1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff Tonya Brock (“Plaintiff”) seeks approval of a non-reversionary $197,000.00 gross
4 settlement of claims for civil penalties alleged pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, 5 Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. (“PAGA”). After a full day of mediation with experienced and neutral 6 mediator Steve Serratore, Esq., and months of extended settlement negotiations, Plaintiff reached a 7 resolution with Defendant Benchmark Asset Resolution, Inc. (“Defendant”) (collectively, Plaintiff and 8 Defendant are the “Parties”). The Parties have executed a Private Attorneys General Act Settlement 9 Agreement (the “Settlement”), a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration
10 of Kane Moon in Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement (“Moon Decl.”) submitted 11 concurrently herewith. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), Plaintiff now files this motion seeking 12 an order approving the proposed Settlement.

13 The Settlement resolves all claims for civil penalties under PAGA that arose during the PAGA 14 Period and that were alleged in the above-captioned matter (“Action”). (Settlement, ¶ 1.1.) For purposes 15 of settlement, the “PAGA Period” is December 7, 2023, through the date of settlement approval. (Id. at 16 ¶ 1.23.) This Settlement is on behalf of the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency (the 17 “LWDA”), Plaintiff, and all persons who worked for Defendant in California as an hourly paid or non-18 exempt employee during the PAGA Period (“Aggrieved Employees”). (Id. at ¶ 1.4.) Plaintiff is unaware 19 of any other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by 20 approval of the Settlement, nor has Defendant pointed to any. (Moon Decl., ¶ 24.) Plaintiff came to this 21 conclusion after a reasonable inquiry and review of the LWDA’s PAGA Case Search website, this 22 Court’s case search website, and other information reasonably available online. (Id.)

23 Settlement of a PAGA claim requires court approval. Pursuant to the operative PAGA statute, the 24 “court shall review and approve any penalties sought as part of a proposed settlement agreement pursuant 25 to this part.” (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) In deciding whether to grant approval of a proposed settlement, 26 the primary issue to be decided is whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Specifically, 27 the issue is whether the PAGA penalties to which the parties have agreed provide “genuine and 28 meaningful” relief that is “consistent with the underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public,” and

1 whether the penalties are reasonable in light of the potential verdict value in this case. (Villalobos v.
2 Calandri Sunrise Farm LP (C.D. Cal. July 22, 2015) No. CV 12-2615 PSG (JEMx), 2015 WL 12732709,
3 at *5; see also O'Connor v. Uber Techn., Inc. (N.D. Cal. 2016) 201 F.Supp.3d 1110, 1135.)

4 As set forth herein, the proposed Settlement embodies all the features of a settlement that is fair, 5 adequate, and reasonable, as (1) it is the product of an arm's-length negotiation, (2) negotiated by 6 attorneys experienced in wage and hour litigation, (3) following sufficient investigation necessary to 7 evaluate the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, and (4) reflects a reasoned compromise
8 based directly on the relative strength and value of the PAGA claims, as well as the risks, expense, 9 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation.

10 The meaningful value achieved by the Settlement at issue may be gleaned from the fact that the 11 LWDA and the estimated 175 Aggrieved Employees will, cumulatively, receive no less than $94,841.11
12 as PAGA Penalties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.) This is a significant recovery, not only because further litigation 13 may have resulted in a net-zero recovery based on the facts of the case and defenses asserted by 14 Defendant, but also because an investigation by experienced PAGA counsel and analysis of discovery 15 revealed minimal identifiable violations, the discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties, and the 16 risk of not being able to proceed on a representative basis at all due to the potential manageability issues 17 and current state of the law. For these reasons, as set forth more fully below, Plaintiff respectfully requests 18 the Court enter the proposed order and proposed judgment submitted concurrently herewith.

19 II. SUMMARY OF THE LITIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

20 A. Plaintiff's Claims and Procedural Background

21 Defendant is an asset resolution and vehicle recovery company that locates and repossesses 22 various vehicles, motor homes, and construction equipment. (Moon Decl., ¶ 4.) Plaintiff worked for 23 Defendant from approximately December 2023 to February 2024 as a camera car spotter. (Id.)
24 Throughout her employment, Plaintiff was classified as non-exempt and paid on an hourly basis. (Id.)
25 Plaintiff contends she and her former coworkers were subjected to the same or similar unlawful labor 26 practices during their employment by Defendant, including failure to pay all wages. (Id.)

27 Plaintiff's claims for unpaid wages stems from allegations of Defendant's failure to pay 28 employees all minimum and overtime wages, including due to Defendant's failure to compensate

1 employees for off-the-clock work, and Defendant's failure to incorporate all remunerations into the 2 regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating overtime pay, meal break premium, and sick pay. (Moon 3 Decl., ¶ 5.) Plaintiff's meal and rest period claims are based on allegations that due to the nature of their 4 work and Defendant's employment practices, employees regularly experienced missed, untimely, or 5 interrupted breaks, and that Defendant failed to provide any premiums for non-compliant rest breaks or 6 all premiums for non-compliant meals. (Id.) Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant failed to reimburse 7 employees for all reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred, including expenses incurred for 8 the use of employees' purchase of uniforms, tools, work-related equipment, and use of personal cellphone 9 for work purposes. (Id.) Plaintiff further alleges she and other employees did not receive all wages owed 10 at the time of termination nor accurate itemized wage statements due to Defendant's failure to pay all 11 wages and premiums. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff alleges Defendant is liable for civil penalties under 12 PAGA. (Id.)

13 Because of the foregoing alleged violations of the Labor Code, Plaintiff filed a Class Action 14 Complaint on December 10, 2024, alleging Defendant systematically: (1) failed to pay minimum wages, 15 (2) failed to pay overtime compensation, (3) failed to provide meal periods, (4) failed to authorize and 16 permit rest breaks, (5) failure to indemnify necessary business expenses, (6) failed to timely pay final 17 wages at termination, (7) failed to provide accurate itemized wage statements, and (8) engaged in unfair
18 business practices. (Id. at ¶ 6.)

19 Pursuant to PAGA, on December 7, 2024, Plaintiff submitted notice of the alleged Labor Code 20 violations to the LWDA, with certified mail service on Defendant, and paid the required filing fee. (Id. at 21 ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) The administrative exhaustion period under PAGA expired without the LWDA indicating any 22 intent to investigate the allegations. (Id. at ¶ 7.) On February 13, 2025, Plaintiff filed a First Amended 23 Class and Representative Action Complaint to allege a ninth cause of action for civil penalties under 24 PAGA. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general with respect
25 to the PAGA claims involved in this action. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(1), 26 Plaintiff subsequently submitted to the LWDA a file-stamped copy of the First Amended Complaint 27 containing the Court-assigned case number. (Id. at ¶ 8.) To date, the LWDA has not sought to intervene 28 in this action. (Id.)

1 On March 11, 2025, the Court granted the Parties' Joint Stipulation to Arbitrate and Dismiss 2 the Class Claims, leaving only the ninth cause of action for civil penalties pending before the Court.
3 (Id. at ¶ 9.) Thereafter, the Parties agreed to attend a private mediation to resolve Plaintiff's 4 representative PAGA claims. (Id.)

5 Defendant ardently opposes the merits of this case and denies Plaintiff's factual allegations. (Id.
6 at ¶ 10.) Defendant argues all employees were properly paid for all hours worked and that it did not require 7 or permit employees to work off-the-clock. (Id.) As for the regular rate claim, Defendant argues there was 8 no issue with paying employees the proper regular rate of pay because any additional remuneration was 9 discretionary and thus, not required to be incorporated into the regular rate of pay. (Id.) Defendant 10 maintains all employees were provided with the opportunity to take all their code-compliant meal and 11 rest breaks and that missed breaks, if any, were solely the result of employees' voluntary choice. (Id.) As 12 for the unreimbursed business expenses, Defendant maintains it did not require employees to incur any 13 business-related expenses. (Id.) To the extent employees received wage statements that were allegedly 14 inaccurate, Defendant argues penalties are not warranted because employees suffered no actual damage 15 or harm as a result. (Id.; see, e.g., Angeles v. U.S. Airways, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Feb. 19, 2013) No. C 12–05860 16 CRB, 2013 WL 622032, at *10 [“A plaintiff must adequately plead an injury arising from an employer's 17 failure to provide full and accurate wage statements, and the omission of the required information alone 18 is not sufficient.”].) Additionally, Defendant alleges its good-faith belief that it paid all wages precludes 19 the imposition of waiting time penalties because Plaintiff would be unable to show Defendant's alleged 20 conduct was done willfully or knowingly. (Moon Decl., ¶ 10; see, e.g., Pedroza v. PetSmart, Inc. (C.D.
21 Cal. June 14, 2012) No. ED CV 11–298 GHK (DTBx), 2012 WL 9506073, *5.) For these reasons, 22 Defendant claims it did not engage in any unfair business practices and denies liability under PAGA.
23 (Moon Decl., ¶ 10.) Defendant also maintains the claims are not susceptible to proof on a representative 24 basis because of the individualized and varying nature of each employee's experience, making this matter
25 unmanageable. (Id.)

26 B. Discovery and Investigation

27 The Parties agreed to mediate the representative PAGA claims. (Id. at ¶ 11.) The Parties 28 engaged in informal discovery exchange prior to mediation. (Id.) Defendant provided information

1 and documents, which enabled Plaintiff's Counsel to meaningfully investigate Plaintiff's allegations
2 and assess the value of the PAGA claims. (Id.) Specifically, Defendant produced Plaintiff's personnel
3 file and her time and payroll records, documents regarding Defendant's written policies and practices 4 in effect during the relevant period, and sample of time and corresponding payroll records for 5 approximately 20% of all Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)

6 Prior to mediation, Plaintiff's Counsel reviewed and analyzed all the information that Defendant 7 produced, including the time/pay records and Defendant's written policies, in conjunction with 8 information provided by Plaintiff. (Id. at ¶ 12.) Plaintiff's Counsel retained an expert to analyze the 9 time/pay records and prepare a damage analysis prior to mediation. (Id.) The time/pay records contained 10 9,502 shifts actually worked (roughly 20% of all shifts), which allowed the expert to prepare an analysis 11 with a high degree of certainty. (Id.) Further, Plaintiff's Counsel investigated the applicable law regarding 12 the claims and defenses asserted in this action. (Id.) Accordingly, Plaintiff's Counsel were able to evaluate 13 the probability of success on the merits and Defendant's monetary exposure. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and 14 her Counsel's familiarity with the facts of the case and the legal issues involved allowed them to act
15 intelligently in negotiating the Settlement. (Id.)

16 C. Settlement Negotiations

17 On January 29, 2026, the Parties participated in a full day of private mediation facilitated by 18 Steve Serratore, Esq., an experienced PAGA action mediator. (Id. at ¶ 13.) The negotiations were at 19 arm's length and although conducted in a professional matter, were adversarial. (Id.) Both sides went 20 into the mediation willing to explore the potential for a settlement of the dispute, but they were also 21 prepared to litigate their position through trial and appeal if a settlement had not been reached. (Id.) 22 Negotiations were protracted, with extended discussions and instances in which it appeared the 23 Parties would not reach a resolution. (Id.) Following a full discussion of the strengths and weaknesses 24 of the claims and defenses, the Parties ultimately reached a resolution, the material terms of which 25 are encompassed within the Settlement at issue. (Id.)

26 In reaching a resolution, the Parties recognized that the issues presented in this action are 27 likely only to be resolved with extensive and costly pretrial and trial proceedings, and that further 28 litigation will lead to inconvenience, distraction, disruption, delay, and expense disproportionate to the potential benefits of litigation. (Id. at ¶ 14.) Plaintiff and her Counsel also considered the risk and uncertainty of the outcome inherent in any litigation when determining whether this Settlement was the correct option. (Id.) In sum, Plaintiff and her Counsel believe the proposed Settlement is in the best interests of Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA. (Id.) In compliance with Labor Code section 2699(s)(2), notice of settlement and a copy of the proposed Settlement has been submitted to the LWDA along with a copy of Plaintiff’s motion and the hearing date. (Id. at ¶ 15, Ex. 3.) To date, the LWDA has not indicated any objection to the Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 15.)

D. Key Terms of the Proposed Settlement

The Settlement’s key financial and other terms include:

1. Gross Settlement Amount, Funding, Disbursement, and Uncashed Checks. The Gross Settlement Amount (“GSA”) is a non-reversionary $197,000.00, subject to potential increase under an Escalator Clause. (Settlement, ¶, 3.1.) No later than sixty-five (65) calendar days after the Effective Date,¹ Defendant shall fully fund the Gross Settlement Amount by transmitting the funds to the Administrator. (Id. at ¶ 4.2.) Disbursement will occur within 14 calendar days after Defendant fully funds the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 4.3.) For any Aggrieved Employee whose Individual PAGA Payment check is uncashed and cancelled after 180 days after date of mailing (the “void date”), the Administrator shall transmit the funds represented by such checks to the California Controller's Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Aggrieved Employee. (Id. at ¶¶ 4.3.1, 4.3.3.)

2. Aggrieved Employee Size Estimates and Escalator Clause. The Parties agree that the settlement is based on an estimated total of 5,000 PAGA Pay Periods during the PAGA Period of December 7, 2023, through the date of preliminary approval. (Id. at ¶ 7.1.) In the event the actual number of PAGA Pay Periods exceeds 5,000 by more than fifteen percent (15%), (i.e., 5,750 PAGA Pay Periods), Defendant shall have the choice to either (a) proportionally increase the Gross Settlement Amount by the percentage increase in the number of PAGA Pay Periods in excess of 15%, or (b) move back the last date of the PAGA Period to the date on which the total PAGA Pay Periods reach 5,750 PAGA Pay Periods

¹ “Effective Date” means the later of (a) 60 days after entry of Judgment if no appeal is filed, or (b) final resolution of any appeal in a manner that does not materially alter the terms of this Agreement. (Settlement, ¶ 1.11.)

1 and the Gross Settlement Amount shall not be increased. (Id.) Upon review of the data provided by 2 Defendant and determination of the total PAGA Pay Periods, the Administrator shall advise Defense
3 Counsel and PAGA Counsel of whether this provision is triggered and Defendant shall make its election
4 as to an increase in the Gross Settlement Amount or reduction of the PAGA Period, as provided above, 5 within five business days of the Administrator’s advisement. (Id.) If such period passes without an 6 election by Defendant, the Administrator shall assume that Defendant has elected to limit the PAGA
7 Period as described in (b) in this provision and proceed accordingly. (Id.)

8 3. Enhancement Award. The Settlement includes an Enhancement Award to Plaintiff in an 9 amount up to $6,000.00, payable from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.4.) This award is in recognition of her efforts 10 in prosecuting the Action. (Id. at ¶ 1.12.) Any portion of the enhancement award not approved by the 11 Court shall revert to the PAGA settlement fund and be distributed in accordance with the Settlement.
12 (Id.)

13 4. PAGA Counsel Fees Payment and PAGA Counsel Expenses Payment. The Settlement
14 includes attorneys’ fees in an amount not more than one-third of the GSA (i.e., at least $65,666.66), plus 15 reimbursement for out-of-pocket litigation costs not to exceed $30,000.00, payable to Plaintiff’s Counsel
16 from the GSA. (Id. at ¶ 3.1.1.) If the Court approves a PAGA Counsel Expenses Payment and/or a PAGA 17 Counsel Fees Payment in amounts less than requested, the Administrator will allocate the remainder to 18 the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) Plaintiff’s Counsel has incurred $24,492.23 in litigation costs. (Moon 19 Decl., ¶ 19, Ex. 4)

20 5. Administration Expenses Payment. The Settlement provides an Administration Expenses
21 Payment to the Settlement Administrator, payable from the GSA, in an amount not more than $6,000.00, 22 for its fees and expenses in administering this Settlement. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.2.) To the extent the 23 Administration Expenses Payment is less or the Court approves payment less than $6,000.00 the 24 Administrator will retain the remainder in the Net Settlement Amount. (Id.) The Parties jointly selected 25 APEX Class Action Administration (“APEX”) as the neutral entity to administer this Settlement, with a 26 bid for $6,000.00. (Id. at ¶ 1.2; Moon Decl., ¶ 20, Ex. 5.)

27 6. Net Settlement Amount. Net Settlement Amount” means the Gross Settlement Amount less 28 the following payments in the amounts approved by the Court: the LWDA PAGA Payment, PAGA

Counsel Expenses Payment, PAGA Counsel Fees Payment, Enhancement Award to Plaintiff, and Administration Expenses Payment. (Id. at ¶ 1.18.) The remainder is to be paid to Aggrieved Employees as Individual PAGA Payments. (Id.) Accordingly, the Net Settlement Amount is estimated to be no less than $94,841.11,² which will be distributed 65% (i.e., no less than 65% * $94,841.11 = $61,646.72) to the LWDA and 35% (i.e., no less than 35% * $94,841.11 = $33,194.39) to Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA law governing Plaintiff's claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 21.)

7. Individual PAGA Payments. Each Aggrieved Employee will be entitled to his or her pro rata amount from the 35% share of PAGA Penalties that is directly proportional to the number of pay periods worked in the PAGA Period without having to submit any claim form. (Settlement, ¶¶ 1.14, 3.1, 3.1.3.1.) This results in an average Individual PAGA Payment of roughly $189.68 for each of the estimated 175 Aggrieved Employees ($33,194.39 / 175), and a PAGA Pay Period value of $6.64 for each of the 5,000 estimated PAGA Pay Periods ($33,194.39 / 5,000). The Individual PAGA Payments shall be allocated 100% as penalties. (See id. at ¶ 3.1.3.1; Moon Decl., ¶ 22.)

8. Releases of Claims. Effective on the date Defendant fully funds the Gross Settlement Amount, Plaintiff and the LWDA and its respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, administrators, successors, and assigns, will be deemed to release the Released Parties from (i) all PAGA claims asserted in the operative Complaint and PAGA Notice(s), (ii) all PAGA claims that could have reasonably been asserted in the operative Complaint and PAGA Notice(s) based on the facts alleged, and (iii) all PAGA claims arising out of the same operative facts alleged in the operative Complaint and PAGA Notice, including claims for civil penalties under PAGA for violations of the California Labor Code. (Settlement, ¶ 5.1.)

9. No Related Cases. To the best of the Plaintiff's knowledge, there is no other pending litigation involving similar claims against Defendant that may be impacted by approval of the Settlement at issue, nor has Defendant pointed to any. (Moon Decl., ¶ 24.) Plaintiff's Counsel came to this

3 III. DISCUSSION

4 A. Availability of Civil Penalties

5 The LWDA and its constituent departments and divisions are authorized to assess and collect civil 6 penalties for specified violations of the Labor Code committed by an employer. With a stated goal of 7 improving enforcement of existing Labor Code obligations, the California Legislature adopted the Private 8 Attorneys General Act of 2004, permitting, as an alternative, an aggrieved employee to initiate a private 9 civil action on behalf of him- or herself and other current or former employees.” (Lab. Code § 2699(a).)
10 Before an employee may file an action seeking to recover civil penalties for violations of any of the Labor
11 Code provisions enumerated in Labor Code section 2699.5, he or she must comply with the Act’s 12 administrative procedures as set forth in Labor Code section 2699.3, subdivision (a), which include 13 providing notice to the LWDA and the employer of the alleged Labor Code violations, and then waiting 14 a prescribed period of time to permit the LWDA to investigate and to decide whether to cite the employer 15 for the alleged violations. (Id. at §§ 2699.3, 2699.5; Caliber Bodyworks, Inc. v. Superior 16 Court (2005) 134 Cal.App.4th 365, 370; see also Dunlap v. Superior Court (2006) 142
17 Cal.App.4th 330.)

18 Here, in compliance with Labor Code section 2699.3, Plaintiff submitted notice of the 19 Labor Code violations at issue to the LWDA, and she exhausted administrative remedies without 20 the LWDA noticing any intent to investigate the claims. (Moon Decl., ¶ 7, Ex. 2.) Accordingly, 21 Plaintiff is duly authorized to act as a private attorney general pursuant to PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 7.)

22 B. The Settlement Merits Approval

23 Settlement of PAGA claims must be approved by a Court. (Lab. Code § 2699(s)(2).) Here, the 24 circumstances weigh heavily in favor of approval, as explained below.

25 1. The Relief Is Genuine, Meaningful, and Consistent with the Dual Statutory Purposes 26 of Deterrence and Punishment under PAGA

27 The $197,000.00 GSA amounts to “genuine and meaningful” relief “consistent with the 28 underlying purpose of the statute to benefit the public.” (Moon Decl., ¶ 34; see O’Connor, 201

1 F.Supp.3d at 1133–35 [denying settlement approval where allocation for PAGA claims was 0.1% of 2 the estimated full worth].) This is an excellent result, particularly because, under the Settlement, 3 Aggrieved Employees and the LWDA will receive timely, guaranteed relief and will avoid the risk of 4 not being able to recover anything at all. (Moon Decl., ¶ 34.)

5 The Settlement is a fair and reasonable resolution that satisfies PAGA’s dual statutory 6 purposes of deterrence and punishment, on the one hand, and providing Aggrieved Employees 7 with genuine and meaningful relief, on the other. (Lab. Code §§ 2698, et seq.) As a result of this 8 litigation, Defendant has had to hire legal counsel, engage in employee-wide discovery, and 9 participate in mediation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Assuming approval is granted, Defendant will also have 10 to pay civil penalties pursuant to PAGA. (Id.) Not including its own attorneys’ fees and costs, 11 Defendant will pay at least $197,000.00 to resolve this matter—of which at least $94,841.11 is 12 allocated toward PAGA Penalties and will be distributed as 65% to the LWDA and 35% to Aggrieved 13 Employees, in compliance with PAGA law governing the claims in this Action. (See Settlement, ¶¶ 14 1.25, 3.1.3.) This amount represents roughly 38% of the realistic exposure for the claims ($94,841.11 15 / $250,000.00), as discussed below. (Moon Decl., ¶ 35.) Additionally, the release obtained under the 16 Settlement does not preclude Aggrieved Employees from pursuing any individual (non-PAGA) 17 claims they may have against Defendant or the other Released Parties.

18 2. The Settlement Amount Provides a Realistic Value for the Claims that is within the 19 “Ballpark” of Reasonableness

20 There can be no doubt that this Settlement is the result of vigorous, adversarial, non-collusive, and 21 arm’s-length negotiations between the Parties. (Moon Decl., ¶ 13.) Plaintiff’s Counsel performed an 22 extensive investigation into the facts, claims, and defenses at issue and Defendant’s potential liability, 23 including a review of governing law and analysis of informal discovery, including Defendant’s written 24 policies and time/pay data for a majority of Aggrieved Employees. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–12.) Plaintiff’s Counsel 25 used the foregoing discovery and investigation to prepare for mediation and, with the assistance of a 26 statistics expert, assessed the probability of success on the merits and Defendant’s monetary exposure, 27 discussed the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and defenses in depth at mediation and months of 28 continued negotiations, and ultimately negotiated the resulting Settlement. (Id. at ¶¶ 11–14.)

1 Based on Plaintiff's Counsel's analysis of the arguments and information provided by Defendant, 2 on an expert analysis of the time/pay records, and on information from Plaintiff, Plaintiff's Counsel 3 evaluated Defendant's both maximum (optimistic) and risk-adjusted (realistic) potential exposure in 4 preparation for mediation. (Id. at ¶ 25.) Although the expert's analysis revealed that the time and pay 5 records supported several violations by Defendant, those identifiable violations were primarily limited to 6 the regular rate, rest break, and meal period claims. (Id.) The records themselves did not provide strong 7 support for the off-the-clock work and expense reimbursement claims, and derivative penalties for those 8 claims, as these claims are predominantly testimony based. (Id.) In other words, Plaintiff's analysis 9 revealed that certain claims were not as strong as originally believed. (Id.)

10 Because Defendant did not require employees to record rest periods, there are no records to 11 establish the rest period claim on the merits. (Id. at ¶ 26.) Additionally, there are no records to establish 12 the off-the-clock work and reimbursement claims on the merits. (Id.) Rather, proof of these claims would 13 need to be supported by declarations from Aggrieved Employees regarding missed rest periods and off-14 the-clock work as the records themselves cannot demonstrate what breaks were missed, when, and why, 15 what expenses were incurred by Aggrieved Employees, and they cannot demonstrate the time, if any, 16 Aggrieved Employees spent working off the clock. (Id.)

17 Indeed, the maximum exposure figures that were calculated for mediation were based on assumed 18 high violation rates that would not likely be demonstrated at trial, as they assume either the participation 19 of all Aggrieved Employees (which would be difficult given the size of this group), or alternatively, the 20 use of surveys or statistical data as a surrogate (which would still require the participation of a majority 21 of Aggrieved Employees to establish a sound representation of all non-exempt employees). (Id. at ¶ 27.)
22 The reality is that many, if not all, employees would be unwilling to participate due to fear of retaliation.
23 (Id.) However, even assuming those employees would be willing to participate, obtaining such 24 declarations would potentially reveal that each Aggrieved Employee had a different experience. (Id.)
25 The individualized nature of their employment experience and the numerosity of employees affected 26 present significant risk with manageability and proof on the merits. (Id.)

27 Even as to the regular rate and meal period claims, our analysis found that Defendant's exposure 28 is less than initially believed. (Id. at ¶ 28.) While a review of the time and pay records shows 44.9% unique

1 meal break violations for shifts over five hours, the records also show that nearly each violation was 2 accompanied by a meal waiver (i.e., 43.1% of meal break violations for shifts over 6 hours have waivers).
3 (Id.) Defendant argues that its payment of meal premiums and use of meal waivers indicate that it did not 4 intentionally fail to provide PAGA Employees with meal breaks. (Id.) Defendant also argues that many 5 meal breaks were taken and, where a violation appears, it was a result of the Aggrieved Employee 6 voluntarily choosing to forego a meal period, to take it after the end of the fifth hour, or to stop his or her
7 break early to return to work. (Id.) As to the regular rate issue, Plaintiff's expert found that while 40.6% 8 of pay periods included overtime and additional compensation, only 1.9% of pay periods included sick 9 pay and additional compensation. (Id.) Accordingly, to the extent Defendant failed to incorporate any 10 additional remunerations into the regular rate of pay for purposes of paying overtime and sick pay, which 11 Defendant denies, such failure resulted in minimal underpayment to the Aggrieved Employees. (Id.)
12 Additionally, the violation rates assume that the bonuses were non-discretionary, which Defendant 13 disputes. (Id.)

14 The likelihood that Defendant could assert viable legal defenses would likely further reduce its 15 overall exposure. (Id. at ¶ 29.) For example, the individualized and testimony-intensive nature of the 16 claims could bar manageability of this representative action or otherwise significantly reduce Defendant's 17 overall liability. (Id.) Further, a claim-by-claim penalty calculation is overly optimistic as it presumes 18 Plaintiff would be able to stack the penalties, although penalty stacking is not expressly permitted by 19 PAGA. (Id. at ¶ 30.) Rather, without either (i) a prior finding by the LWDA or a court within the past five 20 years that the employer violated PAGA or (ii) evidence that the employer's conduct was malicious, 21 fraudulent, or oppressive, PAGA only provides for a maximum $100 penalty for each pay period. (Lab.
22 Code § 2699(f)(2)(A)–(B).) Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel believe it would be unrealistic to expect the 23 Court to award the full (penalty-stacked) exposure given the discretionary nature of awarding penalties 24 and given Defendant's defenses, including that any failure to pay premiums, regular rate wages, or for 25 off-the-clock work was not knowingly or willfully done, and additionally, to the extent employees 26 received wage statements that were allegedly inaccurate, employees suffered no actual resulting damage
27 or harm. (Moon Decl., ¶ 30.) Moreover, awarding the full penalties amount would likely raise Due Process 28 concerns. (Id.) For the foregoing reasons, the realistic exposure is thus far below the optimistic claim by

1 claim estimate. (Id. at ¶ 31.)

2 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff’s Counsel believe it is more reasonable to assess penalties on a 3 $100.00 civil penalty per pay period basis pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(f)(2)(A) for each of the 4 estimated 5,000 pay periods at issue, as opposed to a claim-by-claim approach. (Id. at ¶ 32.)
5 Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel estimate Defendant’s maximum PAGA exposure to be $500,000.00
6 ($100.00 x 5,000). (Id.) However, based on the discovery, Defendant’s arguments at mediations and 7 continued settlement discussions, an understanding that the claims are heavily dependent on the 8 unlikely participation by Aggrieved Employees and their varying employment experience, and other 9 important considerations discussed above, it is reasonable to assume a violation occurred in at most half 10 of all pay periods, which results in a realistic (risk-adjusted) exposure of $250,000.00 ($500,000.00 / 11 2). (Id.) As a result, the GSA of $197,000.00 represents approximately 79% of the realistic exposure
12 ($197,000.00 / $250,000.00). (Id.)

13 The proposed Settlement therefore represents a substantial recovery when compared to the 14 reasonably forecasted recovery. (Id. at ¶ 33.) When considering the risks of litigation, the uncertainties 15 involved in continued litigation, the burdens of proof necessary to establish liability, and the probability 16 of appeal, it is clear the GSA of $197,000.00 is within the “ballpark” of reasonableness, and that settlement 17 approval is appropriate. (Id.; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133; see 18 Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of L.A. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408–09 [holding that Kullar 19 does not require “an explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could recover if it 20 prevailed on all its claims,” but instead, only an “understanding of the amount that is in controversy and 21 the realistic range of outcomes of the litigation”].)

22 3. The Settlement Is a Fair and Reasonable Result Following a Thorough Investigation
23 and Accounting of Various Litigation Risks

24 Plaintiff’s Counsel have conducted a thorough investigation into the facts of the allegations.
25 (Moon Decl., ¶ 36.) Based on the foregoing discovery and on their own independent investigation and 26 evaluation, Plaintiff’s Counsel are of the opinion that the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and 27 adequate. (Id.) Furthermore, considering all known facts and circumstances, the risk of significant 28 delay, trial risk, appellate risk, the defenses that could be asserted by Defendant on the merits, the

1 Settlement is in the best interests of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California. (Id.)

2 Although Plaintiff's Counsel believe there is merit to Plaintiff's allegations, they also 3 acknowledge a legitimate controversy exists as to each allegation. (Id. at ¶ 37.) Plaintiff's Counsel 4 also recognize that proving the amounts of penalties owed to each Aggrieved Employee would 5 be an expensive, time-consuming, and uncertain proposition. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff's Counsel 6 are also of the opinion that because the issues here are fairly contested, there is a possibility of 7 the Court not awarding PAGA penalties even if Plaintiff prevailed on the merits due to the 8 largely discretionary nature of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 38.) Indeed, a Court may reduce 9 PAGA penalties "if, based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would 10 result in an award that is unjust, arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory." (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) 11 In other words, were this matter to go to trial, any award granted would be at the discretion of 12 the Court and subject to a substantial reduction. (Moon Decl., ¶ 38.) While Plaintiff's Counsel 13 believe there would be no persuasive grounds to reduce penalties, they recognize that the Court could 14 determine otherwise and significantly reduce any award of penalties. (Id. at ¶ 39.) This wide range of 15 potential recovery and additional delays and risks of trial provide justification to settle for a reasonable 16 amount of recovery at this point in the litigation. (Id.) In all, based on the investigation and analysis of 17 the claims in preparation for mediation, the maximum exposure did not comport with the realistic 18 exposure that Defendant faced, as discussed above. (Id.)

19 Plaintiff's Counsel took into account the risk of not being able to proceed on a representative 20 basis at all due to the potential manageability issues, the risk of not prevailing at trial, and the risk that 21 even if Plaintiff prevailed at trial, the penalties would be limited due to the largely discretionary nature
22 of awarding PAGA penalties. (Id. at ¶ 40.) The provisions of the Labor Code triggering PAGA
23 penalties in this case include Labor Code sections 203, 210, 226, 558, 1197.1, and 2802. (Id.)
24 However, PAGA penalties are not mandatory, but rather, permissive. (Lab. Code § 2699(e)(2).) 25 Accordingly, it is entirely possible that even if Plaintiff would be successful at trial, assuming she is 26 first able to win on the merits regarding her individual claims at arbitration and then defeat the 27 manageability issues presented at litigation by the number of Aggrieved Employees in this action, 28 Plaintiff may still be awarded substantially less than what was obtained through the Settlement.

1 (Moon Decl., ¶ 40.)

2 The Settlement avoids the significant risks, burdens, and the accompanying expense of further 3 litigation. (Id. at ¶ 41.) Though the Parties have engaged in a significant amount of investigation, 4 informal discovery, and employee data analysis, they have not conducted formal discovery
5 procedures. (Id.) Moreover, Plaintiff would have to proceed with arbitration of her individual claims 6 and win on the merits before proceeding with litigation of the representative PAGA claims. (Id.) 7 Preparation for trial and the prospect of appeals in the wake of any summary judgment ruling would 8 remain for the Parties. (Id.) As a result, the Parties would incur considerably more attorneys’ fees and 9 costs through trial, a lengthy and uncertain process that could result in recovering less than was settled
10 for. (Id.)

11 C. The Enhancement Award to Plaintiff Is Reasonable and Should Be Approved

12 Service awards are particularly important to plaintiffs in wage and hour cases because they 13 promote the important public policies underlying the wage and hour laws. This strong policy is codified 14 in California Labor Code section 90.5, which provides, “[i]t is the policy of this state to vigorously 15 enforce minimum labor standards in order to ensure employees are not required or permitted to work 16 under substandard unlawful conditions . . .” (Lab. Code § 90.5.) Nonetheless, the California Supreme 17 Court has noted that “retaliation against employees for asserting statutory rights under the Labor Code 18 is widespread,” despite anti-retaliation statutes designed to protect employees. (Gentry v. Super. Ct.
19 (2007) 42 Cal.4th 443, 460–61.) In this context, PAGA representatives should be rewarded for 20 assuming the risk of retaliation for the sake of aggrieved employees.

21 Here, in line with the Settlement and subject to the Court’s approval, Plaintiff requests an 22 Enhancement Award of $6,000.00. (Settlement, ¶ 3.1.4; Declaration of Plaintiff Tonya Brock in 23 Support of Motion for Approval of PAGA Settlement [“Plaintiff Decl.”], ¶ 13.) Plaintiff and her 24 Counsel respectfully submit that the requested enhancement is reasonable in recognition of Plaintiff’s 25 role as the named Plaintiff and PAGA Representative, for the risks to future employment inherent in 26 undertaking this role and for her service and participation in litigation that resulted in a fair settlement
27 under PAGA. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 42–45; Plaintiff Decl., ¶¶ 6–11.)

1 D. The Requested Attorneys' Fees/Costs Are Reasonable and Should Be Approved

2 In line with the Settlement, my firm requests an award of attorneys' fees in an amount of 3 one third of the GSA (i.e., $65,666.66), plus reimbursement for actual litigation costs in the 4 amount of $24,492.23. (Moon Decl., ¶ 75; See Settlement, ¶ 3.1.1.)

5 1. Plaintiff's Counsel Request an Award of Fees Based on the Common Fund Method

6 California courts have long awarded attorneys' fees as a percentage of the benefit created by 7 counsel in pursuing claims on behalf of a class. (See, e.g., Serrano v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25.) The 8 California Supreme Court has held, "when a number of persons are entitled in common to a specific fund, 9 and an action brought by a plaintiff or plaintiffs for the benefit of all results in the creation or preservation 10 of that fund, such plaintiff or plaintiffs may be awarded attorney's fees out of the fund." (Id. at p. 34.)

11 Here, Plaintiff's Counsel seek an award of attorneys' fees on the "percentage of recovery/common 12 fund" theory. (Moon Decl., ¶ 76.) The purpose of this approach is to "spread litigation costs 13 proportionately among all the beneficiaries so that the active beneficiary does not bear the entire burden 14 alone." (Vincent v. Hughes Air W., Inc. (9th Cir. 1977) 557 F.2d 759, 769.) In Quinn v. State of Cal.
15 (1975) 15 Cal.3d 162, the California Supreme Court stated, "one who expends attorneys' fees in winning 16 a suit which creates a fund from which others derive benefits, may require those passive beneficiaries to 17 bear a fair share of the litigation costs." (Id. at p. 167.) Similarly, in City and County of San Francisco v.
18 Sweet (1995) 12 Cal.4th 105, the California Supreme Court recognized that the common fund doctrine 19 has been applied "consistently in California when an action brought by one party creates a fund in which 20 other persons[] are entitled to share." (Id. at pp. 110–11 [pincite omitted].) The reasons for applying this 21 doctrine include:

22 fairness to the successful litigant, who might otherwise receive no benefit because his 23 recovery might be consumed by the expenses; correlative prevention of an unfair 24 advantage to the others who are entitled to share in the fund and who should bear their 25 share of the burden of its recovery; encouragement of the attorney for the successful litigant, who will be more willing to undertake and diligently prosecute proper litigation for the protection or recovery of the fund if he is assured that he will be properly and directly compensated should his efforts be successful.

26 (Id. at p. 111.)

27 Several courts have expressed frustration with the alternative "lodestar" approach for deciding fee 28 awards, which usually involves wading through voluminous and often indecipherable time records.

1 Commenting on the lodestar approach, Chief Judge Marilyn Hall Patel wrote in In re Activision Securities
2 Litigation (N.D. Cal. 1989) 723 F.Supp.1373:

3 This court is compelled to ask, “Is this process necessary?” Under a cost-benefit 4 analysis, the answer would be a resounding, “No!” Not only do the Lindy and Kerr-
5 Johnson analyses consume an undue amount of court time with little resulting advantage 6 to anyone, but, in fact, it may be to the detriment of the class members.

7 (Id. at p. 1375 [emphasis added].) The percentage approach is preferable to the lodestar because: (1) it 8 aligns the interests of class counsel and absent class members; (2) it encourages efficient resolution of the 9 litigation by providing an incentive for early, yet reasonable, settlement; and (3) it reduces the demands 10 on judicial resources. (Id. at pp. 1378–79.) California Courts now routinely use the percentage of the 11 common fund approach to determine the award of attorney’s fees. (See, e.g., In re Pac. Enter. Sec.
12 Litig. (9th Cir. 1995) 47 F.3d 373, 378–79 [approving attorneys’ fee award of 33%.])

13 2. The Matter Involves a Fee and Cost Shifting Provision under PAGA

14 Labor Code section 2699 provides for the recovery reasonable attorney’s fees as well as costs of 15 suit. (Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Specifically, it states: “Any employee who prevails in any [PAGA] action 16 shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs . . .” (Id.) Under this provision, 17 Plaintiff would be permitted to recover her actual attorneys’ fees, even if those fees were larger than the 18 total recovery for the Aggrieved Employees at the conclusion of this case. (Id.) This fee/cost-shifting 19 provision reflects the understanding that Plaintiff’s Counsel must accept significant risk of substantial 20 expenses and consumption of time, energy, and other resources in litigating a PAGA claim, and thus, that 21 Plaintiff’s Counsel is not only permitted, but entitled, to recover reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs if 22 successful in litigating a PAGA claim.

23 The Settlement at issue is beneficial in that it limits the risk of continued expenses and 24 consumption of time, energy, and resources facing Defendant while at the same time rewarding Plaintiff’s 25 Counsel for their decision to assume risk by taking on this matter. In fact, prosecution of this action 26 involved significant financial risk for Plaintiff’s Counsel who undertook this matter on a contingent basis, 27 with no guarantee of recovery. (Moon Decl., ¶¶ 80–83.) Once Plaintiff’s Counsel undertook this litigation 28 on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees, they committed to pursue it to its conclusion, and were accordingly precluded from focusing on, or taking on, other cases which could have resulted in a larger, and less risky, monetary gain. (Id. at ¶ 82.)

3. Counsel's Experience, Reputation, and Ability Support the Requested Fee Award

As demonstrated by their prior experience in pursuing class and representative actions on behalf of employees, Plaintiff's Counsel possess considerable expertise in litigating class action and representative matters. (Id. at ¶¶ 46–72.) Plaintiff's Counsel have been involved as lead counsel or co-counsel in a multitude of class and representative actions resulting in beneficial results to class members and aggrieved employees in California. (Id.) Because it is reasonable to compensate Plaintiff's Counsel commensurate with their skill, reputation, and experience, the requested fee award is supported here.

Plaintiff's Counsel's experience in wage-and-hour class and representative actions was integral in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case against Defendant and the reasonableness of this Settlement. (Id. at ¶ 73.) Practice in the narrow field of wage-and-hour litigation requires skill and knowledge concerning the rapidly evolving substantive law (state and federal), as well as the procedural law of representative action litigation. (Id. at ¶ 70.) Based on these and other factors, Plaintiff's Counsel have frequently received fee awards of this percentage from the gross recovery for aggrieved employees. (See id. at ¶¶ 50, 55, 56.) Thus, the requested fee award is reasonable and fair.

4. While the Lodestar Method Is Not Necessary in Common Fund Cases, the Court May Perform a Cross-Check to Award Fees

“Despite its primacy, the lodestar method is not necessarily utilized in common fund cases.” (Lealao v. Beneficial Cal., Inc. (2000) 82 Cal.App.4th 19, 27.) Courts have criticized the lodestar method as a drain on the judicial system and a disincentive on attorneys to take on high-risk, challenging cases. (Id. at p. 29.) Indeed, the lodestar approach: “(1) ‘increases the workload of an already overtaxed judicial system,’ (2) is ‘insufficiently objective and produce[s] results that are far from homogenous,’ (3) ‘creates a sense of mathematical precision that is unwarranted in terms of the realities of the practice of law,’ (4) ‘is subject to manipulation by judges who prefer to calibrate fees in terms of percentages of the settlement fund or the amounts recovered by the plaintiffs or of an overall dollar amount,’ (5) ‘encourages lawyers to expend excessive hours, and . . . engage in duplicative and unjustified work,’ (6) ‘creates a disincentive for the early settlement of cases,’ (7) deprives trial courts of ‘flexibility to reward or deter lawyers so that desirable objectives, such as early settlement, will be fostered,’ (8) ‘works to the particular disadvantage of the public interest bar,’ and (9) results in ‘confusion and lack of predictability.’” (Id. [quoting Third Circuit Task Force, Court Awarded Attorney Fees (1985) 108 F.R.D. 237, 246–49].)

Although California Courts support the common fund doctrine, the lodestar method can be used to cross-check fee awards. “It may be appropriate in some cases, assuming the class benefit can be monetized with a reasonable degree of certainty, to ‘cross-check’ or adjust the lodestar in comparison to a percentage of the common fund to ensure that the fee awarded is reasonable and within the range of fees freely negotiated in the legal marketplace in comparable litigation.” (In re Consumer Privacy Cases (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 545, 557 [quoting Lealao, supra, 82 Cal.App.4th at pp. 49–50].) Applying the lodestar method is a two-step process. The first step is to multiply the number of hours reasonably expended by a reasonable hourly rate, and the second step is to apply a multiplier to the lodestar to account for various factors. (Id. at p. 556.) “The purpose of such adjustment is to fix a fee at the fair market value for the particular action. In effect, the court determines, retrospectively, whether the litigation involved a contingent risk or required extraordinary legal skill justifying augmentation of the unadorned lodestar in order to approximate the fair market rate for such services.” (Id.) “Under certain circumstances, a lodestar calculation may be enhanced on the basis of a percentage-of-the-benefit analysis.” (Id. at pp. 556–57.)

Further, “California case law permits fee awards in the absence of detailed time sheets.” (Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 255.) The Court “should defer to the winning lawyer’s professional judgment as to how much time he was required to spend on the case.” (Moreno v. City of Sacramento (9th Cir. 2008) 534 F.3d 1106, 1112.) Generally, hours are reasonable if they were “reasonably expended in pursuit of the ultimate result achieved in the same manner that an attorney traditionally is compensated by a fee-paying client.” (Hensley v. Eckerhart (1983) 461 U.S. 424, 431.)

Here, Plaintiff’s Counsel current lodestar is no less than $68,435.50.00, which is based on no less than 81.2 hours of attorney time spent to-date at their customary hourly rates. (Moon Decl., ¶ 77.) Thus, in comparison to this lodestar, the fee request represents a negative multiplier. (Id. at ¶ 80(c).) Although application of a positive multiplier would be warranted in this case, none is requested. (Id. at ¶¶ 79-80.) In other words, the lodestar is greater than the attorneys' fee request. (Id. at ¶ 80(c).). Further, the foregoing lodestar does not reflect additional works that will be devoted to this litigation, including to obtain and monitor approval of the Settlement and requested awards, oversee the settlement administration process and distribution of funds, respond to inquiries, and communicate with Plaintiff regarding the case. (Id. at ¶ 78.) The amount of fees requested under the Settlement is warranted based on the contingent risk that Plaintiff's Counsel incurred, the difficulty of the questions involved, the substantial benefit conferred on the Aggrieved Employees and State of California as a result of the Settlement, and the skill displayed by Plaintiff's Counsel. (Id. at ¶ 80.) Plaintiff's Counsel also bear the risk of taking whatever actions are necessary if Defendant fails to pay. (Id. at ¶ 78.) Thus, the request for attorneys' fees is more than reasonable under a lodestar check.

5. Plaintiff's Counsel's Costs Were Actually and Reasonably Incurred

Winning counsel are entitled to recover the out-of-pocket costs and expenses they reasonably incurred in investigating, prosecuting, and settling a case. (Staton v. Boeing Co. (9th Cir. 2003) 327 F.3d 938, 974; Lab. Code § 2699(k)(1).) Here, Plaintiff's Counsel seek reimbursement in the total amount of $24,492.23 for expenses that were actually and reasonably incurred in this litigation. (Moon Decl., ¶ 86, Ex. 4.) Moreover, this amount is below the maximum allocation under the Settlement and thus, the remainder ($5,507.77) will revert to the PAGA Penalties. (Id. at ¶ 86; Settlement, ¶ 3.1.1.) Thus, costs should be reimbursed in full.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court grant approval of the Settlement and enter the proposed approval order and proposed judgment submitted herewith.

Respectfully submitted,
