1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Plaintiff JOSE CHAVEZ seeks preliminary approval of a $942,500.00 wage-and-hour
4 class action settlement (the “Gross Settlement Amount”) on behalf of all hourly-paid, non-5 exempt employees employed by Defendant within the State of California (the “Class”) from 6 December 20, 2020 through the date of either December 31, 2025 or the date on which the Court
7 issues the Preliminary Approval Order (the “Class Period”).

8 The payment to each Class Member under the Settlement Agreement is based on the 9 number of weeks that each Class Member worked for Defendant during the Class Period. The 10 Settlement Agreement is attached as Exhibit “1” to the Declaration of James Hawkins (“Hawkins 11 Decl.”), and is hereinafter referred to as the “Settlement Agreement” or “S.A.” The Notice of 12 Settlement of Class and Representative Action (“Class Notice”) is attached to the Settlement
13 Agreement as Exhibit “A.”

14 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant Sunstate Equipment Co., LLC
15 (“Defendant”) will not oppose Plaintiff’s Counsel’s application for a reasonable award of 16 attorney’s fees not to exceed the total amount of $314,135.25, which is 33.33% of the Gross
17 Settlement Amount (hereinafter, the “GSA” or “Settlement Amount”), Plaintiff’s Counsel’s
18 litigation expenses not to exceed $30,000.00, Settlement Administrator Costs are not to exceed 19 $12,000.00, PAGA penalties of $50,000.00 (of which $32,500.00 or 65% will be paid to the 20 LWDA and the remaining $17,500.00 or 35% will be paid to the PAGA Members on a pro rata
21 basis), and Class Representative Service Award of $10,000.00 to Plaintiff JOSE CHAVEZ
22 (“Class Representative”). (S.A. ¶ 10.3).

23 After all Court-approved deductions from the Settlement Amount, it is estimated that 24 $526,364.75 will be available to pay approximately 711 Class Members, as follows:

	Total Amount
Gross Settlement Amount	$ 942,500.00
Attorneys’ Fees (1/3)	$ 314,135.25
Litigation Costs	$ 30,000.00
Administrator Costs	$ 12,000.00
PAGA Penalties	$ 50,000.00

26
27
28

Class Representative Service Payment	$ 10,000.00
Net Settlement Amount	$526,364.75

Assuming 711 Class Members, the average payment to each class member will be approximately $740.32. Of course, the actual payment will be calculated on a pro-rata basis according to the number of weeks worked by each Class Member. Assuming an estimated 76,650 workweeks (as of September 30, 2025), each workweek will have a settlement value of approximately $6.87 on average. In addition, approximately 417 PAGA Members (i.e., individuals who worked during the PAGA Period starting on December 22, 2023 through the earlier date of either December 31, 2025 or the date on which the Court issues the Preliminary Approval Order), will receive a pro rata share of the $17,500.00 PAGA Penalties (accounting for 35% of the total $50,000.00 allocation) according to the number of pay periods worked by each PAGA Member. Moreover, the PAGA Members will each receive on average approximately $41.97 for PAGA recovery. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 16, 24-33).

The settlement is non-reversionary and Class Members will not be required to submit claim forms to receive payment, but each Class Member will receive the Class Notice containing information about their share, the opportunity to dispute the number of Pay Periods Worked, and the opportunity to opt-out or object to the settlement. All Class Members who do not affirmatively opt-out will receive a settlement check upon the Court granting final approval. Likewise, all PAGA Members will receive a share of the PAGA Penalties once the settlement receives final approval.

Because the settlement is fair and reasonable and was negotiated at arm's length by experienced counsel and an experienced mediator following a sufficient exchange of information and documents prior to mediation, it should be preliminarily approved. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order preliminarily approving the settlement, conditionally certifying the Class under Code of Civil Procedure § 382 for settlement purposes, approving the proposed Class Notice, appointing Plaintiffs' counsels as class counsel, appointing ILYM, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator, and scheduling a hearing for final approval of the Settlement.

1 II. BACKGROUND

2 A. THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

3 The Class is defined as follows:

4 All hourly-paid, non-exempt employees employed by Defendant within the State of 5 California at any time during the Class Period. (S.A. ¶ 1.3). There are approximately 711 Class
6 Members, as of the time of mediation. (Id.).

7 B. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

8 On December 20, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a letter to the California Labor Workforce
9 Development Agency (the “LWDA”) for civil penalties under the Private Attorney General Act
10 of 2004 (the “PAGA”). (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 3).

11 On December 20, 2024, Plaintiff filed his Class Action against Defendant in a case entitled 12 Jose Chavez v. Sunstate Equipment Co., LLC, et al., Los Angeles Superior Court Case No.
13 24STCV33820 (the “Class Action”). On February 25, 2025, Plaintiff filed his PAGA Action
14 against Defendant in a case entitled Jose Chavez v. Sunstate Equipment Co., LLC, et al., Los 15 Angeles Superior Court Case No. 25STCV05237 (the “PAGA Action”). (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 5-16 6).

17 The Class Action and PAGA Action both allege that Defendant violated various wage 18 and-hour laws, including: (1) failure to pay wages including overtime and minimum wages as 19 required by Labor Code §§ 510 and 1194; (2) failure to provide meal periods as required by Labor
20 Code §§ 226.7, 512, and IWC Wage orders; (3) failure to provide rest periods as required by 21 Labor Code §§ 226.7, 512; (4) failure to pay timely wages required by Labor Code § 203;
22 (5) failure to provide accurate wage statements required by Labor Code §§ 226, 226.3, 558.1;
23 (6) failure to reimburse necessary business expenses; and (7) violation of Business & Professions
24 Code § 17200, et seq. (Hawkins Decl., ¶¶ 5-7).

25 On March 13, 2025 Defendant removed Plaintiff’s Class Action to the United States
26 District Court for the Central District of California and designated Case No. 2:25-cv-02262-RGK-
27 KES (the “Federal Court Action”). (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 8).

1 The Parties participated in a full-day private mediation of this matter. In preparation for 2 the mediation, Defendant provided Class Counsel with first- and last-time punch dates for all
3 employees, time and payroll records and relevant policies for Class Members during the Class
4 Period. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 9).

5 On August 15, 2025, the Parties participated in private mediation with Robert D. Coviello, 6 Esq., a respected mediator of complex wage-and-hour actions, and with the assistance of his 7 evaluations, the Parties reached settlement. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 10; S.A. ¶ 2.2). The Parties now
8 seek the Court's preliminary approval of the Settlement.

9 C. SUMMARY OF THE CLAIMS AND DEFENSES

10 Plaintiff alleged numerous wage and hour violations on behalf of the Class Members.
11 However, Defendant vigorously contested and denied Plaintiff's material allegations on the 12 merits and as to the propriety of a class action or PAGA representative action.

13 The primary claims in the actions are for late or interrupted meal period violations, and 14 off the clock work. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 26). Plaintiff claimed he and other coworkers worked off 15 the clock as they were required to work through meal and rest periods, despite clocking out, and 16 supervisors would manually alter the time records to indicate breaks were taken. As a result,
17 Plaintiff challenged the propriety of Defendant's pay practices, arguing that Defendants failed
18 to account for off-the-clock work performed by Plaintiff and the Class Members. Plaintiff
19 claimed that he and the putative class were denied proper meal breaks and were not paid break
20 premium pay when owed. Plaintiff also alleged that Defendants failed to provide him and Class
21 Members with an uninterrupted rest period, as they were instructed to work through rest breaks
22 and were thus, forced to forego them altogether. Most importantly, Plaintiff alleged that these 23 unpaid wage claims triggered waiting time penalties, wage statement penalties, and PAGA
24 penalties. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 24-32).

25 However, Defendants vehemently opposed these unpaid wage and meal period claims
26 both on the merits and as to the propriety of pursuing them on a class and representative PAGA
27 basis. For example, Defendants argued that it maintained lawful policies to compensate 28 employees for all time worked and that any ruling on these unpaid wage claims would require unwieldy individualized assessments that were not proper for class and representative treatment. Defendants also argued that it had compliant meal and rest break policies and practices, and that issues related to any denial of proper breaks would have to be resolved on an individualized basis. As for the waiting time penalty claims, Defendants argued that these would fail along with the underlying wage claims – and, even if the wage claims succeeded, Defendants argued it was entitled to the “good faith” defense and that Plaintiff would be unable to show these violations were “willful.” (Id.).

Plaintiff also alleged various PAGA claims arising out of the claimed violations mentioned above. However, Defendants argued that these types of “derivative” claims have no merit. (Id.).

Despite the disputed nature of the claims, the Parties concluded that further litigation of the Action would be protracted and expensive, and that it is desirable that the Action be fully and finally settled to limit further risk, expense, and protracted litigation.

III. SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

The following is a summary of the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement.

A. SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION AND ALLOCATION

The $942,500.00 Gross Settlement Amount is non-reversionary and will be paid out to Class Members without the need to submit a claim form or take any affirmative action. It includes (1) Plaintiff’s attorneys’ fees and costs, as approved by the Court; (2) Class Representative Service Award of $10,000.00 to the named Plaintiff, subject to approval by the Court; (3) settlement administrator expenses, not to exceed $12,000.00; (4) a $50,000.00 PAGA award, 65 percent of which is to be paid to the LWDA pursuant to California Labor Code § 2699(i) and 35 percent to the PAGA Members (PAGA Members); and (5) the aggregate of all Individual Settlement Amounts of the Participating Class Members. (S.A. ¶ 1.16). Defendant will separately pay its share of employer’s payroll taxes.

After all Court-approved deductions from the Settlement Amount, it is estimated that $526,364.75 will be available to pay the Individual Settlement Amounts to approximately 711 Class Members. Thus, the average settlement payment is approximately $740.32.

1 B. NOTICE PROCEDURES

2 The proposed Class Notice will be provided to the Class Members showing the estimated
3 amount that each Class Member will receive and the number of workweeks they are credited
4 (Exhibit A to the Settlement Agreement). Within 30 calendar days following notice by Plaintiff
5 or the Court of entry of the Order granting Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, Defendants
6 will provide to the Settlement Administrator the Class Data, comprised of a list of Class
7 Members that identifies each Class Member by name, Social Security Number, and last-known
8 address; and specifies the number of weeks worked by each Class Member in a non-exempt
9 position during the Class Period and the PAGA Period ("Class Data"). (S.A. ¶ 7.2).

10 Within 30 calendar days after receipt of the Class Data from Defendants, the Settlement
11 Administrator will send the Class Notice to each Class Member via First Class regular U.S.
12 Mail. Id.

13 No later than five (5) calendar days after the Administrator's receipt of any Class Notice
14 returned by the USPS as undelivered, the Administrator shall re-mail the Class Notice using any 15 forwarding address provided by the U.S. Postal Service. If the USPS does not provide a 16 forwarding address, the Administrator shall conduct a Class Member Address Search, and re-mail
17 the Class Notice to the most current address obtained. The Administrator will have no obligation 18 to make further attempts to locate or send Class Notice to Class Members whose Class Notice is 19 returned by the USPS a second time. Id.

20 C. EXCLUSION AND OBJECTION PROCEDURES

21 Class Members who do not timely Opt-Out of the Settlement will be deemed to participate
22 in the Settlement and shall become a Participating Class Member without having to submit a
23 claim form or take any other action. A valid Opt-Out Request must: (i) be signed by the Class 24 Member, (ii) contain the Class Member's full name, current address, telephone number, and the 25 last four digits of the Social Security number of the Class Member requesting exclusion; (iii) a 26 statement clearly expressing the Class Member's desire to be excluded from (or opt out of) the 27 Settlement; and (iv) be postmarked on or before the expiration of the Notice Period. (S.A. ¶ 7.1).

28 The Class Notice shall inform the Class Members of their right to object to the

1 Settlement. Class Members who submit a valid Request for Exclusion may not object to the 2 Settlement. (S.A. ¶ 7.1). Participating Class Members who wish to object to the Settlement must 3 submit a written objection to the Settlement Administrator no later than the expiration of the 4 Notice Period or Response Deadline. All objections must be in writing, which includes full
5 name, address, last four digits of his or her Social Security number, and signature; (2) the case 6 name and number; (3) the factual and legal basis, with supporting documents, if any, on which 7 the objection is based; (4) whether the objector is represented by an attorney and providing the 8 contact information of any such attorney; and (5) whether the objector plans to appear at the 9 Final Approval Hearing. (S.A. ¶ 7.3). The Participating Class Member may also appear at the 10 Final Approval Hearing to object to the Settlement, regardless of whether they submitted a 11 written objection. (Id.) If a Class Member submits both a Request for Exclusion and an 12 objection (regardless of which came first), the objection shall nullify the Request for Exclusion
13 and the Class Member will be deemed a Participating Class Member. (S.A., ¶ 7).

14 D. SETTLEMENT ALLOCATION FORMULA FOR SETTLEMENT SHARES

15 Class Members are entitled to receive payment under the Class Settlement of their pro
16 rata share of the Net Settlement Amount ("Individual Settlement Payment") based on the number
17 of weeks each Class Member worked for Defendant in a non-exempt position in California 18 during the Class Period ("Workweeks"). To calculate each Individual Settlement Payment, the 19 Settlement Administrator has divided the Participating Class Member's weeks worked in a non-
20 exempt position by the total number of weeks worked by all Class Members in a non-exempt
21 position during the Class Period and multiplying this figure by the Net Class Settlement Amount, 22 to yield each Participating Class Member's Individual Settlement Payment. (S.A. ¶ 10.2).

23 Additionally, each "PAGA Member" will receive a share of the PAGA Penalties based 24 on a pro-rata basis based on the number of weeks each PAGA Member worked for Defendant in 25 a non-exempt position in California during the PAGA Period ("Pay Periods Worked"). Thus, the 26 $50,000.00 PAGA Penalties allocated to the PAGA Members will be divided and paid on a Pay 27 Period basis. (S.A. ¶ 10.4).

1 The Class Notice will inform Class Members of the estimated share and the number of 2 Workweeks he/she worked during the Class Period and the number of pay periods he/she worked
3 during the PAGA Period. Class Members may dispute their Workweeks and/or Pay Periods
4 Worked if they feel they worked more in the Class or PAGA Periods than Defendant's records
5 show by timely submitting evidence to the Settlement Administrator. (S.A. ¶ 7.1).

6 As noted, assuming a class size of 711 Class Members, the average payment to each class 7 member will be approximately $740.32 each, although the actual payment will be calculated on 8 a pro-rata basis as shown above. Each workweek will have a value of approximately $6.87 on 9 average. The highest amount a Settlement Class Member will receive is approximately 10 $1,799.94 based upon $6.87 per workweek multiplied by approximately 262 maximum 11 workweeks in the Class Period. The lowest payment is estimated to be approximately $6.87 for 12 someone who worked only one workweek. Indeed, this is a good result for the Class Members.
13 (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 33).

14 Moreover, it is estimated that there are approximately 417 PAGA Members who will 15 share in the $17,500.00 PAGA award on a pro rata basis. As a result, PAGA Members will each 16 receive on average approximately $41.96 for PAGA recovery. The lowest value is approximately 17 $0.67 for one pay period worked. Id.

18 E. TIMING OF SETTLEMENT DISBURSEMENTS

19 Defendants will pay their respective contributions for the Gross Settlement Amount to 20 the QSF established by the Administrator within 30 calendar days after the Effective Date. (S.A.
21 ¶ 10.7). The distribution of Individual Class Payments to Participating Class Members and 22 PAGA Members will occur within 14 calendar days after Defendants fund the Gross Settlement
23 Amount. (S.A. ¶ 7.1).

24 Class Members will have 180 days to cash their settlement check. If a Class Member fails
25 to cash a check by the deadline, then, if said check represents a sum that is five (5) or more times 26 greater than the cost of sending an additional check to Participating Class Members, then the 27 uncashed Individual Settlement Payment checks will be redistributed to Participating Class
28 Members on a pro-rata basis. If the uncashed Individual Settlement Payment checks represent a

1 sum that is less than five (5) times greater than the cost of sending an additional check to 2 Participating Class Members, the Individual Settlement Payment checks will be cancelled
3 Unclaimed Property Fund in the name of the Participating Class Members, as an alternative
4 distribution for which there is good cause, under California Code of Civil Procedure Section
5 384(b). (S.A. ¶ 10.2).

6 F. TAX TREATMENT

7 All settlement payments paid to Participating Class Members, PAGA Members, and the 8 Named Plaintiff, will be paid in a net amount after applicable state and federal tax withholdings,
9 including payroll taxes, have been deducted. (S.A. ¶¶ 10.9, 12). The Participating Class Member
10 Payments shall be reported as follows: (i) 20% of each Participating Class Member's Individual
11 Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of wage claims (the "Wage Portion"). The Wage
12 Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2 Form and (ii)
13 approximately 80% of each Participating lass Member's Individual Class Payment will be 14 allocated to settlement of claims for non-wages, expense reimbursement, interest and penalties 15 (the "Non-Wage Portion"). The Non-Wage Portions are not subject to wage withholdings and 16 will be reported on IRS 1099 Forms. Participating Class Members assume full responsibility and 17 liability for any employee taxes owed on their Individual Class Payment. Id.

18 G. RELEASE OF CLAIMS

19 As a material part of the Agreement, pursuant to the Settlement Agreement ¶ 6, upon 20 Defendant's payment of the GSA, Plaintiff, Participating Class Members, PAGA Members, and 21 the LWDA will release claims against all Released Parties as follows:

22 Release by Participating Class Members. All Participating Class Members, on behalf of 23 themselves and their respective former and present representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, 24 administrators, successors, and assigns, release Released Parties from the Released Class Claims.
(S.A. ¶ 6.2).

25 Release of PAGA Claims. All PAGA Members, the State of California, and the LWDA
26 are deemed to release, on behalf of themselves and their respective former and present
27 representatives, agents, attorneys, heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns, the Released
Parties from all of the Released PAGA Claims. (S.A. ¶ 6.3).

28 Plaintiff also agreed to a general release. (S.A. ¶ 6.1).

1 The time governing the PAGA Released Claims is the period from December 22, 2023,
2 through the date of either December 31, 2025 or the date on which the Court issues the 3 Preliminary Approval Order. (the “PAGA Period”; see S.A. ¶ 1.19).

4 IV. PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION OF THE SETTLEMENT CLASS UNDER 5 THE LESSER STANDARD OF SCRUTINY FOR SETTLEMENT-ONLY
6 CERTIFICATION IS APPROPRIATE FOR PURPOSES OF SETTLEMENT

7 California Rule of Court 3.769(d) provides that the Court may make an order approving 8 certification of a provisional settlement class at the preliminary approval stage. It is well-
9 established that trial courts should use a “lesser standard of scrutiny” for determining the propriety
10 of certifying a settlement class, as opposed to a litigation class. (Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996)
11 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1807 at n.19.) The reasons include that no trial is anticipated in a settlement 12 class, so the case management issues inherent in determining if the class should be certified need 13 not be confronted; and the trial court’s fairness review of the settlement protects the interests of 14 the non-representative class members. (Id.; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com. (9th 15 Cir. 19150) 688 F.2d 615, 633 (“Th[e] relationship between the certification determination and 16 the merits of the case is further attenuated within the context of the settlement evaluation process
17 . . . [C]ertification issues raised by class action litigation that is resolved short of a decision on the 18 merits must be viewed in a different light.”); Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor (1997) 521 U.S.
19 591, 620 (“Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a district court need 20 not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable management problems . . . for the 21 proposal is that there be no trial.”). As discussed below, for the purposes of this settlement only,
22 Plaintiffs request that this Court provisionally certify the Class, as defined above, under Code of 23 Civil Procedure § 3150.

24 A. NUMEROSITY AND ASCERTAINABILITY

25 Numerosity is met if a proposed class is so large that joinder of all members would be 26 impracticable. See Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 3150. A proposed settlement class is ascertainable if 27 the class members can be objectively identified and given notice of the litigation without 28 unreasonable time or expense. (See Medraza v. Honda of N. Hollywood (2008) 166 Cal.App.4th 89, 101.) Here, according to Defendant’s records, there are approximately 711 Class Members. This figure satisfies the numerosity requirement.

B. WELL-DEFINED COMMUNITY OF INTEREST

1. Commonality

To justify certification, the class proponent must show that questions of law or fact common to the class predominate over the questions affecting the individual members. (See Arenas v. El Torito Rests., Inc. (2010) 183 Cal.App.4th 723, 732 (citing Washington Mut. Bank v. Superior Court (2001) 24 Cal.4th 906, 913).) Plaintiff contends that the Class was subject to common policies and practices relating to the payment of wages, meal and rest breaks, among other things. While the Parties dispute whether a class would be appropriate if the litigation were to continue, they agree to class certification for the purposes of this settlement only. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 13-45).

2. Typicality

Typicality “focuses on whether there exists a relationship between the Plaintiffs’ claims and the claims alleged on behalf of the class.” (See Herbert B. Newberg & Alba Conte, Newberg on Class Actions (“Newberg”) § 3:13 (4th ed. 2002).) Again, the Parties dispute whether Plaintiff’s claims are typical of the Class for the purposes of any continued litigation of the Action, but agree for the purposes of this settlement only, that Plaintiffs assert claims regarding Defendant’s meal and rest break practices, wage statements, and the provisions governing the timely and complete payment of wages, which are at the core of the lawsuit.

3. Adequacy of Representation

The proposed class representative must establish that he or she will adequately represent the proposed class. (See Barboza v. West Coast Digital GSM, Inc. (2009) 179 Cal.App.4th 540, 546.) Specifically, Plaintiffs are adequate to represent the class because they were employed by Defendant as non-exempt employees during the Class Period, experienced the same wage and hour practices as the rest of the Class, understood their duties as a Class Representatives, have been willing to undergo the risks of litigation, and have no conflicts of interest.

1 Adequacy may be established by the fact that counsel are experienced practitioners. (See
2 Local Joint Exec. Bd. of Culinary/Bartender Trust Fund v. Las Vegas Sands, Inc. (9th Cir. 2001)
3 244 F.3d 1152, 1162.) Here, Plaintiff is represented by Class Counsel with extensive experience
4 in wage and hour class actions like the instant matter. (Hawkins Decl. ¶ 41).

5 4. Superiority

6 Certification of the Class for settlement purposes is superior here because there will be a 7 global resolution of all claims at once, which fosters judicial economy. Class certification for 8 settlement purposes is also vastly superior to litigation of numerous individual claims because 9 most of the claims are too small to litigate outside of the class context.

10 V. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT,
11 WHICH IS FAIR, ADEQUATE, AND REASONABLE

12 A. CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND 13 APPROVAL UNDER THE CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT

14 The law favors settlements. (Bush v. Superior Court (1992) 10 Cal.App.4th 1374.) This is 15 particularly true in class actions where substantial resources can be conserved by avoiding the 16 time, cost, and rigors of formal litigation. However, a class action may not be dismissed,
17 compromised, or settled without the Court's approval. Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(a). The California Rules
18 of Court set forth the procedures for court approval of a class action settlement: (1) the Court
19 preliminarily approves the settlement; (2) class members receive notice as directed by the Court;
20 and (3) the Court conducts a final approval hearing to inquire into the fairness of the proposed
21 settlement. (See Cal. R. Ct. 3.769(c), (e-g).)

22 The decision to approve or reject a proposed settlement lies within the Court's sound
23 discretion. (See Wershba v. Apple Computer, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 234-35.)
24 Nevertheless, in considering a potential settlement for approval, a court is not to turn the approval
25 hearing "into a trial or rehearsal for trial on the merits . . . [or] to reach any ultimate conclusions 26 on the contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute." (Officers for 27 Justice, 688 F.2d at 625.)

1 The Court’s ultimate duty is to determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and
2 reasonable. (See Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801 (setting forth the “fair, adequate, and reasonable”
3 standard) (citing Officers for Justice, supra); Cho v. Seagate Tech. Holdings, Inc. (2009) 177
4 Cal.App.4th 734, 742-43 (a trial court must approve a class action settlement agreement, but only 5 after determining that it is ““fair, adequate and reasonable,”” considering factors such as the ““risk,
6 expense, [and] complexity”” of continued litigation) (citations omitted).) The Court enjoys broad 7 discretion in making its fairness determination, and should consider factors including, but not 8 limited to:

9 [T]he strength of Plaintiff’s case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration 10 of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the 11 amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the stage of 12 the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel . . . and the reaction of the 13 class members to the proposed settlement.
14 Dunk, supra (detailing non-exhaustive list of factors for court’s consideration at final approval).

15 The above factors are not exclusive “and the court is free to engage in a balancing and 16 weighing of factors depending on the circumstances of each case.” (Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 17 245.) However, in doing so, the Court must give “[due] regard to what is otherwise a private 18 consensual agreement between the parties.” (Id.) The inquiry must be limited “to the extent 19 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or 20 overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties.” (Id. (citation and internal 21 quotation marks omitted).)

22 At the preliminary approval stage, the Court need only determine that the settlement falls 23 within the “range of possible judicial approval,” so that notice to the class and the scheduling of 24 the fairness hearing are worthwhile. (See Newberg § 11:25.) Indeed, the Court should grant 25 preliminary approval if there are no “grounds to doubt its fairness or other obvious deficiencies .
26 . . and [the settlement] appears to fall within the range of possible approval.” (Manual For 27 Complex Litigation (Third) § 30.41 (1995); see Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1802.) A “presumption 28 of fairness exists where: (1) the settlement is reached through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and informal discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors

1 is small.” (Dunk, supra (citing Newberg § 11:41).) As shown below, the settlement falls well
2 within the range of approval because there are no grounds to doubt its fairness.

3 B. THE SETTLEMENT IS THE RESULT OF SERIOUS, INFORMED, NON-COLLUSIVE
4 NEGOTIATIONS

5 The settlement was the product of extensive arm’s length negotiations between counsel
6 and was facilitated by an experienced wage-and-hour class action mediator Robert D. Coviello, 7 Esq. Though cordial and professional, the settlement negotiations were adversarial and non-8 collusive in nature. The settlement reached is the product of substantial effort by the parties and 9 their counsel. Although Plaintiff and his counsel believed that there was a possibility of certifying 10 the claims, they recognized the potential risk, expense, and complexity posed by litigation, such 11 as unfavorable decisions on class certification, summary judgment, at trial and/or on the damages
12 awarded, and/or on an appeal that can take several more years to litigate. In addition, if Defendant 13 prevailed on any of its defenses, the employees may not have received any monetary recovery.

14 C. THE EXTENT OF THE INVESTIGATION WAS MORE THAN SUFFICIENT TO PERMIT
15 PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT

16 Plaintiff thoroughly investigated and evaluated the factual and legal strengths and 17 weaknesses of this case before reaching the settlement. As described above, the settlement was 18 reached after extensive investigation and research, thorough calculations and risk evaluation, and 19 a substantial exchange of information relating to the Class Members prior to mediation.

20 D. THE SETTLEMENT IS A REASONABLE COMPROMISE OF CLAIMS

21 To evaluate a settlement, the parties must provide the trial court with “basic information 22 about the nature and magnitude of the claims in question and the basis for concluding that the 23 consideration being paid for the release of those claims represents a reasonable compromise.”
24 (Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 133.) The Kullar requirement
25 was further explained in Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186
26 Cal.App.4th 399, which held that an explicit statement of the maximum theoretical amount that 27 the class could recover was not necessary:

28 Greenwell misunderstands Kullar, apparently interpreting it to require the record in all cases to contain evidence in the form of an

1 explicit statement of the maximum amount the plaintiff class could 2 recover if it prevailed on all its claims – a number which appears
3 nowhere in the record of the case. But Kullar does not, as 4 Greenwell claims, require any such explicit statement of value; it
5 requires a record which allows “an understanding of the amount 6 that is in controversy and the realistic range of outcomes of the 7 litigation.”

8 A settlement is not judged against what might have been recovered had a plaintiff
9 prevailed at trial, nor does the settlement have to provide 100% of the damages sought to be fair
10 and reasonable. (Wershba v. Apple Computers, Inc. (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 246, 250 11 (“Compromise is inherent and necessary in the settlement process ... even if the relief afforded 12 by the proposed settlement is substantially narrower than it would be if the suits were to be 13 successfully litigated, this is no bar to a class settlement because the public interest may indeed 14 be served by a voluntary settlement in which each side gives ground in the interest of avoiding 15 litigation.”).)

16 In light of the uncertainties of protracted litigation, this negotiated settlement reflects the 17 best practicable recovery for the Class. While the total settlement amount is, of course, a 18 compromise figure, the potential risks and opportunities of both parties were effectively weighed 19 and considered by the parties, resulting in a fair and equitable settlement.

20 As discussed in detail in the Hawkins declaration, the GSA of $942,500.00 represents a 21 reasonable recovery and accounts for approximately 24.72% to 43% of the overall potential
22 value. This recovery could easily be much lower if at trial PAGA penalties were reduced or 23 damages for certain pay periods or workweeks could not be proven for certain individuals. The 24 proposed GSA is within the “ballpark of reasonableness” and should be approved. (Hawkins 25 Decl., ¶¶ 18-32).

26 E. PLAINTIFFS’ COUNSEL ARE EXPERIENCED IN SIMILAR WAGE-AND-HOUR
27 LITIGATION

28 The view of the attorneys actively conducting the litigation is entitled to significant weight in deciding whether to approve the settlement. (Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility (N.D. Cal.
1980) 87 F.R.D. 15, 18, aff’d (9th Cir. 1981) 661 F.2d 939; Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc.

1 (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128 (court must take into account “the experience and view of
2 counsel”) (internal quotation and citation omitted).)

3 Plaintiff’s counsel have a great deal of experience in wage and hour class action litigation
4 over the last 25 years and have obtained certification of several classes, and have been approved
5 as class counsel in many other wage/hour class actions. (Hawkins Decl., ¶ 42).

6 F. THE CLASS NOTICE CONFORMS TO ALL APPLICABLE STATUTES AND RULES

7 The proposed Class Notice should be approved, as it fully informs the Class Members of 8 the nature of the lawsuit and each Class Member’s rights under the terms of the Settlement
9 Agreement and applicable law. The manner in which the Class Notice shall be disseminated, as 10 outlined above, shall ensure that all or nearly all of the Class Members shall be properly notified 11 of the proposed settlement.

12 The proposed Class Notice and proposed plan for the Settlement Administrator to mail
13 the Class Notice to the last known address of all class members complies with all the requirements
14 of California Rule of Court 3.79(f) and 3.766(b). The contents of the proposed Class Notice
15 includes (1) the material terms of the settlement; (2) the proposed attorneys’ fees, litigation 16 expenses, and the costs of administration; (3) details about the final fairness hearing and how 17 class members may elect to exclude themselves or make an objection; and (4) how class members 18 can obtain additional information. See Class Notice (Exhibit A to Settlement Agreement). In 19 addition, it will inform Class Members of their estimated settlement share.

20 The Court has wide discretion in approving the means of providing notice, so long as the 21 class representative “provide(s) meaningful notice in a form that should have a reasonable chance 22 of reaching a substantial percentage of class members.” (Archibald v. Cinerama Hotels, (1976)
23 15 Cal.3d 853, 861.) Here, the parties’ notice plan is that notice of the Settlement will be 24 disseminated directly to the class members by first class mail by the settlement administrator,
25 since Defendant has the last known addresses of all class members, and the Settlement
26 Administrator will perform a skip trace and update those addresses for any class notices that are 27 returned and re-send the notice.

1 The Class Notice satisfies the requirements of Rule of Court 3.766 and afford Settlement
2 Class Members with all due process protections required by the United States Constitution.
3 Moreover, the contents of the Class Notice are in compliance with Cal. R. Ct. 3.766(d), because 4 the Notice includes, without limitation (1) a detailed explanation of the case, including the basic 5 contentions or denials of the parties; (2) a statement that the court will exclude the member from 6 the class if the member so requests by a specified date; (3) a procedure for the member to follow 7 in requesting exclusion from the class; (4) a statement that the judgment, whether favorable or 8 not, will bind all members who do not request exclusion; and (5) a statement that any member 9 who does not request exclusion may, if the member so desires, enter an appearance through 10 counsel. The 60-day deadline for Class Members to exclude themselves is reasonable, as it
11 provides Class Members with sufficient time to do so and, if they so choose, to seek independent
12 legal advice in the interim. If a Class Member does not opt-out, then he or she will automatically 13 be sent a settlement check.

14 G. THE NON-REVERSIONARY CHECKS CASHED DISTRIBUTION ENSURES
15 MAXIMAL RECOVERY FOR CLASS MEMBERS

16 Each member who does not opt out of the Settlement shall be mailed a check which 17 ensures that every Class Member will be paid unless he or she affirmatively acts to exclude 18 himself or herself. Moreover, the Settlement Amount is non-reversionary, which means that no 19 settlement funds will revert to Defendant; instead, if any checks are not cashed before the 20 objection deadline, the funds will be transferred to the State of California's Unclaimed Property
21 Fund subject to approval of the Court. Such terms are favored by Courts and demonstrate that 22 there was no collusion between counsel for the parties and that the Settlement is fair and favorable
23 to the Class Members.

24 H. THE ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS ALLOCATION UNDER THE SETTLEMENT
25 AGREEMENT IS FAIR

26 Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Counsel is requesting $314,135.25
27 in attorneys' fees, which is equal to 33.33% of the Settlement Amount. (See, e.g. Laffitte v.
28 Robert Half Int'l Inc. (2016) 1 Cal.5th. 480 (approving 1/3 fee in the amount of $6.33 million at

1 a 2.13 lodestar multiplier, when class action litigation establishes a monetary fund for the benefit
2 of the class members, the trial court may determine the amount of a reasonable fee by choosing
3 an appropriate percentage of the fund created); see also Stuart v. RadioShack Corp. (N.D. Cal.
4 Aug. 9, 2010) No. C-07-4499 EMC, 2010 WL 3155645 (approving fee award of 1/3 of the total 5 maximum settlement amount of $4.5 million) (the court noted that the fee award of 1/3 of the 6 total settlement was “well within the range of percentages which courts have upheld as 7 reasonable in other class action lawsuits”); Singer v. Becton Dickinson and Co. (S.D. Cal. June
8 1, 2010) No. 08-cv-1501-IEG (BLM), 2010 WL 2196104, at *8 (approving fee award of 33.33%
9 of the common fund); Romero v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 2007) No.
10 1:05cv0484 DLB, 2007 WL 3492841, at *4 (awarding fees of 1/3 of common fund in a wage 11 and hour class action, noting: “[f]ee awards in class actions average around one-third of the 12 recovery.”); Martin v. FedEx Ground Package System, Inc. (N.D. Cal. Dec. 31, 2008) No. C 06-13 6883 VRW, 2008 WL 5478576, at *8 (approving fees of 1/3 of common fund).)

14 Additionally, Plaintiff’s Counsel is seeking up to $30,000 in litigation costs, pursuant to 15 the Settlement Agreement.

16 Once the Court grants preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and Class Notice
17 is disseminated, Plaintiff’s counsel will submit a comprehensive request for attorneys’ fees and 18 costs with its final approval motion.

19 I. THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE’S SERVICE AWARD PAYMENT REQUEST IS FAIR
20 AND APPROPRIATE

21 The Settlement Agreement provides for a Class Representative Service Award Payment
22 to the Class Representative of not more than $10,000.00, which is reasonable given the large
23 recovery that Class Members will receive on average, as well as the time and effort Plaintiff
24 devoted to their cases. Plaintiff’s efforts included providing factual background for the Class and 25 PAGA complaints; providing documents and information about Defendants’ compensation plan;
26 participating in phone calls to discuss litigation and settlement strategy; making themselves
27 available throughout the litigation to assist with analyzing the claims and defenses; helping Class
28 Counsel prepare for the mediation; and reviewing the settlement documents. The Class

Representative also assumed significant risk in bringing this litigation—namely, had he lost, he could have been ordered to pay Defendant’s costs. See Declaration of Jose Chavez.

The requested Class Representative Service Award Payment falls within the range of incentive payments typically awarded to Class Representatives in similar class actions. (See e.g. Bond v. Ferguson Enterprises, Inc. (E.D. Cal. June 30, 2011) No. 1:09–cv–1662 OWW MJS, 2011 WL 2648879 (approving $11,250 enhancement award to each of the two class representatives in a trucker meal break class action; Ross v. US Bank National Association (N.D. Cal. Sept. 29, 2010) No. C 07-02951 SI, 2010 WL 3833922, at *2 (approving $20,000 enhancement award to Class Representative in California wage-and-hour class action settlement); Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc. (E.D. Cal. 2010) 266 F.R.D. 4150, 493 (approving Enhancement Awards in the amount of $15,000 each from a $300,000 settlement fund in a wage/hour class action); West v. Circle K Stores, Inc. (E.D. Cal. Oct. 19, 2006) NO. CIV. S-04-0438 WBS GGH, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 76558, at *28 (“the court finds Plaintiff’s enhancement payments of $ 15,000 each to be reasonable.”); Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs. (N.D. Cal. Jan. 26, 2007) No. C-06-4068 MMC, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8476, at *52 (finding “requested payment of $ 25,000 to each of the named Plaintiff is appropriate” in wage and hour settlement); Louie v. Kaiser Found. Health Plan, Inc. (S.D. Cal. Oct. 6, 2008) Case No. 08cv0795 IEG RBB, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, at *18 (approving “$25,000 incentive award for each Class Representative” in wage an hour settlement).)

VI. THE COURT SHOULD APPOINT APEX CLASS ACTION ADMINISTRATORS AS SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR

Subject to the Court’s approval, the parties stipulated to ILYM, Inc. serving as the Settlement Administrator. ILYM, Inc. is experienced in administering class action settlements and has provided a flat-fee proposal to administer this settlement for $12,000.00. (Hawkins Decl. ¶¶ 40-41). (S.A. ¶ 10.6).

VII. TIMELINE AND SCHEDULING A FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The last step in the approval process is the formal hearing, whereby proponents of the Settlement may explain and describe its terms and conditions and offer argument in support of approval, and Class Members or their counsel may be heard in support of or in opposition to the settlement. Subject to the Court's approval, the Parties propose that the Court schedule a hearing for final approval approximately 120 days after the Preliminary Approval Date, as follows:

	Preliminary Approval (PA) hearing
Within 30 calendar days after entry of order of PA	Class Data due to Settlement Administrator
Within 30 calendar days after receiving Class Data	Settlement Administrator to complete first mailing of the Notice Packet to all Settlement Class Members
45 calendar days after mailing Class Notice	Deadline for Settlement Class Members to submit Requests for Exclusion and Objections to the settlement
16 court days before Final Approval hearing	Deadline for Plaintiff to file and serve Motion for Final Approval of Settlement and application for award of attorneys' fees, costs and Service Award
9 court days before Final Approval hearing	Deadline for filing of any written opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Final Approval of Settlement, or filing any response to an objection to the settlement
5 court days before final approval hearing	Deadline for filing of any written reply to opposition Motion for Final Approval of Settlement
To Be Determined (Approximately 120 days after Preliminary Approval is granted)	Final Approval Hearing

VIII. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant the unopposed Motion for preliminary approval of the Class Action and PAGA Settlement.
