Attorneys for Plaintiffs

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF KERN COUNTY

LUIS ENRIQUE CORNEJO SANCHEZ,
RAFAEL FELIX QUINTERO, JOSE IVAN
HERNANDEZ LOPEZ, FRANCISCO J. RIOS
TRIGUEROS, RONY CHINCHILLA
CASTILLO, TONY SUBIA MOLINA, individually, and on behalf of the State of California and other aggrieved persons,

Plaintiffs,

v.

WM. BOLTHOUSE FARMS, INC., a Michigan corporation; BOLTHOUSE FRESH FOODS, an unknown business entity; and DOES 1 through 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.: BCV-25-101320

PAGA REPRESENTATIVE ACTION COMPLAINT:

1. Civil Penalties Under PAGA [Cal. Lab. Code § 2699, et seq.]

1 Plaintiffs LUIS ENRIQUE CORNEJO SANCHEZ, RAFAEL FELIX QUINTERO, JOSE
2 IVAN HERNANDEZ LOPEZ, FRANCISCO J. RIOS TRIGUEROS, RONY CHINCHILLA
3 CASTILLO, TONY SUBIA MOLINA (“Plaintiffs”), on information and belief, allege as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION & PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5 1. Plaintiffs bring this action individually, and on behalf of the State of California and 6 other aggrieved persons, against Defendants WM. Bolthouse Farms, Inc., and Bolthouse Fresh 7 Foods, and DOES 1 through 10 (collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for civil penalties under 8 the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code §§ 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”) 9 stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and 10 overtime wages), failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, 11 failure to pay all earned wages twice per month, failure to maintain accurate records of hours 12 worked and meal periods, failure to timely pay final wages, failure to furnish accurate wage 13 statements, failure to indemnify employees for expenditures, and failure to produce requested 14 employment records.

15 2. For over 50 years, California’s courts and Legislature have recognized that this 16 State’s wage-and-hour laws serve a compelling public interest of fostering a stable job market.
17 Wages are not ordinary debts. Because of the economic position of the average worker and his or 18 her family, it is essential to the public welfare that employers obey the wage-and-hour laws so that 19 employees are promptly paid the minimum/overtime wages that the Legislature has required for 20 employees. So fundamental are California’s wage-and-hour laws that the Legislature has 21 criminalized certain types of violations. In extending extra protection to deter violations of these 22 underlying statutes—since Plaintiffs are not seeking general and/or special damages, restitution, 23 or other damages other than civil penalties—California has enacted PAGA to permit an individual 24 to bring an action for PAGA penalties only, which is the precise and sole nature of this action.

25 3. All California employees during the relevant period who are or were harmed by 26 Defendants’ illegal practices are “Aggrieved Employees.” The Aggrieved Employees worked for 27 Defendants as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the applicable period.
28

4. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants seeking only to recover penalties on behalf of Plaintiffs individually, on behalf of certain Aggrieved Employees that worked for Defendants, and on behalf of the State of California. Plaintiffs do not seek to recover anything other than penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699 at this time. To the extent that statutory violations are mentioned for wage violations, Plaintiffs do not seek underlying general and/or special damages for those violations, but simply penalties as permitted by California Labor Code Section 2699, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief for Plaintiffs individually, and certain Aggrieved Employees as permitted by the PAGA.

5. Defendants own/owned and operate/operated an industry, business, and establishment within the State of California, including Kern County. As such and based upon all the facts and circumstances incident to Defendants' businesses in California, Defendants are subject to the California Labor Code, Wage Orders issued by the Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC"), and the California Business & Professions Code.

6. On information and belief, Defendants were on actual and constructive notice of the improprieties alleged herein and intentionally refused to rectify their unlawful conduct. Defendants' violations, as alleged above, during all relevant times herein were willful and deliberate.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants were and are legally responsible for all of the unlawful conduct, policies, acts and omissions as described in each and all of the foregoing paragraphs as the employer of Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees. Further, Defendants are responsible for each of the unlawful acts or omissions complained of herein under the doctrine of “respondeat superior.”

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiffs

8. Luis Enrique Cornejo Sanchez is a resident of Shafter, California who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately June 2018 to approximately October 2024.

1 9. Plaintiff Rafael Felix Quintero is a resident of Bakersfield, California who worked for 2 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately November 3 2013 to approximately August 2024.

4 10. Plaintiff Jose Ivan Hernandez Lopez is a resident of Bakersfield, California who worked 5 for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately June 6 2022 to approximately December 2024.

7 11. Plaintiff Francisco J. Rios Trigueros is a resident of Bakersfield, California who worked 8 for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 9 February 2015 to approximately January 2024.

10 12. Plaintiff Rony Chinchilla Castillo is a resident of Bakersfield California who worked 11 for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately May 12 2021 to approximately November 2024.

13 13. Plaintiff Tony Subia Molina is a resident of Bakersfield California who worked for 14 Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately November 15 2005 to August 2024.

16 B. Defendants

17 14. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based upon that information and belief 18 allege, that Defendants WM. Bolthouse Farms, Inc. and Bolthouse Fresh Foods are, and at all times 19 herein mentioned, were:

- 20 (a) A business entity conducting business in numerous counties throughout the 21 State of California, including Kern County; and, 22 (b) The former employer of Plaintiffs, and the current and/or former employer 23 of Aggrieved Employees, because Defendants WM. Bolthouse Farms, Inc.
24 and Bolthouse Fresh Foods suffered and permitted Plaintiffs and Aggrieved 25 Employees to work; and/or controlled their wages, hours, or working 26 conditions; and or engaged Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, thereby 27 creating a common law employment relationship.
28

1 15. Plaintiffs do not know the true names or capacities of the persons or entities sued
2 herein as Does 1-10, inclusive, and therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names. Each 3 of the Doe Defendants were in some manner legally responsible for the damages suffered by 4 Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees as alleged herein. Plaintiffs will amend this complaint 5 to set forth the true names and capacities of these Defendants when they have been ascertained, 6 together with appropriate charging allegations, as may be necessary.

7 16. At all times mentioned herein, the Defendants named as Does 1-10, inclusive, and 8 each of them, were residents of, doing business in, availed themselves of the jurisdiction of, and/or 9 injured a significant number of the Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees in the State of California.

10 17. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that at all relevant times each 11 Defendant, directly or indirectly, or through agents or other persons, employed Plaintiffs and the 12 other employees and exercised control over their wages, hours, and working conditions. Plaintiffs 13 are informed and believe and thereon allege that, at all relevant times, each Defendant was the 14 principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, joint employer, officer, director, controlling shareholder, 15 subsidiary, affiliate, parent corporation, successor in interest and/or predecessor in interest of some 16 or all of the other Defendants, and was engaged with some or all of the other Defendants in a joint 17 enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to some or all of the other Defendants so as 18 to be liable for their conduct with respect to the matters alleged below. Plaintiffs are informed and 19 believe and thereon allege that each Defendant acted pursuant to and within the scope of the 20 relationships alleged above, that each Defendant knew or should have known about, and 21 authorized, ratified, adopted, approved, controlled, aided and abetted the conduct of all other 22 Defendants.

23 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

24 18. Plaintiff Luis Enrique Cornejo Sanchez worked for Defendants in California as an 25 hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately June 2018 to approximately October 2024.
26 Plaintiff Rafael Felix Quintero worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt 27 employee from approximately November 2013 to approximately August 2024. Plaintiff Jose Ivan 28 Hernandez Lopez worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee

1 from approximately June 2022 to approximately December 2024. Plaintiff Francisco J. Rios 2 Trigueros worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from 3 approximately February 2015 to approximately January 2024. Plaintiff Rony Chinchilla Castillo 4 worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately 5 May 2021 to approximately November 2024. Plaintiff Tony Subia Molina is a resident of 6 Bakersfield California who worked for Defendants in California as an hourly-paid, non-exempt 7 employee from approximately November 2005 to August 2024. At all times, Defendants paid 8 Plaintiffs an hourly wage and classified Plaintiffs as non-exempt from overtime.

9 19. Throughout Plaintiffs' employment, Defendants committed numerous labor code 10 violations under state law. As discussed below, Plaintiffs' experience working for Defendants was 11 typical and illustrative.

12 A. Failure to Pay for All Hours Worked, Including Minimum, Straight Time, 13 and Overtime Wages

14 20. Under California law, an employer must pay for all hours worked by an employee.
15 "Hours worked" is the time during which an employee is subject to the control of an employer and 16 includes all the time the employee is suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do 17 so.

18 21. Labor Code § 510 provides that employees in California shall not be employed more 19 than eight hours in any workday or forty (40) hours in a workweek unless they receive additional 20 compensation beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law.

21 22. Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 also provide that employees in California shall not 22 be employed more than eight hours in any workday unless they receive additional compensation 23 beyond their regular wages in amounts specified by law. Additionally, Labor Code § 1198 states 24 that the employment of an employee for longer hours than those fixed by the IWC is unlawful.

25 23. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants, at times, failed to pay Plaintiffs and 26 certain Aggrieved Employees for all hours worked, including minimum wages, straight time, and 27 overtime wages. Defendants, at times, required Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees to 28 work "off-the-clock," uncompensated, by, for example, requiring Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved

1 Employees to perform work during uncompensated meal periods and/or requiring Plaintiffs and 2 certain Aggrieved Employees to perform work after clocking out for the workday. Some of this 3 unpaid work should have been paid at the overtime rate. In failing to pay for all hours worked, 4 Defendants also failed, at times, to maintain accurate records of the hours Plaintiffs and certain 5 Aggrieved Employees worked.

6 B. Failure to Provide Meal Periods

7 24. Under California law, employers have an affirmative obligation to relieve 8 employees of all duty in order to take their first 30-minute, duty-free meal periods no later than the 9 end of the fifth hour of work in a workday, and to allow employees to take their second 30-minute 10 meal period no later than the end of the tenth hour of work in a workday. Further, employees are 11 entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday they were not provided with a 12 required meal period(s).

13 25. Despite these legal requirements, Defendants wrongfully failed, at times, to provide 14 Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with their legally mandated 30-minute, 15 uninterrupted, and duty-free meal period in a manner required by law. Defendants also continued 16 to assert control over Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, by, among other 17 things, requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be 18 completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory meal periods, or by denying Plaintiffs and 19 certain Aggrieved Employees permission to take a meal period under the conditions required by 20 law, and without properly compensating Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for 21 meal periods that were not provided as required by law. Defendants also failed, at times, to permit 22 Plaintiffs to take a second meal period when Plaintiffs worked at least ten hours of work in a 23 workday. Accordingly, Defendants failed, at times, to provide meal periods to Plaintiffs and certain 24 Aggrieved Employees in compliance with California law.

25 26. Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are thus entitled to be paid 26 one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not provided with all required meal 27 period(s). Defendants, however, at times, failed to pay Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or 28 some of them, the additional wages to which they were entitled for meal periods that were not provided.

C. Failure to Authorize and Permit Rest Breaks

27. Employers are required by California law to authorize and permit breaks of ten uninterrupted minutes for each four hours of work or major fraction of four hours (i.e. more than two hours). Thus, for example, if an employee's work time is six hours and ten minutes, the employee is entitled to two rest breaks. Each failure to authorize rest breaks as so required is itself a violation of California's rest break laws.

28. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants have, at times, wrongfully failed to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to take legally compliant rest periods in a manner required by law. Defendants, at times, also required Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to work in excess of four consecutive hours a day without Defendants authorizing and permitting them to take a 10-minute, uninterrupted, duty-free rest period for every four hours of work (or major fraction of four hours), and without properly compensating Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, for rest periods that were not authorized or permitted. Instead, among other things, Defendants continued to assert control over Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, by requiring, pressuring, or encouraging them to perform work tasks which could not be completed without working in lieu of taking mandatory rest periods, and by denying Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, permission to take a rest period under the conditions required by law. Accordingly, Defendants failed, at times, to authorize and permit Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, to take rest periods in compliance with California law.

29. Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees are thus entitled to be paid one hour of additional wages for each workday he or she was not authorized and permitted to take all required rest periods. Defendants, however, at times, failed to pay Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees the additional wages to which they were entitled for rest periods and that they were not authorized and permitted to take.

D. Failure to Pay All Earned Wages Twice Per Month

30. Based on Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees for all wages as discussed above, Defendants also violated Labor Code § 204.

31. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay employees all earned wages two times per month. Throughout the period applicable to this cause of action, employees were entitled to be paid twice a month at their regular rates, including all meal period premium wages owed, rest period premium wages owed, and wages owed for overtime hours worked. However, Defendants, at times, failed and refused to pay the employees all wages due, and failed, at times, to pay those wages twice a month, in that employees were not paid all wages for all meal periods not provided by Defendants, all wages for all rest periods not authorized and permitted by Defendants, and all wages for all hours worked. As a result, Defendants owe employees the legally required wages not paid, and Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees suffered damages in those amounts.

E. Failure to Maintain Accurate Records of Hours Worked and Meal Periods

32. Plaintiffs seek penalties under California Labor Code § 1174(d). Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1174.5, any person, including any entity, employing labor who willfully fails to maintain accurate and complete records required by California Labor Code § 1174 is subject to a penalty under § 1174.5. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Order § 7(A)(3), every employer shall keep time records showing when the employee begins and ends each work period. Meal periods and total hours worked daily shall also be recorded.

33. Defendants, however, at times, failed to maintain accurate records of hours worked and all meal periods taken or missed by Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees.

34. Defendants' failure to provide and maintain records required by the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders deprived Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees the ability to know, understand and question the accuracy and frequency of meal periods, and the accuracy of their hours worked stated in Defendants' records. Therefore, Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees had no way to dispute the resulting failure to pay wages, all of which resulted in an unjustified economic enrichment to Defendants. As a direct result, Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, have suffered and continue to suffer, substantial losses related to the use and enjoyment of such wages, lost interest on such wages and expenses and attorney's fees in seeking to compel Defendants to fully perform Defendants' obligation under state law, all to their respective damage in amounts according to proof at trial. As a result of Defendants' knowing failure to comply with the California Labor Code and applicable IWC Wage Orders, Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, have also suffered an injury in that they were prevented from knowing, understanding, and disputing the wage payments paid to them.

F. Failure to Timely Pay All Wages at Termination

35. Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and that if an employee voluntarily leaves his or her employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours previous notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

36. Within the applicable period, the employment of Plaintiffs and many other Aggrieved Employees ended, i.e., was terminated by quitting or being discharged, and the employment of others will be terminated. However, during the relevant time period, Defendants at times failed, and continue to fail, to pay Plaintiffs and certain terminated Aggrieved Employees, without abatement, all wages required to be paid by Labor Code sections 201 and 202 either at the time of discharge, or within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' employment. These unpaid wages include wages for unpaid work time (including minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), missed meal period premium wages, and missed rest period premium wages.

37. Defendants' conduct violates Labor Code §§ 201 and 202. Labor Code § 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee shall continue as a penalty wage from the due date, and at the same rate until paid or until an action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

38. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are entitled to recover from Defendants their additionally accruing wages for each day they were not paid, at their regular hourly rate of pay, up to thirty (30) days maximum pursuant to Labor Code § 203.

1 G. Failure to Furnish Accurate Itemized Wage Statements

2 39. Labor Code § 226(a) provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her 3 employees an accurate itemized wage statement in writing showing nine pieces of information, 4 including: (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employee, (3) the number of piece-5 rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all 6 deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated 7 and shown as one item, (5) net wages earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the 8 employee is paid, (7) the name of the employee and the last four digits of his or her social security 9 number or an employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name 10 and address of the legal entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect 11 during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the 12 employee. An employee is presumed to suffer an injury if this information is missing. (Labor Code 13 § 226(e)(2)(B)(iii).)

14 40. The statute further provides: “An employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing 15 and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) is entitled to recover the 16 greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation 17 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, 18 not to exceed an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000), and is entitled to an award 19 of costs and reasonable attorney’s fees.” (Labor Code § 226(e)(1).)

20 41. Throughout the statutory period, Defendants failed, at times, to furnish Plaintiffs 21 and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, with accurate, itemized wage statements showing all 22 applicable hourly rates, and all gross and net wages earned (including correct hours worked, correct 23 wages for meal periods that were not provided in accordance with California law, and correct 24 wages for rest periods that were not authorized and permitted to take in accordance with California 25 law). Because Defendants violated Labor Code § 226, Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved 26 Employees, or some of them, suffered injury and damage to their statutorily protected rights.
27 Accordingly, Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, are entitled to 28 recover damages from Defendants including the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with Labor Code § 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars ($4,000) dollars per employee, or as otherwise permitted by PAGA based upon all bases of liability.

H. Failure to Indemnify for Necessary Expenditures

42. Labor Code § 2802(a) provides that employers shall indemnify their employees for all necessary business expenditures or losses that have been incurred by the employees in direct discharge of his or her duties. Throughout the period applicable to this cause of action, Defendants wrongfully required Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees to pay expenses that they incurred in direct discharge of their duties for Defendants. Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, paid out-of-pocket for necessary employment-related expenses, work attire, and cell phone expenses. Plaintiffs and similarly Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, incurred substantial expenses as a direct result of performing their job duties for Defendants, but Defendants failed, at times, to indemnify Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees for these employment-related expenses.

43. As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees for the civil penalties provided for in Labor Code §§ 2802 and 2699(f)(2) for failing to indemnify Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved Employees for necessary business expenditures.

I. Failure to Produce Requested Employment Records

44. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, current and former employees have the right to inspect or receive a copy of their records pertaining to their employment, upon reasonable request to their employer. Under this statute, an employer that receives a request to inspect or receive a copy of records pertaining to a current or former employee must comply with the request as soon as practicable, but no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the request.

45. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5(a), every current and former employee, or his or her representative, has the right to inspect and receive a copy of the personnel records that the employer maintains relating to the employee's performance or to any grievance concerning the employee. Under this statute, upon written request from a current or former employee or his or her representative, an employer must make the contents of those personnel records available for

1 inspection or provide a copy of the personnel records to the current or former employee, or his or 2 her representative, not later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date the employer receives the 3 written request, subject to some limited exceptions. Failure to comply with these requests allows 4 for a civil penalty seven hundred fifty dollars ($750), pursuant to Labor Code §§ 1198.5(k) and 5 226(f).

6 46. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 432, if an employee or applicant signs any 7 instrument relating to the obtaining or holding of employment, he or she shall be given a copy of 8 the instrument upon request.

9 47. As set forth above, Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees are current and former 10 employees of Defendants.

11 48. Plaintiffs sent written requests through Plaintiffs' counsel to Defendants for 12 Plaintiffs' personnel files, pay records, wage statements, timekeeping records, and other 13 employment-related documents pursuant to Labor Code section 226, 1198.5, and 432. However, 14 Defendants failed to timely produce the requested employment records.

15 49. Defendants violated California Labor Code §§ 226, 1198.5, and 432 by failing to 16 timely produce the required records requested by Plaintiffs.

17 50. On information and belief, Defendants' failure to provide Plaintiffs with their 18 requested employment records is not an isolated incident but was instead consistent with 19 Defendants' practice that applied to Plaintiffs and Aggrieved Employees, or some of them.

20 51. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 1198.5, Plaintiffs and certain Aggrieved 21 Employees are entitled to a penalty of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendants, 22 injunctive relief in the form of compliance with section 1198.5, and attorneys' fees and costs.

23 52. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 226, Plaintiffs are entitled to a penalty of seven 24 hundred fifty dollars ($750) from Defendants, injunctive relief in the form of compliance with 25 section 226, and attorneys' fees and cost.

26 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

27 (By All Plaintiffs Against All Defendants for Civil Penalties Under the Private Attorneys 28 General Act of 2004, Cal. Lab. Code § 2698 et seq.)

1 53. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference and re-allege all preceding paragraphs as though 2 fully set forth herein.

3 54. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 4 State of California and the applicable IWC Orders.

5 55. California Labor Code § 2699(a) specifically provides for a private right of action 6 to recover penalties for violations of the Labor Code: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 7 any provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor 8 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, 9 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through a 10 civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of herself or himself and other current or 11 former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.”

12 56. Plaintiffs gave written notice by online filing pursuant to California Labor Code § 13 2699.3 to the Labor and Workforce Development Agency and by certified mail to Defendants of 14 the specific provisions of the Labor Code that Defendants have violated against Plaintiffs and 15 certain current and former Aggrieved Employees, or some of them, including the facts and theories 16 to support the violations. Plaintiffs also paid the filing fee. Plaintiffs’ PAGA case number is 17 LWDA-CM-1069435-24 (Cornejo Sanchez, et al. v. WM. Bolthouse Farms, Inc. et al.). The Labor 18 and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate Defendants’ 19 Labor Code violations discussed in the notice. Plaintiffs hereby commence a civil action to recover 20 penalties under Labor Code § 2699 pursuant to § 2699.3 for the violations of the Labor Code 21 described in this Complaint. These penalties include, but are not limited to, penalties under 22 California Labor Code §§ 210, 226.3, 1174.5, 1197.1, and 2699.

23 57. Based on the conduct described in this Complaint, Plaintiffs are entitled to an award 24 of civil penalties individually, on behalf of the State of California and certain similarly Aggrieved 25 Employees of Defendants. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to 26 be shown according to proof at trial. These penalties are in addition to all other remedies permitted 27 by law.
28

58. In addition, Plaintiffs seek an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), which states, "Any employee who prevails in any action shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs."

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of the State of California, and on behalf of all similarly Aggrieved Employees, pray for relief and judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

1. That the Court declare, adjudge and decree that Defendants violated the California Labor Code by failing to pay for all hours worked (minimum, straight time, and overtime wages), failing to provide meal periods, failing to authorize and permit rest periods, failing to pay all earned wages twice per month, failing to maintain accurate records of hours worked and meal periods, failing to timely pay final wages, failing to furnish accurate wage statements, failing to indemnify for necessary expenditures, and failing to produce requested employment records;
2. An award of civil penalties on behalf of Plaintiffs, individually, and on behalf of the State of California, and all similarly Aggrieved Employees pursuant to PAGA;
3. Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate allowed;
4. Attorneys' fees and costs reasonably incurred;
5. Injunctive and declaratory relief to the extent allowed by PAGA; and,
6. Such other and further relief that the Court deems proper.

Respectfully submitted,
