1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Sherry Huntington (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”) filed a class action
4 complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California, Stanislaus County, Case No. CV-24-5 010298 against Defendant HM.Clause Inc., (“Defendant”). Plaintiff alleged the following causes 6 of action: (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages; (2) Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime Under 7 Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (4) Rest Break Liability 8 Under Labor Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226(a); (6) Violation of Labor Code § 9 203; (7) Violation of Labor Code §204; (8) Failure to Keep Required Payroll Records Under 10 Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5; (9) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses § 2802; 11 (10) Failure to Pay Proper Sick Pay Under Labor Code § 246; (11) Violation of Business &
12 Professions Code § 17200 et seq; and (12) Penalties under Private Attorney General Act 13 (“PAGA”).

14 Pursuant to the proposed Class Action and PAGA Settlement Agreement (“Settlement” or 15 “Settlement Agreement”), filed concurrently herewith, the class consists of all persons employed 16 by Defendant in California and classified as non-exempt, hourly employees who worked for 17 Defendant at any time between October 16, 2021, through the date the Court grants preliminary 18 approval of the class settlement. After engaging in informal discovery, substantial investigation, 19 and extensive negotiations with the assistance of a respected third-party neutral, Lonnie Giamela, 20 Esq., the parties have agreed to settle all claims alleged in the lawsuit on a class-wide non-21 reversionary basis for Five Hundred and Thirty Eight Thousand Three Hundred and Thirty-Five 22 Dollars ($538,335.00), inclusive of all fees and costs. All 278 Class Members shall receive a 23 settlement share unless they opt out.

24 The proposed settlement reflected in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and 25 adequate, and in the best interests of the Class. Consequently, Plaintiff, with the consent of 26 Defendant, hereby moves this Court for an order: (1) granting preliminary approval of the 27 proposed class action settlement, as embodied in the Settlement Agreement filed concurrently 28 herewith; (2) approving the Notice of Settlement to be sent to Class Members; and (3) setting a hearing for final approval of the class action settlement.

II. STATUS OF THE LITIGATION

A. Procedural History.

On December 18, 2024, Plaintiff Huntington filed a class action complaint against Defendant alleging the following causes of action against Defendant: (1) Failure to Pay Minimum Wages; (2) Failure to Pay Wages and Overtime Under Labor Code § 510; (3) Meal Period Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (4) Rest Break Liability Under Labor Code § 226.7; (5) Violation of Labor Code § 226(a); (6) Violation of Labor Code § 203; (7) Violation of Labor Code § 204; (8) Failure to Keep Required Payroll Records under Labor Code § 1174 and 1174.5; (9) Failure to Reimburse Necessary Business Expenses under Labor Code § 2802; and (10) Violation of Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq. (Declaration of Natalie Haritounian (“Haritounian Decl.”), filed concurrently herewith, ¶ 10).

Plaintiff contends that Defendant failed to pay Class Members all wages due and owing, including by requiring off-the-clock work, failing to incorporate non-discretionary bonuses into the regular rate of pay used to calculate and pay for overtime pay, sick pay, and meal and rest break premiums, failing to provide meal and rest breaks, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to timely pay wages including final wages, failing to maintain accurate records, and failing to reimburse necessary business expenses. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 11.)

On December 18, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a Private Attorneys General Act (“PAGA”) notice letter to the Labor Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and served Defendant. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 12.) The LWDA did not express an interest in investigating Plaintiff’s claims within the 65-day period. (Id.) Therefore, on February 21, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended Complaint adding a cause of action for penalties under PAGA. (Id.) (See also Exhibit 2; Plaintiff’s LWDA Letter)

On March 17, 2026, Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint adding a cause of action for failure to pay proper sick pay under Labor Code § 246. The Second Amended Complaint is the Operative Complaint. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 13.)

1 B. Investigation.

2 Before filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel investigated and researched the facts and 3 circumstances underlying the pertinent issues and the law applicable thereto. (Haritounian Decl., 4 ¶ 14.) This required thorough discussions and interviews between Class Counsel and Plaintiff, as 5 well as preliminary research into the various legal issues involved in the case. (Id.) After 6 conducting their initial investigation, Class Counsel determined that Plaintiff's claims were well-7 suited for class and representative action adjudication owing to what appeared to be a common 8 course of conduct affecting a similarly situated group of employees. (Id.)

9 After filing the lawsuit, Class Counsel conducted a thorough investigation of the facts and 10 claims giving rise to the action, including: (1) conducting informal discovery and meeting and 11 conferring with defense counsel about same; (2) reviewing and analyzing time and pay records as 12 well as employment handbooks, Plaintiff's personnel file, relevant policies and other 13 documentation; (3) researching the applicable law and potential defenses; (4) constructing 14 damage models based on interpretations of California law; and (5) reviewing information 15 provided by Defendant at the mediation. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 15.) The Class enumerated in this 16 action is ascertainable because the Class Members may be readily identified by reference to 17 Defendant's records. (Id.) Defendant has agreed to share the information from these records with 18 the Settlement Administrator to identify and contact the Class Members. (Id.) There are 19 approximately 278 total Class Members. (Id.)

20 Defendant, for its part, vigorously contested liability, the amount of claimed damages, and 21 the propriety of class certification. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 16.) After Class Counsel analyzed the 22 relevant documents and other gathered data, Class Counsel believed that this case was appropriate 23 for resolution via mediation. (Id.) Given the high level of risk present for both sides, the parties 24 elected to mediate Plaintiff's claims and explore the possibility of settlement. (Id.)

25 C. Settlement Efforts.

26 On May 27, 2025, the parties mediated this case with Lonnie Giamela, Esq., a respected 27 and highly experienced mediator in wage-and-hour class actions. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 17.)
28 During mediation, Plaintiff's and Defendant's counsel discussed all aspects of the case, including

1 the risks of litigation and the risks to both parties of proceeding with a motion for class 2 certification as well as the law relating to unpaid wages, meal periods, rest periods, wage 3 statements, and final pay. (Id.) As a result of the mediation, the parties agreed to settle the lawsuit 4 according to the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement. (Id.; See Exhibit 1 attached to 5 Haritoonian Decl., “Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”).)

6 From Class Counsel’s review of the facts, strengths and weaknesses of the case, the risks
7 and delays posed by further litigation, and Class Counsel’s own prior litigation experience, Class 8 Counsel believes that the recovery for each Class Member is fair and reasonable taking into 9 consideration the amounts received in other wage-and-hour class actions, the risks inherent in 10 litigation of this genre, and the reasonable tailoring of each Class Member’s claim to the 11 settlement award he or she will receive. (Id.) Further, and based on the settlement negotiations, 12 which were extensive, and conducted in good faith and at arm’s length between attorneys with 13 substantial experience litigating class actions and wage-and-hour cases, the Settlement Agreement 14 was the product of a non-collusive settlement process in which the parties were forced to make 15 significant compromises in the interest of reaching a full and complete settlement of the lawsuit.
16 (Id.)

17 III. SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS

18 Under the terms of the proposed Settlement Agreement, Defendant has agreed to pay Five 19 Hundred and Thirty-Eight Thousand Three Hundred and Thirty-Five Dollars ($538,335.00) 20 (“Gross Settlement Amount”) to settle and release all claims asserted by Plaintiff in the Class and 21 PAGA Action on behalf of the proposed Class. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶ 18; Exh. 1, §§ 1.23; 3.1.)
22 The Settlement Agreement defines the “Class Members” as all current and former non-exempt 23 hourly employees who worked for Defendant in California at any time between October 16, 2021, 24 through the date the Court grants preliminary approval of the class action settlement. (Haritoonian 25 Decl., ¶ 19; Exh. 1 §§ 1.4, 1.8, 1.11.) The “Net Settlement Amount,” available for distribution to 26 Class Members, shall be the Gross Settlement Amount, less the Attorneys’ Fees and Costs, the 27 Class Representative Enhancement Payment, Settlement Administration Costs, and sixty-five 28

1 percent (65%) of the LWDA Payment. (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, § 1.35.) These amounts 2 are detailed as follows:

- 3 • not more than One Hundred and Seventy-Nine Thousand Four Hundred and Forty-4 Five Dollars ($179,445.00) to Class Counsel for attorneys' fees, and not more than 5 Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($25,000.00) to Class Counsel for 6 litigation costs (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, § 3.2.2);
- 7 • not more than Seven Thousand Three Hundred Dollars ($7,300.00) for the 8 Settlement Administration Costs (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, § 3.2.3);
- 9 • not more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) to Plaintiff for a Class 10 Representative Enhancement Payment (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, § 3.2.1); 11 and
- 12 • Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) for civil penalties under the PAGA, where 13 65% ($32,500.00) will be paid to the LWDA and 35% ($17,500.00) will be 14 included in the Net Settlement Amount and distributed to Settlement Class 15 Members) (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 20; Exh. 1, § 3.2.5.)

16 The "Individual Class Payment," which is each Class Member's share of the Net 17 Settlement Amount, will be calculated and apportioned from the Net Settlement Amount based on 18 the number of workweeks a Class Member worked during the Class Period as a non-exempt 19 employee in California. (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 21; Exh. 1, §§ 1.24; 3.2.4.)

20 Defendant shall pay its corporate payroll tax obligations on the payouts to Class Members 21 in addition to the Gross Settlement Amount. (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 22; Exh. 1, § 3.1)

22 The settlement amount was a compromise figure, factoring in the inherent risks related to 23 certification, liability, and damages. (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 23.) However, taking into account all of 24 the circumstances of the action and the defenses raised by Defendant against certification, 25 liability, and damages, Class Counsel believes that the settlement is fair and reasonable. (Id.)

26 Attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit A is the Notice of Settlement ("Class 27 Notice"). Class Members shall each receive a Class Notice via first class mail (after the 28 Settlement Administrator conducts a national change of address search). (Haritootian Decl., ¶ 24;

1 Exh. 1, § 7.5.2.) Class Members will have an opportunity to dispute the information provided in 2 their Class Notice, and they may produce evidence to support their claim that the information is 3 inaccurate. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 25; Exh. 1; § 7.7; see also Class Notice, Exhibit A attached to 4 the Settlement Agreement.) The Settlement Administrator shall decide the dispute and may ask 5 Defendant to produce the personnel and payroll files of the Class Member disputing their credited 6 workweeks in order to resolve the dispute. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 25; Exh. 1, § 7.7.) Class 7 Members wishing to opt-out from the Settlement Agreement must sign and postmark a written 8 request for exclusion to the Settlement Administrator within the Notice Period. (Haritounian 9 Decl., ¶ 26; Exh. 1, § 7.6.) Class Members will also have the opportunity to object to the 10 Settlement Agreement, by serving a copy of the objection to the Settlement Administrator within 11 the Notice Period. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 26; Exh. 1, § 7.8.) The Notice Period will be sixty (60)
12 calendar days from the initial mailing of the Class Notice. (Id.)

13 The parties have also agreed that Apex Class Action, LLC shall handle the notice and 14 settlement administration (Exh. 1, § 7.1), and the parties respectfully request this Court to appoint 15 Apex Class Action, LLC to handle those procedures. The procedures for mailing notice and 16 processing exclusions and objections as well as distribution of the Net Settlement fund is detailed 17 in the Settlement Agreement. (Exh. 1, § 7)

18 IV. CERTIFICATION FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY IS APPROPRIATE

19 Express judicial policy favors maintaining wage-and-hour actions as class actions. (Prince 20 v. CLS Transp., Inc. (2004) 118 Cal. App. 4th 1320, 1328; Richmond v. Dart Indus., Inc. (1981) 21 29 Cal. 3d 462.) Any doubt as to the appropriateness of class treatment should be resolved in 22 favor of class certification, subject to later modification if necessary. (Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 23 473-75.) The decision to certify a class is a procedural one, and should be based on the allegations 24 in the operative complaint, and not in the perceived factual or legal merit of the class claims.
25 (Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 429, 439-41.)

26 To certify a settlement class, the Court must find the two primary requirements for 27 maintaining a class action: (1) there must be an ascertainable class, and (2) there must be a well-28 defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involving the parties to be

1 represented. (See Vasquez v. Superior Ct. (1971) 4 Cal. 3d 800, 805-09; Daar v. Yellow Cab Co.
2 (1967) 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704.) These criteria are met here for the reasons set forth below.

3 A. There Is A Numerous And Ascertainable Class.

4 Whether a class is ascertainable is determined by examining the class definition, the size
5 of the class and the means available for identifying class members. (See Vasquez, supra, 4 Cal. 3d 6 at 821-22; Reyes v. Board of Supervisors of San Diego Cnty. (1987) 196 Cal. App. 3d 1263, 7 1271.) Class members are “ascertainable” where they may be readily identified without 8 unreasonable expense or time.

9 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that this 10 requirement and the requirement of numerosity is met. Class Members are “all current and former 11 non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendant in California during the Class Period 12 [between October 16, 2021, through the date the Court grants preliminary approval of the class 13 settlement].” (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 74(a).) Documents and information exchanged between the 14 parties reflect a class of approximately 278 Class Members. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 74(a).) The 15 Class Members have already been identified by reference to Defendant’s payroll and personnel 16 records. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 74(b).)

17 Therefore, and notwithstanding the foregoing, there is a numerous and ascertainable class.

18 B. There Is A Well-Defined Community Of Interest.

19 A community of interest is established by the predominance of common issues of law and 20 fact. See Vasquez, 4 Cal. 3d at 811. The requirement of a community of interest:

21 [D]oes not depend upon an identical recovery, and the fact that each 22 member of the class must prove his separate claim to a portion of 23 any recovery by the class is only one factor to be considered ... The 24 mere fact that separate transactions are involved does not of itself 25 preclude a finding of the requisite community of interest so long as 26 every member of the alleged class would not be required to litigate 27 numerous and substantial questions to determine his individual right 28 to recover subsequent to the rendering of any class judgment which determined in Plaintiff’s favor whatever questions were common to the class.

Id. at 809.

1 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 2 common issues of fact and law predominate as to each of the claims alleged by Plaintiff, and the 3 Class is united in its proof. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 74(e).) Because Plaintiff has alleged a single 4 scheme, “the relevant proof [does] not vary among class members” and “clearly presents a 5 common question fundamental to all class members.” (See In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers
6 Antitrust Litigation (SDNY 1997) 172 F.R.D. 119, 123 (citing In Re NASDAQ Market-Makers
7 Antitrust Litigation, (SDNY 1997) 169 F.R.D. 493, 518).) California courts show “no hesitancy” 8 in inferring class-wide causation, class-wide injury, and class-wide damages when a common 9 course of action has been shown. (B.W.I. Custom Kitchen, 191 Cal. App. 3d at 1350.) This 10 inference ““eliminates the need for each class member to prove individually the consequences of 11 the defendants’ actions to him or her.”” (Id. at 1351 (quoting Rosack v. Volvo of Am. Corp. (1982) 12 131 Cal. App. 3d 741, 753 [emphasis added]).)

13 This action involves, inter alia, a determination about Defendant’s alleged failure to 14 provide meal period and rest periods, failure to pay wages and overtime due to allegedly common 15 and unlawful policies, failure to pay final wages when required, failure to provide accurate 16 paystubs, and largely derivative claims under the Business & Professions Code and PAGA.
17 Plaintiff contends these practices affected Class Members in the same way. Plaintiff contends 18 these practices resulted in a failure to compensate employees at termination, and incomplete 19 wages displayed on wage statements. The outcome of litigation on this matter depends upon 20 questions that are common to Class Members. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 74(f).) While Defendant 21 strongly disputes this, Plaintiff contends these issues will not be decided on the basis of facts 22 peculiar to each Class Member, but rather on the basis of facts common to them all. Plaintiff 23 contends that these issues of liability can be determined on a class-wide basis. (Id.)

24 C. The Named Plaintiff’s Claims Are Typical.

25 A class representative’s claims are typical when they arise from the same event, practice, 26 or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other putative class members, and if their 27 claims rest on the same legal theories. The class representative’s claims must be “typical” but not 28 necessarily identical to the claims of other class members. It is sufficient that the representative is 1 similarly situated so that he or she will have the motive to litigate on behalf of all class members.

2 (Classen v. Weller (1983) 145 Cal.App.3d 27, 47; B.W.I. Custom Kitchens v. Owens-Illinois, Inc.
3 (1987) 191 Cal.App.3d 1341, 1347 (“[I]t has never been the law in California that the class 4 representative must have identical interests with the class members.”) Thus it is not necessary that 5 the class representative should have personally incurred all of the damages suffered by each of the 6 other class members. (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 228.)

7 Plaintiff contends, and Defendant does not dispute for settlement purposes only, that 8 Plaintiff’s claims are typical of Class Members’ claims because they arose from the same factual 9 basis and are based on the same legal theories. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 74(c).) Plaintiff was 10 employed by Defendant during the Class Period, and was subject to the allegedly unlawful meal 11 and rest policies and pay practices at issue in this litigation. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is a 12 member of the Class. (Id.) The central issues of this litigation (whether Defendant failed to pay all 13 wages, whether Defendant failed to provide meal and rest periods, etc.), which would arise if this 14 was an individual action, applies to the other Class Members as well. The answer to these 15 questions would determine Defendant’s liability to the putative class. (Id.) Thus, the claims of 16 Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the putative class. (Id.) Accordingly, the typicality 17 requirement is satisfied.

18 D. Adequacy Of Class Counsel And Class Representative.

19 Class Counsel are experienced in class actions, have represented their clients zealously, 20 and have no conflicts of interest. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 3-9, 74(d).) The Class Representative’s 21 interests are aligned with those of the Class Members, she has suffered the same injuries as the 22 Class Members and has no conflicts of interest. (Id.) Therefore, Class Counsel and the Class 23 Representative are adequate.

24 E. Predominance And Superiority.

25 Individual issues do not predominate over those common to the class. (Haritounian Decl., 26 ¶ 74(f-g).) The class action mechanism is superior to individualized actions because Class 27 Members have little incentive to bring claims that are small. (Id.)

28 ///

V. THE TWO-STEP APPROVAL PROCESS

Any settlement of class action litigation must be reviewed and approved by the Court.

This is accomplished in two steps: (1) An early (preliminary) review by the trial court, and (2) a detailed review after the notice has been distributed to the class members for their comments or objections. In this regard, the Manual for Complex Litigation (Second) explains:

A two-step process is followed when considering class settlements...
If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant preferential treatment to class representative or segments of the class, and falls within the range of possible approval, then the court should direct that notice be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing, at which evidence may be presented in support of and in opposition to the settlement.

(MANUAL FOR COMPLEX LITIGATION (SECOND) (1985) at § 30.44.) The preliminary approval of the class action settlement by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements. (See, e.g., Newberg, § 11.25; North Cnty. Contractor's Ass'n, Inc. v. Touchstone Ins. Servs. (1994) 27 Cal. App. 4th 1085, 1094-95.) Thus, the preliminary approval of the class action settlement by the trial court is simply a conditional finding that the settlement appears to be within the range of acceptable settlements.

Settlements to resolve PAGA claims also require court approval. (Labor Code § 2699(l)(2).) There is no articulated standard for approving PAGA settlements. PAGA settlements for as little as $0 have been approved. (See Nordstrom Com'n Cases (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 576, 589 (approving PAGA settlement and release that allocated $0 to PAGA claim).) Courts have also approved settlements for $20,000 or less. (See, e.g., Hicks v. Toys 'R' Us-Delaware, Inc., (C.D. Cal. Sept. 2, 2014) 2014 WL 4703915, at *1 (approving $5,000 PAGA payment in $4 million settlement); Chu v. Wells Fargo Invest. LLC (N.D. Cal. Feb. 16, 2011) 2011 WL 672645, at *1 (approving PAGA payment of $7,500 in $6.9 million settlement); Williams v. Brinderson Constructors (C.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2017) 2017 WL 490901, at *5 ($10,000 PAGA settlement in $300,000 settlement).)

A review of the preliminary approval criteria demonstrates a substantial basis for granting the instant Motion and proceeding to a full settlement hearing.

1 VI. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR AND ADEQUATE

2 As a matter of public policy, courts both encourage the use of the class action device and 3 favor settlement over continued litigation. (See, e.g., Linder v. Thrifty Oil Co. (2000) 23 Cal. 4th 4 429, 434 (“Courts have long acknowledged the importance of class actions as a means to prevent 5 a failure of justice in our judicial system.”); Class Plaintiff v. City of Seattle (1992) 955 F.2d 6 1268, 1276 (“[S]trong judicial policy . . . favors settlements, particularly where complex class 7 action litigation is concerned.”).)

8 Moreover, courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of a 9 settlement unless evidence to the contrary is offered. In short, there is a presumption that the 10 negotiations were conducted in good faith. (Newberg, §11.51; Rodriguez v. West Publ. Corp.
11 (C.D. Cal. August 10, 2007) 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767, 24-25 ; Priddy v. Edelman (6th Cir.
12 1989) 883 F.2d 438, 447.) Courts do not substitute their judgment for that of the proponents, 13 particularly when settlement has been reached by experienced counsel familiar with the litigation.
14 (Rodriguez, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 74767 at 24; Hammon v. Barry (D.D.C. 1990) 752 F. Supp.
15 1087.)

16 In Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 128 (2008), the court laid out 17 several factors that should be analyzed in determining if a class action settlement should be 18 approved. These factors include: (1) the strength of Plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, 19 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status 20 through trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and 21 stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a 22 governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the Class Members to the proposed settlement.

23 The Settlement here satisfies each of these factors. Class Counsel conducted extensive 24 informal discovery before entering into meaningful settlement negotiations in this matter, 25 including a detailed analysis of Defendant’s policies and entire time and pay records for the class.
26 (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 14-17.) This permitted Class Counsel to fairly evaluate the strengths of the 27 case and the risks associated with ongoing litigation. Class Counsel is very experienced in the 28

1 handling of wage-and-hour class actions and supports this Settlement, which is the result of the 2 parties attending mediation with Lonnie Giamela, Esq. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶¶ 3-9.)

3 A. The Strength Of Plaintiff's Case.

4 Plaintiff alleges, and Defendant disputes, that Defendant failed to pay minimum wages 5 and overtime, failed to provide proper meal breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failed 6 to provide proper rest breaks or provide premium pay in lieu thereof, failed to provide accurate 7 wage statements, failed to timely pay all wages upon termination, and failed to reimburse 8 necessary business expenses in violation of California law. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶ 28.)

9 Class Counsel felt confident, and Defendant disputes, that the claims in this case would be 10 certified, given that Defendant's policies applied to all Class Members and were unlawful on their 11 face. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶¶ 28-55.) Defendant contended, however, that the policies complied 12 with California law.

13 B. The Risks Associated With The Merits.

14 As with all litigation, there are risks that a party will not prevail on the merits. For 15 example, in this case, Plaintiff contends that she and other Class Members were not properly 16 provided meal periods. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶¶ 35-38.) Defendant contended that Class Members 17 were given a reasonable opportunity to take their meal periods and that all employees took their 18 meal period at the 4-hour mark. (Id.) If Defendant's contentions are proven true and prevail in 19 trial, the likely outcome of this claim would be no recovery for the Class Members. Plaintiff also 20 contended that Defendant did not provide Class Members with paid 10-minute rest breaks for 21 every four hours or major fraction thereof. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶¶ 39-41.) Class Members 22 consistently worked in excess of consecutive four-hour shifts and were entitled to paid rest breaks 23 of not less than ten minutes for each consecutive four-hour shift which they were denied. Class 24 Members were required to work through their rest breaks, and through their entire shifts.
25 Defendant maintained that they did provide the reasonable opportunity for Class Members to take 26 duty-free rest breaks. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶ 40.) Defendant also pointed out that, unlike meal 27 periods, rest breaks need not be recorded, and Defendant disputes all allegations that breaks were 28

1 not received. As these considerations would likely depress the damages vel non ultimately 2 awarded, Class Counsel applied significant and appropriate discounts to the rest-break claim.

3 Plaintiff alleged that Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and Class Members minimum 4 wages for all hours worked, in violation of minimum wage laws. (Haritoonian Decl., ¶ 31.)
5 Plaintiff contended that Class Members were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all 6 work performed and for all overtime hours worked. (Id.) Specifically, Plaintiff alleged, and 7 Defendant disputes, that Defendant unlawfully rounded down the hours Class Members worked.
8 (Id.) Plaintiff contended Defendant was unlawfully rounding down Class Members hours worked 9 from the beginning of the class period through May of 2023. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff alleged 10 Class Members were required to perform pre-shift and post-shift off-the-clock work. (Id.)

11 On the other hand, Defendant contended that they paid for all reported hours worked, that 12 Class Members were trained to record all hours worked, and that they paid proper minimum 13 wages. (Id. at 32.) Defendant also maintained that the allegations regarding failure to pay wages 14 for hours worked in excess of eight hours in a day did not constitute a basis for violation of Labor 15 Code § 510. Defendant argued that given their written policies and practices, any unrecorded 16 hours were likely subject to individualized inquiry and unlikely to be certified.

17 Defendant also contended that approximately 45% of the class members signed arbitration 18 agreements that were introduced to employees in 2023. Given the difficulty in certifying these 19 claims, taking into consideration Defendant’s defenses and the arbitration agreements, Class 20 Counsel had to apply a significant discount to the damages. (Id. at 33.)

21 C. The Risks Associated With Paystub Violations And Waiting Time Penalties.

22 In order to establish liability for these penalties, Plaintiff would first have to establish 23 liability for the underlying claims. Plaintiff would then have to establish that Defendant’s conduct 24 was willful and knowing. (Labor Code §§ 203, 226(e).)

25 With waiting-time penalties, there is always the risk that the trier of fact would not have 26 held that Defendant’s actions were done “willfully.” A good faith belief in a legal defense can 27 preclude a finding of willfulness. (Gonzalez v. Downtown LA Motors (2013) 215 Cal.App.4th 36, 28 54; 8 C.C.R. § 13520.) As discussed above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant failed to pay for all

1 hours worked and premiums for non-compliant meal breaks. Plaintiff contends the Class 2 Members are entitled to these wages and premiums, which she alleges were not paid at the time 3 of their termination or resignation. If Plaintiff is successful on her claims, the penalties pursuant 4 to Labor Code § 203 shall attach. Defendant, however, contends it provided employees with the 5 reasonable opportunity to take meal breaks, and therefore had good-faith defenses under Brinker 6 and its progeny. Defendant likewise contends that it properly paid all hours worked by its 7 employees. Based upon Defendant’s potential success in establishing both that a good-faith 8 dispute existed with regard to unpaid wages, and Defendant endeavored in good faith to supply 9 accurate wage statements, Defendant argues the claims for paystub violations and waiting time 10 penalties have little or no value. See Maldonado v. Epsilon Plastics, Inc., 22 Cal. App. 5th 1308, 11 1336-1337 (2018) (wage statements that accurately report wages paid to employees do not violate 12 Labor Code § 226, even if it is later determined that employer did not properly pay all wages 13 due). As such, there was risk associated with wage statement and waiting-time penalties that 14 Class Counsel had to consider. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 42-48.)

15 D. The Risks Associated With The PAGA Penalties.

16 Labor Code § 2699.3 gives aggrieved employees the right to recover civil penalties for 17 specific Labor Code violations by way of a civil action. The PAGA provides a penalty amount of 18 one hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation 19 and two hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent 20 violation. Labor Code § 2699(e)(2). However, if a civil penalty is provided in a specified amount 21 by the Labor Code section relating to the underlying alleged Labor Code violation, that amount 22 shall apply. (Id.) The PAGA also gives the Court discretion to award any lesser amount than the 23 maximum civil penalty. (Id. [“...a court may award a lesser amount than the maximum civil 24 penalty amount specified by this part if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular 25 case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or 26 confiscatory.”]); see, e.g., Lopez v. Friant & Assocs., LLC, 15 Cal. App. 5th 773, 788 (2017), rev.
27 denied (2018) (recognizing court’s ability to reduce PAGA penalties). Courts have held that 28 situations similar to the current one (e.g. injuryless violations, technical errors, and substantial

1 compliance) should lead to reductions in penalties. See Thurman v. Bayshore Transit 2 Management, Inc., 203 Cal. App. 4th 1112, 1134-1135 (2012) (holding that reduction was 3 justified when employer “attempted to comply with the law”); Fleming v. Covdien, Inc., No. ED 4 CV10-01487 RGK (OPx), 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 154590 at *8-9 (C.D. Cal. August 12, 2011)
5 (reducing PAGA penalties more than 80% – from $2.8 million to $500,000 – when “employees 6 suffered no injury” employers were “not aware” of the violation and “took prompt steps to correct 7 all violations once notified”).

8 Plaintiff discounted potential penalties under this claim given this authority, and for other 9 reasons. The PAGA claims are premised on the same underlying unpaid wages, meal and rest 10 break, wage statement, and waiting-time claims, and thus subject to the same disputes and 11 defenses. There is also a dispute as to whether violations in later pay periods trigger the $200 12 penalty under PAGA as a “subsequent violation.” (Amaral v. Cintas Corp. No. 2, 163 Cal. App.
13 4th 1157, 1203 (2008).) As such, there is a fair amount of risk associated with PAGA claims.
14 (Haritonian Decl., ¶¶ 51-54.) The parties also considered that the purpose of PAGA is to 15 “achieve maximum compliance with state labor laws,” and that through the proposed settlement, 16 Defendant has agreed to ensure policies comply with California law. (Iskanian v. CLS Transp.
17 Los Angeles, LLC (2014) 59 Cal. 4th 348, 379.) This makes the settlement’s contemplated PAGA 18 payment of $50,000.00 appropriate.

19 Based on this analysis, Class Counsel believes that this settlement is fair and reasonable 20 and in the best interest of the Class. (Id.)

21 E. The Risk, Expense, Complexity And Likely Duration Of Any Litigation.

22 Given the risks outlined above, the issues in this case were complex and the risk for 23 Plaintiff and the Class Members associated with this litigation was high. (Haritonian Decl., 24 ¶¶ 58-61.) A class trial would have required the retention of expensive expert witnesses, the 25 accrual of extensive litigation costs, and the parties would have had to spend a substantial amount 26 of time. (Id.)

27 Finally, given the complexity and unsettled nature of the issues, it is likely that any 28 outcome at trial would have resulted in a lengthy and costly appeal. An appeal would result in 1 further delay for the Class Members who have already waited years for resolution in this matter.

2 (Id.)

3 F. The Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial.

4 In class actions, decertification is always a possibility. There is always a risk that a trial of 5 this magnitude can become unmanageable. (Id.) Given cases like Duran v. U.S. Bank Nat. Assn., 6 59 Cal. 4th 1, 34 (2014) that deal with the complexity of using statistical samples in class actions, 7 decertification is a real risk that Class Counsel must take into account.

8 G. The Amount Offered In Settlement.

9 There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-10 collusive, and arms-length negotiations between the parties with an experienced mediator. In 11 order to determine the approximate potential damages that would be owed to each of the Class 12 Members, Class Counsel analyzed the time records for Plaintiff, and Defendant provided Class 13 Counsel with the time and pay data for all class members. By analyzing this information, Class 14 Counsel was able to estimate the full value of the case if Plaintiff were to prevail at trial.

15 As of mediation, there were approximately 278 total Class Members. Based on the data 16 provided, Class Counsel estimated the following maximum exposures: unpaid wage claim at 17 $411,426.50, meal period claim at $285,480.00, rest period claim at $285,480.00, wage statement 18 claim at $377,800.00, waiting time penalties at $791,992.89, reimbursement of business expenses 19 claim at $13,900.00, and on PAGA, Plaintiff estimated the maximum exposure at $387,000.00.
20 (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 29.)

21 However, taking into account the difficulties of proof, Defendant's defenses, and other 22 attendant risks, Plaintiff estimates that the total amount of damages, monetary penalties, or other 23 relief that the Class could reasonably expect to be awarded at trial is significantly less than the 24 maximum exposure. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 30.)

25 Once Class Counsel was able to determine the maximum potential damages, it was able to 26 determine a fair and reasonable settlement for the Class. (Id. at ¶¶ 56-57.) Class Counsel analyzed 27 the likelihood of success on the merits. (Id.) It believes that the Class had a reasonable likelihood 28 of success on the core claims. (Id.) However, Defendant disputes this contention, denies all

1 wrongdoing in this matter, and is confident that it has strong legal and factual defenses to 2 Plaintiff's claims. Moreover, Class Counsel determined that the likelihood of success on the 3 claims for unpaid wages and waiting-time penalties was not as strong, because various defenses 4 including issues not suitable for class treatment, no detriment to the class members over time, and 5 de minimis defenses. Defendant may have had the opportunity to establish that it had a good-faith 6 belief that it was complying with law. (Id.) After taking into account the likelihood of success on 7 each claim and the challenges faced with certifying these claims, Class Counsel determined that 8 the settlement amount of Five Hundred and Thirty-Eight Thousand Three Hundred and Thirty-9 Five Dollars ($538,335.00) was fair and reasonable.

10 Under the Settlement, each of the approximately 278 Class Members will receive on 11 average, assuming they worked throughout the class period, $1,936.46 after expenses.
12 (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 57) Plaintiff feels that this Settlement is fair, reasonable, and advantageous 13 to the class. (Id.)

14 To summarize, the Settlement here is fair because it provides a substantial payment to 15 each Class Member for releasing his or her claims; extinguishes the risk of litigation; and 16 provides a fair and adequate distribution of the settlement proceeds whereby the funds are 17 allocated to Class Members proportionally based on their Payout Ratio.

18 As detailed at length in the accompanying Declaration of Natalie Haritounian, the 19 settlement is the result of extensive settlement negotiations between the parties, conducted at 20 arm's length, and informed by substantial factual and legal investigations. (Haritounian Decl., 21 passim.) Throughout this case, Class Members have been represented by experienced counsel 22 with many years of experience in employment class action litigation. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 3-9.)

23 Class Counsel has devoted a considerable amount of time to the prosecution of this case, 24 including but not limited to, interviewing Plaintiff on repeated occasions; drafting pleadings; 25 conducting informal discovery, and meeting and conferring with defense counsel about same; 26 reviewing and analyzing time records and various handbooks and policies, Plaintiff's personnel 27 file, and other documentation; researching California law; preparing for and attending mediation; 28

1 and negotiating and finalizing the Settlement Agreement and related documents. (Haritounian 2 Decl., ¶¶ 14-17.)

3 Among those matters considered during the course of settlement negotiations were the 4 strength of Plaintiff's case versus the amounts offered in settlement; the risks, expenses, and 5 length of further litigation, including class certification and the appeals process; the present state 6 of the law as it applies to wage-and-hour class actions, particularly in light of Brinker; the present 7 value of a settlement versus the long wait necessitated by any potential judgment in class 8 members' favor; the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability against Defendant; and 9 Defendant's defenses to the action. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 27-61.)

10 These factors each indicated that the interests of Class Members are best served by a 11 settlement of this action in the manner and upon the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement.
12 The Settlement Agreement confers a substantial benefit on the class of up to Five Hundred and 13 Thirty-Eight Thousand Three Hundred and Thirty-Five Dollars ($538,335.00). Moreover, the 14 settlement awards for each Class Member will be tailored to their workweeks during the Class 15 Period. In addition, Class Counsel secured prospective relief for the Class in that Defendant will 16 ensure their policies comply with California law.

17 Class Counsel believes that the settlement is fair and reasonable and serves the best 18 interests of the Class Members. Although the recommendations of counsel proposing the class 19 settlement are not conclusive, the Court can properly take the recommendations into account, 20 particularly if counsel has been involved in litigation for some period of time, appear to be 21 competent, and have experience with this type of litigation, and significant discovery has been 22 completed. See Newberg, §11.47.

23 VII. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE ENHANCEMENT PAYMENT IS FAIR AND 24 REASONABLE

25 It is appropriate to provide a relatively modest additional incentive payment to the class 26 representative. See Newberg, § 12.1; Van Vranken v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (N.D. Cal. 1995) 901 27 F.Supp. 294.

1 Plaintiff is entitled to a reasonable service payment for her efforts and initiative in 2 bringing and helping to prosecute this class action. Plaintiff spent significant time better apprising 3 herself of her rights, deciding whether remedial action should be taken, how it should be taken,
4 searching for attorneys, and contacting Class Counsel, who spent many hours with Plaintiff 5 discussing her case and the law. (Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 69-73.) In the end, Plaintiff decided to 6 vindicate not only her own rights but also those of her co-workers by filing a class action lawsuit.

7 The courage it took to do this should not be underestimated. By suing Defendant, Plaintiff
8 contends she increased her risk of retaliation by prospective employers. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 70.) 9 Plaintiff's lawsuit has now cost Defendant considerable resources, and Plaintiff contends such 10 conduct will not be lost on a prospective employer who has to choose between an applicant who 11 has never sued a prior employer and one who has. (Id.) Plaintiff contends this risk is particularly 12 real in the information age, where employers can, more easily than ever, perform background 13 checks of prospective employees, sometimes with the stroke of a key. (Id.)

14 But Plaintiff did not allow her fear of the potential repercussions of being a class 15 representative deter her from acting for the benefit of Class Members. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 71.) 16 To the contrary, Plaintiff has been intimately involved in this case since its inception. (Id.) She 17 has devoted a substantial amount of time to helping Class Counsel effectively develop and 18 prosecute this action at every stage of the litigation. (Id.) Both before and after the filing of this 19 lawsuit, Plaintiff conferred with Class Counsel to discuss every aspect of this case; Plaintiff has 20 provided Class Counsel with information about Defendant and about the industry generally, 21 reviewed documents, identified witnesses, consulted Class Counsel throughout the litigation, 22 participated in the mediation process, monitored the progress of the litigation with Class Counsel, 23 and reviewed and signed the settlement agreement. (Id.)

24 Plaintiff has spent a significant amount of time with Class Counsel detailing her 25 knowledge of Defendant's practices. (Haritounian Decl., ¶ 72.) She has diligently, adequately, 26 and fairly represented Class Members, and has not placed her interests above any member of the 27 putative class. (Id.) This sort of payment to a class representative has been a common feature of 28 settlements negotiated by Class Counsel and has been routinely approved by trial courts. (Id.)

1 In light of the foregoing, Class Counsel believes that the incentive award in the amount of 2 Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) to the Class Representative is fair and reasonable.
3 (Haritonian Decl., ¶ 73.)

4 VIII. THE PROPOSED CLASS NOTICE PROVIDES ADEQUATE NOTICE TO THE 5 CLASS MEMBERS.

6 Constitutional due process requires that class members be provided with notice sufficient 7 to give them an opportunity to be heard in the proceedings. Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank &
8 Trust Co. (1950) 339 U.S. 306. Proper notice must provide the class members with sufficient 9 information to make an informed decision as to whether to accept or object to the settlement. (Id.
10 at 314.) The notice must apprise the class members of the pendency of the action; reasonably 11 convey information regarding the settlement and the class members' rights, entitlements, and 12 obligations; and afford class members the opportunity to present their objections. (Id.)

13 The Class Notice meets constitutional standards because it provides all the information a 14 reasonable person would need to make a fully informed decision about the settlement. It will 15 notify all class members of the terms of the settlement, of its effect on their rights, of their options 16 as class members (i.e., participate, object, opt out, do nothing), and of the consequences of 17 exercising those options. (Haritonian Decl., ¶¶ 62-64.) Moreover, the Class Notice will 18 specifically direct any class members who have questions or concerns to contact the Settlement 19 Administrator, Apex Class Action, LLC., or Class Counsel. (Id.)

20 The standard for determining the adequacy of notice is whether the notice has "a 21 reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of the class members." (Cartt v. Superior 22 Court (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 960, 974.) The Judicial Council of California's Deskbook on the 23 Management of Complex Civil Litigation (Matthew Bender 2003), § 3.74 notes that individual 24 notice by mail is preferred when possible and dissemination of combined certification/settlement 25 notice is a common and accepted practice. (In re Vitamin Cases (2003) 107 Cal.App.4th 820, 26 828.)

27 Here, the Class Notice will be sent via first-class mail to each class member. (Haritonian 28 Decl., ¶ 62.) If any Class Notices are returned undeliverable without a forwarding address, the

1 Settlement Administrator will use the national change of address database and perform a skip 2 trace to locate the class member and mail a new Class Notice to him or her at the correct address.
3 (Id.) Thus, most, if not all, class members will likely receive the Class Notice.

4 Pursuant to controlling authority, the proposed Class Notice and method of distribution 5 fully comport with due process requirements. Therefore, the Court should approve the Class 6 Notice and direct that it be distributed as proposed herein.

7 IX. STANDING TO OBJECT TO PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

8 Non-settling parties and third parties periodically may attempt to object to proposed class 9 action settlements, but the right of non-settling parties to object at the final settlement approval 10 hearing, let alone the preliminary approval hearing, is quite limited. As a general rule, only class 11 members have standing to object to a proposed settlement. “Beginning from the unassailable 12 premise that settlements are to be encouraged, it follows that to routinely allow non-class 13 members to inject their concerns via objection at the settlement stage would tend to frustrate this 14 goal.” (Gould v. Alleco, Inc. (4th Cir. 1998) 883 F.2d 281, 284.) Since an application is being 15 filed to obtain a good-faith determination, no persons other than class members have standing to 16 object to the proposed settlement. (In re School Asbestos Litigation (3rd Cir. 1990) 921 F.2d 17 1330.)

18 X. THE STIPULATED AWARD OF ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS IS 19 REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

20 Under the Settlement Agreement, subject to approval by this Court, Class Counsel will 21 seek an award of fees of no more than One Hundred and Seventy-Nine Thousand Four Hundred 22 and Forty-Five Dollars ($179,445.00) in Attorneys’ Fees and (2) Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars 23 ($25,000.00) in costs. The requested fees are fair compensation for a law firm involved in 24 undertaking complex, risky, expensive, and time-consuming litigation solely on a contingent 25 basis. (Haritounian Decl. ¶¶ 66-68.) Defendant will not oppose Class Counsel’s fees and cost 26 request.

27 California courts routinely look to the federal courts on class action approvals. The Ninth 28 Circuit has recognized that an appropriate method for awarding attorneys’ fees in class actions is

1 to award a percentage of the “common fund” created as a result of the settlement. (Vincent v.
2 Hughes Air West, Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) The purpose of the common fund/3 percentage approach is to “spread litigation costs proportionally among all the beneficiaries so 4 that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden alone.” (Id.) Accordingly, courts have 5 discretion to choose either the percentage-of-the-fund method or the lodestar method. (In re 6 Wash. Pub. Power Supply Sys. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1994) 19 F.3d 1291, 1295-96.)

7 Several courts have, however, expressed frustration with the “lodestar” approach for 8 deciding fee awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous time records. Thus, the 9 percentage approach can be preferable to the lodestar in certain situations because: (1) it aligns 10 the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of 11 the litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the 12 demands on judicial resources. (In re Activision Sec. Litig., (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp. 1373, 13 1378-79.) The Ninth Circuit has used the percentage of the common fund approach to determine 14 the award of attorneys’ fees. (In re Pacific Enters. Sec. Litig. (9th Cir. 1994) 47 F.3d 373, 378-79 15 (approving attorneys’ fee of 33 1/3% of settlement fund).)

16 Class Counsel’s application for attorneys’ fees in light of the facts and circumstances 17 surrounding this case is well within the range of reasonableness. Historically, courts have 18 awarded percentage fees in the range of 20% to 50% of the common fund, depending on the 19 circumstances of the case. (Newberg, at §14.03; see also In re Activision Securities Litigation, 20 723 F. Supp. at 1378.) Newberg further notes: “[A]chievement of a substantial recovery with 21 modest hours expended should not be penalized but should be rewarded for considerations of 22 time saved by superior services performed.” (Id. at §§ 14-10:14-11.)

23 The attorneys’ fees request provided for in the Settlement Agreement is commensurate 24 with judicial precedent. Both state and federal courts regularly approve fee awards equal to or 25 greater than the percentage requested in this case. (See, e.g., In re Pacific Enters. Sec. Litig. (9th 26 Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 379 (affirming an award equal to 33% of the common fund); In re 27 Activision Sec. Litig. (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp. 1373, 1375 (awarding Plaintiff’s counsel 28 32.8% of the common fund created to settle the litigation); In re Ampicillin Antitrust Litig. (D.

1 D.C. 1981) 526 F.Supp. 494 (awarding 45% of $7.3 million settlement fund); Parker v. City of 2 Los Angeles (1974) 44 Cal.App.3d 556, 557-568 (affirming fee award to counsel of one-third 3 (1/3) of recovery achieved).)

4 In wage-and-hour class actions in particular, California trial courts have customarily 5 approved attorney's fees consistent with or greater than the percentage of the common fund 6 requested in this case. (See Evans v. Coca-Cola, Los Angeles County Super. Ct. Case No. BC 7 220525 (Hon. Richard C. Hubbell) (Dec. 2001) (approving an award of attorneys' fees of at least 8 33-1/3% of the settlement); see also Estrada v. Dr. Pepper/Seven-Up, Los Angeles County Super.
9 Ct. Case No. BC 262247 (May 2005) (Hon. Anthony J. Mohr); Moreno v. Miller Brewing, Los 10 Angeles County Super. Ct. Case No. BC278170 (April 2004) (Hon. David M. Minning); Josiah
11 Eaton v. Adolph Coors Co. (2003) Orange County Super. Ct. Case No. 01CC00140 (Hon.
12 Stephen J. Sundvold); Kimbell v. Abercrombie & Fitch Stores, Inc., Los Angeles County Super.
13 Ct. Case No. BC277359 (Sept. 2006) (Hon. Kenneth R. Freeman); Daum v. Claim Jumper
14 Restaurants, Orange County Super. Ct. Case No. 02CC10201 (2006) (Hon. Ronald L. Bauer).)

15 Here, Class Counsel has borne the entire risk and costs of litigation and will not receive 16 any compensation until recovery is obtained. (See Haritounian Decl., ¶¶ 66-68.) The Court should 17 also consider the benefit obtained by Class Counsel on behalf of class members. Thus, the 18 requested award for Class Counsel is reasonable.

19 XI. ACTION REQUESTED AS A PART OF THE MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY 20 APPROVAL

21 The parties respectfully request this Court, as part of the preliminary approval process, to 22 grant the following relief and make the following orders:

- 23 1. Review and approve the Settlement Agreement;
- 24 2. Review and approve the Class Notice, attached as Exhibit A to the Settlement 25 Agreement;
- 26 3. Consider and determine that the proposed class action settlement as set forth in the 27 Settlement Agreement preliminarily appears fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- 28

1 4. Enter an order conditionally certifying the action as a class action for settlement 2 purposes only and preliminarily approving the proposed class action settlement and the 3 Settlement Agreement;

4 5. Approve and appoint Natalie Haritounian and Andrea A. Amaya of D.Law, Inc., to 5 serve as Class Counsel for settlement purposes;

6 6. Approve and appoint Apex Class Action, LLC. as the Settlement Administrator to 7 handle the notice and claims procedures as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

8 7. Approve the proposed settlement's allocation of funds to claims made under PAGA;

9 8. Order Defendant to disclose to Apex Class Action, LLC the names, last-known 10 addresses, telephone numbers, dates of employment, and social security numbers of class 11 members as set forth in the Settlement Agreement;

12 9. Order that Apex Class Action, LLC mail the Class Notices to class members; and 13 10. Set a date for the Final Approval Hearing.
