Attorneys for Plaintiffs

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

DONESE ALLEN and LUIS GARCIA, on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiffs,

v.

NORMS RESTAURANTS, LLC, a limited liability company; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 24TRCV03645

FIRST AMENDED PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab.
Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiffs Donese Allen and Luis Garcia (“Plaintiffs”), based upon facts that either have 2 evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for 3 further investigation and discovery, allege as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendant NORMS RESTAURANTS, LLC and 6 DOES 1 through 10 (NORMS RESTAURANTS, LLC and DOES 1 through 10 are collectively 7 referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, 8 California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for 9 all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, 10 failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure 11 to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, 12 failure to furnish accurate wage statements, and failure to indemnify for necessary expenditures.

13 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and legislature have recognized that this 14 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
15 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his or 16 her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws so that 17 employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has required for 18 employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the Legislature has 19 criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter violations of these 20 underlying statutes—since Plaintiffs are not seeking general and/or special damages, restitution, 21 or other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted the PAGA to permit an 22 individual to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise and sole nature of this 23 action.

24 3. All California employees during the relevant statutes of limitations who are or were 25 harmed by Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved Employees 26 worked for Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the applicable statutory 27 period.

28 4. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties on

1 behalf of all Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State of 2 California. Plaintiffs do not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by California 3 Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that statutory violations are mentioned for 4 wage violations, Plaintiffs do not seek underlying general and/or special damages for those 5 violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699, declaratory 6 relief, and injunctive relief for themselves and all Aggrieved Employees as permitted by the 7 PAGA.

8 5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and 9 establishment within the State of California, including Los Angeles County. As such and based 10 upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' business in California, Defendants are 11 subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission 12 ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

13 6. On information and belief, Defendants, and each of them were on actual and 14 constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their 15 unlawful policies. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were 16 willful and deliberate.

17 7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the 18 unlawful conduct, policies, practices, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the 19 foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees. Further, 20 Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under 21 the doctrine of "respondeat superior".

22 THE PARTIES

23 A. Plaintiff

24 8. Plaintiff Donese Allen is a resident of Los Angeles County, California who worked 25 for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 26 November 2018 to approximately August 2023.

27 9. Plaintiff Luis Garcia is a California resident who worked for Defendants in 28 California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately December 2022 to December 18, 2023.

B. Defendants

10. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief allege, that NORMS RESTAURANTS, LLC is, and at all times herein mentioned, was:

(a) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the State of California, including in Los Angeles County; and

(b) The former employer of Plaintiffs and the current and/or former employer of the Aggrieved Employees because Defendant NORMS RESTAURANTS, LLC suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work, and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working conditions.

11. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each of the Doe Defendants was in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

12. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

13. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as to be liable

1 for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and 2 thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the relationships 3 alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and authorized, ratified, 4 adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other Defendants.

5 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

6 14. Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in California as hourly-paid, non-exempt 7 employees wages.

8 15. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 9 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experiences working for Defendants 10 were typical and illustrative.

11 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, 12 and Overtime Wages

13 16. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
14 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and 15 includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do 16 so.

17 17. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 18 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 19 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

20 18. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not 21 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation 22 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states 23 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

24 19. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of not 25 paying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum, straight 26 time, and overtime wages. Defendants required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work 27 "off-the-clock," uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 28 Employees to perform work before clocking in for the workday, during unpaid meal periods, and

1 after clocking out for the workday. Some of this unpaid work should have been paid at the 2 overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, Defendants also failed to maintain accurate 3 records of the hours Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees worked.

4 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

5 20. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 6 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the 7 start of the sixth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute, 8 duty-free meal period no later than the start of the eleventh hour of work in a workday. Further, 9 employees are entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not 10 provided with a required meal period(s).

11 21. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed to provide 12 Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees with their legally mandated 30-minute, uninterrupted, 13 and duty-free meal period. Defendants regularly, but not always, required Plaintiffs and the 14 Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of five consecutive hours a day without providing a 30-15 minute, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period for every five hours of work, or without 16 compensating Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for meal periods that were not provided 17 by the end of the fifth hour of work or tenth hour of work. Instead, Defendants continued to 18 assert control over Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or 19 encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu 20 of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees 21 permission to take a meal period. Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was not to 22 provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California 23 law.

24 22. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 25 additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal period(s).
26 Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees the additional 27 wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

28 ///

1 C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Periods

2 23. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten 3 uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than 4 two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the 5 employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself 6 a violation of California's rest break laws.

7 24. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have wrongfully failed to authorize 8 and permit Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to take legally compliant rest periods.
9 Defendants regularly required Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees to work in excess of four 10 consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, 11 uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four 12 hours), or without compensating Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for rest periods that 13 were not authorized or permitted. Instead, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiffs 14 and the Aggrieved Employees by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work 15 tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, or 16 by denying Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees permission to take a rest period.
17 Accordingly, Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the 18 Aggrieved Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law. Accordingly, 19 Defendants' policy and practice was to not authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved 20 Employees to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

21 25. Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of 22 additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required 23 rest periods. Defendants, however, regularly failed to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees 24 the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized 25 and permitted to take.

26 D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

27 26. Based on its failure to pay Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees for all wages 28 as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

27. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, during all such times, Defendants systematically failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

28. Plaintiffs seek penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded

29. Defendants, however, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees.

30. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform its obligation under state law, all to their respective

1 damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to 2 comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and the 3 Aggrieved Employees have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, 4 understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

5 F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

6 31. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, 7 the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if 8 an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and 9 payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-10 two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled 11 to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

12 32. Within the applicable statute of limitations, the employment of Plaintiffs and many 13 other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the 14 employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants 15 failed, and continue to fail to pay Plaintiffs and terminated Aggrieved Employees, without 16 abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of 17 discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These 18 unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime 19 wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

20 33. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 21 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 22 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and 23 at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for 24 more than thirty (30) days.

25 34. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from 26 Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular 27 hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

28 ///

1 G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

2 35. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her 3 employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, 4 including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-5 rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all 6 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated 7 and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the 8 employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security 9 number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name 10 and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect 11 during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 12 employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Labor Code 13 § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

14 36. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing 15 and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the 16 greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation 17 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, 18 not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award 19 of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

20 37. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed to furnish Plaintiffs and the 21 Aggrieved Employees with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all applicable hourly rates, 22 and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct wages for meal periods 23 that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct wages for rest periods that 24 were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California law).

25 38. Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved 26 Employees suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights. Accordingly, Plaintiffs 27 and similarly Aggrieved Employees are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 28 actual damages caused by Defendants’ failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee.

H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

39. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify his or her employees for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the statute of limitations period applicable to this cause of action, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiff Garcia and the Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiff Garcia and the Aggrieved Employees regularly paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, including, without limitation, work attire and use of personal cell phones. Plaintiff Garcia and the Aggrieved Employees incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed to indemnify Plaintiff Garcia and the Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against all Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

40. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

41. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

42. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself and other current or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

43. Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3. On August 26, 2024 (Plaintiff Allen) and December 18, 2024 (Plaintiff Garcia),

1 they gave written notice by online filing to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency 2 (“LWDA”) and by certified mail to Defendants of the specific provisions of the Labor Code that 3 Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and current and former Aggrieved Employees, 4 including the facts and theories to support the violations. Plaintiffs also paid the filing fee on 5 August 26, 2024 (Plaintiff Allen) and December 18, 2024 (Plaintiff Garcia). Plaintiffs’ PAGA
6 case numbers are LWDA-CM-1047559-24 (Plaintiff Allen) and LWDA-CM-1068244-24 7 (Plaintiff Garcia).

8 44. The statute of limitations is tolled while a plaintiff exhausts his or her administrative 9 remedies with California’s LWDA prior to suit, which is required by the statute. (See Labor Code 10 § 2699.3(d).)

11 45. At least sixty-five (65) days has elapsed since Plaintiffs provided notice, but the 12 LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ Labor Code violations discussed 13 in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiffs may commence a civil action to recover penalties under Labor 14 Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code described in this Complaint.
15 These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under California Labor Code §§ 210, 16 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699(f)(2).

17 46. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to an award 18 of civil penalties on behalf of the State of California and similarly Aggrieved Employees of 19 Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown 20 according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted by law.

21 47. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs pursuant 22 to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, “Any employee who prevails in any action shall be 23 entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs.”

24 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

25 Plaintiffs, on behalf of all similarly aggrieved employees, pray for relief and judgment 26 against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

27 1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California 28 Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages),

1 failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned 2 wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, 3 failing to timely pay final wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, and failing to 4 indemnify employees for expenditures;

5 2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of themselves and all similarly aggrieved 6 employees pursuant to PAGA;

7 3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;

8 4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;

9 5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and, 10 6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.
