OSCAR T MONGE, on behalf of himself and current and former aggrieved employees

Plaintiff,

vs.

CBS PERSONNEL SERVICES, LLC; YUSEN
LOGISTICS (AMERICAS) INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: 25STCV04655

PAGA ACTION

PLAINTIFF OSCAR T MONGE'S COMPLAINT FOR:

- CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS
GENERAL ACT OF 2004
("PAGA"), LABOR CODE
SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

COMES NOW Plaintiff OSCAR T MONGE ("Plaintiff"), who alleges and complains against Defendants CBS PERSONNEL SERVICES, LLC; YUSEN LOGISTICS (AMERICAS)
INC.; and DOES 1 to 100, inclusive (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, Labor Code §§ 2698, et seq.
("PAGA") representative action brought by Plaintiff on behalf of the State of California, himself and other current and former aggrieved employees of Defendants who worked as hourly non-exempt employees in California during the relevant time period seeking civil penalties associated with

1 Defendants' violation of the Labor Code based on Defendants' failure to pay wages for all hours
2 worked at minimum wage and all overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay; failure to 3 authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant meal periods or pay meal period premium
4 wages; failure to authorize or permit all legally required and/or compliant rest periods or pay rest
5 period premium wages; statutory penalties for failure to provide accurate wage statements; statutory 6 waiting time penalties in the form of continuation wages for failure to timely pay employees all
7 wages due upon separation of employment. Plaintiff seeks on a representative basis, following 8 notice to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency, civil penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees 9 pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g)(1) and costs brought on behalf of Plaintiff, the State of 10 California, and others aggrieved.

11 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and all other current and 13 former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees because Plaintiff's lawsuit seeks 14 civil penalties on behalf of herself, all other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
15 non-exempt employees, and the State of California in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars
16 ($25,000); Defendants employed Plaintiff and all other current and former aggrieved California-
17 based hourly non-exempt employees; and the injuries to Plaintiff and all other current and former 18 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees occurred in locations throughout 19 California, including but not limited to Los Angeles County, at 2417 Carson St #100, Carson, CA 20 90810.

21 III. PARTIES

22 1. Plaintiff brings this action as a representative of the Labor and Workforce 23 Development Agency on behalf of himself and other current and former employees subject to 24 violations of the Labor Code. The named Plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf this action is 25 filed include current, former and/or future employees of Defendants who work, worked, or will work
26 for Defendants as direct employees as well as temporary employees employed through temp
27 agencies as hourly non-exempt employees in California. At all times mentioned herein, the currently 28 named Plaintiff is and was domiciled and a resident and citizen of California and was employed by

1 Defendants in an hourly position at Defendants' location in Los Angeles from in or around 2013 on 2 or about May 26, 2024.

3 2. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant CBS
4 PERSONNEL SERVICES, LLC is authorized to do business within the State of California and is
5 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 1-33 are, and at all times
6 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant CBS PERSONNEL SERVICES, LLC
7 in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices or 8 policies. Defendant CBS PERSONNEL SERVICES, LLC operates in Los Angeles County and 9 employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited to,
10 at 2417 Carson St #100, Carson, CA 90810.

11 3. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendant YUSEN 12 LOGISTICS (AMERICAS) INC. is authorized to do business within the State of California and is 13 doing business in the State of California and/or that Defendants DOES 34-66 are, and at all times
14 relevant hereto were persons acting on behalf of Defendant YUSEN LOGISTICS (AMERICAS)
15 INC. in the establishment of, or ratification of, the aforementioned illegal wage and hour practices
16 or policies. Defendant YUSEN LOGISTICS (AMERICAS) INC. operates in Los Angeles County
17 and employed Plaintiff and aggrieved employees in Los Angeles County, including but not limited 18 to, at 2417 Carson St #100, Carson, CA 90810.

19 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 1 20 through 50 are corporations, or are other business entities or organizations of a nature unknown to 21 Plaintiff that employed Plaintiff and aggrieved California non-exempt employees, permitted
22 Plaintiff and aggrieved employees to work, and exercised control over the wages, hours and working 23 conditions of employment of Plaintiff and aggrieved employees.

24 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants DOES 51
25 through 100 are individuals unknown to Plaintiff. Each of the individual defendants is sued
26 individually and in his or her capacity as an agent, shareholder, owner, representative, manager, 27 supervisor, independent contractor and/or employee of each defendant who violated or caused to be 28 violated the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Labor Code and/or any provision of the 1 Industrial Welfare Commission's wage orders regulating hours and days of work.

2 6. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names of Defendants DOES 1 through 100. Plaintiff
3 sues said defendants by said fictitious names, and will amend this complaint when the true names 4 and capacities are ascertained or when such facts pertaining to liability are ascertained, or as 5 permitted by law or by the Court. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the fictitiously
6 named defendants is in some manner responsible for the events and allegations set forth in this 7 complaint.

8 7. Plaintiff makes the allegations in this complaint without any admission that, as to 9 any particular allegation, Plaintiff bears the burden of pleading, proving, or persuading and Plaintiff
10 reserves all of Plaintiff's right to plead in the alternative.

11 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12 CIVIL PENALTIES PURSUANT TO THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT OF 13 2004, LABOR CODE SECTIONS 2698, ET SEQ.

14 (Against all Defendants by Plaintiff on behalf of Themselves, the State of California, and 15 Other Current and Former Aggrieved Employees)

16 8. Plaintiff incorporates all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

17 9. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, Plaintiff alleges 18 Defendants violated Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226, 226.7, 510, 512, 1194, 1197, 19 and the applicable Wage Orders.

20 10. Specifically, Defendants have committed the following violations of California
21 Labor Code:

22 11. Failure to pay wages for all hours worked at the legal minimum wage:
23 Defendants employed many of their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt
24 employees. In California, an employer is required to pay hourly employees for all "hours worked,"
25 which includes all time that an employee is under control of the employer and all time the employee 26 is suffered and permitted to work. This includes the time an employee spends, either directly or 27 indirectly, performing services which inure to the benefit of the employer.

28 12. Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 require an employer to compensate employees

1 for all “hours worked” at least at a minimum wage rate of pay as established by the IWC and the 2 Wage Orders.

3 13. In this case, Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
4 non-exempt employees worked more minutes per shift than Defendants credited them with having 5 worked. Specifically, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved
6 California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages at the applicable minimum wage for all
7 hours worked due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited 8 to:

9 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and similarly situated employees to line up to wait to undergo and 10 undergo off-the-clock bag checks, prior to being permitted to clock-in for their start shifts; and

11 (b) Requiring Plaintiff and similarly situated employees to routinely work off the clock 12 without being paid for that time.

13 14. Therefore, Defendants suffered, permitted, and required Plaintiff and other current 14 and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees to be subject to Defendants’
15 control without paying wages for that time. This resulted in Plaintiff and other current and former 16 aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees working time for which they were not 17 compensated any wages, in violation of Labor Code sections 1194 and 1197 and the applicable
18 Wage Order.

19 15. Failure to pay wages for overtime hours worked at the overtime rate of pay
20 and/or failure to pay overtime wages at the proper rate of pay: Defendants employed many of 21 their employees, including Plaintiff, as hourly non-exempt employees. In California, an employer
22 is required to pay hourly employees for all “hours worked,” which includes all time that an employee
23 is under control of the employer and all time the employee is suffered and permitted to work. This 24 includes the time an employee spends, either directly or indirectly, performing services that inure to 25 the benefit of the employer.’

26 16. Labor Code sections 510 and 1194 require an employer to compensate employees a 27 higher rate of pay for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday, in excess of forty (40)
28 hours in a workweek, and on any seventh consecutive day of work in a workweek:

Any work in excess of eight (8) hours in one workday, any work in excess of forty (40) hours in any one (1) workweek, and the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work in any one (1) workweek, shall be compensated at the rate of no less than one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for an employee. Any work in excess of twelve (12) hours in one (1) day shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay for an employee. In addition, any work in excess of eight (8) hours on any seventh day of a workweek shall be compensated at the rate of no less than twice the regular rate of pay of an employee.

Labor Code section 510.

17. In this case, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees overtime wages for all overtime hours worked due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not limited to:

(a) Requiring Plaintiff and similarly situated employees to line up to wait to undergo and undergo off-the-clock bag checks, prior to being permitted to clock-in for their start shifts; and

(b) Requiring Plaintiff and similarly situated employees to routinely work off the clock without being paid for that time.

18. The foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in time during each workday that Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees were under the control of Defendants but were not compensated. To the extent that the foregoing uncompensated time occurred when Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a workday, more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, and/or seven (7) days in a workweek, Defendants failed to pay them at their overtime rate of pay for overtime hours worked, in violation of Labor Code sections 510, 1194 and 1198, and the applicable Wage Order.

19. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant meal periods and/or failure to pay period premium wages: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than five (5) hours in length and shifts of more than ten (10) hours in length.

20. California law requires an employer to authorize or permit an employee an uninterrupted meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes in which the employee is relieved of all duties and the employer relinquishes control over the employee's activities prior to the

1 employee's sixth hour of work. Labor Code sections 226.7, 512, and 1198; Wage Order 1 at §11;
2 Brinker Rest. Corp. v. Super Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004. An employer may not employ
3 an employee for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee
4 with a second such meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of the eleventh
5 hour of work. Id. If the employee is not relieved of all duty during a meal period, the meal period
6 shall be considered an "on duty" meal period and counted as time worked. A paid "on duty" meal
7 period is only permitted when: (1) the nature of the work prevents an employee from being relieved 8 of all duty; and (2) the parties have a written agreement agreeing to on-duty meal periods.

9 21. If an employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the 10 law, the employer must pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of pay
11 for each workday that a legally required and compliant meal period was not provided. Labor Code 12 sections 226.7 and 1198; Wage Order 1 at §11.

13 22. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit legally required and compliant 14 meal periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-15 exempt employees due to Defendants' policies, practices, and/or procedures, including but not 16 limited to:

17 (a) Failing to provide Plaintiff and similarly situated employees a second uninterrupted 18 duty-free meal period of no less than thirty (30) minutes for each workday that Plaintiff and similarly 19 situated employees work shifts over ten (10) hours.

20 23. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or 21 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based 22 hourly non-exempt employees one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday that
23 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees did
24 not receive legally required and compliant meal periods, in violation of Labor Code section 226.7.

25 24. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and 26 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
27 wages to compensate them for workdays during which Defendants did not provide them with meal
28 periods in compliance with California law.

1 25. Failure to pay wages to hourly non-exempt employees for workdays that
2 Defendants failed to provide legally required and compliant rest periods and/or failure to pay
3 rest period premium: Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
4 non-exempt employees regularly worked shifts of more than three-and-a-half (3.5) hours.

5 26. California law requires every employer to authorize and permit an employee a rest
6 period of ten (10) net minutes for every four (4) hours worked or major fraction thereof. Labor Code
7 section 226.7; Wage Order 1 at §12. Under California law, “[e]mployees are entitled to 10 minutes’
8 rest for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 9 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.” Brinker
10 Restaurant Corp. v. Sup. Ct. (Hohnbaum) (2012) 53 Cal.4th 1004, 1029; Labor Code section 226.7; 11 Wage Order 1 at §12. Rest periods, insofar as practicable, shall be in the middle of each work period.
12 Wage Order 1 at §12. Additionally, the rest period requirement “obligates employers to permit –
13 and authorizes employees to take – off-duty rest periods.” Augustus v. ABM Security Services, Inc., 14 (2016) 5 Cal.5th 257, 269. That is, during rest periods employers must relieve employees of all 15 duties and relinquish control over how employees spend their time. Id.

16 27. If the employer fails to authorize or permit a required rest period, the employer must 17 pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday the 18 employer did not authorize or permit a legally required rest period. Labor Code section 226.7; Wage 19 Order 1 at § 12.

20 28. In this case, Defendants failed to authorize or permit all legally required and 21 compliant rest periods to Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly
22 non-exempt employees due to Defendants’ policies, practices, and/or procedures including, but not 23 limited to:

24 (a) Requiring Plaintiff and similarly situated employees to travel to a designated area
25 away from their workstations during their rest periods – Defendants did not elongate or otherwise
26 extend Plaintiff’s or similarly situated employees’ rest period times to account for their travel time
27 between their workstations and the designated break area resulting in rest periods less than a net 10-28 minutes.

1 29. Additionally, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants maintained a policy, practice, and/or
2 procedure of failing to compensate Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based
3 hourly non-exempt employees with one (1) hour of pay at their regular rate of pay for each workday
4 they did not receive legally required and compliant rest periods, in violation of Labor Code section 5 226.7.

6 30. Defendants' foregoing policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in Plaintiff and
7 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees not receiving
8 wages to compensate them for workdays in which Defendants did not provide them with rest periods
9 in compliance with California law.

10 31. Failure to timely pay earned wages during employment: In California, wages 11 must be paid at least twice during each calendar month on days designated in advance by the 12 employer as regular paydays, subject to some exceptions. Labor Code section 204(a). Wages earned 13 between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month must be paid between the 16th and 14 the 26th day of that month and wages earned between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any 15 calendar month must be paid between the 1st and 10th day of the following month. Id. Other payroll
16 periods such as those that are weekly, biweekly, or semimonthly, must be paid within seven (7)
17 calendar days following the close of the payroll period in which wages were earned. Labor Code 18 section 204(d).

19 32. As a derivative of Plaintiff's claims above, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants failed to 20 timely pay Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt 21 employees' earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages 22 and/or rest period premium wages), in violation of Labor Code section 204. Defendants'
23 aforementioned policies, practices, and/or procedures resulted in their failure to pay Plaintiff's and 24 other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees' their earned 25 wages within the applicable time frames outlined in Labor Code section 204.

26 33. Secret payment of lower wages than designated by statute: Labor Code section 27 223 provides that, where any statute or contract requires an employer to maintain the designated 28 wage scale, it shall be unlawful to secretly pay a lower wage while purporting to pay the wage

1 designated by statute or contract. By engaging in the unlawful conduct alleged herein, including by 2 failing to: pay overtime wages at the applicable legal overtime rate, meal break premiums and lawful
3 sick pay at the employees' regular rate of pay, as established by Labor Code sections 226.7, 246,
4 510, 1194 and sections 11 and 12 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, as incorporated by Labor
5 Code section 1198, the Defendant secretly paid a lower wage than designated by statute while 6 purporting to pay the wages designated by statute, in violation of Labor Code section 223.

7 34. Failure to provide complete and accurate wage statements: Labor Code section
8 226, subdivision (a). Labor Code section 226(a) provides, inter alia, that, upon paying an employee 9 his or her wages, the employer must "furnish each of his or her employees ... an itemized statement 10 in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except for any 11 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt from payment of 12 overtime under subdivision (a) of Section 515 or any applicable order of the Industrial Welfare
13 Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee
14 is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided, that all deductions made on written orders
15 of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive
16 dates of the pay period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and his or her 17 social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all 18 applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours 19 worked at each hourly rate by the employee."

20 35. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff
21 and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all wages
22 earned (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages, and/or rest period 23 premium wages) rendered Plaintiff's and other current and former aggrieved California-based 24 hourly non-exempt employees' wage statements inaccurate, in violation of Labor Code section 25 226(a)(1, 2, 5 & 9).

26 36. Failure to pay employees all wages due at time of termination/resignation: An 27 employer is required to pay all unpaid wages timely after an employee's employment ends. The 28 wages are due immediately upon termination (Labor Code section 201) or within seventy-two (72)

1 hours of resignation (Labor Code section 202).

2 37. As a derivative of Plaintiff's allegations above, because Defendants failed to pay
3 Plaintiff and other current and former aggrieved California-based hourly non-exempt employees all
4 their earned wages (including minimum wages, overtime wages, meal period premium wages,
5 and/or rest period premium wages), Defendants failed to pay those employees timely after each 6 employee's termination and/or resignation, in violation of Labor Code sections 201, 202, and 203.

7 38. Labor Code sections 2699, subdivisions (a) and (g) authorize an aggrieved employee, 8 on behalf of himself or herself and other current or former employees, to bring a civil action to 9 recover civil penalties against all Defendants pursuant to the procedures specified in Labor Code 10 section 2699.3.

11 39. Plaintiff has complied with the procedures for bringing suit specified in Labor Code 12 section 2699.3. On December 13, 2024, Plaintiff filed a PAGA Claim Notice with the LWDA and 13 provided notice to Defendants by certified mail which provided notice of the specific provisions of 14 the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the 15 violations alleged.

16 40. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699.3, the LWDA must give written notice by 17 certified mail to the parties that it intends to investigate the alleged violations of the Labor Code 18 within 60 days of the date of the complainant's written notice. The LWDA failed to provide the 19 parties notice within 60 days of the date of Plaintiff's PAGA Claim Notice that the LWDA intends 20 to investigate Plaintiff's claims.

21 41. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 2699(a) and (f), Plaintiff is entitled to recover civil 22 penalties for Defendants' violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 223, 226(a), 226.7, 23 510, 512, and 1194. During Plaintiff's employment and continuing through the present, preceding 24 Plaintiff sending the initial PAGA Claim Notice to the LWDA to the present, in the following 25 amounts:

26 a. For violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 226(a), and 226.7; one 27 hundred dollars ($100) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for the initial violation and two 28 hundred dollars ($200) for each aggrieved employee per pay period for each subsequent violation

[penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 2699(f)(2)].

b. For violations of Labor Code section 226(a), alternatively, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one thousand dollars ($1000) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 226.3].

c. For violations of Labor Code section 510 and 512, fifty dollars ($50) for each employee for each pay period for the initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 558].

d. For violations of Labor Code section 204, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 210].

e. For violations of Labor Code section 223, one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to pay each employee in any initial violation, and for each subsequent violation, or any willful or intentional violation, two hundred dollars ($200) for each failure to pay each employee, plus 25 percent of the amount unlawfully withheld [penalty amounts established by Labor Code section 225.5].

42. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(g), Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in connection with his claims for civil penalties.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFF, ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND ON OTHER AGGRIEVED EMPLOYEES, PRAYS AS FOLLOWS:

ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. That Defendants be found to have violated the provisions of the Labor Code and the IWC Wages Orders as to the Plaintiff and aggrieved employees;

2. For any and all legally applicable penalties during the relevant statute of limitations

1 subject to any permissible tolling, including but not limited to those recoverable under the California
2 Labor Code, including but not limited to sections 210, 225.5, 226.3, 558, 2699(f);

3 3. For attorneys' fees and costs of suit, including but not limited to those recoverable
4 under California Labor Code section 2699(g); and

5 4. For such and other further relief, in law and/or equity, as the Court deems just or 6 appropriate.
