DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMES NOW, Plaintiff BEATRICE ESQUEDA (“Plaintiff”), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes” except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Tulare. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff took place in the State of California, County of Tulare. Defendant employed Plaintiff within the State of California, County of Tulare.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff BEATRICE ESQUEDA is an individual residing in the State of California, County of Tulare.

6. Defendant TRANSAMERICA MEDICAL GROUP, INC. dba PRIME VALLEY URGENT CARE, at all times herein mentioned, was and is, upon information and belief, a California corporation headquartered in the State of California, and at all times herein mentioned, was and is, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State of California, including the County of Tulare.

1           7.     At all relevant times, Defendant TRANSAMERICA MEDICAL GROUP, INC. dba
2 PRIME VALLEY URGENT CARE was the “employer” of Plaintiff within the meaning of all
3 applicable California laws and statutes.

4           8.     At all times herein relevant, Defendant TRANSAMERICA MEDICAL GROUP,
5 INC. dba PRIME VALLEY URGENT CARE and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were
6 the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees,
7 successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant
8 hereto were acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint
9 venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-10 conspirators and assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the 11 ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization, and consent of each
12 defendant designated herein.

13           9.     The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 14 otherwise, of Defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff, who sues
15 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 16 information and belief alleges, that each of the Defendants designated as a DOE is legally
17 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 18 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint.
19 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and capacities
20 when the same have been ascertained.

21           10.    Defendant TRANSAMERICA MEDICAL GROUP, INC. dba PRIME VALLEY
22 URGENT CARE and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as 23 “Defendants.”

24           11.    Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or affected
25 the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff and 26 the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants and employers liable under the 27 statutory provisions set forth herein.

28     ///

1 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 12. Plaintiff brings this action individually and on behalf of all other members of the 3 general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil
4 Procedure section 382.

5 13. The proposed class is defined as follows:

6 All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Defendants within 7 the State of California at any time during the period from four years prior to the 8 filing of this Complaint to final judgment.

9 14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.

10 15. The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the 11 litigation:

12 a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class
13 members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown
14 to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than 15 fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily
16 ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.

17 b. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' claims
18 as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the 19 interests of the other class members with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined
20 community of interest.

21 ///

22 ///

23 ///

- 1 c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each
2 class member, with whom Plaintiff has a well-defined community of
3 interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no
4 interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys,
5 the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action
6 discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during 7 the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees,
8 that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of 9 this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.
- 10 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the 11 fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder
12 of all class members is impractical.
- 13 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action
14 will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate
15 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid
16 to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However,
17 class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint
18 anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

19 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 20 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 21 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

- 22 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction,
23 in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
- 24 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt
25 employees within the State of California for all hours worked;

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

- 1 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other class members to work
2 over eight (8) hours per day and/or over forty (40) hours per week and failed
3 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other
4 class members;
- 5 d. Whether Defendants properly calculated the regular rate for Plaintiff and 6 the other class members who worked overtime and earned incentive pay;
- 7 e. Whether Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff and the other class members 8 legally mandated meal and/or rest periods and failed to compensate them
9 the related premium wages pursuant to California Labor Code section 10 226.7(c);
- 11 f. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other 12 class members for all hours worked;
- 13 g. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to class members within 14 the required time upon their discharge or resignation;
- 15 h. Whether Defendants failed to timely pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the 16 other class members during their employment;
- 17 i. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the 18 California Labor Code, including, inter alia, section 226;
- 19 j. Whether Defendants failed to keep complete or accurate payroll records for 20 Plaintiff and the other class members;
- 21 k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other class 22 members for necessary business-related expenses and costs;
- 23 l. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- 24 m. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of 25 California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.;
- 26 n. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties
27 resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and 28 ///

- 1           o.       Whether Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to compensatory
2                   damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

3                               GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4           17.    During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff
5           and other persons as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California,
6           including the County of Tulare.

7           18.    Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid non-
8           exempt employee during the relevant time period in the State of California, County of Tulare.

9           19.    Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiff and the other class
10          members; to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiff's and other class members'
11          employment; and to supervise their daily employment activities.

12          20.    Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of 13          Plaintiff's and other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiff and 14          the other class members.

15          21.    Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiff and the other
16          class members.

17          22.    Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the 18          State of California.

19          23.    Plaintiff and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, and/or 20          forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

21          24.    Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants
22          engaged in a uniform policy and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or 23          non-exempt employees within the State of California. This scheme involved, inter alia, failing
24          to pay them for all hours worked, and failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks
25          or pay related premium wages, in violation of California law.

26        ///

27        ///

28        ///

1           25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
2 or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive certain
3 wages for overtime compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were not
4 receiving wages for overtime compensation.

5           26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants failed
6 to provide Plaintiff and the other class members the required rest and meal periods during the 7 relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Orders
8 and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

9           27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
10 or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive all 11 timely and complete meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the 12 other class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, late or interrupted, and 13 that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all timely and proper meal periods or 14 payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

15           28. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
16 or should have known that Plaintiff and other class members were entitled to receive all timely
17 rest periods without interruption or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiff's and the 18 other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, late or interrupted, and 19 that Plaintiff and the other class members did not receive all rest periods or payment of one
20 additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

21           29. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
22 or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive at least
23 minimum wages for compensation and that Plaintiff and the other class members were not 24 receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

25       ///

26       ///

27       ///

1           30. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
2 or should have known that class members were entitled to receive the wages owed to them upon
3 discharge or resignation, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period
4 premiums, and that class members did not, in fact, receive such wages owed to them at the time
5 of their discharge or resignation.

6           31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
7 or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive their 8 wages within a specified time period during their employment, and that Plaintiff and the other 9 class members did not, in fact, receive such wages within the specified time period during their 10 employment.

11           32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
12 or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to receive
13 complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in fact, Plaintiff
14 and the other class members did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 15 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
16 worked by Plaintiff and the other class members.

17           33. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
18 or should have known that they had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff
19 and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in fact, did not keep 20 complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

21           34. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
22 or should have known that Plaintiff and the other class members were entitled to reimbursement
23 for necessary business-related expenses.

24     ///

25     ///

26     ///

1           35. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants knew
2 or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members
3 pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such
4 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented
5 to Plaintiff and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, all in order to 6 increase Defendants' profits.

7           36. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay overtime
8 wages to Plaintiff and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiff and other class 9 members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per 10 week without overtime compensation.

11           37. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide the 12 requisite uninterrupted and timely meal and rest periods to Plaintiff and the other class members
13 and failed to compensate them the related premium wages.

14           38. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff
15 and the other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

16           39. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay class
17 members the wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

18           40. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff
19 and the other class members wages within a specified time period during their employment.

20           41. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to provide 21 complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff and the other class members.

22           42. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to keep 23 complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff and the other class members.

24           43. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to reimburse
25 Plaintiff and the other class members for necessary business-related expenses.

26           44. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to properly
27 compensate Plaintiff and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase
28 Defendants' profits.

45. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly . . . for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against TRANSAMERICA MEDICAL GROUP, INC. dba PRIME VALLEY URGENT CARE and DOES 1 through 100)

46. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 45, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

47. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable IWC Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

48. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members employed by Defendants, who work(ed) more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

49. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day.

50. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

51. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

52. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other class members.

53. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

54. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and attorneys' fees.

3 permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without 4 providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the 5 total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be 6 waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

7           59. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order
8 and California Labor Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require,
9 cause, or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day
10 without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty

14           60. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class 15 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who 16 did not waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for 17 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 18 (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

25 members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were 26 required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of 27 not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

28   ///

63. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Plaintiff and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of twelve (12) hours were required to work for periods longer than ten (10) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or without a rest period.

64. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants intentionally and willfully required Plaintiff and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium for work performed during meal periods.

65. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

66. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

67. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7(c), Plaintiff and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the meal period was not provided.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against TRANSAMERICA MEDICAL GROUP, INC. dba PRIME VALLEY URGENT CARE and DOES 1 through 100)

68. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 67, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

69. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff's and the other class members' employment by Defendants.

1           70. During the relevant time period set forth herein, California Labor Code section
2 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period
3 mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC.

4           71. During the relevant time period set forth herein, the applicable IWC Wage Order
5 provides that “[e]very employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods,

7 time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time
8 per four (4) hours or major fraction thereof” unless the total daily work time is less than three 9 and one-half (3 ½) hours.

10          72. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants required Plaintiff and 11 the other class members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten 12 (10) minute rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

13          73. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants willfully required
14 Plaintiff and the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiff and 15 the other class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

16          74. During the relevant time period set forth herein, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff
17 and the other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code
18 section 226.7.

19          75. Defendants’ conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Orders and California Labor
20 Code section 226.7.

8 99. The Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 (“PAGA”) expressly establishes that any 9 provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and

Re: Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. d/b/a Prime Valley Urgent Care

Dear Representative:

We have been retained to represent Beatrice Esqueda against Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. d/b/a Prime Valley Urgent Care (including any and all affiliates, managers, members, subsidiaries, and parents, and their shareholders, officers, directors, and employees), any individual, owner, officer or managing agent acting on behalf of an "Employer" pursuant to California Labor Code section 558.1, and DOES 1-20<sup>1</sup> for violations of California wage-and-hour laws (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Transamerica Medical Group, Inc.").

Ms. Esqueda is pursuing her California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq., the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004 ("PAGA") claim on a representative basis. Therefore, Ms. Esqueda may seek penalties for violations of the Labor Code on behalf of the State of California and aggrieved employees, which are recoverable under PAGA. This letter is sent in compliance with the reporting requirements of California Labor Code section 2699.3.

Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. is a California corporation located at 9904 Vertrice Ave, Bakersfield, CA 93311.

Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. currently employs Ms. Esqueda as an hourly-paid non-exempt Medical Assistant in the State of California. Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. directly controls the wages, hours and/or working conditions of Ms. Esqueda's and other aggrieved employees' employment, including direction, retention, scheduling, supervision, and termination.

<sup>1</sup> Ms. Esqueda does not know the true names or capacities, whether individual, partner or corporate, of DOES 1 through 20, inclusive, and for that reason, said DOES are designated under such fictitious names. Ms. Esqueda will amend this notice when the true names and capacities are known. Ms. Esqueda is informed and believes that each DOE was responsible in some way for the matters alleged herein and proximately caused Ms. Esqueda and other current and former aggrieved employees to be subject to the illegal employment practices, wrongs and injuries complained of herein.

The “aggrieved employees” that Ms. Esqueda may seek penalties on behalf of are all current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees (whether hired directly or through a staffing agency) of Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. within the State of California.

Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to properly pay its hourly-paid or non-exempt employees for all hours worked, failed to properly compensate minimum and overtime wages, failed to properly provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks or pay premium wages in lieu thereof, failed to issue compliant wage statements, and failed to reimburse for all necessary business-related costs and expenses, thus resulting in Labor Code violations as stated below.

Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. has violated and/or continues to violate, among other provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable wage law, California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code sections 510, 1194, and 1198 require employers to pay time-and-a-half or double-time overtime wages and make it unlawful to work employees for hours longer than eight hours in one day and/or over forty hours in one week without paying the premium overtime rates. During the relevant time period, Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees routinely worked in excess of 8 hours in a day and 40 hours in a week. Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to compensate Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees for all hours worked and performing off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks. Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. also failed to include non-discretionary bonuses into Ms. Esqueda’s and other aggrieved employees’ regular rate of pay for purposes of overtime compensation. Therefore, Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation, but they were not paid for all overtime hours worked.

California Labor Code section 246 requires that employers provide employees with paid sick leave of not less than one hour per every 30 hours worked. California Labor Code section 246(l) also requires that paid sick leave be paid at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay for the workweek in which the employee uses paid sick time or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment. During the relevant time period, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to pay Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees paid sick leave that complied with California Labor Code section 246, by, for example, failing to pay paid sick leave at a non-exempt employee’s regular rate of pay or at a rate calculated by dividing the employee’s total wages, not including overtime premium pay, by the employee’s total hours worked in the full pay periods of the prior 90 days of employment.

California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a) require employers to pay an employee one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate for each workday that a meal or rest break is not provided. During the relevant time period, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. routinely required Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees to work through, interrupt, cut short, and/or delay their meal and rest breaks to comply with Transamerica Medical Group, Inc.'s policies and expectations and fulfill orders. Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to provide coverage to Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees so they may be relieved of all work duties and take legally mandated meal and rest breaks. Lastly, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to authorize and permit Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees to take the requisite number of meal and rest breaks, including second meal breaks and third rest breaks, when working shifts exceeding 10 hours in length. Despite these facts, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to compensate Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees all the premium wages they were owed, including failing to pay premium wages at aggrieved employees' regular rate of pay.

California Labor Code section 551 states "[e]very person employed in any occupation of labor is entitled to one day's rest therefrom in seven." Section 552 further states "[n]o employer of labor shall cause his employees to work more than six days in seven." Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. required Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees to work seven days in a row or more without one day's rest.

California Labor Code section 432.5 states "[n]o employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof, shall require any employee or applicant for employment to agree, in writing, to any term or condition which is known by such employer, or agent, manager, superintendent, or officer thereof to be prohibited by law." Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. required Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees to execute arbitration agreements as a condition of employment despite knowing that such agreements are prohibited under Labor Code section 432.6.

California Labor Code section 201 requires that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately. California Labor Code section 202 requires that if an employee not having a written contract for a definite period quits their employment, their wages shall become due and payable not later than 72 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given 72 hours' previous notice of their intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to their wages at the time of quitting. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with Labor Code sections 201, 201.3, 201.5, 201.6, 201.8, 201.9, 202, and 205.5, any wages of an employee who is discharged or who quits, the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an action therefor is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than 30 days. During the relevant time period, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to pay Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees all wages, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks, due to them within any time period specified by California Labor Code sections 201 and 202 and therefore is liable under California Labor Code section 203.

California Labor Code section 204 requires that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed, and that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month. California Labor Code section 204 also requires that all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the payday for the next regular payroll period. During the relevant time period, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to pay Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees all wages due to them, including for uncompensated off-the-clock work, unpaid overtime premiums and premium wages for failing to provide legally mandated meal and rest breaks within any time period specified by California Labor Code section 204, and is therefore liable under California Labor Code section 210.

California Labor Code section 226 requires employers to make, keep and provide complete and accurate itemized wage statements to their employees. During the relevant time period, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. did not provide Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees with complete and accurate itemized wage statements. The wage statements they received from Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. were in violation of California Labor Code section 226(a). The violations include, but are not limited to, the failure to include (1) gross wages earned by Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees, (2) total hours worked by Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate by aggrieved employees, (4) all deductions for Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees, (5) net wages earned by Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which aggrieved employees are paid, (7) the name of the aggrieved employee and only the last four digits of their social security number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal entity that is the employer and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code section 558 allows recovery of penalties. Pursuant to the code, (a) Any employer or other person acting on behalf of an employer who violates, or causes to be violated, a section of this chapter or any provision regulating hours and days of work in any order of the Industrial Welfare Commission shall be subject to a civil penalty as follows: (1) For any initial violation, fifty dollars ($50) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (2) For each subsequent violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each underpaid employee for each pay period for which the employee was underpaid in addition to an amount sufficient to recover underpaid wages. (3) Wages recovered pursuant to this section shall be paid to the affected employee. Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees have been denied their wages and premium wages and, therefore, are entitled to penalties.

California Labor Code section 1174(d) requires an employer to keep, at a central location in the state or at the plants or establishments at which employees are employed, payroll records showing the hours worked daily by and the wages paid to, and the number of piece-rate units earned by and any applicable piece rate paid to, employees employed at the respective plants or establishments. These records shall be kept with rules established for this purpose by the commission, but in any case, shall be kept on file for not less than three years. During the relevant time period, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. failed to keep accurate and complete payroll records showing the hours worked daily and the wages paid to Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees.

California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197 and 1197.1 provide the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a lesser wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful. During the relevant time period, Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. did not provide Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees with the minimum wages to which they were entitled despite constructive and actual knowledge of off-the-clock work, including pre- and post-shift, and during meal breaks.

California Labor Code sections 2800 and 2802 require an employer to reimburse its employee for all necessary expenditures incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of their job duties or in direct consequence of their obedience to the directions of the employer. During their employment, Ms. Esqueda and other aggrieved employees incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Transamerica Medical Group, Inc., including for using their personal cellular phones and vehicles for work-related purposes.

We believe that Ms. Esqueda and other current and former California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are entitled to penalties as allowed under California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. for violations of Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 218.5, 221, 226(a), 226.3, 226.7, 246, 432.5, 510, 512(a), 551, 552, 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802, and the IWC Wage Orders.

California Labor Code section 2699.3 requires that a claimant send a certified letter to the employer in question and the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency setting forth the claims, and the basis for the claims, thereby giving the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency an opportunity to investigate the claims and/or take any action it deems appropriate.

The purpose of this letter is to satisfy the requirement created by California Labor Code section 2699 prior to seeking penalties allowed by law for the aforementioned statutory violations. We look forward to determining whether the California Labor & Workforce Development Agency intends to take any action in reference to these claims. We kindly request that you respond to this notice according to the time frame contemplated by the California Labor Code.

Ms. Esqueda will seek these penalties on her own behalf and on behalf of other similarly situated California-based hourly-paid or non-exempt employees of Transamerica Medical Group, Inc. within one year of the date of this letter, as allowed by law.
