- (8) Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code § 17200, et seq.
- (9) Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 2699, (Private Attorneys General Act)

1 Plaintiff MANUEL CAMPOS DENIZ (“Plaintiff”), individually, on behalf of other
2 members of the general public similarly situated, and as Private Attorney General, based upon 3 facts that either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a 4 reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 1. Plaintiff brings this Action against Defendants AGRESTI DAIRY FARMS, LLC
7 dba DOUBLE D DAIRY and DOES 1 THROUGH 50 (hereinafter also collectively referred to 8 as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations, unfair business practices, and civil 9 penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime compensation, failure to provide 10 meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure to pay minimum wage, failure
11 to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, failure to maintain accurate
12 time and payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-related expenses.

13 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 14 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
15 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members,” as defined more fully in paragraph 16 13, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
17 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court
18 and will be established according to proof at trial.

19 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought solely as a representative action, and 20 solely as a Private Attorney General, on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved
21 employees, including himself and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom one 22 or more of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the 23 “Aggrieved Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq; Balderas v.
24 Fresh Start Harvesting, Inc., 101 Cal.App.5th 533 (2024), as modified (April 18, 2024); and 25 Johnson v. Maxim Healthcare Services, Inc., 66 Cal.App.5th 924 (2021). Plaintiff is an aggrieved
26 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought
27 by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 28

1 according to proof at trial.

2 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to the California Constitution,
3 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”
4 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this Action is brought do
5 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

6 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
7 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 8 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 9 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 10 substantial justice.

11 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 12 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of 13 Stanislaus.

14 PARTIES

15 7. Plaintiff MANUEL CAMPOS DENIZ is an individual residing in the County of 16 Merced, State of California. Plaintiff is not suing in his individual capacity with respect to his 17 Ninth Cause of Action. Instead, he is proceeding therein solely under the PAGA, on behalf of the 18 State of California for all aggrieved employees. Plaintiff is an Aggrieved Employee as defined 19 under PAGA because he is employed by Defendant and suffered the labor code violations alleged 20 herein.

21 8. Defendant AGRESTI DAIRY FARMS, LLC dba DOUBLE D DAIRY is, and at 22 all times herein mentioned was, a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws
23 of the State of Stanislaus and registered to do business in the State of California.

24 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 25 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 26 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges,
27 that, at all times mentioned herein, each Doe defendant was the parent, subsidiary, agent, servant,
28

1 employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at all times
2 mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and authorization
3 of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this Complaint
4 to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes and 5 thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in some manner
6 for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged were 7 proximately caused by its conduct. AGRESTI DAIRY FARMS, LLC dba DOUBLE D DAIRY
8 and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as "Defendants".

9 10. Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business
10 in the County of Stanislaus, State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with 11 the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders ("Wage Orders").

12 11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or 13 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 14 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants 15 employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

16 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17 12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as a class action on his 18 own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus,
19 seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

20 13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt
21 employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four 22 (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff's complaint up until the time that notice of the certified
23 class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the "Class" or "Class Members").

24 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

25 15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 26 litigation:

27 a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class
28

Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.

c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this Action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class Member.

d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class Members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact,

1 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 2 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 3 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 4 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff
5 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late, or 6 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 7 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more
8 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
9 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class 10 Members;
- 11 d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal
12 and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work 13 during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- 14 e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members 15 when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- 16 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to Class Members 17 when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest 18 periods;
- 19 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class 20 Members for all hours worked;
- 21 h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the 22 required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- 23 i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper 24 overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- 25 j. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members
26 for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of California
27 Labor Code section 2802;
- 28

- 1 k. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other 2 Class Members during their employment;
- 3 l. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California
4 Labor Code, including section 226;
- 5 m. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud, or oppression;
- 6 n. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 7 o. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 8 California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on their 9 improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;
- 10 p. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties 11 resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
- 12 q. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory 13 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

14 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

15 17. Defendants are a dairy.

16 18. Defendants have employed Plaintiff to work as a dairy worker since approximately 17 June 25, 2005.

18 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, 19 and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

20 20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to 21 hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly 22 control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 23 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of 24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

25 21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 26 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

27 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 28

1 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
2 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 3 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off-the-clock without compensation,
4 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
5 Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
6 Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay
7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition, Defendants
8 routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take timely and 9 duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also failed to 10 reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related 11 expenses.

12 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants' policies and 13 practices failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees with timely and 14 duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class, and the 15 Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish control
16 over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods, regularly failed
17 to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable opportunity to take their 18 meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
19 Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later than the end of their 20 fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal break no
21 later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten (10) hours. Defendants also 22 failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
23 Employees.

24 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
25 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under 26 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
27 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
28

1 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
2 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free
3 meal periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through 4 their meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

5 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
6 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 7 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
8 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
9 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
10 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants 11 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 12 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the 13 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, 14 short, late, and/or interrupted.

15 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
16 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 17 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 18 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest
19 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
20 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 21 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each 22 work period.

23 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
24 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
25 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
26 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
27 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 28

1 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 2 duty-free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
3 to work through their rest periods.

4 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
5 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were
6 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
7 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
8 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
9 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
10 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
11 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
12 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late, and/or 13 interrupted.

14 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly required 15 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 16 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 17 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 18 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they 19 were not compensated.

20 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented
21 policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately
22 recording the actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the 23 Aggrieved Employees all wages owed.

24 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 25 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 26 week.

27 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 28

1 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 2 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single workday and/or forty (40) hours in a single
3 work week, or in excess of twelve (12) hours in a single workday and/or eighty (80) hours in a 4 single work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the 5 Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that 6 they were not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

7 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
8 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 9 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

10 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 11 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
12 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 13 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 14 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
15 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
16 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, and requiring Plaintiff, the 17 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock.

18 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 19 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
20 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 21 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 22 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
23 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 24 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.

25 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 26 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
27 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
28

1 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 2 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 3 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
4 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, the inclusive pay period dates,
5 net wages earned, and all applicable hourly rates.

6 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 7 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
8 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required to keep complete and 9 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 10 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

11 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 12 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class's, and the Aggrieved Employees' work 13 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

14 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to reimburse
15 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses,
16 including but not limited to work boots. Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants
17 were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary
18 business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in violation of California law.

19 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 20 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 21 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 22 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 23 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 24 Defendants' profits.

25 41. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor
26 Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to "sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due 27 to him [or her] under this article."
28

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

3 (Against All Defendants)

4 42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 5 every allegation set forth above.

6 43. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare
7 Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without 8 compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular 9 rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

10 44. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and 11 were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working 12 more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of 13 time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty 14 (40) hours in a workweek.

15 45. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were 16 required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular 17 rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked 18 in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

19 46. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at 20 one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a 21 day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of 22 work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess 23 of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

24 47. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly 25 worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

26 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 27 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.
28

49. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

50. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

(Against All Defendants)

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

52. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by Defendants.

53. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

54. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

55. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 1 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 2 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

3 56. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 4 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 5 legally mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 6 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

7 57. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 8 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 9 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 10 thirty (30) minutes.

11 58. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
12 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 13 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
14 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

15 59. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other

15 86. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants'

24 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 89. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 28

1 every allegation set forth above.

2 90. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802, an employer must 3 reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct
4 consequence of the discharge of his or her job duties or in direct consequence of his or her job
5 duties or in direct consequence of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

6 91. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that 7 were not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary
8 business-related expenses and costs included their failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for 9 costs incurred as a result of, including but not limited to, simple negligence.

10 92. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the 11 Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to 12 recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and 13 scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred
14 the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

15 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 93. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 19 every allegation set forth above.

20 94. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair,
21 unlawful, and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants'
22 competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest
23 within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

24 95. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 25 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions
26 Code section 17200, et seq.

27 96. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may 28

1 be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies
2 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 3 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
4 Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 5 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation
6 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and 7 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code 8 section 204.

9 97. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 221, 226(a), 510, 10 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 2800, and 2802.

11 98. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 12 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

13 99. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful 14 business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of 15 money and/or property.

16 100. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
17 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants
18 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 19 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable
20 laws; and an award of costs.

21 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

22 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 101. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
25 every allegation set forth above.

26 102. Plaintiff brings his ninth cause of action solely as a representative action pursuant 27 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
28

1 (“PAGA”), on behalf of the State of California for all aggrieved employees, including himself
2 and other aggrieved employees of Defendants against whom one or more of the alleged violations
3 was committed.

4 103. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
5 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 6 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
7 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
8 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 9 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 10 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 11 2699(a).

12 104. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged 13 above were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an 14 “aggrieved employee” under PAGA.

15 105. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendants
16 have routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 17 Codes by:

- 18 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 19 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.
- 20 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
21 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.
- 22 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 23 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 24 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 25 226.7 and 512.
- 26 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 27 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 28

Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.

e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.

f. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226.

g. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.

106. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title 8 section 11080, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 210, 226, 226.3, 558, 1174.5, and 1197.1, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

107. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On December 12, 2024, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than sixty-five (65) days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's December 12, 2024 Notice, and the LWDA has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the notice.

Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

108. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

109. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods specified in Labor Code § 2699.3.
