Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91.....6

1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff DAIZIA GRAY (“Plaintiff”) seeks final approval of the Class Action and PAGA
3 Settlement Agreement and Class Notice and the Addendum to Class Action and PAGA Settlement
4 (collectively, the “Agreement”)¹, which if approved, would provide valuable monetary relief for 197
5 Participating Class Members employed by Defendant ENAGIC USA, INC. (hereinafter “Defendant”)
6 during the Class Period.

7 In an order dated December 30, 2025, this Court preliminarily approved the Agreement and 8 preliminarily certified the Class. Declaration of Shani O. Zakay (“SOZ Dec.”), ¶ 4. On January 14, 9 2026, the Court-approved Class Notice was mailed to each Class Member via U.S. First Class Mail.
10 Declaration of Madely Nava (“Apex Dec.”), ¶ 7. The deadline for submitting a request for exclusion or 11 a written objection was March 16, 2026. Zero Class Members objected to the Settlement. Zero Class
12 Members requested exclusion from the Settlement. Accordingly, 100% of the Class will be participating 13 in the Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶¶ 11-14.

14 An objective evaluation of the proposed settlement of Four Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and 15 Zero Cents ($450,000.00) (“Gross Settlement Amount”) confirms that the relief negotiated on behalf of 16 the Settlement Class is fair, reasonable, and valuable. The Settlement is a product of informed, 17 adversarial, and non-collusive negotiations, between experienced counsel, and presided over by 18 mediator Lisa Klerman, Esq., a respected wage and hour class action mediator. After deducting any 19 Court-approved attorneys’ fees and costs, the Class Representative Service Payment, the Administration 20 Expenses Payment, and the PAGA Payment, the Net Settlement fund shall be distributed to the 21 Settlement Class based on the number of Workweeks they worked while employed by Defendant during 22 the Class Period. SOZ Dec., ¶ 8.

23 This Settlement provides substantial recovery to Class Members. The Administrator has 24 estimated the Net Settlement Amount to be approximately $223,560.00. This will result in an average 25 gross Individual Class Payment of $1,134.82, and a high payment of $3,680.29. Apex Dec. at ¶¶ 15-16.

26 The relief offered by the Settlement is immediate and is particularly impressive when viewed

27 ¹ The Agreement is attached as Ex “A” to the Declaration of Shani O. Zakay (“SOZ Dec.”) at ¶ 3. All citations to the 28 Agreement incorporate by this reference a citation to the SOZ Dec. Further, unless indicated otherwise, capitalized terms used herein have the same meaning as those defined by the Agreement.

1 against the difficulties encountered by plaintiffs pursuing similar wage and hour cases (see infra).
2 Indeed, by settling now rather than proceeding to trial, the Class will not have to wait (possibly years)
3 for relief, nor will they have to bear the risks associated with prolonged and uncertain litigation. SOZ
4 Dec., ¶ 9.

5 As discussed below, the proposed Settlement satisfies all criteria for final settlement approval
6 under California law and falls well within the range of reasonableness. Accordingly, the Class
7 Representative and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court grant final approval of the Agreement
8 and entry of the proposed Final Approval Order and Judgment.

9 II. OVERVIEW OF THE LITIGATION

10 Defendant manufactures and distributes water filtration systems in California, including Los 11 Angeles, where Plaintiff worked. This action asserts claims on behalf of all of Defendant's current and 12 former non-exempt employees employed in California at any time during the Class Period. Plaintiff
13 was employed by Defendant as a non-exempt employee in California from August 2021 to August 2022.
14 At all times during her employment, Plaintiff earned an hourly wage and was entitled to legally 15 compliant meal and/or rest periods, and minimum, regular and overtime wages for all hours worked.
16 SOZ Dec., ¶ 10; Declaration of Daizia Gray at ¶¶ 2-3.

17 Generally, Plaintiff claims that Defendant failed to pay for all time worked, failed to properly
18 calculate the regular rate of pay, failed to provide compliant meal and rest periods, failed to furnish 19 accurate itemized wage statements, failed to reimburse for business expenses, and failed to pay all wages
20 upon separation. Defendant forcefully denies liability for Plaintiff's claims. Further, Defendant asserts
21 that it fully complied with all applicable employment laws and raised several other significant defenses
22 to Plaintiff's claims, including but not limited to, asserting that it paid employees for all hours worked,
23 properly calculated the regular rate of pay, maintained facially compliant meal and rest period policies,
24 issued compliant wage statements, and timely paid all wages due upon separation of employment. SOZ
25 Dec., ¶ 11.

26 On February 6, 2024, Plaintiff filed a class action complaint in the Los Angeles Superior Court,
27 Case Number 24STCV03313 ("Action"). The Action alleged ten causes of action against Defendant for: (1) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198 (Unpaid Overtime); (2) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a) (Unpaid Meal Period Premiums); (3) Violation of California Labor Code § 226.7 (Unpaid Rest Period Premiums); (4) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 (Unpaid Minimum Wages); (5) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 (Final Wages Not Timely Paid); (6) Violation of California Labor Code § 204 (Wages Not Timely Paid During Employment); (7) Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a) (Non-Compliant Wage Statements); (8) Violation of California Labor Code § 1174(d) (Failure to Keep Requisite Payroll Records); (9) Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802 (Unreimbursed Business Expenses); and (10) Violation of California Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. SOZ Dec., ¶ 12.

On November 19, 2024, Plaintiff served Defendant and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency (“LWDA”) with a Notice of Violations (“PAGA Notice”). Plaintiff’s PAGA Notice set forth the facts and theories supporting Defendant’s alleged violations of various provisions of the California Labor Code and applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order and of her intent to pursue claims under California Labor Code Private Attorneys General Act, Cal. Lab. Code Sections 2698 et seq. (“PAGA”). SOZ Dec., ¶ 13.

The Parties agreed to mediate the Action. To prepare for mediation, the Parties agreed to informally produce additional documents and data points subject to the mediation privilege, including but not limited to, a sample of the Class Members’ time and payroll data and certain payroll data points. As discussed infra, Plaintiffs’ counsel retained the forensic consultants at Berger Consulting Group (“BCG”) to analyze Defendant’s time and payroll data. SOZ Dec., ¶ 14.

On February 21, 2025, the Parties participated in a full day mediation with wage and hour and PAGA mediator Lisa Klerman, Esq., which resulted in a settlement. Thereafter, the Parties drafted and negotiated a memorandum of understanding and subsequently, a long-form settlement agreement, which is the subject of the instant motion. SOZ Dec., ¶ 15.

On April 14, 2025, for purposes of effectuating the settlement, Plaintiff filed the operative First Amended Complaint, which added an eleventh cause of action for Violation of the Private Attorneys General Act. SOZ Dec., ¶ 16.

1 On December 30, 2025, this Court granted preliminary approval of the Settlement. SOZ Dec., ¶
2 4. On January 14, 2026, the Administrator mailed Notice Packets to all 197 Settlement Class Members.
3 Apex Dec., ¶ 7. The mailing of the Notice Packets triggered a forty-five (45) day Response Deadline for 4 the Settlement Class to submit requests for exclusion or objections to the Settlement. The response from 5 the Class to the Settlement was outstanding – 100% of the Class Members are participating in the 6 Settlement. Apex Dec., ¶ 14.

7 III. THE SETTLEMENT BEFORE THE COURT

8 The Court preliminarily approved a Gross Settlement Amount of Four Hundred Fifty Thousand 9 Dollars and Zero Cents ($450,000.00) based on an estimated 15,699 Workweeks² worked by the 10 Settlement Class during the Class Period. The Gross Settlement Amount shall be used: (1) to satisfy 11 Individual Class Payments; (2) to satisfy the Class Representative Service Payment; (3) to satisfy the 12 Class Counsel Attorneys' Fees and Class Counsel Litigation Costs; (4) to satisfy the PAGA Payment;
13 and (5) to satisfy the Administration Expenses Payment. SOZ Dec., ¶ 17.

14 Defendant will fund the Settlement by transferring the Gross Settlement Amount into a Qualified 15 Settlement Fund within sixty (60) days after the Effective Date. Agreement, § 4.3. The Administrator
16 shall mail the Individual Class Payments and Aggrieved Employee Payments to the Settlement Class
17 Members and Individual PAGA Payment within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Funding Date.
18 Agreement, § 4.4. The Administrator will calculate Individual Class Payments by dividing the Net 19 Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members and 20 multiplying the result by the number of Workweeks worked by each individual Participating Class 21 Member. Agreement, § 3.2.4. The estimated average Individual Class Payment is approximately 22 $1,134.82. Apex Dec., ¶ 16.

23 Upon entry of Final Judgment and Defendant fully funding the Gross Settlement Amount, the 24 Participating Class Members will release the Released Parties from the Released Class Claims. The 25

26 ² The Parties' Administrator has confirmed that the actual number of Workweeks worked by the Class is 15,976. This is 27 277 more Workweeks than the Agreement had estimated. However, given that the total number of Workweeks did not 28 exceed the estimated workweeks by more than 10%, the escalator clause pursuant to Section 8 of the Agreement was not triggered here. The Agreement estimated that there are a total of 197 Class Members. That number has not changed, and the Administrator confirmed that there were in fact 197 Class Members. SOZ Dec., ¶ 18.

Released Class Claims are the class claims that were alleged or reasonably could have been alleged in this Action, based on the facts alleged in the original complaint and/or First Amended Complaint, which occurred during the Class Period. These class claims include, but are not limited to, unpaid overtime, failure to pay meal and rest period, premiums, failure to calculate the correct regular rate of pay, unpaid minimum wages, final wages not timely paid, wages not timely paid during employment, noncompliant wage statements, failure to keep requisite payroll records, failure to pay for all hours worked, failure to reimburse business expenses, and meal and rest period violations. The Released Class Claims expressly exclude all other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, and class claims outside of the Class Period. Agreement, § 1.40.

Upon entry of Final Judgment and Defendant fully funding the Gross Settlement Amount, the Aggrieved Employees will release the Released Parties from the Released PAGA Claims. Agreement at §§ 5.2, 5.3. The Released PAGA Claims are all the PAGA claims alleged in this Action and in and Plaintiff's PAGA Notice to the LWDA, which occurred during the PAGA Period. The Released PAGA Claims expressly exclude all other claims, including claims for vested benefits, wrongful termination, unemployment insurance, disability, social security, workers' compensation, and PAGA claims outside of the PAGA Period. Agreement, § 1.41.

Apex Class Action LLC was appointed as the Administrator for the Class. The Administration Expenses Payment includes those expenses of effectuating and administering the Settlement, i.e., the costs incurred to the Administrator, the costs of giving notice to the Class, the costs of administering and disbursing the Individual Class Payments, and the fees of the Administrator approved for reimbursement by the court. The Administrator's expenses are $6,440.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 19. These expenses shall be paid from the Gross Settlement Amount. Agreement, §§ 3.2.3; 4.4.

Subject to the Court's approval, Class Counsel seeks a class counsel award in the amount of $176,962.12 comprised of attorneys' fees totaling $150,000.00, representing one-third of the Gross Settlement Amount, and $26,962.12 in actually incurred litigation expenses. Class Counsel are to split the fees as follows: 32.5% to the JCL Law Firm, APC, 32.5% to the Zakay Law Group, APLC, and 35% to Lawyers for Justice, PC. Plaintiff has agreed to this fee split in writing. SOZ Dec., ¶ 19. The Agreement also provides for a Class Representative Service Payment in an amount up to $10,000 for Plaintiff, in consideration of her time, risk, and efforts as the Class Representative on behalf of the Settlement Class and in exchange for a general release. Agreement, §§ 1.14; 3.2.1.

As explained in further detail below, the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable to the class and should be granted final approval.

IV. GENERAL STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

Settlements of disputed claims are favored by the courts. Huens v. Tatum (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 259, 265. In evaluating settlements, the courts have long recognized that compromise is particularly appropriate since such litigation is difficult and notoriously uncertain. 7-Eleven Owners for Fair Fran. v. Southland Corp. (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 1135, 1151 (“voluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute resolution. This is especially true in complex class action litigation”).

“[T]o prevent fraud, collusion or unfairness to the class, the settlement or dismissal of a class action requires court approval.” Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801 citing Malibu Outrigger Bd. Of Governors v. Superior Court (1980) 103 Cal.App.3d 573, 578-579. The court must decide whether the proposed settlement falls within the range of reasonable settlements, considering that settlements are compromises between the parties reflecting subjective, unquantifiable judgments concerning the risks and possible outcomes of litigation. See also Wershba v. Apple Computer (2001) 91 Cal.App.4th 224, 246 (The proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative measure of what might have been achieved had plaintiffs prevailed at trial.”). In Wershba, appellants argued that the settlement was too low given the “clear” liability, however, the Court rejected this argument and held that “the merits of the underlying class claims are not a basis for upsetting the settlement of a class action.” Wershba, supra, at 246; see also 7-Eleven, supra, at 1150.

In these cases, courts have repeatedly emphasized that there is a strong initial presumption that the compromise is fair and reasonable. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 245. Courts should not substitute their judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement. Id. at 246. The presumption of 1 fairness exists where: (1) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel and the court to act

2 intelligently; (2) the settlement is reached through arm's-length bargaining; (3) counsel is experienced
3 in similar litigation; and (4) the percentage of objectors is small. Dunk, 48 Cal.App.4th at 1801, citing
4 Newberg & Conte, Newberg on Class Actions, (3d ed. 1992) §11.41, pp. 11-91. Here, all of these factors 5 support a presumption of fairness.

6 The essential evaluation is whether, given the risks of litigation and the range of probable results,
7 the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable, and adequate to all concerned. Here, the facts and 8 circumstances compel the conclusion that the proposed Settlement satisfies that standard.

9 V. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

10 The court must determine whether the settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable. Dunk v. Ford
11 Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801; see also Officers for Justice v. Civil Service Com'n (9th 12 Cir. 1982) 688 F. 2d 615, 625. The purpose of the requirement is "the protection of those class members,
13 including the named plaintiffs, whose rights may not have been given due regard by the negotiating 14 parties." Dunk, supra, at 1801.

15 The trial court has broad discretion to determine whether the settlement is fair. Rebney v. Wells
16 Fargo Bank (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 1117, 1138. "The well-recognized factors that the trial court should 17 consider in evaluating the reasonableness of a class action settlement agreement include 'the strength of 18 plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of 19 maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery
20 completed and the stage of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a 21 governmental participant, and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.' [Citations.]"
22 Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc. (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 116, 128; see also Munoz v. BCI Coca-Cola
23 Bottling Co. of Los Angeles (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 399, 408.

24 The list of factors is not exhaustive and should be tailored to each case. Dunk, supra, at 1801.
25 Due regard should be given to what is otherwise a private consensual agreement between the parties.
26 Id. The inquiry "must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement 27 is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the 28

1 settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Id. “Ultimately, the 2 [trial] court's determination is nothing more than 'an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross
3 approximations and rough justice.' [Citation omitted.]” Id.

4 These factors are analyzed seriatim below and all support final approval of the Settlement before 5 this Court.

7 A. Class Counsel Conducted A Thorough Investigation.

8 As detailed in the motion for preliminary approval, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated the 9 proposed Class Members’ claims, applicable law, and potential defenses. Specifically, Class Counsel
10 assessed the value of the class claims using data and documents provided by Defendant through informal
11 discovery. Class Counsel obtained time, payroll, and policy records, as well as data regarding the number 12 of Class Members, workweeks, and average rate of pay to assess damages before mediation. Class 13 Counsel retained Berger Consulting Group (“BCG”) to analyze Defendant’s time and payroll data to 14 formulate damage models estimating Defendant’s liability exposure. Class Counsel’s investigation, 15 research, experience, and damage models informed and guided the mediated negotiations that resulted 16 in this settlement. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s Counsel fully understood the strengths and weaknesses of the 17 class claims before the parties reached a settlement. SOZ Dec., ¶ 20.

18 B. The Parties Settled at Mediation.

19 On February 21, 2025, the Parties conducted a full day of mediation with mediator Lisa Klerman,
20 Esq., who helped manage the Parties’ expectations and provided a useful, neutral analysis of the issues
21 and risks to both sides. The Parties made substantial progress with the mediator’s assistance. Namely, 22 the Parties exchanged information regarding their respective claims and defenses, including their 23 respective evaluation of the damages. After arm’s-length negotiations and bargaining, the Parties
24 reached an agreement to settle and signed a Memorandum of Understanding. The complete and final 25 terms of the Parties’ settlement are now set forth in the Agreement. Class Counsel submits that the 26 Settlement constitutes a fair, adequate, and reasonable compromise of the claims at issue. SOZ Dec., ¶ 27 21.

1 C. Class Counsel is Experienced in Similar Litigation.

2 Class Counsel in this matter has extensive class action experience in multiple fields and has 3 represented tens-of-thousands of persons in class actions. Counsel has previously litigated similar wage
4 and hour class actions involving similar claims. Class Counsel has been approved as class counsel in 5 similar wage and hour class actions throughout the State of California. As such, courts throughout 6 California have deemed Class Counsel experienced and knowledgeable in this area of law. Class
7 Counsel has participated in every aspect of the settlement discussions and has concluded the settlement
8 is fair, adequate, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Class. SOZ Dec., ¶¶ 22-24; Declaration
9 of Jean-Claude Lapuyade (“JCL Dec.”), ¶¶ 3-9; Declaration of Selena Matavosian, ¶¶ 16-22.

10 D. The Gross Settlement Amount is Fair and Reasonable.

11 The Gross Settlement Amount of Four Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents
12 ($450,000.00) in this case is fair and well within the range of recognized reasonableness. There is no
13 reversion to Defendant and Defendant must separately pay for their share of the employer payroll taxes³.
14 Agreement at § 3.1. The Kullar court acknowledged that “as the court does when it approves a settlement
15 as in good faith under Code of Civil Procedure section 877.6, the court must at least satisfy itself that 16 the class settlement is within the ‘ballpark’ of reasonableness.” Kullar, supra, at 129; See Tech-Bilt, Inc.
17 v. Woodward-Clyde & Associates, 38 Cal.3d 488, 499-500 (1985).)

18 Here, the Settlement is clearly within the “ballpark” of reasonableness because the Settlement
19 provides a sizeable recovery to the Settlement Class and need not necessarily obtain 100 percent of the 20 damages sought to be fair, reasonable, and ultimately, meaningful. Wershba, 91 Cal.App.4th at 250.
21 While the Gross Settlement Amount of $450,000.00 represents a discount on Defendant’s potential
22 exposure if Plaintiff established liability on all claims and was awarded the full amount of the estimated
23 damages at trial, this compromise is reasonable because (1) the formidable defenses raised by Defendant
24 presented a risk that the court could award significantly less in damages than Plaintiff’s estimate and (2)
25 any theoretical post-trial recovery may require many more years of litigation, resulting in added fees
26

27 ³ Twenty percent (20%) of each Participating Class Member’s Individual Class Payment will be allocated to settlement of 28 wage claims (the “Wage Portion”). The Wage Portions are subject to tax withholding and will be reported on an IRS W-2
Form. Agreement at § 3.2.4.1.

1 and costs without any guarantee of recovery for the Class. SOZ Dec., ¶ 25.

2 As detailed at the time of preliminary approval, the Gross Settlement Amount is fair and 3 reasonable considering the nature and magnitude of the claims being settled and the various potential
4 impediments to recovery. Class Counsel developed varied economic damages models measuring 5 Defendant's liability exposure while accounting for the uncertainties of continued litigation. The various 6 models were informed by Class Counsel's investigation, including the analysis of a significant sample⁴
7 of time and payroll data. As detailed in greater depth during the preliminary approval process, Class
8 Counsel projected a range of Defendant's liability exposure for the claims asserted on behalf of the 9 Settlement Class. The Gross Settlement Amount represents a recovery of 22.2% of Defendant's class-
10 wide liability exposure as estimated by Class Counsel at the time of mediation. SOZ Dec., ¶ 26.

11 In Stovall-Gusman v. W.W. Granger, Inc., 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78671, at * 4, the District Court
12 for the Northern District of California granted final approval in a wage and hour misclassification action
13 and found that the Gross Settlement Amount representing 10% of the estimated trial award was within 14 the "range of reasonableness." In In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 457 (9th Cir. 2000), 15 as amended (June 19, 2000), the Ninth Circuit approved a settlement representing "roughly one-sixth of 16 the potential recovery." Given the amount of the Gross Settlement Amount here as compared to the 17 potential value of the claims, the settlement is clearly fair and reasonable⁵.

18 The calculation methodology used to compensate the Settlement Class for the alleged damages
19 was negotiated at the time of the Settlement. More importantly, the methodology is fair, objective, and 20 impartial. The calculation methodology is based on the number of Workweeks each Participating Class
21 Member worked for Defendant during the Class Period. The number of Workweeks for the Participating

22 ⁴ As noted in Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval, Class Counsel requested a sample that would provide between 23 85% and 90% confidence level with a margin of error equal to or less than 10%. Based on this criterion, Class Counsel 24 ultimately accepted a sample of time and payroll records of 25% of the Class Members for purposes of determining Defendant's liability at the time of mediation. SOZ Dec., ¶ 27.

26 a California wage and hour settlement where the class received 11.6% of the estimated total liability, or approximately $29
27 per work week); Leverage v. Traeger Pellet Grills, LLC (N.D. Cal. June 28, 2017, No. 16-CV-00784) 2017 WL 2797811, at

In re Newbridge Networks Sec. Litig. (D.D.C. Oct. 23, 1998) 1998 WL 765724, at *2 ("Courts have not identified a precise numerical range within which a settlement must fall in order to be deemed reasonable; but an agreement that secures roughly six to twelve percent of a potential trial recovery, while preventing further expenditures and delays and eliminating the risk that no recovery at all will be won, seems to be within the targeted range of reasonableness.").

1 Class Members is established through Defendant's data and documented compensation records. The 2 Administrator is responsible for calculating the Individual Class Payments by dividing the Net
3 Settlement Amount by the total number of Workweeks worked by all Participating Class Members
4 during the Class Period and multiplying the result by each Participating Class Member's Workweeks.
5 This process establishes an objectively fair and reasonable procedure to compensate the Settlement
6 Class. Agreement, § 3.2.4.

7 The settlement also provides significant relief to the Participating Class Members. After 8 deductions for the amounts approved by the Court for the Class Representative Payment, Class Counsel
9 attorneys' fees and litigation expenses, the PAGA Payment, and the Administration Expenses Payment,
10 the Net Settlement Amount is currently estimated to be $223,560.00. Apex Dec., ¶ 15. The average
11 Individual Class Payment is approximately $1,134.82, and the highest is approximately $3,680.29. Apex
12 Dec., ¶ 16. This average net recovery is on par with many wage and hour class action settlements
13 approved by California state and federal courts. See, e.g., Palencia v. 99 Cents Only Stores, No. 34-
14 2010-00079619 (Sacramento County Super. Ct) (average net recovery of approximately $80); Fukuchi
15 v. Pizza Hut, Case No. BC302589 (LA. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately 16 $120); Contreras v. United Food Group, LLC, Case No. BC389253 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average
17 net recovery of approximately $120); Ressler v. Federated Department Stores, Inc., Case No. BC335018
18 (L.A. County Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $90); Doty v. Costco Wholesale Corp., 19 Case No. CV05-3241 FMC-JWJx (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2007) (average net recovery of approximately 20 $65); Sorenson v. PetSmart, Inc., Case No. 2:06-CV-02674-JAM-DAD (ED. Cal.) (average net recovery
21 of approximately $60); Lim v. Victoria's Secret Stores, Inc., Case No. 04CC00213 (Orange County
22 Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $35); and Gomez v. Amadeus Salon, Inc., Case No.
23 BC392297 (L.A. Super. Ct.) (average net recovery of approximately $20). Additionally, Defendant must 24 separately fund its share of any employer side payroll taxes. Agreement, § 3.1.

25 Clearly, the goal to obtain redress for the class has been reached by this Settlement. Given the 26 amount of the Gross Settlement Amount, the risks of litigation and the arm's length negotiations between 27 experienced counsel, the settlement is fair and reasonable, and is therefore entitled to final approval.

SOZ Dec., ¶ 28.

E. The Strength of Plaintiff's Case and Risks of Continued Litigation

Although Class Counsel believes strongly in Plaintiff's claims, it would be misguided to ignore the asserted defenses. If successful on any one of its defenses, Defendant could defend the action or, at least, drastically undercut Plaintiff's claims. SOZ Dec., ¶ 29. As the federal court in Glass v. UBS Fin. Servs., 2007 WL 221862 held, where the parties faced uncertainties similar to those in this litigation:

In light of the above-referenced uncertainty in the law, the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation likewise favors the settlement. Regardless of how this Court might have ruled on the merits of the legal issues, the losing party likely would have appealed, and the parties would have faced the expense and uncertainty of litigating an appeal. The expense and possible duration of the litigation should be considered in evaluating the reasonableness of [a] settlement.

With respect to the most immediate challenge, i.e., class certification, the risks attendant to the certification of similar wage and hour claims are demonstrated by Ali v. U.S.A. Cab Ltd. (2009) 176 Cal.App.4th 1333, 1341. There, the Court of Appeal affirmed the trial court's denial of class certification because employees' declarations attesting to having taken meal and rest breaks demonstrated that individualized inquiries were required to show harm. See also Campbell v. Best Buy Stores, L.P., (C.D. Cal. 2013) 2013 WL 5302217 at *11-13 (following Brinker and denying certification of proposed off-the-clock and rest and meal break classes due to lack of uniform policy); Brown v. Fed Express Corp. (C.D. Cal. 2008) 249 F.R.D. 580, 587-88 (denying certification of driver meal and rest period claims based on the predominance of individual issues). SOZ Dec., ¶ 30.

Further, even if a class is certified, liability remains uncertain. The risks attendant to the issue of the defendant's liability in similar wage and hour actions are demonstrated by Duran v. U.S. Bank National Association (2014) 59 Cal.4th 1, 31. There, the court reversed a trial verdict in favor of the plaintiffs in a wage and hour class action. See also Tien v. Tenet Healthcare Corp. (2012) 209 Cal.App.4th 1077, 1088 ("[T]he reason, if any, that employees might not take their breaks were predominantly individualized questions of fact not susceptible to class treatment."). SOZ Dec., ¶ 31.

1 Finally, even if a class is certified and Defendant is found liable for the class claims alleged, post-
2 certification risks remain, including a reversal of a favorable judgment for Plaintiff and decertification
3 of the class. These post-certification risks are demonstrated by Magadia v. Wal-Mart Associates, Inc.
4 (9th Cir. 2021) 999 F.3d 668. There, the Ninth Circuit vacated, reversed and remanded a $110 million
5 judgment against an employer for, inter alia, inaccurately paying overtime, and directed the trial court
6 to enter judgment in favor of the employer. See also O'Connor v. Uber Technologies, Inc. (9th Cir.
7 2018) 904 F.3d 1087 (decertification of wage and hour misclassification action). Collectively, the 8 examples cited above illustrate the uncertain nature of class litigation. Consequently, the uncertainty of 9 obtaining certification through a contested motion is a significant risk factor favoring settlement.

10 Although Plaintiff is confident about the strength of her claims, Plaintiff nevertheless recognizes 11 that Defendant has factual and legal defenses that, if successful, would potentially defeat or impair the 12 value of the lawsuit. Legally, the fast-changing landscape of wage and hour litigation can drastically 13 affect the value of Plaintiff's claims and, in fact, already has. SOZ Dec., ¶ 32.

14 In a similar wage and hour case, the federal district court in Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., 2009
15 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33900 at * 19-20 (N.D. Cal. 2009), granted approval of an overtime class action
16 settlement and explained:

17 Plaintiffs may have a strong case, but the risks inherent in continued
18 litigation are great. Defendants strongly deny liability for Plaintiffs'
19 principal claim that full-time Service Associates were misclassified as 20 exempt. In addition to the uncertainties raised by Defendants at the 21 preliminary stage regarding Plaintiffs' chance of success in this case, 22 Defendants notes that the question of an employer's duty to provide rest and 23 meal periods is an open one, signaling even less certainty for 24 Plaintiffs.....[T]he Total Settlement amount and the Class Members'
25 expected net recovery, after fees and other costs are deducted, appear 26 to be a reasonable compromise, in light of the risks of litigation.

27 See also Browning v. Yahoo!, Inc., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 86266, at *30 (N.D. Cal. 2007) ("In 28 considering the strength of Plaintiffs' case, legal uncertainties at the time of settlement - particularly those which go to fundamental legal issues - favor approval.").

As recognized in a federal decision approving settlement of an overtime wage class action:

The potential complexity and possible duration of trial also weigh in favor of granting final approval. Plaintiffs acknowledge the difficulties

1 of proving damages, recognize the uncertainty of outcome, and believe
2 defendant would appeal in the event of adverse judgment. A post-judgment
3 appeal would require many years to resolve and delay payment to class
4 members. Plaintiffs believe the benefits of a guaranteed recovery today
5 outweigh an uncertain future result. Accordingly, plaintiffs argue, and the 6 Court agrees, the actual recovery confers substantial benefits on the class
7 that outweigh the potential recovery through full adjudication.

9 Barcia v. Contain-A-Way, Inc., 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17118, *9 (S.D. Cal. 2009); see also Louie v.
10 Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 78314, *14 (S.D. Cal. 2008).

11 In sum, while other cases have approved class certification in wage and hour claims, class
12 certification in this action would have been hotly disputed and was by no means a foregone conclusion.
13 Where both sides face significant uncertainty, as here, the attendant risks favor settlement. Hanlon v.
14 Chrysler Corp. (9th Cir. 1998) 150 F.3d 1011, 1026.)

15 The Class Representative and Class Counsel recognize the expense and length of a trial against 16 Defendant through possible appeals, which could take years. In arriving at their informed belief that the 17 present settlement is fair and adequate, Class Counsel accounted for the uncertain outcome and risk
18 inherent in complex actions such as this one. Class Counsel is also mindful of and recognizes the 19 inherent problems of proof under, and alleged defenses to, the claims asserted in the litigation.
20 Moreover, post-trial motions and appeals would have been inevitable. Costs would have mounted, and 21 recovery would have been delayed if not denied, thereby reducing the benefits of an ultimate victory.
22 Class Representative and Class Counsel believe that the Settlement confers substantial monetary and 23 non-monetary benefits upon the Class. Based upon their evaluation, Class Representative and Class
24 Counsel have determined that the Settlement set forth in the Agreement is in the best interest of the 25 Class, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be granted final approval. SOZ Dec., ¶ 33.

26 VI. THE PENALTIES UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL ACT OF 2004 ARE 27 REASONABLE

28 Where settlements “negotiate a good faith amount” for PAGA penalties and “there is no indication that this amount was the result of self-interest at the expense of class members,” such amounts are generally considered reasonable. Hopson v. Hanesbrands Inc., No. CV-08-0844 EDL, 2009 WL 928133, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 3, 2009). Courts routinely approve of amounts for PAGA penalties in the

1 range of zero to two percent of the settlement. See id. at *1, 9 (approving a PAGA payment of 0.3%);
2 Jack v. Hartford Fire Ins. Co., No. 09cv1683 MMA (JMA), 2011 WL 4899942, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Oct.
3 13, 2011) (approving a PAGA payment of 0.25%); McKenzie v. Fed. Express Corp., No. CV 10-02420
4 GAF (PLAx), 2012 WL 12882124, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 23, 2012) (acknowledging that courts approve 5 PAGA claim settlements in the range of zero to two percent of the total settlement).

6 Here, Plaintiff and Defendant negotiated a good faith PAGA Payment in the amount of $25,000,
7 which is 5.5% of the Gross Settlement Amount. As illustrated above, this amount falls well within the 8 range of approved PAGA settlements. Sixty-five percent (65%) of the PAGA Payment ($16,250.00)
9 will be paid to the LWDA ("LWDA Payment") with the remaining thirty-five percent (35%) of the 10 PAGA Payment ($8,750.00) to be distributed to the Aggrieved Employees as Individual PAGA
11 Payments, which is within the range of PAGA penalties approved by courts and should be approved.
12 SOZ Dec., ¶ 35.

13 Class Counsel gave the LWDA notice of this Settlement and proposed allocation by filing a copy
14 of the Settlement, the Motion for Preliminary Approval, and this motion seeking final approval with the 15 LWDA. SOZ Dec., ¶¶ 5-6, 35. By not registering an objection with either Class Counsel or the Court, 16 the LWDA has accepted and approved of the proposed PAGA Payment.

17 VII. CONCLUSION

18 Plaintiff respectfully submits that the proposed Settlement satisfies the standard of fairness
19 established in California law and should therefore be finally approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate,
20 and requests entry of the Final Approval Order and Judgment submitted herewith.
