 22 Defendant either failed to provide a meal period or provided a short and/or untimely meal period 13,324 23 times throughout the Class Period. Plaintiff's Counsel and its data expert then calculated that, in light of these 24 violations and the average hourly rate of the putative Class, that Defendant had a potential liability of 25 $208,787.08 (13,324 unique violations x $15.67 avg. hourly rate). Defendant nonetheless contends that 26 many meal breaks were taken and, where a violation appears, it was a result of the Class Member voluntarily 27 choosing to forego a meal period, to take it after the end of the fifth hour, or to stop his or her break early to 28

1 return to work. Moreover, certification and proof of this claim would require declarations from Class 2 Members and obtaining such declarations potentially would reveal that each Class Member had a different 3 experience with respect to meal periods. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, Plaintiff's 4 Counsel believe it reasonable to apply a 75% discount to the potential liability. Plaintiff's realistic recovery 5 estimate for the meal period claim is therefore $52,196.77.

6 34. The rest break claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not provide or maintain 7 sufficient rest break practices, such that Class Members were regularly required to work in excess of four 8 consecutive hours a day, or a major fraction thereof, without authorization or permission to take a ten-minute, 9 continuous and uninterrupted rest period or without compensation in lieu thereof. The precise number of rest 10 break violations could not be calculated since Defendant neither documented, nor is required to document, 11 when Class Members took their required rest breaks. Therefore, in preparation for mediation, Plaintiff's 12 Counsel assumed a 99% violation rate for shifts greater than or equal to 3.5 hours in length and, based on 13 the average hourly rate of the putative Class, calculated Defendant's potential liability to be $275,588.29
14 (17,587 unique rest break violations x $15.67 per hour). Defendant nonetheless contends rest periods do 15 not have to be recorded, that Class Members voluntarily chose to forego some rest breaks and, significant 16 for purposes of class certification, that this claim is individualized in nature and therefore would require 17 declarations indicating the majority of Class Members experienced issues as to rest breaks. In light of these 18 defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential liability by 90%. Plaintiff's 19 realistic recovery estimate for the rest break claim is therefore $27,558.83.

20 35. The unreimbursed business expenses claim is based on the allegation that Defendant did not 21 reimburse Class Members for all expenses incurred in direct consequence of the discharge of duties, 22 including tools, equipment, and use of Class Members' personal cell phones and vehicles. The precise value 23 of all necessary business expenses Class Members incurred could not be calculated. Therefore, in preparation 24 for mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel estimated Defendant owed approximately $145.00 to each Class Member 25 in the statutory period and that Defendant's potential liability is $20,300.00. Defendant contends it complied 26 with all its reimbursement obligations, that it provided Class Members with tools and equipment free of 27 charge, and further, that the reimbursement claim would be difficult to certify, given the individualistic nature 28

1 of this claim. In light of these defenses, and for purposes of settlement, I discounted Defendant's potential 2 liability by 90%. Plaintiff's realistic recovery estimate for the unreimbursed expenses claim is therefore 3 $2,030.00.

4 36. With respect to Plaintiff's derivative claims for statutory and civil penalties, Plaintiff estimates 5 Defendant's maximum potential recovery, prior to risk-adjustment, is $1,120,580.00, which breaks down as 6 follows: $846,180.00 for waiting time penalties for approximately 116 terminated Class Members in the 3-7 year SOL; a $133,700.00 penalty for inaccurate wage statements based on approximately 140 Class Members 8 in the 1-year SOL; and $140,700.00 for PAGA penalties based on 1,407 Pay Periods and the Court assessing 9 a $100 penalty for each pay period containing a violation. However, I believe it would be unrealistic to expect 10 the Court to award the full exposure amount given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties and given 11 Defendant's defenses, including without limitation, that any failure to pay all final wages at the time of 12 separation was not willful or intentional and that to the extent Plaintiff received wage statements that were 13 allegedly inaccurate, Plaintiff suffered no actual resulting damage or harm. Moreover, I understand the 14 individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the wage claims could bar class certification or otherwise 15 significantly reduce Defendant's overall liability for statutory and civil penalties. Weighing these factors, I 16 applied a 95% discount to each penalty (resulting in $42,309.00 for waiting time penalties, $6,685.00 for 17 inaccurate wage statement penalties, and $7,035.00 for PAGA penalties) and accordingly arrived at a 18 realistic recovery estimate of $13,720.00 for statutory and civil penalties.

19 37. Using these estimated figures, Plaintiff predicted the realistic (risk-adjusted) recovery for all 20 claims, including penalties, is $183,883.58. This means the $157,500.00 gross settlement figure 21 represents roughly 85.7% of the total realistic recovery. This is an excellent result for the Class, 22 particularly because, under the Settlement, Class Members will receive timely and guaranteed relief, 23 avoiding the risk of not being able to recover anything.

24 38. With regards to the PAGA claims, the Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies 25 PAGA's dual statutory purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved 26 Employees with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this 27 litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in informal class-wide discovery, and 28

1 participate in mediation. Defendant will also have to pay civil penalties to the LWDA under the 2 Settlement, assuming final settlement approval is granted. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.5.) Not including its own 3 attorneys' fees and costs as well as the employer's share of payroll taxes, Defendant will pay no less 4 than $157,500.00 to resolve this matter—of which $10,000.00 is allocated toward the PAGA claims and 5 will be distributed, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699 as 65% ($6,500.00) to the LWDA and 6 35% ($3,500.00) to Aggrieved Employees—and the release obtained under the Settlement does not 7 preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any individual claims they may have against Defendant 8 or the other Released Parties. Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel are of the opinion that because the issues here 9 are fairly contested, there is a possibility of the Court not awarding the PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff 10 prevailed on the merits due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. Indeed, under 11 PAGA, a Court can reduce penalties "if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do 12 otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." (Lab. Code § 13 2699(e)(2).) In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of 14 the Court and subject to a substantial reduction.

15 39. Further, Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a 16 representative basis due to the potential manageability issues and that even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, 17 penalties would likely be limited due to the largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties and 18 in light of other defenses available to Defendant. Thus, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would 19 be successful at trial, assuming he is first able to certify the claims and defeat the manageability issues 20 presented at litigation, Plaintiff could be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the 21 Settlement. In sum, the $10,000.00 PAGA Penalties allocation under the Settlement constitutes "genuine 22 and meaningful" that is "consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public." (See 23 O'Connor v. Uber Tech., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1133–35 [denying settlement 24 approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of the estimated full worth].)

25 40. Here, the Settlement represents a substantial recovery when considered against the risk and 26 uncertainties involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to certify the claims and 27 establish liability, and the probability of appeal. While Plaintiff is confident in the merits of his claims, a 28

1 legitimate controversy exists as to each cause of action. Plaintiff also recognizes that proving the amount 2 owed to each Class Member would be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition.

3 41. The Settlement obviates the significant risk that this Court may deny certification of all or some 4 of Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not prevailing at trial due to low or 5 no participation by Class Members. Indeed, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the claims 6 could bar manageability of the representative claims or otherwise significantly reduce any recovery 7 whatsoever. For example, the rest period and unreimbursed expense claims are testimony-driven claims and 8 assume a nearly 100% violation rate, which would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as it assumes either the 9 participation of all employees (which would be difficult given the reality that many, if not all, employees 10 would be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation), or alternatively, the use of surveys or statistical 11 data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority of employees to establish a sound 12 representation of all non-exempts). Even assuming employees would be willing to participate, obtaining 13 declarations would potentially reveal that each individual employee had a different experience.

14 42. Furthermore, even if Plaintiff was able to pursue his claims on a class-wide basis and obtain 15 certification of all or some of the claims, continued litigation would be expensive, involving a trial and 16 possible appeals, and would substantially delay and reduce any recovery by the Class. Although the Parties 17 have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, informal discovery, and class-wide data analysis, they 18 have not conducted extensive formal discovery. Moreover, preparation for class certification and a trial 19 would remain for the Parties as well as the prospect of appeals in the wake of a disputed class certification 20 ruling for Plaintiff and/or any summary judgment ruling. As a result, the Parties would incur considerably 21 more attorneys' fees and costs through trial. In sum, this Settlement avoids the risks, burdens, and the 22 accompanying expense of further litigation.

23 43. The proposed $157,500.00 Settlement represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 24 reasonably forecasted recovery for the Class. When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 25 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability of 26 appeal, it is clear the Settlement amount is within the "ballpark" of reasonableness, and that preliminary 27 settlement approval is appropriate. (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; 28

1 see Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar
2 does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it prevailed 3 on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and the realistic 4 range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

5 THE ENHANCEMENT AWARD TO PLAINTIFF IS REASONABLE

6 44. Throughout this litigation, Plaintiff, who was a former employee of Defendant, has cooperated 7 immensely with my office and has taken many actions to protect the interests of the Class. Plaintiff provided 8 valuable information regarding his hours worked, and what duties were performed during those hours.
9 Plaintiff also provided information regarding meal periods taken and missed by Plaintiff and other Class 10 Members. Plaintiff participated in decisions concerning this action, assisted in preparation for the mediation, 11 and provided my office with the names and contact information of potential witnesses in this action. Before 12 we filed this case, Plaintiff worked with my office to determine the viability of his claims. Plaintiff also 13 provided information and documents relating to his employment by Defendant. The information and 14 documentation provided by Plaintiff was instrumental in establishing the wage-and-hour violations alleged 15 in this action, and the recovery provided for in the Settlement would have been impossible to obtain without 16 his participation.

17 45. At the same time, Plaintiff faced many risks in adding himself as the named Plaintiff in this 18 matter. Plaintiff faced actual risks with his future employment, as putting himself on public record in an 19 employment lawsuit could also very well affect his likelihood for future employment. For example, a search 20 of Plaintiff’s name will reveal this action, and as a result, many employers may likely forego hiring 21 Plaintiff in learning he sued a former employer.

22 46. In turn, Class Members can now participate in a settlement, reimbursing them for wage 23 violations they may have never known about or been willing to pursue on their own. If each Class Member 24 would have tried to pursue legal remedies on their own, that would have resulted in each having to expend a 25 significant amount of their own monetary resources and time, not to mention limited judicial resources, which 26 were obviated by Plaintiff putting himself on the line on behalf of the Class.

27 47. This class action would not have been possible without the aid of Plaintiff, who put his own 28

1 time and effort into this litigation and placed himself at risk for the sake of the Class. The requested 2 enhancement award to Plaintiff for his service as the Class Representative is a relatively small amount of 3 money considering the time and effort put into the litigation and compared to enhancements granted in other 4 class actions. The requested enhancement award is therefore reasonable to compensate Plaintiff for his active 5 participation in this lawsuit, in addition to his general release of claims, both known and unknown, and waiver 6 of section 1542 rights.

7 MY EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

8 48. I received a B.A. in History in 1998 from UCLA, and my J.D. from Loyola Marymount Law 9 School in 2006. I became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in June 2007 and have been an 10 Active Member in good standing continuously since then. I have been selected to Super Lawyers each year 11 from 2019 to 2023.

12 49. I co-founded Moon & Yang, APC—now Moon Law Group, PC—in March 2010. My practice 13 is focused exclusively on advocating for the rights of employees in wage-and-hour litigation, almost entirely 14 in class and/or representative actions.

15 50. For the past decade, I have built my practice to have an emphasis on employment and related 16 civil litigation cases and have both prosecuted and defended employment-related litigation cases. I have been 17 heavily, successfully, and continuously involved in active litigation and trial work, and have conducted bench 18 and jury trials on behalf of both employees and employers in wage-and-hour cases.

19 51. My current billing rate is $950.00 per hour, which is my usual hourly rate in wage-and-hour 20 litigations. A $950.00 per hour rate is reasonable considering my years of experience practicing in the 21 highly specialized area of employment and labor law and my Laffey Matrix rate (The Laffey Matrix, 22 <http://www.laffeymatrix.com/see.html> [last visited March 12, 2026].) The Laffey Matrix is a “well-23 established objective source for rates that vary by experience” used by the District of Columbia. (In re 24 HPL Tech., Inc. Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 2005) 366 F. Supp 2d 912, 921.) A true and correct copy of the 25 Laffey Matrix is attached hereto as Exhibit 6. California Courts have adjusted the Laffey Matrix rate 26 upwards based on “locality pay differentials” and the location of counsel’s office in California to determine 27 whether counsel’s rates are reasonable. (See, e.g., id. [applying a 9% upward adjustment to the Laffey 28

1 Matrix rate based on an approximate difference of 9% between the locality pay differential of the District
2 of Columbia and San Francisco, California, where counsel's office was located].) To determine the locality 3 pay differential, the Court in In re HPL Technologies, Inc. utilized the locality pay differentials within the 4 federal courts. (Id. at pp. 921–22.) Using the same method here and based on my firm's location in Los 5 Angeles, California, the locality pay differential of the Los Angeles-Long Beach area is 36.47% and the 6 locality pay differential of the Washington-Baltimore-Arlington area is 33.94%, which results in a 7 difference of approximately 2.53%. (Compare Judiciary Salary Plan of Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA, 8 Effective January 12, 2026, with Judiciary Salary Plan of Washington-Baltimore-Arlington, Effective 9 January 12, 2026.) True and correct copies of the Los Angeles-Long Beach, CA and Washington-10 Baltimore-Arlington salary plans are attached hereto as Exhibit 7 and Exhibit 8, respectively. Based on 11 my 19+ years of experience out of law school, my Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78
12 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). Accordingly, my current billing rate of $950.00 13 per hour is reasonable.

14 52. I am experienced in prosecuting and defending employment matters, particularly class actions 15 and PAGA representative actions. My firm has focused a substantial percentage of its practice on wage, hour, 16 and working conditions violations. In addition to the present case, I am also class counsel for other wage-17 and-hour class action lawsuits pending in various California counties, including in state and federal courts.
18 The following is a list of some of our recent class action settlements that have received preliminary and final 19 approval: Aparicio v. Lineage Logistics, LLC (LASC No. BC722764) (class size approx. 155; lead counsel);

14 ALLEN FEGHALI’S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

15 53. Allen Feghali is a Senior Partner at Moon Law Group, PC. He received his B.A. in Global and 16 International Studies in 2011 from UC Santa Barbara, and his J.D. from University of La Verne College of 17 Law in 2014. Mr. Feghali became an Active Member of the State Bar of California in December 2014 and 18 has been an Active Member in good standing continuously since then. He was selected by Super Lawyers as 19 a “Southern California Rising Star” in 2020–2023.

20 54. Mr. Feghali began working at Moon Law Group, PC in May 2015, and his practice focuses on 21 advocating for the rights of employees at the trial-court and appellate level. Prior to approximately June 2018, 22 with the exception of a handful of cases, his practice focused on individual FEHA and wrongful termination 23 claims, as well as individual wage-and-hour claims. In June 2018, Mr. Feghali became heavily involved in 24 the firm’s class action practice.

25 55. Mr. Feghali’s current billing rate is $900.00 per hour, which is his usual hourly rate in wage and 26 hour litigations. Based on Mr. Feghali’s 11+ years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix rate 27 with a 2.53% adjustment is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). (See Ex.
28

6.) As compared to the Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Feghali's billing rate of $900.00 per hour is reasonable.

56. During Mr. Feghali's tenure with Moon Law Group, PC, he has played a critical role in obtaining outstanding results for employees who have been wronged by their employers. Mr. Feghali's litigation experience includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) In March 2021, Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in the matter of Rivera, et al. v. Clearpath Federal Credit Union (LASC No. 19STCV33504), which resulted in a certification order on all causes of action following contested briefing in a wage-and-hour class action.
- (b) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Dawson, et al. v. GoHealth, LLC, et al. (No. CGC-19-577790), which was argued and taken under submission by the Court on February 3, 2022.
- (c) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Brown v. NTI-CA, Inc., et al. (No. 21STCV04397).
- (d) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Thong, et al. v. Outlook Resources, Inc., et al. (No. 19STCV44400), which was granted in part and denied in part in October 2022.
- (e) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Andrade v. Rehrig Pacific Corp. (C.D. Cal. April 22, 2020, No. CV 20-1448 FMP (RAOx)) 2020 WL 1934954, where defendant removed a wage-and-hour class alleging that Plaintiffs' claims were pre-empted by the Labor Management Relations Act.
- (f) Mr. Feghali briefed, argued, and won the matter of Lee, et al. v. The Christian Herald, U.S.A., Inc. (Cal. Ct. App. Dec. 12, 2017, No. B266853) 2017 WL 6333905, at *1. There, the Court of Appeal reversed a dismissal of an individual defendant following the trial court's granting of a demurrer without leave to amend relating to alter ego allegations.
- (g) Mr. Feghali prepared the briefing which resulted in a remand order in the matter of Sotelo v. Belfor USA Group, Inc. (C.D. Cal. March 13, 2018, No. 2:17-cv-09056-RSWL-MRWx) 2018 WL 1352910. Defendants there sought to remove the case based on the inclusion of a “sham defendant,” but the court agreed with Mr. Feghali’s briefing which argued that the individual defendant, who was alleged to have harassed the Plaintiffs under FEHA, was a proper defendant.

(h) Mr. Feghali has been the lead counsel, or co-lead counsel, in individual cases that settled for $850,000.00, $375,000.00, and $250,000.00. In addition to the foregoing, Mr. Feghali has resolved or assisted in the resolution of approximately 100 cases which has resulted in millions of dollars of unpaid wages being returned to low-wage employees.

(i) Mr. Feghali was part of a team that prepared the briefing in a contested class certification motion in the matter of Hernandez v. CR Laurence, Inc., et al. (No. 20STCV32372), which was granted, in part, and denied, in part, in February 2024.

57. Since June 2018, Mr. Feghali’s practice has shifted to almost exclusively representing employees in wage-and-hour class and representative actions. His fee has been approved by Courts throughout the state. He has participated as lead, or co-lead counsel, in the litigation and resolution of over 100 wage-and-hour class actions, including obtaining preliminary and final approval of settlements. A selection of settled cases wherein Mr. Feghali served as lead or co-lead class counsel includes the following: Barahona v. Methodist Hosp. of Cal. (No. 20STCV09876) ($5,000,000); Stanley Black & Decker Wage and Hour Cases (No. JCCP5218) ($3,500,000); Vazquez v. St. Mar 2.0 Inc. (No. 37-2021-00042702-CU-OE-CTL) ($2,250,000); Duncan v. Infineon Technologies Americas Corp. (No. 21STCV16872) ($2,500,000); Aquino v. Coast King Packing, LLC (No. 21CV002448) ($2,300,000); Martinez, et al. v. Curative LLC (No. 21STCV20778) ($1,500,000); Calderon v. Installed Building Products (No. 37-2021-00035844-CU-OE-CTL) ($1,500,000); Majdoub v. Argent Hotel Mgmt. (No. CGC-20-582921) ($1,800,000); Fuentes v. Covid Clinic, Inc. (No. CIVSB2106806) ($1,526,317.57); Rahman, et al. v. Gate Gourmet, Inc. (No. 3:20-cv-03047) ($3,850,000); Pagoulatos v. Coast Hills Credit Union (No. 20CV02801) ($1,100,000); Hammers v. Redwood Oil Co., Inc. (No. SCV-269625) ($1,180,000); Cuadras v. R.C. Wendt Painting, Inc. (No. BC705964) ($1,400,000); Zaragoza v. The Roman Catholic Bishop of Fresno (No. 22CV-00282) ($1,500,000); Garcia v. San Jose Water Co. (22CV396328) ($1,200,000); Garcia v. Tri-Valley Plastering, Inc. (No. 22CECG00591) ($1,250,000); Garcia v. Tapia Enter., Inc. ($2,137,651 for 507 class members);

1 Cha v. Center Point, Inc. (No. CIV2102081) ($1,000,000); Sison v. Cha Hollywood Med. Ctr., L.P. (No.
2 BC644129) (2,137 class members); Lagos v. ThyssenKrupp Elevator Corp. (No. BC682972) ($750,000 for 3 79 class members); and Montoya v. Golden 1 Credit Union (No. 34-2018-00228252) ($1,250,000).

4 S. PHILLIP SONG'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

5 58. S. Phillip Song is a Senior Attorney at my office. He received his undergraduate degree in 6 2006 from the University of Houston, graduating cum laude with a Communications B.A. and minor in 7 Accounting. Mr. Song earned his Juris Doctor degree in 2011 from the University of Houston Law Center.
8 Mr. Song has been admitted to practice law since 2013 (Texas). Mr. Song is presently admitted to practice 9 in all state courts of California (admitted in 2019), and before all federal district courts in California. The 10 focus of Mr. Song's practice is currently on class actions, wage-and-hour law, and employment law. Mr.
11 Song has worked on numerous class action cases and representative actions that have been granted final 12 approval, including Paez et al. v. C&R Restaurant Group, LP, Kern County Superior Court, Case No. BCV-

18 and MCC2001498). Mr. Song is currently handling multiple class action and PAGA matters. Mr. Song's 19 current billing rate is $775.00 per hour, which is his usual hourly rate in wage and hour litigations. Based 20 on Mr. Song's 14+ years of experience out of law school, his Laffey Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment 21 is $1,044.78 per hour ($1,019 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $1,019)). (See Ex. 6.) As compared to the 22 Laffey Matrix rate and when considering his experience, Mr. Song's billing rate of $775.00 per hour is 23 reasonable.

24 RYAN HANDLEY'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

25 59. Ryan Handley has been an associate attorney at Moon Law Group, PC since 2021. Mr.
26 Handley advocates for employees in both state and federal court in individual cases involving 27 discrimination, harassment, whistleblowing, unpaid wages, wrongful termination, and class and PAGA 28

1 actions.

2 60. Mr. Handley was admitted to the California Bar in 2021, and is also admitted to practice in the 3 9th Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States District Courts for the Central and Eastern Districts of 4 California. Mr. Handley earned his Juris Doctor from Southwestern Law School in 2020. Prior to law
5 school, Mr. Handley received a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from University of Washington, 6 Seattle in 2015, and also taught English in South Korea.

7 61. Mr. Handley's current billing rate is $600.00 per hour, which is his usual hourly rate in wage 8 and hour litigations. Based on Mr. Handley's nearly 5 years of experience out of law school, his Laffey 9 Matrix rate with a 2.53% adjustment is $640.81 per hour ($625 Laffey Matrix rate + (2.53% x $625)).
10 (See Ex. 6.) Accordingly, Mr. Handley's billing rate of $600.00 per hour is reasonable.

11 CLASS COUNSEL'S EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

12 62. As demonstrated by the foregoing, my office is qualified to handle this litigation because we 13 are experienced in litigating Labor Code and Wage Order violations in individual, class, and representative 14 actions. The attorneys at my office have been appointed as lead or co-lead counsel in numerous wage-and-15 hour class and/or PAGA actions in state and federal courts by way of motion for settlement approval.
16 Including myself, Moon Law Group, PC is comprised of approximately 35 attorneys, all of whom are 17 actively and continuously practicing employment litigation, representing almost entirely employee-18 plaintiffs, in both individual and class and/or PAGA actions, in this Superior Court and other Superior Courts 19 throughout the State, in the Courts of Appeal, and in various federal courts. The attorneys at my firm have a 20 high level of skill and knowledge in wage-and-hour class actions, PAGA representative actions, and labor 21 and employment law generally, the substantive (state and federal) and procedural law of which is 22 frequently evolving.

23 63. Moon Law Group, PC has been engaged in the practice of employment and labor law for over 24 a decade, and presently focuses exclusively on plaintiffs' employment law. The firm and its lawyers have 25 tried both bench and jury trials (representing both plaintiffs and defendants) relating to employment matters.
26 As noted above, Moon Law Group, PC has been appointed lead or co-lead class counsel in federal and state 27 courts in California. Also, the firm and its lawyers have successfully settled hundreds of cases during that 28

1 time, including wage-and-hour class and/or PAGA actions.

2 64. The foregoing experience of myself and other attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC is helpful in 3 assessing the reasonableness of settlements, such as the one at issue here, and from this experience we 4 concluded that this litigation could not have been settled on better terms than provided under the Settlement.

5 65. I respectfully submit that the attorneys of Moon Law Group, PC, myself included, are well 6 suited to act as Class Counsel in this action, and we have, and will continue to, vigorously represent the 7 interests of the Class. To my knowledge, we do not have any conflicts of interest with Plaintiff, other Class 8 Members, or the proposed Administrator, and we are not related to Plaintiff. We respectfully request to be 9 appointed as Class Counsel, for settlement purposes.

10 THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS IS REASONABLE

11 66. The Settlement provides for attorneys' fees payable to Class Counsel in an amount up to one-12 third of the Gross Settlement Amount (i.e., no less than $52,500.00, subject to potential increase under the 13 escalator clause) and litigation costs up to $25,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.2.2.) The proposed award of 14 attorneys' fees can be justified under either the lodestar method or the percentage/common-fund recovery 15 method. however, we base the proposed fees award on the percentage method, as many of the entries in the 16 time records will have to be redacted to preserve attorney-client and attorney work product privileges.

17 67. I am informed and believe that the fees and costs provision in the Settlement is reasonable. The 18 fee percentage requested is less than that charged by my office for most employment cases. Moreover, my 19 office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the end of the case, and 20 then, of course, contingent on the outcome.

21 68. It is further estimated that my office will need to expend at least another 50 to 100 hours to 22 monitor the administration process leading up to the final approval, prepare for final approval, and oversee 23 distribution to the Class following final approval. My office also bears the risk of taking whatever actions 24 are necessary should Defendant fail to pay.

25 69. The risk to my office has been very significant, particularly if we would not be successful in 26 pursuing this class action. In such instance, we would have been left with no compensation for all the time 27 taken in litigating this case due to the contingency fee arrangement. Indeed, I have taken on a number of class 28

1 action cases that have resulted in thousands of attorney hours being expended and ultimately having the 2 defendant company going bankrupt during litigation. The contingent risk in these types of cases is very real 3 and occurs regularly. Furthermore, we were precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which 4 could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain.

5 70. Because most individuals cannot afford to pay for representation in litigation on an hourly basis, 6 Moon Law Group, PC represents virtually all its employment law clients on a contingency fee basis, 7 including Plaintiff in this matter. Pursuant to this arrangement, we are not compensated for our time unless 8 we prevail at trial or successfully settle our clients' cases. Because Moon Law Group, PC is taking the risk 9 that we will not be reimbursed for our time unless our client settles or wins his or her case, we cannot afford 10 to represent an individual employee on a contingency basis if, at the end of our representation, all we are to 11 receive is our regular hourly rate for services. It is essential that we recover more than our regular hourly rate 12 when we win if we are to remain in practice so as to be able to continue representing other individuals in 13 civil rights employment disputes.

14 71. As of the drafting of this motion, my office has incurred $18,343.22 in expenses litigating this 15 action, and we anticipate accruing additional costs up to final approval. These expenses were reasonably 16 necessary to the litigation and were actually incurred by my office. Moreover, because total litigation costs 17 are below the maximum amount allowed under the Settlement, the difference will revert to Participating 18 Class Members. (Id. at ¶ 3.2.2.) Therefore, our costs should be reimbursed in full.

19 72. My office invested significant time and resources into the case, with payment deferred to the 20 end of the case, and then, of course, contingent on the outcome. My office's efforts have included, and will 21 include following preliminary and final approval, without limitation, the following:

- 22 (a) Numerous interviews with Plaintiff and review of documents provided by him;
- 23 (b) Legal research and investigation regarding Defendant's business and employment 24 practices at numerous points in the litigation;
- 25 (c) Preparation and submission of Plaintiff's PAGA notice;
- 26 (d) Preparation, finalization, and filing of multiple drafts of the original class action complaint 27 and subsequent first amended complaint;
- 28

- (e) Extensive “meet and confer” correspondence and discussions with Defense Counsel regarding mediation and to obtain relevant documents and information through informal discovery;
- (f) Research and preparation of Plaintiff’s mediation brief;
- (g) Analysis of the discovery production and preparation of a damages model with the aid of a statistics expert;
- (h) Attendance and active participation at a full day of mediation;
- (i) Drafting, negotiating, and reviewing multiple drafts of the Settlement and Class Notice;
- (j) Preparation of the motion for preliminary approval and the accompanying filings;
- (k) Anticipated preparation for and attendance at the preliminary approval hearing;
- (l) Anticipated conferring with Defense Counsel and the Administrator regarding the Class Notice mailing, Class responses, and preliminary and final calculations;
- (m) Anticipated preparation, finalization, filing, and service of a motion for final approval and accompanying filings;
- (n) Anticipated preparation for and anticipated attendance at the final approval hearing, and then monitoring of the distribution of funds following final approval; and
- (o) Anticipated responding to Class Member inquiries and communicating with Plaintiff regarding the case.

73. Through the efforts of my office and Plaintiff in this case, a fair and reasonable joint resolution has been reached that includes a gross, non-reversionary payment by Defendant of no less than $157,500.00 to compensate Class Members for the alleged unlawful wage-and-hour practices. I am informed and believe that, without the efforts of my office or Plaintiff, the Labor Code and Wage Order violations alleged in the Operative Complaint would have gone completely unremedied.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California and the United States that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on March 19, 2026, at Los Angeles, California.
