By: Taylor Curtis, Deputy Clerk

1 Plaintiff LUIS GARCIA, on behalf of himself and all other persons similarly situated,
2 and the general public (hereinafter, “Plaintiffs”), hereby complains against Defendants
3 KADAMI ENTERPRISES, LP, a California limited partnership (“Kadami”), and DOES 1 to 4 100, inclusive (hereinafter Kadami and Does 1-100 are collectively referred to herein as 5 “Defendants”), and on information and belief allege as follows:

6 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

7 JURISDICTION

8 1. This is a civil action seeking recovery of unpaid wages, waiting time penalties,
9 pay stub penalties and meal and rest period premiums under California Labor Code §§ 510,
10 1194 et seq., 201 et seq., 226 and 226.7. Plaintiffs bring an action for monetary damages for 11 failure to pay wages as well as for restitution for Defendants’ violations of Business and 12 Professions Code (B&PC) §17200, et seq., including full restitution of all compensation
13 retained by Defendants as a result of their unlawful, fraudulent and unfair business practices.
14 Plaintiffs seek all available relief, including full restitution of all compensation retained by 15 Defendants as a result of their unlawful and unfair business practices. Further, Plaintiffs seek 16 injunctive relief under B&PC §17200, et seq.

17 VENUE

18 2. Venue as to each of the Defendants is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 19 California Code of Civil Procedure (CCP) §§ 395(a) and 395.5, as at least some of the acts 20 complained of herein occurred in the County of Sonoma. Each defendant either owns, 21 maintains offices, transacts business, has an agent or agents within the County of Sonoma, or 22 otherwise is found within the County of Sonoma, and each defendant is within the jurisdiction
23 of this Court for purposes of service of process.

24 PARTIES

25 3. Luis Garcia (“Garcia”) is an individual over the age of eighteen (18). At all 26 relevant times herein, Plaintiff Garcia worked for Defendants within the State of California.

27 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times
28 mentioned herein, Defendant Kadami is and was a California limited partnership.

1 5. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times
2 mentioned herein, Defendant Kadami was authorized to do business in the state of California,
3 County of Sonoma, owning and operating a property management company.

4 6. Thus, each named defendant and DOES 1 to 100 are subject to B&PC §17200, 5 et seq. (Unfair Competition Law) and the Labor Code, as hereinafter alleged.

6 7. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities, whether individual,
7 partner, or corporate, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 to 100, inclusive, and for that 8 reason, those defendants are sued under such fictitious names, and Plaintiffs will seek from 9 this Court leave to amend this Complaint when such true names and capacities are discovered.
10 Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each of the Defendants and each 11 fictitious defendant, whether individual, partners, or corporate, was responsible in some 12 manner for the circumstances alleged herein, and proximately caused Plaintiffs and all others 13 similarly situated hereinafter alleged and the general public to be subjected to the unlawful 14 employment practices, wrongs, injuries and damages complained of herein.

15 8. At all times herein mentioned, each of the Defendants participated in the doing 16 of the acts hereinafter alleged to have been done by the named Defendants; and furthermore,
17 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents, servants, and employees of each and every 18 one of the other Defendants, as well as the agents of all Defendants, and at all times herein
19 mentioned were acting within the course and scope of said agency and employment. Plaintiffs 20 herein allege that Defendants and each of them is the joint employer of Plaintiffs and the 21 classes.

22 9. At all times mentioned herein, Defendants, and each of them, were members of 23 and engaged in a joint venture, partnership, and common enterprise, and acting within the 24 course and scope of and in pursuance of said joint venture, partnership, and common 25 enterprise.

26 10. At all times herein mentioned, the acts and omissions of various Defendants, 27 and each of them, concurred and contributed to the various acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants in proximately causing the complaints, injuries and damages alleged herein.
28

11. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, approved of, condoned, and/or otherwise ratified each and every one of the acts or omissions complained of herein. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants, and each of them, aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each and every one of the other Defendants, thereby proximately causing the damages, as herein alleged.

12. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because both the individual and aggregate monetary damages and restitution sought herein exceed the minimal jurisdictional limits of the Superior Court and will be established at trial, according to proof. The California Superior Court also has jurisdiction in this matter because Plaintiffs and the putative classes herein worked within the State of California, and were subject to California's wage and hour laws.

PLAINTIFF CLASSES

13. The class representative Plaintiff who worked in the position of an hourly non-exempt employees or other similar title while employed by Defendants within the State of California, is as follows:

a. Luis Garcia

Plaintiff Garcia worked within California as a non-exempt hourly employee for Defendants in 2024.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14. Plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated as a class action pursuant to CCP §382. The Classes which Plaintiffs seek to represent are composed of and defined as follows:

Class 1:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2021 through the date of judgment, who were not paid premium overtime and/or double time at the employee's regular rate of pay.

Subclass 1:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California who were paid for a missed meal or rest period at an allegedly “reduced” rate of pay from 2021 through the date of judgment (Meal and Rest Reduced Rate Subclass);

Class 2:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2021 through the date of judgment, who were not paid the minimum wage for all hours worked (Minimum Wage Class);

Class 3:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California and who worked at some point from 2022 through the present, who are no longer employed with Defendants and to whom Defendants willfully failed to pay all wages due upon separation from Defendants (Waiting Time Penalty Class);

Class 4:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2021 to the present who were not provided legally compliant meal periods (Meal Break Class);

Class 5:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2021 through the present who were not provided legally-compliant rest breaks (Rest Break Class);

Class 6:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2024 through the present who were provided a paystub (a.k.a. wage statement) which failed to list all hours actually worked and wages owed (Pay Stub Class).

Class 7:

All non-exempt hourly employees who worked for Defendants in California from 2021 through the present who were not reimbursed for their necessary and reasonable

1 business expenses (Reimbursement Class).

2 The members of the classes are so numerous that joinder of all members would be
3 unfeasible and not practicable. The membership of the classes is unknown to Plaintiffs at this 4 time; however, it is estimated that the classes number greater than 100 individuals. The 5 identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants'
6 employment records.

7 15. There are common questions of law and fact as to Plaintiffs and all others
8 similarly situated which predominate over questions affecting only individual members 9 including, without limitation to:

- 10 i. Whether Defendants paid their employees proper premium overtime 11 and/or double time at the employees' regular rate for hours over eight 12 (8) in a day and/or forty (40) hours in a week, in paying their hourly
13 non-exempt employees;
- 14 ii. Whether Defendants violated the applicable Labor Code provisions 15 including §510, 1194, and 203 by requiring substantial overtime work 16 and not paying for said work according to the overtime laws of the 17 State of California;
- 18 iii. Whether Defendants failed to pay the appropriate premium overtime 19 compensation to the hourly employees;
- 20 iv. Whether Defendants improperly retained, appropriated or deprived 21 Plaintiffs and the class members of the use of monies or sums to which 22 Plaintiffs and the class were legally entitled;
- 23 v. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices;
- 24 vi. Whether Defendants, and each of them, were participants in the alleged 25 unlawful conduct;
- 26 vii. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 27 viii. The effect upon and the extent of injuries suffered by Plaintiffs and all 28 others similarly situated and the appropriate amount of compensation;

- ix. The appropriate amount of monetary penalties allowed by Labor Code §201, et. seq.;
- x. Whether Defendants pay and continue to pay for missed meal and rest period premiums at an allegedly “reduced” rate of pay in violation of Section 11 of the applicable Wage Orders;
- xi. Whether Defendants failed and refused to reimburse Plaintiff and the class members for their reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in fulfilling their work duties for Defendant
- xii. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §226 and relevant IWC Wage Orders by failing to, among other violations, accurately report total hours worked, all applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly work, by Plaintiffs and the members of the Class; and
- xiii. Whether Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to maintain records for Plaintiffs and members of the Class as required by Labor Code § 1174 and the applicable IWC Wage Orders.

16. Plaintiffs’ claims are typical of the claims of all members of the classes and subclasses mentioned herein. Plaintiffs, as representative parties, will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the classes by vigorously pursuing this suit through their attorneys who are skilled and experienced in handling matters of this type. Plaintiffs have no claim or interest that is antagonistic to any class member.

17. The nature of this action and the nature of laws available to the members of the classes and subclasses identified herein make use of the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to afford relief to Plaintiffs for the wrongs alleged herein. Further, this claim involves a large company, Defendant Kadami, and a large number of individual employees (Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated) with many relatively small claims with common issues of law and fact. If each employee were required to file an individual lawsuit, the corporate defendants would necessarily gain an unconscionable

1 advantage since they would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each
2 individual plaintiff with their vastly superior financial and legal resources. Requiring each
3 class member to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful
4 claims by employees who would be disinclined to pursue an action against their present
5 and/or former employer for an appreciable and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent
6 damage to their careers at present and/or subsequent employment. Proof of a common 7 business practice or factual pattern, of which the Plaintiffs experienced, is representative of 8 the class mentioned herein and will establish the right of each of the members of the named 9 class to recovery on the causes of action alleged herein.

10 18. The prosecution of separate actions by the individual class members, even if 11 possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications
12 with respect to the individual class members against Defendants herein; and which would 13 establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants; and/or (b) legal 14 determinations with respect to individual class members which would, as a practical matter, 15 be dispositive of the interest of the other class members not parties to adjudications or which 16 would substantially impair or impede the ability of the class members to protect their interests.
17 Further, the claims of the individual members of the class are not sufficiently large to warrant
18 vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses
19 attending thereto.

20 19. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated are entitled to the wages and other 21 monies unlawfully withheld. This action is brought for the benefit of the public.

22 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

23 (Violation of B&PC §17200, et seq.)

24 20. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
25 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

26 21. Beginning on an exact date unknown to Plaintiffs but believed to have 27 occurred from 2021 on, Defendants have engaged in a pattern and practice of acts of unfair
28 competition in violation of B&PC §17200, including the practices alleged herein.

1 22. Defendants, and each of them, own and operate property management
2 locations in California, and have engaged in the practice of paying their non-exempt
3 employees, in a fashion that circumvents California's wage and hour laws.

4 FAILURE TO PAY PROPER WAGES AND OVERTIME COMPENSATION

5 23. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and thereon alleges that as part of Defendants'
6 ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants' hourly employees worked in excess of eight 7 (8) hours per day, and excess of forty (40) hours per week without receiving the proper 8 regular rate of pay and therefore have failed to receive overtime compensation and/or the 9 proper overtime premium. Further, the hourly rate which Defendants use to calculate the 10 overtime and double time premiums is an artifice, subterfuge, and sham in that the regular rate 11 is not based on all remuneration earned. The regular rate must include all remuneration as 12 provided in Huntington v. Superior Court (Mutuc) (2005) 131 Cal App. 4th 893. Accordingly, 13 the class members allege that the Defendants fail to pay the full amount of wages due because 14 the Defendants miscalculate the regular rate. Plaintiffs and the class members allege and will 15 prove that they are entitled to payment based on the proper and legal regular rate which will 16 include all damages that flow from this calculation Defendants are therefore in violation of 17 Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194, and the relevant California Industrial Welfare Commission
18 Orders.

19 24. Defendants, and each of them, consistently administered a corporate policy
20 regarding off-the-clock work and rounding down of hours worked, which effectively reduces
21 the number of hours worked by Plaintiffs and which required that employees work overtime
22 without proper premium overtime pay, the regular rate of pay, and/or minimum wage. This 23 corporate policy and pattern of conduct is accomplished with the advanced knowledge and 24 designed intent to avoid paying non-exempt employees for all hours worked. Accordingly, 25 Plaintiffs and the class members are entitled to all unpaid wages due under California law.
26 Further, Plaintiffs and the class are entitled to restitution of these wages obtained by 27 Defendants, and each of them.
28

1 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 200, ET SEQ.

2 25. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 3 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants failed to provide all employees all 4 wages at the time of their separation in violation of Labor Code § 200, et. seq., including but 5 not limited to, §§201, 202, 203 & 204.

6 26. Labor Code § 200, et seq. provides that an employer is required to pay an
7 employee all wages (including accrued vacation) immediately upon the employee's 8 involuntary separation from employment; immediately upon his or her voluntary separation if
9 the employee gave at least seventy-two (72) hours notice, and within seventy-two (72) hours,
10 if the employee voluntarily separated, but did not give at least seventy-two (72) hours notice.

11 27. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that all employees who 12 have been separated from Defendants did not timely receive a final paycheck detailing the 13 proper amount of pay from Defendants in violation of Labor Code § 200, et. seq.

14 28. Pursuant to Labor Code § 200, et seq. employees that no longer work for 15 Defendants, and who were not timely paid, are entitled to one (1) day of pay in penalties for 16 each day that he or she was paid late, until payment was made, up to a maximum of thirty (30)
17 days.

18 VIOLATION OF MEAL AND REST PERIOD PROVISIONS

19 29. Defendants' improper meal and rest period policies are in violation of 20 California law including, but not limited to Labor Code § 226.7, 512, and the applicable IWC
21 Wage Orders. Plaintiffs and the class were entitled to 1 hour of pay for each meal and rest 22 break violation at their regular rate of pay. Defendants failed and continue to fail to pay for 23 meal and rest period violations at the employees' regular rate of pay in violation of Section 11
24 of the applicable Wage Orders.

25 30. Plaintiffs seek restitution and injunctive relief for said violations.

26 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all times herein
27 mentioned, Defendants have engaged in unlawful, deceptive, and unfair business practices
28 prohibited by California B&PC §17200, thereby depriving their employees and the putative

1 class the minimum working standards and conditions due to them under the California labor
2 laws and Industrial Welfare Commission wage orders as specifically described herein.
3 Plaintiffs seek an injunction preventing Defendants from continuing their unfair business 4 practice of improperly depriving their employees of overtime pay, and payment of their 5 regular rate of pay for meal and rest period premiums. Plaintiffs further seek an order
6 requiring Defendants to identify by full name, telephone number, and last known address
7 employees who worked or still work for Defendants between 2021 through the date of 8 judgment; Plaintiffs further seek an order requiring Defendants to timely pay restitution to all 9 current and former employees, including back wages, premium payments, and interest.

10 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

11 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that as part of 12 Defendants' ongoing unfair business practices, Defendants, and each of them, fail to provide 13 their employees with proper and understandable itemized wage statement, as required by Labor
14 Code § 226.

15 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that Defendants, and 16 each of them, fail to provide each employee with an itemized statement which states the actual 17 regular rate paid, the total hours worked by the employee, the gross and net wages earned, and 18 all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of 19 hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee.

20 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE EXPENSES

21 34. Defendants have adopted and implemented an illegal reimbursement policy
22 that fails to compensate Plaintiffs for all necessary business expenses incurred in discharging 23 their duties for Defendants.

24 35. Defendants' conduct in failing to reimburse Plaintiffs and the class for their 25 necessary business expenses is also unfair within the meaning of Business and Professions
26 Code §17200 because it is against established public policy and has been pursued to attain an 27 unjustified monetary advantage for Defendants by unfairly and unlawfully reducing Plaintiffs 28

1 and the other class members' compensation, as Plaintiffs and the class are required to come
2 out of pocket for such expenses. As such, Defendants' business practices, including their 3 illegal reimbursement policy and practice, is unfair, illegal and fraudulent, in that such policy
4 and practice was intended to reduce Plaintiffs' and the class' due and owing compensation.

5 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

6 RECOVERY OF UNPAID WAGES & PENALTIES

7 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194 and 1198)

8 36. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
9 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

10 37. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated identified herein were and are 11 employed and scheduled as a matter of established company policy to work and in fact 12 worked as non-exempt hourly employees in excess of eight (8) hours per day and/or in excess 13 of forty (40) hours per week. Defendants employed and scheduled all employees without 14 providing overtime compensation for such excess hours worked in violation of Labor Code §§
15 510 and 1194 and the relevant California Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) orders.
16 Labor Code § 204 establishes the fundamental right of all employees in the State of California
17 to be paid the proper amount of wages in a timely fashion for their work, including overtime.
18 Defendants always had a written and verbal agreement to pay overtime and double time based 19 on the Plaintiffs' and classes' regular rate of pay.

20 38. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218 and 1194(a), Plaintiffs may bring a civil action
21 for overtime wages directly against the employer without first filing a claim with the Division
22 of Labor Standards Enforcement (hereinafter "DLSE") and may recover such wages, together
23 with interest thereon, penalties, attorneys' fees and costs.

24 39. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants have failed to pay to Plaintiffs and all 25 persons similarly situated wages when due as required by Labor Code § 204.

26 40. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1198, it is unlawful to employ persons for longer
27 than the hours set by the IWC or under conditions prohibited by the applicable IWC Wage
28 Orders.

1 41. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon
2 allege that Defendants have treated Plaintiffs as hourly non-exempt employees. Despite this 3 classification, Defendants have willfully violated the Labor Code with respect to meeting the 4 requirements of paying one (1) regular rate of pay and calculating overtime and double time
5 based on that regular rate, as herein before alleged. Defendants have failed to properly pay
6 premium overtime for hours worked in a week, and as such, Defendants are able to reduce 7 their overhead and operating expenses and gain an unfair advantage over competing
8 companies complying with state law. Furthermore, Defendants have failed to include all 9 items of remuneration when determining the employees' regular rate of pay, as described 10 above.

11 42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants 12 consistently administered a corporate policy regarding both staffing levels and duties and 13 responsibilities of the members of the classes which required the entirety of all classes to work
14 overtime without proper premium pay, and to fail all wages for hours worked. This corporate 15 policy and pattern of conduct was/is accomplished with the advance knowledge and design of 16 all Defendants herein. Thus, Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated routinely, regularly 17 and customarily performed overtime work and/or work that they failed to be compensated at 18 the appropriate hourly wage.

19 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that the obligations and 20 responsibilities of the class employees are irrelevant because Plaintiffs and all others similarly 21 situated merely allege wrongdoing with Defendants' pay plans, policies and practices.
22 Further, the duties of Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated are not relevant in certifying 23 any of the classes.

24 44. Defendants, and each of them, had a consistent and uniform policy, practice
25 and procedure of willfully failing to pay the earned and unpaid wages of all such non-exempt 26 employees. Defendants have willfully failed to pay the earned and unpaid wages of such 27 individuals, including, but not limited to regular pay, premium pay, and other wages earned 28 and remaining uncompensated according to amendment, or proof.

1 45. The pattern, practice and uniform administration of corporate policy regarding 2 illegal employee compensation as described herein is unlawful and creates an entitlement to 3 recovery by Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated, in a civil action, for the unpaid balance
4 of the full amount of all wages owing, including the proper calculation of the regular rate and 5 the proper overtime premiums calculated at 1.5 or 2 times the legal regular rate which are 6 owing, including interest thereon, willful penalties, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of 7 suit according to the mandate of Labor Code § 1194, et. seq.

8 46. Likewise, Defendants have a pattern, practice and uniform administration of 9 corporate policy regarding failure to comply with the required provisions of Labor Code §
10 226.7, in failing to pay Plaintiffs and the class the meal and rest period premium payments at 11 the regular rate.

12 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

13 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq.)

14 47. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all
15 preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

16 48. Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq., provides that an employer is required to pay an 17 employee all wages (including accrued vacation) immediately upon an employee's 18 involuntary separation from employment; immediately upon his or her voluntary separation if
19 the employee gave at least seventy two (72) hours notice, and within seventy two (72) hours,
20 if the employee voluntarily separated, but did not give at least seventy two (72) hours notice.

21 49. Plaintiff Garcia and other former employees of Defendants employed in the 22 State of California separated from employment with Defendants, and did not timely receive a
23 final pay check with all of their wages due from Defendants in violation of Labor Code
24 §§200, et seq. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that Defendants also 25 violated the mandates of Labor Code §§ 200, et seq., as to other employees whose 26 employment ended during the period of time covered by this action.

27 50. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 200, et. seq., each member of the class that no 28 longer works for Defendants, and who was not timely paid all of his or her wages due is entitled to one (1) day of pay in penalties for each day that he or she was paid late, until payment was made, up to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY MEAL AND REST PERIOD PREMIUMS AT THE PROPER REGULAR RATE OF PAY

(Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 & 512, et seq.)

51. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

52. Plaintiffs believe and thereon allege that Labor Code §226.7 requires an employer to pay an additional hour of compensation at the employee's regular rate of pay for each meal period and rest period violation. During the class period, Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege that Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiffs and the class members meal period and rest period premium pay at their regular rate of pay. Defendants' improper meal and rest period practices and policies are in violation of California law including, but not limited to Labor Code § 226.7, 512, and the IWC Wage Orders.

53. Pursuant to Labor Code §226.7, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages in an amount equal to one (1) hour of the employee's regular rate of pay per each meal and rest period violation, in a sum to be proven at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE ITEMIZED WAGE STATEMENTS

(Violation of Labor Code § 226)

54. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

55. Labor Code §226(a) provides, in pertinent part:

An employer, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages, shall furnish to his or her employee, either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately if wages are paid by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, except as provided in subdivision (j), (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all

1 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 2 employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6)
3 the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name
4 of the employee and only the last four digits of his or her social security
5 number or an employee identification number other than a social security 6 number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if 7 the employer is a farm labor contractor, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 8 1682, the name and address of the legal entity that secured the services of the 9 employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and 10 the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 11 employee. . . .

12 56. During the Class Period, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to 13 provide the Class Members, including Plaintiff Garcia, with timely and accurate wage and 14 hour statements showing gross wages earned, total hours worked, all deductions made, net
15 wages earned, the name and address of the legal entity employing that Class Member, and all 16 applicable hourly rates in effect during each pay period and the corresponding number of 17 hours worked at each hourly rate by that Class Member.

18 57. The Class Members, including Plaintiffs, suffered injury as a result of 19 Defendants' knowing and intentional failure to provide the Class Members, with the wage and 20 hour statements required by law.

21 58. Based on Defendants' conduct as alleged herein, Defendants are liable for actual 22 damages, statutory damages and/or statutory penalties pursuant to California Labor Code §
23 226, attorney's fees and costs and other applicable provisions of the Labor Code and 24 applicable Wage Order.

25 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

27 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512)

28 59. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference herein the allegations of all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

60. California Labor Code § 512 and IWC Wage Orders state that an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee a meal period of not less than 30 minutes, and an employer may not

1 employ an employee for a work period of more than 10 hours per day without providing the 2 employee with a second meal period of not less than 30 minutes. Unless the employee is 3 relieved of all duty during a 30-minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an 4 “on duty” meal period and counted as time worked. California Labor Code § 226.7(a) further
5 states that no employer shall require any employee to work during any meal or rest period
6 mandated by an applicable order of the IWC.

7 61. Employers are prohibited from exerting coercion against the taking of, creating 8 incentives to forego, or otherwise encouraging the skipping of legally protected breaks.

9 62. Plaintiffs and members of the Class were not provided with or given the 10 opportunity to take the requisite meal periods before the end of the first 5 hours of work, nor 11 were they provided with or given the opportunity to take a proper second meal period during 12 the days when they worked more than 10 hours in a day. Defendants coerced Plaintiffs and 13 the members of the Class to forego meal periods by disciplining and/or threatening 14 disciplinary action against them if they attempted to take meal periods, created incentives to 15 forego meal breaks, and encouraged the skipping of meal periods by scheduling work to 16 coincide with the meal periods, among other things. In addition, Defendants placed 17 unnecessarily tight timelines on Plaintiffs’ work, forcing them to miss their meal periods in 18 order to complete their jobs. As a result, Plaintiff and members of the Class were required to 19 work and/or were not relieved of all duties during any meal period taken, and thus were 20 considered “on duty;” however, Defendants failed to count as time worked any “on duty”
21 meal period taken by Plaintiff and the members of the Class..

22 63. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7(c) and IWC Wage Orders, if an 23 employer fails to provide an employee a meal period in accordance with the applicable
24 provisions of the IWC Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay 25 at the employee’s regular rate of pay for each workday that the meal period is not provided.
26 As such, Plaintiffs and members of the Class are entitled to an additional one hour’s pay for 27 each day in which Plaintiffs and members of the Class were not provided a proper meal break 28 under the above-described authorities.

1 64. Plaintiffs and the members of the Class request that the Court award interest on
2 all unpaid wages at the legal rate specified by California Civil Code § 3289(b), accruing from
3 the date the wages were due and payable pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6.

4 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO AUTHORIZE OR PERMIT REST PERIODS

6 (Violation of Labor Code § 226.7)

7 65. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the 8 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

9 66. The applicable IWC Wage Orders state that every employer shall authorize and 10 permit all employees to take rest periods. The authorized rest period time shall be based on 11 the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four hours of 12 work, or major fraction thereof. An employer must provide employees with 10 minutes' rest 13 for shifts from three and one-half to six hours in length, 20 minutes for shifts of more than six 14 hours up to 10 hours, 30 minutes for shifts of more than 10 hours up to 14 hours, and so on.

15 67. Plaintiff and Class Members were not permitted to take rest periods, were 16 required to work during their rest periods, and/or were disciplined and/or were advised that 17 they would be disciplined if they took rest periods during work hours, in contravention of 18 California law. Moreover, based on Defendants' compensation plans, Plaintiff and Class
19 Members were not separately compensated for their rest periods as required under California 20 law.

21 68. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226.7(c) and the applicable IWC Wage 22 Orders, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in accordance with the 23 applicable IWC Wage Orders, the employer shall pay the employee one (1) hour of pay at the 24 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.

25 69. As such, Plaintiffs and the Class members are entitled to an additional one 26 hour's pay for each day in which they were not provided a proper rest period under the above-
27 described authorities.

1 70. Plaintiffs and the members of the Class request that the Court award interest on
2 all unpaid wages at the legal rate specified by California Civil Code § 3289(b), accruing from
3 the date the wages were due and payable pursuant to Labor Code § 218.6.

4 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

5 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE EXPENSES

6 (Violation of (Labor Code § 2802)

7 71. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the 8 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

9 72. California Labor Code § 2802 provides that “[a]n employer shall indemnify his 10 or her employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct 11 consequence of the discharge of his or her duties.”

12 73. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times
13 Plaintiffs and the class members incurred certain expenses for their jobs with Defendants, 14 including but not limited to using their personal cell-phones for company business. Despite 15 this, Defendants failed and refused to indemnify Plaintiffs and the class for all of their 16 expenditures in carrying out their duties for Defendants.

17 74. As a result of Defendants’ failure to indemnify Plaintiffs and the class
18 members, they have suffered losses according to proof, including prejudgment interest, costs, 19 and attorneys’ fees in prosecuting this case.

20 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT

22 (Violation of Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699)

23 75. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the 24 allegations of the preceding paragraphs.

25 76. On or about December 11, 2024, Plaintiff Garcia provided written notice to the 26 Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) and Defendants of the specific 27 provisions of the Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to 28 support the alleged violations.

 77. The LWDA failed to respond to Plaintiffs’ counsel’s correspondence and failed

1 to notify Plaintiffs' counsel as to whether it would investigate the allegations contained
2 therein, within the time period requirements of the Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA),
3 under Labor Code §2699.3. Plaintiffs have fully complied with the notice requirements set
4 forth in Labor Code §2699.3 in order to commence a civil action against an employer
5 pursuant to Labor Code §2699.

6 78. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs for all hours worked, minimum wages,
7 overtime compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest
8 periods, failure to pay all wages upon termination or resignation, and failure to provide 9 accurate itemized wage statements, will subject Defendants to civil penalties pursuant to,
10 without limitation, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 226, 245, 246, 510, 512, 551, 552, 11 1174, 1194, 1198, 2802 and IWC Wage Orders.

12 79. Plaintiffs are aggrieved employees as defined in Labor Code §§2699(a) and 13 (c), and related Labor Code provisions. Plaintiffs bring this cause of action on behalf of 14 themselves, as private attorneys general, and in a representative capacity on behalf of other 15 aggrieved employees, affected by the labor law violations alleged herein.

16 80. Defendants committed numerous violations of the California Labor Code and 17 IWC Wage Orders against the Plaintiffs, and on information and belief, against members of 18 the Class and other current and former employees while they were employed by Defendants, 19 including but not limited to:

20 a. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 510, 511, 1194 and/or IWC Wage Orders
21 by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other

23 owed in compliance with California law;

24 b. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7, 510, 1194, 1197 and/or IWC Wage
25 Orders by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class by failing to pay for a missed
26 meal or rest period at the regular rate of pay;

27 c. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 28 failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other

1 current and former employees of Defendants, all minimum wages owed in compliance with 2 California law;

3 d. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1194, 204, 510, 511 and/or IWC Wage
4 Orders by failing to pay Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and

6 in compliance with California law;

7 e. Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, 512, and /or IWC Wage Orders by 8 failing to provide Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information and belief, other
9 current and former employees of Defendants, the opportunity to take the requisite meal
10 periods in compliance with California law;

11 f. Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 12 failing to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and the members of the Class, and on information 13 and belief, other current and former employees of Defendants, the opportunity to take the 14 requisite rest periods in compliance with California law;

15 g. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226, 1174 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 16 failing to properly maintain accurate employment time and records, maintain and/or submit 17 accurate itemized wage statements on behalf of Plaintiffs, members of the Class, and on 18 information and belief, on behalf of other current and former employees of Defendants as 19 described herein; and

20 h. Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202 and/or IWC Wage Orders by 21 failing to pay Plaintiffs, the Class, and on information and belief, other current and former 22 employees of Defendants as described herein;

23 i. Defendants violated Labor Code § 2802 and/or the IWC Wage Orders by 24 failing to pay Plaintiffs and other members of the Class all of their reasonable and necessary 25 expenses.

26 81. Pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, Plaintiffs, members of the Class, and all other 27 aggrieved current and former employees seek to recover civil penalties, as otherwise 28 provided by statute and wage order, for which Defendants are liable as a result of their violations of the California Labor Code and applicable wage order(s) in an amount to be proven at trial. These penalties include, but are not limited to, those provided by Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 245, 246, 256, 510, 512, 558, 1174, 1194,

1 1197, 2699, and IWC Wage Orders. Plaintiffs and aggrieved current and former employees

3 and 2699.
