SUMMARY OF MOTION

As a proxy for the State of California pursuant to the Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Lab. Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”), Plaintiff, Brenna Shatswell, sues Defendants Senior Doc Management, LLC f/k/a Geiss Med Management LLC and J.M. Geiss, D.O., APC for Labor Code violations. Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants fail to pay all overtime wages, to pay all sick pay wages, to provide meal periods, to provide rest periods, to pay holiday wages, to timely pay all wages during employment or upon termination of employment, to provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements, and to reimburse business expenses.

Through the litigation, Plaintiff discovered that the alleged Labor Code violations affected approximately 126 employees in approximately 2,640 relevant pay periods from December 17, 2023, through March 16, 2026. Plaintiff negotiated and obtained an excellent result for the State that requires Defendants to pay $125,000.00 for the resolution of the alleged PAGA claims—or approximately $47.35 for each of the relevant pay periods at issue. Significantly, the entire settlement amount is non-reversionary; none of the settlement amount will revert back to Defendant. The terms of the settlement are memorialized in the Joint Stipulation of PAGA Settlement (“Agreement”), which is attached as Exhibit 1 to the concurrently filed Declaration of Simon L. Yang.

Under PAGA, the Court must review and approve the proposed settlement. Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2). Plaintiff thus moves for approval of the Agreement:

- The Agreement provides for an award of Attorneys’ Fees and Costs in the amount of $41,666.67, in fees, plus up to $15,000.00 in costs (though Plaintiff now seeks reimbursement of $2,200.51 in costs only).
- It also provides for a $10,000.00 General Release Payment to Plaintiff (i) as consideration for her additional general release of claims and waiver of Civil Code section 1542 and (ii) in recognition of her efforts and work in prosecuting the lawsuit on behalf of the State.
- It also provides for $4,000.00 in Administration Costs to a settlement administrator for implementing the distribution of payments contemplated by the Agreement.

- Finally, it provides for all remaining funds to constitute a PAGA Penalty Fund, 65% of which would be distributed to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and 35% of which would be distributed to allegedly aggrieved employees.

The terms of the Agreement are fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable. In light of PAGA’s policies and in furtherance of PAGA’s purposes, the Court should approve the settlement.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

On January 24, 2025, Plaintiff filed the initial complaint in this matter alleging class action claims for Defendants’ alleged failures to pay all overtime wages, to pay all sick pay wages, to pay holiday wages, to timely pay all wages during employment or upon termination of employment, to provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements, and to reimburse business expenses.

Declaration of Simon L. Yang (“Yang Decl.”) ¶ 2. On June 9, 2025, Plaintiff filed a first amended complaint to also allege representative claims under PAGA. Id.

The Parties met and conferred about the claims and Defendants’ defenses, including those based on an arbitration agreement and class action waiver. Yang Decl. ¶ 3. Ultimately, the Parties agreed to schedule a mediation. Id. Plaintiff requested (and Defendants provided) informal discovery to enable the Parties to explore the possibility of an informal resolution. Id. For example, Defendants provided the relevant numbers of pay periods in which alleged violations occurred, among other things—enabling Plaintiff to assess the full value of the PAGA claims. Id. Defendants’ willingness to produce this information enabled Plaintiff to evaluate the full scope of Defendants’ potential liability. Id.

On December 16, 2025, the Parties attended a mediation with Michael Loeb, an experienced mediator knowledgeable of both the wage and hour laws and representative action claims at issue in the Action. Yang Decl. ¶ 4. The Parties attempted to negotiate a resolution of the plead claims, as well as additional claims for failures to provide meal and rest periods that Plaintiff informed Defendants that Plaintiff would be adding in an amended complaint. Id. With the mediator’s assistance and based upon a mediator’s proposal, the Parties were able to agree to settlement terms, which were negotiated in light of all known facts and circumstances—including the uncertainty associated with litigation, the risks of significant delay, and numerous potential appellate issues. Id. The settlement was achieved only after extensive arm’s length negotiations. Id. The settlement terms are memorialized in the Joint Stipulation

1 of PAGA Settlement. Id. Ex. 1 (the “Agreement”). Based on the agreed upon settlement terms, on April
2 13, 2026, Plaintiff filed a second amended complaint to add the claims for failures to provide meal and
3 rest periods to the operative complaint. Id.<sup>2</sup>

4 SUMMARY OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

5 I. Settlement Payments

6 The Agreement requires Defendants to pay a non-reversionary Settlement Amount of 7 $125,000.00. Agreement § 3.1. From the Settlement Amount, the Parties will request that the Court
8 approve a PAGA Penalty Fund, Administration Costs, Attorneys’ Fees and Costs Award, and General
9 Release Payment. Id. § 3.1.1-4. It is expected that the LWDA will receive $43,636.33 as its share of 10 PAGA Penalties and that employees will receive $23,496.49 as their share of PAGA Penalties. Yang
11 Decl. ¶ 10. Based on 126 PAGA Settlement Members, each individual employee is estimated to receive 12 approximately $186.48; each pay period for a PAGA Settlement Member will be worth approximately 13 $8.90. Id.

14 II. Settlement Releases

15 Plaintiff is subject to a general release. Agreement § 5.2. Plaintiff as a proxy for the State and the 16 LWDA also releases “any and all PAGA claims arising during the PAGA Period that are based on 17 Labor Code violations pled in the Action.” Id. § 5.2.

18 LEGAL STANDARD

19 PAGA requires courts to “review and approve” the settlement of any action filed under PAGA.
20 Lab. Code §2699(s)(2). The California Supreme Court has explained that a court’s review of a PAGA
21 settlement is to ensure “that any negotiated resolution is fair to those affected.” Williams v. Superior
22 Court, 3 Cal. 5th 531, 549 (2017). But “PAGA does not establish a standard for evaluating PAGA
23 settlements.” Griffin v. Consolidated Commc’ns, 2023 WL 3853643, at *3 (E.D. Cal. June 6, 2023)
24 (quoting Smith v. H.F.D. No. 55, Inc., 2018 WL 1899912, at *2 (E.D. Cal. Apr. 20, 2018)). Indeed, the 25 Legislature, California Supreme Court, California Courts of Appeal, and LWDA have not definitively

26
27 <sup>2</sup> The operative second amended complaint dismissed class action allegations and claims, based on 28 Defendant’s arbitration agreement and class action waiver. Yang Decl. ¶ 4. Pursuant to the Court’s instruction at the March 19, 2026 case management conference in this matter, on March 19, 2026, Plaintiff’s counsel submitted a declaration in support of the dismissal of class action claims. Id.

1 established the standards for review. E.g., Haralson v. U.S. Aviation Servs. Corp., 383 F. Supp. 3d 959,
2 971 (N.D. Cal. 2019) (noting the absence of a “definitive” guidance for approval of a PAGA settlement).
3 The LWDA acknowledges the lack of a “specific benchmark” and has stated only that the relief
4 provided under PAGA must be “genuine and meaningful,” “consistent with the underlying purpose of 5 the statute to benefit the public” and, in the context of a class action, “meet[ ] the standards of being 6 ‘fundamentally fair, reasonable, and adequate’ with reference to the public policies underlying the 7 PAGA.” See O’Connor v. Uber Techs., Inc., 201 F. Supp. 3d 1110, 1133 (N.D. Cal. 2016) (quoting 8 California Labor and Workforce Development Agency’s Comments on Proposed PAGA Settlement).

9 Federal district courts have typically followed the LWDA’s limited guidance by requiring 10 settlements to be “fundamentally fair, adequate, and reasonable in light of PAGA’s policies and 11 purposes.” See Haralson, 383 F. Supp. 3d at 972 (collecting cases). When applying this test, federal 12 district courts often consider factors such as strength of a Plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity,
13 and likely duration of further litigation; the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery
14 completed; and the expertise and views of counsel. See Smith, 2018 WL 1899912, at *3. Federal district
15 courts have also been mindful of the fact that trial courts have broad discretion to award civil penalties
16 in amounts that are less than the maximum amounts authorized by PAGA. Id. at *3; see also Lab. Code 17 § 2699(e)(2).<sup>3</sup>

18 “Given PAGA’s purpose to protect the public interest, [authoritative California courts] also 19 agree with the LWDA and federal district courts that have found it appropriate to review a PAGA
20 settlement to ascertain whether a settlement is fair in view of PAGA’s purposes and policies.” Moniz v.
21 Adecco USA, Inc., 72 Cal. App. 5th 56, 77 (2021).

22 <sup>3</sup> A party asserting a PAGA claim is not required to meet the requirements of a class action. Arias v.
23 Superior Court, 46 Cal. 4th 969, 984 (2009). Due process concerns with respect to absent class members
24 are not present in a PAGA action. Williams, 3 Cal. 5th at 547 n.4. Unnamed employees need not be 25 given notice of the PAGA claim, nor do they have the ability to opt out of the representative PAGA
26 claim. E.g., Baumann v. Chase Inv. Servs. Corp., 747 F.3d 1117, 1123 (9th Cir. 2014) (noting that 27 unnamed employees need not be given notice of the PAGA claim or settlement approval) (citing Ochoa-
28 Hernandez v. Cjaders Foods, Inc., 2010 WL 1340777, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2010)). “The court does not have to approve the named PAGA plaintiff, nor does the court inquire into the adequacy of counsel’s ability to represent the unnamed employees.” Ochoa-Hernandez, 2010 WL 1340777, at *4. “[T]he purpose of PAGA is to incentivize private parties to recover civil penalties for the government that otherwise may not have been assessed and collected by overburdened state enforcement agencies.” Id.

1 DISCUSSION

2 I. The Settlement Complies with Statutory Requirements.

3 PAGA states that any “proposed settlement shall be submitted to the agency at the same time that 4 it is submitted to the court.” Lab. Code. § 2699(s)(2). In satisfaction of that requirement, Plaintiff
5 submitted a copy of the Agreement and this motion to the LWDA through the LWDA’s online filing
6 system in conjunction with filing this motion. Yang Decl. ¶ 18, Ex. 4.

7 II. The Settlement Should Be Approved as Fair in Light of PAGA’s Purposes and Policies.

8 A. The Settlement Is Entitled to a Presumption of Fairness.

9 In the class action context, a trial court must determine and approve a class action settlement is 10 fair to “prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class” through settlement and dismissal of the class
11 action.” Consumer Advocacy Grp., Inc. v. Kintetsu Enters. Of America, 141 Cal. App. 4th 46, 60 (2006).
12 Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in the negotiation of settlement unless there is 13 evidence to the contrary. Priddy v. Edelman, 883 F.2d 438, 447 (6th Cir. 1989); Mars Steel Corp. v.
14 Continental Illinois Nat’l Bank & Trust Co., 834 F.2d 677, 682 (7th Cir. 1987); In re Chicken Antitrust
15 Litig., 560 F. Supp. 957, 962 (N.D. Ga. 1980).

16 While the recommendations of counsel proposing the settlement are not conclusive, the Court
17 can properly take them into account, particularly where, as here, they have been involved in thorough
18 investigation, are experienced with this type of litigation, and agreed to a resolution through arm’s 19 length negotiation. See 4 Alba Conte & Herbert B. Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions § 11.47 (4th ed.
20 2002); National Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. at 528 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“So 21 long as the integrity of the arm’s length negotiation process is preserved, however, a strong initial 22 presumption of fairness attaches to the proposed settlement ... and ‘great weight’ is accorded to the 23 recommendations of counsel, who are most closely acquainted with the facts of the underlying 24 litigation.”) (citations omitted). In such circumstances, as here, courts do not substitute their judgment
25 for that of the proponents. National Rural Telecomms. Coop., 221 F.R.D. at 528; accord Hammon v.
26 Barry, 752 F. Supp. 1087 (D.D.C. 1990); Steinberg v. Carey, 470 F. Supp. 471 (S.D.N.Y. 1979); In re
27 Armored Car Antitrust Litig., 472 F. Supp. 1357 (N.D. Ga. 1979); Sommers v. Abraham Lincoln Federal 28 Sav. & Loan Ass’n, 79 F.R.D. 571 (E.D. Pa. 1978).

1 The factors that would give rise to a presumption of fairness in the context of a class action
2 settlement are present in this PAGA action. Here, both Plaintiff’s counsel and Defendants’ counsel have 3 a great deal of experience in wage and hour and PAGA litigation. Plaintiff’s counsel have extensive
4 class action and PAGA litigation experience and have been approved as class counsel in numerous wage
5 and hour class actions. Yang Decl. ¶¶ 11-14. Each side has apprised the other of their respective factual
6 contentions and legal theories, and each side has considered the other’s contentions and theories.
7 Defendants provided the relevant numbers of pay periods in which alleged violations occurred, among 8 other things—enabling Plaintiff to assess the full value of the PAGA claims and further enabling 9 negotiations to take place between the Parties. Yang Decl. ¶ 3. As the settlement is the result of 10 extensive arm’s length negotiations between the Parties and their counsel, it is entitled to a presumption
11 of fairness. Id. ¶ 8.

12 B. The Settlement Obtains an Excellent Result for the State.

13 1. The Settlement Amount Is Reasonable.

14 Plaintiff contends that Defendants’ alleged Labor Code violations resulted in up to $250 in 15 penalties per pay period penalty for each of approximately 2,640 relevant pay periods that Plaintiff
16 contended had alleged Labor Code violations. Yang Decl. ¶ 5; Lab. Code §§ 558, 2699(f).<sup>4</sup> The 17 Agreement requires Defendants to pay $125,000.00—or approximately $47.35 per pay period for the 18 2,640 relevant pay periods in which Plaintiff contended Labor Code violations occurred. Id.

19 Defendants contested the merits and denied it was liable at all. Yang Decl. ¶ 6. For example,
20 Defendants contended that Plaintiff could not prove underpayments of overtime or failures to provide 21 meal or rest periods at all. Id. Moreover, even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits, Defendants contested
22 the extent of liability. Id. Specifically, Defendants contended that PAGA penalties would be subject to 23 discretionary reductions, especially as Defendants had voluntarily already changed certain pay practices.
24 Id.

25 While the Parties disagree on the application of the law to the facts, each Party recognized in 26 negotiations that, if taken to trial, the other Party would at least have reasonable arguments, such that the 27 Settlement Amount to which the Parties ultimately agreed was reasonable. Yang Decl. ¶ 7. Ultimately,
28

<sup>4</sup> Except as otherwise noted, all “Section” references are to the Labor Code.

1 based on a review of Defendants’ records, Plaintiff argued that the potential total recovery could be up
2 to $660,000.00—or $250 for each of approximately 2,640 relevant pay periods that Plaintiff contended
3 had Labor Code violations. Id. ¶ 5. Plaintiff contends that the Settlement Amount of $125,000.00—4 approximately 18.93% of that potential recovery—is an excellent result. Id.

5 Although Plaintiff and her counsel are confident that litigation of the claims would result in a
6 judgment against Defendants, they recognize the inherent risks in litigation, including the specific risks
7 that the applicable law could change, that liability could not be established at trial, or that penalties
8 awarded after trial would be reduced. Yang Decl. ¶ 8. The settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate,
9 given the inherent risks of litigation, as well as the potential for appeals and the costs of pursuing 10 litigation. Id.

11 2. The Settlement Releases Are Appropriate.

12 As discussed above, only Plaintiff is subject to a general release. Agreement § 5.2. The State and 13 the LWDA release any PAGA claims arising during the PAGA Period that are based on Labor Code
14 violations pled in the Action. Id. § 5.1. Plaintiff alleged targeted claims in the Action, and any settlement 15 releases also are specifically tailored to the targeted claims alleged. The settlement releases are thus 16 appropriate. Cf. Carter v. City of Los Angeles, 224 Cal. App. 4th 808, 820 (2014) (“A general release—
17 covering ‘all claims’ that were or could have been raised in the suit—is common in class action 18 settlements.”).

19 C. The Requested Payments and Allocations Are Reasonable.

20 The Agreement provides for a Settlement Amount of $125,000.00. Agreement § 3.1. From the 21 Settlement Amount, attorneys’ fees will be no more than $41,666.67, and while litigation costs of up to 22 $15,000.00 are permitted, Plaintiff’s Counsel now seeks reimbursement of $2,200.51 in costs only. Id. §
23 3.1.1; Yang Decl. ¶¶ 9-10, Ex. 2. The requested General Release Payment is $10,000.00. Agreement §
24 3.1.2. The requested Administration Costs are $4,000.00. Agreement § 3.1.3. The PAGA Penalty Fund
25 thus will be $67,132.82, and pursuant to statute, 65% of the PAGA Penalty Fund (or $43,636.33) would 26 constitute the LWDA Payment, and 35% of the PAGA Penalty Fund (or $23,496.49) would be payable 27
28

1 to PAGA Settlement Members based on the number of relevant pay periods worked by each PAGA
2 Settlement Member. Id. § 3.1.4; see also Yang Decl. ¶ 10.<sup>5</sup>

3 1. The Requested Attorneys' Fees and Costs Award Is Reasonable.

4 Plaintiff requests an attorneys' fees award of $41,666.67. Agreement § 3.1.1. Further, the Parties
5 have agreed to reimbursement of Plaintiff's Counsel's litigation costs. Plaintiff's Counsel have incurred 6 costs at their own risk, for example, for filing the lawsuit, service of process, mediation fees, and 7 payment of other litigation related costs.

8 a. The percentage of the fund method supports the requested fees.

9 PAGA allows a prevailing plaintiff to recover reasonable attorneys' fees. Lab. Code § 2699(g).
10 As discussed below, the requested attorneys' fees of $41,666.67 are reasonable in light of the standards
11 established in the class action context. There, California state and federal courts have recognized that an 12 appropriate method for determining award of attorneys' fees is based on a percentage of the total value
13 of benefits to settlement beneficiaries. Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 254
14 (2001); Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal. 3d 25, 34 (1977); Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478
15 (1980); Vincent v. Hughes Air West, Inc., 557 F.2d 759, 769 (9th Cir. 1997).

16 Indeed, under California law, the award of attorneys' fees in common fund wage and hour class
17 action settlements should start with the percentage method. See Laffitte v. Robert Half Int'l, 1 Cal. 5th 18 480, 503 (2016) ("We join the overwhelming majority of federal and state courts in holding that when 19 class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit of the class members, and the trial 20 court in its equitable powers awards class counsel a fee out of that fund, the court may determine the 21 amount of a reasonable fee by choosing an appropriate percentage of the fund created"). Under the 22 percentage of the fund method, a court's objective remains to "mimic the market" in fixing a reasonable
23 fee. See Gaskill v. Gordon, 160 F.3d 361, 363 (7th Cir. 1998) (Posner, J.) ("When a fee is set by a court
24 rather than by contract, the object is to set it at a level that will approximate what the market will set ...
25 The judge, in other words, is trying to mimic the market in legal services.").

26 The requested attorneys' fees of $41,666.67 should be awarded for several reasons:
27

28 <sup>5</sup> Plaintiff files this motion with the Court and with the LWDA via online submission. Yang Decl. ¶ 18.

1 First, the fee award representing 33⅓% of the fund clearly falls within the accepted range and is
2 consistent with other rulings of other courts and comprehensive surveys of fee awards. Indeed,
3 attorneys' fees awards of 35% of the fund are within the expected range in the "market in legal 4 services." See Fitzpatrick, An Empirical Study of Class Action Settlements and Their Fee Award, 7 J.
5 Empirical Leg. Stud. 811, 833 (2010) (analyzing 444 cases between 2006-2007 and concluding that 6 "[m]ost fee awards were between 25 percent and 35 percent"); see also Chavez v. Netflix, Inc., 162 Cal.
7 App. 4th 43, 66 n.11 (2008) ("[E]mpirical studies [that] show that ... fee awards in class actions average
8 around one-third of the recovery.").<sup>6</sup>

9 Second, it is recognized that one of the primary factors justifying an enhanced attorney's fees
10 reward is the attendant risks inherent in the litigation. As observed in City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp.:

11 No one expects a lawyer whose compensation is contingent upon his success to charge, when 12 successful, as little as he would charge a client who had agreed to pay for his services, regardless 13 of success. Nor, particularly in complicated cases producing large recoveries, is it just to make a 14 fee depend solely on the reasonable amount of time expended.

15 495 F.2d 448, 470 (2d Cir. 1974). Here, it is clear that a settlement fund of $125,000.00 has been 16 created. For Plaintiff's Counsel, the fees here were wholly contingent in nature. Nonetheless, despite the 17 possibility of recovering nothing on the PAGA claims, Plaintiff's Counsel did not accept a too heavily 18 discounted settlement. Instead, Plaintiff's Counsel continued litigating the claims to obtain an excellent 19 result for the State.

19 b. The lodestar cross-check supports the requested fees.

20 The amount requested is reasonable for an additional reason. While the primary method
21 employed to determine fees is the percentage method, courts have discretion to use the lodestar method
22 to "cross-check" the amount of fees calculated by way of percentage. The Laffitte court emphasized, 23 however, that "the lodestar calculation, when used in this manner, does not override the trial court's 24 primary determination of the fee as a percentage of the common fund and thus does not impose an 25 absolute maximum or minimum on the potential fee award." Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th at 505 (emphasis

26 _____
27 <sup>6</sup> Such a fee award mimics the market and "is supported by the fact that typical contingency fee 28 agreements provide that class counsel will recover 33% if the case is resolved before trial and 40% if the case is tried." Fernandez v. Victoria Secret Stores LLC, 2008 WL 8150856, at *16 n.59 (C.D. Cal. July 21, 2008) (citing Brickman, Effective Hourly Rates of Contingency-Fee Lawyers: Competing Data and Non-Competitive Fees (Fall 2003) 81 Wash U. L. Q. 653, 659 n. 11).

1 added); In re Rite Aid Corp. Secs. Litig., 396 F.3d 294, 306-07 (3d Cir. 2005) (“[T]he lodestar cross-
2 check does not trump the primary reliance on the percentage of common fund method”).

3 Courts find reasonable multipliers in a lodestar cross-check can “range from 2 to 4 or even 4 higher.” Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc., 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 255 (2001).<sup>7</sup> Indeed, the intermediate 5 court in Laffitte—after finding that “2 to 4” is a reasonable range for multipliers on a cross-check—
6 affirmed a 2.13 multiplier. Laffitte, 231 Cal. App. 4th at 881-82.<sup>8</sup> Moreover, the Ninth Circuit has cited 7 with approval a comprehensive study of fees awarded by the percentage method showing that the 8 majority of multipliers awarded are “in the 1.5-3.0” range. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 9 1043, 1051 (9th Cir. 2002) (affirming a multiplier of 3.65 in an employment class action case and 10 analyzing the multiplier awarded in over 30 cases).<sup>9</sup>

11 With respect to Plaintiff’s Counsel’s lodestar, at least 53.0 hours have been expended by just one 12 of Plaintiff’s Counsel litigating this case. Yang Decl. ¶ 15, Ex. 3. Moreover, Plaintiff’s Counsel expects 13 to incur approximately 3.0 hours of anticipated time spent to attend the settlement approval hearing,
14 secure approval, and respond to post-approval phone calls and correspondence from the Administrator
15 and defense counsel to effectuate the terms of the settlement. Id. Courts are quite liberal in the evidence
16 required to prove an attorney’s hours; an attorney’s testimony alone may suffice. Martino v. Denevi, 182
17 Cal. App. 3d 553, 559 (1986) (“Testimony of an attorney as to the number of hours worked on a
18 particular case is sufficient evidence to support an award of attorney fees, even in the absence of detailed 19 time records.”).

22 <sup>7</sup> Accord Chavez, 162 Cal. App. 4th at 60 (applying a 2.5 multiplier on a lodestar cross-check); Sutter 23 Health Uninsured Pricing Cases, 171 Cal. App. 4th 495, 512 (2009) (applying a 2.52 multiplier on a cross-check); City of Oakland v. Oakland Raiders, 203 Cal. App. 3d 78 (1988) (affirming a 2.34 multiplier without remand).

24 <sup>8</sup> The intermediate court opinion was affirmed in full upon review by the California Supreme Court.

25 <sup>9</sup> Federal district courts applying California law have likewise routinely approved cross-check
26 multipliers between 2.0 and 3.0 in employment cases. See, e.g., Willner v. Manpower Inc., 2015 WL
27 3863625, at *7 (N.D. Cal. June 22, 2015) (affirming a 2.10 multiplier on settlement of California Labor
Code violations); Dyer v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 303 F.R.D. 326, 334 (N.D. Cal. 2014) (approving 28 attorneys’ fees that resulted in lodestar multiplier of 2.83); Hopkins v. Stryker Sales Corp., 2013 WL 496358, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 6, 2013) (approving a multiplier of 2.76 in settlement of Labor Code violations). Other courts have found even higher multipliers to be reasonable by comparison to other cases. See Craft v. County of San Bernardino, 624 F. Supp. 2d 1113, 1125-26 (C.D. Cal. 2008) (approving a 5.2 multiplier after surveying a large body of cases affirming a higher multiplier).

1 Reasonable hours include, in addition to time spent during litigation, the time spent before the 2 action is filed, including time spent interviewing the clients, investigating the facts and the law, and
3 preparing the initial pleadings. New York Gaslight Club, Inc. v. Carey, 447 U.S. 54, 62 (1980). The fee
4 award should also include fees incurred to establish and defend the attorneys' fee claim. Serrano v.
5 Unruh, 32 Cal. 3d 621, 639 (1982). The hours for which Plaintiff's Counsel seeks compensation involve 6 only these types of tasks. Thus, the number of hours for which fees are sought is reasonable.

7 A reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing rate charged by attorneys of similar skill and 8 experience in the relevant community. PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler, 22 Cal. 4th 1084, 1095 (2000).
9 The court may consider other factors when determining a reasonable hourly rate, e.g., the attorney's skill
10 and experience, the nature of the work performed, the relevant area of expertise and the attorney's 11 customary billing rates. Flannery v. California Highway Patrol, 61 Cal. App. 4th 629, 632-33 (1998).

12 Here, Mr. Yang's hourly rate is $800. Yang Decl. ¶ 16. Plaintiff's Counsel's skill and experience
13 justify the requested rate. As shown in the supporting declarations, Plaintiff's Counsel has significant 14 experience in the area of employment and wage and hour class and representative actions. Plaintiff's
15 Counsel's practices focus on representing employees in employment matters, particularly wage and hour
16 cases on a contingency basis. Yang Decl. ¶¶ 11-14.

17 Based on the rates and 56.0 total hours, the lodestar for just one of Plaintiff's Counsel through 18 the finalization of this settlement will be approximately $44,800.00. Yang Decl. ¶ 17. The requested 19 attorneys' fees result in a negative multiplier of approximately 0.93. Again, the requested fees are 20 reasonable and fair, based on the factors described above. The cross-check also supports the requested 21 fees.

22 c. The requested litigation costs are reasonable.

23 PAGA also allows a prevailing Plaintiff to recover litigation costs. Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1). The 24 Agreement permits Plaintiff's Counsel to request up to $15,000.00 in litigation costs. Agreement § 3.1.1.
25 Plaintiff's Counsel, however, seeks $2,200.51 in costs only. Yang Decl. ¶¶ 9-10, Ex. 2. As set forth in 26 accompanying declarations of Plaintiff's counsel, these costs were all directly incurred in the 27 prosecution of this action, including filing fees and service fees. Id. As such, Plaintiff's Counsel's
28 request for costs in the amount of $2,200.51 is fair, adequate, reasonable, and consistent with PAGA's

1 policies. Because this amount is less than what was provided in the Agreement, the difference will be 2 distributed to the LWDA and PAGA Settlement Members as part of the PAGA Penalty Fund.

3                   2.       The Requested General Release Payment Is Reasonable.

4           Plaintiff, Brenna Shatswell, requests a modest General Release Payment of $10,000.00.
5 Agreement § 3.1.2. The request is reasonable in light of the general release that the Agreement requires
6 of Plaintiff. Independently, the request is appropriate in recognition of Plaintiff’s efforts on behalf of the 7 State. Declaration of Brenna Shatswell (“Shatswell Decl.”) ¶¶ 2-3.

8           With respect to the general release, Plaintiff did not proceed with litigation of all of her potential 9 claims and instead strategically pursued the targeted claims in this lawsuit to maximize her ability to 10 recover penalties for the State. Nonetheless, Plaintiff was required to agree to a general release as part of 11 this settlement, though in any other context, Plaintiff would have sought at least a $10,000.00 payment 12 in exchange for a general release.

13           Independently, courts have held that named plaintiffs in private attorney general actions can 14 request a service award. Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 958-59 (9th Cir. 2009) (explaining 15 that service awards “are intended to compensate class representatives for work done on behalf of the 16 class, to make up for financial or reputational risk undertaken in bringing the action, and, sometimes, to 17 recognize their willingness to act as a private attorney general”) (emphasis added).

18           As part of her duties as a private attorney general, Plaintiff provided all necessary information
19 and evidence that resulted in this settlement. Shatswell Decl. ¶¶ 2-3. Plaintiff met and conferred with her 20 counsel on a number of occasions to discuss the case. Id. ¶ 3. Plaintiff provided information and 21 documents to her counsel and made herself available to answer any other questions. Id. Ultimately, 22 Plaintiff’s efforts secured an exceptional result.

23           In addition to the invaluable services that Plaintiff provided, she also took a significant risk.
24 Shatswell Decl. ¶ 4. Plaintiff risks prejudice in the future from other potential employers that may be 25 less willing to hire an individual who has filed suit against a prior employer. Plaintiff took this risk upon 26 herself and the State benefited. No other allegedly aggrieved employees had to face potential prejudice 27 in future employment. Nor did the State have to allocate its limited resources to ensure compliance with 28 the Labor Code.

Phoenix Settlement Administrators, a well-recognized settlement administrator, has quoted Administration Costs not to exceed $4,000.00 to administer the settlement. Agreement § 3.1.3. The Administration Costs are reasonable and should be approved.

The proposed settlement would result in substantial monetary benefits to the State. It was the result of informed, arm's length negotiations conducted by counsel experienced in wage and hour class and representative action litigation. Its terms appear to be fair, adequate, and reasonable, and there is no reason to believe the proposal is outside the range of reasonableness for such a settlement. Accordingly, for the benefit of the State and in furtherance of PAGA's policies, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant approval of the settlement.
