DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff TANIA RAMIREZ MARTINEZ, (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) on behalf of herself and 2 all others similarly situated (collectively, “Employees”; individually, “Employee”) complains of 3 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all current and former 6 Employees within the State of California who, at any time four (4) years prior to the filing of this
7 lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt, hourly employees by Defendants SEASIDE
8 DINING GROUP, INC., a California corporation; and DOES 1 through 50 (all defendants being 9 collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”). Plaintiff alleges that Defendants, and each of 10 them, violated various provisions of the California Labor Code, relevant orders of the Industrial 11 Welfare Commission (IWC) and California Business & Professions Code, and seeks redress 12 therefore.

13 2. Plaintiff is a resident of California and during the time period relevant to this 14 Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within the State of 15 California at Defendants’ facilities and offices in California. Plaintiff and the other Class members
16 worked for Defendants in Los Angeles County, and in other nonexempt positions, throughout 17 California and, and consistently worked at Defendants’ behest without being paid all wages due.
18 More specifically, Plaintiff and the other similarly situated Class members were employed by 19 Defendants and worked at Defendants’ offices and other facilities where the conduct giving rise to 20 the allegations in this Class Action Complaint occurred. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff 21 was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities, (2) was 22 subjected to the same policies and practices, and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of 23 Defendants as the other Employee Class members who served in similar and related positions.

24 3. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class to perform work
25 while remaining under Defendants’ control before and after being on the clock for their daily work
26 shift. Defendants thus failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours worked and 27 provided them with inaccurate wage statements that prevented Plaintiff and the Class from 28 learning of these unlawful pay practices. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class

1 with lawful meal and rest periods, as employees were not provided with the opportunity to take
2 timely, uninterrupted, and duty-free meal and rest periods as required by the Labor Code.

3 THE PARTIES

4 A. The Plaintiff

5 4. Plaintiff TANIA RAMIREZ MARTINEZ has resided in California and during the 6 time period relevant to this Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly
7 employee within the State of California.

8 B. The Defendants

9 5. Defendant SEASIDE DINING GROUP, INC. is a California corporation with its 10 principle executive offices in Aliso Viejo, California and has been listed as the employer on 11 Plaintiff's paystubs, wage statements, and personnel file during the relevant time period.
12 SEASIDE DINING GROUP, INC. lists a mailing address in Aliso Viejo, California, with the 13 California Secretary of State and employs Plaintiff and the Class members at Defendants' offices
14 and facilities in Rowland Heights, California, and throughout California and conducts business
15 throughout California.

16 6. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 17 whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently 18 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of 19 Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants 20 designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in 21 some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend 22 this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as 23 Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

24 7. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in 25 all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried 26 out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of 27 each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in 28 all respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them,

1 exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or 2 permitted Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment
3 relationship, with Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly 4 employed Employees.

5 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6 8. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil 7 Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought 8 as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Employees of Defendants pursuant to California
9 Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial district
10 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, the 11 obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred at least in part in Los Angeles
12 County and Defendants maintain and operate company offices and facilities in Los Angeles
13 County, and employ Plaintiff and other Class members in Los Angeles County and throughout 14 California.

15 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

16 9. The Employees who comprise the Class and Collective, including Plaintiff, are 17 nonexempt employees pursuant to the applicable Wage Order of the IWC. Defendants hire 18 Employees who work in nonexempt positions at the direction of Defendants in the State of 19 California. Plaintiff and the Class members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours
20 worked or were not paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Specifically,
21 Plaintiff and Employees were not paid for the time that they worked “pre-shift” and “post-shift” 22 without compensation by being required to put on uniforms, such as aprons, before clocking in 23 and being required to take off uniforms after clocking out. Furthermore, Defendants had a
24 consistent policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Class members to continue completing 25 work tasks and cleaning after clocking out. Plaintiff also contends that Defendants failed to pay
26 Plaintiff and the Class members all wages due and owing, failed to provide meal and rest breaks, 27 and failed to furnish accurate wage statements, all in violation of various provisions of the 28 California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

1 10. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 2 continuing to the present, Defendants' policies and practices required Employees to call in or 3 show up to work but were not put to work or worked less than half said employee's usual or 4 scheduled day's work. On such days when Defendants required Plaintiff and the Class members to 5 report to work only to be sent home, they were not paid half of said Employees' usual or 6 scheduled day's work in violation of California law.

7 11. During the course of Plaintiff and the Class members' employment with 8 Defendants, they were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed and 9 for all overtime hours worked and were forced to work during their meal and rest breaks.
10 Defendants also failed to maintain timekeeping records for Plaintiff that would permit her to 11 discover the nature and extent of Defendants' unlawful timekeeping practices.

12 12. As a matter of uniform Company policy, Plaintiff and the Class members were 13 required to work during their meal and rest breaks which were not compensated by Defendants in 14 violation of the California Labor Code. Plaintiff and the Class members were also not paid
15 regular wages and overtime for the time they were required to comply with other requirements
16 imposed upon them, which they had to complete while working through their meal and rest
17 breaks and without compensation. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked shifts over 18 eight (8) hours in a day and over forty (40) hours in a work week, but they were not paid at the 19 appropriate overtime rate for all such hours, including by being required to perform work duties
20 and tasks without pay and while off-the-clock. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members 21 worked substantial overtime hours during their employment with Defendants for which they were 22 not compensated, in violation of the California Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

23 13. As a result of the above described daily work demands, pressures to work through 24 breaks, and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants' hands, Plaintiff and the Class 25 members were not properly paid for all wages earned and for all wages owed to them by 26 Defendants, including when working more than eight (8) hours in any given day and/or more than 27 forty (40) hours in any given week. As a result of Defendants' unlawful policies and practices,
28 Plaintiff and Class members incurred overtime hours worked for which they were not adequately

1 and completely compensated. To the extent applicable, Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and 2 the Class members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for the first eight hours of the 3 seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime payments at the rate of 2 times the regular 4 rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh consecutive work day, as required under the 5 Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

6 14. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
7 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
8 Employees for all hours worked and failing to pay minimum wage for all time worked as required
9 by California Law.

10 15. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
11 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
12 Employees overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all hours worked in excess of 13 eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time rates for all hours worked in 14 excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510 and the corresponding 15 sections of IWC Wage Orders.

16 16. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 17 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy and practice of failing to pay
18 Plaintiff and Class members all the tips they earned. Specifically, Defendants or their agents
19 would take a portion of the tips and gratuities earned by Plaintiff and Class members. As a result,
20 Plaintiff and the Class members were not paid for all their tips and gratuities in violation of Labor
21 Code § 351.

22 17. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and 23 continuing to the present, Defendants have regularly required Employees to work shifts in excess 24 of five (5) hours without providing them with uninterrupted meal periods of not less than thirty 25 (30) minutes and shifts in excess of ten (10) hours without providing them with second meal
26 periods of not less than thirty minutes. Specifically, Defendants had a consistent policy and 27 practice of instructing Employees to clock out for meal periods and continue working. Defendants
28 also failed to pay Employees “premium pay,” i.e. one hour of wages at each Employee’s effective

1 regular rate of pay, for each meal period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

2 18. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 3 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with paid rest breaks of not less
4 than ten (10) minutes for every work period of four (4) or more consecutive hours; nor did
5 Defendants pay Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not 6 provided or were deficiently provided at one hour of wages at each Employee's effective regular 7 rate of pay, for each rest period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

8 19. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
9 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
10 accurate, and itemized wage statements as required by California wage-and-hour laws.
11 Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees by Defendants failed to accurately account 12 for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal periods and rest breaks all of which 13 Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were owed to Employees, as alleged 14 hereinabove. The wage statements provided to Employees were confusing and required 15 Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was 16 correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees.

17 20. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and
18 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
19 accurate, and itemized wage statements, in writing, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

20 21. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 21 present, Defendants have failed to reimburse Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the 22 performance of their job duties for Defendants, including pens, which were necessary to perform
23 their duties under Defendants' employ in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

24 22. Additionally, from at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 25 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to keep accurate time and wage 26 records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

27 23. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to filing of this lawsuit and 28 continuing to the present, Defendants have unlawfully collected/received wages from Employees

1 in violation of Labor Code § 221.

2 24. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing
3 to the present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages fur and owed to 4 Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as 5 required by California wage-and-hour laws.

6 25. In light of the foregoing, Employees bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor
7 Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 221, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 351, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 8 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802.

9 26. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, 10 Employees seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have 11 enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code.

12 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

13 27. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated 14 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as follows:
15 all individuals employed by Defendants within the State of California at any time within four (4)
16 years of the filing of this lawsuit.

17 28. Further, Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Subclasses composed of and 18 defined as follows:

19 a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not 20 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.

21 b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class members who were not 22 compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all 23 hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.

24 c. Subclass 3. Recovery of Reporting Time Pay. All Class members who were subject
25 to Defendants' policy and/or practice of not compensating reporting time pay.

26 d. Subclass 4. Meal Period Subclass. All Class members who were subject to 27 Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to provide unpaid 30-minute uninterrupted and duty-
28 free meal periods or one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

e. Subclass 5. Rest Break Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Employees to take uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.

f. Subclass 6. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

g. Subclass 7. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.

h. Subclass 8. Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' failure to reimburse for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of Employees job duties for Defendants.

i. Subclass 9. Unauthorized Deductions from Wages Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of automatically deducting wages from Employee's pay checks.

j. Subclass 10. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon termination.

k. Subclass 11. UCL Subclass. All Class members who are owed restitution as a result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

29. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

30. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

1 A. Numerosity

2 31. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all
3 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class members has not been 4 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 5 time period relevant to this lawsuit, employed more than 100 individuals within the State of 6 California.

7 32. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 8 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 9 information as to the number and location of all class members.

10 B. Commonality

11 33. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any 12 questions affecting only individual class members. These common questions of law and fact 13 include:

- 14 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages;
- 15 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees wages for all hours worked;
- 16 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees overtime as required under Labor
17 Code § 510;
- 18 d. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees reporting time pay;
- 19 e. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512, and the applicable
20 IWC Wage Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite meal periods or 21 premium pay in lieu thereof;
- 22 f. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage
23 Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite rest breaks or premium pay 24 in lieu thereof;
- 25 g. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a);
- 26 h. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;
- 27 i. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Employees for necessary business 28 expenses;

- j. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 221 by automatically deducting/collecting wages from Employees;
- k. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- l. Whether Defendants are liable for penalties under Labor Code § 2699, et seq.;
- m. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and
- n. Whether Employees are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

C. Typicality

34. The claims of the named plaintiff are typical of those of the other Employees. Employees all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of law, as alleged herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

35. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Employees. Counsel who represents Employees are experienced and competent in litigating employment class actions.

E. Superiority of Class Action

36. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Employees is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to all Employees predominate over any questions affecting only individual Employees. Each Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Employees properly.

37. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class action.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

1 FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES

2 (Against All Defendants)

3 38. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
4 full herein.

5 39. Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages for all hours worked.
6 Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Employees time records and failing to pay
7 Employees for all hours worked. Employees would work hours and not receive wages, including 8 as alleged above in connection with working during meal breaks and working “pre-shift” and 9 “post-shift” without compensation by being required to put on uniforms, such as aprons, before 10 clocking in and being required to take off uniforms after clocking out. Defendants also had a
11 consistent policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Class members to continue completing 12 work tasks and cleaning after clocking out. Additionally, Defendants had a consistent policy of 13 failing to pay Employees for hours worked during alleged meal periods for which Employees
14 were consistently denied, as also addressed herein. Defendants thus regularly failed to pay 15 minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class members. Moreover, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and 16 Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants’ uniform pattern of 17 unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a 18 whole, as a result of implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate
19 compensation to Plaintiff and the other members of the Class as to minimum wage pay.

20 40. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled “Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage” 21 states:

22 The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the 23 minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less 24 wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

25 41. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 26 relevant period is found in the Wage Orders. Pursuant to the Wage Orders, Employees are 27 therefore entitled to double the minimum wage during the relevant period.

28 ///

1 42. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private
2 civil action pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a) which states:

3 Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any 4 employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 5 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 6 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of 7 this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest
8 thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

9 43. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages
10 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission.

11 44. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies:

12 In any action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of 13 the payment of a wage less than the minimum wages fixed by an 14 order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover
15 liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully
16 unpaid and interest thereon.

17 45. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have 18 willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this 19 indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Employees.

20 46. Wherefore, Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages
21 (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum 22 wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant 23 to California Labor Code § 1194(a).

24 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

26 (Against All Defendants)

27 47. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 28 full herein.

 48. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code §
510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees:
(a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours worked

1 on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours
2 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of eight
3 (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not 4 paying Employees wages for all hours worked including time off the clock working “pre-shift”
5 and “post-shift” without compensation by being required to put on uniforms, such as aprons,
6 before clocking in and being required to take off uniforms after clocking out. Furthermore,
7 Defendants had a consistent policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and Class members to 8 continue completing work tasks and cleaning after clocking out. Employees regularly worked 9 over 8 hours on a given day or over 40 hours in a given week without receiving overtime
10 compensation.

11 49. Defendants’ failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a 12 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid
13 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct
14 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages 15 and overtime compensation earned by Employees. Each such failure to make a timely payment of 16 compensation to Employees constitutes a separate violation of California Labor Code § 204.

17 50. Employees have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code §§
18 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

19 51. Consequently, pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 204, 510, and 1194 (and the 20 relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission), Defendants are liable to Employees for 21 the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their 22 reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

23 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
24 RECOVERY OF REPORTING TIME PAY
25 (Against All Defendants)

26 52. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
27 full herein.

28 53. The IWC Wage Orders require that reporting time pay be provided to any

1 employee who is required to report for work and does report but is not put to work or is furnished
2 less than half of said employee's usual or scheduled day's work.

3 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that all or substantially all of 4 Defendants' hourly paid employees are subject to Defendants' policies and practices requiring 5 them to call in or otherwise show up to work but are not being paid half said Employee's usual or 6 scheduled day's work when working less than half of said employee's usual or scheduled day's 7 work.

8 55. Therefore, Employees are owed the unpaid balance of said wages pursuant to the 9 Wage Order according to proof at trial, interest pursuant to Labor Code §§ 218.6 and 1994(a),
10 Civil Code §§ 3287 and 3289, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and/or penalties pursuant 11 to Labor Code § 558(a).

12 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 MEAL-PERIOD LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

14 (Against All Defendants)

15 56. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 16 full herein.

17 57. Employees regularly worked shifts greater than five (5) hours and greater than ten 18 (10) hours. Pursuant to Labor Code § 512 an employer may not employ someone for a shift of 19 more than five (5) hours without providing him or her with a meal period of not less than thirty 20 (30) minutes or for a shift of more than ten (10) hours without providing him or her with a second 21 meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

22 58. Defendants failed to provide Employees with meal periods as required under the 23 Labor Code. Employees were consistently required to work through their meal periods which they 24 were consistently denied. Specifically, Defendants had a consistent policy and practice of 25 instructing Employees to clock out for meal periods and continue working. Employees were also 26 required to take meal periods after working well beyond the five (5) hour shifts. What meal
27 periods were provided were also not duty-free due to Defendants' policy and practice of 28 interrupting the meal breaks with work demands. Furthermore, Employees were regularly required

1 to work for more than 10 hours in a given shift without receiving a second uninterrupted thirty 2 (30) minute meal period as required by law.

3 59. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each meal period not 4 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11 and 5 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an 6 employee a meal period in accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one
7 hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period
8 is not provided. Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each meal period
9 not provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and paragraphs 11
10 and 20 of the applicable IWC Wage Order.

11 60. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 12 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each meal
13 period not provided or deficiently provided, a sum to be proven at trial.

14 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

15 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

16 (Against All Defendants)

17 61. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 18 full herein.

19 62. Employees consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts. Pursuant to the 20 Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order, Employees were entitled to paid rest breaks of 21 not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift.

22 63. Defendants failed to provide Employees with timely rest breaks of not less than ten 23 (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. What rest breaks were provided were also 24 not duty-free due to Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting rest breaks with work 25 demands.

26 64. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each rest period not 27 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC
28 Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in

1 accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the 2 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.
3 Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each rest period not provided or 4 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage 5 Order.

6 65. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 7 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day
8 worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to be proven at trial.

9 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
10 FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES
11 IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2802
12 (Against All Defendants)

13 66. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
14 full herein.

15 67. Under Labor Code § 2802(a), an employer must indemnify its employees for all 16 necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge
17 of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

18 68. Employees incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job duties
19 for Defendants, including pens, which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants'
20 employ. From four (4) years prior to the original filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the 21 present, Defendants consistently failed to reimburse Employees for these necessarily incurred 22 business expenses.

23 69. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Employees have been deprived of 24 reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts,
25 plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)
(Against All Defendants)

70. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

71. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

72. Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees, by Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient meal periods and rest breaks, and reflected incorrect hours worked, all of which Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. The wage statements provided to Employees were confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees.

73. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a), Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

74. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e), Employees are entitled to recover the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not

1 exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an
2 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

3 75. With respect to violations of Labor Code § 226, Labor Code § 226.3 imposes a 4 civil penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for initial violations for each employee for 5 each pay period, and one thousand dollars ($1000) for each subsequent violation for each 6 employee for each pay period.

7 76. Plaintiff is seeking penalties against Defendants under Labor Code § 226.3, and 8 any other applicable statute allowing recovery of penalties as alleged herein in an amount to be 9 shown according to proof.

10 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
11 FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174
12 AND 1174.5
13 (Against All Defendants)

14 77. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 15 full herein.

16 78. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time
17 and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any 18 employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek 19 damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

20 79. During the course of Plaintiff's and Employees' employment, Defendants 21 consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Employees as 22 required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Employees proper wages, 23 overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

24 80. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California
25 Labor Code § 1174.5. for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 221
(Against All Defendants)

81. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

82. Labor Code § 221 provides, "It shall be unlawful for any employer to collect or receive from an employee any part of wages theretofore paid by said employer to said employee."

83. Defendants unlawfully received and/or collected wages from Employees. Employees received gratuities in the form of tips as part of their wages. However, Defendants' agents would take all or a significant portion of the tips earned by Employees despite Defendants' agents not contributing to the patron's service.

84. As a direct and proximate cause of the unauthorized deductions, Employees have been damages, in an amount to be determined at trial.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Against All Defendants)

85. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

86. Numerous Employees are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

87. Defendants failed to pay these Employees all wages due and certain at the time of termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

88. The wages withheld from these Employees by Defendants remained due and owing for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation of employment.

89. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged above, was willful in that Defendants knew wages to be due but failed to pay them; this violation entitles these Employees to penalties under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up

1 to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

2 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

3 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 90. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
6 full herein.

7 91. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, Employees, and the general public, brings this claim
8 pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as alleged in 9 this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Employees and the 10 general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 11 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

12 92. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code
13 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive 14 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

15 93. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair 16 business practices.

17 94. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 18 wages and overtime, providing them with meal and rest periods, etc., are fundamental public
19 policies of California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State vigorously 20 to enforce minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to 21 work under substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their 22 employees from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to comply with minimum 23 labor standards.

24 95. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 25 in this Complaint, Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 26 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 27 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Defendants’ conduct has deprived 28 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and

1 privileges guaranteed to all employees under the law.

2 96. Defendants' conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 3 violation of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

4 97. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 5 overtime, failing to provide meal and rest periods, etc., either knew or in the exercise of reasonable 6 care should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct violates the 7 Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

8 98. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Employees have 9 been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

10 99. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in such 11 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court 12 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be 13 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 14 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 15 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Employees to the money Defendants 16 have unlawfully failed to pay.

17 TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

18 PENALTIES PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE § 2699, *ET SEQ.

19 (Against All Defendants)

20 100. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
21 full herein.

22 101. Plaintiff and Employees are aggrieved employees as defined under Labor Code §
23 2699(c) in that they suffered the violations alleged in this Complaint and were employed by the 24 alleged violators, Defendants.

25 102. Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants'
26 violation of all Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5 and includes the 27 penalty provisions, without limitation, based on the following California Labor Code sections:
28 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 221, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 351, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12,

1 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802.

2 103. The penalties shall be allocated as follows: 65% to the Labor and Workforce
3 Development Agency (LWDA) and 35% to the affected employee.

4 104. Employees also seek any and all penalties and remedies set forth in Labor Code §
5 558, which states:

6 105. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 7 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250)
8 per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee 9 for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a 10 wage deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.” To the 11 extent that Labor Code § 226.3 applies, Plaintiff and Employees also seeks such penalties on.

12 106. Plaintiff has exhausted her administrative remedy by sending a certified letter to the 13 LWDA and Defendants postmarked December 6, 2024. The LWDA has not provided notice of its 14 intent to investigate the alleged violations withing 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the 15 letters.

16 RELIEF REQUESTED

17 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

- 18 1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
- 19 2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work 20 performed by Employees and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior to 21 the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 22 3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and 23 interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
- 24 4. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees
25 for each missed or deficient meal period where no premium pay was paid therefor from four (4) 26 years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
- 27 5. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees 28 for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided and where no

premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;

6. For recovery of the unpaid balance of the full amount of the reporting time pay due pursuant to the applicable Wage Order, as may be proven;

7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Employees, as may be proven;

8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3, as may be proven;

9. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Employees who quit or were fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;

10. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, as may be proven;

11. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;

12. For compensatory damages in the amount of all previously unreimbursed business expenditures necessarily incurred by Employees in the discharge of their job duties for Defendants from four (4) years prior to the original filing of this action, as may be proven;

13. For restitution and/or damages for all amounts unlawfully withheld from the wages for all class members in violation of Labor Code § 221, as may be proven;

14. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., as may be proven;

15. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or duties adumbrated in this Complaint;

16. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;

17. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

18. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;

19. For an award of attorneys' fees; and

20. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.
