(Private Attorneys General Act)

1 Plaintiff ALISSA WHITE (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of other members of 2 the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon facts that either
3 have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity 4 for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this Action against Defendant KENDAL FLORAL SUPPLY, LLC
7 and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendant”) for 8 California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from 9 Defendant’s failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to 10 authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages,
11 failure to provide accurate wage statements, and failure to maintain accurate time and payroll 12 records.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of herself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendant (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 12, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf of 20 herself and certain other current and former employees of Defendant against whom one or more 21 of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved
22 Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an aggrieved
23 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought
24 by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 25 according to proof at trial.

26 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to the California Constitution,
27 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this Action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.
28

5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff ALISSA WHITE is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles State of California.

8. Defendant KENDAL FLORAL SUPPLY, LLC is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Los Angeles and registered to do business in the State of California.

9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by its conduct. KENDAL FLORAL SUPPLY, LLC and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendant".

1 10. Defendant is, and at all times herein mentioned was, (a) conducting business in the 2 County of Los Angeles, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the 3 California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

4 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant, directly or indirectly controlled or affected
5 the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the 6 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendant employers and 7 employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

8 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

9 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as a class action on her 10 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus,
11 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

12 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
13 employees of any of the Defendant within the State of California at any time commencing four 14 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s complaint up until the time that notice of the certified 15 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”).

16 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

17 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 18 litigation:

19 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class 20 Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to 21 Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50)
22 individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by 23 inspection of Defendant’s employment records.

24 b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated 25 herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class
26 Members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.

27 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class 28

1 Member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
2 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 3 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 4 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
5 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this Action will continue to 6 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 7 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class
8 Member.

9 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 10 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
11 Members is impractical.

12 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 13 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 14 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 15 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class
16 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint 17 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

18 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 19 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, 20 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 21 a. Whether Defendant's failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 22 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 23 b. Whether Defendant had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff 24 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late, or 25 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 26 c. Whether Defendant required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 27 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed 28

1 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class
2 Members;

3 d. Whether Defendant deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
4 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work
5 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;

6 e. Whether Defendant failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members
7 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;

8 f. Whether Defendant failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members 9 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 10 periods;

11 g. Whether Defendant failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 12 Members for all hours worked;

13 h. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 14 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;

15 i. Whether Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 16 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;

17 j. Whether Defendant failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class 18 Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from 19 employment;

20 k. Whether Defendant failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 21 Class Members during their employment;

22 l. Whether Defendant complied with wage reporting as required by the California
23 Labor Code, including section 226;

24 m. Whether Defendant's conduct was with malice, fraud, or oppression;

25 n. Whether Defendant's conduct was willful or reckless;

26 o. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California
27 Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their improper 28

withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;

p. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties resulting from Defendant's violation of California law; and

q. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. Defendant is a whole company that grows and sells flowers.

18. Defendant employed Plaintiff to work as a Weekend Sales Manager beginning in approximately 2021.

19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendant employed Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendant was subject to the Labor Code of the State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendant engaged in an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock without compensation, thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages. Defendant also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendant routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and

1 duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law.

2 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
3 and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with 4 timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendant routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and 5 the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
6 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
7 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable
8 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
9 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
10 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute
11 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 12 (10) hours. Defendant also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, 13 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

14 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately
15 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 16 California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded its own written policies
17 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
18 Employees. Instead, Defendant's actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
19 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
20 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 21 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

22 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff,
23 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were missed, late,
24 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known
25 that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all meal periods 26 or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was 27 missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely 28

1 failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
2 Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 3 Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short, late,
4 and/or interrupted.

5 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
6 and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from taking 7 timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendant regularly failed to provide, authorize, and permit
8 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods
9 for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full, uninterrupted, off-
10 duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to make a good faith
11 effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

12 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant did not adequately
13 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under 14 California law. Moreover, Defendant systematically disregarded its own written policies
15 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
16 Employees. Instead, Defendant's actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 17 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 18 duty-free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 19 to work through their rest periods.

20 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff,
21 the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were missed, late,
22 interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendant knew or should have known
23 that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all rest periods or 24 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, 25 short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendant routinely failed to 26 authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free rest
27 periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
28

1 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, and/or 2 interrupted.

3 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required
4 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 5 Defendant prohibited overtime, Defendant still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 6 Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 7 Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they were 8 not compensated.

9 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant implemented policies
10 that prohibited v from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay
11 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

12 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 13 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 14 week.

15 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 16 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 17 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single workday and/or forty (40) hours in a single 18 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single workday and/or eighty (80) hours in a 19 single work week. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 20 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 21 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

22 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant failed to pay overtime
23 to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked based on 24 regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

25 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 26 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
27 worked. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 28

1 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they
2 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendant's failure to pay
3 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 5 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock.

6 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 7 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 8 resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
9 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
10 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
11 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 12 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 13 California Labor Code section 202.

14 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 15 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
16 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendant knew 17 or should have known that v were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their 18 employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees did not receive payment of all 19 wages, including overtime compensation, minimum wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

20 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 21 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
22 Employees. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 23 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 24 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 25 Defendant. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours 26 worked, the actual gross wages earned, and the correct rates of pay.

27 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 28

1 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
2 Defendant knew or should have known that Defendant was required to keep complete and 3 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 4 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

5 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly failed to 6 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work 7 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

8 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant knew or should have 9 known that it had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 10 pursuant to California law. Defendant had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 11 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 12 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 13 Defendant's profits.

14 41. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
15 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 16 to him [or her] under this article."

17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 21 every allegation set forth above.

22 43. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare 23 Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 24 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular 25 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

26 44. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendant is and was 27 required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendant, and working more 28

1 than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-
2 one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours
3 in a workweek.

4 45. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendant is and was 5 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 6 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 7 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

8 46. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 9 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 10 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 11 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 12 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

13 47. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly 14 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

15 48. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully failed to pay 16 overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

17 49. Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid 18 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 19 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

20 50. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class 21 Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 22 attorneys' fees.

23 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

24 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 27 every allegation set forth above.
28

1 52. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections
2 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by
3 Defendant.

4 53. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
5 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 6 applicable order of the California IWC.

7 54. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
8 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
9 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal 10 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 11 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 12 both the employer and employee.

13 55. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that 14 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more 15 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal 16 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 17 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 18 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

19 56. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 20 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 21 legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 22 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

23 57. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 24 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 25 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 26 thirty (30) minutes.

27 58. During the relevant time period, Defendant intentionally and willfully required
28

1 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that
2 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
3 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

4 59. During the relevant time period, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
5 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 6 226.7.

7 60. Defendant's conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
8 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

9 61. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
10 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendant one 11 additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the 12 meal period was not provided.

13 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7)

15 (Against All Defendants)

16 62. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 17 every allegation set forth above.

18 63. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor 19 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other Class Members' employment by 20 Defendant.

21 64. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
22 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
23 order of the California IWC.

24 65. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 25 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 26 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be

1 of pay.

2 91. Because of Defendant's violation of California Labor Code section 226(a),
3 Plaintiff and the Class have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.

4 92. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendant's
5 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 6 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 7 itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

8 93. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendant the greater of their 10 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

11 94. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance

13 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

15 (Against All Defendants)

16 95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 17 every allegation set forth above.

18 96. Defendant's conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
19 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendant's
20 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest
21 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

22 97. Defendant's activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 23 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions 24 Code section 17200, et seq.

25 98. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 26 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendant's policies 27 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 28

1 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
2 Additionally, Defendant's policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 3 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation
4 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendant's policies and 5 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code

14 102. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
15 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendant
16 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 17 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable
18 laws; and an award of costs.

19 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

21 (Against All Defendants)

22 103. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
23 every allegation set forth above.

24 104. Plaintiff brings her ninth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 25 herself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 26 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
27 ("PAGA").
28

1 105. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
2 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any
3 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
4 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
5 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 6 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 7 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 8 2699(a).

9 106. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant and the Labor Code violations alleged above
10 were committed against her during her time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved 11 employee” under PAGA.

12 107. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant
13 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 14 Codes by:

- 15 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 16 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 17 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
18 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 19 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 20 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 21 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 22 226.7 and 512.
- 23 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 24 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 25 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 26 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 27 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at the end of their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.
28

f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.

g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

108. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendant for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11070 penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 210, 226, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

109. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On December 13, 2024, Plaintiff, through her counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendant, notified Defendant and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendant violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's December 13, 2024 notice, and the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for herself and other Aggrieved

1 Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

2 110. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 3 protect her interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
4 owed by Defendant. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs
5 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

6 111. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
7 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
8 specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.
