1 Plaintiff CARLOS BAHENA (“Plaintiff”) individually and on behalf of other members
2 of the general public similarly situated, and as a private attorney general, based upon facts that 3 either have evidentiary support or are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable
4 opportunity for further investigation and discovery, alleges as follows:

5 PRELIMINARY ALLEGATIONS

6 1. Plaintiff brings this action against Defendants NEW WAY LANDSCAPE &
7 TREE SERVICES, NEW WAY TREE SERVICES, INC., and DOES 1 THROUGH 50
8 (hereinafter also collectively referred to as “Defendants”) for California Labor Code violations,
9 unfair business practices, and civil penalties stemming from Defendants’ failure to pay overtime
10 compensation, failure to provide meal periods, failure to authorize and permit rest periods, failure
11 to pay minimum wage, failure to timely pay wages, failure to provide accurate wage statements, 12 failure to maintain accurate time and payroll records, and failure to reimburse necessary business-
13 related expenses.

14 2. Plaintiff’s First through Eighth Causes of Action are brought as a class action on 15 behalf of himself and similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants (hereinafter
16 collectively referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members”, as defined more fully in paragraph 17 14, below) pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages
18 and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court 19 and will be established according to proof at trial.

20 3. Plaintiff’s Ninth Cause of Action is brought as a representative action on behalf of 21 himself and certain other current and former employees of Defendants against whom one or more
22 of the alleged violations was committed (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Aggrieved
23 Employees”) pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2698, et seq. Plaintiff is an aggrieved
24 employee against whom one or more of the alleged violations occurred. The civil penalties sought
25 by Plaintiff exceed the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established 26 according to proof at trial.

27 4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution,
28 Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court “original jurisdiction in all other causes”

1 except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do 2 not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

3 5. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief,
4 Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or 5 otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of 6 jurisdiction over them by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and 7 substantial justice.

8 6. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants 9 maintain offices, have agents, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of San 10 Diego.

11 7. Defendant NEW WAY LANDSCAPE & TREE SERVICES is and at all times 12 herein mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of 13 California, and registered to do business in the state of California.

14 8. Defendant NEW WAY TREE SERVICES, INC. is and at all times herein
15 mentioned was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, 16 and registered to do business in the state of California.

17 9. Plaintiff is ignorant of the identities of defendants Does 1 through 50, inclusive, 18 and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. The Doe defendants may be 19 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. Plaintiff is informed and believe, and thereon alleges,
20 that, at all times mentioned herein, each of the Doe defendants was the parent, subsidiary, agent, 21 servant, employee, co-venturer, and/or co-conspirator of each of the other defendants, and was at 22 all times mentioned acting within the scope, purpose, consent, knowledge, ratification and 23 authorization of such agency, employment, joint venture and conspiracy. Plaintiff will amend this 24 Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 25 believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named Doe defendants is responsible in 26 some manner for the occurrences herein alleged, and that Plaintiff's damages as herein alleged 27 were proximately caused by its conduct. NEW WAY LANDSCAPE & TREE SERVICES, NEW 28 WAY TREE SERVICES, INC., and Doe Defendants 1 through 50 are collectively referred to herein as “Defendants.”

10. Defendants are and at all times herein mentioned were, (a) conducting business in the County of San Diego State of California, and (b) the employer of Plaintiff consistent with the California Labor Code and Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders (“Wage Orders”).

11. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and employers jointly liable under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

12. Plaintiff brings the First through Eighth Causes of Action as class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all other members of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

13. The proposed class is defined as follows: All current and former non-exempt employees of any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time commencing four (4) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s complaint up until the time that notice of the certified class action is provided to the class (hereinafter referred to as the “Class” or “Class Members.”)

14. Plaintiff reserves the right to establish other subclasses as appropriate.

15. The Class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The Class Members are so numerous that joinder of all Class Members is impracticable. The membership of the entire Class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the Class is estimated to be over fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants’ employment records.
- b. Typicality: Plaintiff’s claims are typical of all other Class Members demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other Class Members with whom he has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each Class

1 Member, with whom he has a well-defined community of interest and typicality
2 of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to 3 the other Class Members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are 4 versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
5 Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to 6 incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily 7 expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each Class 8 Member.

- 9 d. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 10 efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all Class
11 Members is impractical.
- 12 e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will 13 advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate 14 employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to 15 assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class 16 actions provide the Class Members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

17 16. There are common questions of law and fact as to the Class that predominate over 18 questions affecting only individual members. The following common questions of law or fact, 19 among others, exist as to the members of the Class:

- 20 a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement, or reduction, in 21 accordance with the California Labor Code was willful;
- 22 b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff 23 and the other Class Members for all hours worked, and missed, short, late or 24 interrupted meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;
- 25 c. Whether Defendants required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work more 26 than eight (8) hours per day and/or more than forty (40) hours per week and failed
27 to pay the legally required overtime compensation to Plaintiff and the other Class 28

Members;

- d. Whether Defendants deprived Plaintiff and the other Class Members of meal and/or rest periods or required Plaintiff and the other Class Members to work during meal and/or rest periods without compensation;
- e. Whether Defendants failed to pay meal period premium wages to Class Members when they were not provided with a legally compliant meal period;
- f. Whether Defendants failed to pay rest period premium wages to class Members when they were not authorized and permitted to take legally compliant rest periods.
- g. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum wages to Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all hours worked;
- h. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the required minimum wage pursuant to California law;
- i. Whether Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members proper overtime compensation pursuant to California law;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to pay all wages due to Plaintiff and the other Class Members within the time required upon their discharge or resignation from employment;
- k. Whether Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the other Class Members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs in violation of Cal. Labor Code section 2802;
- l. Whether Defendants complied with wage reporting as required by the California Labor Code, including section 226;
- m. Whether Defendants' conduct was with malice, fraud or oppression;
- n. Whether Defendants' conduct was willful or reckless;
- o. Whether Defendants engaged in unfair business practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. based on its improper withholding of compensation and deduction of wages;

- 1 p. The appropriate amount of damages, restitution, and/or monetary penalties
2 resulting from Defendants' violation of California law; and
3 q. Whether Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to compensatory
4 damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

5 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

6 17. Defendants are a landscape, water and tree management service for commercial 7 properties, homeowners associations, hotels, and military and government facilities,
8 headquartered in San Diego, California.

9 18. Defendants employed Plaintiff to work as a non-exempt, hourly paid landscaper
10 from approximately May 2019 to August 2019.

11 19. At all relevant times set forth herein, Defendants employed Plaintiff, the Class, 12 and the Aggrieved Employees as hourly-paid or non-exempt employees.

13 20. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants had the authority to 14 hire and terminate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; to directly or indirectly 15 control work rules, working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 16 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees; and to hire and terminate the employment of 17 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

18 21. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants were subject to the Labor Code of the 19 State of California and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission Orders.

20 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges that Defendants engaged in 21 an ongoing and systematic scheme of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt
22 employees. As set forth in more detail below, this scheme involved, inter alia, regularly requiring 23 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work off the clock without compensation, 24 thereby failing to pay them for all hours worked, including minimum and overtime wages.
25 Defendants also implemented time rounding practices that resulted in the systematic 26 underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees, including minimum
27 and overtime wages. Defendants also implemented policies that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class,
28 and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the actual time worked, resulting in a

1 failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed. In addition,
2 Defendants routinely failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take 3 timely and duty-free meal periods and rest periods in violation of California law. Defendants also 4 failed to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-
5 related expenses.

6 23. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
7 policies and practices which failed to provide Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees
8 with timely and duty-free meal periods. Defendants routinely failed to relieve Plaintiff, the Class,
9 and the Aggrieved Employees of all duties during their meal periods, regularly failed to relinquish
10 control over Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees during their meal periods,
11 regularly failed to permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees a reasonable 12 opportunity to take their meal periods, and regularly impeded or discouraged Plaintiff, the Class,
13 and the Aggrieved Employees from taking thirty (30) minute uninterrupted meal breaks no later
14 than the end of their fifth hour of work and/or from taking a second thirty (30) minute 15 uninterrupted meal break no later than their tenth hour of work for shifts lasting more than ten 16 (10) hours. Defendants also failed to maintain accurate records of meal periods taken by Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

17 24. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
18 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take meal periods under
19 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
20 regarding the provision and timing of meal periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
21 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class,
22 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way the prohibited them from taking timely and duty-free meal
23 periods, and to require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to work through their 24 meal periods, for which they were not compensated.

25 25. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
26 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for meal periods that were 27 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should 28

1 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
2 meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a meal
3 period was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants
4 routinely failed to provide legally compliant meal periods to Plaintiff, the Class, and the 5 Aggrieved Employees, and routinely failed pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class,
6 and the Aggrieved Employees at their regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, short,
7 late, and/or interrupted.

8 26. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants have implemented
9 policies and practices which prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from 10 taking timely and duty-free rest periods. Defendants regularly failed to provide, authorize, and 11 permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take full, uninterrupted, off-duty rest 12 periods for every shift lasting three and one-half (3.5) to six (6) hours and/or two full,
13 uninterrupted, off-duty rest periods for every shift lasting six (6) to ten (10) hours, and failed to 14 make a good faith effort to authorize, permit, and provide such rest breaks in the middle of each work period.

15 27. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants did not adequately
16 inform Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees of their right to take rest periods under
17 California law. Moreover, Defendants systematically disregarded their own written policies
18 regarding the provision and timing of rest periods for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
19 Employees. Instead, Defendants' actual policy and practice was to schedule Plaintiff, the Class, 20 and the Aggrieved Employees in a way that regularly prohibited them from taking timely and 21 duty free rest periods, and to regularly require Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 22 to work through their rest periods.

23 28. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
24 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees premium wages for rest periods that were 25 missed, late, interrupted, or shortened in violation of California law. Defendants knew or should
26 have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to receive all
27 rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at their regular rate of pay when a rest period
28

1 was missed, short, late, and/or interrupted. Notwithstanding this knowledge, Defendants routinely
2 failed to authorize and permit Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to take duty-free
3 rest periods, and failed to pay one additional hour of pay to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees at their regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, short, late and/or 5 interrupted.

6 29. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendant regularly required
7 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off-the-clock. Although 8 Defendants prohibited overtime, Defendants still regularly required that Plaintiff, the Class, and 9 the Aggrieved Employees complete all of their assigned duties. To do so, Plaintiff, the Class, and 10 the Aggrieved Employees were regularly required to perform work off-the-clock for which they 11 were not compensated.

12 30. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants employed a time
13 rounding policy that was not neutral and designed to consistently round time in Defendants' favor,
14 ensuring that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were oftentimes not paid for all 15 time worked.

16 31. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants implemented policies 17 that prohibited Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees from accurately recording the 18 actual time worked, resulting in a failure to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 19 all wages owed.

20 32. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Plaintiff, the Class, and the 21 Aggrieved Employees worked more than eight (8) hours in a day, and/or forty (40) hours in a 22 week.

23 33. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 24 pay all overtime compensation owed to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees when 25 they worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a single work day and/or forty (40) hours in a single 26 work week. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 27 Employees were entitled to receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were 28 not receiving wages for overtime compensation.

1 34. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants failed to pay
2 overtime to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all overtime hours worked 3 based on regular rates of pay correctly calculated to include all applicable remuneration.

4 35. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 5 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees at least minimum wages for all hours
6 worked. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
7 Employees were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for all hours worked and that they 8 were not receiving at least minimum wages for all hours worked. Defendants' failure to pay
9 minimum wages included, inter alia, failing to pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
10 Employees at the required minimum wage pursuant to California law, requiring Plaintiff, the 11 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees to perform work off the clock, and implementing time
12 rounding policies that resulted in the systematic underpayment of wages to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.

13 36. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 14 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed to them upon discharge or 15 resignation. Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
16 Employees were entitled to receive all wages owed to them upon termination within the time
17 permissible under California Labor Code section 202. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
18 Employees did not receive payment of all final wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, 19 including overtime compensation and minimum wages within any time permissible under 20 California Labor Code section 202.

21 37. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 22 pay Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees all wages within any time permissible
23 under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204. Defendants knew 24 or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees were entitled to 25 receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
26 Employees did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime compensation, minimum 27 wages, and meal and rest period premiums.
28

1 38. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to
2 provide complete or accurate wage statements to Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
3 Employees. Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved
4 Employees were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with 5 California law, but, in fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from 6 Defendants. The deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours
7 worked, the actual gross wages earned, the correct rates of pay, and net wages earned.

8 39. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 9 keep complete or accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees.
10 Defendants knew or should have known that Defendants were required keep complete and 11 accurate payroll records for Plaintiff, the Class and the Aggrieved Employees in accordance with 12 California law, but, in fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

13 40. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants regularly failed to 14 maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff's, the Class', and the Aggrieved Employees' work 15 periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, and applicable pay rates.

16 41. Throughout the time period involved in this Case, Defendants failed to reimburse
17 Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees for all necessary business-related expenses, 18 including but not limited to boots, gloves, and protective eyeglasses. Defendants knew or should 19 have known that Defendants were required to reimburse Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved 20 Employees for all necessary business-related expenses and costs, but, in fact, failed to do so in 21 violation of California law.

22 42. Throughout the time period involved in this case, Defendants knew or should have 23 known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiff, the Class, and the Aggrieved Employees 24 pursuant to California law. Defendants had the financial ability to pay such compensation, but 25 willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiff, the 26 Class, and the Aggrieved Employees that they paid all wages owed to them, all in order to increase 27 Defendants' profits.

28 43. California Labor Code section 218 states that nothing in Article 1 of the Labor

Code shall limit the right of any wage claimant to “sue directly ... for any wages or penalty due to him [or her] under this article.”

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198)

(Against All Defendants)

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

45. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission (“IWC”) Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person’s regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

46. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

47. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiff and the Class overtime compensation at a rate of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day and for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours on the seventh day of work in a workweek.

48. California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and no overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

49. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members regularly worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed to 1 pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiff and the other Class Members.

2 51. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the unpaid
3 balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of 4 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

5 52. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiff and the other Class
6 Members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 7 attorneys' fees.

8 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a))

10 (Against All Defendants)

11 53. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 12 every allegation set forth above.

13 54. At all relevant times, the relevant IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 14 226.7 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiff and the other Class Members' employment by 15 Defendants.

16 55. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 17 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 18 applicable order of the California IWC.

19 56. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code
20 section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work
21 for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal 22 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the 23 employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of 24 both the employer and employee.

25 57. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 512(a) further provides that 26 an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more 27 than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal 28 period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than

1 twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and 2 the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

3 58. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 4 scheduled to work for a period of time longer than six (6) hours, and who did not waive their 5 legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for periods longer than 6 five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes.

7 59. During the relevant time period, Plaintiff and the other Class Members who were 8 scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of ten (10) hours were required to work for 9 periods longer than ten (10) hours without a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than 10 thirty (30) minutes.

11 60. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully required
12 Plaintiff and the other Class Members to miss their meal periods and to take meal periods that 13 were late, shortened, or interrupted, and failed to compensate Plaintiff and the other Class
14 Members the full meal period premium for missed, shortened, late, or interrupted meal periods.

15 61. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the other
16 Class Members the full meal period premiums due pursuant to California Labor Code section 17 226.7.

18 62. Defendants' conduct violates the applicable IWC Wage Order and California
19 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

20 63. Pursuant to the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section
21 226.7(b), Plaintiff and the other Class Members are entitled to recover from Defendants one

28 every allegation set forth above.

1 65. At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor
2 Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiff and the other class members' employment by
3 Defendants.

4 66. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no
5 employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable
6 order of the California IWC.

7 67. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that “[e]very 8 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 9 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period” and that the “rest period time shall be 10 based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4)
11 hours or major fraction thereof unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-half (3.5) hours.”

12 68. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiff and other Class
13 Members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute rest 14 period per each four (4) hour period worked.

15 69. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiff and the

4 (Against All Defendants)

5 73. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and
6 every allegation set forth above.

7 74. At all relevant times, California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1 8 provide that the minimum wage to be paid to employees and the payment of a lesser wage than 9 the minimum so fixed is unlawful.

10 75. During the relevant time period, Defendants regularly failed to pay minimum wage
11 to Plaintiff and the other Class Members as required pursuant to California Labor Code sections
12 1194, 1197, and 1197.1.

13 76. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and the other Class Members the minimum 14 wage as required violates California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 1197.1. Pursuant to

26 79. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 202

28 discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her employment, his

1 or her wages shall become due and payable not later seventy-two (72) hours thereafter, unless the 2 employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her intention to quit, in which case
3 the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of quitting.

4 80. During the relevant time period, the employment of Plaintiff and many other Class
5 Members with Defendant ended, i.e. was terminated by quitting or discharge. Defendants
6 intentionally and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer
7 employed by Defendants all of their wages, earned and unpaid, including but not limited to 8 minimum wages, straight time wages, and overtime wages, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 9 leaving Defendants' employ.

10 81. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff and other Class Members who are no longer 11 employed by Defendants their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their 12 leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202.

20 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 84. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and

16 88. More specifically, Plaintiff and the Class have been injured by Defendants'
17 intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) because they were 18 denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and 19 itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(a).

20 89. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their 21 actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California Labor Code section 22 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per employee.

23 90. Plaintiff and the Class are also entitled to injunctive relief to ensure compliance
24 with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(g).

25 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

26 (Violation of California Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802)

27 (Against All Defendants)

28 91. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

93. Plaintiff and the Class incurred necessary business-related expenses and costs that were not fully reimbursed by Defendants. Defendants' failure to reimburse for all necessary business-related expenses and costs including its failure to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for costs incurred as a result of, including not limited, simple negligence.

94. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to reimburse Plaintiff and the Class for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to recover from Defendants their business-related expenses and costs incurred during the course and scope of their employment, plus interest accrued from the date on which the employee incurred the necessary expenditures at the same rate as judgments in civil actions in the State of California.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of Cal. Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

95. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and every allegation set forth above.

96. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff and the Class, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

97. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

98. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies

1 and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and the Class, to work overtime without 2 paying them proper compensation violate California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
3 Additionally, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiff and 4 the Class, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation
5 violate California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Moreover, Defendants' policies and 6 practices of failing to timely pay wages to Plaintiff and the Class violate California Labor Code 7 sections 201, 202, 203 and 204.

8 99. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections, 221, 226(a), 1194, 1197, 9 1197.1, 510, 1174(d), 2800, and 2802.

10 100. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 11 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

12 101. Plaintiff and the Class have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful 13 business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of 14 money and/or property.

15 102. Pursuant to California Business & Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.,
16 Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to restitution of the wages withheld and retained by Defendants
17 during a period that commences four years prior to the filing of this Complaint; an award of 18 attorneys' fees pursuant to California Code of Civil procedure section 1021.5 and other applicable 19 laws; and an award of costs.

20 NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

21 (Violation of California Labor Code § 2699, Et Seq.)

22 (Against All Defendants)

23 103. Plaintiff incorporates by reference and re-alleges as if fully stated herein each and 24 every allegation set forth above.

25 104. Plaintiff brings his ninth cause of action as a representative action on behalf of 26 himself and similarly Aggrieved Employees in the capacity as a private attorney general pursuant 27 to the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004, California Labor Code section 2698, et seq.
28 ("PAGA").

1 105. PAGA specifically provides for a private right of action to recover civil penalties
2 for violations of the Labor Code as follows: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any
3 provision of this code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the Labor
4 and Workforce Development Agency or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards,
5 agencies, or employees, for a violation of this code, may, as an alternative, be recovered through 6 a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself and other current 7 or former employees pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 2699.3.” Cal. Lab. Code § 8 2699(a).

9 106. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants and the Labor Code violations alleged above
10 were committed against him during his time of employment. Plaintiff is therefore, an “aggrieved 11 employee” under PAGA.

12 107. As set forth in detail above, during all times relevant to this Action, Defendant
13 has routinely subjected Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to violations of California Labor 14 Codes by:

- 15 a. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned minimum wage 16 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 1194 and 1198 et seq.;
- 17 b. Failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all earned overtime
18 compensation in violation of Labor Code §§ 204, 510, 1194, and 1198 et seq.;
- 19 c. Failing to provide legally required meal periods to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 20 Employees, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees an additional 21 hour of premium pay for meal period violations in violation of Labor Code §§
22 226.7 and 512.
- 23 d. Failing to provide authorize and permit Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees to 24 take duty-free rest periods, and failing to pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved 25 Employees an additional hour of premium pay for rest period violations in 26 violation of Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512.
- 27 e. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages at end of 28 their employment in violation of Labor Code § 203.

- f. Failing to timely pay Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees all wages owed during employment in violation of Labor Code § 204.
- g. Failing to furnish Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees with complete, accurate, itemized wage statements in violation of Labor Code § 226;
- h. Failing to maintain accurate records relating to Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees' work periods, meal periods, total daily hours, hours per pay period, total wages and compensation, and applicable pay rates in violation of Labor Code § 1174(d) and the applicable IWC Wage Order.
- i. Failing to reimburse Plaintiff and the Aggrieved Employees for necessary business-related expenses in violation of Labor Code §§ 2800 and 2802.

108. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699 and 2699.5, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Aggrieved Employees and the State of California, requests and is entitled to recover penalties against Defendants for the Labor Code violations described above, including but not limited to penalties under California Code of Regulations Title section 11010, penalties under California Labor Code sections 2699, 558, 210, 1197.1, 226, 226.3 and 1174.5, and any and all additional penalties and sums as provided by the California Labor Code and/or other statutes. The exact amount of the applicable penalties, in all, is in an amount to be shown according to proof at trial.

109. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3. On July 20, 2020, Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, by online filing with the Labor and Workforce Development Agency ("LWDA") and by certified mail to the Defendants, notified Defendants and the LWDA of the specific provisions of the Labor Code and IWC Wage Orders that Defendants have violated, including the facts and theories to support the violations, and of Plaintiff's intent to bring a claim for civil penalties under PAGA. Plaintiff also paid the filing fee required under Labor Code § 2699.3. As of the filing of this Complaint, more than 65 days have elapsed since the mailing of Plaintiff's July 20, 2020 notice, and the Labor and Workforce Development Agency has not indicated that it intends to investigate the violations discussed in the

1 notice. Accordingly, Plaintiff may commence a civil action to recover penalties for himself and 2 other Aggrieved Employees pursuant to Labor Code § 2699.3.

3 110. Plaintiff was compelled to retain the services of counsel to file this court action to 4 protect his interests and the Aggrieved Employees, and to assess and collect the civil penalties
5 owed by Defendants. Plaintiff therefore seeks an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs
6 pursuant to Labor Code § 2699(g)(1), and any other applicable statute.

7 111. Plaintiff may amend this complaint as a matter of right pursuant to California
8 Labor Code § 2699.3 as this complaint has been filed within sixty days of the time periods
9 specified in Labor Code §2699.3
