DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

FILED
Superior Court of California
County of Los Angeles

David W. Stryker, Executive Officer / Clerk of Court

By: M. Arellanes Deputy

1 Plaintiff KEVIN TURNER, (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself and all others
2 similarly situated (collectively, “Employees”; individually, “Employee”) complains of 3 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of himself and all current and former 6 Employees within the State of California who, at any time four (4) years prior to the filing of this
7 lawsuit, are or were employed as non-exempt, hourly employees by Defendants ODS
8 TECHNOLOGIES LP DBA : TVG NETWORK, a Delaware limited partnership; TRINET HR III, 9 INC., a California corporation; TRINET, an entity of unknown form; FANDUEL GROUP, an 10 entity of unknown form; FANDUEL an entity of unknown form; and DOES 1 through 50 (all 11 defendants being collectively referred to herein as “Defendants”). Plaintiff alleges that 12 Defendants, and each of them, violated various provisions of the California Labor Code, relevant
13 orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) and California Business & Professions Code, 14 and seeks redress therefore.

15 2. Plaintiff is a resident of California and during the time period relevant to this 16 Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within the State of 17 California at Defendants’ facilities and offices in California. Plaintiff and the other Class members
18 worked for Defendants in Los Angeles County, and in other nonexempt positions throughout 19 California, and consistently worked at Defendants’ behest without being paid all wages due. More 20 specifically, Plaintiff and the other similarly situated Class members were employed by 21 Defendants and worked at Defendants’ offices and other facilities where the conduct giving rise to 22 the allegations in this Class Action Complaint occurred. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff
23 was employed by Defendants and (1) shared similar job duties and responsibilities, (2) was 24 subjected to the same policies and practices, and (3) endured similar violations at the hands of 25 Defendants as the other Employee Class members who served in similar and related positions.

26 3. Defendants required Plaintiff and the Employees in the Class to perform work
27 while remaining under Defendants’ control before and after being on the clock for their daily work
28 shift. Defendants further failed to accurately record time worked by Plaintiff and Employee Class

1 members by rounding hours worked as opposed to accurately tracking actual hours worked.
2 Defendants thus failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members for all hours worked and provided
3 them with inaccurate wage statements that prevented Plaintiff and the Class from learning of these 4 unlawful pay practices. Defendants also failed to provide Plaintiff and the Class with lawful rest 5 periods, as employees were not provided with the opportunity to take timely, uninterrupted, and 6 duty-free rest periods as required by the Labor Code.

7 THE PARTIES

8 A. The Plaintiff

9 4. Plaintiff KEVIN TURNER has resided in California and during the time period
10 relevant to this Complaint was employed by Defendants as a non-exempt hourly employee within 11 the State of California.

12 B. The Defendants

13 5. Defendant ODS TECHNOLOGIES LP DBA : TVG NETWORK is a Delaware
14 limited partnership with its principle executive offices in Broomfield, Colorado and has been 15 listed as the employer on Plaintiff's paystubs and personnel file during the relevant time period.
16 ODS TECHNOLOGIES LP DBA : TVG NETWORK does not list a mailing address with the 17 California Secretary of State but employs Plaintiff and the Class members at Defendants' offices
18 and facilities in Los Angeles, California, and throughout California and conducts business
19 throughout California.

20 6. Defendant FANDUEL GROUP is an entity of unknown form and has been listed as 21 the employer on Plaintiff's personnel file during the relevant time period. FANDUEL GROUP
22 does not list a California address with the California Secretary of State, but upon information and 23 belief, employs Plaintiff and the Class members in Los Angeles County, including at Defendants'
24 offices and facilities in Los Angeles, California, and throughout California and conducts business
25 throughout California.

26 7. Defendant FANDUEL is an entity of unknown form and has been listed as the 27 employer on Plaintiff's personnel file during the relevant time period. FANDUEL does not list a 28 California address with the California Secretary of State, but upon information and belief, employs Plaintiff and the Class members in Los Angeles County, including at Defendants' offices and facilities in Los Angeles, California, and throughout California and conducts business throughout California.

8. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or whatever else, of the Defendants sued herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, are currently unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure § 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants designated herein as Does 1 through 50, inclusive, and each of them, are legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of the Defendants designated herein as Does 1 through 50 when their identities become known.

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each Defendant acted in all respects pertinent to this action as the agent of the other Defendants, that Defendants carried out a joint scheme, business plan, or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each Defendant are legally attributable to the other Defendants. Furthermore, Defendants acted in all respects as the employers or joint employers of Employees. Defendants, and each of them, exercised control over the wages, hours or working conditions of Employees, or suffered or permitted Employees to work, or engaged, thereby creating a common law employment relationship, with Employees. Therefore, Defendants, and each of them, employed or jointly employed Employees.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10. This Court has jurisdiction over this Action pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 410.10 and California Business & Professions Code § 17203. This Action is brought as a Class Action on behalf of similarly situated Employees of Defendants pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Venue as to Defendants is also proper in this judicial district pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 395 et seq. Upon information and belief, the obligations and liabilities giving rise to this lawsuit occurred at least in part in Los Angeles County, Defendants maintain and operate company offices and facilities in Los Angeles County,

1 and Defendants employ Plaintiff and other Class members in Los Angeles County and throughout
2 California.

3 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4 11. The Employees who comprise the Class and Collective, including Plaintiff, are 5 nonexempt employees pursuant to the applicable Wage Order of the IWC. Defendants hire
6 Employees who work in nonexempt positions at the direction of Defendants in the State of 7 California. Plaintiff and the Class members were either not paid by Defendants for all hours
8 worked or were not paid at the appropriate minimum, regular and overtime rates. Specifically,
9 Plaintiff and Employees were not paid for the time that they worked “pre-shift” without 10 compensation by logging into computers, connecting to the company systems, and getting 11 organized in order to take over duties at the precise moment their shift starts. Moreover,
12 Defendants required Employees to use their personal cell phones to respond to work demands
13 outside of scheduled work hours, and Employees were not compensated for this time. Defendants
14 also had a uniform policy and practice of rounding time entries rather than paying Plaintiff and the 15 Class members for all hours and minutes they actually worked. Defendants generally rounded time
16 entries to the detriment of the Employees, and these unlawfully rounded time entries were inputted
17 into Defendants’ payroll system from which wage statements and payroll checks were created.
18 Plaintiff also contends that Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members all wages due 19 and owing, failed to provide rest breaks, and failed to furnish accurate wage statements, all in 20 violation of various provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Orders.

21 12. During the course of Plaintiff and the Class members’ employment with 22 Defendants, they were not paid all wages they were owed, including for all work performed and 23 for all overtime hours worked and were forced to work during their rest breaks. Defendants also 24 failed to maintain timekeeping records for Plaintiff that would permit him to discover the nature
25 and extent of Defendants’ unlawful rounding. Additionally, Defendants paid Plaintiff and 26 Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or 27 nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and belief, Defendants failed to 28 incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift

1 differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for 2 purposes of calculating the overtime wage rate. Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and
3 Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift
4 differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by 5 paying a lower overtime rate than required.

6 13. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the
7 present, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay,
8 shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and belief,
9 Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions,
10 incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the 11 regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating sick pay. Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and
12 Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift
13 differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, Defendants failed to pay all sick pay by paying a 14 lower overtime rate than required.

15 14. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the
16 present, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay,
17 shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon information and belief,
18 Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including nondiscretionary commissions,
19 incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, into the calculation of the 20 regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating vacation pay. Therefore, during times when 21 Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive
22 pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses, Defendants failed to pay all vacation pay 23 by paying a lower overtime rate than required.

24 15. As a matter of uniform Company policy, Plaintiff and the Class members were 25 required to work during their rest breaks which were not compensated by Defendants in violation
26 of the California Labor Code. Plaintiff and the Class members were also not paid regular wages 27 and overtime for the time they were required to comply with other requirements imposed upon 28 them, which they had to complete while working through their rest breaks and without

1 compensation. As a result, Plaintiff and the Class members worked shifts over eight (8) hours in a
2 day and over forty (40) hours in a work week, but they were not paid at the appropriate overtime
3 rate for all such hours, including by being required to perform work duties and tasks without pay
4 and while off-the-clock, and due to Defendants' unlawful rounding. As a result, Plaintiff and the 5 Class members worked substantial overtime hours during their employment with Defendants for 6 which they were not compensated, in violation of the California Labor Code, applicable IWC
7 Wage Orders.

8 16. As a result of the above described unlawful rounding, the daily work demands and 9 pressures to work through breaks, and the other wage violations they endured at Defendants'
10 hands, Plaintiff and the Class members were not properly paid for all wages earned and for all 11 wages owed to them by Defendants, including when working more than eight (8) hours in any 12 given day and/or more than forty (40) hours in any given week. As a result of Defendants'
13 unlawful policies and practices, Plaintiff and Class members incurred overtime hours worked for 14 which they were not adequately and completely compensated. To the extent applicable, 15 Defendants also failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members at an overtime rate of 1.5 times the 16 regular rate for the first eight hours of the seventh consecutive work day in a week and overtime
17 payments at the rate of 2 times the regular rate for hours worked over eight (8) on the seventh
18 consecutive work day, as required under the Labor Code, applicable IWC Wage Orders.

19 17. Therefore, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
20 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
21 Employees for all hours worked and failing to pay minimum wage for all time worked as required
22 by California Law.

23 18. Additionally from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and
24 continuing to the present, Defendants had a consistent policy or practice of failing to pay
25 Employees overtime compensation at premium overtime rates for all hours worked in excess of 26 eight (8) hours a day and/or forty (40) hours a week, and double-time rates for all hours worked in 27 excess of twelve (12) hours a day, in violation of Labor Code § 510 and the corresponding 28 sections of IWC Wage Orders.

1 19. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the
2 present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with paid rest breaks of not less
3 than ten (10) minutes for every work period of four (4) or more consecutive hours; nor did
4 Defendants pay Employees premium pay for each day on which requisite rest breaks were not 5 provided or were deficiently provided at one hour of wages at each Employee's effective regular 6 rate of pay, for each rest period that Defendants failed to provide or deficiently provided.

7 20. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and 8 continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely,
9 accurate, and itemized wage statements as required by California wage-and-hour laws.
10 Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees by Defendants failed to accurately account
11 for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient rest breaks all of which Defendants knew or 12 reasonably should have known were owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. The wage 13 statements also reflected incorrect hours worked due to the rounding of time entries described
14 above. Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records of the correct
15 overtime wages based on proper regular rate calculations that included nondiscretionary 16 commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses earned, and the 17 total amount of compensation of Employees. Additionally, the wage statements given to 18 Employees, by Defendants, failed to include the requirements enumerated above. Employees'
19 wage statements did not include: the total hours worked in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2) 20 and failed to accurately set forth all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the 21 corresponding number of hours worked at each such rate in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9).
22 The wage statements provided to Employees were confusing and required Employees to engage in 23 discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting 24 in a miscalculation by the Employees. Furthermore, the wage statements given to Employees
25 failed to accurately specify the address of the employer as required under the law as the wage
26 statements provided to Employees include an address that is not registered with the California
27 Secretary of State's Office despite the fact all businesses that wish to conduct business in 28 California need to register their with the California Secretary of State's Office.

21. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to provide Employees with timely, accurate, and itemized wage statements, in writing, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

22. From at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants have failed to reimburse Employees for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their job duties for Defendants including, but not limited to, the cost of personal cellphone usage, home internet for employees who work from home, and printer paper and ink, all of which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ in violation of Labor Code § 2802.

23. Additionally, from at least three (3) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit, and continuing to the present, Defendants have consistently failed to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

24. Additionally, from at least four (4) years prior to filing this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants have had a consistent policy of failing to pay all wages fur and owed to Employees at the time of their termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of their resignation, as required by California wage-and-hour laws.

25. In light of the foregoing, Employees bring this action pursuant to, inter alia, Labor Code §§ 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 245 et seq., 246, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802.

26. Furthermore, pursuant to Business and Professions Code §§ 17200-17208, Employees seek injunctive relief, restitution, and disgorgement of all benefits Defendants have enjoyed from their violations of Labor Code.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

27. Plaintiff brings this class action on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class defined as follows: all individuals employed by Defendants within the State of California at any time within four (4) years of the filing of this lawsuit.

28. Further, Plaintiff seeks to represent the following Subclasses composed of and defined as follows:

- a. Subclass 1. Minimum Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the applicable minimum wage.
- b. Subclass 2. Wages and Overtime Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated for all hours worked for Defendants at the required rates of pay, including for all hours worked in excess of eight in a day and/or forty in a week.
- c. Subclass 3. Rest Break Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to authorize and permit Employees to take uninterrupted, duty-free, 10-minute rest periods for every four hours worked, or major fraction thereof, and failing to pay one hour of pay at the Employee's regular rate of pay in lieu thereof.
- d. Subclass 4. Vacation Wages Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated at the Employee's regular rate of pay for their vacation wages.
- e. Subclass 5. Sick Pay Subclass. All Class members who were not compensated at the Employee's regular rate of pay for their sick pay wages.
- f. Subclass 6. Failure to Reimburse for Necessary Business Expenditures Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' failure to reimburse for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of Employees job duties for Defendants.
- g. Subclass 7. Wage Statement Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, were not provided with accurate itemized wage statements.
- h. Subclass 8. Payroll Records Subclass. All Class members who were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to keep accurate time and wage records as required by California wage-and-hour laws.
- i. Subclass 9. Termination Pay Subclass. All Class members who, within the applicable limitations period, either voluntarily or involuntarily separated from their employment and were subject to Defendants' policy and/or practice of failing to timely pay wages upon termination.
- j. Subclass 10. UCL Subclass. All Class members who are owed restitution as a

1 result of Defendants' business acts and practices, to the extent such acts and practices are found to 2 be unlawful, deceptive, and/or unfair.

3 29. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court 3.765 to amend or 4 modify the class description with greater particularity or further division into subclasses or 5 limitation to particular issues.

6 30. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
7 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure § 382 because there is a well-defined community
8 of interest in litigation and proposed class is easily ascertainable.

9 A. Numerosity

10 31. The potential members of the class as defined are so numerous that joinder of all 11 the member of the class is impracticable. While the precise number of class members has not been 12 determined at this time, Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants employ or, during the 13 time period relevant to this lawsuit, employed more than 100 individuals within the State of 14 California.

15 32. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant time period increases this 16 number substantially. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' employment records will provide 17 information as to the number and location of all class members.

18 B. Commonality

19 33. There are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any 20 questions affecting only individual class members. These common questions of law and fact 21 include:

- 22 a. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages;
- 23 b. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees wages for all hours worked;
- 24 c. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees overtime as required under Labor
25 Code § 510;
- 26 d. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226.7, and the applicable IWC Wage
27 Orders, by failing to provide Employees with requisite rest breaks or premium pay 28 in lieu thereof;

- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees vacation wages as required under Labor Code § 227.3;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay Employees sick pay as required under Labor Code § 245;
- g. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Employees for necessary business expenses;
- h. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code § 226(a);
- i. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 1174 and 1174.5;
- j. Whether Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 201, 202, and 203 by failing to pay wages and compensation due and owing at the time of termination of employment;
- k. Whether Defendants are liable for penalties under Labor Code § 2699, et seq.;
- l. Whether Defendants violated Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.; and
- m. Whether Employees are entitled to equitable relief pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

C. Typicality

34. The claims of the named plaintiff are typical of those of the other Employees. Employees all sustained injuries and damages arising out of and caused by Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of statutes, as well as regulations that have the force and effect of law, as alleged herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

35. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Employees. Counsel who represents Employees are experienced and competent in litigating employment class actions.

E. Superiority of Class Action

36. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Employees is not practicable, and questions of law and fact common to all Employees predominate over any questions affecting only individual Employees. Each Employee has been damaged and is entitled to recovery by reason of Defendants' illegal policies or practices of failing to compensate Employees properly.

37. Class action treatment will allow those persons similarly situated to litigate their claims in the manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties in managing this case that should preclude class action.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PAY MINIMUM WAGES
(Against All Defendants)

38. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

39. Defendants failed to pay Employees minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants had a consistent policy of misstating Employees time records and failing to pay Employees for all hours worked. Employees would work hours and not receive wages, including as alleged above in connection with rounding of timekeeping entries and working "pre-shift" without compensation by logging into computers, connecting to the company systems, and getting organized in order to take over duties at the precise moment their shift starts. Plaintiff and Class members were also not paid for the time that they spent answering work-related phone calls and texts while off-the-clock. Defendants have also intentionally and improperly rounded, changed, adjusted, and/or modified Employee hours, while benefiting Defendants. Defendants thus regularly failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and Class members, including by unlawful rounding to their detriment. Moreover, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and Employees at the applicable minimum wage for all hours worked. Defendants' uniform pattern of unlawful wage and hour practices manifested, without limitation, applicable to the Class as a whole, as a result of implementing a uniform policy and practice that denied accurate compensation to Plaintiff and the other members of the Class as to minimum wage pay.

40. California Labor Code § 1197, entitled "Pay of Less Than Minimum Wage" states:

The minimum wage for employees fixed by the commission is the minimum wage to be paid to employees, and the payment of a less wage than the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

1 41. The applicable minimum wages fixed by the commission for work during the 2 relevant period is found in the Wage Orders. Pursuant to the Wage Orders, Employees are 3 therefore entitled to double the minimum wage during the relevant period.

4 42. The minimum wage provisions of California Labor Code are enforceable by private 5 civil action pursuant to California Labor Code § 1194(a) which states:

6 Notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, any 7 employee receiving less than the legal minimum wage or the legal 8 overtime compensation applicable to the employee is entitled to 9 recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of the full amount of this minimum wage or overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

10 43. As described in California Labor Code §§ 1185 and 1194.2, any action for wages
11 incorporates the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission.

12 44. California Labor Code § 1194.2 also provides for the following remedies:

13 In any action under Section 1194 . . . to recover wages because of 14 the payment of a wage less than the minimum wages fixed by an 15 order of the commission, an employee shall be entitled to recover liquidated damages in an amount equal to the wages unlawfully unpaid and interest thereon.

16 45. Defendants have the ability to pay minimum wages for all time worked and have 17 willfully refused to pay such wages with the intent to secure for Defendants a discount upon this 18 indebtedness with the intent to annoy, harass, oppress, hinder, delay, or defraud Employees.

19 46. Wherefore, Employees are entitled to recover the unpaid minimum wages
20 (including double minimum wages), liquidated damages in an amount equal to the minimum 21 wages unlawfully unpaid, interest thereon and reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit pursuant 22 to California Labor Code § 1194(a).

23 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

24 FAILURE TO PAY WAGES AND OVERTIME UNDER LABOR CODE § 510

25 (Against All Defendants)

26 47. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
27 full herein.

28 48. By their conduct, as set forth herein, Defendants violated California Labor Code §

1 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission) by failing to pay Employees:
2 (a) time and one-half their regular hourly rates for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a
3 workday or in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek or for the first eight (8) hours worked
4 on the seventh day of work in any one workweek; or (b) twice their regular rate of pay for hours
5 worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one (1) day or for hours worked in excess of eight
6 (8) hours on any seventh day of work in a workweek. Defendants had a consistent policy of not
7 paying Employees wages for all hours worked including time off the clock working “pre-shift”
8 without compensation by logging into computers, connecting to the company systems, and 9 getting organized in order to take over duties at the precise moment their shift starts. Plaintiff and 10 Class members were also not paid for the time that they spent answering work-related phone
11 calls and texts while off-the-clock. Employees regularly worked over 8 hours on a given day or 12 over 40 hours in a given week without receiving overtime compensation.

13 49. Furthermore, on information and belief, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff and 14 Employees the correct overtime rate for the recorded overtime hours that they generated. In 15 addition to an hourly wage, Defendants paid Plaintiff and Employees nondiscretionary
16 commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses. However, upon 17 information and belief, Defendants failed to incorporate all remunerations, including 18 nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary
19 bonuses, into the calculation of the regular rate of pay for purposes of calculating the overtime 20 wage rate.

21 50. Therefore, during times when Plaintiff and Employees worked overtime and 22 received nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary
23 bonuses, Defendants failed to pay all overtime wages by paying a lower overtime rate than 24 required.

25 51. Defendants’ failure to pay compensation in a timely fashion also constituted a
26 violation of California Labor Code § 204, which requires that all wages shall be paid
27 semimonthly. From four (4) years prior to the filing of this lawsuit to the present, in direct
28 violation of that provision of the California Labor Code, Defendants have failed to pay all wages

1 and overtime compensation earned by Employees. Each such failure to make a timely payment of 2 compensation to Employees constitutes a separate violation of California Labor Code § 204.

3 52. Employees have been damaged by these violations of California Labor Code §§
4 204 and 510 (and the relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission).

5 53. Consequently, pursuant to California Labor Code §§ 204, 510, and 1194 (and the 6 relevant orders of the Industrial Welfare Commission), Defendants are liable to Employees for 7 the full amount of all their unpaid wages and overtime compensation, with interest, plus their 8 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

9 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

10 REST-BREAK LIABILITY UNDER LABOR CODE § 226.7

11 (Against All Defendants)

12 54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 13 full herein.

14 55. Employees consistently worked consecutive four (4) hour shifts. Pursuant to the 15 Labor Code and the applicable IWC Wage Order, Employees were entitled to paid rest breaks of 16 not less than ten (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift.

17 56. Defendants failed to provide Employees with timely rest breaks of not less than ten 18 (10) minutes for each consecutive four (4) hour shift. What rest breaks were provided were also 19 not duty-free due to Defendants' policy and practice of interrupting rest breaks with work 20 demands.

21 57. Moreover, Defendants failed to compensate Employees for each rest period not
22 provided or inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC
23 Wage Orders, which provide that, if an employer fails to provide an employee a rest period in 24 accordance with this section, the employer shall pay the employee one hour of pay at the 25 employee's regular rate of compensation for each workday that the rest period is not provided.
26 Defendants failed to compensate the Employees in the Class for each rest period not provided or 27 inadequately provided, as required under Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable IWC Wage
28 Order. Additionally, as detailed above, when Defendants did pay rest period premiums, they did

1 so at the normal regular rate of pay without factoring in all forms or remuneration/compensation
2 or by otherwise incorrectly calculating the regular rate.

3 58. Therefore, pursuant to Labor Code § 226.7, Employees are entitled to damages in 4 an amount equal to one (1) hour of wages at their effective hourly rates of pay for each day
5 worked without the required rest breaks, a sum to be proven at trial.

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
7 FAILURE TO PAY VACATION WAGES
8 (Against All Defendants)

9 59. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
10 full herein.

11 60. Pursuant to California Labor Code § 227.3, whenever a contract of employment or 12 employment policy provides for paid vacation and an employee is terminated without having 13 taken off her vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to her as wages at her final rate 14 in accordance with said contract of employment or policy respecting eligibility or time served.

15 61. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, 16 and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of 17 remuneration in the regular rate of pay upon which vacation wages were calculated and paid.

18 62. Therefore, Plaintiff and Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor
19 Code § 227.3.

20 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
21 FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH LABOR CODE §§ 245 ET SEQ. AND 246
22 (Against All Defendants)

23 63. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
24 full herein.

25 64. California Labor Code § 245 et seq. requires that Defendants provide paid sick time
26 to Employees, including at the amount, terms, and rate of compensation set forth in said law. At 27 times relevant, Defendants have failed compute the amount due for paid sick time in conformance
28 with the pay calculation under California Labor Code § 246(1).

65. Defendants paid nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses to Employees but Defendants failed to include these forms of remuneration in the regular rate of pay upon which sick pay was calculated and paid. Rather than calculating the amount of paid sick time due when sick time is used according to the requirements set forth in California Labor Code § 246(1), Defendants paid sick leave to Employees at a lower rate, in violation of the law.

66. Therefore, Plaintiff and Employees seek to recover penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 245 et seq. and 246.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO REIMBURSE FOR NECESSARY BUSINESS EXPENDITURES

IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 2802

(Against All Defendants)

67. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

68. Under Labor Code § 2802(a), an employer must indemnify its employees for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of his or her duties, or of his or her obedience to the directions of the employer.

69. Employees incurred necessary expenditures in the performance of their job duties for Defendants, including but not limited to the cost of cell phone usage, home internet for employees who work from home, and printer paper and ink, all of which were necessary to perform their duties under Defendants' employ. From four (4) years prior to the original filing of this lawsuit and continuing to the present, Defendants consistently failed to reimburse Employees for these necessarily incurred business expenses.

70. As a result of the unlawful acts of Defendants, Employees have been deprived of reimbursement in amounts to be determined at trial; they are entitled to recovery of such amounts, plus interest and penalties thereon, attorneys' fees, and costs.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 226(a)

(Against All Defendants)

71. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in full herein.

72. California Labor Code § 226(a) requires an employer to furnish each of his or her employees with an accurate, itemized statement in writing showing the gross and net earnings, total hours worked, and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate; these statements must be appended to the detachable part of the check, draft, voucher, or whatever else serves to pay the employee's wages; or, if wages are paid by cash or personal check, these statements may be given to the employee separately from the payment of wages; in either case the employer must give the employee these statements twice a month or each time wages are paid.

73. Defendants failed to provide Employees with accurate itemized wage statements in writing, as required by the Labor Code. Specifically, the wage statements given to Employees, by Defendants, failed to accurately account for wages, overtime, and premium pay for deficient rest breaks, and reflected incorrect hours worked due to the rounding of timekeeping entries all of which Defendants knew or reasonably should have known were owed to Employees, as alleged hereinabove. Additionally, Defendants failed in their affirmative obligation to keep accurate records of the correct overtime wages based on proper regular rate calculations that included nondiscretionary commissions, incentive pay, shift differentials, and/or nondiscretionary bonuses earned, and the total amount of compensation of their Employees. The wage statements given to Employees, by Defendants, failed to include the requirements enumerated above. Employees' wage statements did not include: the total hours worked in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(2) and failed to accurately set forth all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each such rate in violation of Labor Code § 226(a)(9). The wage statements provided to Employees were confusing and required Employees to engage in discovery and refer to outside sources to verify whether their pay was correct, potentially resulting in a miscalculation by the Employees. Furthermore, the wage statements given to Employees failed to accurately specify the address of the employer as required under the law as the wage statements provided to Employees include an address that is not registered with

1 the California Secretary of State's Office despite the fact all businesses that wish to conduct
2 business in California need to register their with the California Secretary of State's Office.

3 74. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' violation of Labor Code § 226(a),
4 Employees suffered injuries, including among other things confusion over whether they received 5 all wages owed them, the difficulty and expense involved in reconstructing pay records, and 6 forcing them to make mathematical computations to analyze whether the wages paid in fact 7 compensated them correctly for all hours worked.

8 75. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 226(a) and 226(e), Employees are entitled to recover
9 the greater of all actual damages or fifty dollars ($50) for the initial pay period in which a violation
10 occurs and one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not 11 exceeding an aggregate penalty of four thousand dollars ($4,000). They are also entitled to an 12 award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

13 76. With respect to violations of Labor Code § 226, Labor Code § 226.3 imposes a 14 civil penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for initial violations for each employee for 15 each pay period, and one thousand dollars ($1000) for each subsequent violation for each 16 employee for each pay period.

17 77. Plaintiff is seeking penalties against Defendants under Labor Code § 226.3, and 18 any other applicable statute allowing recovery of penalties as alleged herein in an amount to be 19 shown according to proof.

20 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FAILURE TO KEEP REQUIRED PAYROLL RECORDS UNDER LABOR CODE § 1174

22 AND 1174.5

23 (Against All Defendants)

24 78. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
25 full herein.

26 79. California Labor Code § 1174 requires that all employers shall keep accurate time
27 and wage records for all employees. California Labor Code § 1174.5 further requires that any 28 employee suffering injury due to a willful violation of the aforementioned obligations may seek

1 damages, including civil penalties, from the employer.

2 80. During the course of Plaintiff's and Employees' employment, Defendants
3 consistently failed to maintain accurate time and wage records for Plaintiff and Employees as 4 required by California Labor Code § 1174 by failing to pay Plaintiff and Employees proper wages,
5 overtime, and premium pay as discussed above.

6 81. Accordingly, Defendants are liable for civil penalties pursuant to the California
7 Labor Code § 1174.5. for the three (3) years prior to the filing of this Complaint.

8 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
9 VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE § 203
10 (Against All Defendants)

11 82. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in 12 full herein.

13 83. Numerous Employees are no longer employed by Defendants; they either quit
14 Defendants' employ or were fired therefrom.

15 84. Defendants failed to pay these Employees all wages due and certain at the time of 16 termination or within seventy-two (72) hours of resignation.

17 85. The wages withheld from these Employees by Defendants remained due and owing 18 for more than thirty (30) days from the date of separation of employment.

19 86. Defendants' failure to pay wages, as alleged above, was willful in that Defendants
20 knew wages to be due but failed to pay them; this violation entitles these Employees to penalties
21 under Labor Code § 203, which provides that an employee's wages shall continue until paid for up 22 to thirty (30) days from the date they were due.

23 TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
24 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS & PROFESSIONS CODE § 17200 *ET SEQ.
25 (Against All Defendants)

26 87. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
27 full herein.

28 88. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself, Employees, and the general public, brings this claim

1 pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. The conduct of Defendants as alleged in 2 this Complaint has been and continues to be unfair, unlawful, and harmful to Employees and the 3 general public. Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the 4 meaning of Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5.

5 89. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of Business & Professions Code
6 § 17204, has suffered injury, and therefore has standing to bring this cause of action for injunctive
7 relief, restitution, and other appropriate equitable relief.

8 90. Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. prohibits unlawful and unfair
9 business practices.

10 91. Wage-and-hour laws express fundamental public policies. Paying employees their 11 wages and overtime, providing them with rest periods, etc., are fundamental public policies of 12 California. Labor Code § 90.5(a) articulates the public policies of this State vigorously to enforce 13 minimum labor standards, to ensure that employees are not required or permitted to work under 14 substandard and unlawful conditions, and to protect law-abiding employers and their employees
15 from competitors who lower costs to themselves by failing to comply with minimum labor 16 standards.

17 92. Defendants have violated statutes and public policies. Through the conduct alleged 18 in this Complaint, Defendants have acted contrary to these public policies, have violated specific 19 provisions of the Labor Code, and have engaged in other unlawful and unfair business practices in 20 violation of Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. Defendants’ conduct has deprived 21 Plaintiff, and all persons similarly situated, and all interested persons, of the rights, benefits, and 22 privileges guaranteed to all employees under the law.

23 93. Defendants’ conduct, as alleged hereinabove, constitutes unfair competition in 24 violation of the Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

25 94. Defendants, by engaging in the conduct herein alleged, by failing to pay wages and 26 overtime, failing to provide rest periods, etc., either knew or in the exercise of reasonable care
27 should have known that their conduct was unlawful; therefore their conduct violates the Business
28 & Professions Code § 17200 et seq.

1 95. As a proximate result of the above-mentioned acts of Defendants, Employees have 2 been damaged, in a sum to be proven at trial.

3 96. Unless restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to engage in such
4 unlawful conduct as alleged above. Pursuant to the Business & Professions Code, this Court
5 should make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be 6 necessary to prevent the use by Defendants or their agents or employees of any unlawful or 7 deceptive practice prohibited by the Business & Professions Code, including but not limited to the 8 disgorgement of such profits as may be necessary to restore Employees to the money Defendants 9 have unlawfully failed to pay.

10 ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

11 PENALTIES PURSUANT TO LABOR CODE § 2699, *ET SEQ.

12 (Against All Defendants)

13 97. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all preceding paragraphs, as though set forth in
14 full herein.

15 98. Plaintiff and Employees are aggrieved employees as defined under Labor Code §
16 2699(c) in that they suffered the violations alleged in this Complaint and were employed by the 17 alleged violators, Defendants.

18 99. Plaintiff seeks penalties under Labor Code §§ 2698 and 2699 for Defendants'
19 violation of all Labor Code provisions included under Labor Code § 2699.5 and includes the 20 penalty provisions, without limitation, based on the following California Labor Code sections:
21 201, 202, 203, 204, 210, 226, 226.3, 226.7, 227.3, 245 et seq., 246, 510, 512, 558, 558.1, 1174, 22 1174.5, 1182.12, 1185, 1194, 1194.2 1197, 1199, 2698, 2699, et seq., and 2802.

23 100. The penalties shall be allocated as follows: 65% to the Labor and Workforce
24 Development Agency (LWDA) and 35% to the affected employee.

25 101. Employees also seek any and all penalties and remedies set forth in Labor Code §
26 558, which states:

27 102. Labor Code § 226.3 provides that “[a]ny employer who violates subdivision (a) of 28 Section 226 shall be subject to a civil penalty in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per employee per violation in an initial citation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per employee for each violation in a subsequent citation, for which the employer fails to provide the employee a wage deduction statement or fails to keep the required in subdivision (a) of Section 226.” To the extent that Labor Code § 226.3 applies, Plaintiff and Employees also seeks such penalties on.

103. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedy by sending a certified letter to the LWDA and Defendants postmarked December 2, 2024. The LWDA has not provided notice of its intent to investigate the alleged violations withing 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the letters.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

1. For an order certifying this action as a class action;
2. For compensatory damages in the amount of the unpaid minimum wages for work performed by Employees and unpaid overtime compensation from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
3. For liquidated damages in the amount equal to the unpaid minimum wage and interest thereon, from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, according to proof;
4. For compensatory damages in the amount of the hourly wage made by Employees for each day requisite rest breaks were not provided or were deficiently provided and where no premium pay was paid therefor from at least four (4) years prior to the filing of this action, as may be proven;
5. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e) for Employees, as may be proven;
6. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 226.3, as may be proven;
7. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 227.3, as may be proven;
8. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code §§ 245 and 246, as may be proven;
9. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 203 for all Employees who quit or were fired in an amount equal to their daily wage times thirty (30) days, as may be proven;
10. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 1174.5, as may be proven;
11. For restitution for unfair competition pursuant to Business & Professions Code

1 § 17200 et seq., including disgorgement or profits, as may be proven;

2 12. For compensatory damages in the amount of all previously unreimbursed business
3 expenditures necessarily incurred by Employees in the discharge of their job duties for Defendants
4 from four (4) years prior to the original filing of this action, as may be proven;

5 13. For penalties pursuant to Labor Code § 2699, et seq., as may be proven;

6 14. For an order enjoining Defendants and their agents, servants, and employees, and 7 all persons acting under, in concert with, or for them, from acting in derogation of any rights or 8 duties adumbrated in this Complaint;

9 15. For all general, special, and incidental damages as may be proven;

10 16. For an award of pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

11 17. For an award providing for the payment of the costs of this suit;

12 18. For an award of attorneys' fees; and 13 19. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem proper and just.
